Q You know that your fathers rights were disputed,—that there was some question about it? A. Yes sir I know they was disputed some.
Q You know that he went to Tallagah about it? A. I dont know about that Q You dont know of him going there when you was 5 or 6 years old? .
No sir.
Q Never heard of that, never heard him say he had? A. No sir.
Q You never heard of any other Jeff Lyons in the Cherokee Nation did you?
A No sir.
Q You have always lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since you can remember? A. Yes sir.

By Gen'r Needles,—

Elias Lyons applies for the enrollment of himself and one child, Nelson J., four years old; his name is not found on the authenticated roll of 1880, but he is found on the Kears-Clifton roll and is identified thereby as that applicant. He avers that he was lawfully married to one Martha Roe and presents proof of marriage which is filed herewith; he avers that the result of said marriage is one child, Nelson J., and he makes satisfactory proof of the birth of said child. Reference is made to the testimony taken in the case of Ned Lyons, D. Card No. 251, and said testimony will be made a part of the record in this case. Consequently the said Elias Lyons and his child Nelson J., will be placed on a doubtful card as Cherokee Freedmen to await the further consideration of the Commission, When the Commission arrives as a final decision in this case, the applicant will be notified by mail thereof.

In the matter of the application of Ned Lyons for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman.

In the matter of the application of Rachel Landrum for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman.

In the matter of the application of Elias Lyons for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman.

Supplemental testimony.

Both applicant and Cherokee Nation present by their attorneys of record.

Allen Lynch, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Mr. Smith: What is your name? A Allen Lynch.

Q You testified here yesterday in the case of Ned Lyons, did you?

A Yes, sir.

Q You spoke of having acted as administrator on the estate of the father of Ned Lyons, who was Jefferson Lyons; I will ask you to look at that paper (hands witness paper). A I think this is what you want.

Q Look at this paper (hands witness paper). A I can't read that writing.

Q Where did you get these papers? A I got some of them from Joe Ward

Q Who was Joe Ward? A He was the Judge.

Q Judge of what? A Judge of Delaware district, District Judge.

Q In the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir, certified I think by Tom Buffington when he was Judge, one of them from the Agent.

Mr. Smith: Now if the Court please, I desire to offer Letters of Administration issued on the first day of October, 1888, by J. L. Ward, Judge of the District Court of the Delaware District of the Cherokee Nation, letters of administration to Allen Lynch as administrator of the estate of Jeff Lyons.

Mr. Hastings: Comes now the representatives of the Cherokee Nation and object to the introduction of the testimony because the same is not duly attested, does not bear the attest or the signature of the Clerk of the District, nor does it have his seal.

Commissioner: It will be filed.

Mr. Smith: Mr. Lynch, was the Jeff Lyons whose estate you testified that you administered, related to Ned Lyons in whose case you testified yesterday? A His father.

Mr. Smith: I desire to offer the report of Allen Lynch as administrator of the estate of Jeff Lyons, which was approved—

Mr. Hastings: The report will show for itself; don't give the contents in the filing.

Mr. Smith: I just submit it then.

Mr. Hastings: Comes now the representatives of the Cherokee Nation and object to what purports to be a report, first for the reason that it is not a certified copy of the report; second, that it bears neither attestation or any official seal; third, it is not shown that the witness is the custodian of the official records of the Delaware district; and fourth, it is not shown that the records are lost; and lastly, that the record is the best testimony and this does not purport to be a copy of the record. I don't see how there can be any excuse for offering that last, because he don't claim to be the custodian of that, and it is just a slip of paper with marks ing on it.

Mr. Smith: I am not offering all my proof at this time, I will come to that later.

Mr. Hastings: I mean this, and I think that ought not to be allowed filed.

Mr. Smith: I will prove before I get through with it that that report was approved by T. M. Buffington, Judge, in the matter of the administration of the estate of this applicant's father, and it is not a certified copy because it is the original and signed by T. M. Buffington.

Mr. Smith: Now I offer an order of Court in the matter of the administration of Ned Lyons, signed by J. L. Ward, District Judge.

Commissioner: Is there any contention that this man here was the administrator?

Mr. ~~Hastings~~ Smith: They objected yesterday on the ground that his statement was not the best evidence of the fact.

Mr. Hastings: Comes now the attorneys for the Cherokee Nation and object to the piece of note paper upon which a few letters are written under date of May 7, 1889, claimed to be an order of Court, first, for the reason that it is not officially attested, there being no seal attached to the same; second, it is not shown that the records are lost or destroyed, and there has been no attempt to show the same in an official way, and third, it is not shown that this witness is the custodian of the official records.

Mr. Smith: Now I desire to ~~have~~ offer a decision of the Indian Agent, Leo E. Bennett, located at Union Agency, dated Muskogee, June 13, 1889, in a matter pertaining to the administration of the estate of Jeff Lyons.

Mr. Hastings: Comes now the representatives of the Cherokee Nation and object to the introduction of the testimony for the reason that the letter signed by Leo E. Bennett, United States Indian Agent, has no relevancy whatever in the matter in controversy.

Mr. Smith: Do you recollect Mr. Lynch with regard to the report of your expenses which I showed you, as to whether Mr. Buffington signed that; can you state whether he signed it or not, or do you remember?

Mr. Hastings: Objected to by the representatives of the Cherokee Nation for the reason that the record is the best testimony, and it must be first shown that the record is lost or destroyed before outside testimony will be permitted to prove the same.

Mr. Smith: If the Court please, this is the record itself; it hasn't been lost because we have it right here.

Commissioner: Well, he ought not to be custodian of the records.

Mr. Smith: Well, there are a great many things during the administration of the Cherokee Courts that I don't understand.

Commissioner: I suppose the records of the Cherokee Court ought to show the appointment of this man as administrator; they objected to the letters from the fact that they were not duly attested. I don't know whether the Cherokee Nation has been in the habit of attesting letters by seal, by a Clerk with a seal as they do in God's country. Well, let the testimony go in for what it is worth.

Mr. Smith: I would like to prove — I suppose I might ask if there is any gentleman here who knows Mr. Tom Buffington's signature. (To Mr. Hastings) You will admit this is T. M. Buffington's signature; of course you are both familiar with it.

Mr. Hastings: I think it is; that is his name anyway.

Mr. Hastings: (to witness): The mother of Ned Lyons and Elias and another sister, who are applicants here, died before 1880, didn't she?

A I don't remember whether she did or not.

Q You know she died? A Yes, sir, she died.

Q Jeff Lyons married a citizen a second time, a recognized citizen?

A Let me see, I don't remember but he married the last time to that woman, the mother of these children died.

Q You don't know whether his second wife was a recognized citizen; wasn't she? A Yes, sir, I guess so.

Q Did she die before Jeff did, his second wife? A I forget whether he married any more or not; he was a widower when he died.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY in the matter of the enrollment of Ned Lyons, D.#251, Elias Lyons, D.#253, and Rachel Landrum, D.#252, as Cherokee Freedmen:

APPEARANCES:

Mr. Smith, of firm of Mellette & Smith, Attorneys for Applicants.

Mr. W. W. Hastings for the Cherokee Nation.

MR. HASTINGS: Comes now the Representatives of the Cherokee Nation and offer in testimony a certified copy of the records of the Executive Department of the Cherokee Nation, filed in case of Altha and Oscar Moore, D. #357, showing that Jefferson Lyons presented a petition and was granted a license to marry Lou Eza Buffington by R. T. Carey, Clerk of Delaware District on the 12th day of February, 1879.

MR. SMITH: Applicants object to the introduction of that testimony as not tending to prove any issue in this case, and for the further reason that it is not the best testimony.

ALLEN LYNCH, called as a witness on the part of the Cherokee Nation, sworn and examined by Commissioner T. B. Needles, testified as follows:

- Q Your name is Allen Lynch? A Yes, sir.
Q Post office? A Vinita.
Q What district do you live in? A In Delaware.
Q Are you a recognized Freedman of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

BY W. W. HASTINGS:

- Q Did you know Jefferson Lyons during his life time? A Yes, sir.
Q He was the father of Elias? A Yes, sir.
Q Ned? A Yes, sir.
Q And Rachel Landrum? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, do you know when the mother of these three children I have just called died? A Well, about, yes, sir.
Q Well, about when? A I don't know whether I could tell you just exactly the time.
Q Well before '79? (No response.)
Q Who was Jeff Lyons' last wife? A You asked me that question before but I forgot; his last wife was Lou Eza Buffington, but I had forgotten it when you asked me before.
Q And he married her about '79? A Somewhere along about there.

Q When was that? A. I just can't tell you exactly the year.

Q Did you wind up the estate? A. Yes sir.

Q About how long ago was that been as well as you remember?

Mr Hastings-

" Comes now the representatives of the Cherokee Nation and object to pursuing this line of ~~testim~~ investigation any further, because the record in any court is certainly the best testimony. I allowed a part of it to be gone in, I didn't have any idea it would be gone into at any length. "

Commissioner:

" There is no doubt but what the record is the best testimony, and the testimony cannot be used without it can be established the records are lost or cannot be procured.

Q In what court was this; where did judge Ward keep his court? A Delaware district, east of Grand river.

By Hastings-

Al, you remember everybody that came back in '66? A No not exactly, no sir.

Q Your memory is fresh of 35 years ago, know just the exact time all colored people came to your neighborhood? A. No, not the exact time. no sir.

Q You remember all these years that stand out there? A. Well, I can't tell you why I remember this.

Q Why is it you remember it? A. Well, let me tell you; he came here before Christmas in '66, and in January, '67, he went back to Kansas and got a lot of goods for old Bob Daniels, and old Bob Daniels gave him a twenty dollar gold piece, the first I seen since the war, for going after them goods.

Q Where was Bob Daniels keeping his store; where was he? A He was keeping his family.

Q Where was Bob Daniels living at that time? A At his place, he came down on his place and got Jeff to go back to Kansas for these goods.

Q Where did Bob come from? A. Came from Texas

Q When did Bob come up here from Texas? A. He came up there, if I recollect right, sometime in January.

Q Of what year? A. In '67.

Q And during that month, you think it was, that Daniels hired Jeff to go back for ~~in~~ a load of goods? A. About that time he hired Jeff to go.
Q Do you know what load of goods consisted of? A. Yes sir, it was bacon and flour and Hungarian seed.

Q Take Bob Daniels team? A Took his own team.

Q Lyons own team? A. Yes sir.

Q Did he have his wife with him when he came to your place in '66?

Q Had his wife and left her here and I got wood for her when he was gone.

Q Did he live there the year of '67? A Yes sir, and raised a crop; he put in his corn in June, '67; he didn't get his corn planted till then.

Q On the old Dr. Thompson place? A. Yes sir.

Q How many of your fellows made a crop there on that place? A. I was n't making a crop there at all.

Q How many others of them fellows? A Andy Fry, Jeff Lyons, Mose Hodrick, Tom Moore and old uncle Butler McNair.

Q How much was in cultivation on that place? A. They cleaned up about five or six acres a piece.

Q And all of them was making a crop right there? A. Yes sir.

Q And you swear positively Jeff Lyons was there on Christmas of '66?

A To my best recollection he came there before Christmas, I don't know positively.

Q You know they were there on Christmas of '66? A They were there before Christmas, or just before about Christmas, and he left from there in January and went back to Kansas.

Q He only made a trip up there and back? A. He made two trips, made one trip for Bob Daniels and one trip for himself.

Q With the exception of short trips up there and back he was down in that country from Christmas of 1866 on? A. Yes sir, that is the best of my recollection.

Q Are you positive about it? A I am telling you the best I can recollect about it.

Q I want to know if you can remember that is the year of '66 or '67? A The year of '67 to my judgment.

Q Was this child born then? A. This Ned, no sir.

Q Did he have any children at all? A Yes sir, he had a child Elias, that was a baby, and he had one girl there called Anarchy, and he had this Mike Moore, that is his stepson, and this Anarchy was his stepdaughter, and the boy Elias was a baby.

Q When he came there about Christmas? A When he came there, yes sir.

Q Did he live in the house with you? A. He lived in Dr. Thompson's house and he was living in Dr. Thompson's nigger houses.

Q Some small houses around there, log houses? A. No sir, little brick houses.

Q How far was George Clark living from there at the time? A. George Clark lived between four and five miles.

Mr Smith-

Q Have you the letters of administration issued to you by that court? A Yes sir, I think so, I think I have at home.

Q If you can find them, will you bring them here to-morrow? A. Yes sir

ANDY FRY, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

By Mr. Smith-

Q State your name? A. Andy Fry.

Q How old are you? A. 66.
 Q Where do you live? A. I live southeast of Vinita about 12 miles on the Grand river.
 Q Are you a freedman? A. Yes sir.
 Q So recognized by the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes sir.
 Q Are you one them 1880 roll? A. Yes sir I guess I am, I have never looked but then I guess I am on that roll.
 Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A All my days until I went to Kansas during the war.
 Q Do you know Ned Lyons? A Yes sir.
 Q Do you know his brother Elias? A Yes sir.
 Q Do you know his sister Rachel Lyons? A Yessir.
 Q Who was his father? A. Jeff Lyons.
 Q Who was their mother? A Their mother was; I most forgot her name; I know it as well as I know any woman.
 Q You don't remember her just now? A I cant remember her name just now, but I know her just as well as anybody.
 Q Did you know Jeff Lyons in his life time? A Yes sir.
 Q Where did he live when the war came up? A He lived with Dr. Ross.
 Q Was he a slave of some Cherokee? A. Yes sir.
 Q Of who? A. He went from Lewis Ross to Dr. Ross and lived with Dr. Ross.
 Q Were the Rosses Cherokee citizens? A. Yes sir.
 Q Do you know what became of Lyons during the war, whether he went out of the Cherokee Nation or not? A. Yes sir he went up north.
 Q Do you know when he came back? A. He came back in '66, the winter of '66.
 Q About where did he come to? A. He came up on Russell creek and stopped up there a while and then he came down on Cabin creek and staid there a while and he heard of me being over on the other side of the river and he come to the river and hollered over and when I went to the river it was Lyons, a man I had knowed.
 Q Was that before or after Christmas, in '66? A It was before Christmas.
 Q This boy Ned Lyons, do you know where he was born? A. Yes sir, I know where he was born.
 Q Where was he born? A. Born there at Dr. Thompson's place.
 Q Do you know of your own knowledge where his brother Elias was born? A He was born at Iola, Kansas.
 Q Do you know where Rachel was born? A. She was born this side of the river, right below Dr. Thompson's place.
 Q Was she born before or after the war? A. Rachel was born since the war.
 Q Was Elias born before or after or during the war? A. He was born about during the war or just about the close of the war.
 Q Where have these three children of Lyons been living since you first knew them? A. Well they lived near the river there all the while the old man lived, and one of them moved out west, I think one of them is living over there now, I think maybe a couple of them.
 Q In or out of the Cherokee Nation? A. No, they have been living in the Cherokee Nation all the time.

By Hastings-

Q What place on Russel creek did Jeff Lyons first come to? A He staid up there this side of Chetopa.
 Q Did he live there a while? A Yes sir he staid up there a while in camps.
 Q Who with? A. In camps up there by himself, just him and his family on Russell creek somewhere, around there towards that old timbered hill somewhere.
 Q You dont know how long he staid there? A. I think he told me he staid up there about three weeks.
 Q And he went from there to Cabin creek? A. Yes sir and he was there in camps about three weeks.
 Q In tents? A. Yes sir, in tents.

Q Anybody live up on Gabbin creek where he was camping? A. Wasn't anybody at all there at the time.

Q Came on down to your place then? A Yes sir.

Q You were on the other side of the river? A Yes sir.

Q You helped him across? A. Yes sir.

Q Did he make a crop with you the next year; the year of '67? A Yes sir.

Q Was Jess Cochran living there that year? A Jess Cochran was living there but he moved out on Gabbin creek.

Q George Clark was living down there? A. He was living down on the other side of the river somewhere, but I never seen George Clark till '67.

Q How many colored people made crops on that one place that year? A. There was me and Jeff and Tom Morre and Butler McNair and Mose Hodrick.

Q Now you know Mose Hodrick didn't come there for two years, don't you? A. He came there and made a crop there.

Q That year? A. He came and made a crop in '67.

Q They had Jeff cited down at Tahlequah to appear before Bob Daniels Court, didn't they? A. I don't know sir.

Q This same Bob Daniels you heard Allen Lynch testifying about? A. Yes, sir.

Q And Bob Daniels was the Chief Justice of that court down there? A Yes sir.

Q In '71? A Yes sir.

Q And you know Jeff Lyons and his family were cited down there and Jeff did go down there to Tahlequah in '71? A I don't know whether he did or not.

Q I ask you if he went to Tahlequah? A. I don't know whether he did or not; I was living on this side of the river.

Mr. Smith: " I object to this testimony without the production of the records.

Q Did he go to Tahlequah? A I don't know sir, I never paid any attention to them Court cases, I was recognized by the Cherokee Nation at that time and never paid no attention to it.

Q You never paid any attention to '71 but you did to '66? A In '66 I was all right myself and I didn't pay no attention to that myself.

Q You were not a witness at Tahlequah in '71? A. No sir, if I had been called on I would have went, but nobody didn't call on me.

Q Do you know any other Jefferson Lyons among the colored people? A No sir.

Q You are pretty well acquainted among them? A. Yes sir, I am pretty well acquainted among them.

Q This Bob Daniels that lived out here was the same Bob Daniels, a member of that Court at that time? A. Yes sir.

Mr Smith-

Q Do you know anything of your own personal knowledge as to whether Jeff Ross estate was administered on in the Cherokee Courts or not, or Jeff Lyons? A No sir, I don't know for certain but I heard so, I can't swear it for certain, I heard it was.

ANDERSON LYONH, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

By Smith-

Q What is your name? A. Anderson Lynch.

Q How old are you? A. About 64 I think, as near as I know.

Q What is your post office? A. Here at Vinita.

Q Are you sometimes called Orap or Orep Lynch? A. Yes sir.

Q But that is not right, it is Anderson? A. Anderson, yes sir.

Q Do you know Ned Lyons? A. Yes sir.

Q Do you know his sister Rachel? A Yes sir.
 Q Is her name Rachel Lyons, or is she married? A She was named Rachel Lyons when I knew her, she was married a Landrum.
 Q Her name is Rachel Landrum then is it? A. (No answer)
 Q Do you know Ned Lyons brother Elias? A. Yes sir.
 Q Did you know their father? A. Yes sir.
 Q Who was their father? A. Jeff Lyons.
 Q Was he a slave during the war? A. Yes sir.
 Q Who did he belong to? A. He belonged to Lewis Ross when I know him.
 Q Was Lewis Ross a Cherokee and a citizen of the Nation? A Yes sir
 Q Do you know what became of Jeff Lyons during the war, whether he staid in the Cherokee Nation or went out? A. He went out, went to Kansas
 Q Do you know whether he came back or not? A. Yes sir I saw him back here.
 Q When did you first see him back? A. It was in—it was along in the fall of '68 as well as I can remember about it, it was along in the winter, I don't know just exactly what time it was.
 Q Where have these children, Ned, Elias, and Rachel lived? A. They lived over there just below the Dr. Thompson place, at a farm over there
 Q In the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes sir.
 Q Lived there all their lives? A. Yes sir, as was told not long ago I heard of some of them going out west.
 Q Where did they go when they went west, as far as Grand river? A. Oh yes, or maybe a little farther, somewhere out on the creeks.
 Q Did they still stay in the Cherokee Nation or did they go out? A Yes, they were in the Cherokee nation out there.
 Q Do you know when Jeff Lyons died? A. Yes sir I was over there directly after he died, but I don't remember just when.
 Q Where did he die? A. Right on his place at home.
 Q About how many years ago? A. I disremember, I never kept track of it
 Q Do you know whether his estate was administered on in the Cherokee courts or not? A. No sir, I don't know whether he was or not, whether he ever went down there.

By Hastings—

Q Did he die less than 20 years ago, Crap? Jeff Lyons die less than 20 years ago or more than 20 years ago? A I don't ~~know~~ think it has been quite that long.
 Q You saw him in '66? A. Yes sir long in the winter of '66.
 Q You don't know one year from another, do you? A. Yes I know.
 Q What year is this? A. This, I don't know just what, I never kept track of the years, but '66 is all I know.
 Q You have just been told it was '66 and you stuck to it? A Well '66 we were all on trial at that time pretty much, in '66 everybody was making back home.
 Q You were all tried here before the Kern Clifton Commission, everybody? A Well a good many of them.
 Q What year was that in? A. You are too hard for it, I never kept track of the years.
 Q Fact of the business is you never kept track of any of them? A Not hardly, never paid much attention to it, went along on my business.
 Q Who told you to say '66 here today? A Nobody, but I know what '66 was ~~was~~ ago.
 Q How many years ago was it? A. I disremember, I didn't kept track of it.
 Q You can't count? A. No, sir, can't count.
 Q And don't know anything about the years of the calendar? A Don't know a thing about it.
 Q You remember about Jeff Lyons having his case tried down at Tahlequah a few years after the war when Mr Bob Daniels was on the Court? A I don't know whether he went over there or not.
 Q You don't remember about that? A. No sir, seems like to me a lot of them went down there but I don't know whether he was along there or not.

Q Weren't you over there in the same neighborhood around with him? A I lived on Lynch's Prairie and they lived back on Dr. Thompson's place.
 Q Where did you live in the first year after the war? did you make a farm on this Dr. Thompson place? A. No sir, no sir, I lived on the old Lynch place, me and Lon Lynch and Stephen Henry rented from Lon Lynch and uncle Bill Buffington, he lived over there by the Mills on Beatty's Prairie, I expect you knew him.

Mr. Smith-

Q When did you come back, or did you go out during the war? A. Yes sir I went out.

Q When did you come back? A. I can't back along in '65, the winter of '65

Q What was there about '66 that you are talking about all these being on trial, what do you mean by that? A. Well, there was everybody that was reading the papers out there that we had all better return home, that we had a show to get home, the war was ceased and so on.

Q When were you to get home, or did they read anything to you in the papers about that? A. Yes sir, they said we wanted to return inside of '66.

Q And that is the reason why you remember '66? A. Yes sir.

Mr. Hastings-

Q That is before you came when you were up in Kansas that they were reading that to you? A. Yes sir I first got hearing of it in Kansas.

Q You heard them saying that up there, reading it in the papers, telling you to come back? A. Yes sir, that we all got to return home

Q That was '66? A No it wasn't in '66, must have been along in '65 when they were reading it.

Q They were reading it in '65 before you returned, before you had come back in '65? A They just said return back home, the treaty wasn't made then.

Q Then they wasn't reading if it hadn't been made? A. They were reading for us to come back home, that the treaty was ceased.

Q If you came back in a certain time? A. Yes sir a certain time.

Q That was in '65 before you came back here; you came here in '65? A Yes sir, along in the winter of '65

Q Has you ever been up before the courts for anything? A. What courts

Q Any of them; have ever have you arrested? A. No sir.

Q Never did? A. Yes, I have been arrested

Q For what? A. I was accused of murder once.

Q Ever arrested for anything else? A. No, nothing else.

Q Marshals or officers never had you any other time? A. No sir.

Mr. Hastings:

" Mr. Smith, I want to offer in evidence this judgment.

Mr. Smith: (reads same ) " You can offer it, of course I object to it."

Mr Hastings: " The Representatives of the Cherokee Nation offer in testimony from pages 62 to pages 63 of Minutes of Special Court of Commission, Supreme Court, 1871, records of the Cherokee Nation, and on page 62 is found: " Monday morning, June 5, 1871. Court met; Chief Justice R. B. Daniels and Associate Redbird Sixkiller present. There being no cases ready for trial, Court adjourned till nine o'clock to-morrow morning. Tuesday morning, June 6, 1871." On this date, and on page 63 on the same book, appears the following: On this date, and

" Case of Jefferson Lyons and family. The Court decide from evidence they are debarred the rights of Cherokee citizenship under the ~~Article~~ Ninth Article of the Cherokee Treaty of July, 1866. "

Mr Smith-

" Counsel for the applicant objects upon the ground that the entry offered is insufficient to show any judgment in any form and for the further reason that the Jefferson Lyons referred to is not in any way identified with the Jefferson Lyons who was the father of the applicant, and for the further reason that the applicant is not in any manner shown even by the said entry to have been a party to the proceedings now offered.

Commissioner- " I suppose you acknowledge the authenticity of the record. "

Mr Smith- " I dont make any question about that. "

Commissioner- Ned Lyons applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife Nancy, and four children, Delsie, James E., Mahaley and Katie. He avers that he was married to one Mariah Landrum, now deceased, and that he said marriage he had one child Delsie, and the name of Mariah Landrum is found upon the authenticated roll of 1880, and the name of Delsie is found upon the Kern Clifton roll. He avers that after the death of his wife Mariah he married one Nancy Landrum, his present wife, and her name as Nancy Landrum is found upon the authenticated roll of 1880 and the census roll of 1896, and she is duly identified thereby. Said Ned Lyons and his wife Nancy and his children as enumerated herein are duly identified and make satisfactory proof of residence, consequently Nancy Lyons, wife of the applicant, and their four children as enumerated herein will be listed for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen, in order to complete the enrollment of the three younger children, it will be necessary to file with the Commission satisfactory proof of their birth.

Said applicant Ned Lyons, will be listed as a Cherokee freedman upon a doubtful card, for the further consideration of the Commission. When the Commission arrives at a conclusion in his case, he will be notified as the same by mail. His name is found as stated upon the Kern Clifton pay roll, as well as upon the Wallace roll, and he is duly identified thereby.

APPEARANCES:

Messrs Mellette & Smith, for Applicant.

Mr. W. W. Hastings for Cherokee Nation.

By Mr. Hastings:

- Q What is your name? A. G. W. Clark.
Q What is your age? A. 58 coming birthday.
Q Mr. Clark, you lived in the Cherokee Nation before the war, did you?
A Yes sir, all my life.
Q You went out of the Nation did you during the war? A. Oh, I was occasionally in Arkansas, on the Arkansas line.
Q You were in the Army? A. Yes sir, in and out of it.
Q In the Northern Army? A. Yes sir.
Q Where were you mustered out? A. Mustered out Fort Gibson.
Q Now, where did you live the first year after the war, 1865? A I moved on the river; I lived here, my early days I lived at Tahlequah, Tahlequah district.
Q In '65 where did you live? A. The latter part of '65; I went back there after I was married; I was married in Saline district on Grand river, on the 8th day of June, and I moved up here and located on the west side of Grand river.
Q And where did you live in '66? A. I made a crop there in '66
Q Where did you live in '67? A In '67 I moved up the river from there; I moved there in the fall of '65 and left that place in the fall of '66.
Q Did you know a colored man who went by the name of Jeff Lyons or Jeff Ross? A Yes sir.
Q Did he have a son by the name of Ned? A. Yes sir.
Q And another one by the name of Elias? A. Yes sir.
Q When did you first see him after the war? A. '68.
Q How far did he stay from you? A. He staid about two miles, two or three miles down on the river, about three miles.
Q Did you know him well? A. Yes sir, well acquainted with old Jeff.
Q Did you ever hire him? A. Yes sir, stacked wheat for me for years
Q You knew when he came back then? A. He came back in the spring of '68, because he stacked wheat for me that year, and he was talking about coming back.
Q You lived there for years afterwards? A. Yes sir.
Q You knew him well? A. Yes sir.
Q He is dead now I believe, isn't he? A. Yes sir.

By Mr. Smith-

- Q About how old is Ned, about now? A. Well, I dont know, he ought to be a young man now, pretty good raised, he was a boy like then.
Q Well how big a boy was he in '68? A. Well they was a small chunk of a boy; I have been to his place, near there a many of a time and got him to work.

Q Which is the older, Ned or Elias? A. I dont know; I dont know as I know Elias Q Did he have any girls? A. I think he had.

Q How many? A. I disremember, I know he had one; I dont know how many children he did have.

Q Well, can't you remember, you knew the family, how many members there were; cant you remember how many girls and boys there were?

A I think there were four or five children.

Q You think there were more than this three? A. Yes sir.

Q You are not certain about that? A. No sir, I am not certain how many his family got to be.

Q He lived close to you and worked for you; what is the reason you cant remember about how many he had? A I never mixed up with them; I just come to hire Jeff I never went there and mixed up with them; just like you do at my place I never noticed.

Q All you say about this is you cant tell which one is the biggest?

A I dont know whether I could or not.

Q Cant you think which is the oldest Ned or Elias? No sir, I dont believe I could, that is long off.

Q Well you know all about exactly what you did? A. Not everything I do

Q I am not going to ask you about what you do; you keep up with your moves, you know the dates that you made them and all about them afterwards? A. No sir, I dont know the exact dates

Q With regard to your own business; you know about in regard to other people's; you dont remember that far back? A. No sir.

Q It is right hard to remember what other people were doing 35 years or 36 years ago? A. Yes sir, it is pretty far a pretty long swear anyway; but I remember this old gentleman as much as anything else; he and him trafficed together; he bought a good mule with him down there and I swapped him a cow and kin a swindled him.

Q How much do you think you got away with him on that? A I dont know.

Q Well, now, Judge, if anything you may have heard about Jeff Lyons coming back after the war; you dont know when he came back? A Yes sir, I know he come back to the neighborhood and he said.

Q Well outside of what he said, you dont know when he came back to the Cherokee Nation? A No sir.

Q You saw him first in 1868? A Yes sir.

Q You cant say of your own personal knowledge how long Jefferson Lyons had been back in the neighborhood and he said Cherokee Nation at the time you saw him in '68 can you? A I dont know exactly how to answer that.

Q You know what your personal knowledge is confined to? A Well it is just like you, Mr. Smith, I know when you came to Vinita, if you lived anywhere around Vinita, before that, I don't know.

By Mr. Hastings-

Q Now, Mr. Clark, I was going to ask you if you were telling the members of his family, while he lived there at his place? A What?

Q You were asked about the members of Jeff Lyons' family while he was living there? A. Yes sir.

Q You remember how many of them were born before they come down there and remember how many were born afterwards? A No sir.

Q You dont remember how many he had when he come there? A. No sir, I dont.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY on behalf of the Cherokee Nation in the matter of the application of MOSES HARDRICK for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman. D-314.

APPEARANCES:

Louis T. Brown for Applicant;
W. T. Hastings for Cherokee Nation.

NELSON MOORE, being sworn and examined, testified as follows:

BY HASTINGS:

- Q That is your name? A Nelson Moore.
Q Are you a colored citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q Your name on the 1880 roll? A Yes, sir.
Q What is your age? A Forty-eight.
Q Where do you live? A In Delaware district.
Q What is your post office? A Wetumka.
Q Who did you belong to before the war? A Abbie Butler and Luray Butler, that was his wife, full-blooded.
Q Did you go out of here during the war? A Yes, sir.
Q When did you come back home? A Fall of '65.
Q Where did you come to? A To the first place we come to the old Doctor Thompson, Johnson Thompson place, and then from there to the Bob Daniels place.
Q Now when did you move to the Bob Daniels place? A Right that same fall, to the Bob Daniels place.
Q In the fall of '65? A Fall of '65.
Q Where did you live in the year of '66? A We lived on the same place, Bob Daniels place.
Q How long did you live there? A We stayed there until the winter of '67.
Q You know a colored man that used to live in that neighborhood by the name of Mose Hardrick? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you see Mose Hardrick in the year of '65? A No, sir.
Q Did you see him in the year of '66? A No, sir.
Q Then, if you know, did Mose Hardrick return to the Cherokee Nation after the war? A Well the first time I saw him was in the spring of '67.
Q About what time in the spring? A Well it was along about April or May, as well as I can remember.
Q You know where he came from? A Well he said he came from Kansas. I don't know just that part.
Q You know who he came with? A Yes, sir.
Q Well tell us? A Andy Frye and Uncle Isaac Conrimsner and old uncle Peter Williams and Mack Reno, he is dead now though.
Q Had Andy Frye been down here before? A No, sir, not that I know of, no sir.
Q You never saw him there until in the spring of '67?
A Spring of '67 is the first time I ever saw him.

BY BROWN:

- Q Mr. Moore, you know Willie Frye? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you know when Willie Frye and Andy Frye married? A No, sir
I don't.

Q About when? A I don't know at all. I couldn't tell you.

Q Were they married when war came up? A I couldn't tell you that, I never saw them until ~~after~~ they come there.

Q You never knew her until after the war? A Not until she moved there in the fall of '65 or '66.

Q Well now you say Andy Frye returned in '67? A '66.

Q You said '67 awhile ago? A '66, if I said '67 it is a mistake.

Q '66 is when they returned; you say Mose Hardrick returned with him? A No, sir, he didn't come with Andy.

Q Didn't you state awhile ago that Andy Frye and Peter Williams and some man named Schrimsher returned to the Cherokee nation with Mose Hardrick? A No, sir, if I did I don't remember that part of it, because he never come until after Andy come, in the spring of '67.

Q Andy is on the 1880 roll? A Yes, sir.

Q Andy come in the spring of '67? A Fall of '66 I say, when Andy come it was in the fall of '66.

Q About how many weeks was that after Andy come until Mose Hardrick returned? A Oh I couldn't say as to the number of weeks, but it was in the spring.

Q Well about how many weeks would you think? A I don't know.

Q How many months? A Oh it would be to the best of my recollection it would be about 5 or 4 or 5 or 6 months, I wouldn't say positively because I don't know exactly.

Q How did you fix the month in which Mose Hardrick returned to the Cherokee nation? A How did I fix it?

Q Yes, sir. A I don't understand what you mean by that.

Q You said he returned in about April or May? A I said as well as I remember it was April or May; it was after grass was up.

Q You remember the grass being up? A Yes, sir.

Q How does the fact that the grass was up connect with in your mind with Mose Hardrick's return? A I tell you about my recollection of it being in the spring of '67; Mose Hardrick, Andy Frye and my step-father and Arch Landrum, Uncle Heuben Downing, they all of them went to Lucy Hilderbrands in the spring of '67 to a census taker.

Q To a census taker? A Yes, sir, to a census taker; that was in '67, what month was that? A That was about June or July as well as I remember.

Q They took a census in '67 did they? A I reckon they did, that's what they said; they all went off; I couldn't say what they did.

Q Who returned to the Cherokee nation with Mose Hardrick?

A Old man Jeff and my uncle.

Q What is his name? A Tom Moore, and Uncle Butler McNair as well as I remember, and I didn't know who else of them moved right on the Doctor Thompson place.

Q That was the first time your uncle Thomas Moore had been to this country wasn't it? A Yes, sir.

Q Is he the Thomas H. Moore that lived up there now? A No, that is my brother.

Q The Thomas H. Moore that lives up there now he come back with his father didn't he? A He come back with me and my stepfather; that's my brother.

Q Were you a witness in this case before the Kern-Clifton Commission? A No, sir.

Q Were you a witness in this case before John A. Wallace when the Wallace roll was made? A Yes, sir.

Q You knew the same folks then that you know now didn't you?

A Yes, sir.

Q In what year was the Wallace payment? A Wallace payment, it seems to me like it was in, I declare that's kinder slipped my mind, it was '94 though I think; I forget just what year that was.

Q Your best judgment is it was '94? A I don't say positively.

Q How old is your oldest child Mr. Moore? A How old is my oldest child; my oldest child is about 26 years old I think.

Q In what year was it born? A What year was she born?

Q Yes, sir? A Born in '73 or '4

Q About 26 years old now? A I think she is; she aint quite 26; she will be 26 her birthday.

Q You don't know much about dates do you Mr. Moore? A I dont know just to come down to dates; of course I have to kind of think over the time a little but I never keep no dates.

Q After you think you don't know much more about it then do you? Mr. HASTINGS: Don't answer that; I object to it; it is irrelevant and immaterial and nonsensical.

BY COMMISSION : Objection is sustained.

BY HASTINGS:

Q Now Nelse, in answer to a question awhile ago from me you stated that Andy Frye come down with Mose Hardrick in the spring of '67? Did you intend to say that? A No, sir, I didn't intend to say it, Andy Frye and uncle Tobe Schrimsher and uncle Peter Williams and them come down in the spring of '66, but Mose Hardrick didn't come with them; I didn't intend to say that, because I know that wasn't so.

Q Who did you intend to say Mose Hardrick come with? A Uncle Tom and Uncle Butler and Uncle Jeff Lyons.

BY BROWN:

Q You testified in the Ned Lyons case didn't you? A Ned Lyons?

Q Yes, sir, you know Ned Lyons? A I know him, but I never did testify in it.

Q Didn't you testify in his case in which you testified to the return of old man Lyons? A No I didn't.

Q You swear that positively? A Yes, sir, if I did I don't know when it was.

Q Why did you mention the time that Andy Frye and Peter Williams returned to the Cherokee Nation? A I was asked abax that.

Q By whom? A Didn't you ask me that?

Q In your direct examination, when Mr. Hastings asked you who returned to the Cherokee Nation, with Mose Hardrick, why did you mention the name of Andy Frye and Peter Williams? A Because he asked me when did he come.

Q Why did you state the time of Andy Frye and Peter Williams return in answer to that question? A I was asked the question.

Q That's why you stated it? A Time they come.

Q That's the time they come; all right, that's a 1.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Cherokee Nation offers in evidence a part of the record from a docket of the doubtful cases of citizens tried in the Cherokee Nation in 1871, which shows the following:

"Mose Hardrick and family, too late, decided against defendant June 6, 1871."

The same being taken from a page at the top of which appears the following:

"Delaware,

"Colored Doubtful Roll"

Said book being labeled,

"Docket of Doubtful Cases, Cherokee Citizenship, tried in 1871."

On the fly leaf of said book appears the following,

"Docket of applicants Cherokee Citizenship, 1871, Honorable Chief Justice A. B. Daniel, W. H. Turner, Clerk."

BY BROWN.

Objected to, for the reason that the page upon which it occurs has the head line "Doubtful roll of Colored People" and for the further reason that it is incompetent and for the further reason that the Cherokee Nation has not shown that the applicant was present at the sitting.

BY COMMISSION: Objection will be duly noted.

BY HASTINGS:

The Cherokee Nation offers in evidence the following from page 35 of Records of the Cherokee Nation entitled

"Docket of the Chambers Commission on Citizenship:"
"Moses Hardrick appl'd 3rd Jany. '78; set for 10 July

A marginal note in red ink at the side of this entry is as follows:

"Decree adverse to claimant."

BY BROWN: This is objected to on the grounds that while this record shows that the case was set for the 10th of July and continued until the 24th of July, it does not show that this application was ever heard; and for the further reason that the Cherokee Nation has not proven that the applicant Moses Hardrick in this case ever applied to the Cherokee Court for admission to citizenship.

BY COMMISSION: Objection will be duly noted.

BY HASTINGS: I reckon there is no objection contention that these records are part of the records of the Cherokee Nation.

BY BROWN: Oh no.

BY COMMISSION: This testimony will be filed and made a part of the record in the case at bar, and the following Freedmen doubtful cases: 201, 351, 272, 320, 321 and 192.

In the matter of the application of Ned Lyons for the enrollment of himself as a Cherokee freedman.

APPEARANCES:

Mellette & Smith for applicant.

W. W. Hastings for Cherokee Nation.

MR. HASTINGS: The Cherokee Nation offers in evidence a decision of the Supreme Court of the Cherokee Nation of 1871, as it appears of record in the book entitled "Docket of doubtful cases for Cherokee citizenship tried in 1871," and found on one of the pages thereof, the same being numbered 7, at the top of the page is found Delaware colored doubtful roll, as follows:

"Jefferson Lyons. Too late, and family.
Decided against defendants June 6, 1871."

MR. SMITH: The applicants object to the introduction of the above evidence for the reasons, first, that the same is incompetent, immaterial, irrelevant, and does not tend to prove any issue in this case; second, that the entry offered or alleged decision is insufficient in law to prove or tend to prove that any decision was ever rendered; third, because there is no proof that the Jefferson Lyons mentioned in said entry was in any way connected with the applicants herein, because said applicants were not the parties if there was any decision; and fourth, because it is incompetent to prove any entry of any record of the Cherokee Nation in the manner and form herein.

MR. HASTINGS: The Cherokee Nation offers this judgment for the purpose of showing that there was a free and full and fair investigation within five years after '66, when all the witnesses were alive who knew the time that these colored people returned to the Cherokee Nation, and the decision then by the Supreme Court of the Cherokee Nation was rendered against them, which should be binding upon this Commission.

MR. SMITH: The applicant moves to strike the last remarks of counsel from the record, being incompetent, immaterial and irrelevant COMMISSION: This testimony will be filed in the following freedmen cases; Rachel Landrum, D-252; Elias Lyons, D-253, and in the case of Ned Lyons, D-251. It appears from the records of the Commission that the above named applicants are all represented by Mellette & Smith.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I. T., May 31, 1902.

In the matter of the application of PERRY ADAMS for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman:

Applicant appears by Mellete & Smith; Cherokee Nation, by W. W. Hastings:

By Mr. Smith:

The applicant moves the Commission to make the certified copy of the decree of the Court of Claims in the case of Moses Whitmire, Trustee for the Freedmen, vs The Cherokee Nation, No. 17209 filed in the Mariah Hayden case F D 498, a part of the record in this case and the cases hereinafter mentioned by reference to the said case of the said Mariah Hayden, and if it be deemed necessary that a copy of the said decree be filed in this case and in the following cases, to-wit:

Elias Lyons, D 253;

By W. W. Hastings:

Comes now the Cherokee Nation and objects to the introduction of the decree, because, First: It does not tend to show that the applicant was a slave of the Cherokee Nation at the beginning of the war, nor that he returned within the time specified in the treaty of 1866, or that he had been a continuous resident of the Cherokee Nation since that time, or that he is a descendant of such a person. Second: Because the same is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, and does not tend to prove an issue in this case. Third: Because the Commission will take judicial knowledge of all laws, treaties and decrees necessary for the determination of the right of any person who makes application for citizenship. Fourth: The Cherokee Nation objects to the filing of a certified copy of this decree in the case of an applicant unless the same is called and filed in each individual case.

Commission:

The motion of the attorney for the applicant will be entertained and the decree of the Court of Claims filed in the case of Mariah Hayden will be made a part of the record by reference in all the cases above named with the exception of those which come within the provisions of the temporary injunction recently granted by Judge Gill of the United States Court, of the Northern District, Indian Territory.

Mr. Smith:

The applicant further moves that as to the above named cases including the Mariah Hayden case that counsel for the applicant be allowed within thirty days to file any of the proof of any or all of the record other than the decree already referred to in the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee, vs Cherokee Nation, on file in the Court of Claims to the counsel of the Cherokee Nation if it is desired to do so.

W. W. Hastings;

The Cherokee Nation most certainly strenuously objects to the allowance of this permission or to the granting of this request for the reason that most of these applicants have had more than a year in which to file all of their testimony that they desired to file to make out their case before the Commission and that notice was given them all by agreement in March last, that the cases would be closed so far as testimony was concerned by the special permission of the firm of attorneys representing these applicants, on the 31st day of May, 1902, and that this being the 31st day of May, 1902, we say that under the rulings of the Commission, that under the agreement between the attorneys, that the testimony in all these cases is to close and should be closed by the Commission, and that no extension should be granted in any case and no case reopened unless there is some special and particular reason shown either by the Cherokee Nation on the one side or the applicant on the other why an extension of time is necessary or desired.

The Commission:

The law provides that the roll of Cherokee freedmen shall be made in strict compliance with the decree of the Court of Claims rendered the 3rd day of February, 1896, and as the Commission must take judicial notice of the judgment roll of said Court in the proceedings referred to the motion of the attorneys for applicants for additional time to file certified copies of the proceedings of the said Court is denied.

-----

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

O R D E R .

It is ordered that a copy of the testimony of Nelson Moore taken at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on February 5, 1902, in the application of Moses Hardrick, for enrollment as a Cherokee freedman, Case No. D-314, be filed with, and made a part of the record in the applications of Ned Lyons and others for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, Consolidated Case Nos. DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of George Irons, et al., as Cherokee Freedmen, consolidating the applications of:

George Irons et al.,	Cherokee Freedmen R	36,
Bettie Mayes	"	D 87,
Richard Nero (or Irons) et al	"	D 1328,
Ned Lyons	"	D 251,
Rachel Landrum	"	D 252,
Elias Lyons, et al.	"	D 253,
Altha Moore, et al.,	"	D 357,
George W. Lynch, et al	"	D 731.

--: D E C I S I O N :--

The record in this case shows that applications for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen were made to this Commission by Jennanna Irons for, among others, her husband, George Irons, stepchildren, Bertha and Bettie Irons, and stepgrandchild, Elenora Nivens; by Bettie Mayes for herself; by Emmet Starr for Richard and Mollie Nero (or Irons); by Ned Lyons for, among others, himself, by Rachel Landrum for herself; by Elias Lyons for himself and minor child, Nelson J. Lyons; by Altha Moore for himself and brother, Oscar Moore; and by George W. Lynch for himself and minor children, Rosetta and Eliza Lynch. As the others included in said above mentioned applications have been differently classified, their rights to enrollment will not be considered in this decision. Copies of the testimony of M. W. and M. M. Couch taken at Vinita, Indian Territory, October 1, 1901, in re application of William Lane for enrollment as a Cherokee freedman, case No. D 395, and of Nelson Moore taken at Muskogee, Indian Territory, February 5, 1902, in re application of Moses Hardrick for enrollment as a Cherokee freedman case No. D 314, are filed herewith and made a part of the record in this case.

The evidence in this case shows that the applicants, George Irons, Bettie Vayes and Richard and Mollie Nero (or Irons), are all children of one Nero Irons, deceased; that the said applicants, George Irons and Bettie Vayes, were slaves of Cherokee citizens at the commencement of the rebellion, were taken from the Cherokee Nation during said rebellion, and did not return thereto and establish a residence therein within the time specified in the decree of the Court of Claims rendered on February 3, 1896, in the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee, et al., vs. the Cherokee Nation, et al., for the return of Cherokee freedmen to said Nation; and that the applicants, Richard and Mollie Nero (or Irons), possess rights to enrollment as Creek freedmen, are included in a partial roll of Creek freedmen approved by the Secretary of the Interior March 13, 1902, opposite Nos. 2173 and 2238, respectively, and have selected and accepted their allotment of lands in said Nation. The minor applicants, Bertha and Bettie Irons, are children of the applicant, George Irons, and one Winnie Irons, nee Lyons, deceased, were born since 1880, and possess no rights to enrollment other than as descendants of their said parents; that the said Winnie Irons, deceased, was born since 1866, and was the daughter of Jeff and Mahala Lyons, both deceased; and that the said Jeff and Mahala Lyons were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the commencement of the rebellion, were taken from the Cherokee Nation during said rebellion, and did not return thereto and establish a residence therein within the time specified in the above mentioned Whitmire decree. The minor applicant, Elenora Nivens, is an illegitimate child of the applicant, Bertha Irons, and after ample opportunity having been afforded it is not established that she possesses any rights to enrollment other than as a descendant of her said mother.

The evidence further shows that the applicants, Ned Lyons, Rachel Landrum and Elias Lyons, are children of the above mentioned Jeff and Mahala Lyons, deceased, were born since the commencement of the rebellion, and possess no rights to enrollment other than as descendants of their said parents. The minor applicant, Nelson J. Lyons, is a child of the applicant, Elias Lyons, and one Martha Lyons, was born since 1880, and possesses no rights to enrollment other than as their descendant. In Cherokee freedman case No. R. 363, the Commission has heretofore found that the said Martha Lyons possesses no rights to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman, and on May 28, 1904 (Departmental letter I. T. D. 4226-04), its finding was approved by the Department.

The evidence further shows that the minor applicants, Altha and Oscar Moore are the children of one Mike Moore, deceased, were born since 1880, and possess no rights to enrollment other than as descendants of their said father; and that the said Mike Moore, deceased, was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the rebellion, was taken from the Cherokee Nation during said rebellion, and did not return thereto (he returned with his stepfather and mother, the said Jeff and Mahala Lyons), within the time specified in said above mentioned Whitmire decree.

The evidence further shows that the applicant, George W. Lynch (son of the said Mahala Lyons, deceased), was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the rebellion, was taken from the Cherokee Nation during said rebellion, and did not return thereto and establish a residence therein within the time specified in the above mentioned Whitmire decree. The minor applicants, Rosetta and Eliza Lynch, are the children of the applicant, George W. Lynch, were born since 1880, and possess no rights to enrollment other than as descendants of their said father.

None of the applicants herein born during or prior to the below mentioned year, nor the ancestors of any applicant herein born during or subsequent to said below mentioned year, can be identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880.

The evidence in this case establishes that the applicant, George Irons, after the close of the rebellion, returned to the Cherokee Nation in company with, among others, his brother, Alexander Irons. In Cherokee freedman case No. D 181, the Commission has heretofore found that the said Alexander Irons did not, after the close of said rebellion, return to the Cherokee Nation within the time specified in the Whitmire decree, and on November 23, 1904 (Departmental letter I. T. D. 8590-04), its finding was approved by the Department. The evidence in this case further shows that the said Jeff and Mahala Lyons and Mike Moore, through whom some of the applicants herein claim their rights to enrollment, returned, after the close of the rebellion, to the Cherokee Nation, in company with, among others, one Moses Hardrick. In Cherokee freedman case No. D 314, the Commission has heretofore found that the said Moses Hardrick did not, after the close of the rebellion, return to the Cherokee Nation within the time specified in said Whitmire decree, and on October 13, 1904 (Departmental Letter I. T. D. 6968-04), said finding was approved by the Department.

In connection with above findings attention is called to the testimony of the applicant, George W. Lynch, taken June 13, 1901, at Chelsea, Indian Territory, when, to the question--"Where were you in 1866?" he replied--"Part of the time I was in Van Buren and my brother came down there and said my mother (Mahala Lyons) wanted him to bring me home (to the Cherokee Nation) and he did". His witnesses at that time did not testify as to his return. More than three years later, said applicant again testified before the Commission as to his return after the rebellion, and to the question--"Was your mother living in the Cherokee Nation when you got back here?" answered--"I didn't see her at that time..... I heard they (his mother and others) were camped up there on the river, but I don't know it". On this occasion one of said applicant's witnesses, Columbus McNair, testified that he saw the applicant in the Cherokee Nation in the years 1865, 1866, and particularly, at a certain place on Grand River, during the year 1868. Applicant testified that he left the Cherokee Nation in January, 1867, and did not return to said Nation until sometime during the year 1873.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the applications for the enrollment of George Irons, Bertha Irons, Bettie Irons, Elenora Nivens, Bettie Mayes, Richard Nero (or Irons), Mollie Nero (or Irons), Ned Lyons, Rachel Landrum, Elias Lyons, Nelson J. Lyons, Altha Moore, Oscar Moore, George W. Lynch, Rosetta Lynch and Eliza Lynch, as Cherokee Freedmen, should be denied, under the provisions of section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.
MUSKOGEE, I. T., MAY 24, 1906.

SUPPLEMENTAL PROCEEDINGS had in the matter of the application for the enrollment of THOMAS MAYFIELD, ET AL., as Cherokee freedmen.

APPEARANCES:

for Applicants, Starr & Patten.

For Cherokee Nation, J. S. Davenport and L. B. Bell.

By Mr. Davenport:

The representatives of the Cherokee Nation desire to introduce the entry in the book of assessment for 1868, which refers to Warren Adams, and ask that it be read and copied in the record, so that the book may be returned.

By Mr. Patten:

Attorneys for applicant object to this, upon the same ground as previously stated in the other objections in the same record.

On behalf of Commissioners:

The request of the attorneys for the Nation will be granted and the evidence considered for what it is worth.

Pursuant to the above, the following was read into the record from the book above referred to:

No. of Statement.	Name	No. of Horses	Value	No. of Cattle.
5	Adams, Warren	3	60	1
Value	No. of Hogs	Average value of all	Average Per. Property.
12	1 Value 3	-----	17
Total	Deduct Constitutional exemption			Remarks.
92	200			(Ditto) "Country"

Q Has that entry been changed, Mr. Ernest, since you turned it in to the Country Clerk? A No, sir.

Q I wish you would examine the book which you have before you, and see if you find any assessment in 1868 of Nathan Duffin? A Yes, sir.

Geo. H. Lesley, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, he made the above and foregoing copy, and that the above and foregoing is an excerpt copy of the record of proceedings had on May 24 and 25, 1906, in the matter of the application for the enrollment, as Cherokee freedmen, of Thomas Mayfield, et al., and that the same is a true and correct copy of that part of the original record of proceedings.

SUPPLEMENTAL PROCEEDINGS had in the matter of the consolidated applications for the enrollment of MOSES HARDRICK, ET AL., F. R. 574 et al., and GEORGE IRONS, ET AL., F. R. 36 et al.

APPEARANCES:

For Applicants, Starr & Patten.

For Cherokee Nation, W. W. Hastings and J. S. Davenport.

The records of this office show that on April 5, 1906, the Cherokee Freedmen enrollment cases of Moses Hardrick, et al., were remanded to this office for rehearing and readjudication; that on May 11, 1906, the Cherokee Freedmen enrollment cases of George Irons, et al., were remanded to this office for rehearing and readjudication; that on May 24, 1906, the applicants, their attorneys, and the Attorneys for the Cherokee Nation were notified that these cases would be set for hearing on this date at which time the following proceedings were had, which proceedings are made a part of the record in each of the above cases.

Testimony taken on behalf of applicants.

T. F. WALTERS, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

BY MR. PATTEN:

- Q State your name? A T. F. Walters.
Q Where do you live? A At Iola, Kansas.
Q How long have you lived there? A Since the 19th of July, 1861.
Q What is your age? A 62 the 5th day of last March.
Q Were you a soldier in the Civil War? A I was.
Q When were you mustered out of service? A The 19th of September, 1865.
Q Where were you living in the year 1866? A I was living one mile north of Iola.
Q Were you acquainted with a colored man in that neighborhood by the name of Moss Hardrick? A Yes sir, I was.
Q Where did he live at that time? A The time that I knew him he lived one mile due west of where I lived on the bank of the Neosho River.
Q Did he ever work for you or anything that would make you better acquainted with him? A Yes sir, he cut some 50 or 60 cord of cord wood for me in the early part of 1866.
Q When was the last time that you remember of seeing him in that neighborhood up there? A I don't have an recollection of him after that, probably in March.
Q Do you know whether or not it was a general presumption in the neighborhood that he had left?

Mr. Hastings: Objected to as being clearly inadvisable because this witness can only testify of his own personal knowledge.

On behalf of the Commissioner: The objection will be noted.

- A No I cannot say that I heard that he had left there. A I didn't see him and that is all I know about it.
Q Didn't see him after that time? A No sir.
Q Have you lived in that neighborhood ever since? A Yes sir.
Q Have you seen him in that community since? A No sir, not until I met him here today.
Q Do you know of there being a house built in that neighborhood known as the Dan Norville house a good many years ago? A Yes sir.
Q Do you remember when that house was built? A In the spring of 1866. It was about a half mile from my residence and I quarried the rock for the foundation and cellar.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q Now this has been 40 years ago and all you want to be understood testifying about is that after this man cut wood for you that you didn't know what become of him after you think you saw him about March, 1866? A I lost sight of him.
Q Never made any inquiry and had no occasion? A No sir.
Q And don't know what become of him? A No sir.
Q Now there were a great number of people that you perhaps knew 40 years ago that you don't know what become of them. Some went to one place and some others, and others may have remained there?
A Yes sir, I think that might have been the case.

WITNESS EXCUSED.

WELIX LORANCE, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

BY W. PATTER:

- Q State your name? A Welix Lorange.
Q Where do you live? A I live in Elk County, Kansas.
Q How old are you? A I am 58 years old last 31st day of April.
Q Were you ever in the army? A No sir, I wasn't in the army.
Q Where were you living in the year 1866? A Well in the spring of 1865 I was at my father's farm in Allen County, Kansas, in the spring, and I left there. Up until that time I had lived with my father on that farm 1857 until then. Then in the spring of 1865 I left and I went on the second day of April, 1865, I was sworn into the army, but failed to be mustered in. Then I taken a team and went on the plains and drove a six mule team in the spring of 1865. I stayed there until June, 1866, when I come back to my father's place.
Q Did you know about that time a xx colored man by the name of Moses Hardrick? A Yes sir.
Q Did you know Jeff Lyons? A I knew a darker called Jeff, for instance we called a negro named Jeff, we called him "igger Jeff."
Q Did you know one named "igger Butler"? A Yes sir.
Q And one named "igger Tom" or Tom Moore? A I knew Tom, but not his other name.
Q Do you remember where Moses Hardrick lived in the year 1866? A Yes sir, he lived on my father's farm, in Allen County, Kansas, in the spring of the year, he left there in the fall of 1866.
Q Is this Moses Hardrick the same as the applicant in this case?

- Q You could identify him could you? A After I looked at him awhile, when he was there he wasn't lame or crippled up.
- Q Were you acquainted with him at that time? A Yes sir, he worked there on my father's farm, I think it was in the latter part of 1862 he come there, and '62, '63, '64, and up until the spring of '65 he worked there with me a good part of the time. I would say pretty near half of the time he worked for my father.
- Q Did he work there in the fall of 1866? A The first part of it.
- Q Where did Jeff Lyons live? A I don't know.
- Q Do you remember how long Mose Hardrick remained up there in that neighborhood? A He come there if I am not mistaken in the latter part of 1862 and left in the fall of 1866. That is he was there when I went on the plains and was there in the same cabin when I come back and he left in the fall of 1866.
- Q During that time where did he live, what kind of a house? A A log house a biggest part of the time.
- Q What did he live in the rest of the time? A In a tent or wagon sheet, made for a tent, the first part.
- Q Do you know about the time that he left that neighborhood in Kansas? A Yes sir, it was in the fall. It was in the fall, from October up, until sometime, it might have been as late as November.
- Q In what year was it? A 1866.
- Q Do you know when he left that neighborhood in Kansas, whether he took his effects with him? A Took all he had, didn't leave anything there on the farm.
- Q Do you know where he lived after, or where he started to? A He said he was going to the Nation, I never followed him to see, and that is the way he talked all the time to us.
- Q Do you remember when Dan Horville's house was built? A Well I was there, but I don't remember anything about the dates at all. I didn't work on it any when it was built.
- Q You remember what year it was built? A No sir, I couldn't tell you. I was right close there, but I don't remember when it was built.
- Q Did you ever see Hardrick in that neighborhood up there after the time you say he left? A No sir.
- Q Have you lived in that immediate vicinity ever since? A No sir, I lived in Elk County.
- Q How long did you continue to live there after that time? A I left there the 18th day of February, I taken a claim in Elk County and probably the first part of February I left there in 1866.
- Q How do you fix that it was in 1866 that they left up there, rather than 1865 or '64? A Well now my brothers come home out of the army in the spring of 1865, after they come home then I went and I made an effort to get in the army, I was sworn in on about the first or second day of April, and I failed to get in, and then I went on the plains and I stayed out west until June, 1866. The spring after my brothers come home out of the war I went in to be a brave bad soldier and I tried to get in.
- Q When did you return? A June, 1866.
- Q Was it that same year or different years these parties left?
- A That same year.
- Q Was that the way you remember it? A Yes sir, that is the way. When I come back he left, I farmed the place he left, I farmed it in 1867 and he farmed it in 1866. He put it in corn in 1866 and the next year I farmed that ground.
- Q The following year you farmed that ground? A Yes sir.
- Q When was that? A 1867.

BY R. HASTINGS:

Q When were you married? A The first time in 1870.

Q You were not married then? A No sir, I was just 18 years old. I was born in 1848.

Q All you know is that you never saw that fellow after the fall of 1866? A No sir, I never saw him and never heard tell of him until this case. He said he was coming to the Nation and live.

Q You mentioned a man named Jeff and Butler and "Nigger Tom"? A Yes sir.

Q Did they leave and come with him? A I never saw them afterwards.

Q I asked did they leave? A I don't know, there was a bunch left at the same time? Mose left.

Q You didn't have any knowledge about Jeff? you don't know where he lived? A No sir.

Q Are you prepared to say he come off with Mose? A I don't know, there was a bunch left there.

Q Are you prepared to say where Butler lived? A No sir, I don't know whether he lived with Mose or not.

Q How about this man Tom? A I don't know anything about him.

Q Did you ever see either of these after Mose left? A No sir.

Q Are you certain of that? A Pretty so, I never saw one that I remember of.

Q Have you ever had occasion to have your memory refreshed of these affairs for these 40 years? A Not until this come up.

Q Who directed your attention to it? A I don't know what the man's name was, he was a dark complexioned, heavy set man. I forget his name, he told me but I forget it.

Q Not long ago was it? A A couple of months, I expect since I saw him.

Q Did you know Mose's wife's name? A I think her name was Patience.

Q Did he have any children on there? A 3 or 4 there, little bit of fellows. Big enough to run around like that.

Q Do you know how old the oldest one was when he left? A I don't know, I would not be positive but there was 3 or 4.

Q Do you know of the youngest one? A No sir.

Q Do you know whether they were boys or girls? A I don't know that, he had a small family there? He lived in their own house and we lived in ours.

Q Never made any record of the date the left? A Nothink only memory from the time I come off of the plains.

Q You don't know of his coming to the Cherokee Nation? A Never saw him from the time he left there.

Q You don't know whether he come on this side or not? A He might have went to St. Louis and might have not for all I know, he left Father's place. I have never seen him until here.

Q Did Mose ever live on that Eastwood place west of the Neosho River? A I don't remember.

Q Did he ever live on that Norville place? A I don't think he did, but I don't remember.

Q Did you ever see this fellow Jeff's wife? A I don't think I did, if I did I don't remember her.

Q Did he have any children? A I don't know whether he did or not.

Q Did you ever see Butler McInair's wife? A I don't think I did.

Q Did he have any children? A I don't know.

Q Did you ever see Tom's wife? A I don't think I did, if I did I don't remember it.

Q When were you told what Mose's wife name was? A No sir, she used to be my mother's wash woman, and they called her Patience and us kids would kind of make a little game of it.

Q If she did your washing you don't remember the children's names?

A No sir.

- Q You don't know how many there were? A No sir.
- Q Do you know whether they were boys or girls? A I think the older ones were boys but I am not positive.
- Q How long did your father live, is he dead now? A He has been dead about 20 years.
- Q Was he living in 1872? A Yes sir.
- Q In 1876? A Yes sir.
- Q Who was living on your father's place in 1872? A He was there.
- Q Your father? A Yes sir.
- Q Did they have any tenants on the place that year? A I don't think they did. I don't remember whether they had any. I wasn't at home in 1872.
- Q Did you ever go back there at all. A I come back to see father occasionally but didn't pay any attention to the tenants. I had a brother-in-law that stayed there some.
- Q You don't know who was there,—what of those years between then or who attended your father's farm? A I don't remember, some years there were tenants there but I don't remember.
- Q Did you have a farm during those years, 1872 to 1876? A Yes sir, I had one all the time from 1868.
- Q Who cultivated your farm? A I did myself, and sometimes had hired men.
- Q Who worked for you at that time? A I don't remember.
- Q It is mighty hard to remember those things? A Yes, unless you have got something to go by.
- Q You would not undertake to remember it? A No sir. I don't suppose I would remember Mose unless it was by my brothers coming out of the army and my going on the plains, and coming back.
- Q Suppose he says he come in the spring, would he know any more about it than you? A My recollection is he came after the corn was shocked up.
- Q If he came in the spring, it was 1866, because you know he was there in the fall of 1866? A Yes sir.
- Q You don't know when he got here? A No sir, I don't know whether he ever got here until this time.

WITNESSES EXAMINED.

JAMES L. CHRISTY, being first duly sworn, testified as follows;

BY MR. PATTER:

- Q State your name? A James L. Christy.
- Q Where do you live? A In Allen County, Kansas.
- Q Is that near Iola? A Yes sir, I live 11 1/4 miles northwest of Iola now.
- Q Were you enlisted as a soldier during the Civil War? A Yes sir.
- Q When were you mustered out? A August 16, 1864.
- Q Where were you living in 1866? A Two miles north of Iola.
- Q At that time were you or were you not well acquainted in that neighborhood? A Yes sir, I think I knew everything in the County.
- Q Did you at that time ever know a colored man named Mose Hardrick? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you ever know a colored man named Jeff Lyons? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you know Butler McVair? A Yes sir.
- Q Tom Moore? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you know where these people that I have just mentioned were living in the year 1866? A If I remember right Butler McVair was living on the south side of Deer Creek about three miles and a half I judge north and a little east of Iola on a widow woman's place named Pace.
- Q Where was Mose Hardrick living? A On a man's place named Lorraine.

- Q How far was that from where you lived? A About a mile and a half.
- Q Did you see these people frequently? A Yes sir, with them every week.
- Q Do you know how long Mose Hardrick continued to remain in that community? A Why I don't know the exact date he left there, I got acquainted with Mose in 1865.
- Q How did you get acquainted with him in 1865? A He worked some for my father, I was at home living with my father and my father hired a good deal of help, had quite a farm there and Mose Hardrick would work for him, sometimes I think all three of these colored fellows, but Jeff Lyons, and in thrashing they would help thrash, and I got acquainted with them that way.
- Q When did they leave that community up there? A To the best of my knowledge sometime in October.
- Q What year? A 1866.
- Q Do you know where they started when they left there? A It was my understanding they were coming to the Nation.
- Q Did they take their effects with them when they left, moved completely out? A I don't know, I know they rigged up in wagons, and whether they took all I don't know.
- Q Did you continue to live in that community for a considerable length of time after that? A Yes sir.
- Q How long did you live in that community continuously after that? A I guess I lived right there for 10 years.
- Q Did you ever see these people after that time you say they left? A No sir, I never did.
- Q What time of the year do you think it was they left? A I think it was along sometime in October, I don't know just what time, but it was sometime in the early fall of 1866.
- Q Did you ever see them there after that time? A No sir.
- Q How do you place it or remember that it was in 1866 rather than 1865 or '67? A Well a man by the name of Cornell ran a thrashing machine a good bit in our settlement and the neighbors would help one another, and I had some wheat in that year myself on my father's place, the first year I put out any wheat, and come with the thrashing machine we wanted Mose Hardrick and some of these colored fellows to help us thrash and they said they couldn't do it because they were fixing to move, and that was sometime the last of September or first of October.
- Q Did they say where they were going? A My understanding was to the Nation.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q You think that was in October? A Yes sir, and there was another circumstance made me tell that. In that winter before, January and February 1866, I hunted a good deal and I killed 13 deer and I took the hides off and put them away and kept them trying to get somebody to tan them and Tom Moore was at my house one day and saw these skins and said he would tan them for me.
- Q Was that in January or February, 1866? A No sir, it was in August.
- Q Why couldn't that have been in August, 1867? A Because I wasn't right at that place in August, 1867.
- Q Where were you in August, 1867? A I was about a mile east of there. I got married in 1867 and I moved east of there.
- Q What time in 1867 did you get married? A November, 1867.
- Q Then you were not married in August, 1867? A No sir.
- Q And you were not married in October, 1867? A No sir.
- Q Were you on your father's place? A I was on my father's place part of the time.
- Q How old did you say you were? A I didn't state but I will be 66 the 12th day of July.

- Q You lived at your father's place after the war up until you were married in November, 1866? A That was my home, I wasn't there all the time.
- Q That was your head-quarters? A Yes sir.
- Q Now you of course don't know where these parties went? A No sir.
- Q You never saw them any more until you saw them down here? A Never seen them until I saw Mose Hardrick here today.
- Q I believe you have mentioned Jeff Lyons, Butler McHair and Tom Moore in connection with Mose Hardrick? A Yes sir.
- Q You state they all left together? A That was my understanding.
- Q You are as positive about one as the other? A Yes sir.
- Q What was Butler McHair wife's name? A I think it was Betsey.
- Q Did they have any children? A I don't think they did.
- Q What was Jeff Lyon's wife's name? A I don't know.
- Q Did they have any children? A I don't know.
- Q Were you ever at his house? A No sir, I don't know as I was at his house.
- Q Then you didn't see him when he was leading his wagon? A No sir.
- Q And you didn't see Butler McHair? A He had his wagon loaded.
- Q And that was in October, 1866? A Yes sir, my understanding was they were all coming together.
- Q You don't know that? A I am not positive as to the date but I am pretty sure they all left together.
- Q You are not positive as to the date but you are positive as to them leaving all together? A Yes sir.
- Q You didn't know Tom Moore's wife? A I have seen her.
- Q You don't know her name? A No sir.
- Q Do you know what place he lived? A ON Crover's place at Carlila.
- Q You don't know whether Tom had any children or not? A It seems to me that he had some children, but I would not say positive.
- Q Well now did your father raise any wheat in 1867? A Yes sir.
- Q Did he raise some in 1865? A We tried to raise some in 1865 but I think that was the year the grass hoppers come and cleaned it out, and then in the fall of 1865 I sowed some wheat and that did pretty well.
- Q Did you raise some in 1868? A Yes sir, I think we did.
- Q Did you raise any in 1869? A I think may be we did. We generally sowed wheat every year.
- Q Well did you? A we sowed every year.
- Q I mean did you have it sown on your place? A No sir, not on my place.
- Q Did you have a place in 1869? A No sir, not myself, the place I was on belonged to my father.
- Q Did he have some wheat in 1869? A I think he did.
- Q Do you know who thrashed that wheat for him in 1869? A Yes sir, I can tell you who runed that thrashing machine over that way.
- Q The same man? A No sir.
- Q Well who did? A Old John Corneel done our thrashing from 1861 up until about 1869 or '70. And then Low Osborne and Nate wisdom thrashed in there for 21 years.
- Q Do you know whether it was 1869 or '70? A I think it was 1869.
- Q Are you positive about that? A Yes sir, I am pretty positive.
- Q What time in 1869? A I think it was in the fall.
- Q You were not down at Mose Hardrick's when he left? A No sir, but I was there several times and heard of his leaving.
- Q You heard of his leaving? A Yes sir.
- Q Didn't see him leave? A No sir, didn't see any of them leave.
- Q In other words they just dropped out of your mind but you didn't see them going? A Yes sir, they told me they were going and I sold Tom Moore a span of ponies to come with just a few days before they left.

- Q But you don't know whether he and Mose come together, didn't see them start? A Didn't see them start, no sir, but my understanding was that they all were to get together, to be at Humbolt.
- Q What has refreshed your memory recently, it has been 40 years since then? A Well I don't about that but when this case come up---
- Q You talked with the other witnesses when you come down? A Yes sir, I talked with these witnesses as I come down.
- Q And have you talked with Mose Hardrick? A Yes sir, I talked with Mose Hardrick.
- Q What other of these people have you talked with? A I don't know, I don't know any of them but Mose.
- Q Talk with Mr. Starr? A Yes sir.
- Q When? A This morning the first time I ever seen him.
- Q Who did you talk with up in Kansas and who got you to come here? A Well the man I talked to up in Kansas was Parrymore.
- Q Is he down here? A No sir, I seen him at Iola. I can tell you just how it come up--
- Q I asked you who you talked to? A Well I talked to Parrymore about it and told him what I knowed about it.
- Q And the rest of you witnesses talked it over coming down here? A We didn't talk it over. Only two come with me.
- Q Who? A A man named Morse and a man named Byrd.
- Q Do you know any of the hands that helped you thrash in 1867? A Yes sir, I can tell you some of the hands, one of them was here today and some of them are dead.
- Q Who was that? A John Walter.
- Q Who helped you in 1868? A Why John Walter I guess.
- Q Are you positive about that? A Well we always changed work.
- Q You had been in the habit of changing work are you positive you changed that time? A Well I don't know for sure.
- Q You know Mose Hardrick didn't leave in the spring but was there as late as October of 1866? A Yes sir.
- Q If he testified he come in the spring he didn't come in the spring of 1866, it was some spring after that time, because he was up there at your place in the spring of 1866? A Why he was up there until the fall of 1866.
- Q If he testified he come in the spring, it was some spring after that? A He was mistaken, not that spring.

BY MR. PATTER:

- Q At the time these parties left that neighborhood in Kansas were you married or single? A I was single.
- Q This Mose Hardrick you speak of is he the same person who is the applicant in this case? A Yes sir.
- Q You spoke on your cross-examination something about some one tanning some deer hides for you? A That was Tom Moore.
- Q Did that instance help to refresh your memory? A Yes sir.
- Q In what way? A In the year that he tanned them. I knew what year it was.
- How do you happen to recall that instance of him tanning those hides for you? A Well after he got them tanned he took them all away and I never got but one little hide.
- Q Did he take them all away? A Yes sir.
- Q You remember you lost your hides? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you or do you not positively remember that it was in 1866 that these people left? A Yes sir.
- Q You spoke on your cross-examination of selling some ponies to Tom Moore, do you remember whether or not you sold them to him for any purpose or how he came to buy them from you? A Well I didn't have any need for them, I was making a pretty good thing out of them and he wanted a couple of ponies and I sold them to him.

Q Do you know what he bought them for?

Mr. Hastings: I object to that because Moore is not a party to this case.

On Behalf of the Commissioner: The objection will be noted.

A I don't know what he bought them for.

Q Are you testifying from facts yourself or what people told you to say? A I am testifying from what I know and from what nobody told me.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q Was it the next year after the grass hoppers were bad in Kansas that you speak of Hose Wardrick helped you thrashed? A Yes sir, it was in 1865 that the grass hoppers come and hurt our wheat. We sowed wheat in the fall of 1865,-- no it was in 1864 the grass hoppers come and destroyed the wheat, the same year I got out of the army and in the fall of 1864 we sowed again and in 1865 there was some grass hoppers there, damaged the wheat early in the spring. And it was the next year after they damaged it the grass hoppers were bad up there that Hose left? A The last grass hoppers were there in the spring along--

Q I am asking you the relative times, whether it was the next year afterwards? A Yes sir, the next the year afterwards. The grass hoppers left in the spring and it was the next fall afterwards.

Q Don't you know the grass hoppers were bad there in the fall, or in the year of 1865? A No sir, not bad in 1865.

Q Didn't hurt your crop in 1865? A No sir, it was in 1865.

Q But any how it was the next year after the grass hoppers were there? A Yes sir.

BY MR. PATTER:

Q Do you remember when the Dan Morville house was built? A Yes sir. That year was it built in? A In the spring of 1866 they commenced it.

Q Are you pretty positive that it was in the fall and not in the spring of 1866 that the people left? A Yes sir, I am pretty sure it was sometime in the fall. I am not positive as to the exact date but I am pretty sure it was in the fall.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q How far from Iola was the Dan Morville house? A It is a mile and a half from the center of the square.

Q How a mile and a half south from the center of the square, who lives there? A Davis Parsons.

Q When did they build a house down there? A Well sir I think Davis Parsons built a house there in 1867.

Q To the east of there a mile and a half, who built a house out there? A Wasn't any there.

Q How about in that neighborhood? A Wasn't any settlement up there then.

Q Who was the first house built there? A Oh I don't know built the first house east of there.

Q Who was that? A In the fall of 1866.

Q What I am trying to get at there was nothing to impress it on your mind of anybody building a house around there? A Well yes I know, there was a lot of houses built around there.

Q You mean to sit up here and tell when houses were built without anything to fix it on your memory? A I am the oldest settler in that country.

- Q Now are you willing to testify independently without anything to fix it definitely upon your mind about when these houses were built there? A Well not all of them but the first ones I know, who built them and where they were built.
- Q There is nothing to attach your memory or impress it upon your memory? A No sir, not all over the country.
- Q Why then was the Dan Horville house? A He built the finest house in the country.
- Q Well isn't there lots of fine house around in that country.
- A Yes sir, there's now, but he built the first.
- Q You never made any record of when the house was built? A No sir, nothing only just in my mind.

W I T N E S S E X C E P T E D .

J. C. THOMAS, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

BY MR. STARR:

- Q What is your name? A J. C. Thomas.
- Q What is your age? A 64.
- Q What is your post office? A Iola.
- Q Kansas? A Yes sir.
- Q How long have you lived in or around Iola, Kansas? A Ever since 1864.
- Q Where were you living in the spring of 1865? A I lived at Iola, near there, right in a half mile of the town.
- Q What direction from town? A West of town at the mill.
- Q Were you acquainted at that time with a colored man named Jeff Lyon? A I didn't know him by that name.
- Q By what name did you know him? A By Jeff.
- Q Did you know his wife? A Yes sir.
- Q What was her name? A Mahala, she done my washing until I was married.
- Q Is there any circumstance by which you fix that it was in 1865 that you lived near these people, and that they did your washing? A She never done my washing after 1865, January 5, I was married January 5, 1865, she never did my washing after that.
- Q Well did you buy a place in 1865? A Yes sir, I bought the farm I am living on now.
- Q What time in 1865 did you buy it? A In April sometime, I think the 29th.
- Q Did you get a deed to that farm? A Yes sir.

MR. Starr. Mr. Hastings we want to have a notation made of this deed.

Mr. Hastings: I have no objection whatever,

On behalf of the Commissioner: There is exhibited a deed dated April 29, 1865, signed by Jacob Rierson and his wife, Lydia Pierson, conveying certain land described therein to John C. Thomas. This deed was acknowledged before Wm. S. Newbury, a Notary Public, Allen County, Kansas, on April 29, 1865. The deed is returned to the witness.

Now where was Jeff and Mahala at the time you bought this place?

Mr. Hastings: Objected to because he has made no connection between the two as yet.

On Behalf of the Commissioner: The objection will be noted.

A He was living on Mr. Cuthorn's place.

- Q How far was that from where you lived? A On part of the place, there was a lot cut off of his place.
- Q How long did you continue to live at that place? A From 1866 until the spring of 1866.
- Q Then where did you move? A On to this place.
- Q Then when you moved on this place in the spring of 1866 where was Jeff and Mahala living? A I think they were living on the Cowhorn place.
- Q You at that time moved on the place mentioned in this deed? A Yes sir, the first of March.
- Q What became of Jeff and Mahala after that? A I don't know sir, I haven't seen them since.
- Q How long did they continue to live there after that, after you moved on to this other place? A I don't know sir, they may have lived there all summer, I couldn't give the date but I never seen them after the spring of 1866.
- Q Did they leave that part of the country in 1866? A

Mr. Hastings: Objected to for the reason that the witness says he doesn't know and didn't see them after the spring.

On Behalf of the Commissioner: The objection will be noted.

- A I never see them after that, don't know where they went.
- Q Never saw them since? A No sir.
- Q Now what was your understanding as to ~~the~~ where they went?

Mr. Hastings: Objected to because he says he doesn't know where they went and I suppose he doesn't want to testify where they went.

On Behalf of the Commissioner: The objection will be noted.

- A My understanding was that they come down here. I asked why they left there so quick, I didn't think they would leave at all, and I was told by whoever I asked that they left to come down here in time to get their claim.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q You don't know who you talked with? A No sir.
- Q And you don't know of your own personal knowledge when they left? A No sir, I don't.
- Q You cannot begin to testify and you aren't going to testify? A No sir.
- Q All you know is that after you moved on this other place you never saw them after the spring of 1866? A No sir.
- Q And you don't know whether they left that spring, or summer or when? A No sir.
- Q All you remember is that you didn't remember or seeing them after you moved? A No sir.

WITNESSES EXCUSED.

ELIZABETH THOMAS, being first duly sworn testified as follows:

BY MR. STARR:

- Q What is your name? A My name is Elizabeth Thomas.
- Q What is your age? A I am 64.
- Q What is your present office? A Iola, Kansas.
- Q How long have you lived in or around Iola, Kansas? A Well since 1858, the fall of 1858.

- Q Where were you living in 1865? A Living right in Iola, well it wasn't inside of the corporate limits but close there about 100 yards.
- Q Are you acquainted with a colored man named Jeff Lyons in 1865?
- A Yes sir.
- Q Did you know his wife Mahala? A Yes sir, she lived there close.
- Q How far did they live from where you lived? A It is hardly a quarter of a mile, I don't know really how far it was, not over that.
- Q Did you know them there in 1866? A I never saw them until here.
- Q When did you leave the place? A In the spring of 1866.
- Q Did you see them around there after the time you left? A Yes sir, before we left.
- Q What because of them after that? A They came to the Nation, to the Cherokee Nation I suppose.
- Q Now when was it that they came to the Cherokee Nation? A Well sir---

Mr. Hastings: Objected to because the witness has already stated that she didn't know, and that she never saw them after the spring of 1866.

On Behalf of the Commissioner: The objection will be noted.

- A Well I can't give the date when they came but it was shortly after we moved to our place. We moved there in the spring of 1866. We were married in 1865 and came on our place in the spring of 1866.
- Q And it was after that shortly you say they came to the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir, it was a very short time after that, but still I can't give you the date when they came.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q You don't know where they come of your own knowledge? A I am right this way, I am like everybody else, that is where they said they were coming. We didn't go with them.
- Q You didn't see them when they left there? A We went from that vicinity.
- Q Did you see them when they left? A No sir.
- Q They just dropped out of your sight and you didn't see them after the spring of 1866? A Yes sir, I said we moved on our place in 1866.
- Q Didn't you say they dropped out of your sight in the spring of 1866? A I said I hadn't been back to visit where I lived.
- Q Didn't you say you didn't see them after the spring of 1866? A I don't think I did.
- Q Now you ought to be absolutely frank with me, you don't know of your own personal knowledge whatever became of them? The folks--

On behalf of the Commissioner: Answer his question, yes or no.

- A I didn't know that they were coming down here.
- Q You lost sight of them in the spring of 1866? A Yes sir, that is what the folks said.
- Q Now you are determined to say that? A Well it is just hearsay, the same as our neighbors, everybody knows--
- Q Who lived on your place in 1867? A We lived there ourselves.
- Q Did you have any tenant? A No sir.
- Q Did you have any one in 1875? A No sir.
- Q Have you ever had one since? A One year we moved off our place and moved to a mill and ran a mill that one summer.
- Q What time did you move on this place in the summer? A In the spring, the first of March.

- Q Then after you moved there the first of March you never saw Jeff and his wife? A I don't remember of seeing them.
- Q You don't know where they were of your own personal knowledge?
- A No sir.
- Q Did they have any children? A Yes sir, one.
- Q What was its name? A Its name has slipped my mind.
- Q Boy or girl? A Boy.
- Q About how old? A Well I should judge he was 5 or 6 years old, I don't know that is just guess work.
- Q They only had one that you knew? A The only one that was with them, I have been told that she had older children that were not with her.
- Q That had only one there and it was 5 or 6? A Yes sir.
- Q That was Jeff and Mahala? A I don't know, it was called theirs.
- Q Do you know where it was born? A No sir.
- Q Did they have any born while there? A No sir.
- Q You know that? A Yes sir, I know that.
- Q This one you knew is 5 or 6 years old? A I judge it was.
- Q You never saw but the one? A That is all I had any knowledge of. If she ever told me anything about her older ones I have forgot it.

BY MR. STARR:

- Q Now Mrs. Thomas you started to say awhile ago what the folks said about where these people went when they left there?

Mr. Hastings: Objected to for the reason that this witness has already testified that she doesn't know of her own personal knowledge where they went?

On Behalf of the Commissioner: The objection will be noted.

- Q Go ahead and tell what they, what you started to say? A I said that is what the people said, that they had gone to the Cherokee country.
- Q Was that the same year you moved on the last place?

Mr. Hastings: Objected to because that is as clearly and leading question as can possible be put.

On Behalf of the Commissioner: The objection will be noted.

We have never lived on but one place, we live right where we moved when we went to housekeeping.

- Q Was that the same year you moved on this place that these people were talking about Jeff and Mahala coming to the Cherokee Nation?
- A To the best of my knowledge it was.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q Was it a month after you moved on your place? A It was more than a month.
- Q Two months? A I think it was that, well this Jeff just tended a crop that year.
- Q You don't know this? A I know the had to hire another hand, they said Jeff was gone.
- Q In making that crop? A Yes sir.
- Q Making a crop of corn? A Yes sir, a mixed crop I guess.
- Q That is what you recollect about it? A Yes sir, I wasn't on that place, I just seen the family once in a while.

WITNESSES EXCUSED.

On motion of the Commissioner this case was here continued for further hearing until June 22, 1906, at 8:45 A.M.

On June 22, 1906, in pursuance of continuance heretofore had in this case, the hour of 8:45 A. M. having arrived, this case was called for further hearing, and the following proceedings were had on this day.

R. J. MORRIS, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

BY MR. PATTER:

- Q What is your name? A R. J. Morris.
- Q Where do you live? A Iola, Allen County, Kansas.
- Q How old are you? A Past 61.
- Q How long have you lived there? A A little bit over 50 years.
- Q Were you a soldier in the Civil War? A No sir.
- Q Did you know a man by the name of Mose Hardrick, a colored man about war time? A Yes sir.
- Q When did you first become acquainted with him? A Personally acquainted with him in 1864, we were out together in Price's Raid, there is where I got personally acquainted with Mose.
- Q Did you continue to know him after that time? A I did for a year or two.
- Q Do you know where he lived in the year 1866? A He lived on a farm owned by Eli Lorraine.
- Q Where were you living at that time? A Two miles northwest on Deer Creek.
- Q Were you pretty well acquainted with him? A Yes sir, very well acquainted with him.
- Q How frequently did you see him during the year 1866? A I probably see him once a week, maybe twice or three times. I went to town pretty often then and most every Saturday I would see Mose in town.
- Q Did you know Jeff Lyons? A Yes sir, I knew the man, I wasn't so much acquainted with him as I was with Mose.
- Q Did you know Tom Moore? A Yes sir, very well acquainted with Tom.
- Q Did you know Butler McNair? A Yes sir.
- Q Where did these other people live, Jeff Lyons, where did he live? A Jeff Lyons lived on Cowhorn's place, joined right up to Iola on the southwest.
- Q Was that close in the neighborhood where you lived? A Probably five miles.
- Q Where did Butler live? A On Deer Creek about 4 miles from me.
- Q Where did Tom live? A ON Coover's place, a mile north of where Butler lived.
- Q Do you know how long these people continued to live in that neighborhood? A They were there until the fall of 1866.
- Q And where did they go, if you know? A I don't know, they left there and said--they were talking of coming back home, I suppose the Territory. They left there at that time along sometime in October or November, I couldn't say which month.
- Q Now about how do you fix it that this was in the fall of 1866, rather than 1867 or '65 that they left? A Well I was at that time a single man, I was married in 1867.
- Q And about how long before you were married did they leave? A Year.
- Q And what time in the year 1867 were you married? A In the latter part, in the fall, or rather in the winter, along in November.
- Q Do you know when the Dan Morville house was built up in that community? A I couldn't say as to that, it was built in the early days.
- Q You don't know what year? A No sir.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q It is pretty long to remember when people's houses were built around there? A All I will tell you that was about the finest house put up in that country then.
- Q But you cannot remember? A No sir, I couldn't say what year.
- Q You would not like to say from an independent memory? A No sir.
- Q You say you were only slightly acquainted with Jeff Lyons? A Yes sir, only slightly acquainted with him, never met him very much.
- Q You perhaps knew there was a colored man by that name? A Yes sir.
- Q You don't know the members of his family? A No sir.
- Q You don't know anything about the members of Tom Moore's family? A I knew his wife, a girl Rose, an adopted girl.
- Q How old was Rose? A She was just a little bit of a girl.
- Q About what age? A Probably 7 or 8 years old.
- Q Well now what place did Tom live on? A On Coover's place.
- Q About how far was that from where you lived? A About 4 miles.
- Q Well was that settlement around Iola pretty thickly settled? A Yes sir, tolerable.
- Q You had no special reason to remember Tom Moore and you are testifying from your independent recollection? A Nothing more than that he had a mare I used to want and I would try to trade for that mare.
- Q You made no note or nothing of that? A No sir.
- Q You are just testifying from your own independent recollection? A Yes sir.
- Q And these people, you could be mistaken as to the time you last saw them? Yes sir, it is possible.
- Q You are not going to state it here and swear positively as to that? A Only as to my recollection.
- Q You have no record guide you? A No sir.
- Q And the same is true of Butler McNair? A Yes sir.
- Q And of the others you have testified? A Yes sir, I would not attempt to say positively.
- Q You might be mistaken some 3 or 4 months, possible a year? A I don't think I am mistaken as to the time they left there.
- Q It is possible you could be though? A Yes sir.
- Q Because it is 40 years ago? A Yes sir, long time ago, I know it was they left there before I was married.
- Q You have not nothing that connects your marriage with them? A No sir.
- Q They didn't attend your marriage or anything of that kind? A No sir.
- Q I want to ask you about your marriage? A No sir, I didn't ask them anything about it, I asked the woman, she consented and we got married.
- Q Well I know, you often times thought have help around there? A They would have been there at the wedding.
- Q I say there is nothing in the way of who cooked the wedding dinner or anything of that kind to connect one circumstance with the other? A No sir.
- Q As I understand you these were colored people living there in the country that you knew? A Yes sir.
- Q You knew a great many there, colored people there? A Yes sir.
- Q And these people dropped out of your sight about the time you indicated? A Yes sir.
- Q You are not going to testify as to where they went to? A No sir.
- Q You never saw them in the Cherokee Nation until recently? A No sir.
- Q Some of them you have never seen? A No sir, and never will see unless I happen to go to the same place in the happy hunting ground.

- Q Might for aught you know? A Yes sir, we might meet in the happy hunting ground.
- Q They left there at the same time Butler McNair? A Yes sir, all disappeared at the same time.
- Q That is all dropped out of your sight? A Yes sir.
- Q You were not there when either of them left? A No sir.

BY MR. PATTEN:

- Q You were more particular acquainted with Mose Hardrick? A Yes sir, Mose more particularly.
- Q Are you pretty positive to the best of your judgment it was in the fall of 1866? A Yes sir, that is my judgment that they left there in the fall of 1866.
- Q When they left there where did you understand that they went?

Mr. Hastings: I object to that as being heresay.

On behalf of the Commissioner: The objection will be noted.

- A They were coming back home, back to the Territory, that was my understanding.

W I T N E S S E X C U S E D .

CALVIN ROSS, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

BY MR. PATTEN:

- Q State your name? A Calvin Ross.
- Q How old are you? A 66, 67 next spring.
- Q Where do you live? A Iola, Kansas.
- Q How long have you lived there? A I have been there ever since the war.
- Q Did you know Mose Hardrick during the war? A Yes sir, I knowed him.
- Q Did you know Jeff Lyons? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you know Butler McNair? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you know Tom Moore? A Yes sir.
- Q When did you first become acquainted with them? A Well after they went up to Kansas, that is Butler and Tom, Mose and Jeff all belonged to the same man down here.
- Q Did you go up there with them? A Yes sir.
- Q Were you in the Territory here before the war? A Yes sir, raised right over here on the Grand River.
- Q Did you go to Kansas with that party up here? A Yes sir.
- Q Where were you living in the year 1866 after the war? A Up there.
- Q Where? A Iola.
- Q How far from Iola? A Right in town.
- Q Do you know where Mose Hardrick was living then? A Yes sir.
- Q Where? A On the Loranee place.
- Q Do you know where Jeff Lyons was living? A On the Cowhorn place.
- Q Do you know where Butler and Tom were living? A I don't exactly know, I know they lived on Deer Creek there.
- Q Do you know when Mose Hardrick and Jeff Lyons left the community up there? A Yes sir.
- Q When did they leave? A Along about '66, along about the fall like.
- Q Do you remember about what month, or what time of the year?
- A Well it was fall of the year, latter part of August somewhere along there.

- Q That was in the year 1866? A Yes sir.
- Q Where did they go, if you know? A Well they started down here, they said to the Nation.
- Q Have you lived in that community almost every since? A Yes sir.
- Q Have they ever been up there since? A I haven't seen them, never saw Mose until yesterday.
- Q Do you know whether or not there was another man up there in that neighborhood named Calvin Ross? A Yes sir, all belonged to the same set of people, kinsfolks, but I knowed him, he belonged to Mr. Josh Ross's mother here, and I belonged to Lewis Ross.
- Q You are not an applicant here at all for citizenship are you, you have been in Kansas all the time? A I was in Kansas.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q You are the same man that applied here for citizenship? A Not this court.
- Q Yes to this Commission? A When?
- Q Well are you? A No I aint applied for anything in this court here.
- Q Did you ever apply? A I did in the Wallace court.
- Q About four years ago? A No sir, not 4 years ago.
- Q Have you ever applied? A Why I did in the Wallace Court, I don't know how long that has been but then I wasn't living here.
- Q What year was it? A I don't know what year it was then, it was in the Wallace Court.
- Q Who were your witnesses? A Why old man John Martin.
- Q Did you draw money from the Wallace Court? A Didn't get nothing, not five cents.
- Q Did you make application to the Kern-Clifton Commission in 1896?
- A No sir.
- Q Did you live in Iola, in the town of Iola? A Yes sir.
- Q Where did Mose live? A On the Lorange place north of town, northwest.
- Q I believe you stated that you never made any special note of when they left there? A No sir, I didn't keep no count when they left there.
- Q Well did you keep any account of it, have you got any memorandum in your possession? A I said they left in the fall of 1866, I will tell you the reason why, I worked some along with Jeff and that fall he said he wanted to hurry and get down here before the limit run out.
- Q I am not asking about that, I am asking you if you have got any record in your pocket about when they left? A No sir, I aint got no date when they left, I know it was '66 along in the latter part.
- Q Did Butler McNair leave at the same time? A Yes sir, he and Tom Moore.
- Q All of them go? A Yes sir.
- Q You have never been to the Cherokee Nation since? A I have been here several times visiting.
- Q You never come in 1866 yourself? A No sir.
- Q What was the first time you come here after the war? A Time of the Wallace Court.
- Q You come and applied for money yourself, did you? A I come to see what I could do, they said everybody.
- Q Did you apply for it? A I went in to enroll and they----
- Q Did you get on? A Yes sir, they said I was on it.
- Q Did you get any money? A No sir, they took my name off.
- Q You don't know what year that was? A No sir.
- Q Are you married? A I have been.
- Q What year were you married? A '70

- Q What were you doing up until 1870, you never was married? A What was I doing before I married.
- Q Yes, were you working up there? A Yes sir.

- Q What others lived there, now named them all? A I have named all I recollect of.

- Q Now lets go over them again so we can get them more together, all that were living in that house at that time? A I couldn't tell you all of them. That has been a long time ago and I couldn't be positive to state but all of them people were living in that house.
- Q It is a long time to testify about? A Yes sir.
- Q And you don't want to be positive about that? A Yes sir, I am positive I saw Uncle Mose Hardrick there because I knew him so well.
- Q Tell us who else and all you saw there? A I seen Tom Moore there, I seen Uncle Mose Hardrick's children.
- Q Well who else? A I seen Aunt Sallie Lyons.
- Q Was that Jeff Lyons' wife? A I think it was. It has been so long ago, there was a whole lot of them there, that was Mike Moore's mother.
- Q What was her name? A I think it was Aunt Salie.
- Q You knew her before the war? A No sir, I used to run with Mike Moore, I knew him, raised with him and went with him.
- Q His mother was named Sarah? A Not Sarah, I think it was Salie it has been so long I forget, ---No Mahala that was it.
- Q Who told you? A I just happened to think of it.
- Q You just heard one of those boys back there say it, didn't you?
- A No sir, but that was her name.
- Q She was living there then? A Yes sir.
- Q Well where was Bob Daniels living? A I don't recollect. It has been so long, I would not come up and say who all lived there exactly except old Uncle Mose and them people I know personally a long while.
- Q You are ready to testify about them? A Yes sir, you too.
- Q But you are not ready to testify what children Mose had? A Yes sir, I can testify to that.
- Q Give them here? A I cannot give them all.
- Q Then you are not ready to testify? A Yes sir, I am about Eliza Hardrick.
- Q Did he have any others? A Yes sir, two or three more
- Q What were their names? A I don't recollect it, --there was Cy.
- Q He was there at that time? A I don't recollect whether Cy was there at that time. I knowed Uncle Mose had two or three children but that was Eliza, she was the oldest.
- Q What I am trying to get at, you say Mose had some two or three other children there at that time and I am asking you the names of any of them except Eliza, that was there in January, 1867?
- A I don't recollect the names.
- Q But you know he had them? A Yes sir, I know he had them.
- Q Was he living up stairs or down stairs? A I don't recollect that.
- Q Do you remember who was living up stairs? A No sir.

WILLIAM BIRD, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

BY MR. PATTEN:

- Q State your name? A William Bird.
- Q Where do you live? A Allen County, Kansas.

Mr. Hastings: Comes now the representative of the Cherokee Nation and call the attention of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes that no notice was served upon the representative of the Cherokee Nation that the testimony of the witness William Bird was expected to be taken in this case. That notice was received by the representative of the Cherokee Nation only upon June 18; that this witness was expected to give testimony in this case, and no affidavit was filed as to what he is expected to testify to and his name was not included in a list of witnesses in the motion to reopen; and that it is unfair to the Cherokee Nation for notice to be given only three days in advance of the date the case is set for hearing of non-resident witnesses, and for these reasons object to the witness testifying in the case.

Mr. Patten: The Attorneys for applicants ask in reply to the motion of the Attorney for the Cherokee Nation, that the letter written to the Honorable Commissioner on June 16, 1906, advising the Commissioner of the names and post office addresses of the witnesses now sought to be introduced be filed and made a part of the record in this case. We further contend that the introduction of this witness is not unfair for the reason that his name and post office address have been previously furnished the Attorney for the Cherokee Nation, and if there is any unfairness it is because his name and post office address is at all required to be furnished being since the applicants in this case are not entitled to and are not in a position to require the Cherokee Nation to furnish the names or post office address of a single witness. And further we would call attention to the Departmental letter in the Thomas Mayfield case, dated April 12, 1906, that shows that the affidavits of witnesses sought to be introduced on new hearing are not required previous to the introduction of such witnesses.

On behalf of the Commissioner: The records of this office show that under date of June 18, 1906, there was received a letter from Messrs. Starr & Patten, Attorneys in this case, dated June 16, 1906, advising that they expected to introduce at the hearing in the cases of Moses Hardrick, et al., the testimony of William Bird of Iola, Kansas, and that they had on that date advised the Attorneys of the Cherokee Nation thereof, giving the name and address of said witness.

Mr. Birby, Commissioner: The records of this office show that on May 24, 1906, the Attorneys for applicant were notified that the Freedman enrollment case of Moses Hardrick, et al., would be taken up for hearing at the offices of the Commissioner on June 21, 1906, and that they would be required to furnish this office with the names and addresses of such witnesses as they proposed to introduce in addition to the witnesses who signed affidavits filed with the motion to reopen the case, in sufficient time for this office to give the Attorneys for the Cherokee Nation at least two full weeks notice of the names and addresses of the witnesses proposed to be introduced. It is advised therein in accordance with the Department's direction to this office of April 12, 1906 (I.T.D. 4071-1906), in the cases of Thomas Mayfield, et al., in view of the advise to the Attorneys and of the Department's direction to this office in the Mayfield cases the motion of the Attorney for the Cherokee Nation will be sustained, and the testimony of the witness William Bird will not be taken.

Mr. Starr: To which the applicants except.

JENNIE DOWNING, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

Mr. Hastings: Comes now the representative of the Cherokee Nation and object to all of these leading questions put to this witness as the past few questions have been.

On Behalf of the Commissioner: The objection will be noted.

- A Yes sir, Mike went there then.
- Q And that was when? A That was in the spring.
- Q Of what year? A '67 or '66, '67 I think it was.
- Q Do you remember the occasion of the death of Harvey Frye? A Yes sir.
- Q When was that? A In March.
- Q Of what year? A '67. They dismissed school for us all to go and attend the funeral.
- Q Where was he buried? A He was buried right at that graveyard on the hill, I think on the east side of the house if I mistake not, it has been so long.
- Q Who dug that grave, do you know or not? A Uncle Jeff Lyon and Lewis Rowe.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q Mose Hardrick ever lose any other children? A Any of his children.
- Q Did Andy Frye lost any other children? A Yes sir, lost one more, girl.
- Q After that? A Just before or after that.
- Q What year did the other one die? A I don't know.
- Q Don't have any idea about that? A No sir, I don't know.
- Q You don't know whether it was one year before, or two years after? A No sir, I don't.
- Q It may have been 5 years afterwards? A I couldn't tell.
- Q You have got no idea about that? A No sir.
- Q You had no education before this, you couldn't read and write at this time? A No sir.
- Q You would not like to be positive about this like that? A No sir.
- Q Did Mose Hardrick lose any children? A Not that I know of.
- Q Did Jeff Lyons ever lose any? A Not that I know of.
- Q Did Nels Moore ever lose any? A Not that I know of.
- Q Did anybody else in that country ever lose any? A Not at that time you speak of.
- Q I don't mean at that time, did Mose, Jeff or any of your neighbors in that country at any time after that have any children die?
- A They had some to die.
- Q Who? A I don't know, Mose Hardrick might have lost some too.

- Q Well how long afterwards? A I couldn't tell you.
- Q Don't you know the date Mose lost his children? A No sir, I don't.
- Q But they were after that time? A Yes sir, I suppose they were.
- Q Well how long did you live there in that neighborhood after that?
- A Why we moved from from there, we didn't live so long awhile before we moved away.
- Q About how many years? A I guess it was a year, or it may have been a little longer.
- Q May have been two or three years? A Yes sir, before we moved away from there, no not quite that long, probably a year or two years.
- Q Probably two years? A Yes sir, before we moved away from there.
- Q How far did you move from there? A I don't know.
- Q In the same neighborhood? A No sir, we moved on the Filmore Hicks place.
- Q How far from this Thompson place? A I don't know just how far?
- Q About 5 or 6 miles? A Yes sir, I guess it was.
- Q Do you know what year you moved down there? A No sir, I don't.
- Q How long did you live down there? A About two seasons.
- Q Do you know what year you left down there? A No sir.
- Q It is a pretty long time ago to testify about things that happened then, aint it? A A good while.
- Q Were you married afterwards or were you married at that time?
- A Married afterwards.
- Q What year were you married? A I was married in, I would not be positive, I was married in '74.
- Q You would not be positive about that? A I think it was.
- Q Do you know what year they made the Wallace Roll? A If I mistake not I think it was in '95 or '96, something like that.
- Q That is when they made the Wallace Roll? A I think it was.
- Q Now when did they make the Kern-Clifton roll? A I disremember, I wont be positive about that.
- Q You don't know what year the freedmen drew their first money do you? A No sir, I don't.
- Q You don't recollect the years of any of the payments? A There was one payment I could tell you and that was the 1880 payment. I think they paid once in '80.
- Q In that same year of 1880? A I think they paid off money that year.
- Q What time of the year? A I don't remember.
- Q You don't recollect it? A No sir.
- Q Don't know whether it was spring, fall, summer or winter? A No sir.
- Q Don't know where you were living? A Yes sir, I was living on Spring Creek.
- Q You said you were living on the Johnson Thompson place, when did he come back there after the war? A I don't know.
- Q Don't you have any idea? A No sir.
- Q Well you knew Johnson Thompson? A I was just acquainted with him, they would say it was him.
- Q He was afterwards a merchant up there? A He was?
- Q Wasn't he? A I suppose so.
- Q Don't you know that? A They say he was a merchant.
- Q Didn't you ever see him? A I saw him at a distance but never went to his store.
- Q Didn't you ever know where he lived? A Johnson Thompson's place was on this side of the river and the old place we moved on was on the east side of the river.
- Q How far were those two places apart? A They are not very far apart, the river is between them.

- Q And you claim you lived at one place and the river is just between you and the other? A Yes sir.
- Q You don't have any idea at all when Johnson Thompson returned to that place? A No sir.
- Q Don't have the slightest idea about it? A I could have a slight idea but that would not do me any good to tell it.
- Q What is your judgment about it? A I don't know, I couldn't tell you.
- Q You have got no judgment at all about it? A When he returned? Yes? A No sir, I have seen him.
- Q How did Mose come down there? A I couldn't tell you.
- Q You don't have any idea? A No sir.
- Q Did he have a wife? A Not when I saw him.
- Q Well how many years afterwards before he brought his wife? A I couldn't tell you.
- Q As much as 3 or 4? A I don't know.
- Q Is that your judgment? A I couldn't tell you when I saw Mose Hardrick, I saw him personally---
- Q How many years after that before you saw his wife and family? A I guess probably a month, or two or three months when I saw his family.
- Q Where were you living when you saw his family? A Down on the river below there. I was staying with my Aunt on the Reuben Downing place.
- Q I thought you lived at the Dr. Thompson place? A I did when I saw him, but when I saw his wife I am telling you.
- Q When did you leave the Dr. Thompson place? A I don't know.
- Q How long after Christmas? A Quite awhile.
- Q Two or three months? A I couldn't tell just when it was we left that place.
- Q What is your best judgment about the time you left there? A Well I don't know, you see we went to school there.
- Q There on the Thompson place? A Yes sir.
- Q You said that started up in March, so you were atill on the Thompson place in March? A Yes sir.
- Q And you yet hadn't seen Mose Hardrick's wife when you left that place? A Yes sir, I was at my aunt's before.
- Q That was after you left the Thompson place? A Yes sir.
- Q Then that was after March? A I suppose so, when I saw his wife.
- Q Then he didn't have any wife there when you first saw him? A No sir, I saw him personally.
- Q Anybody else with him? A Nobody with him when I saw him.
- Q Were you living in one of Dr. Thompson's house? A We were living there in the old brick house.
- Q Where did he come from? A Come from across the river when he come there.
- Q He wasn't living in that house? A No sir, not the first time.
- Q He wasn't living there until after you left? A After we left he moved there.
- Q Anyhow up until the time you left and you stayed there until after March, 1867, he never lived in that Dr. Thompson house? A No sir, he wasn't there when I left, I suppose he moved in after we left.
- Q Well you never saw Jeff Lyons there at all? A Yes sir.
- Q When did you see him there? A I saw Jeff there just a little before Christmas or just after Christmas.
- Q Did he have his wife? A Yes sir.
- Q The first time you saw him? A Yes sir.
- Q Where were they living? A Right there on the same place.
- Q On the Thompson place? A Yes sir.
- Q Did they live in the same house? A They lived in a little brick house. He moved in where she taught school in the little brick house.
- Q That was Jeff? A Yes sir.
- Q What was Jeff's wife's name? A Patience.

- Q That was Jeff Lyons' wife? A Mahala I mean.
Q Now you say it was Mahala, you see her? A Yes sir.
Q Did you see Butler McNair there? A No sir.
Q You didn't see Tom Moore? A No sir.
Q They never come there while you were at the Thompson place? A No sir.
Q Now if I recollect right, you lived there at the Thompson place until after they started school there and then afterwards moved down on the Downing place? A No sir, I didn't move down there, just went down there to stay a week or two with my aunt.
Q You don't know where Mose come from when he come there? A No sir, I don't.

ON BEHALF OF THE COMMISSIONER:

- Q How old are you? A I am 54 years old.
Q Your post office Catale? A Yes sir.
Q Are you a Cherokee freedman? A Yes sir.
Q Have you got any children? Yes sir.

- Q It is pretty hard for an old slave to be correct about dates aint it? A Yes sir.
- Q You don't know when your second child was born do you? A No sir, I don't remember.
- Q How many did you have Joe? A I believe I have got 14.
- Q You don't know when any of them were born? A I don't remember the year they were born. The children get so they could read they put it down, I didn't keep no trace of it, I didn't have to.
- Q So you don't know about any of the dates of their birth? A I don't remember.
- Q Did you ever lose any children? A Yes sir.
- Q Was it your oldest one? A No sir.

- Q You don't remember what year it died, do you? A No sir.
- Q Did you lose more than one? A Yes sir.
- Q How many have you lost Joe? A 8.
- Q You have lost 8? A Yes sir.
- Q You don't mean you have got 14 living? A No sir.
- Q Had 14 all together and have lost 8? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you know the year any one of them died? A No sir.
- Q You don't know any of these years do you? A Yes sir. I don't really keep track of none of the years now, but I had to keep track of '66.
- Q That is all you kept track of? A That is all I tried to keep track of.
- Q Who came to you and talked to you about testifying in this case? A Nobody.
- Q Nobody never talked to you at all as to what you would testify? A I don't remember any person.
- Q Don't remember any person ever having talked to you about testifying in this case? A I don't remember nobody.
- Q Well now you are positive about that? A No sir, I aint positive about it.
- Q I want you to tell if anybody ever talked to you about testifying in this case? A Some person I disremember who it was, whether it was Mose, I believe it was. I asked me if I would testify in his case.
- Q When did you see Mose, yesterday? A I saw him yesterday and I saw him sooner.
- Q When did he first talk to you about testifying in this case? A It has been about two months ago.
- Q Did you make an affidavit in this case? A No sir, I don't remember anything about that.
- Q And you don't remember how long it was after you first saw Mose before you saw his wife? A No sir, I don't remember how long it was.
- Q May have been two or three years? A No sir, it wasn't that long.
- Q May have been a year? A I don't think it was that long.
- Q You are not going to be positive about that? A No sir, I won't be positive.
- Q How long was it before you saw Jeff's wife after you saw Jeff? A Saw them about the same time.
- Q The two women? A Yes sir.
- Q Did they have any children then when you first saw them? A Yes sir.
- Q Now what children did Mose have? A I don't remember the children's name, I never paid attention to them. I was very well acquainted with the men and I never paid any attention to the children.
- Q Did Jeff have any children? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you remember their names when you first saw his wife? A As well as I remember they had three children there.
- Q How far did you live from the Dr. Thompson place? A 8 miles.

Q Was Crap down there at that time? A Yes sir, he was on the old---
Q Arsenie place? A No sir, it is the old Landrum place. Charles Landrum.
Q Did you know Johnson Thompson? A Yes sir.
Q Was he living up there just across the river from this Dr. Thompson place? A I didn't see him.
Q Did you see him the next spring? A No sir.

BY MR STARR:

- Q Was it in the fall of the same year that the Horse Creek fight occurred upon Horse Creek in the Cherokee Nation that you saw Jeff Lyons and Moses Hardrick up there?

Mr. Hastings: Objected to by the representative of the Cherokee Nation as this question is about as leading as one could possibly be, because it places the material facts in the mouth of the witness and allows him to answer it by yes or no.

On Behalf of the Commissioner: The objection will be noted.

A Yes sir.

- Q Is that the way you fix the date that you saw them up there?

Mr. Hastings: Objected to because that is leading.

On Behalf of the Commissioner: The objection will be noted.

A Yes sir, that is how come me to remember.

ON BEHALF OF THE COMMISSIONER:

- Q Have you ever testified in this case before? A No sir.
Q How far do you live from Mose Hardrick now? A 40 miles I reckon.
Q Have you lived that distance from him for the last 5 years? A Yes sir.
Q Have you seen him frequently during that time? A Yes sir, I have seen him.
Q Did you see him a number of times when the Commission was making the Cherokee roll out in camp? A Yes sir.
Q Did you ever say anything to you at that time about getting you to testify for him? A No sir.

Q Did he go back to Kansas and get her? A Yes sir.
Q Where did Butler McNair move when he left the Dr. Thompson place? A Down the river some place to the old home place where he used to live.
Q Then did Fox Moore go to from there? Built a house right close to where my brothers live now and died right there.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q What year were you born? A 1851.
Q You was just a boy then at the close of the war? A Yes sir.
Q You were a slave were you? A Yes sir.
Q Could you read or write when the war closed? A I couldn't very much, have learned a little since then.
Q I said when the war closed? A No sir.
Q Did Andy Frye have any children to die besides Harvey? A I don't know.
Q You lived in that same neighborhood don't you? A Yes sir. Tell he had some more to die after that.
Q How long after Harvey died? A I don't know.
Q Two years or 10? A I don't know.
Q Haven't you got no better judgment, whether it was 5 or 15? A I couldn't tell you.
Q Do you know who dug the grave? A I wasn't there. I was at the burying.
Q About the other children? A I was at the burying when they buried Joe.
Q Was he a girl or boy? A He was a man.
Q Do you know when he died? A I don't know the year.
Q But you were at his burial? A Yes sir.
Q You were there in the neighborhood when he died? A Have been there all my life.
Q You don't know who dug that grave? A The neighborhood dug it there no certain person.

- Q Well did Mose Hardrick have any children to die? A Yes sir, he has not dead children.
- Q What were their names? A Got one dead named Winnie.
- Q Now who dug these graves for Mose Hardrick's children? A Why all the neighborhood, the men around there.
- Q You don't know who did it? A Just all of us.
- Q No particular one? A No sir, whole lot of us.
- Q What year was it? A Somewhere away back yonder in them days.
- Q Can you come in 10 years of when either of them died?
- A This girl when she died she was about grown, and I guess it has been about that long since she died.
- Q It has been about that long? A May be longer, I don't know.
- Q I am asking you if you can give us an estimate of within 10 years of when she died? A I don't know when she died or anything like that.
- Q Didn't keep any record of these dates? A No sir.
- Q Are you related to Mose Hardrick? A No sir.
- Q Are you related to Jeff Lyons? A No sir.
- Q Are you related to those Moore children? A Yes sir.

- Q Was she back there with Jeff Lyons, did she come with him when he first come? A No sir, he went back and got her.
- Q Then about how old was Mike when the war closed? A I don't know, might have been 7 or 8 years old, maybe older, I don't know.
- Q What is your best judgment? A About 8, maybe 10.
- Q How old was he when he come down there after the war? A That is what I mean about that old, I suppose, I didn't know anything about his age. That is as near as I can guess at it.
- Q You don't know what year he was born? A No sir.
- Q When did you first come back to the Cherokee Nation? A Come in the fall of 1865.
- Q What place did you come to? A Stopped at Johnson Thompson place.
- Q How long did you stay there? A About four weeks.
- Q Then where did you go? A Moved across the river to the Bob Daniels place.
- Q Was that across the river? A Yes sir, on the south side of the river.
- Q How long did you stay there? A I don't know exactly how long we stayed there, just a short time.
- Q Where did you come to from there? A Fort Gibson.
- Q Then how long did you stay at Fort Gibson? A During that winter until the next spring.
- Q Stayed there from the winter of 1866 until the spring of 1867?
- Q Stayed there until the spring of '66, until the winter of '66 to the spring, then we moved back.
- Q Then you remained in Fort Gibson until the spring of '66?
- A No sir, we were up-----
- Q How long did you remain in Fort Gibson? A Stayed there,--We remained there a couple of months maybe a little longer, I don't know.
- Q Well what time did you go there? A Went there that winter.
- Q Winter after Christmas and stayed there until spring, then we moved back up to this Daniels place.
- Q To the Bob Daniels place? A Yes sir.
- Q Which Bob Daniels place did you move to? A The one on the east side of the river.
- Q How far was that from the Dr. Thompson place? A About a mile and a half south I reckon.

- Q Now about what time in the spring did you go to this Daniels place? A It was along the time to farm, to make a crop.
- Q Did you make a crop there in the spring of 1866? A Yes sir.
- Q Where were you in the spring of 1867? A There on this same place.
- Q Did you make a crop there in the spring of 1867? A Yes sir.
- Q When did Bob Daniels come back? A In the fall of '66.

- Q About what month was that? A It was in the fall.
- Q How long after that now was it before you saw Jeff Lyons and his wife down here? A Why as near as I remember along in the spring of '67.
- Q That is when you saw Jeff Lyons and his wife? A No sir, saw Jeff along that winter.
- Q About how long after you moved out of this Bob Daniels house before you saw Jeff Lyons? A They were all living there before, Jeff and them.
- Q What time was it Jeff come there? A In the winter.
- Q You say Bob Daniels came up there in the fall of 1866 with his family and you moved out and they moved in? A Yes sir.
- Q How long after you moved out of Bob Daniels house and he moved in was it that you saw Jeff and Mahala and Mose and the others? A They were all living there.
- Q Haven't you already swore that you didn't see them until the winter of 1866? A Yes sir, I seed them in the winter of '66.
- Q Well now you moved out of the Bob Daniels house in the fall of 1866? A As near as I remember.
- Q Well the fall come before winter, didn't it? A That was in the fall we moved out of there.
- Q Then you saw Jeff Lyons and his wife and Mike about Christmas time of that winter, is that it? A Yes sir.
- Q Now where had you moved to when you moved out of the Bob Daniels house, did you move to another house in the same place? A Yes sir, a little bit of a house.
- Q A log house or cabin? A Yes sir.
- Q And you were living in that and Bob Daniels was living in the main house? A Yes sir.
- Q When you saw Jeff and his wife and Mose Hardrick and Mose's wife, is that the way of it, along about Christmas time? A They all lived there before that.
- Q Haven't you swore that you never saw them until the winter? A I saw them the winter of '66.
- Q Haven't you swore that you moved out of the Bob Daniels house in the fall of 1866? A Yes sir.
- Q Now don't the fall come before winter? A Yes sir.
- Q Then you had moved out of the Bob Daniels house, the main house in a smaller house when you first saw Jeff and Mose and their wives? A I saw them before that. Them people were all living there before we moved out.
- Q You moved out of the house in the fall of 1866? A Yes sir.
- Q You are a half brother of Mike, are you? A Yes sir.
- Q Are you any kin to Nels? A Yes sir.

- Q Have you and Nels been discussing the case? A No sir.
- Q Didn't I see you not half an hour ago down there talking about it? A I don't know whether you did or not.
- Q Were you not? A I don't know.
- Q Do you deny talking about it? A No sir, might have been talking about something else.
- Q This same man Nels is a witness here? A Yes sir.
- Q You have talked about it? A Yes sir.
- Q You and Andy Fry have talked about it? A Yes sir.
- Q Are you married? A Yes sir.
- Q Certain of that? A Yes sir.
- Q I am glad you are certain of something. What year were you married? A Married in '91.

- Q Do you remember of seeing Jeff Lyons in the Cherokee Nation after the close of the war? A Yes sir.
- Q When was the first time you remember of having seen him? A I guess it was along in the winter after Christmas 1867.
- Q The winter of what year? A I guess it must have been '67 when I seen Jeff Lyons.
- Q You mean the winter? A Of '67.
- Q You meant it was following the Christmas of 1867? A Yes sir.
- Q Where did you see him? A Down to,--I seen Mose down in that country.
- Q Mose who? A Mose Hardrick.
- Q Where did you see him? A Down to Uncle Fred Martin's.
- Q Where is that? A Down to Greenbrier.
- Q Where was Mose living at that time, do you know? A He said up in the Arsonie settlement.
- Q Where was it? A About 8 miles above where we were.
- Q When was the first time you saw Jeff Lyons? A Along about that time, sometime about then. A I didn't see Jeff the time I seen Mose, saw Jeff later on.
- Q At what place did you see him? A I don't know just exactly what place that was but it was somewhere down there about Uncle Griffin. Grand-dad Griffin was his name, he lived across the river in the Six Mile Bottom.
- Q These times you fix as seeing Mose Hardrick and Jeff Lyons is about when? A About February I suppose.
- Q Of what year? A '67 I guess.
- Q Do you know where Tom Moore and Butler Nowair were at that time? A No sir.
- Q When was the first time you saw them? A I never seen them until way after that.
- Q Didn't see him until later on? A No sir, I wasn't acquainted with them until after that.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q You never saw neither Mose nor Jeff until February, 1867? A Yes sir.
- Q That is your first time? A Yes sir, as well as I recollect.
- Q You are now testifying from your independent recollection, you haven't got anything to guide you by? A I never did have nothing to guide me by, only what I have to testify about.

- Q That has been a long time ago? A Yes sir, so it has.
- Q And it is pretty difficult to testify about things that happened, without some special note be made of them? A Yes sir. I can think of a good many things done before the war.
- Q Can you read and write? A No sir.
- Q You were a slave before the war? A Yes sir.
- Q Where was this young Tom Moore living when you first saw Mose and Jeff? A I don't know sir, he must have been living with his Uncle Tom.
- Q Were you acquainted with Mose before the war? A Yes sir, lived about two miles of him.
- Q Before the war? A Yes sir.
- Q Are you a brother of Tom who was on the stand awhile ago? Yes sir.
- Q And Joe? A Yes sir.
- Q When were you first talked to about testifying in this case? A I never talked about it to no one more than Uncle Mose asked me to come down on his case.
- Q When? A About a year ago I guess. I never went before the Commission on Moses case at all and he asked me to testify for him in the case.
- Q Where were you when he asked you? A I don't know where we met very frequently at Vinita.
- Q What month was it he asked you to testify? A I don't remember what month that was.
- Q And that was about a year ago? A Yes sir, and I didn't know any more about the case until he come to me and told me.
- Q You don't remember what month it was? A No sir.
- Q If you can't remember a month that happened a year ago, how is it you can remember things that happened forty years ago? A 40 years ago, because it strikes my mind more than them do now.
- Q You were about 23 years old then? A Yes sir, I guess so.
- Q Are you married? A Yes sir.
- Q When were you married? A I guess in about '66, I guess or '67.
- Q You don't remember the year? A No sir.
- Q You couldn't tell that? A I couldn't tell, I have got it in my book.
- Q But you cannot tell that independently? A I was married in '68 if I mistake not.
- Q Was it 1867 or '68? A I think it was '68.
- Q Are you positive about it? A I am pretty near positive but I want besure. If I was at home I would tell you, I would go by my book.
- Q You are not willing to trust your memory as well as you are the book? A No sir.
- Q If it wasn't for the book you couldn't tell? A I recollect back when I was a little slave boy.
- Q I am asking you now when your first child was born? A I couldn't tell about that.
- Q How many children did you have? A I got two children living and 6 or 7 or 8 dead.
- Q When did your first child die? A That has slipped my remembrance.
- Q It has been a good long while? A Yes sir.
- Q You couldn't trust your recollection to that could you? A No sir.
- Q A man uneducated and a slave couldn't trust his memory to dates, could he? A No sir, not what year.
- Q And you don't know when any single one of them were born? A I know one of them was born in February, but I don't remember the year.
- Q When did Rob Daniels come back up in that country? A About '67.

- Q What time in 1867? A I don't know just what time.
Q In January? A It might have been January, but it was in that year sometime I think.
Q Well do you think it was in January or December? A I don't know I couldn't say which year it was. It might have been in September and it might have been in October, I don't know just what time it was.
Q You said it might have been in January awhile ago? A It might have been and it might have been some other month.
Q What time did Johnson <sup>Thompson</sup> come back up there? A I don't remember just what time he came.
Q You don't remember the year? A No sir.
Q You don't remember on whose place this fellow Tom Moore lived on in the year of 1866? A No sir, I don't know anything about that. I wasn't acquainted with those boys, Tom Moore and old man Moore then.
Q Never saw Butler McNair for a long time? A No sir, there was two, Butler McNair, old man, I never saw him for quite a while.
Q How long afterwards before you saw old Tom Moore? A Not very long.
Q Five years? A I guess it might have been a shorter time than that.
Q Your best judgment, what was it? A I don't know anything about when I seen Tom.
Q Well now your brother Joe married? A Yes sir.
Q What year did he marry in? A I couldn't tell you that, he has been married twice.
Q Do you know when he married either time? A I know he was married but I don't keep affairs of his marriage contract, if I could keep record of these things, I could remember them.

W I T N E S S     R E C U S E D :

ANDY FRYE, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

BY MR. STARR:

- Q What is your name? A Andy Frye.
Q What is your age? A Either 73 or 74.
Q What is your post office? A Ketchum, Indian Territory.
Q Where were you living in the fall of 1866? A I was living across the river there east of where I live.
Q On what place were you living? A I was living on the Thompson place.
Q Known as the Dr. Thompson place? A Yes sir.
Q What time did you move on to that place? A I moved here in October.
Q What year? A '66.
Q Are you acquainted with the applicant, Moses Hardrick? A Yes sir.
Q Were you acquainted with him when the war came up? A Yes sir.
Q When did you see him after the close of the Civil war? A I see him in '66,--along in '67.
Q Where was it you saw him in 1867? A He moved in there on Dr. Thompson's place along in February, '67.
Q What time in February? A Along about the first of February.
Q How long did he live on the Dr. Thompson place? A He made one crop there.
Q Where did he go to from there? A Just south of there, I don't know how far.
Q Where did you move to from the Dr. Thompson place? A I moved a little southwest of there, right south of the place in the River bottom.

- Q Who moved on to the Dr. Thompson place after you moved away?
A Mr. Parks.
Q Were you acquainted with Butler McNair? A Yes sir.
Q When did he come down in that part of the country where you were living? A He come down there in '67, in the spring of '67.
Q What time in 1867, what month? A Along in February.
Q Did he have his wife with him? A No sir.
Q What was his wife's name? A Betsey.
Q Where was she then? A In Kansas.
Q When did she come? A She come along in July or September, somewhere along there.
Q Did Butler come back after her? A Yes sir.
Q No w when Tom Moore came, when was that? A Him and Butler come together.
Q Did Tom Moore bring his wife? A No sir.
Q When did she come? A The same time Butler went back and brought her. They went and come together.
Q Now where did Tom Moore go to after he moved off the Dr. Thompson place? A He built him a house right south of there between that and old man Daniels place.
Q Built a home of his own? A Yes sir.
Q He and his wife live down there? A Yes sir.
Q Did you see a woman named Pearly Lynch or Durant down in there at that time? A No sir.
Q She didn't come with that crowd at that time? A No sir.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q Jeff Lyons didn't come with them did he? A He come before they did.
Q What is Jeff's wife's name? A Mahala.
Q Did he have his wife with him? A Yes sir.

Mr. Starr: The applicants object to the testimony concerning Jeff Lyons, he testified before along that and it was gone into fully.

On behalf of the Commissioner: The objection will be noted.

- Q What time did Jeff Lyons bring his wife down her? A It was along in December, sometime before Christmas.
Q Then Jeff and Wese didn't come together? A No sir.
Q Wese come after that? A Yes sir, he come after Jeff come.
Q When did Wese bring his wife down there? A Wese brought his wife with him when he come.
Q The first time? A Yes sir.
Q That was in the spring of 1867? A Yes sir. I don't know, it might have been along about the first of February, it was after Christmas.
Q It might have been as late as March when the grass come up? A Yes sir but I think it was in February.
Q You are not positive as to that? A I cannot keep the dates.
Q If Wese Moore testified he come about the time grass comes up in the spring of 1867, you think he is about right? A I don't know.
Q You don't want to contradict that? A I won't contradict nothing.
Q This Mahala was a slave of Bob Daniels? A Yes sir.
Q And he moved up there right after the war? A I don't know, he moved there after I went there. I don't know how long it was before he come.
Q How far was it from you where he located? A Only about a mile and a half.
Q And you don't remember just when he come? A I don't remember just exactly but I think it was in '67, I ain't certain.

- Q Bob Daniels is the same man that sat on that Court in 1871? A Yes sir.
- Q And he owned this Mahala Lyons? A Yes sir.
- Q And you say they come before any of these others that you have mentioned? A Yes sir.
- Q You are positive about that? A Yes sir, I am positive, I know they did.
- Q Where did Jeff and Mahala live the first winter? A Why Jeff moved over there, camped over there on Kell's place, and stayed there in camp and Kell come in about the time Jeff come in.
- Q Did Jeff work for Kell over there a while? A Yes sir.
- Q About how long? A About three weeks.
- Q That runed him over to the springs? A Runed him over until along in January.
- Q Then where did he go? A Come over to see me and wanted to see if he could get any place to make a crop.
- Q Well did he come over there? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you permit him to make a crop over there? A Yes sir.
- Q When did he move over to your house? A He moved over about the first of February.
- Q Then he never lived at your house before the first of February, 1867? A No sir.
- Q Then if any of these witnesses testified that he was living there in your house on the Dr. Thompson place prior to that time, they are mistaken are they? A Well he never lived there, because he never come there until the first of February.
- Q Never come there did he? A He come in January to see me.
- Q Never come there to live? A No sir, not until the first of February.
- Q How far is the Lewis Kell place from the Dr. Thompson place? A It must be between 4 and 5 miles.
- Q The same time they were living up at your place Bob Daniels was down there and he was the old owner of this Mahala? A Yes sir.
- Q How long after that before Butler McFair come? A He come back in the spring of '67, along in February, somewhere. Come in time to make a crop.
- Q Well if Judge Clark and Wells Moore say he come there after the grass began to grow in the spring of 1867, are you prepared to dispute that?

Mr. Carr: Objected to for the reason that the testimony of Judge Clark does not show the statement of facts as stated by Mr. Hastings:

On Behalf of the Commissioner: The objection will be noted.

- A No sir, I can't dispute it because the grass was there early that spring. We had green grass about all winter.
- Q You want dispute that? A No sir, we had green grass all winter.
- Q Then none of these four people lived in that house with you that winter before February? A No sir, I don't think there was a one there before February 1, '67.
- Q You have got nothing in which--no book to indicate it was the first of February, or March, or last of January? A No sir.
- Q You are just guessing at it? A Yes sir.
- Q Using your own independent recollection? A Yes sir, I think it was about that time.
- Q And you are not right certain about it, you are just testifying from memory? A Yes sir.
- Q And you don't know when Bob Daniels come back? A I don't know the date he come back.

- Q You don't know when Johnson Thompson come back? A No sir, but I think he come back before Mr. Daniels.
What time do you think Johnson Thompson come back? A I couldn't say. I know he was there first.
- Q Do you know whether he come in 1867 or '68, or '69? A He must have come in the fall of '68.
- Q Did you testify before the Commission at Vinita on May 18, 1901, in the matter of the application of Sam Landrum for the enrollment of himself, wife and children? A Which Sam Landrum, there are two or three Sam Landrums?
- Q The one whose post office address is Spavinaw? A I don't know, it seems like to me I did.
- Q You don't know whether you testified in that case? A I don't know, I might have, I think I testified for him somewhere.
- Q Did you know the father of Sam Landrum? A If it is the one I am thinking about, it is Sam Landrum.
- Q It is this same one whose father is Dan Landrum commonly known as Bony Dan? A Yes sir, that is the fellow.
- Q You testified did you in that case? A Yes sir.
- Q You testified when he come back, that he come back in 1868? A Yes sir, he come back in '68.
- Q You are the same party who testified in that case? A Yes sir, I testified for Sam.

BY MR. STARR:

- Q Bony Dan did come back in 1868? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you have a child to die after the close of the war? A I had one to die, two or three but since then.
- Q One named Harvey? A Yes sir.
- Q When did he die? A March 11, I believe.
- Q What year? A That was in '68.
- Q Who dug Harvey's grave? A Jeff Lyons.
- Q Now where did Jeff Lyons live before he went on this Kell place? A He wasn't living anywhere, only in camp, he camped over on Cabin Creek.
- Q Had been camping there prior to when he went on Kell's place? A Yes sir.
- Q What was your next child's name that died? A Lula.
- Q When did she die? A In '67.
- Q What date? A Along in September, I don't know exactly the date.
- Q Who dug this grave? A I don't remember, I believe Lewis Rowe.
- Q You are not certain about that? A No sir.
- Q When did the next one die? A I couldn't tell, he was grown and married and had a wife and one child.

BY MR. MARTIN:

- Q You don't know what year he died? A I don't know.
- Q Who dug his grave? A There was several of them dug it. After we brought him home the neighbors just turned out and dug it.

BY MR. STARR:

- Q Did you ever testify before the Commission something about getting a mule, you and Cap Wicks? A Yes sir, I testified that Aaron Martin give us a mule.
- Q Explain that mule deal? I had witnesses for him once before and he never paid me nothing, and he wanted me to witness for him again in this court and I told him he would have to pay me the money, or put up something as good as the money.
- Q What did he do? A I told him I couldn't afford to lay there without any pay and come from home for nothing.
- Q Did you and Wicks get the mule? A Then he told me he had to have another witness and he give us that mule for our expenses and our witness fees.

- Q How long did you attend before the Commission at that time? A There about two weeks before we got into it.
- Q What was the mule worth? A I give Dan Tucker $12.50 for his part.
- Q What part did he have? A I had $12.50.
- Q The mule was worth $25.00? A Yes sir.
- Q Have you testified for the Cherokee Nation since then? A I testified once for them down here.
- Q What did they give you? A They allowed me $12.50.
- Q How long did you attend the Commission then? A I think I was two or three days, about three days I think.
- Q Now that three days attendance, your milage and time for the Cherokee Nation amounted to $12.50, did it? A Yessir.
- Q And about two weeks attendance in this other case, your milage and time only amounted to about $12.50? A That is all I got out of the mule.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q Did the Cherokee Nation pay you anything more or offer to pay you anything more than $2.00 per day, and your milage? A Mr. Bell told me to make it 4 days, and I didn't claim anything.
- Q Who paid you? A Roland brought the check to me and we went down to the bank and got the money.
- Q Did you sign a pay roll? A No sir.
- Q When was that? A It was along, I can't tell what time but I sure come down here, it was when that Crap Lynch's daughter, Bettie Cash was up.
- Q Did Gale Starr give you that check? A No sir.
- Q Was it while he was a stenographer for the Cherokee Nation? A I didn't know, he was an official for the Cherokee Nation.
- Q Didn't you never know he was? A No sir.
- Q Never heard of it? A No sir, never heard of him being an official for the Cherokee Nation. I know he was called an Attorney at Law but I never knew he was an official.
- Q You never heard of that? A No sir.
- Q Well whose name was signed to that check? A I don't know sir, I never looked on the check to see whose name. Me and Roland went to the bank and he shoved his in and I shoved mine in and we got the money.
- Q Do you know when it was? A I don't know, you know when that case of Bettie Cash was up.
- Q Did the Cherokee Nation ask you to swear anything else but the truth in the Bettie Cash case? A Only the truth and that is all I swore.
- Q Was the amount you got what you were entitled to for your time and milage, how far do you live from Vinita? A I considered that paid me for the time and milage.
- Q How far do you live from Vinita? A 14 miles.
- Q And it is 65 miles from Vinita to Muskogee, in the neighborhood of 80 miles, and you say you got a check for $12.50? A Yes sir.
- Q And you got pay for 4 days? A That is what he told me to claim, and I told you I didn't claim nothing.
- Q Didn't you sign a pay roll? A I don't think I did. I never seen the check until Roland give it to me.
- Q Did you sign a pay roll? A I never signed nothing.
- Q Do you swear that? A I never signed nothing.
- Q You sign your name don't you? A No sir.
- Q Did you touch the pen to it? A No sir. I never seen the check until Roland give it to me.
- Q I am talking about the pay roll? A What pay roll?
- Q The pay roll so that the check might issue on it? A I don't understand it yet.
- Q You can't sign your name? A No sir.

- Q Then you don't know how much the amount of the check was? A The amount must have been that, they give me the money.
- Q You came from your home and went up to Vinita and took the train and you were out a day there and a day here and a day going back, then you were out three days and 80 miles? A Yes sir.
- Q And according to that you were out three days and 80 miles and you didn't get but $12.50? A That was all.
- Q Did you make those other fellows you have testified for pay you? A Which?
- Q You have testified in a good many cases? A Yes sir, they paid me.
- Q All of them? A Some of them did and some didn't.
- Q How much did you get in the Sam Landrum case? A I have forgotten.
- Q What other case? A There was several cases, I don't recollect who I did witness for.
- Q You don't remember any other cases? A No sir.
- Q Now you said awhile ago when it wasn't taken down that you thought the mule was worth more than $25.00 at the time you took it? A I said I couldn't get more than that because he was balky.
- Q What did you think he was worth when you were getting it? A About $30.00.
- Q And you sold it $5.00 cheaper? A Yes sir, he wouldn't pull an empty wagon.
- Q Then you made a business of charging all those fellows you testified for? A Yes sir, I charged them, some paid me, and some didn't.
- Q Were some to pay you in the event they got on? A They promised to pay me, didn't say when. May be they will pay me yet.
- Q Were any to pay you after the cases were decided? A I don't know whether they were or not.
- Q Do you remember any other case that you testified in? Did you testify in the Alexander Rowe case? A Where did he live?
- Q Post office Ketchum? A No sir.
- Q Never testified in that case? A No sir.
- Q Well he never paid you nothing? A No sir.
- Q Did you testify in the Aaron Martin case? A Yes sir.
- Q Is that the one you got the mule in? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you testify in the Sarah Ann Martin case, or was that a part of the Aaron Martin case? A No, that was separate.
- Q What did you get in that case for testifying? A I don't recollect, got two or three dollars from Sarah Ann.
- Q Did you testify in the Elias Downing case? A No sir.
- Q You swear you didn't testify in that case? A I don't think I did. I aint going to swear nothing unless I know what I am swearing.
- Q Now do you know? A I don't know whether I did or not, I cannot recollect, it has been so long.
- Q Did you testify in the Peyton Martin case? A Yes sir.
- Q Did he pay you? A Yes sir, three or four dollars.
- Q Do you know, do you remember how much he paid you? A About three dollars.
- Q You just followed this Commission from place to place and stayed there in constant attendance in order to testify while they were at Vinita and Chelsea? A I testified for Aaron Martin folks at Vinita.
- Q Is that the only place you testified? A Never testified for any one in Chelsea in my life. When I would go home they would come after me and maybe they would come about twice or three times before I would go, because I have to work.

- Q How much did Aaron promise to pay you the first time you testified and didn't pay it? A He promised to give me $10.00 for witnessing for his family.
- Q Where were you going to witness at? A In the Kern-Clifton Court.
- Q Witness for him then for $10? A Yes sir.
- Q And you didn't get it? A No sir.
- Q How long did you stay up there at Vinita witnessing before this Commission when it was there? A I didn't ~~xxx~~ stay there all the time, I went back and forwards.
- Q What was the longest you ever stayed up there? A Not over two days at a time.
- Q How long were you there when you testified for Aaron? A About two days, then, I went home and come back again, I believe I went back and forward 3 or 4 times before the case come up, then I witnessed for them.
- Q Did you get any other mules in any other cases besides that one? A No sir, mules were too high, I couldn't go and get a mule every time.
- Q What is the most you ever got for witnessing in a case? A That mule was the biggest salary I ever got for witnessing.
- Q What did you get from George W. Lynch for witnessing for him, whose post office is Vinita and whose age was then 48? A I don't think I witnessed for George W. Lynch.
- Q You don't think you ever witnessed for him? A No sir.
- Q Did you witness for Harriet Tucker? A She was in the Aaron Martin family.
- Q Did your wife ever get anything for testifying in these cases? A She got two or three dollars from some of them.
- Q It was your habit to make them pay you in the case in which you testified? A Yes sir, I wanted my time.
- Q Didn't make any difference, if you were there you made them pay you when you went in to testify? A No sir, if the Commission ordered me I never made them pay me.
- Q If you were hanging around you charged them if you testified? A No sir, if they wanted me to testify for them I went in and testified.
- Q Who are paying you now? A These men got me to come and witness for them, I expect them to pay me.
- Q How much did they say they would pay you? A I don't know, they haven't said.
- Q Did they pay your fare? A Yes sir.
- Q Who? A This man.
- Q Who are these men? A Star & Patten.

BY MR. PATTEN:

- Q In the case you testified in, in which you got a mule to secure you for your fees, did you promise or agree to tell anything else besides the truth for receiving that mule? A No sir.

WITNESS EXCUSED.

THOMAS H. MOORE RECALLED:

BY MR. PATTEN:

- Q State your name? A Thomas H. Moore.
- Q Did you testify in this case awhile ago? A Yes sir.
- Q Is there any other statement that you desire to make other than what you have made? A Yes sir.
- Q What is it? A I want to withdraw one I made, a statement in '66, I want to make it '67.
- Q What was that about? A Bob Daniels moving in in '66, in '67 is when removed in.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q Who did you talk to about this since you left the stand? A I got to studying it over myself.
- Q You talked to Mr. Patten about it? A Just now, yes sir.
- Q Before you come back on the stand? A No sir.
- Q You swear that you haven't talked to him out there in the hall before you come back on the stand? A No sir.
- Q How did he know, how did he come to call you back here then? A I come back myself. I got to studying about where we were at that time and I knew that I made a mistake.
- Q Were you not right out there when Andy Frye was on the stand, and heard him? A No sir, I didn't see him. I got to studying about where we were living at that time and knowed it was in '67 because we come from there down to this ~~hall~~ school house.
- Q All these witnesses are out here in the hall? A Yes sir.
- Q You have all been talking about it out here in the hall? A Yes sir.
- Q You have talked to Starr or Patten out here in the hall about this case? A No sir.
- Q You testified that you saw Mose Hardrick here in the winter of 1866, in February? A '67 I mean.
- Q You swore awhile ago 1866 and Mr. Patten asked you over and over? A I know I did, that is what I am trying to get straight. We lived at first I live now at this school all this time.
- Q Mr. Patten asked you to be positive whether it was '66 or '67 and he asked you a number of times, and didn't you say it was in February, 1866? A I did and it was a mistake, if I said so I didn't mean to say it.
- Q How long was it after you left the stand before you got to the hall? A I got to studying about where we lived at and where I live now and when I come to this school, back and forwards and it was in that year.
- Q Then it was in the fall of 1867 instead of 1866 that you moved over there? A Yes sir.
- Q And it was in the fall of 1867 Bob Daniels moved in and you out? A Yes sir.
- Q You are certain that was November? A Did I say November?
- Q You said fall, October or November? A It was in that fall anyhow.
- Q Of 1867? A Yes sir.
- Q That is when Bob Daniels moved his family up there? A Yes sir.

WITNESS EXCUSED.

APPLICANTS REST.

The following testimony was taken on behalf of the Cherokee Nation.

Mr. Hastings: For the Cherokee Nation, I call to the stand A. A. Frye we desire that the judgment of the Commission and the action of the Secretary thereon in the Sam Landrum case, Freedman doubtful 292, be made a part of the record in this case.

Mr. Starr: The applicants object to the introduction of the judgment and the record in the Sam Landrum case.

On behalf of the Commissioner: The objection is overruled.

On Behalf of the Commissioner: Attorneys for applicants and Cherokee nation agree that a statement showing the present status of the Cherokee freedman enrollment case of Sam Landrum be made.

The records of this office show that the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated July 1, 1903, reflecting, among others, the application of Sam Landrum for the enrollment of himself and family as Cherokee freedmen was affirmed by the Secretary of the Interior on December 5, 1903 (I.T.D. 8326-1903), and that a motion said case was filed May 29, 1906.

ELIZA A. STROUT, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q What is your name? A Eliza A. Strout.
- Q How old are you? A 50.
- Q What is your post office? A Vinita.
- Q What was your maiden name? A Daniels.
- Q Were you a daughter of Bob Daniels? A Yes sir.
- Q Is he the same Bob Daniels who was a member of the Supreme Court in the Cherokee nation in 1871? A Yes sir.
- Q You are a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.
- Q Through who do you get your Cherokee blood? A Father and mother both.
- Q Did your parents own some slaves before the war? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you know at any time a negro woman by the name of Mahala, who afterwards married Jeff Lyons? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you know her before the war? A Yes sir, I can remember her before the war, that is before she left us.
- Q Who did she belong to? A My parents.
- Q Did she have any children before the war? A Yes sir.
- Q What was the child's name? A She had one named Wash, I don't know whether I know them all or not, and one named Peggy and one named Anaka by a man named Lynch, who left the country, and after that she had this Mike Moore.
- Q He was born before the war? A Yes sir.
- Q He was a slave of your parents? A Yes sir.
- Q She wasn't the wife of Jeff before the war? A No sir, she come back here with Jeff.
- Q Now did you people leave the Cherokee Nation during the war? A Yes sir, we went to the Choctaw Nation.
- Q Now when did you folks come back from the Choctaw Nation to the Cherokee Nation and where to first? A When we first come back we come to Tahlequah in the fall of 1866 and we stayed there all winter and then come back up home on Grand River in March, 1867.
- Q How far was your home place from what was known as the Dr. Thompson place? A Just about a mile.
- Q Was it on the same side of the river? A Yes sir, on the east side.
- Q And about a mile from the Dr. Thompson place? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you know Johnson Thompson? A Yes sir.
- Q He was a Cherokee? A Yes sir, he married my sister.
- Q Do you know where the Johnson Thompson place was? A Yes sir.
- Q Where was this Dr. Thompson place with reference to your father's place and the Johnson Thompson place? A It was right between the two.
- Q Then you had to go by the Dr. Thompson place in order to go to your Aunts, who was Mrs. Johnson Thompson? A Yes sir, on the road, went right by the house.
- Q Did you visit backwards and forwards frequently? A Yes sir.

- Q Now was Mahala and Jeff Lyons back up there in that neighborhood at the Dr. Thompson place or any other place when you people moved up there? A We never did see her.
- Q Was she in that neighborhood at that time? A No sir.
- Q She was your old slave? A No sir, she was not there.
- Q Could your old slave have been there at that Dr. Thompson place, and you pass backwards and forward from your place over to your aunts visiting, as you frequently did, without your knowing it? A No sir, I don't think she could.
- Q Your father, is the same person who was a member of the Supreme Court and passed upon this case in 1871? A I don't know whether he passed on it or not, I guess the record shows it.
- Q He was a member of the Supreme Court in 1871? A Yes sir.
- Q Was he living there in 1871 on this place, did he continue to live up there? A Yes sir, my father died in 1872.
- Q He lived there until he died? A Yes sir.
- Q You know how long afterwards before you first heard of Mahala coming back there? A No sir, I don't know exactly how long but I don't think it was right soon. I am pretty certain it was not.
- Q It was sometime? A Yes sir, I don't know but I always thought it was 1868.
- Q Did you hear after they came back where they come from? A It was always my impression they come from Kansas.
- Q That was your impression from knowledge you gained at that time? A Yes sir.

BY MR. PATTEN:

- Q I believe you say you are about 50 years old? A Yes sir.
- Q How old were you at the close of the war? A I guess I was about 12 years old when I come home.
- Q When was that? A I just now said it was in 1867.
- Q What time of the year? A In March when we come down on the river.
- Q You say Mahala was the slave of your father? A Yes sir.
- Q You say she had one child before the war? A She had more than one.
- Q Can you give the name of one? A She might have had more than I know of.
- Q You remember of them before the war? A Yes sir, I remember seeing them, said they were her children.
- Q How old were you at that time? A At what time.
- Q Just about the time you say she had these children before the war? A What difference does it make if I told you how old I was and when I was born. began
- Q I asked you how old you were about the time the war ~~started~~? A I guess I was about 6 or 8 years old.
- Q That has been about 45 years ago now hasn't it? A Yes sir, in 1861.
- Q And you were about 6 years old at that time? A I guess so.
- Q And you remember things that occurred, that happened, when you were 6 years old, that occurred 45 years ago? A I remember when Mahala left us, it was during the war.
- Q And you were only about 10 years old at the close of the war? A I can remember when I was 6 years old.
- Q Whose slave did you say Mahala was? A I guess she belonged to my father and mother both.
- Q Did she belong to them at the commencement of the war? A Yes sir.
- Q And they were Cherokee citizens? A Yes sir.
- Q Now you say you came back home there in the spring of 1867, in March? A Yes sir.

- Q Do you know where Judge Clark was living when you came back?
- A Yes sir, he was living right across the river from us. If he wasn't living there when we come back he was pretty soon because I remember him and his wife coming to our house to visit us.
- Q Do you remember where L. B. Bell was living when you come back?
- A No sir, I know where he lived afterwards.
- Q Were you moved to when you come back how far was that from the Dr. Thompson place? A A mile.
- Q How frequently were you by the Dr. Thompson place? A I don't know whether we went every day or not, but we went often because Johnson Thompson's wife was my mother's sister, and so was Dr. Thompson's wife.
- Q Did you go by the house? A Yes sir.
- Q Was it on the road? A Yes sir, of course it was on the road.
- Q Who lived on the Dr. Thompson place at that time? A I don't know who all, there was a lot of darkies living there.
- Q Can you name them? A I knowed Andy Frye and Al Lynch.
- Q Who else? A I don't remember anybody else.
- Q Can you give the names, are you certain that Al Lynch lived there? A Yes sir, I used to see him, I don't think he was married then.
- Q You are certain that was the spring of 1867? A Yessir.
- Q Who else besides Andy Frye and Al Lynch? A I don't remember. There was an old colored man named Tobe Schrimsher.
- Q Were there any one else besides those three? A I don't remember anybody else.
- Q Do you remember whether Butler Moxair was there? A I don't know anybody by that name.
- Q Or Tom Moore? A Yes sir, I know him, he wasn't living there.
- Q Old man Tom Moore? A Yes sir.
- Q How do you know he wasn't living there? A Because I didn't see him.
- Q The fact that you didn't see a certain person in a certain neighborhood is conclusive to you that you didn't see him? A I don't see how he could be there without my seeing him when I passed there.
- Q Didn't you say just now that there was a number of colored people living there in that house that you didn't know who they were?
- A I said I didn't know them but I knew Tom Moore and his wife, belonged to my father.
- Q You were about 10 years old? A I said I was about 12.
- Q There were some colored people living at that house and you didn't know who they were? A I knowed Tom Moore wasn't there.
- Q Do you undertake to swear Mahala wasn't there? A If she had been there I would have seen her.
- Q Do you undertake to say you know you saw everybody that lived there? A I guess I saw them but I didn't know the names.
- Q How do you know you saw them all? A I know I must have.
- Q You are just guessing at that, taking it as a conclusion? Now are you stating from what you actually know or what you take as a matter of fact that you ought to know because you went by there frequently? A I don't know as I have to answer any such foolish question as that.

On Behalf of the Commissioner: Just answer as near as possible the question as asked.

- A I know I saw them when they all come back, and it wasn't when we come back. I saw them afterwards, about 1868 or '67.
- Q Well now just when was the first time you ever saw Mahala? A Well I don't know exactly, she wasn't there when we come back.
- Q I am not asking you that question? A I couldn't tell you just the date I saw her.

- Q You say you saw her when they all come back? A I saw them when they were living there.
- Q About when was that? A I don't know when it was.
- Q Was it 1868 or 1869? A It was 1867 or '68.
- Q What time in 1867? A I always thought it was 1868.
- Q Do you know what year it was that they lived on that Dr. Thompson place? A I knew it was not in 1866.
- Q I am not asking you whether you saw them in 1866? A Well I told you I didn't know whether it was 1867 or '68.
- Q Do you know what time of the year it was you first saw them on that Dr. Thompson place? A No sir, I don't remember that.
- Q Do you remember when they first moved on that Dr. Thompson place? A No sir.
- Q You don't know anything about when they come from Kansas? A I know they were not on that Dr. Thompson place.
- Q You don't undertake to say that they were not in the Cherokee Nation when you come back? A No sir, I don't.
- Q But you undertake to say that Mahala was not on that Dr. Thompson place in March, 1867, just because you didn't see her? A I would have seen her if there.
- Q Who lived on that place or in the house preceding your father? The place you moved to, just before him? A There was a colored man named Arch Landrum.
- Q Did he live in there just before you folks moved in? A Yes sir.
- Q Did Nelson Moore ever live in that house, if you know? A No sir.
- Q You don't remember when he lived there? A No sir.
- Q Tom Moore I mean instead of Nels? A They all lived in what used to be the colored people's house, but not in the house we lived in.
- Q Was any one living in that house when you folks moved down there, the place you moved into when you came back there in 1867? A My father was in Tahlequah and went up there to get the folks out of the house so we could move in.
- Q Who did he get out? A Arch Landrum.
- Q You are certain it was Arch Landrum? A That is what my father said.
- Q Didn't say whether Arch was the only one? A Didn't say about that.
- Q What time of the year was it? A I don't know exactly, it was between Christmas and March. It couldn't have been very long.
- Q You came shortly after he came down there? A Yes sir.
- Q As a matter of fact didn't you move in that place in the fall of 1867 instead of the spring? A No sir.
- Q How do you remember it was spring instead of the fall? A Because they went to making a crop.
- Q How do you remember it was 1867? A How do you remember anything?
- Q I am asking you? A (No response).
- Q You are testifying to these facts, things that occurred when you were 10 years old, from your own independent recollection regardless of anything that would impress it upon your mind? You just undertake to say it was 1867? A Well I said it was 1867, and I said it two or three times.
- Q Have you any circumstance to connect your memory with that makes you absolutely know it was 1867, or more positive of it? A I don't know any more than ~~make~~ anybody knows one year from another.
- Q Have you a pretty good faculty for remembering things that occurred in 1860 or '87? A Sometimes I do and sometimes I don't.
- Q Do you know when the Kern-Clifton roll was made? A No sir.
- Q You don't remember that do you? A No sir.
- Q Do you know when the Wallace roll was made? A Wasn't it in '80. I don't know.
- Q Some of those dates are pretty hard to remember, aren't they? A Indeed without they got to remember anything, they ought to remember it.
- Q How do you happen to think you got to remember it was the spring of 1867 your folks moved on his place; is that the reason you remember it? A No sir.

- Q There was nothing at that time to impress it upon you to remember it was 1867? A Well I know when the war closed, and how long we stayed down south before we come home, and then we come to Tahlequah and stayed there until the spring of '67.
- Q How long were you at Tahlequah? A I don't know what month in the fall, and we stayed there that winter.
- Q You came to Tahlequah in the fall? A Yes sir, in the fall of 1866.
- Q Where were you in when the war closed? A In the Choctaw Nation.
- Q How long did you stay in the Choctaw Nation? A About three years, we went there during the war.
- Q What year did you go there? A I think it must have been in 1862.
- Q And you stayed there three years? A Stayed there until 1865.
- Q What time in 1862 did you go? A I don't know.
- Q You don't remember that? A No sir.
- Q Do you remember the occasion of going? A Yes sir.
- Q You say you stayed there about three years? A We stayed there until 1865.
- Q What time in 1865? A I don't know, I think it was in the spring.
- Q And where did you go from there? A Back to Tahlequah in the fall, and how I know it was in the fall because we gathered Hickory Nuts all along the road.
- Q How long did you stay at Tahlequah before you came down there? A I told you from that time until March.
- Q The following March? A Yes sir.
- Q Then you came to Tahlequah in 1865? A '65?
- Q Didn't you say you left the Choctaw Nation in 1865? A I said the war closed in 1865 and we came to Tahlequah in 1866.
- Q Do you know what year you were born in? A 1855 so my mother said, I don't know whether I was or not.
- Q You are going on 51 now? A Yes sir, I will be 51 next August.

JAMES R. DUNLAP, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q What is your name? A James R. Dunlap.
- Q What is your age? A 65.
- Q What is your post office? A Carlile, Kansas.
- Q How far is Carlile from Iola? A Five miles.
- Q How long have you lived in the vicinity of Carlile and Iola? A I first came there in 1864, moved there in 1866.
- Q What time in 1866 did you move there? A Sometime in the spring, May or June.
- Q Did you get acquainted after moving there in that vicinity with a colored man named Butler McNair? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you know his wife? A Yes sir.
- Q Did they live there in that vicinity? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you at that time live in the town or in the country? A I lived in the country there.
- Q About how far did Butler McNair live from you? A About a mile.
- Q Live in a cabin over there? A Yes sir.
- Q Well Mr. Dunlap when was your first child born? A January 21, 1867.
- Q Do you know who attended your wife and waited on her during that confinement? A After her confinement Aunt Betsy Butler was with my wife.
- Q Was that Butler McNair's wife? A Yes sir.
- Q Was that after this confinement you speak of? A Yes sir.
- Q Was that the first child your wife had? A Yes sir.
- Q Are you positive that Betsy, the wife of Butler McNair, waited on your wife after this confinement? A Yes sir.
- Q Have you a record of the birth of that child? A Yes sir.

- Q Did you bring that with you? A Yes sir.
Q What does that record disclose? A You read it.
Q Is this from your family record, your Bible? A Yes sir.
Q It shows birth, Orien Dunlap was born in Allen County, Kansas, January 21, 1867? A Yes sir.
Q That is the date of his birth? A Yes sir.
Q And you are positive that Betsy, the wife of Butler McNair waited on your wife during her sickness following her confinement? A Yes sir.
Q Do you remember how long she stayed there after that? A No sir, I don't.
Q Do you remember how long they stayed in that vicinity? A No sir, I don't.
Q And you have refreshed your memory from the date of the record of the birth have you? A Not exclusively, I was married January 31, 1866, and my oldest child was born January 21, 1867.
Q And you are positive that Butler McNair's wife Betsy was there? A Yes sir.
Q You are not prepared to say how much longer they remained there? A No sir, I couldn't do that.
Q Did you know a colored man named Tom Moore? A Yes sir.
Q When did you last remember of seeing him up there with reference to the birth of this child? A Well sir, I don't remember anything particular about them after harvest was over in the summer of 1866. I helped harvest with Tom Moore, but when he left I couldn't tell you.
Q They didn't live on your place? A No sir.

Mr. Patten: The Attorneys for applicants now move the Honorable Commissioner to strike from the record all the testimony relative to Butler McNair given by this witness, for the reason that there is no contention that she came to the Cherokee Nation at the same time that Butler McNair did.

Mr. Hastings: In answer to that motion the Attorneys for the Cherokee Nation reply that practically every witness that has been introduced by these attorneys from Kansas have testified that all four of these parties left there with their effects at the same time, left that community.

On Behalf of the Commissioner: The motion and reply will be noted.

BY MR. PATTEN:

- Q Were you very well acquainted with any of those colored people around there? A Not intimately acquainted.
Q How long had you known this Betsy McNair at this time? A I came there the spring of 1866, and I didn't have any acquaintance with the old lady until I went after her to stay with my wife.
Q There is no question but what she waited on your wife at that time? A No question in my mind.
Q Do you know whether she was married or single? A She claimed to be the wife of Butler, lived with him.
Q Did you ever know him? A Yes sir.
Q How far did they live from you? A About a mile.
Q When was the last time you saw Tom Moore? A The last I remember of him is when we helped harvest there in 1866. Mostly colored people there and just come into the country there and we swapped work around and cut our wheat.

WITNESSES EXCUSED.

J. A. THOMPSON, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q What is your name? A J. A. Thompson.
- Q What is your post office? A Vinita.
- Q What is your age? A I will be 56 years old the first day of next August.
- Q Are you a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.
- Q What was your father's name? A Johnson Thompson.
- Q Have you a brother named Tommy Thompson, T. F. Thompson? A Yes sir.
- Q Where did you go during the civil war? A We went south, on Red River.
- Q Where did you return after the war? A Back there on our old place.
- Q Where was that? A On Grand River, known now by the Ketchum place.
- Q By Ketchum post office? A Yes sir, near there.
- Q That is the same place that is generally known as the Johnson Thompson place? A Yes sir.
- Q How far is that from the Dr. Thompson place? A About a mile.
- Q On the same side of the river? A No sir.
- Q How far from the Bob Daniels place? A That was a short mile further south, on the south side of the river.
- Q Was the Bob Daniels place and Dr. Thompson place on the same side of the river? A Yes sir.
- Q And both on the opposite side of the river from your father's place? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you know Mrs. Strout, daughter of Bob Daniels? A Yes sir, first cousin of mine.
- Q Do you know when Bob Daniels come back up there? A Yes sir.
- Q When? A In 1867.
- Q What time of the year? A Early in the spring.
- Q What time did you people come back to this Johnson Thompson place?
- A I think it was in October, in 1866.
- Q Did you ever know Mose Hardrick a colored man before the war?
- A No sir.
- Q Did you know Jeff Lyons before the war? A No sir.
- Q Did you know Mahala, Jeff's wife? A Yes sir, she belonged to Bob Daniels before the war.
- Q Did Daniels live up there before the war? A Yes sir.
- Q And you were neighbors before the war as well as relatives? A Yes sir, lived at the same place.
- Q Right at the same places you described? A Yes sir.
- Q When you knew Mahala well did you? A Yes sir.
- Q Now I will ask you when you first knew of Mahala, who was the wife of Jeff Lyons, and who before the war was the slave of your Uncle Bob Daniels, after the war? A Well that was along in the fall of '67. They stopped in our yard, I don't know exactly how long, camped there.
- Q Was that when they come back to the country? A Yes sir.
- Q You say that was in the fall of 1867? A Yes sir.
- Q Are you positive they were not there during the winter of 1866?
- A I don't think they were, if they were I didn't see them.
- Q Did they say they were from Kansas in the fall of 1867? A Yes sir.
- Q You remember when Mose Hardrick come? A Not exactly, but he landed in there pretty much the same time, but I didn't see him when he landed.
- Q Did you see him there before you saw Mahala and Jeff? A No sir.
- Q Did you know a child of Mahala named Mike? A Yes sir.

- Q Did he come back with his mother? A I don't remember him. We were talking about him to day, I don't remember when he come or how he come.
- Q Did you see him there before you saw his mother? A No sir.
- Q You saw him afterwards? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you know Butler McNair A I wasn't acquainted with him.

BY MR. PATTEN:

- Q When was it you say you first saw Jeff and Mahala? A I think it was in the fall of 1867.
- Q Where were they living at that time? A Camped in our yard there on our place.
- Q That was in the fall of 1867? A Yes sir.
- Q When was the first time you saw Mose? A It was sometime after that I think, I would not be positive. I don't remember much about Mose because he went across the river.
- Q Was it about the same time? A Pretty much the same time.
- Q How long did they camp with you there when they went into camp. A Yes sir.
- Q Had they just moved in from some place? A Come in from Kansas I suppose.
- Q Was this on the same side of the river as the Dr. Thompson place? A No sir.
- Q What was across the river from the Dr. Thompson place? A Yes sir.
- Q That was in the fall of the year? A Yes sir.
- Q Are you think it was what year? A 1867.
- Q Do you remember when that Horse Creek fight was? A No sir. I seen a great deal of dispute about that, a great many claim it was in 1867 and a good many in 1866.
- Q When do you claim? A I don't claim.
- Q Were you in the country? A There were two fights on Horse Creek.
- Q Well with reference to what is known as the Horse Creek fight, if one or the other was, what time with reference to that was it Jeff Lyons and wife were camped there? Was it before or afterwards?
- A Well I don't know, you see directly after the war we didn't run around any, we were afraid to go out any, we stayed at home.
- Q You don't know whether it was before or after? A Well it must have been then this Horse Creek fight was, I think it was in the summer time sometime and this was in the fall.
- Q The same fall? A I couldn't tell positively.
- Q What is your best judgment about it? A Well I hate to say.
- Q It is pretty hard to remember these things that occurred that long ago? A Yes sir, a long time. There were two fights there, one occurred before we come there.
- Q Did those two fights both occur the same year? A I couldn't tell you that.
- Q Where did they move to when they moved away? A Across the river.
- Q Did they move on the Dr. Thompson place? A I think they moved on a place they got from Uncle Jeter or Uncle Robert, and I think he lived there until he died to my best judgment.
- Q What place was that you say? A They settled a place in there near Uncle Robert or sorter between the two places.
- Q What time did they move in on that place? A I don't know exactly. You see we made a crop up there in 1867 and after we gathered the crop, father sent Tommy and I to school in Arkansas.
- Q You started in the fall of 1867? A Yes sir.
- Q When did they make a crop on that new place, Jeff? A He surely couldn't have made any crop earlier than 1868.
- Q In your judgment Jeff Lyons didn't get down to the Territory early enough to make a crop until 1868? A Yes sir.

- Q Do you know whether or not he ever lived on the Dr. Thompson place?
A He might have rented some ground from Uncle Jeter.
Q I mean live there? A I don't remember of him living there.
There were several families living there, and I thought one of them families were Andy Frye and another fellow that attended to our boats there, his name was Tobe Schrimsher, and there was another fellow or two there.
Q Do you remember about the time that Andy Frye lived on that Dr. Thompson place with reference to the time they were living there,-- what time was it Jeff and Mahala were camped there? A That was along in 1867.
Q I mean regardless of dates, at the time Jeff was camped there in your yard where was Andy Frye living? A I think on Uncle Jeter's place.
Q That was about the time Tobe Schrimsher was there? A Well I don't know whether schrimsher was there then or not, I rather believe Schrimsher had left before then. A little thing happened there before then, somebody stole Uncle Robert paniel's horse and Schrimsher was running our boats, and they stole our boats and after that father and Uncle Robert gave Schrimsher a jacking up and I think he left.
Q Disregarding what year it was, you said it was in the fall of the year? A Yes sir.
Q And that was on the other side of the river from the Dr. Thompson place? A Yes sir.
Q What time of the year did they leave that place and move? A I couldn't say, couldn't tell you.
Q Where were you living when they moved? A I don't know whether we were there or had gone to school.
Q What year was it you first went to school in Arkansas? A It was in 1867. After we got through gathering corn we went.
Q How do you remember that was 1867? A A thousand things happened to make a person remember it.
Q To remember it was 1867 instead of 1866 or '65? A Couldn't have been 1866 because we didn't come up there until late in the fall of 1866.
Q How do you remember it was 1866 you come up there instead of '65?
A We were afraid to go up there.
Q How long after the war closed before you were afraid to come up there? A We come as soon as we thought it was healthy.
Q This occurred about 40 years ago? A Yes sir.
Q You were how old? A About 16 years old.
Q You think then, you are pretty positive it is highly improbable that you could be mistaken just a year or two? A I don't think I could be. You see they come up there the same year Uncle Robert paniels moved up, he moved there in the spring of 1867 and they got there in the fall of 1867.

On motion of the Commissioner this case was here continued until June 23, 1906, at 8:45 A. M.

June 23, 1906: In pursuance of continuance heretofore had in this case, the hour of 8:45 A. M., having arrived on this day, this case was called for further hearing at which time the following proceedings were had:

T. P. THOMPSON, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q What is your name? A T. P. Thompson.
- Q How old are you? A Going on 59 years old.
- Q What is your post office? A Vinita.
- Q What was your father's name? A Johnson Thompson.
- Q Are you a brother to Jim Thompson who was on the stand here yesterday? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you know Bob Daniels in his life time? A Yes sir.
- Q Was his wife any relation to you? A She was an Aunt of mine, a sister to my mother.
- Q Were they Cherokees? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you ever live in the Cherokee Nation before the war? A Yes sir.
- Q Where? A On Grand River.
- Q How far from Vinita? A East about 15 miles.
- Q Down near where the present Ketchum post office is? A Yes sir, right at that post office.
- Q On which side of the river did your folks live? A On the west side.
- Q On which side did Bob Daniels live? A Dr. Thompson place is right on the river and Daniels place was about a mile southeast.
- Q On the opposite side of the river from you? A Yes sir.
- Q How did you people go out during the war? A Yes sir.
- Q What time did you return? A We returned in the fall or winter of 1866.
- Q And that time did Daniels people return to the place up there on the river? A They came back in the spring of 1867.
- Q Did you know Mrs. Strout that was on the stand? A Yes sir.
- Q That was her father? A Yes sir, he lived there.
- Q Then each of your families returned back to these old places? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you know a negro woman by the name of Mahala that belonged to the Daniels before the war? A Yes sir.
- Q Who did she marry during the war, or who did you know her to be the wife of after the war, if you knew her at all? A The wife of Jeff Lyons after the war.
- Q Did she have any children before the war? A I think she did, I would not be certain about that.
- Q Don't know of a child named Mike Moore? A Yes sir.
- Q How far is this Dr. Thompson place from your place? A About a mile, just across the river.
- Q You say you knew Mahala who belonged to your aunt Mr. Daniels before the war? A Yes sir.
- Q Now what is your best judgment of the time that you first saw them, that they returned here after the war? A Well as to that I couldn't possibly say for certain. They came back after we did but I couldn't say whether it was the year we did or the year following.
- Q Well what is your best judgment about it? A Well I don't know what my best judgment would be.
- Q Well you don't want to be positive about it, is that as I understand you? A No sir, because I am not.
- Q Did you make an affidavit in this case? A Yes sir.
- Q And in that affidavit it did you want to be understood to say that these people returned in 1866? A No sir, I don't want to be understood that way.
- Q Who prepared it? A A young man named Blue I believe.
- Q With whom did you talk about it. Did you talk to N. C. Starr about it? A Yes sir, I mentioned it to Mr. Starr yesterday.
- Q Did you ever talk to him prior to yesterday? A Yes sir, we met in the post office a time or two and talked about it up there at Vinita.

- Q Did you tell him that you didn't want to be understood as saying in your affidavit that they returned in 1866? A Yes sir, because I wasn't certain about that. That was to the best of my knowledge.
- Q You didn't intend to say 1866? A No sir.

BY MR. PATTEN:

- Q Well then Mr. Thompson what you want to be understood as saying in this case is then that you are uncertain as to whether it was 1866 or '67, is that what you mean? A Yes sir, I am uncertain. I don't want to be understood as saying 1866 or nothing else.
- Q Now you would not want to be understood as positively swearing that it was not 1866? A No sir.
- Q Nor you would not want to be understood as positively swearing it was 1867? A No sir.
- Q Wasn't it about 3 or 4 days ago you talked to Mr. Starr at Vinita? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you talk to Mr. Starr any time about this at the time you made this affidavit? A Not that I remember of. I don't think Mr. Starr had anything to do with the affidavit at all.
- Q Did you testify before John W. Wallace in the Wallace Court for these people? A I didn't know the gentleman, he was up in Mr. Starr's office.
- Q The Wallace Court in 1869? A No sir, I think not.
- Q You don't remember whether you did or not? A No sir, I don't think I have ever testified in freedman cases before. I don't remember of it.

WITNESSES EXCUSED.

Mr. Hastings: I desire to make an inquiry of the Commissioner as to whether or not all of the testimony of all these consolidated cases heretofore taken and taken now, including the testimony of Nelson Moore, and the cases of Moses Hardrick, P. D. 314, at a prior hearing will be considered a part of the testimony of this entire case.

On Behalf of the Commissioner: All of the testimony and records in each of the separate cases which are now consolidated under the two hears, consolidated cases of Moses Hardrick, et al., and George Irons, et al., will be made a part of the record in this consolidated case.

Mr. Hastings: For the purpose of impeaching Tobias Bean, I desire to introduce the record of assessment of Monroe Township, Anderson County, Kansas, copied from the original records and filed in the cases of Thomas Mayfield, et al., P. R. 541, with reference to Warren Adams for the year 1868.

Mr. Patten: To which applicants object for the reason that there is no testimony to identify Warren Adams, the man of whom Tobias Bean testified with the name of Warren Adams sought to be introduced and for the further reason that the record in the Mayfield case shows that the assessment record of Monroe Township, Anderson County, Kansas, was never authenticated for the year 1868 by the Assessor.

On Behalf of the Commissioner: A stenographic report was made of the record of the proceedings had May 24, 1906, in the cases of Thomas Mayfield, et al., at which time there was introduced in the record, the record of the assessment of one Warren Adams, the original census record being exhibited at that time. The stenographer's notes have not yet been transcribed, but as soon as done so a copy of that part of the proceedings relating to the census of Warren Adams in Monroe Township, Anderson County, Kansas, will be filed with and made a part of the record in this case.

Mr. Hastings: For the purpose of impeaching Frank Ross, one of the witnesses who has heretofore testified in this case, we desire to have noted in the record what action has been taken by the Secretary of the Interior in the following cases, Freedman Doubtful 498, being the case of Henry C. Hayden, et al., Freedman Doubtful 535, being the case of Charity Trow, Freedman Doubtful 631, being the case of Nancy Ross, et al., Freedman Doubtful 578, being the case of Katie Thorton, et al., Freedman Doubtful 201, being the case of Sarah Bean, Freedman Doubtful 766, being the case of Leah Winfield et al., Freedman Doubtful 777, being the case of Calvin Ross, et al., Freedman Doubtful 1007, being the case of Jesse Hicks, et al., Freedman Doubtful 1009, being the case of George Ross. All of said cases being freed on cases and the record in all of said cases showing that the said Frank Ross testified in all of them, and the representative of the Cherokee Nation contend that all of them have been rejected by the Commission and finally rejected by the Secretary of the Interior.

Mr. Starr: To which applicants object and move that the Cherokee Nation be required to state in each instance what particular testimony given by Frank Ross in said cases is false.

Mr. Hastings: The Cherokee Nation states that in each case where he swore that the applicants returned in 1860 is false, and was so found by the Commission and by the Secretary of the Interior.

Mr. Starr: The applicants contend that a general statement is not sufficient and move that the Nation be required to specify in each instance what testimony is false.

Mr. Rixby, Commissioner: The objection of Attorneys for applicants will be sustained.

Mr. Hastings: The ruling of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes is excepted to for the reason that it is contended on behalf of the Cherokee Nation that if this same witness Frank Ross has testified in all of the above cited cases, and for the applicants, and if the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes has decided adversely to them, and these decisions have been affirmed by the Secretary of the Interior, that this tends to show that weight is given by the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, and the Secretary of the Interior to the testimony of the said Frank Ross, and therefore tends to impeach and discredit him.

Mr. Starr: Replying to this argument the Attorneys for applicants desire to state that unless it is shown specifically wherein said witness testified falsely, in each of said cases it would not tend to discredit him for the reason that said witness might not have testified to a mere point in any of said cases.

Mr. Hastings: In answer to that argument the Attorney for the Cherokee Nation now offer to have the full testimony of the said Frank Ross in each of said cases referred to filed and made a part of this record so it will show the different points to which he has testified.

Mr. Starr: To which applicants object.

Mr. Rixby, Commissioner: The objection will be sustained.

Mr. Hastings: For the purpose of impeaching and discrediting the statements of the applicant, Moses Hardrick, the representative of the Cherokee Nation desires to have the record of the decision of the Commission and the action of the Department thereon in the following freedmen cases. All of them being cases in which the said Moses Hardrick testified in behalf of the applicant and all of them being rejected by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and affirmed by the Secretary of the Interior: Freedman doubtful 283, being that of Moses Ross. Freedman doubtful 287, Jim Alberty, et al. Freedman doubtful, 317, Charles Martin, et al., Freedman doubtful 567, Jane Looney, Freedman doubtful 631, Nancy Ross, et al., Freedman doubtful 662, Cynthia Hoard, et al., Freedman doubtful 921, Elijah Watie or Timmon. Freedman doubtful 946 Andy Ross. Freedman doubtful 952, Charles Brown, et al. Freedman doubtful 1002, George Ross, Freedman doubtful 1020, Kissie Newman, et al., Freedman doubtful 1023, Ned Foreman. Freedman rejected 88, Malzy Corban, et al. In all of which the said Moses Hardrick testified for the applicants.

Mr. Starr: In reply to this motion the applicants make the same objection and the same motion as was made with reference to Frank Ross.

Mr. Bixby, Commissioner: The objection will be sustained.

Mr. Hastings: For the reasons hereinabove stated the ruling of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes is excepted to.

Mr. Hastings: For the purpose of impeaching and discrediting the testimony of Anderson Lynch, a witness who has heretofore testified for the applicants in this case, the representative of the Cherokee Nation asks that the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and of the Secretary of the Interior rejecting the following applicants, in all of which cases the said Anderson Lynch testified, be shown in this record. Freedman doubtful 493, being the case of Alex Johnson, et al., in which the said Anderson Lynch was especially impeached. Freedman doubtful 82, John May, et al., Freedman doubtful 260, Harvey Martin, et al. Freedman doubtful 732, Joseph Lynch, et al. Freedman doubtful 309, William Vann, et al. Freedman doubtful 374, Ab Buffington, Freedman doubtful 500, Annie Little, et al. Freedman doubtful 617, Rosa Shobe, et al. Freedman doubtful 79, Mary Hemmitte. Freedman doubtful 734, John Towers. Freedman doubtful 860, Annie Elms, et al. Freedman doubtful 861, Arthur Martin. Freedman doubtful 860 Perry Adams, et al. Freedman doubtful 285, Isabell Brown. Freedman doubtful 286, Rachel Todd, et al. Freedman doubtful 1015, Amanda Brown. Freedman doubtful 720, Martha Lyons. Freedman doubtful 375, William Buffington. Freedman rejected 85, Malzy Corbin, et al.

Mr. Starr: Attorneys for applicants make the same objections in this case as were made with reference to Frank Ross and Moses Hardrick.

Mr. Bixby, Commissioner: The objection will be sustained.

Mr. Hastings: The representative of the Cherokee Nation excepts to the ruling of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes for the reasons herein above set forth.

Mr. Starr: We would like to examine the records of the Cherokee Supreme Court and Citizenship Courts, that are now in the possession of the Attorneys for the Cherokee Nation.

Mr. Hastings: And for what purpose?

Mr. Starr: For the purpose of seeing if there is any record in said Court that we might desire to offer.

Mr. Hastings: The representative of the Cherokee Nation decline to turn over to Citizenship lawyers the records in his possession for their use in making motions which they do not regard as veridical generally in citizenship cases, but if there is any judgment of any Court in the possession of the Commission relevant to this case, they have no objections whatever to that judgment being taken from the records and introduced in this case.

Mr. Starr: Attorneys for applicants have that the Honorable Commissioner require these records to be turned over to him and be placed in his official custody so that both the Attorneys for the Cherokee Nation and applicants may have access to them.

On Behalf of the Commissioner: It is requested that the Attorneys for applicants indicate the records in the possession of the Attorneys for the Cherokee Nation to which they refer.

Mr. Starr: It is the record referred to in the matter of the application of Andy Webber. The Chambers Court of 1878, being the same record referred to in the case of Andy Webber last Thursday.

Mr. Hastings: In reply to this the representative of the Cherokee Nation state that they are not trying the Andy Webber case, and that that is not a part of this case and not a part of this record; that the Andy Webber case was tried and closed on Thursday last.

Mr. Starr: I saw the record referred to in that case. The book referred to in that case.

On behalf of the Commissioner: The record of proceedings had before the Chambers Court or Commission on Citizenship are in possession of this office and when a decision is rendered in this case official notice will be taken of any proceedings had before said Court with reference to any applicants in this consolidated case.

Mr. Starr: The applicants request that the case of George W. Lynch be not closed at this time, and that they be given an opportunity to furnish the Commissioner with a list of witnesses, and have that the case be set for trial at some date convenient to the Commissioner, at which time testimony may be taken on the question of the return of George W. Lynch after the promulgation of the Treaty of July 19, 1866. That we do not represent George Inna, Betty Hayes and Richard Hero, and as far as the other cases are concerned they will be closed.

Mr. Hastings: The representative of the Cherokee Nation object to any continuance of the case of George W. Lynch on the reason that they have agreed that all of the descendants of Moses Hardrick and Jeff and Mahala Lyons would be consolidated in this case when it was gone into and the testimony has been taken without any reference being made to any separate case for George W. Lynch, and the applicants closed the taking of their testimony and the Cherokee Nation has introduced testimony upon its side and the testimony of all parties have been introduced and now for the first time they ask for a continuance in this case. In fact no notice has been given of any witness they expected to testify in it. They have shown no diligence in the procurement of any witnesses, they have not given the name of any witness and do not say what they expect to prove by witnesses, and therefore the motion should not be granted.

Mr. Starr: Replying to this argument of the Attorney for the Cherokee Nation we desire to call the attention of the Commission to our motion to reopen this consolidated case which shows the parties we represented at the time and we desire to state further that we never represented George F. Lynch until here a few days ago.

On behalf of the Commissioner: The records of this office show that the motion made for the reopening of the consolidated cases of George Irons, et al., included the following applications for enrollment:

George Irons, et al.,	F R	36
Bettie Hayes,	F R	87
Richard Wero,	F R	1328
Ned Lyons,	F R	251
Rachel Landrum	F D	252
Klias Lyons,	F D	253
Altha Moore, et al.,	F R	357
George F. Lynch,	F R	751.

Mr. Bixby, Commissioner: George F. Lynch is in this case.

Mr. Starr: George F. Lynch has a different status, he came from the south and the others came from the north.

Mr. Bixby, Commissioner: I know, but he was in this case.

Mr. Hastings: Yes sir.

Mr. Bixby, Commissioner: The Department's instructions seem to be explicit, I think we will have to deny the motion. The motion is denied.

D E C I S I O N.

THE RECORD IN THIS CONSOLIDATED CASE SHOWS: That application for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen were made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes by Moses Hardrick for himself; by Celia Hardrick for her husband Silas Hardrick; by Lewis Bean for his wife, Sarah Bean; by Mary Hardrick for her husband, Nelson Hardrick, and his minor children Malinda and LeRoy Hardrick; by William Hardrick for himself and minor children, Mabel and Leona Hardrick; by Eliza J. Hardrick for herself and minor childred, Arthur, Ethel, Mattie and Claud Lynch; by Mary Hardrick for herself and minor children Ames, and Jackson Lonien; by Jennanna Irons for her husband, George Irons, and his children Bertha and Bettie Irons and grand child, Elnora Nivens; by Bettie Mayes for herself; by Emmet Starr for Richard and Mollie Nero (or Irons); by Ned Lyons for himself; by Rachel Landrum for herself; by Eliza Lyons for himself and minor child Nelson J. Lyons; by Altha Moore for himself and brother, Oscar Moore and by George W. Lynch for himself and minor children Rosetta and Eliza Lynch.

The record further shows that on April 20, 1904, and April 18, 1905, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered its decisions herein denying the above named applicants the right to enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen, that said decisions were duly forwarded to the Department for consideration, and that the former decision was affirmed by the Department on October 13, 1904 (I.T.D. 6968-1904); and that thereafter, to-wit, on April 5, 1906 (I.T.D. 5398-1906) and May 11, 1906 (I.T.D. 4667-1906) respectively; on motions of the applicants, the Department recinded its decision of October 13, 1904, and remanded the records in this now consolidated case for further testimony and readjudication. Further proceedings in the matter of said applications were had at Muskogee, Indian Territory on June 21, 22 and 23, 1906.

The record in this consolidated case shows that the above named applicants neither claim nor possess any rights to Cherokee freedmen citizenship other than as below indicated, to-wit: Moses, Eliza J. and Mary Hardrick, George Irons, Bettie Mayes and George W. Lynch by virtue of having complied with certain provisions of the Treaty of 1866; Silas Hardrick, Sarah Bean, Nelson and William Hardrick as descendants of the said Moses Hardrick and his former wife one Patient or Patience Hardrick, now deceased, Malinda and LeRoy Hardrick as descendants of the applicant Nelson Hardrick and his former wife one Winnie Hardrick, deceased; Mable and Leona Hardrick as descendants of the applicant William Hardrick; Arthur, Mattie and Claud Lynch as descendants of the applicant Eliza J. Hardrick and one Charlie Lynch and Ethel Lynch as a descendant of the said applicant Eliza J. Hardrick and one John Ross, deceased; Amos and Jackson Lonien as descendants of the applicant Mary Hardrick and one Mose Lonien, Bertha and Bettie Irons as descendants of the applicant, George Irons and one Winnie Irons nee Lyons, deceased; Elvora Hivens as the descendants of Bertha Irons and Harrison Hivens; Ned Lyons, Rachel Landrum and Eliza Lyons as descendants of Jefferson and Mahala Lyons, both deceased; Nelson J. Lyons as the descendant of the applicant Eliza Lyons, Altha and Oscar Moore as the descendants of one Mike Moore, deceased; and Rosetta and Eliza Lynch as the descendants of the applicant George W. Lynch.

A reexamination of the records in this now consolidated case made prior to the rendition of the decisions heretofore referred to, convinces this office that the findings therein are eminently correct. Hence, if said decisions are to be reversed it must be upon the evidence submitted since said records were returned to this office for readjudication.

Since this case was remanded twenty-two witnesses have been introduced by the parties hereto, all of whom testified from unaided memory alone to events that necessarily must have happened thirty-eight or forty years before. For reasons most obvious such testimony can give but little aid in determining whether or not material facts at issue herein occurred on or prior to February 11, 1867, or subsequent thereto.

For reasons below stated this office is of the opinion that the respective rights of the parties hereto can be properly adjudicated without attempting to reconcile the conflicting statements of the many witnesses introduced herein or determine which a ray of witnesses is entitled to the greater credit.

Subsequent to the rendition of the latter of the two decisions herein before referred to there came into the possession of this office a roll of the Cherokee people made from a census taken in 1867.

This roll was made under authority of Section 12, Treaty of 1866, for the purpose of ascertaining the number of Cherokee citizens in order that the representation of the Cherokee Nation in the General Council provided for by said Treaty might be properly apportioned.

Section 12 of said Treaty reads in part as follows:

"After the ratification of this Treaty, and as soon as may be deemed practicable by the Secretary of the Interior, and prior to the first session of said council, a census or enumeration of each tribe lawfully resident in said (Indian) Territory shall be taken under the direction of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, who, for that purpose, is hereby authorized to designate and appoint competent persons, whose compensation shall be fixed by the Secretary of the Interior and paid by the United States."

Under authority of this provision the Commissioner of Indian Affairs appointed one W. Tompkins to take the census of the Cherokee Tribe. In taking this census Mr. Tompkins followed the political divisions of the Cherokee Nation. The roll made from this census is contained in four substantial, well preserved volumes, the names of the Cherokee citizens, at that time, appearing in their respective districts, said districts being divided in four volumes, as follows, to-wit:

Going Snake and Delaware Districts	Volume 1,
Tahlequah and Saline Districts	Volume 2,
Canadian and Delaware Districts	Volume 3,
Flint, Sequoyah and Koo-wees-koo-wee Districts,	Volume 4.

The citizens of the Cherokee Nation were classified by the census taker under four heads, namely; Indians, Whites, Halfbreeds and Colored. In his recapitulation of the census taken Mr. Tompkins found there were 13566, Cherokee citizens residing in their nation divided under the foregoing heads, as follows: Indians 5988, Whites 47, Halfbreeds 2680, and Colored 1281.

The certificate of the census taker is found on the last page of volume four and reads as follows; to-wit:

"I certify that the foregoing is a true and correct census or enumeration of the Cherokee Indians residing in their Nation;-- taken in obedience to your appointment per telegram dated June 10, 1867, and instructions dated July 1, 1867, and in accordance with the provisions of Article 12th, Section 1st of a Treaty made with the Cherokee Nation dated July 19, 1866.

W. Tompkins,
Special U. S. Commissioner to take census of Cherokee Indians."

This roll is considered reliable for the reason that the census from which it was made was taken by disinterested parties and for a purpose that makes it highly improbable that any reason existed for placing on said roll the name of any person not entitled, or excluding therefrom the name of any person not entitled to citizenship on the Cherokee Nation. The question as to whether or not those claiming under Article 9 of the Treaty of 1866 had complied with the provisions thereof was, at that time, easily determined, especially so as to the date of return, inasmuch as this census was taken only a few months after the time limited by said Article 9 of the Treaty for the return of Cherokee freedmen, had expired.

An examination of the roll fails to show the names of any of the above named applicants, or of any of the aforementioned deceased ancestors, enumerated thereon.

In connection with the taking of the census above referred to attention is invited to page 9 of the record herein, wherein will be found the following questions and answers, to-wit:

- "Q How does the fact that the grass was in connect with in your mind, with those Hardrick's return? A I tell you about my recollection of it being in the spring of '67; those Hardrick, Andy Fry and my stepfather and Arch Landrum, uncle Reuben Downing, they all of them went to Lucy Wilderbrands in the spring of '67 to a census taker.
- Q To a census taker? A Yes sir to a census taker; that was in '67.
- Q What month was that? A That was about June or July as well as I remember.
- Q They took census in '67 did they? A I reckon they did that's what they said; they all went off I couldn't say what they did."

Of the persons named by this witness only one, Arch Landrum can be identified on the roll of 1867. The testimony of this witness is considered as evidence practically conclusive that the applicant, Moses Hardrick, was not overlooked by the census taker in 1867. Hence, the failure of his name to appear upon said roll must be due to the fact that in 1867 it was considered that he was not a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

The Daniels Court in 1871, found that the applicant, Moses Hardrick and his family, and the said Jefferson Lyons, deceased, and his family, returned to the Cherokee Nation too late to entitle them to citizenship under the Treaty of 1866. This Court also found that Thomas Moore and family, whom it is alleged returned with the Hardrick and Lyons families, came too late. In the case of Butler McVair, however, who, it is testified, was also a member of this Company, it is found that he returned within the time provided by said Treaty.

The Chambers Court in an opinion rendered on August 9, 1878 held that the applicant, Moses Hardrick (Hardwicke), did not return to the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion within the time limited by the provisions of Article 9 of the Treaty of 1866. A Certified copy of said opinion is made a part of the record herein (331-332).

On June 24, 1904, there was filed with this office an affidavit showing the death of the applicant, Malinda Hardrick, on July 31, 1902.

Excepting the Wallace & Kern-Clifton rolls, none of the applicants herein, nor any ancestors through whom by any possibility they might obtain rights to Cherokee freedmen citizenship can be identified on any Cherokee roll in the custody of this office.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSION: It is considered that the evidence in this case shows that neither the applicants Moses, Eliza J. and Mary Hardrick, George Irons, Bettie Wayes and George W. Lynch, nor the deceased ancestors hereinbefore named, returned to the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion within the time specified in the decree of the Court of Claims rendered on February 3, 1896, in the case of Moses Whitmire, Trustee, etc. vs the Cherokee Nation, et al., for the return of freedmen of said Nation; and that all the applicants herein, except those last above named, were born since the close of the rebellion and obtain no rights to Cherokee Freedmen citizenship through their ancestors.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That for the additional reasons set out herein the former decisions of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in this case should be affirmed, and that under the provisions of Section 21 of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1896 (30 Stats., 495), and Section 3 of the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906 (34 Stats., 137), Moses Hardrick; Silas Hardrick; Sarah Bena; Nelson Hardrick; LeRoy Hardrick; William Hardrick; Mabel Hardrick; Leona Hardrick; Eliza J. Hardrick; Arthur Lynch; Ethel Lynch; Mattie Lynch; Claud Lynch; Mary Hardrick; Amos Lonien; Jackson Lonien; George Irons; Bertha Irons; Bettie Irons; Elnora Wivens; Bettie Wayes; Richard Nero; Mollie Nero; Ned Lyons; Rachel Lanarum; Eliza Lyons; Nelson J. Lyons; Altha Moore; Oscar Moore; George W. Lynch; Rosetta Lynch and Eliza Lynch are not entitled to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied. And that under the provisions of Section 25 of the Act of Congress (Cherokee Agreement) approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 716), the application for the enrollment of Malinda Hardrick should be, and the same is hereby dismissed.

(Signed) Tam Bixby,
Commissioner.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR:

OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,

WASHINGTON. July 3, 1905

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to enclose a report from the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated April 18, 1905, transmitting the record of the consolidated applications for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen by Jennanna Irons for her husband, George Irons, her step-children, Bertha and Bettie Irons, and her step-grandchild, Elнора Nivens; by Bettie Mayes for herself; by Emmet Starr for Richard and Mollie Nero (or Irons); by Ned Lyons for himself; by Rachel Landrum for herself; by Elias Lyons for himself and his minor child, Nelson J. Lyons; by Altha Moore for himself and brother Oscar Moore, and by George W. Lynch for himself and his minor children, Rosetta and Eliza Lynch.

April 18, 1905, the Commission decided adversely to all the applicants.

The record shows that the applicants George Irons, Bettie Mayes and Richard and Mollie Nero (or Irons) are all the children of one Nero Irons, deceased; that the applicants, George Irons and Bettie Mayes were slaves of Cherokee citizens at the beginning of the war of the rebellion, were taken out of the Cherokee Nation Nation during the war and did not return thereto on or before February 11, 1867; and that the applicants, Richard and Mollie Nero (or Irons) are included in a partial list of Creek Freedmen approved by the department March 13, 1902, at Nos. 2173 and 2238 respectively, and have accepted their allotments of lands in the Creek Nation. The minor applicants, Bertha and Bettie Irons, are children of the applicant, George Irons, and Minnie Irons, born Lyons, deceased, were born since 1880 and possess no rights to enrollment other than as descendants of their parents; that Minnie Irons, deceased, was born since 1866 and was the daughter of Jeff and Mahala Lyons, both deceased; that Jeff and Mahala Lyons were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the beginning of the war, were taken out of the Cherokee Nation during the war and did not return thereto on or before February 11, 1867. The minor applicant, Elnora Nivens, is an illegitimate child of Bertha Irons and after ample opportunity it has not been established that she possesses any rights to enrollment other than as a descendant of her mother.

The record further shows that the applicants, Ned Lyons, Rachel Landrum and Elias Lyons are children of Jeff and Mahala Lyons, deceased, were born since the beginning of the war, and possess no rights to enrollment other than as descendants of their parents. The minor applicant, Nelson J. Lyons, is a child of Elias Lyons and one Martha Lyons, was born since 1880 and possesses no rights to enrollment other than as their descendant.

On May 28, 1904, the Department approved the rejection of the Cherokee Freedman case of Martha Lyons (I.T.D. 4226-1904)

The evidence further shows that the minor applicants Altha and Oscar Moore, are the children of one Mike Moore, deceased, were born since 1880, and possess no rights to enrollment other than as descendants of their said father, that Mike Moore was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the beginning of the war was taken from the Cherokee Nation during the war and did not return thereto on or before February 11, 1867.

The evidence further shows that the applicant, George W. Lynch, (son of Mahala Lyons), was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the beginning of the war, was taken out of the Cherokee Nation during the war and did not return thereto on or before February 11, 1867. The minor applicants, Rosetta and Eliza Lynch, are the children of the applicant, George W. Lynch, were born since 1880 and possess no rights to enrollment other than as descendants of their father.

In view of the record the approval of the Commission's decision adverse to all the applicants is recommended.

Very respectfully,

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Sir:

On April 18, 1905, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes transmitted the record in the consolidated case of George Irons, et al., including its decision of the same date, rejecting the applications for the enrollment of George, Bertha, and Bettie Irons; Elmore Eivens; Bettie Hayes; Richard and Mollie Nero; Ned, Elias, and Nelson J. Lyons; Rachel Landrum; Altha and Oscar Moore, and George W., Rosetta, and Eliza Lynch as Cherokee freedmen.

Reporting July 3, 1905, the Indian Office recommended that the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes be approved. A copy of its letter is enclosed.

On September 7, 1905, the attorneys for the applicants filed a motion for a review of the Commission's decision relative to George Irons et al. On the same date they also filed a motion for a review of the decision relative to Elias Lyons et al.

Under date of February 15, 1906, the attorneys for the applicants filed a motion for a new trial in the cases of Altha and Oscar Moore, and on February 16, 1906, also filed a motion for a new trial in the case of George Irons, et al.

The motions for review filed September 7, 1905, are hereby dismissed.

A consideration of the motions for a new trial, together with the record, shows a sufficient reason for a review and readjudication of the consolidated case. You are therefore directed to reopen the case and permit the applicants and the attorneys for the nation to offer such testimony as they may desire to submit relative to the time of the return to the Cherokee nation of George Irons, Jeff and Mikala Irons, and Mike Moore, and also as to whether they have been slaves of Cherokee citizens. You will also fully advise all parties in interest of the points in issue.

Under date of April 27, 1906, the attorneys for the applicants forwarded a request to the Department that in the event of favorable action upon the motions for review in this case, it be considered with the case of M. H. Hardrick et al., which was remanded to you for rehearing on April 5, 1906, as the principal ancestors in both cases are alleged to have returned from banishment in the same party, and the testimony in both cases being practically the same, the applicants, who are poor people, would avoid great expense.

In the absence of further material objections, you will grant said request.

The record, together with the motions, are returned herewith.

Respectfully,

Sir:-

On May 10, 1906, the Indian Office transmitted to the Department a letter from the attorneys for the Cherokee Nation dated February 24, 1906, forwarding brief in the Cherokee freedman enrollment case of George Irons et al.

The records of the Department show that on May 11, 1906, the consolidated Cherokee Freedman case of George Irons et al. was remanded to you for a rehearing. In view of this action, the communication from the attorneys, together with said brief, is transmitted to be filed with the papers in said case.

The Honorable,

The Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:-

We are in receipt of a letter from our Washington D C associates advising us that the Honorable Secretary of the Interior has granted a motion for rehearing in the following consolidated Cherokee Freedmen enrollment cases:

George Irons et al F. R. 36
Bettie Hayes----- F. D. 27
Richard Nero (or Irons) F D 1328
Mad Lyons F D 261
Rachel Landrum F D 262
Elias Lyons et al F D 263
Altha Moore et al F D 367
George W. Lynch et al F D 731.

We have neglected to advise you that since Mr. Fulger retired from our firm that under our agreement with him we are to try this case and we therefore request that you enter our firm as Attorneys for these applicants.

We recently wrote the Department that we would like to have this case sent back for rehearing as early as possible in order to try it in connection with the Wardrick cases advising the Department that Moses Wardrick, Jeff Lyons, Mahala Lyons, Mike Moore, Thomas Moore and Butler McNair all left South Iowa Kansas in the Summer or early fall of 1866 and came to the Cherokee Nation in the same crowd and at the same time.

You are therefore earnestly requested to set these cases for the same date as the Moses Hardrick et al cases and the same witnesses submitted by us in the Hardrick cases may be considered as our witnesses submitted to you for the trial of the above described cases.

We are ready for the trial of these cases and would be glad to have an early hearing and would like to have these cases tried at Vinita, a motion to that effect being now pending in your office in the Hardrick cases.

Respectfully,

Starr and Patten,
Attorneys for George Irons, et al.
Vinita, Indian Territory.

Gentlemen:

You are hereby advised that this office is in receipt of Departmental letter of May 11, 1906, referring to the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes dated April 18, 1905, rejecting the applications for the enrollment of the applicants embraced in the Cherokee freedmen consolidated cases of George Irons, et al., and advising that on September 7, 1905, attorneys for applicants filed a motion for review of the Commission's decision relative to George Irons et al., that on the same date they filed a motion for review of the decision relative to Elias Lyons, et al.; that on February 15, 1906, the attorneys filed a motion for a new trial in the cases of Altha and Oscar Moore, and that on February 16, 1906, they filed a motion for a new trial in the cases of George Irons, et al.

The motions for review filed September 7, 1905, were dismissed by the Department, and sufficient reason being shown to the Department, a rehearing is ordered in the case to "permit the applicants and the attorneys for the Nation to offer such testimony as they may desire to submit, relative to the time of the return to the Cherokee Nation of George Irons, Jeff and Mahala Lyons and Mike Moore, and also as to whether they have been slaves of Cherokee citizens".

The Department further states that on April 26, 1906, attorneys for applicants forwarded a request that in the event of favorable action upon the motion for review in the Irons case, it be considered with the case of Moses Hardrick, et al., which was remanded to this office for rehearing April 5, 1906. The Department directs this office "in the absence of further material objections you will grant said request".

You are therefore hereby notified that on Thursday, June 21, 1906, at nine o'clock A.M., this case will be taken up for hearing at the General Offices of the Commissioner at Muskogee, Indian Territory. There appears to be no objection to this case being consolidated with those of Moses Hardrick, et al., and in your letter of May 19, 1906, it is stated that the ancestors through whom the principal applicants in both cases claim Cherokee freedman citizenship, returned to the Cherokee Nation at the same time.

In your letter of May 16, 1906, you advise the names and addresses of the witnesses you propose to introduce in the Hardrick cases, and you are advised that you will be permitted to introduce the testimony of the witnesses named by you, in the Irons cases, if you so desire. If it is your desire to introduce in the Irons cases witnesses other than those mentioned by you in your letter of May 16, you will be required to furnish this office the names and addresses of the additional witnesses proposed to be introduced, in sufficient time to enable this office to give the attorneys for the Cherokee Nation at least two full weeks notice of such additional witnesses.

The Cherokee Nation will be permitted to appear on the above date and introduce in rebuttal, such witnesses as it desires in these cases.

For your information a copy of Departmental letter referred to is enclosed herewith.

Respectfully,

Acting Commissioner.

being shown to the Department a rehearing is ordered in the case to "permit the applicants and the attorneys for the Nation to offer such testimony as they may desire to submit relative to the time of the return to the Cherokee Nation of George Irons, Jeff and Mahala Lyons and Mike Moore, and also as to whether they have been slaves of Cherokee citizens."

The Department further states that on April 26, 1906, attorneys for applicants forwarded a request that in the event of favorable action upon the motion for review in the Irons case, it be considered with the case of Jose Hardrick, et al., which was remanded to this office for rehearing April 5, 1906. The Department directs this office "in the absence of further material objections you will grant said request."

Y

You are therefore notified that these cases will be taken up for hearing at the General Offices of the Commissioner at Muskogee, Indian Territory, at nine o'clock A.M., on Thursday, June 21, 1906. There appears to be no objection to the Irons cases being consolidated with the Hardrick cases.

In a letter dated May 19, 1906, from Starr and

Bell, Hastings and Davenport--3

Patten, attorneys for applicants, they advise that it is claimed that the principal applicants in each of these cases, and their ancestors, returned to the Cherokee Nation at the same time. In their letter of May 16, 1906, they advise the names and addresses of witnesses which they propose to introduce in the Hardrick cases, of which you are advised in a separate letter of even date. The attorneys for the applicants have this day been notified that they will be permitted to appear before the offices of the Commissioner on the above date and introduce in both these consolidated cases the testimony of the witnesses named in their letter of May 16. They have been also notified that if they desire to introduce in the Irons cases testimony of any witnesses in addition to those named in their letter of May 16, they will be required to advise this office in sufficient time to give you at least two full weeks notice of the additional witnesses proposed to be introduced. The Cherokee Nation will also be permitted to appear on the above date and introduce in rebuttal such testimony as it desires in this case.

Dear Sir:

In connection with your Cherokee freedmen enrollment case you are advised that this office is in receipt of Departmental letter of May 11, 1906, in which a motion filed by your attorneys September 7, 1905, for review of the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in your case, is denied. A motion filed with the Department February 14, 1906, for a new trial in your case is granted by the Department, and the record in the case returned to this office and a rehearing ordered to "permit the applicants and the attorneys for the Nation to offer such testimony as they may desire to submit relative to the time of the return to the Cherokee Nation of George Irons, Jeff and Mahala Lyons, and Mike Moore, and also as to whether they have been slaves of Cherokee citizens."

The department states that on April 27, 1906, the attorneys for the applicants in the cases with which your application was consolidated, requested, in the event of

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior,

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith a communication from Commissioner Bixby, dated February 13, 1907, enclosing the record on the re-hearing of the application for the enrollment of Moses Hardrick, et al. , as Cherokee freedmen, together with his decision, dated February 13, 1907, dismissing the application for the enrollment of Malinda Hardrick, and rejecting the application for the enrollment of Moses and Silas Hardrick, Sarah Bean, Nelson, LeRoy, William, Mable, Leona and Eliza J. Hardrick, Arthur, Ethel Mattie and Claud Lynch, Mary Hardrick, Amos and Jackson Lonien, George, Bertha, and Bettie Irons, Elnora Nevens, Bettie Mayes, Richard and Mollie New, Ned Lyons, Rachel Landrum, Elias and Nelson J. Lyons, Altha and Oscar Moore, George W., Rosetta and Eliza Lynch.

There was also filed in this Office on February 25, 1907, an appeal from the Commissioner's decision, together with brief and argument in support thereof, filed in this office on February 25, 1907, by McGowan, Serven & Mohun, attorneys for the applicants.

The Office has examined the testimony taken at the re-hearing of this case, and is of the opinion that it supports the decision rendered by the Commissioner in this matter. It therefore respectfully recommends that the decision of the Commissioner, rejecting the above named applicants, be affirmed.

Very respectfully,

. C. F. Larrabee .

In the matter of the application of Abbie Bly for the enrollment of herself and two children as Cherokee Freedmen.

Abbie Bly, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A Abbie Bly.
Q What is your age? A I don't know my age.
Q About how old are you? A I can't tell you, my mistress is sitting here, she can tell you better than I can; I don't know my age.
Q Well, what is your post office? A Spavinaw.
Q What district do you live in? A I live in Salina.
Q Do you want to be enrolled as a Cherokee Freedman? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you want to enroll anybody besides yourself? A Two children; I have six but they are all grown but two.
Q What are the names of the children? A Minnie and Calis.
Q How old is Minnie? A I have her age here in my pocket (hands Commissioner paper.)

Commissioner: Minnie Bly, 16; Calis, 12.

Q Have you ever been recognized by the Cherokee authorities as a Cherokee Freedman? A Well, I don't know whether they recognized me or not.

Q Is your name on the roll of 1880? A No, sir, I think not.

Q Did you draw strip money? A Yes, sir.

The 1880 authenticated roll of Cherokee Freedmen examined and the applicants not identified thereon.

The 1896 census roll of Cherokee Freedmen examined and the applicants not identified thereon.

The Kerns-Clifton roll examined, and the applicants identified thereon as follows:

Abbie Bly on page 158, No. 3897, Cooweescoowee district, as Abbie Blye.

Calis Bly on page 158, No. 3900, Cooweescoowee district, as Callus Blye.

Q Did you ever apply to any other nation to be enrolled besides the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir.

Q Were you a slave? A Yes, sir.

Q What was your owner's name? A Bly.

Q What was his first name, his given name? A Jim Bly.

Q Was he a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q An Indian? A Yes, sir.

Q Were you taken out of the Cherokee Nation during the war between the United States and the Confederacy? A Yes, sir, I went out.

Q Where did you go? A I went in the State.

Q What state? A Well I don't know what state, I just went into the state.

Q North or south? A I went north.

Q To Kansas I expect? A Yes, sir, I expect so.

Q Well, when did you come back from Kansas to the Cherokee Nation?

A I came back in the fall of '66.

Q Have you been living here ever since, in the Cherokee Nation?

A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know why your name isn't on the roll of 1880? A No, sir, only just because they wouldn't put me there is all I know.

Q You are sure you came back in '66? A Yes, sir.

Q Been living here ever since? A Yes, sir.

By W.W.Hastings, Cherokee Attorney: You belonged to Jim Bly before the war? A Yes, sir.

Q He sold you to a man in Missouri? A No he didn't he never sold me to no man in Missouri.

Q Before the war? A No he didn't.

Q You lived in Missouri? A Well he never sold me to no man and I never lived there that I know of.

Abbie Sly - 2.

Q You lived before the war in Missouri? A No, sir.

Q Did you live there during the war in Missouri? A Well my mistress is back there, you can call her, I was too young to tell anything about that, she is here to answer for that.

Q How old are you now? A I can't tell you my age, she will answer for that, I told you as far as I could.

Q You were grown when the war came up? A I was a nurse in the house.

Q Who did you come back to the Cherokee Nation with after the war?

A I came back with a white family.

Q What white family? A With a family by the name of Dodson, or some such as that.

Q You don't know one year from another? A No, sir, don't know one year from another only when I hear it.

Q Have you heard what this year is? A Well I expect I have.

Q What is it? A I can't remember, I guess I have heard what year it is if I could remember it.

Q Do you know any other year except '66? A Yes, when I hear them called.

Q What other year have you heard called? A I am not supposed to tell you because I didn't keep no record of it.

Q You don't know a single one? A No, sir, I don't.

Q Who told you to say '66 when you came in here? A Nobody only myself, I know that is what the people said when the party came here at that time.

Q You never heard anybody call a single date since then? A Yes, I guess I could if I could read and write like you can, I guess I could remember something about it.

Q When by the name of Dodson brought you? A Yes, by the name of Dodson.

Q Did you come on this Frisco train? A No, sir, there wasn't any trains here, you know there wasn't any trains here.

Q Where did you come from? A I done said where I come from as near as I can.

Q Where is that? A I told you I come from Kansas.

Q What place in Kansas? A I don't know what place.

Q You don't know anything about that? A No, I told you just as near as I can tell you now.

Q How did you come, in a wagon? A Yes, sir, come in a wagon.

Q Anybody else besides the man come with you? A Yes, sir, his wife was along.

Q What was her name? A I never asked her name only I reckon her name was Mrs. Dodson, that was her husband's name.

Q Where did you come to in the Cherokee Nation? A Why we camped up o Grand River, they camped there a while.

Q What part of the Grand River? A I don't know what part, just the Grand River is all I can tell you, I don't know what part, but I never thought I would ever have to give any record of it, I never thought any more of it.

Q You were not married then? A No, sir, I wasn't.

Q How long did you camp up there with them? A Well, I don't know how long I camped.

Q A few weeks or a few months? A I don't know, because it has been so long I can't tell you how long I camped.

Q Near what point, what town or place was that? A There wasn't no town.

Q Just camped on the river? A Yes, sir.

Q Anybody live around there? A Well, I suppose there was.

Q You never knew any of them? A No, sir, I didn't.

Q Well, where did you go from there? A On Grand River down here back on the river.

Q Well, into what neighborhood? A Down here close to the Island Ford, they call it, or Tanyard Ford, or something.

Q About how many years

Abbie Sly - 3.

Q About how many years have you been down there? A I can't tell you how many.

Q Three or four? A No, I have been there for years, ever since I came here.

Q Did you stay as much as a year up above here? A Well now I have answered all the questions I can answer you.

Q I mean in that camp? A Did I stay a year? I told you I don't know how long I stayed, I camped there, I don't know whether it was a year or not because I didn't keep any record of it.

Q Was it longer than a month? A I suppose it was longer than a month, I know I was there quite a little while.

Q What were the people doing while you were camping up there, Dodson and his wife? A Nothing only walking around, camping up there, they were moving.

Q You don't know where they got provisions? A I got it from them.

Q You don't know where they got it? A No, I don't, bought it I reckon.

Q Any other colored people with you? A No, sir.

Q What became of these people? A Now I can't tell you, I don't know where they went.

Q You don't have any idea how long you stayed there? A No, sir.

Q You were married? you have been married? A Yes, sir.

Q What was your husband's name? A His name was Milderbrand.

Q And you and him were married before then? A No, sir, I have answered you all the question I can answer you, I have done answered all that is required I think.

Q What is your oldest child's name? A She will tell it in when she comes in.

Q Don't you know?

Commissioner: Tell me her name.

A Her name is Anna.

Mr. Hastings: Where was Anna born? A She was born the year after peace was made.

Q Did you have Anna along with you? A She was a little bit of a baby; I brought her here a baby.

Q You brought her here a baby? A Yes, sir.

Q Your husband wasn't along you state? A No, I didn't have any.

Q Where was Alice born; did you have a child named Alice?

A Alice was born in the Nation.

Q I say where was Alice born? A Born in the Nation, I can't tell you.

Q What part of the Nation? A I don't know, I have told you in the Nation, I don't know what you want to ask people so many questions for when they have told you.

Q You don't know what place? A No, I don't remember what place she was born in the Nation.

Q Was she born up there where you were camping? A No, sir, she wasn't born in the camp.

Q You don't know what place, what house, with whom you were living? A I have done answered you all I can answer you.

Q You don't know? A I didn't know I have to tell you everywhere they were born at.

Commissioner: Where was Alice born; you know about where she was born? A Yes, sir, she was born on the river in an old house there.

Mr. Hastings: In what settlement was that; who were your neighbors? A Well, I had several neighbors.

Q At the time Alice was born? A Part of them is dead and the others was young.

Q Them that are living? A Them that are living are so young they can't tell anything about it.

Q What are their names? A Aunt Nancy was one of them, and Aunt Charlotte was another.

Abbie Bly. -4-

Q What were their other names? A Aunt Nancy Lynch and Aunt Charlotte Adams.

Q You have been living down there on the river ever since, have you? A Yes, sir.

Q Near Island Ford or Lynch's Prairie; you are living there now? A Yes, sir.

Commissioner: Have you got any witnesses? A Yes, sir, there is my mistress sitting there.

Jemima Bly, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A Jemima Bly.

Q About what is your age? A 68.

Q What is your post office? A Vinita.

Q Are you a Cherokee citizen? A Yes, sir, by blood.

Q Do you know Abbie Bly? A Yes, sir.

Q About how old is she? A She was about two or three years old, I don't know which, when I married in '49; she was just a little girl.

Commissioner: About 56 years old.

Q Was she a slave? A Yes, sir.

Q Who did she belong to? A She belonged to Mrs Tucker, Polly Tucker, first.

Q Did she ever belong to your family? A Yes, sir, her mother belonged to Rellie Tucker and afterwards we bought her from Polly Tucker's daughter, Mr. Bly did.

Q Mrs. Bly, did Abbie go out of the Territory during the war?

A We all moved out.

Q North? A We moved out just across over the line into Missouri.

Q Abbie went along with you? A Yes, sir, Abbie was with us.

Q When did Abbie return? A She came home in '65 just over in the State of Missouri and then I don't know anything more of her till I found her in Vinita in '89; that was the time my oldest daughter died in '79, and she came to us, came in, that is the reason I know it was '79 that she came back in, account of the death of my daughter; she was in the Nation at that time but I don't know how long before.

Q You don't know then how soon she returned to the Nation after you saw her in Missouri? A No, sir, she was trying at that time to make her way back.

Q That was in '65? A That was in '65.

Q Over in Newton County, Missouri, she was trying to make her way back? A She was trying to make her way to the Nation at that time and we were not coming back and she went on and I don't know where she went and I don't know what became of her until I saw her here in '79; she was living over here in this neighborhood that she spoke of, down on the river.

Q She has been living then in the Cherokee Nation since that time?

Q I know she has been living in the Cherokee Nation ever since '79 for I have seen her occasionally, once or twice a year.

Q But where she was from '65 to '79 you don't know? A No, sir.

Mr. Hastings: Your husband was named Jim Bly? A Yes, sir.

Q Is he alive? A I don't know whether he is or not, he has been dead to me ever since '79; I have never tried to force myself in regard to him; he outedly told me 'I can't support you all and I will not do it and you can starve to death for all I care.'

Q Well, as we want is the facts. A You might have known if Mr. Bly had been living and had been living with me, he would have been living with me.

Q Isn't it a matter of fact that Mr. Bly sold this girl out to a man in Missouri before the war came up? A No, sir, he didn't; if he swore that he is mistaken.

Abbie Bly - 5.

Q He didn't sell her before the war came up? A If he swore that he is mistaken; he made a mistake if he swore that.

Q You know he owned her at the time the war came up? A I know Mr. Hastings he owned her in '65 for Mrs. Marks was my baby in '65 and this was the nurse for Mrs. Marks.

Q Where did you live at that time? A Mr. Bly had gone over in Missouri to settle up his father's business that he died and left unfinished over there, and when we were there the war came up.

Q When did you go over to Missouri? A Before the war.

Q How long? A I didn't keep any dates.

Q About how many years? A If you will let me I will go and get my family record and let you examine it.

Q I don't care if you get forty of them at home, I just want you to remember it? I don't care for the month and week and day but I want to know how long to the best of your recollection before the war came up you went over there? A We went over there temporarily, we didn't withdraw from the Nation to go over there.

Q About how long were you over there temporarily before the war came up? A We were over there two or three years, I don't know, I am not positive.

Q To the best of your recollection? (No response.)

-----O-----
Cap Hicks, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A Filmore Hicks.

Q What is your age? A 55.

Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q By blood? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know Abbie Bly, the applicant? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know where she was in '66? A No, sir.

Q When did you know her? A I have known her about 25 or 26 years.

Q Did you ever become acquainted with her till after '66? A No, sir.

Q Do you know whether she was a slave or not? A No, sir.

Q Do you know when she returned to the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir.

Mr. Hastings: You live down here near the Lynch settlement? A I do, yes, sir.

Q You lived there from '65 on up to when did you move to Vinita?

A Just this last fall; just one or two years I lived there on Rock Creek.

Q You have known this woman for 25 or 26 years? A Yes, sir, to the best of my recollection.

Q How far did she live from you down in that settlement when you first knew her? A About four miles.

Q That is when she first came there to your recollection? A That is the first I ever seen her and knew of her.

-----O-----
Commissioner: Abbie Bly applied for the enrollment of herself and two children, Minnie and Gelia. From an examination of the authenticated roll of 1880, her name is not found thereon, nor the census roll of 1896, but her name is found upon the Kerns-Clifton roll. The names of her children Minnie and Gelia are found upon the Kerns-Clifton roll. She makes satisfactory proof of residence, and will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedmen upon a doubtful card for the further consideration of the Commission. When the Commission arrives at a conclusion in her case, she will be notified by mail.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
VINITA, I.T., OCTOBER 2d, 1901.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY in the matter of the enrollment of Abbie Plythe as a Cherokee Freedman, introduced on part of the Cherokee Nation:

APPEARANCES:

Mr. I. P. Hledsoe, Agent for applicant;

Mr. J. S. Davenport, of Counsel for Cherokee Nation.

JAMES C. BLYTHE, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give me your full name, Mr. Blythe? A James C. Blythe.

Q How old are you? A Well, according to the record I was born in 1824, July 7th.

Q What is your post office? A Bartlesville.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A I have been principally been raised here.

Q Pretty much all your life? A Yes, sir.

Q Were you born here in the Nation? A I was born in the old Nation.

Q Came here with the Cherokees when they moved to this country?

A Yes, sir, I moved here with the Cherokees when they moved here.

MR. DAVENPORT: Did you own any slaves prior to the breaking out of the Civil War, Mr. Blythe? A Yes, sir.

Q Where were you living at the time the war broke out? A I was living in McDonald County.

Q What State? A Missouri.

Q About how many years had you been over there in McDonald County, Missouri, before the breaking out of the war? A I think I moved there in '56, to the best of my knowledge it was in '56.

Q Well, did you have any slaves over there with the from the time you moved there up to the time the war broke out? A Yes, I had one slave that I moved up to that place.

Q Did you have a slave when you moved there by the name of Abbie?

A Yes, sir.

Q You owned a slave prior to the breaking out of the war?

A Yes, sir, I bought one after I moved to that place, I don't know it must have been a year or two afterwards, after I moved there.

Q A year or two after you moved to Missouri you bought this slave Abbie? A Yes, sir.

Q Now what became of Abbie; did you continue to own her up until the time she was freed? A I sold her during the war.

Q Who did you sell her to? A I sold her to Jim Lamance, he was Clerk of the Court there.

Q What became of him? A I expect he is dead now.

Q What was his post office, Mr. Blythe? A At that time Pineville, Missouri, McDonald County.

Q Did you know any man by the name of Dodson who lived near you in McDonald County, Missouri? A Yes, sir.

Q Was he a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir, he never came here that I knew of.

Q Where were you living when the war closed? A My residence was at the same place.

Q Your residence was at Enterprise? A Yes, sir.

Q You had enlisted during the war; been in service? A Yes, sir, I was a soldier during the war.

Q Well, after you sold Abbie when did you next see her and where was she when you saw her? A I was at Enterprise, McDonald County.

Q About what year was that, if you remember? A Best of my recollection it was between 1862 and '63.

Q I am speaking now not when you sold her, when you saw her after you sold her? A Well, it was the spring of '66, she came to my residence there and wanted to come back as before and I was broke up and told her she was as free as I was and look out for herself.

Q When did you move back to the Cherokee Nation after the war?

A I moved back in '68.

Q Where did you locate when you came back? A Tahlequah.

Q How long did you live at Tahlequah before you left there, Mr. Blythe, about how many years? A I lived there from '68 until '71.

Q When you left there in 1871 to what point did you come?

A I come to this place.

Q From the time you moved from Missouri until you came to Vinita had you seen Abbie, this wlaive you had owned prior to the war?

A No, sir, I never had saw her.

Q Did you see her after you moved to Vinita? A Yes, I saw her.

Q When was it with reference to the time you moved to Vinita and where did you see her? A She came to me at this place and she said she was hunting me up to find the best place to locate and I told her how she had a right to locate there and I told her to pick on a place and go to work, that I supposed it would be all right, and she located out here east of Little Cabin.

Q Did you have any conversation with her as to where she had been?

A I asked her the question where she had been and she said she had been up in Missouri and I said where did you come from here; I said did you just come in and she said yes; and I said where did you come from and she said Granby.

Q Now, is there anything that fixes the time with reference to Vinita after you came here? A It was after the railroad came here that I came to this place.

Q Which road do you have reference to? A This Texas road.

Q K. K. & T.? A Yes, sir, the road wasn't put there at that time.

Q You have known her since that time? A Yes, sir, she has been here ever since; I see her here frequently, at least she told me she was living out there.

Q From whom did you buy this Abbie if you remember? A I bought her from a nephew of mine that lives here in the Nation.

Q Did he live in the Nation at the time? A Yes, sir.

Q That was in the '50s? A Riley Blythe was the man's name I bought her from.

Q Was he a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q And she was living with you in the State of Missouri at the breaking out of the war? A Yes, sir.

Q And you sold her? A I sold her during the war.

MR. BLEDSOE: Mr. Blythe, you state that you sold this woman, Abbie, during the war; do you know what time you sold her? A Well as I stated it was between '62 and '63, it was before the Proclamation came out. I don't suppose I could have sold her after she was freed.

Q I didn't know but what you had sold her after the expiration of hostilities; she was your slave then up to the commencement of the war in '61? A Yes, sir.

Q And you were a Cherokee citizen at that time? A I was a Cherokee but I wasn't living in the Cherokee Nation at that time.

Q Who was your wife, Mr. Blythe? A She was a Rogers.

Q What was her name? A Jemima.

Q A few questions here "Is it a matter of fact that Mr. Blythe sold this girl out to a man in Missouri x before the war"; answer: "No, sir, he didn't; he if swore that he is mistaken;" consequently there seems to be idfference of opinion. "He didn't sell her before the war came up; if he swore that he is mistaken:" "You know he owned her at the time the war came up I know, Mr. Hastings, he owned her in '65 for Mrs. Marks was my baby in '65 and this was the nurse for Mrs. Marks". A Yes, I know when the war came up; I don't know that I made a statement of that kind.

Q Did you or not, Mr. Blythe, testify before the Kern-Clifton Commission that you sold her in 1865? A I never sold her until the war came up.

Q Didn't you state before the Kern-Clifton Commission that you sold this woman in 1865? A No, sir, never did; it is wrong print if I did.

Q Isn't it a fact now that she nursed Mrs. Marks as stated here by your wife? A I guess she did.

Q From did she belong to at that time? A At the time she nursed Mrs. Marks?

Q Yes? A She belonged to me.

MR. DAVENPORT: Well, in 1865 she nursed Mrs. Marks and belonged to you? A It was in 1862; I think she was mistaken in the year.

Q Well, you know whether or not positively she belonged to you in 1865 after the Emancipation Proclamation? A Yes, sir.

Q The testimony to which your attention was called would she nurse Mrs. Marks or was your slave in 1865? A Oh, shucks, that is all non sense.

Q The Emancipation Proclamation was issued before that time?

A Yes, sir.

MR. BLEDSE: Mrs. Marks is ~~your~~ your daughter? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know when she was born? A In '62.

Q Then she was not a baby in 1865? A If she was she was a big baby.

MILTON M. CAULK, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Brackinridge, testified as follows on behalf of Cherokee Nation:

Q Give me your full name? A Milton M. Caulk.

Q How old are you? A 55 years old.

Q What is your post office? A Chelsea.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A About 12 years.

MR. DAVENPORT: Where did you live prior to coming to the Cherokee Nation, Mr. Caulk? A Lived in Missouri.

Q What place in Missouri? A What is called old Enterprise, in McDonald County, Missouri.

Q Where were you living prior to the breaking out of the war?

A I was living in Missouri.

Q Were you living near Enterprise? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you know James Blythe prior to the breaking out of the war?

A Yes, sir.

Q Now his slaves or any of them at that time? A Yes, sir, he had two.

Q What were their names? A Abbie Blythe and Montoe.

Q Did you know a Scott family over there and man by the name of Dodson? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know whether Dodson ever moved to the Cherokee Nation?

A No, sir.

Q You are a citizen of the Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know whether or not he was a citizen of the Nation or claimed to be a citizen of the Nation? A No, sir, he never claimed to be a citizen.

Q Do you know whether Abbie Blythe was disposed or to any one during the war by Mr. Blythe? A I did not, only hearsay.

Q How long did you know her before the war; had she been living in the State of Missouri? A To the best of my knowledge I think about '55 was when I first got acquainted with her, '55 or '6, latter part of '55 I think.

Q Do you know with whom she was living or to whom she belonged when the Emancipation Proclamation was issued? A My information was she belonged to Mr. Blythe.

Q You don't know whether he disposed to her? A No, sir.

Q Well, do you know anything about her after the war? A No, sir.

Q Well, all you know is that she was living with Mr. Blythe in the State of Missouri before the war? A Yes, sir.

Q Along in the '50s? A Yes, sir.

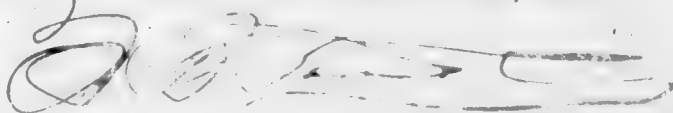

This will be filed as additional testimony in Cherokee Freedmen doubtful cases #257, #306, #217, #367, and #358.

TESTIMONY ON BEHALF OF CHEROKEE NATION.

Appearances:

J. S. Davenport, Esq., of Attorneys for Cherokee Nation;
I. P. Bledsoe, Esq., agent for the applicant.

JAMES C. CHILDERS, being sworn by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

BY COM'R BRECKINRIDGE:

- Q Give your full name? A James C. Childers.
Q How old are you? A 53.
Q What is your post-office? A Catale at present.
Q In the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Well I couldn't hardly answer the question properly.
Q Have you lived here all your life? A Might near, yes, sir, well
I will just simply state for the last eight years, the last stay.
Q Where were you born? A I don't know where I was born whether in the Cherokee Nation or Missouri, but right on the line.
Q How old were you when you first remembered the Cherokee Nation?
A Well I don't know, three or four years old I reckon; best of my recollection.
Q Where have you lived other than in the Cherokee Nation?
A Well I have lived a little in Kansas and a little in Colorado and Missouri.

BY MR. DAVENPORT:

- Q Where were you living from '55 until '60, Mr. Childers?
A Living right on the line of Missouri, inside of the state.
Q Near what place? A Elk Mills.
Q Was there any post-office known as any place? A Elk Mills was the post-office.
Q Did you know James Blythe alone in '50? A Yes sir.
Q About when did you first get acquainted with him? A Well, to the best of my knowledge first acquaintance was about '59 or '60 when I knewed Jim Blythe when I saw him.
Q Where was he living at that time; if you know? A Enterprise,
Missouri.
Q How far was that from the place where you lived? A Between a mile and a half and 2 miles.
Q Was he engaged in any business over there at that time? A Yes sir, in the mercantile business.
Q Running a store at Enterprise, Missouri? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know whether or not he had any slaves? A There was a couple there, I was always told they belonged to him and his wife.
Q Did you know their names? A I personally know the name of the man, Monroe was his name; I believe they called the girl or Abbie, but I am not right positive about that.
Q From the time you got acquainted with Mr. Blythe until the ing out of the war where did he continue to live, do you know?
A From the time I first got acquainted with him until during the war he lived at the same place, Enterprise, Missouri.
Q You don't know what became of Blythe during the war? A He went to Texas or somewhere south time of the war.
Q Did you know him after the war before he came to the Territory?
A Yes sir.
Q Did he live in Missouri any time after the war if you know? A

Abbie Blythe et al (sup'l) 2

Q You don't know where he lived? A No, no, lived somewhere South.
BY MR. BLEDSOE:

Q You are not positive whether he owned this Abbie or not at that time? A No sir, I won't say that he owned them; it was my understanding that he and his wife did, but I don't know it.

Q Were they recognized Cherokee citizens at that time? A Well they were recognized Cherokees, but they was what we term citizens of the State at that time.

Q Do you know whether he was ever re-admitted or not, afterwards?

A I understood he was; after the war he and his wife were re-admitted to the Cherokee Nation.

Q You don't know that of your own knowledge? A No sir.

Q What was the best of your knowledge at that time, that they were citizens of the Cherokee Nation or citizens of Missouri? A Best of my knowledge as I understood they came to Missouri and bought out this farm, that property there and was doing business, and after the war broke, come up, Mr. Blythe himself went South I think with the army and when he come back he moved into the Indian Territory, and was re-admitted. That has been my understanding.

Q What was Mr. Blythe's wife's name? A Jemima Rogers.

Q Do you know a Mr. Tucker, there, Polly Tucker, did you know a Polly Tucker? A Not by that name, no sir.

Q Do you know what time Mr. Blythe went out of the Cherokee Nation; what time was it you saw him in Missouri, that you are speaking of now? A First?

Q Yes? A I couldn't tell you just what time, it was before '60 though.

Q You don't know whether he moved into the Territory then during the war or not? A No sir, I don't think he did; I think his family went to Neosho, Missouri in that vicinity in time of the war and Mr. Blythe went South; he was in the army; that's my understanding, I don't know now though.

Q If Jemima Blythe states that they moved out of the Territory during the war she is mistaken? A Yes sir.

Q She says here, we all moved in just across from the line into Missouri; Abbie went along with us? A She is mistaken or I am one, badly.

Q Well now we want that matter settled, because here is a woman that stands mighty fine character from what I understand, that states positively that they moved out after the war? A After the war?

Q Yes sir, during the war rather, and that they took Abbie along with them and Abbie was a slave, and that is a very serious point for investigation if Abbie was a slave during the war when the war broke out, they were citizens of the Cherokee Nation? A I have nothing else to say; that's all I know about it.

Q You won't be positive she wasn't here? A In time of the war?

Q Yes? A She might have been here on a visit.

BY MR. DAVENPORT:

Q You know that they were living out there and Mr. Blythe was engaged in the mercantile business prior to the breaking out of the war? A Yes sir.

Q And he continued to live there until the war broke out? A He continued to live there until he was broke up during the war.

Commissioner Breckinridge: This will be filed as supplemental testimony in the case of Abbie Blythe, et al., Cherokee Freedmen Doubtful case 257, and also in Cherokee Freedmen Doubtful cases 306, 217 and 367 and 368.

ANNA H. DODSON, being sworn by Commissioner Needles testified as follows:

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q What is your name? A Anna H. Dodson.
Q What is your citizenship, Mrs. Dodson? A I live in the Creek Nation, but I am a citizen of the United States.
Q You don't claim to be of Indian blood? A No sir.
Q Where did you live before the war? A At Elk Hills, in Donald County, Missouri.
Q That was right on the line wasn't it? A Yes sir, one-fourth of a mile from the Cherokee line.
Q Did you know Mrs. Jennie Blythe? A Yes sir.
Q Did you know her husband, Jim Blythe? A Yes sir.
Q Did you know them before the war? A Yes sir.
Q Did you know a colored woman they had by the name of Abbie? A No sir.
Q Where did you go during the war? A Well would you like to know everywhere I went.
Q No, generally; did you go to Missouri or Kansas? A I went to Missouri.
Q Were you married up there after the war? A I was married in Donald County, Maryland.
Q When did you return to the Cherokee Nation, to your old home, to Missouri I mean? A I returned to my old home in March, 1866.
Q Did you bring any colored person back with you? A No sir.

APPEARANCES:

For Applicants, I. P. Bledsoe.

For Cherokee Nation, J. S. Davenport, and W. W. Hastings.

It appears from the records of this office that on September 12, 1905, the principal applicant, her agent, I. P. Bledsoe, and the attorneys for the Cherokee nation were notified that this case would be taken up for further hearing at this office on Thursday, September 28, 1905, at nine o'clock A. M.

MARTHA E. HANNAH, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

BY MR. DAVENPORT:

- Q What is your name? A Martha E. Hannah or Mattie E. Hannah.
Q What is your post office? A Granby, Missouri.
Q How long have you lived in or near the town of Granby, Missouri?
A Ever since '66.
Q What is your age? A 49.
Q Where had you lived before you came to Granby? A In Lawrence County, Missouri.
Q After you came to Granby, Missouri, I will ask you if you got acquainted with a colored woman who at that time went by the name of Lamance? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know what her first name was that she went by there?
A Frances.
Q You knew her then in Granby, Missouri as Frances Lamance? A Yes sir.
Q About what year did you get acquainted with this colored woman known as Frances Lamance? A In '67 or '68.
Q Where was she living at that time? A Living there in Granby Missouri.
Q Do you know whether or not she had any children at the time you got acquainted with her? A She had one.
Q Do you know what its name was? A Annie.
Q Now when you first got acquainted with her how far was she living from where you were living in Granby? A 150 or 200 yards probably.
Q How long did she continue to live in Granby, Missouri, or about how long, after you got acquainted with her? A 5 or 6 years anyway.
Q During the time she lived in Granby after you got acquainted with her, how far was the farthest she lived from you at any time? A A little over 150 or 200 yards at any time, I don't know, they stayed right around in that neighborhood.
Q Did she have any other children born while living other than the one spoken of? A Yes sir.

- Q Do you know what any of their names were? A Alice was one of their names.
- Q Do you know whether she had more than the two children when she left there, besides Annie and Alice? A She had more but their other names---
- Q About what year did she leave Granby, Missouri, to the best of your knowledge? A About 1872 or 1873.
- Q Can you state with whom she left when she left Granby, Missouri?
- A A family named Bouseman.
- Q Did Bouseman have a family when he left? A Yes sir.
- Q Did his family move away with him when this Frances Lamance as you knew her, left there with them? A Yes sir all went together.
- Q Did you learn from them where they were ~~living~~ leaving to? A I heard after they had gone that they had come to the Nation.
- Q Did you ever hear from this Frances Lamance, where she came from directly when she came to Granby, where she had been living just before that time? A At Newtonia, Missouri.
- Q She lived, to the best of your knowledge after you got acquainted with her, for 5 or 6 years, in Granby, Missouri, then she and the Bouseman family moved off and you understood came to the Nation? A Yes sir.
- Q And that was sometime in the 70's? A Yes sir.
- Q Have you ever seen her since that time? A No sir, I haven't.
- Q Have you ever seen any of the children? A No sir.
- Q You have lived continuously from 1866 up to the present time in Granby, Missouri? A With the exception of 7 or 8 months.
- Q Did you know the first name of Lamance that Frances took her name from? A No sir, I didn't.
- Q Did you ever know Lamance at all? A No sir, he has been in our town but I never got acquainted with him.

Mr. Bledsoe: I move that the testimony be stricken from the record as it is irrelevant and not binding in the case whatever.

On Behalf of the Commissioner: Objection will be noted.

BY MR. BLEDSOE:

- Q Do you know this woman? A No sir.
- Q You never saw her at all?

Mr. Davenport: I object to that unless he states who the woman is as the witness has testified that she has not seen any of the children since they left Granby, Missouri.

ON BEHALF OF THE COMMISSIONER:

- Q Do you know the name of the father of Alice? A No sir, I don't know, I only know what was said, so far as my knowing, I don't know.
- Q Was Alice's mother married when she lived there? A She had no husband in Granby.

W I T N E S S E X C U S E D.

- Q She was the slave of a Cherokee citizen? A Yes sir.
- Q Who did she belong to before the war? A Jim Flythe.
- Q What was his wife's name, she belonged to Jim Flythe and his wife?

Mr. Davenport: I object to that.

- Q Was Jim Flythe and his wife living together at that time? A Yes sir.
- Q Was she ever sold by Flythe? A No sir.

Mr. Davenport: I object to him bringing a witness on the stand and making the witness perjure herself, because she didn't live in the Blythe family and couldn't have actually known.

- Q How close did you live to them before the war? A About 20 miles.
Q Where did you go during the war? A I stayed on Grand river, I went to Kansas and stayed about 6 months.
Q Did you see Abbie Blythe after the war? A Yes sir.
Q What time after the war? A Right away after the war.
Q The first year after the war?

Mr. Davenport: I object to any leading questions.

- Q How long after the war had closed did you see her? A I couldn't tell you but it wasn't but a short time.
Q Where did you see her? A On Grand River.
Q Whereabouts, near what place? A She ~~was~~ lived close to Gilstrap's ferry.
Q Do you know whether she had any children or not? A Yes sir, she had children.

Q You are how old? A I couldn't tell you that.
Q You were alive before the war broke out? A Yes sir.
Q To whom did you belong? A Johnson Thompson.
Q And you lived when the war broke out about how near Jim Blythe?
A About 20 or 30 miles.
Q Where was Jim Blythe living when the war broke out? A Up close to the Gilstrap ferry.
Q You don't know where he was living? A No sir.
Q Never had been to his place? A Yes sir.
Q Don't you know just before the war broke out he went to Missouri and went in the mercantile business? A I don't know.
Q If he says he did, would that be correct? A Yes sir.
Q Did you ever know Abbie by any other name besides Abbie? A No sir.
Q Ever hear her called Frances? A Yes sir.
Q Was she married when the war broke out? A No sir.
Q Were any of these children you have mentioned born before the war? A Yes sir.
Q Which one? A I don't know.
Q Which is the oldest child? A This Annie I believe.
Q You don't mean to tell me she was born before the war? A No sir.
Q In fact you don't know anything about Abbie's children as to when they were born? A No sir.

- Q When you first saw her after the war, when she first came back to the Cherokee nation, how many children did she have? A Two or three.
- Q I will ask you if she didn't have Annie, Alice, Mary and Edmond? A Yes sir.
- Q Those four children were born when you saw her in the Cherokee Nation after the war? A Yes sir.
- Q You don't know where she had been living during the war or after the war up until the time you saw her? A No sir.
- Q You don't know whether she left the Cherokee nation during the war or whether she remained in the Cherokee nation, do yo? A She remained in it.
- Q Is she says she went to Kansas and to Missouri, she is liable to be correct, isn't she? A Yes sir.
- Q And you have known her by the name of Frances? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you ever know a family over there by the name of Bouseman? A Yes sir.
- Q Frances or Abbie was living pretty close to them wasn't she? A I don't know.
- Q You know they lived in the same neighborhood? A I don't know who she lived with.
- Q Don't you know that she lived in the neighborhood of Bouseman or came to that neighborhood with Bouseman? A It is too far back for me.
- Q Can you remember the fact that Bouseman and Frances or Abbie Blythe came to that neighborhood together? A I never heard tell how she got in there.
- Q When you saw her there wasn't Bouseman also living in the same neighborhood? A Yes sir.

BY MR. RYKESOR:

- Q She didn't have all four of these children the first time you saw her after the war? A Yes sir.
- Q How many children did she have when you first saw her after the war or did she have any? A The first time I ever saw her she didn't have any.
- Q After the war? A Yes sir.
- Q How long was it before you saw her the next time before she had the four children? A About two or three years.
- Q When you first saw her after the war she didn't have any children?

BY MR. DAVENPORT:

- Q Are any of these children twins? A No sir.
- Q I want to ask you if it isn't the truth when you saw Abbie Blythe after the war if Alice, Annie, Mary and Edmond were born and living with her down there? A Yes sir, I think they were.

BY THE COMMISSIONER:

- Q Do you know anything about the father of Alice Lynch? A No sir, I don't.
- Q Do you know anything about the father of Nancy Thompson? A No sir.
- Q Or Edmond Blythe? A No sir.
- Q When you first knew Abbie, did she have a husband then? A No sir, she didn't.
- Q You don't know who the father of any of her children are, do you? A No sir, not any of the older ones.

WITNESS EXCUSED.

EDMOND BLYTHE RECALLED.

BY MR. WILDSOE:

- Q What is this old lady's name that was just on the stand? A Caroline Landrum.
- Q How old do you think she is to the best of your knowledge? A I will declare I really couldn't say, but ever since I could remember she looks to me about like she does now, she is an old lady.
- Q You have known her then all your life? A Yes sir, ever since I could remember her.

WITNESS EXCUSED.

MARTHA E. HANNAH RECALLED:

BY MR. DAVENPORT:

- Q Did you hear at any time while these parties were living in Granby, Missouri, who the reputed father of Alice was, who was the daughter of Frances Lamance? A Thomas Walker.
- Q What was the circumstances that brings it to your mind, the fact that of having heard that Thomas Walker was Alice's father, was he a married man? A Yes sir, he was a married man.
- Q Was there any talk or anything that makes you remember? A Why certainly.
- Q Relate what it was? A Of course when the child was born she said it was Mr. walkers.
- Q You mean Frances said so? A Yes sir.
- Q Did anything further take place? A Nothing only talk.
- Q His name was Tom walker? A Tom walker.
- Q Did you ever know a George Walker there? A No sir.

BY MR. WILDSOE:

- Q Did you know this woman that you speak of or persons you are speaking of here, did you know her by the name of Abbie Blythe? A No sir.
- Q You didn't know Abbie Blythe? A No sir.

WITNESS EXCUSED.

In the matter of the application of Abbie Blythe, et al., for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen, consolidating the applications of:

Abbie Blythe et al.,	Cherokee Freedmen D 257✓
Nancy Thompson,	Cherokee Freedmen D 217✓
Edmond Blythe	Cherokee Freedmen D 306✓
Alice Lynch, et al.,	Cherokee Freedmen D 367✓
Lucy Landrum, et al.,	Cherokee Freedmen D 368✓
Anna Henry	Cherokee Freedmen D 1074✓

D E C I S I O N .

THE RECORD HEREIN SHOWS: That applications for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen were made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes by Abbie Blythe for herself and minor children, Minnie and Calia Blythe; by Jordan Thompson for, among others, his wife, Nancy Thompson; by Edmond Blythe for himself; by Alice Lynch for herself and minor children, Lovely Eaton, Early, Calvin and Eddie Lynch; by William Leonard Landrum for, among others, his wife, Lucy Landrum; and by Anna Henry for herself. The others included in the above applications having been differently classified their rights to Cherokee freedman citizenship will not be considered in this decision.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant, Abbie Blythe, claims the right to Cherokee freedman citizenship by virtue of her compliance with the provisions of Article nine treaty of 1866, and that the other applicants herein claim the same right as her descendants.

The following points are fully established by the proof submitted:

- (1) That the applicant, Abbie Blythe, was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the rebellion, and for several years prior thereto resided with her master in the state of Missouri; that during the war she was sold to a citizen of said state, named Lamance, and continuously lived therein till about the year 1875, when she, with her family, removed to the Cherokee Nation, and has since continuously resided therein.
- (2) That said applicant, Abbie Blythe, is the mother of the applicants, Anna Henry, Alice Lynch, Edmond Blythe, Nancy Thompson, and Minnie and Calis Blythe, and that the applicant, Alice Lynch, is the mother of the applicants, Lucy Landrum, Lovely Eaton and Early, Calvin and Eddie Lynch, all of whom were born, in the order named, since the close of the rebellion. And that the father of the applicants, Early and Calvin Lynch (both of whom were born subsequent to the year 1890) was one William Lynch, now deceased, who, the records of this office show, is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, and on the final Cherokee Freedman approved roll, opposite No. 1793.
- (3) That, except as above noted, neither the applicants herein nor any discovered ancestor through whom by any possibility they might obtain rights to Cherokee freedman citizenship can be identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880 or the Cherokee census roll of 1896.

The evidence further shows that the said Anna Henry and Alice Lynch were born in the state of Missouri of white paternity, and, in the absence of proof to the contrary, it will be presumed that their fathers were non-citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

It further appears that ample opportunity has been afforded the applicants Edmond Blythe and Nancy Thompson to establish their paternity, but that in this they have wholly failed, hence, it can not be presumed that they obtain any rights to Cherokee citizenship from that source.

It is further shown that the applicant, Abbie Blythe, testified that the father of her two children, Minnie and Calis Blythe, was one Calvin Hilderbrand, now deceased, but, after ample opportunity having been afforded, it is not established that the said Calvin Hilderbrand, deceased, was a Cherokee citizen. An examination of the Cherokee records in this office fails to disclose that this alleged ancestor was ever recognized by the Cherokee authorities as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, consequently, it can not be presumed that the two applicants last above named obtain any rights to Cherokee citizenship through their father.

It also appears that on her first appearance before the Commission in this case, the applicant, Alice Lynch, testified that her oldest child, Lucy Landrum, nee Eaton, was the daughter of one Thomas Eaton, who, the records of this office show, is on the final Cherokee Freedman roll opposite No. 1742, and that her oldest child living at home was named "Lovely Eaton". Enrollment card Freedman D 367, shows that the said Alice Lynch gave the name of Lovely Eaton's father as Thomas Eaton, and the record herein shows that in a birth affidavit executed by her on May 21, 1901, and filed with the Commission on August 31, 1901, she deposed that Tom Eaton was the father of her child, Love (Lovely) Eaton. And that on her last appearance herein she testified that the father of her said child, Lovely Eaton, was one Fred Martin, who, the records of this office show, is on the final Cherokee Freedmen roll opposite No. 4053. And that she further testified that the father of her child, Eddie Lynch, was the said William Lynch, deceased, above referred to.

The only proof herein relative to the paternity of the said Lucy Landrum and Lovely Eaton is the uncorroborated testimony of their mother, and which, as to Lovely Eaton, is contradicted by the information she gave the card clerk, and also by the birth affidavit executed and filed by her. The testimony of this applicant further shows that her two children last above named, are the fruits of an occasional illicit association with their fathers, whoever they may be.

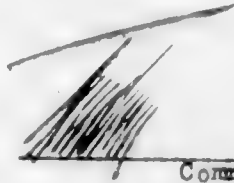

As to the paternity of the applicant, Eddie Lynch: The record (birth affidavit) shows that he was born December 18, 1900. Also that on May 7, 1901, and February 21, 1903, the said William Lynch, since deceased, appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at Vinita, Indian Territory, and testified that he was the former husband of the said Alice Lynch, and that about 1897 or 1898 he was divorced from her; that four children were born to them, two of whom, at their separation, remained with their mother and two, Maria and Willie, went with him and for whom he made application for enrollment; and that since his divorce from Alice he married one Mary Teener by whom he had one child, who, a comparison of the record shows, is between one and two months younger than the said Eddie Lynch.

In view of the foregoing it is considered that the evidence in this case fails to satisfactorily establish the paternity of Lucy Landrum, Lovely Eaton and Eddie Lynch, hence the applications for their enrollment as descendants of their fathers come within the ruling of the Department in the cases of Eliza Bryant, et al. (I.T.D. 544-04), William Rector (I.T.D. 1468-04), Minnie Duncan et al. (I.T.D. 1470-04), Samantha Chambers (I.T.D. 2296-04), Ed Williams (I.T.D. 4230-04), Moses Ross (I.T.D. 6056-04), Jane Dooney et al. (I.T.D. 6410, 12688-04), Florence Bratcher (I.T.D. 12692-04), and Frankie Grinnett (I.T.D. 17902-1905).

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That, under the provisions of Section Twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 ( 30 Stat., 495), Abbie Blythe, Minnie Blythe, Calie Blythe, Nancy Thompson, Edmond Blythe, Alice Lynch, Lovely Eaton, Eddie Lynch, Lucy Landrum and Anna Henry, are not entitled to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied; and that, in accordance with the provisions of Section Twenty-one of the Act above noted, Early Lynch and Calvin Lynch, are entitled to enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen, and their application for enrollment as such is accordingly granted.

History of the Corporation

[illegible]

"The agent for the applicants and the attorney for the sheriffs will discuss the case and have the sheriff testify to the facts in this case. The case will be closed and a decision will be made upon the evidence herebefore presented."

The Department has held in the case of Ann Johnson, on March 24, 1906

(I.T.O. 2758-1905, 6206-1903), as follows:

"There is no specific allegation of error in the decision of the Commission and the decision of the Department is not questioned. It is true that accompanying the notice are affidavits which allege that the principal applicant, Ann Johnson, brought with her the others claim, was brought to the Cherokee Nation from Kansas in 1866, but there is no affidavit by the principal applicant explaining the failure to produce the parties to these affidavits at the original hearing, or showing that with due diligence the witnesses could and have been discovered prior to the hearing, neither is an affidavit produced to show that the nation is not in a state of delay."

Of course an affidavit is attached signed by Abbie Plym, saying that she is in feeble health, but the record in this case shows that she attended the sessions of the Commission and testified on two occasions and the record further shows that the Commission sat at Chaffee, a point convenient to the applicant both in the spring of 1901 and in the fall of 1901, and the record further shows that the applicant was represented by her agent and the record further shows that the case was held open for more than four years for the introduction of testimony and that testimony was introduced from time to time upon either side and finally the record shows that it was the intention that the case was closed and submitted to the Commission for a decision. The applicant was represented by agent admitted to practice before the Department. Again, it is alleged by Simon Lynch that the principal applicant came back to his place. Now Simon Lynch gives his postoffice as Chaffee; she gives her postoffice as Spavinaw. An examination of the postal map will show that these two postoffices are in the same neighborhood, and that the principal applicant and Simon Lynch live side by side, perhaps one or two or four miles apart. If the principal applicant really came back to Simon Lynch's house why did she not introduce Simon Lynch at Chaffee, instead of in recording her name and in Albert. Jim Albert gave his postoffice as Chaffee, which is some thirty miles distant from the place of residence of Simon Lynch. Again, as it is shown by the record of the case, the principal applicant was convicted of larceny and admitted a much more serious crime than larceny is of no value. And the principal applicant is given her postoffice as Chaffee, and her agent lives at Chaffee, where the Commission sat. With any kind of diligence, if these witnesses were honest and knew the facts they now claim to know, they could have been gotten before the Commission within the five years given then after her original application was made and before a decision was rendered in this case. In the case of Loore versus Larrey, Creek No. 49, the Department held:

"In motions for rehearing resting on newly discovered evidence, it should be shown that said evidence could not be discovered by any diligence, and the facts showing such diligence should appear." Citing 6 L. R. 9; 7 L. R. 136; 10 L. R. 443; 1 L. R. 31; 12 L. R. 343.

Now, we would like to ask wherein the applicant has shown any diligence whatever in attempting to procure the testimony of the witnesses whose affidavits are attached? This decision of the Department is in line with all of the decisions of the Supreme Court of Arkansas, and we particularly invite the attention of the Department to the case of Harris versus Wise, 2 Ark. 37, wherein the questions of the requisites of a new trial are exhaustively considered, and in the foot notes of said decision are collected a great number of cases, which sustain the Department in the case of Ann Johnson, and also the case of Woods versus Jones. The Court in the case of Harris versus Wise held:

"The only remaining point to be determined is did the circuit court err in refusing a new trial on the grounds of newly discovered evidence on the trial. The doctrine upon this subject is well settled both upon reason and authority and we will now fully state it. In order to entitle a party to a new trial on the ground of newly discovered evidence since the former trial the affidavit in the case must prove:

1. The names of the witnesses whose testimony has been discovered and the facts expected to be ~~par~~established by them.
2. That the facts and circumstances as proved must show that the applicant has used due diligence in preparing his case for trial.
3. That the facts and circumstances newly discovered have come to his knowledge since the determination of the trial and must be such as if adduced on the trial were competent to prove the issue and would probably have changed the verdict.
4. That the evidence discovered is not cumulative of that previously relied on and which will tend to prove material facts which were not put directly in issue on the former trial."

As above observed this applicant appeared a number of times before the commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and, seen and at various times by counsel and from time to time testimony was introduced in this case. And it is to be noted that if there were any other witnesses, who either in person or sent in person and by husband, and other witnesses testimony to introduce in this case. A number of the witnesses now adduced to be introduced were her neighbors and certainly could have been gotten before. No facts and circumstances are alleged which tend to show any diligence in the search of these now newly discovered witnesses in proceeding to trial. Again, attention is invited to the agreement of the parties, on the 28th day of September, 1905, submitting this case to the Federal Court of the Civilized Tribes for decision, yet in the face of this agreement and almost a year thereafter, and not until an adverse decision is rendered, the applicants change attorneys and file this case for removal. The case of Harris versus Wise, and in fact all of the decisions of the Supreme Court of the State of Arkansas expressly hold that the case will not be opened merely upon cumulative testimony. Now, the applicant takes the position of a majority of the principal applicants, that the affidavits of the principal applicants, and the questionnaires filled out by the principal applicants were gone into, and that the evidence already introduced to be introduced would only be cumulative of what has already been introduced.

On June 6, 1970, the Commissioner to the Civil Service Commission advised that the position of Chief Clerk was vacant.

one of the stand vessels will, within the year, hold:

[illegible]

We desire to invite especial attention to the last clause of the above

quotation. There are many thousands of applicants for citizenship. We have hundreds of cases pending for determination. The Commission of the Five Civilized Tribes, under the direction of the Department, adopted a policy after having notice to all parties of going from point to point around over an objective question connected with all parties to get testimony and introduce it. The record shows that the Commission of the Five Civilized Tribes submitted a written brief in the opinion of all of 1901, and the records show that the applicant could have introduced testimony more than four years before the original application, and he said he had never been notified if his citizenship case would be decided if he was notified of an adverse decision a policy he could get a new case reported simply by asserting that they had found some additional witnesses whose testimony would be conclusive, and he would testify only upon points of matters in dispute. The record shows no decision and is final if this were the case, because if they had an adverse decision is rendered the Department would have to go to the Commission to determine the facts in this case. After waiting to finally submit it on September 28, 1906, the decision in this case was not rendered until the 28th of June, 1906, and during these ten months an application was made for the introduction of any number of witnesses in this case. It was not until the action is not made in good faith; it was only a technical case as set in asserting that no difference whatever was made; and the Department has a record showing that the proposed evidence is not material. In addition to the above decisions are cases of the following dates: 10 Ark. 1907; 12 Ark. 1908; 13 Ark. 1909; 14 Ark. 1910; 15 Ark. 1911; 16 Ark. 1912; 17 Ark. 1913; 18 Ark. 1914; 19 Ark. 1915; 20 Ark. 1916; 21 Ark. 1917; 22 Ark. 1918; 23 Ark. 1919; 24 Ark. 1920; 25 Ark. 1921; 26 Ark. 1922; 27 Ark. 1923; 28 Ark. 1924; 29 Ark. 1925; 30 Ark. 1926; 31 Ark. 1927; 32 Ark. 1928; 33 Ark. 1929; 34 Ark. 1930; 35 Ark. 1931; 36 Ark. 1932; 37 Ark. 1933; 38 Ark. 1934; 39 Ark. 1935; 40 Ark. 1936; 41 Ark. 1937; 42 Ark. 1938; 43 Ark. 1939; 44 Ark. 1940; 45 Ark. 1941; 46 Ark. 1942; 47 Ark. 1943; 48 Ark. 1944; 49 Ark. 1945; 50 Ark. 1946; 51 Ark. 1947; 52 Ark. 1948; 53 Ark. 1949; 54 Ark. 1950; 55 Ark. 1951; 56 Ark. 1952; 57 Ark. 1953; 58 Ark. 1954; 59 Ark. 1955; 60 Ark. 1956; 61 Ark. 1957; 62 Ark. 1958; 63 Ark. 1959; 64 Ark. 1960; 65 Ark. 1961; 66 Ark. 1962; 67 Ark. 1963; 68 Ark. 1964; 69 Ark. 1965; 70 Ark. 1966; 71 Ark. 1967; 72 Ark. 1968; 73 Ark. 1969; 74 Ark. 1970; 75 Ark. 1971; 76 Ark. 1972; 77 Ark. 1973; 78 Ark. 1974; 79 Ark. 1975; 80 Ark. 1976; 81 Ark. 1977; 82 Ark. 1978; 83 Ark. 1979; 84 Ark. 1980; 85 Ark. 1981; 86 Ark. 1982; 87 Ark. 1983; 88 Ark. 1984; 89 Ark. 1985; 90 Ark. 1986; 91 Ark. 1987; 92 Ark. 1988; 93 Ark. 1989; 94 Ark. 1990; 95 Ark. 1991; 96 Ark. 1992; 97 Ark. 1993; 98 Ark. 1994; 99 Ark. 1995; 100 Ark. 1996; 101 Ark. 1997; 102 Ark. 1998; 103 Ark. 1999; 104 Ark. 2000; 105 Ark. 2001; 106 Ark. 2002; 107 Ark. 2003; 108 Ark. 2004; 109 Ark. 2005; 110 Ark. 2006; 111 Ark. 2007; 112 Ark. 2008; 113 Ark. 2009; 114 Ark. 2010; 115 Ark. 2011; 116 Ark. 2012; 117 Ark. 2013; 118 Ark. 2014; 119 Ark. 2015; 120 Ark. 2016; 121 Ark. 2017; 122 Ark. 2018; 123 Ark. 2019; 124 Ark. 2020; 125 Ark. 2021; 126 Ark. 2022; 127 Ark. 2023; 128 Ark. 2024; 129 Ark. 2025; 130 Ark. 2026; 131 Ark. 2027; 132 Ark. 2028; 133 Ark. 2029; 134 Ark. 2030; 135 Ark. 2031; 136 Ark. 2032; 137 Ark. 2033; 138 Ark. 2034; 139 Ark. 2035; 140 Ark. 2036; 141 Ark. 2037; 142 Ark. 2038; 143 Ark. 2039; 144 Ark. 2040; 145 Ark. 2041; 146 Ark. 2042; 147 Ark. 2043; 148 Ark. 2044; 149 Ark. 2045; 150 Ark. 2046; 151 Ark. 2047; 152 Ark. 2048; 153 Ark. 2049; 154 Ark. 2050; 155 Ark. 2051; 156 Ark. 2052; 157 Ark. 2053; 158 Ark. 2054; 159 Ark. 2055; 160 Ark. 2056; 161 Ark. 2057; 162 Ark. 2058; 163 Ark. 2059; 164 Ark. 2060; 165 Ark. 2061; 166 Ark. 2062; 167 Ark. 2063; 168 Ark. 2064; 169 Ark. 2065; 170 Ark. 2066; 171 Ark. 2067; 172 Ark. 2068; 173 Ark. 2069; 174 Ark. 2070; 175 Ark. 2071; 176 Ark. 2072; 177 Ark. 2073; 178 Ark. 2074; 179 Ark. 2075; 180 Ark. 2076; 181 Ark. 2077; 182 Ark. 2078; 183 Ark. 2079; 184 Ark. 2080; 185 Ark. 2081; 186 Ark. 2082; 187 Ark. 2083; 188 Ark. 2084; 189 Ark. 2085; 190 Ark. 2086; 191 Ark. 2087; 192 Ark. 2088; 193 Ark. 2089; 194 Ark. 2090; 195 Ark. 2091; 196 Ark. 2092; 197 Ark. 2093; 198 Ark. 2094; 199 Ark. 2095; 200 Ark. 2096; 201 Ark. 2097; 202 Ark. 2098; 203 Ark. 2099; 204 Ark. 2100; 205 Ark. 2101; 206 Ark. 2102; 207 Ark. 2103; 208 Ark. 2104; 209 Ark. 2105; 210 Ark. 2106; 211 Ark. 2107; 212 Ark. 2108; 213 Ark. 2109; 214 Ark. 2110; 215 Ark. 2111; 216 Ark. 2112; 217 Ark. 2113; 218 Ark. 2114; 219 Ark. 2115; 220 Ark. 2116; 221 Ark. 2117; 222 Ark. 2118; 223 Ark. 2119; 224 Ark. 2120; 225 Ark. 2121; 226 Ark. 2122; 227 Ark. 2123; 228 Ark. 2124; 229 Ark. 2125; 230 Ark. 2126; 231 Ark. 2127; 232 Ark. 2128; 233 Ark. 2129; 234 Ark. 2130; 235 Ark. 2131; 236 Ark. 2132; 237 Ark. 2133; 238 Ark. 2134; 239 Ark. 2135; 240 Ark. 2136; 241 Ark. 2137; 242 Ark. 2138; 243 Ark. 2139; 244 Ark. 2140; 245 Ark. 2141; 246 Ark. 2142; 247 Ark. 2143; 248 Ark. 2144; 249 Ark. 2145; 250 Ark. 2146; 251 Ark. 2147; 252 Ark. 2148; 253 Ark. 2149; 254 Ark. 2150; 255 Ark. 2151; 256 Ark. 2152; 257 Ark. 2153; 258 Ark. 2154; 259 Ark. 2155; 260 Ark. 2156; 261 Ark. 2157; 262 Ark. 2158; 263 Ark. 2159; 264 Ark. 2160; 265 Ark. 2161; 266 Ark. 2162; 267 Ark. 2163; 268 Ark. 2164; 269 Ark. 2165; 270 Ark. 2166; 271 Ark. 2167; 272 Ark. 2168; 273 Ark. 2169; 274 Ark. 2170; 275 Ark. 2171; 276 Ark. 2172; 277 Ark. 2173; 278 Ark. 2174; 279 Ark. 2175; 280 Ark. 2176; 281 Ark. 2177; 282 Ark. 2178; 283 Ark. 2179; 284 Ark. 2180; 285 Ark. 2181; 286 Ark. 2182; 287 Ark. 2183; 288 Ark. 2184; 289 Ark. 2185; 290 Ark. 2186; 291 Ark. 2187; 292 Ark. 2188; 293 Ark. 2189; 294 Ark. 2190; 295 Ark. 2191; 296 Ark. 2192; 297 Ark. 2193; 298 Ark. 2194; 299 Ark. 2195; 300 Ark. 2196; 301 Ark. 2197; 302 Ark. 2198; 303 Ark. 2199; 304 Ark. 2200; 305 Ark. 2201; 306 Ark. 2202; 307 Ark. 2203; 308 Ark. 2204; 309 Ark. 2205; 310 Ark. 2206; 311 Ark. 2207; 312 Ark. 2208; 313 Ark. 2209; 314 Ark. 2210; 315 Ark. 2211; 316 Ark. 2212; 317 Ark. 2213; 318 Ark. 2214; 319 Ark. 2215; 320 Ark. 2216; 321 Ark. 2217; 322 Ark. 2218; 323 Ark. 2219; 324 Ark. 2220; 325 Ark. 2221; 326 Ark. 2222; 327 Ark. 2223; 328 Ark. 2224; 329 Ark. 2225; 330 Ark. 2226; 331 Ark

It is respectfully suggested that any diligence was used in this case, when the diligence was so presented to agents who advised them as to testimony, in case of the wife's behalf, she appeared and examined and cross-examined the witness and the child who consented to a closing of the case. The wife's testimony was also corroborated by a number of other diligence matters which were used, because a number of these diligences are shown to be false and intended to deceive and to bring about marriage of these applicants. The child was born after 23 Feb. 1901, when the court rendered its decision. The decision should be based on all the portions for reasons, especially on the newly discovered evidence. Attention is also invited to the Ark. 241; 34 Ark. 314; 50 Ark. 120; 55 Ark. 312; 60 Ark. 401; 64 Ark. 308 and 65 Ark. 211. back with a white family and gave their name as Dawson in order to throw the representatives of the Cherokee Nation off from ascertaining the name of the family with whom she really did return, because it will be shown that later on one of the Dawson's was introduced and it was shown that that was the only family of Dawsons in that vicinity who came to the Territory and she swore positively that the principal applicant did not come with them. Again, we submit that this testimony of the principal applicant cannot be examined and herself located with any degree of satisfaction. She claims to have come to Grand River and camped, whereas Simon Lynch now attempts having her making a place there. Again, she gives very indifferent information as to where her children were born and in fact it can be seen all through her testimony that her desire is to avoid, instead of to give information. Now in order to explain this case, the attention of the Department is invited to the fact that Vinita is a crossing of the railroads and for years was the principal town and the postoffices of Spavinaw and Chaffee, where these applicants and their newly discovered witnesses live, are simply small inland postoffices recently established, and that since the early 70's Vinita has been established and has been the principal trading point for all of the people in the vicinity of Chaffee and Spavinaw; in fact in early times Vinita was the principal trading point for thirty miles around. Isn't it a peculiar circumstance that Jemima Blythe, the former mistress of the principal applicant, gave her age as 68 and postoffice as Vinita, where she had lived since the war, yet this principal applicant claims to have lived around on Grand River, some 10 or 12 miles from Vinita, and her old mistress had never seen her since the war until 1879. We say that this alone shows that these affidavits filed in this case attempting to state that the principal applicant was a bona fide resident of the Cherokee Nation since 1866 is an outrage against decency, and we do not believe will be tolerated by the Department for one moment. Again, Cap Hicks was called and sworn on behalf of the applicant when she made her original application on May 11, 1901, before any statement was manufactured for him by an ex parte affidavit, and by the way this Cap Hicks is also known as Filmore Hicks, being the same man whose affidavits are now sought and attached to a number of motions to reopen filed by the attorneys for these applicants; therefore, they vouch for his integrity. Now this same Filmore Hicks lives right down in the vicinity of Spavinaw, right in the end of Saline District, which is a small county in the Lynch settlement, and he testifies in answer to this question:

"Q. You have known this woman for 25 or '6 years? A. Yes sir, to the best of my recollection.

"Q. How far did she live from you down in that settlement when you first knew her? A. About four miles.

"Q. That is when she first came there to your recollection? A. That is the first I ever seen her and knew of her."

Above he was asked:

"Q. Do you know where she was in 1866? A. No sir.

"Q. When did you know her? A. I have known her about 25 or '6 years."

Now here is her own witness who is brought upon the stand, who testified that he lived in that community and that he had known her 25 or '6 years and this was in 1901, which would made her come into that settlement, which is the Lynch settlement, near the Simon Lynch place, in 1875 or '6. Her next witness, Jim Alberty, who has been rejected himself, his original number being F. D. 280, attempts to testify that this principal applicant was on Grand river in 1866, just where Cap Hicks lives, yet he denies it. Now her old master, James Blythe, testifies that she came to his place at Enterprise, Missouri, in 1866, that he left there in 1868, and went to Tahlequah and remained at Tahlequah until 1871, when he went to Vinita, and that after that time this principal applicant came to his place and in a conversation which was very natural between the master and old slave, she said she had just come in and that she had come from Granby. Now it will be noted that this is the first time that Granby is mentioned in the testimony which was in October of 1901. Examine the affidavits filed with the motion for a new trial and it will show that a number are from Granby, who knew this applicant; she corroborates James Blythe to the extent of her coming from that place, and being his old slave and knowing the date that he went to Vinita, being in 1871, and knowing that it was after that time, his judgment of course as to the date is much better than that of people not interested. Finally we desire to call the attention of the department to the testimony of Martha Hannah given before the commission at Muskogee September 26, 1905. She gave her postoffice as Granby, said that she came there in 1866. She testified to knowing Abbie Blythe and she testified that she lived in 150 or 200 yards of her. Now this woman could not be mistaken as to dates, because she went to Granby in 1866, and could not therefore have been acquainted with the principal applicant prior to that time, and she testifies positively that she lived as a neighbor to this applicant for five or six years and she testified as to the members of her family and she testifies as to the names of her children, which were born when she knew her, and she swears positively that Alice was born there and she says that she knew her there until 1872 or 1873, and that her name was Frances Lemance, and that she went by that name, and that she finally moved away with a white family known as the Bausman family. Now it will be seen that it crops out throughout this testimony that she left there with a white family, and Sheep Jim Alberty swore to this. In the light of this testimony we desire to submit that there is no merit whatever in this case. Your attention is further invited to the fact that in 1905 Alice Lynch took the stand immediately after the above witness left and testified that she was 36 or '7 years of age, which would have made her been born in 1868 or '9. Now Martha E. Hannah said that she was born up there at Granby, Missouri, and she says that Abbie Blythe did not have any husband and Alice Lynch testified that her father's name was George Walker and that she never saw her father and there is no evidence that there is any George Walker ever living near Spavinaw, I. T., where it is alleged that Alice was born, whereas there were Walkers up at Granby, which corroborates Martha E. Hannah's testimony. In other words, the testimony of James Blythe shows that Abbie Blythe did not come to the Cherokee Nation after the war until some time in the 70's. The testimony of Cap Hicks shows that she did not come until in the 70's. The testimony of Martha E. Hannah clearly and unquestionably shows it. The testimony of Alice Lynch herself, when she gives her father's name, corroborates Martha E. Hannah in showing that she was born outside of the Cherokee Nation by a white father, and finally the exceptionally uncertain, vague, evasive testimony of the principal applicant herself shows it, because she will not locate herself at any one particular point. The attention of the Department is invited to Section 3 of the Act of April 26, 1906, which emphasizes that the roll of Cherokee freedmen shall only include such freedmen "who were actual, personal bona fide residents of the Cherokee Nation August eleventh, eighteen hundred and sixty-six, or who actually returned and established such residence in the Cherokee Nation on or before February eleventh, eighteen hundred and sixty-seven."

We submit that the decision of the Commissioner rejecting the applicants is overwhelmingly sustained by the testimony introduced in this case and that for the reasons hereinabove assigned the motion for a rehearing should be denied, and the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes affirmed.

Respectfully submitted,

W. W. Hastings
Attorney for the Cherokee Nation.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Abbie Blythe, et al., as Cherokee Freedmen, consolidating the applications as of--

Abbie Blythe, et al.,	Cherokee Freedmen D 257,
Nancy Thompson,	Cherokee Freedmen D 217,
Edmond Blythe,	Cherokee Freedmen D 306,
Alice Lynch, et al.,	Cherokee Freedmen D 367,
Lucy Landrum, et al.,	Cherokee Freedmen D 368,
Anna Henry,	Cherokee Freedmen D 1074.

AMENDED MOTION FOR REHEARING.

Comes now the applicants and moves that the Honorable Secretary of the Interior remand this case to the Honorable Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes in order that they have an opportunity to introduce the testimony of the witnesses whose affidavits are hereto attached and such other witnesses as they will produce at the trial of this cause if a rehearing is granted.

The record in this case shows that applications for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen were made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes by Abbie Blythe for herself and minor children, Winnie and Calie Blythe; by Gordon Thompson for, among others, his wife, Nancy Thompson; by Edmond Blythe for himself; by Alice Lynch for herself and minor children, Lovely Eaton, Early Calvin, and Eddie Lynch; by William Leonard Landrum for, among others, his wife, Lucy Landrum; and by Anna Henry for herself. The others included in these applications having been classified differently, their rights to Cherokee Freedmen citizenship was not considered in the Decision rendered in this case.

The evidence already of record shows:- "That the applicant, Abbie Blythe, claims the right to Cherokee freedmen citizenship by virtue of her compliance with the provisions of Article nine Treaty of 1866, and that the other applicants herein claim the same right as her descendants.

The Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes in his Decision found "That the applicant, Abbie Blythe, was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the rebellion". The Honorable Commissioner also found "That during the war she was sold to a citizen of said State (Missouri), named Larence"; and also found in his decision that the applicant did not return to the Cherokee Nation after the war until about 1875. It is shown by the affidavits hereto attached that the applicant, if a rehearing is granted, will prove that she returned to the Cherokee Nation after the close of the Civil War and spent the winter of 1866 and the Spring of 1867 at the Home of Simon Lynch on Grand River in the Cherokee Nation, Indian Territory; that sometime in 1867 she improved her a farm and built her a Home in the Cherokee Nation; that she afterward improved her another farm and built her a Home which she continued to own at all times thereafter; and that at no time since the Spring of 1867 has she been without a Home and improvements upon the Public Domain of the Cherokee Nation. It will be shown that she went to Missouri to get work during certain times but that she never made her Home in the State of Missouri and that when ~~there~~ she was there that her Home was in the Cherokee Nation and when she was through with her work she always returned to her Home in the Cherokee Nation; and that with this continued ownership of property applicants expect to prove that Abbie Blythe never at any time abjured her Cherokee Freedmen citizenship in the Cherokee Nation; that the affidavit of Thomas Eaton, a duly enrolled Cherokee Freedmen, shows that he is the father of applicant, Lucy Landrum, and she therefore is entitled to enrollment as the Daughter of said Thomas Eaton.

WHEREFORE, the applicants earnestly pray that the Honorable Secretary of the Interior remand this case to the Honorable Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes and that the Decision of the Honorable Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes dated June 28, 1906 be rescinded and a rehearing be granted the applicants herein.

W. L. Murray, of lawful age being duly sworn deposes and saith, that his Post Office address is Pierce City, Mo., and that his age is 57 years, and that he came to Granby Mo., in November of 1867, and lived continuously there till 1889; that along about 1870 I knew a colored girl by the name of Francis Lamanse, she at that time did washing for my brother-in-law, W. W. Barber, with whom I made my home. She was a transient woman and I know that she never had a permanent residence in Granby, Mo. I know this to be a fact because I was well acquainted with every man, woman and child in Granby and surrounding country at the time. She stayed here several months and dis-appeared and I have not seen or heard tell of her since.

P. N. THOMAS, of lawful age being sworn on oath deposes and says that his age is 72 years and Post Office address is Granby, Newton County, Mo., and that at the close of the Civil War I lived in Pineville, Mo., and boarded at a hotel there run by James Lamense, there was a colored girl working for him at that time by the name of Francis. That year I moved to Granby Mo.; and soon after moving here I met this same colored girl Francis, said to be part Indian, and I think it was about the next year that a man by the name of Bausman took this girl to the Indian Territory, (I was personally acquainted with Mr. Bausman and also with this girl Francis). A few years later she came back to Granby, and worked around here for different people, she made several trips here but only for a few ~~months~~ weeks each time. I have lived here all the time since 1865, but I have never seen this girl back here since about 1870 or 1871 or thereabouts.

Lucy Walker of lawful age being duly sworn according to law on oath deposes and says that: I am 53 years old and my Post Office address is Granby, Mo., and that I was personally acquainted with Francis Larence (Abbie Rlythe), I got acquainted with her in 1866, soon after I got acquainted with her she left here with a man by the name of Reusman and said they were going to the Indian Territory. I did not see her again for about four or five years when she came to my house and wanted me to keep her baby while she worked at the Palace Hotel at Granby, Mo. I kept the baby a while for her. She told me she lived in the Indian Territory, and that she had a small place there, a little home, said she had just come up here to make a little money, that money was scarce down there. She worked here a few weeks and then took her child and went back home. A few months later she returned to Granby alone, she said she had left her children at home in the Indian Territory and that she had some one taking care of them for her, she worked for a while in the town doing house work, hotel work and washing, she never stayed here more than two or three months at the time, and to the best of my knowledge made about three trips here and went back to the Indian Territory, and I have never seen her since her last trip here which was about in 1870 or so. I do not think she stayed in Granby more that six or eight months all together.

Lydia Young of lawful age being duly sworn according to law on her oath deposes and says that her Post Office address is Granby, Mo. and that she does not know her age but was personally acquainted with Francis Lamane (Abbie Blythe). I first met her at the close of the war at Cassville, Mo., we came from there together to Newtonia, Mo., and from Newtonia to Granby, Mo., about the next year a white man took her from here to the Nation. A Few years later she came back and worked here at washing and house work for different people for a short time and then returned to the Nation. She came here two or three times and only stayed a little while each time and then returned to the Nation which she always called her home, and I have never seen her since.

"I am acquainted with the applicant Abbie Plythe-- I became acquainted with her soon after the close of the Civil war. In the fall of 1866 she came in on Grand river in the Cherokee Nation Indian Territory and lived there for some time. She was in a settlement further up the river from where I lived. After 1866 I heard of her in that settlement along for some time. In 1867 she would come down to Lynchs prairie to church and I remember seeing her several times in 1867 down there at church and she was then living further up the river from where I lived. I heard of her owning a farm of her own up there. In 1868 she moved down into the same neighborhood that I lived in. She improved a little place of her own and lived on it. She afterwards gave up that place and went across on the east side of the river and made her a home and farm there which she has owned ever since. I never knew of her leaving the Cherokee Nation and I know that if she did go out of the Nation after I know that she made her a home and farm east of Grand that she owned that home and farm all the time so that if she ever left the Nation she had her home and property in the Nation.

"My name is Joe Davis, my age is Fifty-One years and my post office is Vinita Indian Territory. In the summer of 1866 I was living on Spring Creek in the Cherokee Nation. I remained in the Cherokee Nation during the Civil War. In the latter part of the year of 1866, in about the latter part of December 1866, about Christmas Time I went up on Grand river to visit Simon Lynch and when I got up there I remember of ~~xx~~ seeing the principal applicant Abbie Plythe there at Simon Lynch's house. She was living in the same house with Simon Lynch and his family. I was there again in the Spring of 1867 and Abbie Plythe was still making her home at Simon Lynch's place. Later in the Spring of 1867 or in the summer of 1867 some time she built her a house of her own and improved her a small farm and moved to herself further up the river. I know that Abbie Plythe has lived in the Cherokee nation continuously since I saw her in the fall of 1866 and she has owned her home and farm in the Cherokee Nation at all times since the fall of 1866. The applicant Abbie Plythe went out into the State to work a great deal and ~~xx~~ when she was through with her work she always came right back to her home. A great many of the Freedmen between 1867 and 1870 had to go to the state to get work to do in order to support themselves and Abbie Plythe went to the State among the others to work but she never went to Missouri to make it her home and her stay there was always temporary.

On this 26th day of July, A. D., 1906, personally appeared before me, the undersigned, a Notary Public duly commissioned and acting within and for the Northern District of the Indian Territory, DICK PICKUP, of lawful age, who being first duly sworn, on his oath deposes and says:-

My name is Dick Pickup; my age is 65 years and my Post Office is Spavinaw, Indian Territory. I am a full blood Cherokee Indian and do not speak the English Language. At the close of the Civil War I was living in the timber near the Dirteater Prairie in the Cherokee Nation, Indian Territory not far from Grand River. I was living there at the close of the Civil War and during the next year, that is the year of 1866, I was living near the same place and about one mile from where Simon Lynch located in the fall of 1866. In the fall of 1866 Abbie Plythe came to Simon Lynch's place and made her Home with Simon Lynch and his family; she stayed there during the winter of 1866 and the spring of 1867. In the summer of 1867 she left Simon Lynch's place and went to work and made her a place of her own. She built her a house and put a small piece of land in cultivation enough to raise her a garden and a small crop of corn. This was in the fall of 1867 or early in 1868. She moved into this house and lived there for two years or more. Then she sold this house and small farm to a full-blood Indian by the name of Chu-na. She then made and improved the place she now owns, which is across the river from the place she sold to Chu-na. She built her a house and put a ~~xx~~ small piece of land in cultivation and has owned this Home and farm from that time until this. Sometime after she made this Home she would make trips to the State to get work to do in order to support her family and when she was out in the State at work she always left a part of her children with Simon Lynch and Simon and his folks took care of her children during all the times she was away at work. She usually worked for several months or for short intervals and when out of work would always come back to her Home. She has always kept up her home and farm in the Cherokee Nation, Indian Territory and always left her children with Simon Lynch and his family when she was away.

Her trips to the State was purely for the purpose of getting work to do in order to support her family and she never at any time gave up her Home, her farm or improvements in the Cherokee Nation and has always at all times since 1867 owned a Home and a little farm in the Cherokee Nation, Indian Territory.

I am a full-blood Cherokee Indian; I have no interest whatever in this case and make this affidavit freely of my own accord.

The record in this case shows that application was made by the applicants before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes on May 11, 1901, at Vinita, Indian Territory; that from time to time testimony was introduced both for and against the enrollment of the applicants of which notice being given to both parties; that on June 29, 1906, a decision was rendered denying the application of the applicants by the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes and the case was forwarded to the Department by his order thereon; that immediately thereafter a motion to reopen said case was forwarded to the Department and on December 8, 1906, the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes dated June 29, 1906, rejecting the applicants, was affirmed and the motion to reopen filed in said case was denied by the Secretary of the Interior.

The residence given of these applicants is Sapawinaw, I. T., a few miles north of Vinita, Indian Territory, where the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes had a number of times for the convenience of applicants, and although application was made on May 11, 1901, no decision was rendered in this case until June 29, 1906, or more than five years after the original application was made during all of which time testimony could have been introduced and at different times was introduced for and against the applicants. Attached to the Amendment Motion to reopen are practically all of the old affidavits heretofore submitted to the Department and passed upon by the Department when it denied the motion to reopen on December 8, 1906.

We have heretofore had occasion to argue the question of diligence in a great many cases before the Department and the Court on January 7, 1907, in denying the motion to reopen in the Illinois Bonding case (11 C.C. 288-1906, 1886-1905, 1906-1905), as follows:

D E C I S I O N.

The record herein shows that applications for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen were made to this Commission by Abbie Blythe for herself and minor children, Minnie or Callie Blythe; by Jordan Thompson for, among others, his wife, Nancy Thompson; the others included in said application being differently classified from Nancy Thompson, will not be embraced in this decision; by Edmond Blythe for himself; by Alice Lynch for herself and minor children, Lovely Eaton, Barly, Calvin and Eddie Lynch; by William Leonard Landrum for himself and wife, Lucy Landrum and minor child, Celia V. Landrum. But as the said William Leonard Landrum is classified differently from Lucy and Celia V. Landrum, he will not be embraced in this decision; and by Anna Henry for herself.

The evidence herein shows that the applicant, Abbie Blythe was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the rebellion; that she was taken from the Cherokee Nation, but returned thereto within the time specified in the decree of the Court of Claims rendered February 3, 1896, in the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee, etc., vs. the Cherokee Nation, et al., for the return of her to the Cherokee Nation, and has since continuously resided therein.

The evidence further shows that the applicants, Minnie, Callie and Edmond Blythe, Nancy Thompson, Alice Lynch and Anna Henry, are children of the said Abbie Blythe, were born since the close of the war, and have continuously resided in the Cherokee Nation since birth; that the minor applicants, Lovely Eaton, Barly, Calvin and Eddie Lynch and Lucy Landrum, are children of the said Alice Lynch, and that the minor applicant, Celia V. Landrum, is a child of the said Lucy Landrum and one William Leonard Landrum, who is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, and is included in a partial roll of Cherokee freedmen, (No. 2103), approved by the Secretary of the Interior, January 16, 1903; and that said minor applicants were born since 1880, and have continuously resided in the Cherokee Nation since birth.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Abbie, Minnie, Calis and Edmond Elythe, Nancy Thompson, Anna Henry Alice, Mary, Calvin and Eddie Lynch, Lovely Baton, Lucy and Selia W. Landrum, should be enrolled as Cherokee Freedmen, in accordance with the provisions of section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 2, 1898, (30 Stat., 49.), and it is so ordered.

Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Gentlemen:

I return herewith consolidated Cherokee Freedman case of Abbie Blythe, et al, D-257.

This case and its associate cases admit all of the applicants as now prepared. All of them have a claim through Abbie Blythe, and only one of the applicants, Celia V. Landrum, has any other claim.

Abbie Blythe is not on the 1880 or 1896 roll. Her testimony is evasive, and all her supporting testimony is negative except a statement by Jim Alberty, who says he saw her in camp in 1866 as he "just passed by there" and then he didn't see her any more. She does not mention the incident, though pressed for evidence of being located as she claimed. Jim Alberty further says
"I was just passing by there, that was all".

Upon the other hand, it is clearly shown by her former owner, James C. Blythe, of Vinita, that she first returned from Missouri in 1871.

I think she and all who claim through her should be denied enrollment, except the child, Celia V. Landrum, who has a good claim through her father, and I so vote.

Commission---2

Respectfully,

Gentlemen:

You are hereby advised that before a final decision can be rendered in the matter of the application for the enrollment of Minnie and Calis Plythe as Cherokee Freedmen, it will be necessary that further testimony be introduced as to any rights to enrollment they may possess through their deceased father, Calvin Hilderbrand.

Abbie Scott, formerly Abbie Plythe, the mother of these children, has this day been notified to appear before the offices of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, at nine o'clock A. M. on Thursday, September 28, 1905, and introduce the testimony as above indicated. The Cherokee Nation will also be permitted to appear on that date and introduce such testimony as it desires in this case.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith a letter from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated June 28, 1906, enclosing the record in the case of Abbie Blythe, et al., applicants for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen; also a motion for re-hearing filed in this Office on July 31, 1906, by McGowan, Servess & Mohun, Washington, attorneys for the applicants. On August 22, 1906, the Commissioner transmitted to this Office the reply on behalf of the Cherokee Nation, showing written acceptance of service on August 9, 1906, by Zevely, Givens & Smith, attorneys for the applicants.

The principal applicant in this case, Abbie Bly (or Blythe), made application for the enrollment of herself and two minor children, Minnie Bly, aged sixteen and Calis Bly, aged twelve, on May 11, 1901, at Vinita, at which time she introduced testimony in support of her contention. Supplemental testimony was submitted on May 15, 1901, on October 2, 1901, October 4, 1901, January 27, 1902, and September 28, 1905. The other applicants in this case, Nancy Thompson, Edmond Blythe, Alice Lynch, et al., Lucy Landrum, et al. and Anna Henry, are the children and grandchildren of the principal applicant, whose rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen depend entirely on such rights as she may have, except in two instances mentioned in the decision.

The evidence shows that Abbie Rly (or Rlythe) was the slave of James Rlythe, a Cherokee citizen, before and at the commencement of the Civil War. The testimony of Rlythe himself is that when the war broke out he was living in McDonald County, Missouri, and had been a resident of that State for about five years; that Abbie was his slave in Missouri, and that in the year 1862 or 1863 he sold her to one James L. Lumanee, of Pineville, Missouri, that he next saw her after the war in the spring of 1866, when she came to him and again wanted to live in the family as in former days; that he saw her no more until some time after he moved to Vinita in 1871, when she came to him to seek advice as to the best place for her to locate.

The testimony of Abbie Rlythe is very indefinite, contradictory and unsatisfactory on the one material point in this case, viz: as to when she returned to the Cherokee Nation after the war. At one time she said she came in a wagon with a family named Dodson, from some place in Kansas, and denied that she had ever lived in Missouri; that they came back in the fall of 1866, and camped out on the Grand River. At another time she testified that she came back with a white family but did not know the name. The testimony of Mrs. Rlythe is clear on all points save that concerning Abbie's return to the Cherokee Nation, though somewhat in conflict with that of her husband, which is easily accounted for by reason of the great lapse of time intervening between the events and the hearing; but as to where Abbie Blythe was from 1865 to 1879 she knows nothing.

Captain Hicks, another of her witnesses, testified that he had known Abbie twenty-five or twenty-six years in the Cherokee Nation, but that he did not know where she was in 1866. It will be observed that he became acquainted with her in 1875 or 1876. The name of Abbie Bly (or Blythe) does not appear on the authentic roll of 1880, nor on the census roll of 1890, but does appear on the Kerns-Clifton Roll as Abbie Blye. No. 3897, Cooweescoowee District, while Minnie Blye is on the same roll as No. 3899 and Callus Blye appears as No. 3900.

The evidence shows that applicants Anna Henry and Alice Lunch were born in the State of Missouri, and the Commissioner found that both were of white paternity, and assumed that the fathers were non-citizens. It is alleged by Abbie Blythe that one Calvin Wilderorand, deceased, was the father of Minnie and Callis Blyth, but there is no evidence that he was a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, even if it be assumed that he was in fact the father. There is no evidence showing who was the father of Edmund Blyth and Nancy Thompson.

The testimony in this case shows a very low state of morals, and about the only established fact is that Abbie Bly was a slave and is the mother of her children, Early Lynch and Calvin Lynch were proven to be the children of William Lynch former husband of Alice Lynch, from whom he was divorced in 1897 or 1898, and were duly enrolled as children of their father under Section 21 of the Act of June 28, 1898, (30 Stats. 495).

The motion for re-hearing is supported by five affidavits, which are presumed to be on the theory of newly discovered evidence, though no proper showing is made to establish that fact. Without entering into any discussion as to the showing necessary to justify a re-hearing, the Office calls attention to the fact that four of these affidavits signally fail to locate the principal applicant in the Cherokee Nation during 1866 or 1867, or at any other time. All they do is to locate her in Missouri at different times after the War.

The affidavit of Simon Lynch locates her in the Cherokee Nation, but even if his affidavit be true, it would seem that the exercise of any degree of diligence would have found him and produced him before the Commission during the five years this case was open.

The Office respectfully recommends that the motion for a re-hearing be denied, and that the decision of the Commissioner rejecting the enrollment of all the applicants except Early

(5)

Lynch and Calvin Lynch be affirmed; also that the enrollment of Early Lynch and Calvin Lynch be approved.

Very respectfully,

F. E. <sup>Lynch</sup> ~~Lynch~~.

Commissioner.

Sir:

The Indian Office on September 13, 1906 (Land 73025), transmitted your report dated June 28, 1906, forwarding the record in the matter of the consolidated applications of Abbie Blythe et al. for enrollment as Cherokee freedman.

On June 28, 1906, you rendered a decision rejecting the applications of Abbie, Minnie, and Calis Blythe, Nancy Thompson, Edmond Blythe, Alice and Eddie Lynch, Lovely Eaton, Lucy Landrum, and Anna Henry and granting the application for the enrollment of Early and Calvin Lynch as Cherokee freedmen.

There is also transmitted a motion for rehearing filed by the attorneys for the applicants and the reply of the nation to said motion.

The Indian Office recommends that the motion for rehearing be denied, and that your decision rejecting the applications for the enrollment of all the applicants except Early and Calvin Lynch be approved. A copy of its letter is inclosed.

The Department has considered the motion for rehearing in connection with the record, and is convinced that no sufficient reason is shown for a further hearing of this case.

The motion for rehearing is accordingly denied. Your decision, rejecting the applications of Abbie, Minnie and Calis Blythe, Nancy Thompson, Edmond Blythe, Alice and Eddie Lynch, Lovely Eaton, Lucy Landrum, and Anna Henry and granting the application for the enrollment of Early and Calvin Lynch as Cherokee freed men, is hereby affirmed.

The papers in the case have been sent to the Indian Office for its files.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is enclosed an "amended motion for rehearing" of the consolidated Cherokee freedmen cases of Abbie Blythe, et al. This motion was filed by Zevely, Givens & Smith, Muskogee, Indian Territory, and Starr & Patten, Vinita, Indian Territory, January 18, 1907. The reply of the Attorney for the Cherokee Nation filed January 28, 1907, is also enclosed.

The decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes dated June 28, 1906, rejecting the applications for the enrollment of all of the applicants embraced in the consolidated Cherokee freedman cases of Abbie Blythe et al. except Early and Calvin Lynch, was affirmed by the Department December 8, 1906 (I.T.D. 17918-1906). The Department also, on that date, denied a motion filed by Messrs. Zevely, Givens & Smith, for a rehearing of the case, holding that it "has considered the motion for rehearing in connection with the record, and is convinced that no sufficient reason is shown for a further hearing of this case."

The evidence upon which this motion herewith enclosed is based seems to be merely cumulative; in fact it is supported by copies of a number of affidavits which the Attorney for the Cherokee Nation alleges are copies of Affidavits filed in support of the motion for rehearing which the Department denied on December 8, 1906. There is nothing whatever to show that the motion is not made for the purpose of delay, or that with due diligence the evidence now sought to be introduced could not have been secured when the case was heard before the Commission and the Commissioner. A re-examination of the records in the case convinces the Commissioner that there is no merit to the motion, and it is respectfully recommended that the same be denied.

Respectfully,

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior,

Sir:

Referring to Departmental letter of December 8, 1906 (I.T.D.17918-1906), denying motion for re-hearing in the application of Abbie Blythe, et al., I have the honor to transmit herewith a communication from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated February 9, 1907, enclosing amended motion for re-hearing in a consolidated case, which was filed with the Commissioner on January 18, 1907, by Zevely, Givens & Smith, of Muskogee, I. T., and Starr & Patten, of Vinita, I. T.

The reply of the attorney for the Cherokee Nation was filed January 26, 1907. The evidence on which the amended motion is based is merely cumulative. It is supported by copies of a number of affidavits which the attorney for the Cherokee Nation alleges are copies of affidavits filed in support of the motion for re-hearing, which was denied on December 8, 1906. There is nothing to show that this motion is not made for the purpose of delay, or that with due diligence the evidence now sought to be secured could not have been produced when the case was first heard before the Commission and the Commissioner.

The original application was made on May 11, 1901, and no decision was rendered until June 28, 1906, a period of more than five years, and it was not until after an adverse decision was rendered that the applicants made any effort whatever to secure the testimony that they now allege they could introduce if the case is re-opened.

The Office is of the opinion that sufficient diligence has not been shown in this case to justify a re-opening, and it therefore concurs in the recommendation of the Commissioner that the motion be denied.

Very respectfully,

C. F. Larrabee

Acting Commissioner.

I believe the applicant Abbie Blythe, and those applicants herein who obtain rights only through her, have failed to establish that they are entitled to enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen.

I believe further hearing should be granted in this consolidated case in order to establish:

(1) Whether or not Minnie and Calis Blythe (C.F.D. 237), possess any rights to Cherokee citizenship through their father, Calvin Hilderbrand, deceased.

(2) To show the father of Nancy Thompson (D 317), Edmond Blythe (D 305), and Alice Lynch (D 362), and whether or not they possess any rights to enrollment through him.

(3) To show that Lovely Eaton (D 367), and Lucy Landrum, (D 368), are the children of Thomas Eaton, their alleged father. The said Thomas Eaton is listed for enrollment on C. F. card No. 201, and is included in a partial roll of Cherokee Freedmen opposite No. 1742.

(4) To identify the father of Early, Calvin and Eddie Lynch (D 367), who, the testimony shows, is named William Lynch, and is living apart from said applicants' mother, Alice Lynch. In C.F.D. 243, one William Lynch, aged 22, applies for the enrollment of himself only, and testifies that he has a wife and children, that he is not living with them, and that his wife had formerly applied for the children's enrollment. The said Alice Lynch's application was filed May 21, 1901, and the said William Lynch's was filed July 1, 1901. The testimony in the two cases, however, is not strong enough to conclusively establish the relationship. William Lynch has been finally rejected. The above information could probably be obtained by letter.

The applicant Celia V. Landrum, is clearly entitled to enrollment as a descendant of one on the 1880 and final roll and can be transferred to a straight card by order.

Department of the Interior
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.
Vinita, I. T., May 11, 1901.

In the matter of the application of Henry Adair forenrollment as a Cherokee Freedman; he being sworn and examined by Commissioner C. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows:

- Q Give me your full name. A Henry Adair.
Q Who is it you want to have enrolled; just yourself? A Just myself.
Q How old are you? A I couldn't tell exactly; I was born in Georgia.
Q About how old would you call yourself? A I expect about 65, something like that, maybe more.
Q Did you come here in '57? A About that time.
Q You were a little fellow then? A No, I went down to Arkansas.
Q Have you lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since way before the war? A Yes sir, a long time before the war.
Q Are you a recognized Freedman of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Were you a slave in the Cherokee Nation when the war began? A Yes sir.
Q To whom did you belong? A Watty Adair.
Q Was he called Red Watty? A Yes sir.
Q A recognized Cherokee citizen, was he? A Yes sir.
Q Give me the name of your wife. A My wife was Dicey.
Q You and she are not living together now? A No sir.
Q Is she a recognized Freedman of the Cherokee Nation? (No answer)
Q Was your wife a slave before the war? A Yes sir, she was a slave.
Q Here in the Cherokee Nation? A No sir, she wasn't here in the Cherokee Nation.
Q Where was she in slavery days? A Down close to Kane Hill.
Q She lived on the Arkansas side? A Yes sir.
Q And did you live on the Cherokee side? A Yes sir.
Q Was your wife with you during the war? A Yes sir, along with me all the time until we got free; then we parted.
Q Then you parted after the war? A Yes sir.
Q About how long after the war when you and she parted? A Just a little while.
Q Some years? A Some years ago.
Q Was it ten years after the war, as much as that? A About five years, I guess.
Q About five years after the war was over - after peace was made? A Yes sir.

The 1880 authenticated roll, the 1896 census roll, the Kerne Clifton Roll of the Freedmen of the Cherokee Nation examined and the name of the applicant not found therein.

The Wallace Roll examined and the name of the applicant is found on page 98, No. 2097, Henry Adair, Delaware District.

- Q Did you draw Cherokee strip money four years ago, on that Kerne Roll? A Yes sir, I think I did.
Q How much did you get; it was a pretty big sum, you said to know about that? A I don't know exactly; I got eight or nine dollars.
Q How comes it that you are not on the 1880 roll? A Well, I don't know the reason; they didn't put me on there; I went there pretty often. I went in there a time or two; I went up.
Q You don't know, do you? A No sir, I don't know.
Q Well, about the roll of 1896, do you have any reason why they didn't put you on that? A I never traded money only but one time a small bit, and then the other they gave me so much the other time the grass money they called it something like that.

Tobe Bean, being sworn and examined by Commissioner C.R. Breckinridge, testified as follows:

- Q Give me your full name. A Tobe Bean.
Q How old are you? A 63 years old.
Q What is your postoffice? A Vinita.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A I was raised here; bred and born here.

2- H. A.

here; bred and born here.

Q Do you know this old man, the applicant here? A Yes sir.

Q How long have you known him? A About forty years, I guess.

Q Did you know him back in slavery days? A Yes sir.

Q Who was his master in those old times? A Red Watty A Blair.

Q Where was this old man during the war? A He was passing backward and forward through the nation here; I don't know where he was all the while; I never seen him until about 16 years ago.

Q Did you know him back in slavery days? A Yes sir.

Q And then you didn't know anything more about him - you lost the run of him until about 16 years ago? A Yes sir.

Q You don't know why he wasn't put on the 1880 roll? A No sir, I don't.

Q When was it you last saw him before you met him some 16 years ago; when and where? A He was in Flint District when I saw him the last time in '62.

Q You know he was a slave? A Yes sir, I know he was a slave; we lived a mile apart.

Q And in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.

L. B. Bell: What time did you move away from Flint? A I don't know exactly what time; we used to live on Grand River about two years; Cousin Willier did.

Q About what time did you leave Flint - you came before the war, didn't you? A Yes sir.

Q About two years? A Yes sir.

Q Were you down in Flint in '62? A Yes sir, I went back down there.

Commissioner of Agriculture: Where were you during the war? A I was at Gibson, and the time they were hauling provisions down there for the Indians, and I was helping them haul provisions down to Indians.

Q Were you out of the Cherokee Nation while the war was going on?

A Yes sir, I was in the nation all the time.

Q After the war closed what did you do? A I went to Kansas; I stayed there about four or five years and then I come back again.

Q You went to Kansas just when the war closed? A Yes sir, just a little after the war closed.

Q Little after or a little before? A A little afterwards.

Q About how long after the fighting stopped? A I guess about one year or two, and then I went there and they hired me to carry provisions to the Indians to the train in Kansas, backward and forward.

Q You stayed there four or five years? A Yes sir.

Q Then what did you do? A I didn't do much of anything; I hadn't much to do.

Q I mean after you did that work in Kansas - you had been there four or five years - after that what did you do? A I worked around town.

Q Around what town? A In Emporia, Kansas.

Q Do you understand my question? A Yes sir.

Q You told me you went to Kansas after the war and stayed there four or five years, do you understand that? A Yes, I understood that.

Q Do you understand what I say - you told me that you went to Kansas just after the war and you stayed there four or five years, is that right? A I think it is; yes, I think I did; I know I did.

Q After you did that, what did you do? A I come back here and stayed.

Q Stayed where and how long? A Well, I stayed around about here and I lived with Toke Bean pretty much of the time.

Q When you came back from Kansas, did you come then to Toke Bean's house? A Yes sir, right to his house.

Q As soon as you came back from Kansas? A Pretty much so.

Q Have you been living about Toke Bean's ever since? A Yes sir, lived close to Toke Bean's ever since.

Q Toke Bean says you came to his house about 16 years ago? A Back and forward, I couldn't stay at one place all the time.

Q You were at Toke Bean's part of the time? A Yes sir.

Q And you would go back to Kansas part of the time? A No sir, just worked around the nation in one place and then another. I was just wandering about like anybody would do.

Q Well now, you seemed to have stayed a long time in Kansas - did you vote up there? A No sir, never voted up there.

3- H. A.

Q When you came back to the Cherokee Nation did you ever apply to the Cherokee authorities to be readmitted to citizenship? A As near as I could I did.

Q What did you do of that kind - did you apply to the Cherokee Council at Tahlequah? A No, not at Tahlequah I didn't.

Q You didn't apply to anything at Tahlequah? A No, not that I know of.

Q Did you apply to the Dawes Commission in 1896, four or five years ago? A I think I did.

Q Where did you apply? A I forgot now where.

Q Have you got any other name besides Henry; is that all your name? A Yes sir, just Henry Adair.

Dawes Commission record has been consulted and he cannot be found on that record of 1896.

The applicant is not identified on the roll of 1880, nor upon the census roll of 1896, nor upon the Karna Clifton Roll, but he is identified on the Wallace Roll. He appears to have gone to Kansas very soon after the close of the war. He seems to have been a slave in the Cherokee Nation at the breaking out of the Civil War, and the evidence indicates that he stayed in Kansas until some sixteen years or such a matter ago. It is considered probable that he has abjured his citizenship. He states that he never made application to the Cherokee authorities for readmission to citizenship, and the records of the Dawes Commission, which have been searched, for his name, do not indicate that he ever applied to the Commission for readmission to citizenship. Under these conditions, the applicant will be listed as a Cherokee Freedman on a doubtful card, and the final decision of the Commission will be made known to him at his postoffice address.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 14th day of May, 1901.

COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.
MUSKOGEE, I. T., NOVEMBER 2, 1905.

SUPPLEMENTAL PROCEEDINGS had in the matter of the application for the enrollment of HENRY ADAIR and WILLIE ADAIR, as Cherokee freedmen.

APPEARANCES:

For Applicants, No Appearance.
For Cherokee Nation, W. W. Hastings.

It appears from the records of this office that on October 20, 1905, the applicants, their attorney, and the attorneys for the Cherokee Nation were notified by letter that this case would be taken up for further hearing at this office on November 2, 1905, and that they would be permitted to appear and introduce such testimony as they may have upon the points indicated in said letters, at which time the following proceedings were had.

CHARLEY RYDER, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q What is your name? A Charley Ryder.
Q What is your age? A 55.
Q What is your post office? A Emporia, Kansas.
Q How long has Emporia, Kansas, been your post office? A Since 1864.
Q You have lived there continuously since 1864? A With the exception of three months.
Q During your residence there did you know a colored man named Henry Adair? A Yes sir.
Q Did you know his wife? A Yes sir.
Q What was her name? A Dicey.
Q Did you know a son of theirs named Willie? A I know him, yes sir.
Q About how soon did you become acquainted with this family of colored people? A I think it was in 1865 or '66.
Q Were they living there in Emporia? A Yes sir.
Q You got acquainted with them there in Emporia, Kansas? A Yes sir.
Q Did they have any other children except Willie Adair? A I think they had nine children all together.
Q The records show here that application was only made for one, Willie Adair, did you remember the names of any of the others?
A There was Harry, John, Joe, and Willie Adair living, and then there was two daughters, I think one was Caroline and the other was, --- I can't think of her name, they are both living, one lived in Oklahoma and the other lived in Emporia.
Q Did these boys live in Emporia, the ones you mentioned? A They are all there except Joe, I think he is working on the railroad somewhere.
Q Is Henry Adair living now? A I think not.
Q When did he die? A About a year and a half ago.
Q Where did he die? A At Emporia.

- Q Is his wife Dicey alive? A No sir.
- Q Where did she die? A At Emporia.
- Q About when? A A short while before the old gentleman died.
- Q What did his wife Dicey do? A She used to wash, work out.
- Q What did Henry do? A Most anything, worked in the printing office when they had the old hand press.
- Q What business are you engaged in? A Drug business.
- Q About how large a place was Emporia, Kansas, when you went there in 1864? A I think probably four or five hundred, maybe not that many.
- Q Many colored people there at that time? A I think at the time I went there, there was no colored people there.
- Q Henry Adair and his wife came there? A They settled about 16 or 18 miles north of Emporia at Mr. Phillips, and a short time afterwards came to Emporia.
- Q Is the scarcity of colored people the reason that you remember them? A I think they were the third or fourth colored people I ever saw.
- Q Where did you live prior to that time? A In the State of Michigan.
- Q Did you know them continuously from the time you got acquainted with them from 1865 or 1866 up until their death? A I have known them, of course, the old gentleman has been away from there, been down here in the Territory a part of the time.
- Q When did you first miss him up there? A I couldn't tell you.
- Q Your best judgment? A Well 7 or 8 years ago, couldn't say exactly.
- Q We had a roll made here in 1896, about 9 years ago, do you think it was somewhere along about that time? A I remember him coming back and him stating he was enrolled here.
- Q And where was his wife living at that time? A Emporia.
- Q Did she ever come down here? A Not as I know of.
- Q Prior to that time had Willie or any of these children ever gone away from up there so far as you know? A Not for any length of time.
- Q You had seen them from that time off and on? A Yes sir, noticed the boys as they come on, they would take to boothlacking, when one of the boys stepped out another came in.
- Q Went to any schools there? A Yes sir, ~~xxx~~ to the public schools.
- Q No you know whether all these boys, these children, were born up there? A I don't know but my impression is most of them were.
- Q Of course I suppose you knew the family lived there, and these children were born and it is your supposition they were born there? A Yes sir, that is my supposition, I do not know about the older children.
- Q Did they have any children when you first knew them? A Yes sir, I think Harry and one of the girls, that is dead. I remember the little kids around there, it was along about 1870 when they began to get out on the streets.
- Q Did you know where they lived from your house? A Yes sir.
- Q How far did they live from you when you first began to know them in 1865 or '66? A I guess it was a little later than that they moved to town and built themselves a house.
- Q They own a house? A Yes sir.
- Q Did they continue to own that house until their death? A No sir, up until two or three years ago the old man and lady separated.
- Q About when did they separate? A I couldn't tell you.
- Q Your best judgment as to how long ago was it before he came down here, or after he came down here, that they separated? A I think it was after he came down here.

- Q You hadn't heard of it before? A No sir.
- Q Do you know whether they had sold this property before or after they separated? A I think that was afterwards, only a few years ago.
- Q They they only separated a few years ago? A No sir, she traded the property, I don't know whether he was interested in it or not.
- Q But they lived in that house continuously from the time they moved to town until they separated? A No not that. Of course they worked for people there. I don't know just when this house was built but it was along in the 70's. I think some of the citizens helped them build there house.
- Q About what age man was Henry Adair? A Well, I don't know, he is an man that always looked old, he looked old when he came there. He used to say he recokon he was about 16 years of age, but then he was old, he had an old look to him.
- Q Of course 16 was just a joke? A That was a joke, that is as near as anybody knows about his age, he didn't know it himself.
- Q Well he was an old man when you first knew him? A Yes sir, a middle age man.

ON BEHALF OF THE COMMISSIONER:

- Q Do you know anything about when Henry and Dicey Adair were married? A No sir.
- Q Were they married when you first learned to know them? A They were man and wife.
- Q Is that Willie, do you know him now? A Yes sir.
- Q Where is he? A I think he is at Emporia, was a short time ago back there on a visit. He is living down here in the Territory.
- Q About how old a man is he? A I suppose in the neighborhood of 38 or somewhere along there.
- Q Do you know where he was born? A No sir, I don't.
- Q Do you know where Henry Adair was directly after peace was made, after the war? A He was in Emporia, on Duck Creek a short distance from there.
- Q Do you know anything about his coming to the Cherokee nation about that time? A I think he always claimed he was a slave before the war, and I think he said his master was Col. Adair.
- Q Do you know about him returning to the Cherokee Nation directly after the war? A No sir, I don't, not a very many came down here directly after the war or during the war from our part of the country.
- Q At the close of the war he lived about 12 or 14 miles from Emporia? A About 18 miles on Duck Creek.
- Q Do you think you would have known it him living that far away if he had come to the Cherokee Nation at the close of the war?
- A I don't know, of course I wouldn't have any special reason for knowing it.
- Q About when was it he moved to Emporia? A It was my judgment they came there during the war.
- Q I am speaking about the time he moved to the town of Emporia?
- A That must have been somewhere in 1865 or '66 probably.
- Q Do you know how long he continued to live there first without coming here? A I don't remember of him coming here at all until he came down here in the Territory about 7 or 8 years ago.
- Q Do you know anything about the different trips he made to the Cherokee nation prior to the time that he came down after that enrollment you spoke of? A No sir, I don't.
- Q Do you know of your own knowledge whether he ever made any trips prior to that time? A I know he was away from Emporia along about that time.

- Q I am speaking prior to that time? A No sir, I don't.
- Q You never missed him from there? A I couldn't answer that, those people come and they went but I don't know of any trips.
- Q He always claimed to be a Cherokee freedman, didn't he? A That was my understanding, yes sir.
- Q He always claimed to be entitled to enrollment as a freedman?
- A Yes sir.
- Q Do you know about his taking up any property in the Cherokee Nation? A Only what he said he had a claim there.
- Q The claim he referred to, do you know whether that was the claim on a place he had taken up in the Cherokee nation or whether it was a claim to enrollment? A I think it was timber claim, timber on the land, it had to be cleared.
- Q Do you know whether he cleared it himself? A I don't.
- Q Do you know about when he took up that claim? A No sir, I don't.
- Q Do you know whether it was prior to the time he came down here to the enrollment spoken of? A It was before that. I know he was ~~was~~ down to the enrollment, and I think he was here before that.
- Q Do you know whether he made trips to the claim he had down here before that? A He was gone away from Emporia several times, claimed he was down here.
- Q Was it your understanding that during his absence he was in the Territory? A There is where he claimed he was.
- Q Now you can't remember the number of times whether he was down here a great number of times or just a few times, can you? A No sir, I can't, I have no reason for knowing.
- Q You don't remember about the length of his absence from Emporia?
- A No sir, I don't.
- Q Do you know whether his wife Dicey ever came down with him? A No sir.
- Q Do you know whether any of his children came down with him? A I think John was down here with him, and afterwards I think Willie came down.
- Q Willie was born, the record shows about the time of the closing of the war, do you know how long he lived there where he was born?
- A I don't know whether he was born there? I know he was quite a school boy when he lived there, along pretty fairly well in the school.
- Q About how much time has he spent at Emporia for the last 15 or 20 years? A I think the last probably 5 or 6 years he has been away from there pretty continuously.
- Q Prior to that time was he in and out of Emporia? MA Yes sir.
- Q Where did Henry Adair die, do you know? A At Emporia.
- Q Did he have a home there when he died? A His wife had a home there.
- Q You stated that he and she were separated? A Yes sir, he came back there sick, he died at his son's there.
- Q Do you know whether he voted in Kansas or not? A I don't know, I expect he did, that is one thing the colored people never turn down, a vote, if they can help it.
- Q Willie Adair ever been married you know of? A He is married now.
- Q Where does he live, do you know? A I don't know, it is in the Nation somewhere.
- BY MR. HASTINGS: Willie
- Q Did you ever miss Henry Adair away from there until 5 or 6 years ago? A Not until he went to Parsons or Coffeyville.
- Q You saw him there as any other colored people and didn't miss him away from there until 5 or 6 years ago? A No sir.
- Q Did you ever miss Henry Adair away from there until 9 or 10 years ago? A No sir.

ON BEHALF OF THE COMMISSIONER:

- Q You understood all the time he had made several trips to the Cherokee Nation? A Down here to the Territory.
Q Do you know what he ever did with that claim? A I do not.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q Do you in fact that he had a claim? A Only what he said.
Q When did you first hear him speak of that claim? A It was along about the time of that enrollment, they came down here to be enrolled.
Q When did you first know or hear of his ever coming to the Cherokee Nation, how long before that? A Well I can't answer that question because I couldn't give the date. I know that was the proper time he came back there talking about his claim being down in the Territory.
Q That was ~~was~~ 7 or 8 or 10 years ago? A Yes sir.

ON BEHALF OF THE COMMISSIONER:

- Q I believe you stated in your first cross-examination that he was away from Emporia from time to time prior to the time he came down to the enrolment mentioned? A Yes sir, I think so.
Q And he claimed to have taken up a claim in the Cherokee nation prior to that time? A Yes sir, spoke about his claim.
Q You don't have any idea about when he took up that claim? A No sir, I don't.
Q All you know about it is what he and his children said? A That is all I know about it, yes sir.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

---

In the matter of the applications for the enrollment of Henry and Willie Adair as Cherokee Freedmen, consolidating the applications of

Henry Adair,
Willie Adair,

Cherokee freedman D 264,
Cherokee freedman D 833.

D E C I S I O N .

THE RECORD IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That applications for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen were made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes by Henry Adair for himself; and by Willie Adair for himself. Further proceedings in the matter of said applications were had on March 20 and November 2, 1905, at Muskogee, Indian Territory.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant Henry Adair, was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of, and removed from the Cherokee Nation to Kansas during, the rebellion, and did not return to said Nation and establish his residence therein within the time specified in the decree of the Court of Claims rendered on February 3, 1896, in the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee, etc., vs. the Cherokee Nation et al., for the return of freedmen to the Cherokee Nation. (The testimony indicates that Dickey Adair, former wife of the said Henry Adair, was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the rebellion, and Cherokee Freedman Doubtful card No. 833 shows her master's name was Watty Adair, a Cherokee citizen). The testimony shows that the said Dickey Adair removed to Kansas with her husband at the time above indicated, and continuously resided in that state until her death, several years ago; that the applicant Willie Adair, is the son of the said Henry and Dickey Adair, was born about 1865, and possesses no rights to Cherokee freedman citizenship other than as a descendant of his said parents; and that neither of the applicants herein, nor the said Dickey Adair, can be identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1860.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That, under the provisions of section Twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 26, 1898 ( 30 Stat., 496), Henry Adair and Willie Adair are not entitled to enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is enclosed a report from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated December 27, 1905, transmitting the record relative to the application of Henry Adair, et al., for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen.

On May 11, 1901, Henry Adair applied to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for enrollment as a Cherokee freedman, and Willie Adair, his son, also applied for such enrollment.

On December 27, 1905, the Commissioner held that the applicants were not entitled to such enrollment.

The evidence shows that Henry Adair was a slave of a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and that he, together with his wife, Dickey Adair, was taken to the State of Kansas at the commencement of the war of the rebellion, and that neither Henry Adair nor his wife, Dickey Adair, returned to the Cherokee Nation within the time specified in Section 3 of the Act of April 26, 1906 (34 Stat.L., 137).

Willie Adair is the son of Henry and Dickey Adair, and possesses no right to be enrolled as a Cherokee freedman other than that derived from his parents.

The decision of the Commissioner adverse to the applicants is recommended for approval.

Very respectfully,

C. F. Larrabee,

Acting Commissioner.

By Com'r Needles, -

Harvey Martin applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife Gurtie, and four children, Jordan, Perry, Mable and Golatha; his name and the name of his wife cannot be found upon the authenticated roll of 1880; he is identified on the Kerne-Clifton pay roll, and his oldest son, Jordan is also identified on the Kerne Clifton roll. The name of his wife cannot be found upon any of the rolls of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Commission, from the information given by the applicant. They make satisfactory proof as to residence. Consequently the said Harvey Martin, and his wife, Gurtie, and their four children, Jordan, Perry, Mable and Golatha, will be listed for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen on a doubtful card awaiting the further consideration of the Commission. It will be necessary for him to file with this Commission satisfactory proof of the birth of his three youngest children, Perry, Mable and Golatha they not having been identified upon any of the rolls. When the Commission arrives at a decision as to the rights of the said Harvey Martin, his wife and children, he will be notified by mail at his post office address.

Appearances:

J. F. Faulds, Esq., Attorney for the applicant;
J. S. Davenport, Esq., of Attorneys for the Cherokee Nation.

Commissioner Breckinridge: The record shows that notice of the taking of testimony was delivered to the applicant on the 25th day of September, 1901, testimony to be taken this day at Vinita; notice delivered by John Parks, Marshal of the Cherokee Nation.

G W. CLARK, being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give us your full name? A G.W. Clark.
Q How old are you? A I am 53 years old, going on 59.
Q What is your post-office address? A Vinita.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A All my life.

BY MR. DAVENPORT:

Q Where were you living at the breaking out of the war, Judge? A On Grand river; I was mustered out of the service on the last day of May, '65, and came there and was married there on the 3th day of June, and remained there ever since.

Q Did you know Uncle Joe Martin before the war? A Yes sir. And I lived neighbor to him after the war.

Q Did you know a slave, Nelse Martin, that belonged to him? A Yes sir.

Q You know whether or not he went out of the Nation during the war? A Yes sir, he went North during the war, refugeeed with the balance of the people and went to Kansas.

Q Did you see Nelse Martin after the war? A Yes sir, he went back in the neighborhood where I settled sometime after the war.

Q Did he carry his family when he went out during the war, or did he have a family? A Yes sir, I think his whole family went with him.

Q How when did he come back? A He moved back in the spring of '68; I think he came down on a visit in the fall of '67 and then he moved back in '68.

Q Did you learn from a conversation with him what place he went during the war, whether he went to Kansas, Missouri or where?

A He was in Kansas.

Q And he moved his family back in the spring of '68? A Yes sir.

Q Did you know the names of any of his family? A I guess I remember the names of most of them; he had a large family.

Q Did he have a girl named Jennie? A Yes sir, she married a fellow named Fred Martin; he used to belong to Joe Martin; he is a young black fellow, so he is not so young now.

Q Did he have a son named Harvey? A Yes sir, he had one named Harvey, but then there's several before him.

BY COMR BRECKINRIDGE:

Q Where did you say you saw Nelson Martin? A He moved right back there in the neighborhood.

Q Did you know him before the war? A Yes sir, I had seen him before the war.

Q. Who did he belong to? A. He belonged to old Uncle Joe Martin; he had him from the old Aunt Lucy Martin Homestead.

Q. Where did you see Nelson Martin during the war? A. I didn't see him during the war, he went to Kansas.

Q. Where were you during the war? A. I was in the Northern Army.

Q. Were you in the Territory here? A. Yes sir all the time, we were stationed there at Fort Gibson about two years after we got in there; we refuged back south in the States of Arkansas and Missouri down in there and then we come to Gibson in the spring and were stationed there practically all the time until I was mustered out there last day of May, '65.

Q. Your old home, how far was that from Gibson? A. About 18 miles from Gibson.

Q. Did Nelson Martin live near you? A. No sir, he lived up on the river near where I live now.

Q. You were ~~mustered out at Gibson~~ mustered out at Gibson? A. Yes sir on the last day of May, '65.

Q. And the first time you saw Nelson Martin after the war was in the spring of '68? A. I think he came down on a visit in the fall of '67, and then he moved in the spring of '68.

Q. Where were you living in the spring of '68? A. I was living on what is known as the Six Mile Bottom on Grand river, about 4 or 5 miles from where he settled when he come back, he settled on the place below there about 4 or 5 miles on the river.

Q. How do you know he came back from Kansas when you saw him in the spring of '68? A. He moved back here with ~~him~~ a couple of bay horses and he come over there to do some work for me, he was running out of provisions, and he worked ~~fast~~ off and on for me for years and years.

Q. How do you know he just come back from Kansas? A. He said he come back from Kansas, he said he lived in Kansas and went on and told me what he was doing up there.

Q. He said he just come back? A. Yes sir, well I believe I saw him when he first come back, I know I did, there was 3 or 4 of them together.

Q. Who was with him? A. There was an old colored man that used to belong to old Joe Lynch, called him Steve Lynch.

Q. He was with him? A. Yes sir.

Q. Is he living now? A. No sir, he is dead, and Nelson is dead too.

Q. Nelson had a son named Fred? A. No sir, son-in-law.

Q. Jennie Martin, was she his daughter? A. Yes sir, she married this Fred Martin.

Q. Married a man of the same name? A. Yes sir, but they belonged to the same man, but they wasn't no kin; this old uncle Fred Martin, this Fred Martin's father, his name was Fred too, and he belonged to Uncle Joe Martin and Jennie did too; Jennie was old Nelson Martin's daughter and Fred was Fred Martin's son.

Q. How old was Jennie when you saw her father Nelson in the spring of '68? A. She was young then, just a chunk of a girl like.

Q. That was before her marriage? A. Yes sir.

Q. Nelson you say is dead? A. Yes sir.

Q. Did he continue to live in the Cherokee Nation from '68? A. Yes sir, he continued to live right close to me, not a quarter from my fence.

Q. How long has Nelson been dead? A. I think about 2 years ago this spring.

Q. And Jennie came back with him? A. Yes sir, she moved back with him.

Q. Had quite a large family? A. Yes sir, quite a bunch of children that was under age, and then he had one John, I think he come afterwards, but he got into a fighting scrape and was killed in the neighborhood there.

3. N. L. Martin (supp'd) 3

Q Has this Jennie lived in the neighborhood ever since she came here? A Yes sir, I think so, and her family has lived right there in the neighborhood near me.

A. N. L. MARTIN, being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give your full name, please? A N. L. Martin.

Q How old are you? A Going on 54.

Q What is your post office? A Pensacola.

Q Can you name any of them? A Yes sir, I can name Art and Harvey and Jennie.

Q Do you know whether or not he had a daughter Jennie? A Jennie, and I believe that's all I remember that's living.

Q Nelson Martin is dead now himself, is he? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know any one who came down with him when he moved his family Mr. Martin? A No, I didn't see them.

BY COM' R BRECKINRIDGE:

Q You say Nelson Martin belonged to your father? A Yes sir.

Q Where did Nelson go during the war? A He went to Kansas.

Q When was it you first saw him after the war? A As well as I can remember it was in the spring of '67.

Q How long it in your mind as being in the spring of '67? A We came back in November, '66, and as well as I can remember.

Q Did you see him the next spring after that?

Q Well do you know when he had come back to the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, that's right.

Q How long after that?

Q Did you see him in the spring of '67 in the Cherokee Nation? A He came to our house.

Jennie Martin (sup:1)4

Q Do you know how long before that he had come back from Kansas?
A No I don't know only he said he had just come back then; come down to see us.

Q He said he had just come back? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know whether or not his family had come back with him?

A No, I don't think they did; he hadn't moved.

Q Do you know whether his family did come? A My understanding was they came the next spring after that.

Q You don't know that of your own knowledge however? A I didn't see him, I didn't see him move.

Q How was it you first saw his daughter, Jennie, after the war?

A Well I don't remember at all when I first took particular notice of her; I saw the family around there, I didn't go over there very often.

Q Now this daughter Jennie, has she been living in the Cherokee Nation ever since you first saw her after the war? A Yes sir, I think she has, all I know about it.

WALTER A. WEST, being sworn and examined by Commissioner Brackinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give me your full name, please? A Walter A. West.

Q How old are you? A 60 years.

Q What is your post-office? A Spavinaw.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A 60 years, little over.

Q All your life? A Yes sir.

BY MR. BRACKINRIDGE:

Q Did you know Joe Martin, prior to the war, Mr. West? A Yes sir.

Q Did you know a slave that he owned by the name of Nelson Martin?

A Yes, sir.
Q Now, whether or not Nelson left the country during the war?

A Yes, he did; he came down from Kansas before the war.

Q How long after the war did he come from Kansas, if you know, after the war? A About '68, best of my information and knowledge.

Q Is he living or dead now? A He is dead.

Q Did he have a family? A Yes sir.

Q Did you know any of the members of his family? A I know them all, but I don't know as I know the names of all of them.

Q Do you know the names of any of them? A John Nelson was one, and he had one named Arthur Nelson.

Q Arthur Nelson, a Martin? A Martin, and there was a girl I think, it seems to me like it was Jane, I ain't certain, and then there's one lives on Pock Creek, his name is, I don't remember now what it is, but I know it when I hear it.

Q Harvey? A Yes sir, Harvey!

Q Did you leave the Nation during the war? A Yes sir.

Q When did you return after the war? A I returned in February, '69.

Q How long had you been back before Nelson Martin came? A Well I came back in '66 and he got back here in '67.

BY MR. BRACKINRIDGE:

Q When fix it in your mind that you first saw Nelson Martin in '68?

A We had come down here in '68, that is I saw him not exactly in '68 either, but the latter part of, fall of '69 when I saw him personally.

Q Well, now, did you believe that he was here in the spring of '69? A Well this man Steve Lynch and Steve Henry, he went by two names, I met him in '68, I think in February or March, a short time, what month over there on the old Lynch farm; I don't know, pretty early and he come out and several others, and he come down to me, and said he had just got back. I said who come with him, he said Uncle Nelson and George Bryan, and I never saw

Jennie Martin (sup'1) j

Nelson that morning, but I saw him later on that fall; '68 instead of '69.

Q What was Steve Lynch doing there? A He had just got in, he said, the evening before. He said I come yesterday evening was the remark, and I asked him the question who come with him, and he said George Bryan and Uncle Nelson and that 's all I know about it then at that time, but I saw them later on; they both lived right in my neighborhood after that.

Q Do you know whether any members of Nelson Martin's family were with him at that time? A No sir; I suppose they were with him, I never asked any questions about whether they were with him.

Q You didn't see any of them at that time? A Not that morning. I saw them later on; none but Uncle Steve; that's all.

Department of the Interior,

Muskogee, I. T., May 31, 1902.

In the matter of the application of Harvey Martin for the enrollment of himself as a Cherokee freedman.

Applicant appears by Lewis T. Brown; Cherokee Nation by W.W. Hastings.

W. W. Hastings: The Cherokee Nation offers in evidence a judgment of the Supreme Court of the Cherokee Nation in 1871 as found in a book taken from the records of the Executive Department of the Cherokee Nation, entitled: "Docket of Doubtful cases for Cherokee citizenship tried in 1871 as follows: No. 70, Nelson Martin and family, decided against June 8, 1871."

Lewis T. Brown: Applicant objects to the introduction of this record for the reason that first, it is not proven that either the applicant or his father ever applied to that court for admission to citizenship and for the further reason that it is not shown that the Nelson Martin referred to in that judgment is ~~any~~ in any way related to the applicant.

Commission: The same will be filed and taken for what it is worth.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Jennie Martin et al., as Cherokee Freedmen, consolidating the applications of:

Jennie Martin	Cherokee Freedmen D 197
Harvey Martin et al	Cherokee Freedmen D 280
Arthur Martin	Cherokee Freedmen D 261
Harvey Martin	Cherokee Freedmen D 81
Isabella Brown et al	Cherokee Freedmen D 286
Rachel Todd et al	Cherokee Freedmen D 286
Richard Brown et al	Cherokee Freedmen D 291
Joe Martin	Cherokee Freedmen D 284
George Brown	Cherokee Freedmen D 297

D E C I S I O N.

The record herein shows that applications for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen, were made to this Commission by Fred Martin for his wife, Jennie Martin, among others, the other parties to said application being differently classified, are not embraced in this decision; by Harvey Martin for himself and minor children, Jordan, Perry, Mabel and Galatha Martin; that subsequent to the date of the original application, a birth affidavit, which is made a part of the record herein, was filed with the Commission showing the birth of Grover C. Martin; said application also included Gertie Martin, wife of said Harvey Martin, but as her name is not found upon any of the rolls of the Cherokee Nation at this time, she is not embraced in this decision; by Arthur Martin for himself and minor child, Harvey Martin; by Isabella Brown for herself and minor children, Warren, Lucinda, Dovie, Car and Alfred Brown; by Rachel Todd for herself and minor children, Henrietta, Louisa, Minnie, Julia, Viola and Opelia Todd; by Richard Brown for himself and minor children, Elsie and Isabel Brown; that subsequent to the date of the original application, a birth affidavit which is made a part of the record herein, was filed with the Commission showing the birth of Mary Brown; by Joe Martin for himself and by George Brown for himself.

The evidence shows that all the applicants herein, except Jennie Martin, were born since the commencement of the rebellion; that all of said applicants are the descendants of one Nelson Martin and his wife, Henny Martin; and that all, except Jennie Martin and Joe Martin, base their rights solely upon the rights of said Nelson Martin and wife, Henny Martin.

The evidence further shows that Nelson Martin, his wife, Henny Martin, and daughter, Jennie Martin, were slaves of a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the rebellion; that they were taken to Kansas during the rebellion and did not return to and establish their residence in the Cherokee Nation until after the time specified, in the decree of the Court of Claims, rendered February 3, 1896, in the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee, etc., vs Cherokee Nation, et al., for the return of Freedmen to the Cherokee Nation.

The evidence further shows that Joe Martin is the son of Martha Martin, nee Vann, who was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the rebellion; that Martha Martin was taken out of the Cherokee Nation during said rebellion, but returned thereto in the fall of 1866; and that the said Joe Martin has resided in said nation all his life.

None of the names of the applicants herein are found on the 1890 authenticated roll of the Cherokee Nation.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the applications for the enrollment of Jennie Martin, Harvey Martin, son of Nelson Martin, Jordan Martin, Perry Martin, Mabel Martin, Galatha Martin, Grover C. Martin, Arthur Martin, Harvey Martin, son of Arthur Martin, Isabella Brown, Warren Brown, Lucinda Brown, Dovie Brown, Car Brown, Alfred Brown, Rachel Todd, Henrietta Todd, Louisa Todd, Minnie Todd, Julia Todd, Viola Todd, Opelia Todd, Richard Brown, Essie Brown, Isabel Brown, Mary Brown and George Brown, as Cherokee Freedmen, should be denied, under the provisions of section twenty-one of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 496); and it is further the opinion of this Commission that Joe Martin should be enrolled as a Cherokee Freedman, in accordance with the provisions of said section twenty-one of the Act of Congress above cited, and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Gurtie Martin as a Cherokee Freedman.

DECISION.

THE RECORD IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That on May 15, 1901
Gurtie Martin appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at Vinita, Indian Territory, and made application for enrollment as a Cherokee freedman.

The record further shows that ample opportunity has been afforded the applicant in which to establish by satisfactory evidence her right to Cherokee freedman citizenship, if any she has, but in this she has entirely failed, hence, it is considered that her application comes within the ruling of the Department in the cases of Eliza Bryant et al. (I.T.D. 544-04), William Rector (I.T.D. 1468-04), Minnie Duncan et al. (I.T.D.
1470-04), Samantha Chambers (I.T.D. 2296-04), Ed Williams (I.T.D.
4230-04), Moses Ross (I.T.D. 6056-04), Jane Looney et al. (I.T.D.
6-10, 12688-04) Florence Bratcher (I.T.D. 12692-04) and Mary
Gunter, et al. (I.T.D. 7746-05).

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That, under the provisions of section Twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 ( 30 Stat., 495), Gurtie Martin is not entitled to enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman, and her application for enrollment as such is accordingly denied.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the motion for a rehearing of the application for the enrollment of Gertie Martin as a Cherokee freedman, F. D. 260.

Reply of the Cherokee Nation.

The record in this case shows that Harvey Martin appeared before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes on May 10, 1901, and made application for the enrollment of himself and his wife, Gertie Martin, as freedmen citizens of the Cherokee Nation. He testifies that the name of his wife's father was Penn Majors, that of his wife's mother Phyllis Majors. The record in this case shows also that the applicant was repeatedly notified to introduce such further testimony as he might desire with reference to his wife's citizenship, and the case was continued from time to time on the docket until a decision was prepared on December 27, 1905, rejecting the applicants in which the following language is used:

"The record further shows that ample opportunity has been afforded the applicant in which to establish by satisfactory evidence her right to Cherokee freedmen citizenship if any she has, but in this case she has entirely failed; hence it is considered that her application comes within the ruling of the Department in the cases of Eliza Bryant, et al. (I.T.D. 544-1904), William Rector (I.T.D. 1468-1904), Minnie Duncan, et al. (I.T.D. 1470-1904), Samantha Chambers (I.T.D. 2296-1904), Ed Williams (I.T.D. 4230-1904), Moses Ross (I.T.D. 6056-1904), Jane Looney, et al. (I.T.D. 6410, 12688-1904), Florence Bratcher (I.T.D. 12692-1904) and Mary Gunter, et al. (I.T.D. 7746-1905)."

The Department concurred in the recommendation of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs and affirmed the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes rejecting the applicant. The letter of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs of date May 10, 1906, recites:

"The record shows that after ample opportunity the applicant has failed to establish by satisfactory evidence her right to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, and her name is not identified on any roll of the Cherokee Nation; and for this reason recommended the approval of the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes rejecting the applicants. The motion for a rehearing filed herein really gives no reason why the case should be reopened. It does not state why advantage was not taken of the ample opportunity afforded the applicants to introduce testimony. Attached to the motion is an affidavit signed by Nelson

Thompson, but a careful examination of the affidavit shows that he states nothing. He states who the father and mother were of Gertie Martin, but that is stated in the testimony, and that is all that the affidavit of Nelson Thomson states, except that it does state that some of her relatives are identified upon the 1880 roll, yet every relative that she had might have been identified on the 1880 roll and yet the name of the mother of the applicant might not be there and might not be entitled to be there. Because they were brothers and sisters does not signify that they returned to the Cherokee Nation in time. The question of blood is not the question involved, but the question of complying with the treaty of 1866 is the question.

Attorneys for the applicant state that they are going to get some more affidavits. Now, the department has decided in the Celia Kirkpatrick case (I.T.B. 7744 and 7514-1904) as follows:

"The department does not feel warranted in remanding the case upon the motion of said attorneys unsupported by the affidavits of the witnesses whose testimony they desire to introduce."

Can it be said that the Department will lay down the rule that a motion supported by an immaterial affidavit only will be allowed upon the promise that material testimony will be gotten? We think certainly that the department will follow its ruling in the Celia Kirkpatrick case as above quoted from. If this motion is made in good faith, if the witnesses whose names are given intend to speak the truth, if it really be true that the applicant is entitled to be enrolled, attorneys for the applicant need not be afraid of an investigation of the truth. For more than four years and a half the office of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes was open and this applicant was warned and notified time and again to introduce testimony in her behalf. As observed in the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes and noted in the recommendation of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs ample opportunity was afforded this applicant. The affidavit attached is entirely insufficient and was built to the Act of Congress, Section 1, of the Act of April 26, 1906 (Public 129) was for the purpose of attempting to end this citizenship investigation in the Cherokee Nation and it required motions for review to be filed within sixty days after the decision sought to be reheard or reviewed. Congress has spent a great amount of money in an attempt to have the roll of the five civilized tribes completed. Ample opportunity has been given all applicants, and it was not the intention of Congress to permit attorneys to put in "holding motions" with a promise to afterwards secure testimony to back them up, but the motions should be bona fide and stand sufficient facts within themselves standing alone to a title to an favorable consideration on behalf of the Department and not a promise that future testimony would be secured. Future testimony was promised in the Gellinick v. United States Department in effect said that if a motion were made in good faith it should be supported by affidavits then and that an unsupported motion would not be considered.

We submit as was stated in the decision and by the Department affirming the decision of the Commissioner to the five civilized tribes that ample opportunity was afforded the applicant and that satisfactory testimony was not presented and we further submit that the motion does not state facts sufficient to warrant favorable consideration and it should be denied.

Respectfully submitted,

Assistant United States Attorney.

MOTION FOR REHEARING.

Comes now the applicant, Gurtie Martin, and moves the Honorable Secretary of the Interior to remand her case to the Honorable Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes and grant her a rehearing and give her an opportunity to prove that her mother's name was Phillis Johnson, who was the wife of Dave Johnson, and whose maiden name was Phillis Thompson; that her said mother, Phillis Thompson, was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the war of the rebellion and that she returned to the Cherokee Nation and established her residence therein prior to February 11, 1867.

There is hereto attached, in support of this Motion, the affidavit of her Uncle, Nelson Thompson, whose name appears upon the 1880 roll. In addition to the said Nelson Thompson the applicant expects to prove the statements she makes herein by John Melton, Martha Reynolds, and Sabina Youngblood, each of whom will testify that the mother of this applicant was named Phillis Thompson; that she was the slave of a Cherokee Citizen at the commencement of the war of the rebellion and that she returned to the Cherokee Nation and established her residence therein prior to February 11, 1867.

Dear Sir:

There is herewith enclosed a copy of the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated March 5, 1904, rejecting, among others, your application for the enrollment of yourself and your five minor children, Jordan, Perry, Mabel, Galatha and Grover C. Martin, as Cherokee freedmen. Your agent, Louis T. Brown, Vinita, Indian Territory, has heretofore been furnished with a copy of the record of proceedings and there has this day been forwarded to him a copy of the Commission's decision.

The decision, with the record of proceedings had in the case, has this day been transmitted to the Secretary of the Interior for his review and decision. The action of the Secretary will be made known to you as soon as the Commission is informed of the same.

Respectfully,

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

to the following:

OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,

WASHINGTON, September 29, 1904.

Land:

25163-1904.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to enclose herewith, a report from the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated April 11, 1904, transmitting the record of the consolidated applications for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen by Jennie Martin for herself; by Harvey Martin for himself and minor children, Jordan, Perry, Mabel, Galatha and Grover C. Martin; by Arthur Martin for himself and minor child, Harvey Martin; by Isabella Brown for herself and minor children, Warren, Lucinda, Dovie, Gag and Alfred Brown; by Rachel Todd for herself and minor children, Henrietta, Louisa, Minnie, Julia, Viola and Ophelia Todd; by Richard Brown for himself and minor children, Essie, Isabel and Mary Brown; by Joe Martin for himself, and by George Brown for himself.

March 5, 1904, the Commission decided favorably in the case of Joe Martin and unfavorably to all the others.

The record shows that all the applicants except Jennie Martin and Isabella Brown were born since the close of the war; that all of the applicants are the descendants of one Nelson Martin and his wife, Henny Martin; that all except Jennie Martin, Isabella Brown and Joe Martin base their rights solely upon the rights of Nelson Martin and Henny Martin, his wife. The evidence further shows that Nelson Martin, Henny Martin, his wife, and his daughters, Jennie Martin and Isabella Brown were slaves of a Cherokee citizen at the beginning of the war of the rebellion; that they were taken out of the Cherokee Nation during the war and did not return and establish a residence in the Nation prior to February 11, 1867.

The evidence further shows that Joe Martin is the son of Martha Martin, born Vann, who was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the beginning of the war of the rebellion; that Martha Brown was taken out of the Cherokee Nation during the war, but returned thereto prior to February 11, 1867, and that the said Joe Martin has resided in the Cherokee Nation all his life.

All of the applicants appear to be identified on the Kern-Clifton roll, and Richard Brown and Joe Martin are identified on the Wallace roll. None of the applicants is identified on the 1880 authenticated Cherokee roll.

In view of the record the approval of the Commission's decision favorable to Joe Martin and unfavorable to all the other applicants is recommended.

Very respectfully,

The Honorable,

The Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,

Muskogee I T

Dear Sir:

In re:

Application for the enrollment of Jennie Martin et al as Cherokee Freedmen, and cases consolidated therewith, we beg to say that we hereby petition that you transmit at once our motion for rehearing filed with this case together with the other papers connected therewith to the Honorable Secretary of the Interior and for cause state.

That the applicants in this case with the exception of Jennie Martin claim their right to be enrolled as descendants of one Nelson Martin; that Jennie Martin herself is a descendant of Nelson Martin but she came to the Cherokee Nation with Nelson Martin.

Nelson Martin lived in the Vicinity of Garnett, Kansas at the close of the Civil War and when he left Garnett, Kansas and came to the Cherokee Nation in 1866 he located on Grand river.

The case of Moses Riley et al has been remanded by the Department for rehearing and the Rileys lived in Kansas in the same neighborhood as did Nelson Martin and when they all came to the Cherokee Nation Nelson Martin located on Grand River a few miles further up than the Rileys and all of the witnesses in Kansas who will be present to testify in the Riley case will also be good witnesses for the descendants of Nelson Martin; we have talked with them and we expect to use them in the Jennie Martin case when a trial is had in that case. The witnesses in the Cherokee Nation in the Riley case are also excellent witnesses in the case of Jennie Martin et al as to the return of Nelson Martin.

If the Jennie Martin case could be tried at the time the case of Moses Riley et al is tried the expenses of the trial could be reduced very materially.

We have approximately fifteen witnesses in the State of Kansas who will testify in both cases and the mileage and per diem of witnesses from Garnett Kansas to the Cherokee Nation (Muskogee) is estimated at $24.00 each now therefore if the Jennie Martin case could be set for trial on the same date as the Riley case then when the Kansas witnesses come in to the trial of the Riley case they could be held over for the Jennie Martin case and the applicants in the Martin case would pay their proportionate share of the mileage and per diem of witnesses whereas if the trial was had later in the Jennie Martin case it would cost them just as much to bring these witnesses to the trial as it cost the Rileys in their case. The same reasoning would apply to the witnesses in the Cherokee Nation.

We also expect to bring to the trial of both cases Hiram Springs from Mattoon, Illinois, which town is located on the Big Four Railway about 135 miles Northeast of St. Louis; we will also bring Christian Shull from Sugra Grove Ohio. This place is about forty Miles south of Columbus Ohio. We also have Daniel A. Johnson at Fort Worth Texas and also a witness at Kawker City Kansas which is in Mitchell County a long distance west of Kansas City.

It is therefore plain to be seen that if the Jennie Martin cases were set for trial at the same time the Riley case is set the Martin case could be tried without extra expense and this would be a great saving to them.

In filing our affidavits in support of the motion for rehearing in this case we did not file the affidavits of all of our witnesses but only of a very small portion of them, but made a showing that we deemed sufficient for the purposes of the motion.

We therefore earnestly petition that you transmit our motion in this case to the Department and that it be made special so that early action might be secured on it.

In presenting this matter to you we desire to state, and have it distinctly understood, that in making this request we are acting for what we believe to be for the best interests of the applicants in order to save them from having to incur additional expense as herein set forth; that this request is made in good faith for the purposes herein shown; that we do not seek to have hasty action on the case for the purpose of seeking some advantage or to get a case without merit reopened. We sincerely and conscientiously believe that these applicants are entitled to be enrolled and that when we bring in our testimony as herein indicated that your office will enroll them or that when the case is tried this time that your office will be in a position to write a decision based upon all of the testimony that can be had in the case touching upon the rights of these applicants, and that these people will be saved of a heavy expense.

These applicants are poor people and early action on this motion as herein indicated and asked for by us will be the means of a great saving to them and the Riley cases need not be burdened by this case as we will not ask that the Martin cases be consolidated with any case.

Respectfully,

SIR:

There have been received two letters relative to the Cherokee freedman case of Jennie Martin et al, from their attorneys, dated respectively, August 27 and 30, 1906, urging the Department to direct you to submit at once a motion for rehearing in such case, alleged to have been filed in your office since April 26, 1906.

The case was the subject of departmental letters of November 2, 1904, and May 2, 1906.

SPECIAL

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is transmitted herewith a motion made by Starr & Patten, attorneys for applicants, Vinita, Indian Territory, for a rehearing of the Cherokee freedmen consolidated case of Jennie Martin et al. Said motion is supported by what purports to be sworn statements of J. M. Johnston, and Hiram Spriggs and affidavits of Nelson Moore, Thomas H. Moore, Simon Lynch, Moses Riley, Arthur Bean, Joe Bean, Leander Bean and Tobias Bean. This motion was received at this office June 2, 1906. The reply of the Cherokee Nation to said motion is also enclosed.

There is also enclosed a motion and statement by the attorneys for the applicants, which was received at this office on July 21, 1906. This motion and statement is supported by affidavits signed by Arthur Bean,

Secretary--2

Tobias Bean, Miriam Spriggs and Simon Lynch. The attorneys state that "these affidavits have been re-signed because of the objections of Counsel for the Cherokee Nation to their originals."

The records of this office show that the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes dated March 5, 1904, rejecting all of the applicants embraced in the Cherokee freedmen consolidated case of Jennie Martin et al. (D 197 et al.), except Joe Martin, was affirmed by the Department November 22, 1904 (I.T.D. 8710-1904). The motion herewith transmitted does not refer to the case of said Joe Martin.

The attorneys for applicants request a rehearing on the ground of newly discovered evidence, which they claim will show that Nelson Martin, through whom all of the applicants except Jennie Martin claim the right to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, and said Jennie Martin, returned to the Cherokee Nation prior to February 11, 1867. In the affidavits of J.M. Johnston and Miriam Spriggs the affiants state that Nelson Martin left Anderson County,

Secretary--3

Kansas, with his family and effects and went to the Cherokee Nation, Indian Territory, "in the spring of the year of 1866." In the affidavits of all the other parties the affiant merely state that Nelson Martin and his family located in the Cherokee Nation "in the fall of the year of 1866," or that Nelson Martin established a residence in the Cherokee Nation "prior to February 11, 1867."

The Cherokee Nation protests against this motion being granted, claiming that it does not show that with due diligence the evidence now sought to be introduced could not have been secured when the case was heard before the Commission, or that the applicants did not have ample opportunity to offer the same. The attorney for the Cherokee Nation states that Nelson Martin was denied citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by the Supreme Court of the Cherokee Nation (Daniels Court), on June 8, 1871, and in connection therewith refers to the Department's opinion of March 5, 1906 (I.T.D 10716-1906), in the Cherokee freedman case of John Morgan, wherein the Department refers to the opinion of the Assistant Attorney General of October 5, 1905, in the Cherokee freedmen case of Harry Still.

Secretary-4.

No affidavit by any of the applicants in this case is attached to show that the evidence which it is now sought to introduce is newly discovered, or that with due diligence it could not have been secured when the case was heard before the Commission, it being only stated that the same is newly discovered in the motion of said attorneys. With the exception of the affiants J. V. Johnston and Miriam Spriggs, all of the affiants live in the Cherokee Nation, and when the Commission was engaged in receiving applications for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, and hearing testimony in connection with pending applications, all of said affiants living in the Cherokee Nation testified in a number of pending cases. It is not reasonable therefore, to presume that with due diligence the applicants could not have learned of the knowledge of these affiants with reference to the return to the Cherokee Nation of Nelson Martin and the applicant Jennie Martin, or that they did not have knowledge of such fact at that time. The statements of J. V. Johnston, and Miriam Spriggs with reference to the time of the return to the Cherokee Nation of Nelson Martin is in conflict with all of the testimony heretofore introduced in the case, and with all of the other affidavits attached to the motion, it being nowhere claimed, except in the affidavits of the affiants, Johnston and Spriggs, that Nelson Martin and Jennie Martin returned to the Cherokee Nation "in the spring of the year of 1866".

Secretary--5

The preponderance of the evidence heretofore taken in the case shows that Nelson Martin and Jennie Martin did not return to the Cherokee Nation and establish a permanent residence therein, until, possibly, the fall of 1867 or the spring of 1868. This office does not consider that the showing made warrants the granting of the motion for a rehearing in this case, and it is therefore respectfully recommended that the motion be denied.

This office is in receipt of a letter from Starr & Patten, dated August 31, 1906, wherein they state that in the event a rehearing is granted in the case of Jennie Martin, they expect to introduce in the case practically the same witness as they desire to introduce at the hearing to be had in the Cherokee freedmen case of Moses Riley, et al., which case is consolidated with that of Katie Ridge, which was remanded to this office for a rehearing on July 9, 1906 (I.T.D. 17884-1905). said attorneys request that, as it would save great expense to the applicants in the Martin case, should a rehearing be granted therein, on account of the same witnesses testifying in both cases, their motion be made special.

Secretary--

In view of these statements by the attorneys it is respectfully recommended that their request be granted and that the motion for a rehearing in the Martin case be made special.

Respectfully,

September 26, 1906.

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Sir:

The Department has considered the motion for rehearing in the Cherokee freedman case of Jennie Martin, et al., submitted with your letter of September 1, 1906, and Indian Office letter of September 20, 1906 (Land 60461), in both of which it is recommended that the motion be denied, mainly on the ground that it is based upon newly discovered evidence and it is not shown that due diligence has been used by the claimants. For the same reason, and others, the attorney for the nation protests against the granting of the motion.

The decision of the Department affirming the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes adverse to all the applicants except one, was rendered November 22, 1904, of which the parties had due notice.

It is urged by the attorneys who filed the motion, that the case in all material particulars is similar to that of Katie Ridge, et al., which the Department, on July 9, 1906, remanded for rehearing. Said attorneys urge early action in view of the fact that they contemplate introducing in the Martin case the same witnesses used in the Ridge case, and state that it would thus save great expense to the applicants in the Martin case. Many things are stated in the original motion and the supplemental one which the attorneys "expect to prove."

The Department, of course, can not rely upon such statements, but must be governed by the affidavits in support of the motion. All such affidavits are of a general nature, mostly signed by mark, and merely alleging that Nelson Martin, through whom the applicants claim, and his family, were in the Cherokee Nation in the fall of 1866, some of the affidavits stating that such family established a residence there at that time. If a bona fide residence was established as the act of April 26, 1906 (34 Stat., 137), fixes should have been, the surrounding circumstances are not mentioned.

The Department has not considered it advisable in this class of cases to promulgate any strict rules governing, as to time, the filing of motions for review and rehearing. That, however, has been done by said act of April 26, 1906. The attorneys for the nation have not always been diligent in the filing of such motions. Considering the unsatisfactory nature of the affidavits in support of the motion under consideration, and the fact (which is not a newly discovered one) that Nelson

Martin and his family were rejected by the supreme court of the Cherokee Nation in 1871, and in view of the provision as to Cherokee freedmen in the act of April 26, 1906, the Department will not grant the motion.

In the opinion of the Assistant Attorney General of October 5, 1905, approved by the Department, in the case of Harry Still, the effect of an adjudication of the supreme court of the Cherokee Nation in favor of a Cherokee freedman claimant was found to be such that it should not be overturned "after impairment and loss of valuable evidence by the lapse of more than thirty years." Such adjudication, the opinion stated, should be followed "unless it appear that fraud was practiced upon the court, or the evidence then before the court and that now available before the Commission show that the conclusion of the court upon the case, for fraud or lack of evidence then available, was clearly wrong."

This being true as to claimants in whose favor the Cherokee supreme court rendered decisions, it is equally true with reference to claimants against whom decisions were made.

To warrant a rehearing in any such case a strong prima facie showing must be made by the affidavits in support of a motion for rehearing. The affidavits must set forth, with considerable detail, all of the alleged facts upon which the motion is based and relative to which the witnesses proposed to be introduced would testify.

While it is asserted in the motion, signed merely by the attorneys making it, that

"The applicants expect to prove by reliable and trustworthy witnesses that the said Nelson Martin was at Tahlequah Indian Territory to attend the session of the Daniels Court, when all of the Freedmen were down there and that Judge Daniels who was the Judge of the Court, told all of said Freedmen including Nelson Martin, to go home; that they did not want them there and that they were not at that time trying Freedmen cases, and that under the advice of said Court, the said Nelson Martin returned to his Home and was never thereafter called before said Court and that if a judgment was rendered against him it was a judgment by default without an opportunity being granted him to introduce the testimony he had in support of his case," there is not an affidavit presented in which any reference is made to the decision of the supreme court of the Cherokee Nation.

The motion is denied and the papers have been sent to the Indian Office. A copy of the Indian Office letter is enclosed.

Respectfully,

Thos Ryan

Sir:

On September 26, 1906, the Department denied a motion for rehearing in the Cherokee freedman case of Jennie Martin, et al. On the 22nd instant there was filed by local attorneys for the applicants a motion requesting that "final action" be not taken in this case under the decision of September 26, 1906, but that "the applicants herein be given a reasonable time within which to file supplemental affidavits which shall embrace in detail the evidence which the attorneys for said applicants have hereinbefore represented they were able to prove as to the circumstances connected with the establishment of a bona fide residence in the Cherokee Nation of the character fixed by the Act of April 26, 1906 (34 Stats. Said attorneys have been advised that the applicants will be allowed thirty days from this date to submit,

Muskogee, Indian Territory, December 18, 1906.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

The decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated March 5, 1904, rejecting all of the applications embraced in the Cherokee freedmen consolidated case of Jennie Martin, et al. (D197 et al), except Joe Martin, was affirmed by the Department November 22, 1904 (I.T.D.8710-1904).

September 1, 1906, this office transmitted a motion filed June 2, 1906, by Starr & Patten, Attorneys for applicants, Vinita, Indian Territory, for a rehearing of said case, except as to said Joe Martin. Said motion was denied by the Department, September 26, 1906 (I.T.D.18464, 16069-1906).

October 24, 1906 (I.T.D.16068, 13137-1906), the Department advised that:

"On the 22nd instant there was filed by local attorneys for the applicants a motion requesting that 'final action' be not taken in this case under the decision of September 26, 1906, but that 'the applicants herein be given a reasonable time within which to file supplemental affidavits which shall embrace in detail the evidence which the attorneys for said applicants have hereinbefore represented they were able to prove as to the circumstances connected with the establishment of a bona fide residence in the Cherokee Nation of the character fixed by the Act of April 26, 1906 (34 Stats.L.137), and that the conclusion of the Supreme Court of the Cherokee Nation affecting these cases by reason of fraud or lack of evidence then available was clearly wrong' "; and that:

"Said attorneys have been advised that the applicants will be allowed thirty days from this date to submit, through your office, such affidavits as they may desire to present"; and this office "is requested that should further proceedings be had by the claimants within the time specified, you will carefully consider the record as then made and submit all the papers to the Department with recommendation."

With their letter of November 1, 1906, attorneys for applicants submitted affidavits by Joe Davis, James Manspeaker, Tobias Bean, Moses Riley, George West Vann and Leander Bean; with their letter of November 9, 1906, they submitted affidavits by Simon Lynch, Columbus McNair and Jackson Davis; with their letter of November 16, 1906, they submitted a motion that the Commissioner examine the 1880 authenticated Cherokee roll, and cite the enrollment thereon of Nicey Mayfield, and affidavits by Christian Shull and Nicey Mayfield, and with their letter of November 23, 1906, they submitted a certificate by the Clerk of Anderson County, Kansas, certifying that the tax records, list of personal property assessed and the real estate records, in the possession of his office, for the years 1868, 1869 and 1870, for Monroe township, Anderson County, Kansas, do not contain the name of Nelson Martin, and an affidavit by George A. Campbell. All of said documents are enclosed. Proof of service upon the Attorney for the Cherokee Nation, of copies of said documents, is furnished.

The substance of the evidence now presented is that Nelson Martin, the ancestor through whom all of the applicants in this case, except Jennie Martin, claim the right to Cherokee freedmen citizenship, with his family, including the principal applicant, Jennie Martin, left Anderson County, Kansas, in the late fall or winter of 1866; went to the home of Anderson Lynch on Grand River in the Cherokee Nation, where it is claimed that Nelson Martin lived until the spring of 1867, when he built a house of his own and lived in it for two years, or until 1869, when he moved to near the farm of Judge G. W. Clark.

The affiants, Tobias Bean, Simon Lynch and Columbus McNair, state that Nelson Martin was not given a hearing by the Supreme Court of the Cherokee Nation in 1871, but that he was told "to go home" and that if he were needed the Court would send for him, and that the Court afterwards rejected him "by default".

Joe Davis states that he saw Nelson Martin a short time before Christmas, 1866, on Spring Creek, living in a house with Anderson Lynch, and that the next spring, Martin made a place of his own and lived there until the spring of 1869, when he bought a place near Judge Clark's, where he since continuously lived until the time of his death.

James Manspeaker states that "my recollection is that Nelson Martin and his family left that community (Garnett, Kansas) in the fall of the year of 1866 for the Cherokee Nation".

The statements contained in the affidavit of Tobias Bean are practically the same as those in the affidavit of Joe Davis, and in addition he states that Nelson Martin was not given an opportunity to introduce his evidence before the Cherokee Supreme Court in 1871.

The statements in the affidavit of Moses Riley as to the return of Nelson Martin are practically the same as in the affidavit of Joe Davis and Tobias Bean.

Moses Riley is an applicant for enrollment as a Cherokee freedman, and the question of his return to the Nation after the War of the Rebellion is pending before this office for a decision at the present time.

George West Vann states that "soon after Christmas, in the year of 1866, or early in January, 1867, I was down in the vicinity of Lynch's Prairie, on Grand River, and at that time Nelson Martin was living in a house near the river, and he continued to reside in the Cherokee Nation after that time until his death."

Leander Bean states that Nelson Martin, with his family, and Thomas Mayfield, with his family, including his wife, Nacey Mayfield, settled in the Cherokee Nation in November, 1866.

Simon Lynch makes practically the same statements, as to the return of Nelson Martin, as Leander Bean, and further states that Nelson Martin lived on several places in the Cherokee Nation "until he settled on a place of his own and lived on it a while and then bought a place in the community and lived on it until his death." He also states that Nelson Martin was not given an opportunity to introduce his evidence before the Supreme Court of the Cherokee Nation, and that the decision of said Court adverse to Nelson Martin was "by default".

Columbus McNair states that he was at the house of Nelson Martin in January, 1867; that the house was on Crap (Anderson) Lynch's place, and that there were two houses on said place, Nelson Martin living in one and Crap Lynch in the other. He also makes the same statements with reference to the case of Nelson Martin before the Supreme Court of the Cherokee Nation as do the other witnesses above referred to.

Jackson Davis makes the same statements with reference to Nelson Martin and the Cherokee Supreme Court as do the other witnesses.

Christian Shull states that he remembers "that in the fall of 1866 Nelson Martin left Anderson County, Kansas, to go to the Indian Territory to claim a headright that was due him if he got there within a certain time that was allowed."

Wacey Mayfield states that Nelson Martin and family returned to the Cherokee Nation in 1866, at the time she returned; that he lived neighbor to her in the Cherokee Nation from the time of their return until the time of his death; that her rights were not questioned by the Supreme Court of the Cherokee Nation in 1870 or 1871, and that her name appears upon the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

George A. Campbell states that he recollects that Nelson Martin and his family left Anderson County, Kansas, in the fall of 1866 and that he has not seen them in that community since.

In order for the applicants in this case to be entitled to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen under the provisions of Section 3, of the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906 (34 Stats.137), they must establish that they or their ancestors, through whom they claim the right to enrollment, actually returned to and established a personal bona fide residence in the Cherokee Nation on or before February 11, 1867.

The Department, on September 26, 1906, denying the former motion for a rehearing in this case and referring to the rejection of Nelson Martin and his family by the Supreme Court of the Cherokee Nation in 1871, states that:

"In the opinion of the Assistant Attorney General of October 5, 1905, approved by the Department, in the case of Harry Still, the effect of an adjudication of the supreme court of the Cherokee Nation in favor of a Cherokee freedman claimant was found to be such that it should not be overturned 'after impairment and loss of valuable evidence by the lapse of more than thirty years.' Such adjudication, the opinion stated, should be followed 'unless it appear that fraud was practiced upon the court, or the evidence then before the court and that now available before the Commission show that the conclusion of the court upon the case, for fraud or lack of evidence then available, was clearly wrong' "; and that:

"This being true as to claimants in whose favor the Cherokee Supreme Court rendered decisions, it is equally true with reference to claimants against whom decisions were made"; and

"To warrant a rehearing in any such case a strong prima facie showing must be made by the affidavits in support of a motion for rehearing. The affidavits must set forth, with considerable detail, all of the alleged facts upon which the motion is based and relative to which the witnesses proposed to be introduced would testify."

The former motion in this case was based upon the ground of newly discovered evidence, but the attorneys fail in this motion, as they did in the former one, to make any showing that the evidence now sought to be introduced is newly discovered, or that with due diligence it could not have been discovered when the case was originally heard before the Commission. There is nothing to show that the motion is made in good faith and not for the purpose of delay.

It is very noticeable in this motion that the place on which it is claimed that Nelson Martin and his family lived from the time they left the place of Anderson Lynch, in the spring of 1867, until the spring of 1869 when it is claimed they moved to near the place of Judge Clark, is not located. If they established an actual residence during that time it would appear that that fact would be the most easily proved.

Joe Davis, Tobias Bean, Moses Riley, George West Vann, Leander Bean, Simon Lynch, Columbus McNair and Jackson Davis all live in the Cherokee Nation, not a great distance from the place it is claimed Nelson Martin and family returned, and when the Commission was hearing testimony in Cherokee freedmen cases each of said parties testified in a number of cases. Nacey Mayfield also lives in the Cherokee Nation and has testified in several Cherokee freedmen cases. It appears that these witnesses could have been easily produced at the former hearings in the case. Joe Davis was twelve years old in 1866. Tobias Bean, Leander Bean and Simon Lynch are professional witnesses and their statements in freedmen cases have been repeatedly contradicted, and this office can state that the records in the different cases in which these witnesses have testified show that their testimony is not entitled to any weight. As has heretofore been stated, Moses Riley is an applicant for enrollment as a Cherokee freedman. October 13, 1905, his application was rejected by the Commissioner, the record in his case forwarded to the Department, and on July 9, 1906, his case was remanded to this office for a rehearing and is pending before it now. George West Vann, according to his affidavit, was thirteen years old in 1866. Simon Lynch has, in numerous cases, testified that he was convicted of larceny by the Cherokee Courts, but of late he has claimed that he was pardoned, at one time he testified by the Cherokee National Council, and at other times, by the Principal Chief of the Cherokee Nation. Jackson Davis was denied enrollment as a Cherokee freedman by the Commissioner for the reason that he failed to return to the Cherokee Nation within the time required by law, and the Commissioner's action was affirmed by the Department, November 30, 1906 (I.TD.17176-1906).

The statements to the effect that Nelson Martin was rejected "by default" by the Cherokee Supreme Court is not substantiated by the records. The docket of the Supreme Court of the Cherokee Nation shows the following entry: "Nelson Martin & family. Decided against claimants June 8th, 1871". This office cannot advise the Department as to the manner in which the Supreme Court of the Cherokee Nation conducted its proceedings in citizenship cases, but at a comparatively recent date this office finds, in investigating pending applications for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen and in which the Supreme Court of the Cherokee Nation rendered a decision adverse to the applicants, that the claim is made that the applicants were "told to go home" and "not given an opportunity to introduce their evidence." An examination of the docket of the Supreme Court fails to show that this claim is tenable. The docket shows that approximately 50% of the cases tried by the Supreme Court were granted, and it would be preposterous to think that the Court would tell the applicants "to go home", and that if they "were needed" they would be sent for, and the Court would afterwards admit the applicants. In a number of cases such notations as "too late", "state raised" and "sold out of the Nation" appear following the docket entries of the applicants. Notations also appear in a number of cases to the effect that the claimants were decided against by default. In a recent hearing had before this office in the Cherokee freedman case of Andy Webber, Messrs. Starr & Patten, also attorneys for said applicant, introduced the testimony of a witness for the purpose of identifying Andy Webber as being a son of one George Webber, in whose favor a decision was rendered by the Supreme Court of the Cherokee Nation in 1871, and that witness testified that he was present when the case of George Webber came up for hearing; that there were a great many freedmen before the Court at that time and that all of them were given a hearing and permitted to introduce evidence as to their right to Cherokee freedman citizenship.

The 1880 authenticated roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation contains the name of one Nycie Mayfield, at number 764, page 649, Saline District, aged 45 years, a native Cherokee. The right of Nycie Mayfield to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation could not be questioned for the reason that her name is found upon the Cherokee tribal roll of 1880. That the Cherokee Nation did not recognize the compliance of Nycie Mayfield with the terms of the treaty of 1866 is shown by the fact that the Supreme Court of the Cherokee Nation, in 1871, decided against her husband, Thomas Mayfield. This office has no information as to whether or not Nycie Mayfield is of Cherokee blood or by what authority her name was placed upon the roll of 1880. That there are names of persons appearing upon the roll of 1880 who are not entitled to be placed thereon, is conceded, as well as the fact that parties whose names are entitled to be on that roll are not thereon.

The certificate of the Clerk of Anderson County, Kansas, is negative in character, and this office fails to see the materiality of it. It contains nothing as to what the records of Anderson County, Kansas, show as to the name of Nelson Martin appearing thereon for the years 1866 and 1867.

Anderson Lynch, to whose house it is now claimed Nelson Martin and family came in 1866 and lived that winter, testified in the case prior to the rendition of a decision therein. He stated that Nelson Martin "came to my place in '66" and that he had his wife with him and rented a place from him in 1867 and made a crop thereon. He further stated that Nelson Martin (referring to the time he returned in 1866) "staid with me and camped out and then he made a crop the next year." Filmore Hicks, who also testified in the case on behalf of applicants, corroborated Anderson Lynch as to the time of the return of Nelson Martin, but stated that he did not see the family of Nelson Martin.

J. M. Johnson, (Judge) G. W. Clark, R. L. Martin and Walter A. West testified on behalf of the Cherokee Nation and stated that Nelson Martin did not return, and bring his family, to the Cherokee Nation until the spring of 1868, although Martin, himself, made a visit to the Cherokee Nation in 1867.

It appears that the evidence now sought to be introduced is merely cumulative, and could not overcome that heretofore introduced on behalf of the Cherokee Nation, or show that the decision of the Supreme Court of the Cherokee Nation in 1871, rejecting Nelson Martin, was clearly wrong. This office does not consider the showing made sufficient to warrant a rehearing being granted in this case, and it is, therefore, respectfully recommended that the motion be denied.

The record in the case is enclosed.

Respectfully,

Commissioner.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is enclosed report of Commissioner Bixby, dated December 18, 1906, in which he says that the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated March 5, 1904, rejecting all of the applicants embraced in the Cherokee freedman consolidated case of Jennie Martin, et al., except Joe Martin, was affirmed by the Department November 22, 1904, (I.T.D. 8710). On January 2, 1906, Messrs. Starr & Patten, attorneys for the applicants, of Vinita, Indian Territory, filed a motion for a re-hearing in this case, except as to Joe Martin. This motion was denied by the Department on September 26, 1906, (I.T.D. 18464-16068).

On October 22, 1906, the attorneys for the applicants filed with the Department a motion requesting that final action be not taken in this case, under the decision of the Department of September 26, 1906, but that the applicants herein be given a reasonable time in which to file supplemental affidavits.

On October 24, 1906 (I.T.D. 16068-13137), the Department advised Commissioner Bixby that the attorneys for the applicant.

had been notified that the applicants would be allowed thirty days from date to submit through the Office of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes such affidavits as they might desire to present.

Commissioner Bixby reports that with their letter of November 1, 1906, the attorneys for the applicants submitted affidavits by Joe Davis, James Manspeaker, Tobias Bean, Moses Riley, George West Vann, and Leander Bean. With their letter of November 9, 1906, they submitted affidavits by Simon Lynch, Columbus McNair, and Jackson Davis. With their letter of November 16, 1906, they submitted a motion that the Commissioner examine the 1880 authenticated Cherokee roll and cite enrollment thereof of Nicey Mayfield, and affidavits by Christian Shull and Nicey Mayfield, and with their letter of November 23, 1906, they submitted a certificate by the Clerk of Anderson County, Kansas, certifying that the tax-record, list of personal property assessed, and the real estate records, in the possession of his office, for the year 1868-'69-'70, of Monroe township, Anderson County, Kansas, do not contain the name of Nelson Martin, and an affidavit by George Campbell. All of the documents are enclosed?

In order that the applicants in this case be entitled to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen under the provisions of Section 3 of the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906, (34 Stat., L. 137) they must establish that they, or the ancestors through whom they claim right to enrollment, actually returned to and established bona-fide residence in the Cherokee Nation on or before February 11, 1867.

Commissioner Bixby reports that the attorneys for the applicants herein failed to make any showing that the affidavits now sought to be introduced are newly discovered, or that with due diligence this evidence could not have been discovered when the case was first heard before the Commission. There is nothing to show that the motion is made in good faith and not for the purpose of delay.

Inasmuch as the evidence now sought to be introduced is merely cumulative, and cannot overcome that heretofore introduced on behalf of the Cherokee Nation, the Office does not consider the showing made sufficient to warrant a re-hearing being granted, and it therefore concurs in the recommendation of Commissioner Bixby that the motion be denied.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

February 21, 1907.

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Sir:

December 18, 1906, you transmitted a motion for a rehearing with affidavit in support thereof, in the Cherokee freedman consolidated cases of Jennie Martin, et al., wherein the Department on November 22, 1904 (I.T.D.8710), affirmed the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes of March 5, 1904, adverse to all the applicants named therein, except Joe Martin, whose enrollment was granted as a Cherokee freedman.

The affidavit filed in support of said motion consist of Cumulative evidence tending to show that Nelson Martin, and the members of his family, left their place near Garnett, Kansas, in the fall or winter of 1866 and returned to the Cherokee Nation and established such actual personal bona fide residence in the Cherokee Nation prior to February 11, 1867, as is required by the act of April 26, 1906 (34 Stat., 137), and that the decision of the Supreme Court of the Cherokee Nation in 1871 adverse to applicants was made by default without notice to applicants of a hearing had and from lack of evidence.

Although applicants may have made prima facie showing, the Department is not warranted in ordering a rehearing in this case, in view of the limited time allowed by the act of April 26, 1906, (34 Stat., 137), for completing the citizenship rolls of the Five Civilized Tribes in the Indian Territory on or before March 4, 1907, and therefore refuses to grant said motion for rehearing at this time. Said motion for rehearing is hereby denied.

You will advise applicants and their attorneys of this action. The Indian Office has this day been requested to notify local counsel of the action taken.

The record has this day been returned for the files of the Indian Office, together with a carbon copy hereof.

A copy of Indian Office letter of February 16, 1907, recommending the above action, is enclosed.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

Referring to Departmental letter of May 21, 1906, (I.T.D. 8856-1906), affirming the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, rejecting the application for the enrollment of Gurtie Martin as a Cherokee freedman, I have the honor to transmit herewith a communication from the Commissioner dated February 4, 1907, enclosing a motion for re-hearing, filed by Starr & Patton, of Vinita, I.T. There is attached to the motion an affidavit of Nelson Thompson, who signs by a mark; also the reply of the attorney for the Cherokee Nation, filed July 27, 1906.

The record shows that application was made for the enrollment of Gurtie Martin on May 15, 1901; That she was repeatedly notified to appear with witnesses and establish her right to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman, and that for a period of more than four years the case remained open and she failed utterly to make any satisfactory showing of her right to enrollment as a freedman citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes was rendered against her on December 27, 1905, and this decision was affirmed by the Department May 21, 1906 (I.T.D. 8856-1906). The motion filed herewith for re-opening and re-hearing is unsatisfactory, and does not in any way comply with the rules in such cases. No showing is made in the motion that is not filed for the purposes of delay. There is nothing to show that the evidence now sought to be introduced is newly discovered, or that it could not have been procured during more than four years that the case remained open by the use of any sort of diligence whatever. The Office sees no reason for re-opening the case, and therefore concurs in the recommendation of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes that the motion be denied.

Very respectfully,

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Sir:

On February 26, 1907 (Land 14930-07), the Indian Office transmitted your report dated February 4, 1907, forwarding a motion for rehearing in the matter of the application of Gurtie Martin for enrollment as a freedman of the Cherokee Nation.

You consider that there is nothing to show that the evidence now sought to be introduced is newly discovered, and that the record shows that the applicant used no diligence in attempting to show her right to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman. You recommend that the motion be denied. The Indian Office concurs in your recommendation. A copy of its letter is enclosed.

In view of Section 2 of the Act of April 26, 1906 (34 Stat., 137), even though a prima facie case for a rehearing was presented, the Department would not be warranted at this time in ordering a further hearing. The motion is accordingly denied.

The papers in the case, together with a carbon copy hereof, have been returned for the files of the Indian Office.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Vinita, I.T., May 15, 1901.

In the matter of the application of Lewis Martin for the enrollment of himself, his wife and one child as Cherokee Freedmen.

Lewis Martin, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Lewis Martin.
- Q Who is it you want to apply for, anybody besides yourself?
- A Just one child.
- Q Yourself and one child? A Yes, sir.
- Q Is that child under 21 years of age? A Yes, sir.
- Q Is it unmarried? A Yes, sir.
- Q Never been married? A No, sir.
- Q How old are you? A Me, I am about 64 years old.
- Q What is your post office? A Chelsea.
- Q In what district do you live? A Cooweescoowee.
- Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A I have been living in the Cherokee Nation more or less ever since '66.
- Q Where did you live before '66? A Before '66 I lived here till the breaking out of the war I went to Kansas.
- Q You said you had been living in the Cherokee Nation more or less since 1866? A I was running around, I have been in the Cherokee Nation, I never lived anywhere particular, worked around, I worked in Kansas some of the time, my home has been here ever since '66.
- Q Where did you live before the war broke out between the North and South? A I lived on Grand River.
- Q Were you a slave in that time? A Yes, sir.
- Q Were you a slave at the time the war broke out? A Yes, sir.
- Q He is in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
- Q To whom did you belong? A Joe Martin.
- Q Was he a Cherokee citizen? A Yes, sir.
- Q Have you been duly recognized and admitted to the rolls as a Cherokee Freedman? A No, sir, I am not.
- Q Give me the name of your father? A My father's name was Harry Martin, was my owner's name.
- Q Is he dead? A Yes, sir.
- Q Has he been dead how long? A Well, I don't know, he died during of the war.
- Q Give me the name of your mother? A Celis.
- Q Is she dead? A Yes, sir.
- Q How long since she died? A I don't know, about ten or twelve years as near as I can remember.
- Q Was she a Cherokee Freedman? A Yes, sir.
- Q Was she duly recognized as a Cherokee Freedman? A No, sir, she was too old to ever get around to be recognized.
- Q Give me the name of your child? A Ernest Martin.
- Q How old is the child? A I think, as well as I can remember, it is about 18 years old.
- Q Is your child living now? A Yes, sir.
- Q Give me the name of the mother of that child? A Sarah.
- Q Your wife Sarah? A Yes, sir.
- Q Is she dead? A No, sir.
- Q She is living, is she? A Yes, sir.
- Q Have you and she parted? A No, sir.
- Q Why do you not apply for her? A Well, because she is a non citizen, she isn't a citizen.
- Q When did you marry Sarah? A I married her I thin about '64.
- Q Where did you marry her? A Married her in Kansas.
- Q Have you and ~~she~~ lived together as husband and wife ever since 1864? A Yes, sir.
- Q How old is your wife? A I think, as well as I can remember, she is about 54 years old.

Lewis Martin - 2.

Q What district were you living in in 1880, or were you living in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.

Q What district were you in? A I was in Cooweescoowee part of the time.

Q Are you on any of the rolls of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q Have you ever drawn money? A Yes, sir.

The 1880 authenticated roll of Cherokee Freedmen examined and the applicants not identified thereon.

The 1896 census roll of Cherokee Freedmen examined and the applicants not identified thereon.

A I am not on that I know: I know the reason why I am not.

Q Did you draw Cherokee strip money? A Yes, sir.

The Korns-Clifton roll examined, and the applicants identified thereon as follows:

Ernest Martin on page 158, No. 3918, Cooweescoowee district.

Sarah Martin not on Korns-Clifton roll.

The Wallace roll examined and the applicant Lewis Martin ~~exam-~~ ~~ined~~ identified thereon, page 131, No. 2742, Cooweescoowee district.

Q Your wife Sarah, she is not on any roll at all? A No, sir, she's not a citizen.

Q Were you ever married except to her? A Yes, sir.

Q How many times were you married before you married her? A Only once.

Q Was your wife dead when you married Sarah? A Yes, sir.

Q Was Sarah ever married except to you? A Well, no, sir, she wasn't married before she married me.

Q Hadn't she ever lived with a man as husband and wife? A No, sir.

Q Well now, how comes it you are not on the roll of 1880; didn't you apply? A The reason I didn't apply a man used to live with me and another fellow I was acquainted with, he had went to enroll and they told him they wasn't enrolling any negroes that has been in Kansas, and I knew I had been there, and didn't go.

Q How comes it you are not on the 1896 roll? A I am not on the 1896 roll: I went towards the enrolling, I didn't go for that purpose, and I asked the question, what are you doing, and a man told me they were taking a roll of the Cherokees, and I didn't pay any more attention, I just walked off, I knew I wasn't any Cherokee.

Q You were up in Kansas during the war? A Yes, sir.

Q What time did you come from Kansas? A Come back in the fall of '66.

Q How did you happen to come back in '66? A Well, the postmaster was reading the paper, and he told me, and he asked me did I live in the Cherokee Nation before the war, and I told him yes, sir, and he said you people that belong in that Cherokee Nation down there have the same rights as they have, says if you will go back, and I told him at the time I didn't care nothing about it, I was a little afraid and he says don't be afraid, they have made a treaty and if you all go back you have the same rights as they have, and I pulled up and started.

Q You came back when you heard of that treaty? A Yes, sir.

Q You came back in order to keep your being in Kansas from counting against you? A I don't understand that.

Q Did you come back so as to be within the time fixed by the treaty?

A Yes, sir, that is what I aimed to do.

Q Did you understand that if you came back within a certain time that your being in Kansas wouldn't count against you? A Yes, sir, he told me if I came back in '66, he says you will be a citizen of that country.

Q That is what you understood at the time? A That is the way I understood it.

Q Was that your object then in coming back in '66? A Yes, sir.

Lewis Martin - 3.

that was my object.

Q So as to get your rights? A So as to get my rights.

Q So your being in Kansas wouldn't be counted against you? A That is what I thought.

Q How comes it when you went to enroll in 1880 you didn't go on up to be enrolled, when somebody mentioned you had been in Kansas?

A Well, I told you one reason I didn't go; I didn't have any one to go with me, I had got bushwhacked once and I was afraid to go around much, I was bushwhacked coming back from Kansas and three got killed out of my crowd.

Q Were you still afraid of that in 1880? A Yes, sir, I was still afraid of that and I am still afraid of running about by myself.

By J.S. Davenport, Cherokee Attorney: Where were you living in 1880?

A I didn't have any established home, I was working around living along with my people, with my brother's wife, Junie, I didn't have any regular home, I didn't stationary myself at all, because I was hard up and didn't have nothing.

Q Did you have any family? A I have got a family, but a family wasn't with me.

Q Where was your family in 1880? A They were here sometimes.

Q Wasn't they living in 1880 in Kansas? A They was here part of the time in 1880 and part of the time in Kansas.

Q What part of the time in 1880? A I can't tell you just what month they were here, they were there some and some here.

Q The some they were making the roll down here they were that some up in Kansas? A No, sir, they wasn't.

Q When you came back from Kansas just after the close of the war, what year was that you came back to the Territory? A I came about '66.

Q Didn't you come back first according to your own testimony in '65? A I came back here and went to Fort Gibson driving a train in '65 or '64.

Q And you went back to Kansas after that? A Yes, sir.

Q And the next time you came back was in '67? A No, I came here in '66, I came here in '66 sure.

Q You testified before the Kerns-Clifton Commission, didn't you?

A Yes, sir.

Q Didn't you testify there that you came down to the Territory in '65 and made a crop, went back to Kansas, and then came back?

A No, sir.

Q (Reading) I was bushwhacked on my way to Fort Gibson on Horse Creek, they killed three of our crowd, I came back the last time in 1867. Now did you testify to that or not before the Kerns-Clifton Commission? A I did not, it was a mistake somehow or other, for it was in '66 when I came back.

Q For sever 1 years you lived in Kansas and the Territory and back and forth just anywhere? A I lived in Kansas not a year since '66.

Q But you have been living there? A I have worked there, I am living anywhere where a man stops.

Q Did your wife and children live up there for quite a while after 1866? A No, sir.

Q Did they ever live there at all? A Lived there; when she wanted to go back there, when she wanted to be confined, her mother lived there, and she would like with her.

Q Where did you first locate and make a home in the Cherokee Nation after you came back.

A I didn't build any place, I just located on Pryor Creek right close to my sister, and I just kept an improvement up there, the claim.

Q What part of Pryor Creek.

A I can't tell you; close where my sister lives, eight or ten miles north of Chelsea.

Q When was that? A I can't tell you, that has been 18 or 19 years ago.

Q That was the time you came back from Kansas? A No it wasn't.

Lewis Martin - 4.

Q Where did you live in the Cherokee Nation before you lived p there on Pryor Creek? A I lived some here in Vinita around north of Vinita and south of Vinita.

Q Who was living in Vinita at the time? A Lots of people, I don't know.

Q About what year was that? A I can't tell you just what year that was either.

Q Was that before or after the railroads were built to Vinita?

A It was after the railroad was built I lived here.

Q Did you come to Vinita and locate immediately after you came from Kansas? A No, sir.

Q Where did you locate before you came to Vinita? A I tell you I stayed a while with Mose Riley before that, they are relations of mine, I stayed with them.

Q Where did Mose Riley live? A He lived out west of Chelsea, northwest a while.

Q That is where your sister lived? A No, I have got no sister, I have one sister living, none out there, no, sir.

Q Where did you live before you went to Mose Riley's, after you came back to the Cherokee Nation? A I tell you I never had any stationary home at all, I just lived here and there, where I could get a job, I never build.

Q You had one sister living on Pryor Creek north of Chelsea? A My sister Junie, yes, sir.

Q Where did the other people live you stayed with? A I tell you I never stayed with none, I just went around with my kin people, I stayed a while with Riley and I stayed at my sister's and I stayed at Dave Martins on Big Creek, and another cousin of mine called Nellie Wilson.

Q Who did you stay with when you were living in Vinita? A I stayed with my own people.

Q Who were you own people? A My family, they were living in Vinita then. XXX

Q Did they have any name? A Yes, sir.

Q Why can't you tell the name? A There was my wife, and Bill my stepson.

Q Bill who? A Bill Martin they called him, and George Martin, Fred Martin, Jannette Martin.

Q They were all living here in Vinita at that time? A Yes, sir.

Q Where was that town in Kansas that they postmaster called your attention to the treaty being made? A It was in a little town they call Mapleton.

Q Was there any railroad there at that time? A No, sir.

Q How far was it to a railroad from where you lived? A I can't tell you, I don't recollect whether there was any railroad at all.

Q About how far from the Cherokee line? A I can't tell you that.

Q Was it in sight of the line? A In sight; why not that I know of.

Q How long did it take you to reach the line of the Cherokee Nation when you started? A I don't know where the line was and don't yet.

Q Where do you live now? A I live near Chelsea.

Q You have lived here since '66 you say? A Yes, sir, from time I say I was here living.

Q And you don't know where the line of the Cherokee Nation is between the Nation and Kansas? A No, I don't.

Q Have you ever been back to Kansas since '66? A Yes, sir.

Q How do you know when you got back to Kansas? A When I come to the town I know it was Kansas.

Commissioner: How many children have you altogether? A I have five I believe, as well as I can recollect.

Q What are their names; what is the name of the oldest one?

A My oldest one is named John.

Q How old is John? A I don't know just exactly, I can't tell, he is something in thirty.

Lewis Martin - 5.

Q What is the name of the next child? A George.

Q How old is George? A George I think is thirty something too.

Q The next child? A Fred.

Q How old is Fred? A He is 24 or 25, I just can't remember their ages, I haven't got them down.

Q What is the next child after Fred? A Albert.

Q How old is Albert? A He is about 21 years old.

Q What is the next child? A He is about 12.

Q What is his name, Ernest? A Yes, sir.

Q That is the child you are applying for? A Yes, sir.

Q Where was John born? A John was born in Kansas.

Q Where was George born? A In Kansas.

Q Where was Fred born? A In Kansas.

Q Where was Albert born? A Kansas.

Q Where was Ernest born? A Out here near Chelsea.

Q Are you keeping house in the Cherokee Nation now? A Yes, sir.

Q Where is your house? A My house is out about three miles north of Chelsea..

Q How long have you lived there? A 13 or 14 years, as well as I can recollect.

Q Been living there in that one house? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you ever keep house before that? A No, not always.

Q Have you any other children besides these five you have named here? A Yes, there is another child there, he is a stepchild.

Q Have you any children of your own I mean, you and this wife? A Yes, sir, I had one.

Q That one is dead? A Yes, sir.

Q What was the name of that child? A She was named Eliza.

Q How old would she be if she was living now? A I can't tell you, she was born before the war.

Q She was older than John? A Yes, sir.

Q Where was she born? A She was born here in the Territory before the war.

Q Before the war you think? A Well, I think just about the beginning of the war, or maybe before.

Q Is she the child of this woman Sarah? A No, sir.

Q Child of another woman? A Yes, sir, she is dead.

Q That is the first wife you had? A Yes, sir.

Q You say that you and your family have never kept house except in the house where you are living now? A No, never kept house, never have, I brought all my things here in '66, I never had nothing, and left them up on Spring Creek and never got them.

Q Has your wife been with you all the time in your roving backwards and forwards? A No, she wasn't with me, some times I would send for her and sometimes I would go myself, send her back to her mothers.

Q To Kansas? A Yes, sir, her mother lived there.

Q Sometimes you would take her? A No, I never took her myself nary a time.

Q Well, now you told me that you had been living in the Cherokee Nation off and on, and you have been in Kansas, and to the Cherokee Nation off and on? A I have been there yes, sometimes.

Q Now all your information is of an extremely indefinite character; can't you tell me in plain, practical, common-sense way just where you and your wife and all these children have been spending your time since 1866? A Yes I can tell you.

Q Well, do it? A Well, I tell you.

Q Give me the names of the places and the times you have lived at these places; you have had too much of a family ust to be a rolling stone all the time? A Well, they were not rolling all the time. Three of these children has stayed with their mother, their grandm ther, the biggest part of the time.

Lewis Martin - 6.

Q I am talking about you too? A Well maybe I was here working around and sometimes I would work up there in Kansas, I would work sometimes ~~in~~ two months or three months and I would come down here.

Q Have you had any settled abiding place at all? A No, sir, not a year at a time.

Q Have you not been stationed at one place for several years?

A No, sir, not since 1866, on up till 1880, no, sir.

Q Not being staying as much as one year at a place? A Yes, I have stayed as much as a year.

Q How many times have you stayed at one place as much as one year?

A Many a time but once.

Q When was that? A I can't tell you the year at all, it has been some time ago.

Q Was it before 1880? A I think it was as well as I can remember.

Q Just worked from pillar to post? A Just worked where I could get a job.

Q And your wife not going around on these little trips with you?

A No, sir.

Q Did you ever vote up there in Kansas? A No, sir.

Q Have you anybody here who knows that you and your wife have been married? A Yes, sir.

Q Who is there here? A Tobe Bean.

Tobe Bean, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows

Q Give me your name? A Tobe Bean.

Q How old are you? A About 62 years old.

Q What is your post office? A Vinita.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Been living here all my life.

Q Do you know this applicant here, Lewis Martin? A Yes, sir.

Q How long have you known him? A Been knowing him forty or fifty years I guess, we were boys together.

Q Do you know his wife? A Yes, sir.

Q What is her name? A Sarah.

Q Was this man ever married except to this woman? A Yes, sir.

Q How many times? A ~~XXXXXXXXXX~~ Once is all I know of.

Q Was that wife dead when he married this woman? A Yes, sir.

Q About how long have he and this woman Sarah been married?

A Must be thirty some odd years I guess.

Q Have they been living together ever since as husband and wife?

A Yes, sir, to my knowing.

Q Where did you first know his wife Sarah? A Up in Kansas at Mapleton.

Q Where is she at that time? A She is up on Panther Creek.

Q How long has she been living out there? A I don't know how long she has been living there.

Q How far is that from Vinita? A About twenty miles, out the other side of Chelsea.

Q Has she been living there long? A Yes, sir.

Q Is she keeping house out there? A Yes, sir.

Q Who lives there with her? A Mr. Martin here and his family lives there.

Q Any children living there with them? A Yes, sir.

Q You don't know how long they have been living out there?

A No, sir, I don't know exactly.

Q You think that is twenty miles or some such matter from Vinita?

A Yes, sir.

Q Have they been living there as much as five years? A Yes, sir, longer than that I guess.

Q They been living there as much as seven years? A Yes, sir, I reckon seven years or longer, been longer I guess, I don't know exactly when he moved there; I live out east here and he lives west out there.

Lewis Martin - 7.

Q Have you ever been to that house? A Yes, sir, been to that house.

Q You know just where it is? A Yes, sir.

Q How often have you as a general thing seen this man Lewis Martin, say along for the last twenty years; seen him every six or eight months? A Yes, sir, sometimes about a year before I see him, we live a good piece apart to see him pretty often.

Q What do you know about his doings along from '66 down to this time, where has he been living? A Living at Vinita a while, and Pryor Creek, and I don't know where he did live.

Q A man who has got a family of children and a wife, generally every man has some kind of a living place, where has he been making his home mostly since '65 or '66, since the war closed? A Out on Pryor Creek I reckon, but he lives a good piece from e, I haven't been keeping the run of him; I see him once in a while though.

Q You have been seeing him every six or eight months or a year?

A Yes, sir, sometimes maybe a year.

Q And you don't know where he has been living during that time?

A No, sir.

Q Can you name any place that he has been making his home except out there on Panther Creek? A Lived here at Vinita a while.

Q How long did he live in Vinita? A I don't know exactly how long, I know he made a crop or two.

Q Do you know where he has been, any other place except Panther Creek and Vinita? A I heard he was living on Pryor Creek, I never seen him when he lived down at there.

Q That is all you can say about where he has been living and all that? A Yes, sir.

Mr. Davenport: Where was he living when you first got acquainted with his wife Sarah? A In Kansas.

Q About how long has that been? A About thirty some odd years ago.

Q Do you know whether or not he moved from Kansas to this place out here north of Chelsea where he is living with his family now?

A No, sir, I don't think he did, for he lived at Vinita before he moved there.

Q Do you know whether or not his family ever lived at Vinita?

A Yes, sir.

Q Anywhere near this place out there near Rollin K. Adair's place out north from there? A I don't know, I know his place must be three miles northwest of Chelsea.

Lewis Martin, recalled, testified:

Commissioner: The Commission has not yet decided whether a person can acquire rights as a Freedman by intermarriage, and your wife, if you have rights, may have rights as an intermarried Cherokee Freedman. So you had better ~~sure~~ include her in your application. You agree to that, do you? A Yes, sir.

Commissioner: The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife and one child. The applicant is identified on the Wallace roll and on the Kerns-Clifton roll. He is not identified on the roll of 1880 or on the census roll of 1896. The testimony in regard to his residence after the war will need to be carefully considered. It is not contested that he was a Cherokee slave before the breaking out of the war, and he will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman on a double card.

His wife is not identified on any roll, but it is shown in a satisfactory manner that they were married some thirty four or more years ago. The applicant states that he was once

Lewis Martin - 8.

Previously married, but this former wife was dead when he married his present wife, and that this present wife was never married except to him. They were married in the State of Kansas. For the further consideration of her rights, she will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman on a doubtful card.

The child Ernest Martin, said to be 12 years of age, and now living, is identified on the Kerns-Clifton roll, but not upon the census roll of 1896. ~~Transchildren~~ This child will now be listed with his father and mother as a Cherokee Freedman on a doubtful card.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR
COMMISSION TO THE
FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES
AUG 11 1901

File with Cherokee Freedman, D-289, Lewis Martin

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Chelsea, I.T., June 12, 1901.

In the matter of the application of Tobias Bean et al. for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen.

Appearances:

Mellette & Smith, attorneys for applicants;
W. W. Hastings, of counsel for Cherokee Nation.

JESS COCHRAN, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Mr. Hastings: What is your name? A Jess Cochran.

Q What is your age? A About 53.

Q Where were you born? A Here in the Cherokee Nation.

Q Cherokee by blood? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you go out of the Nation during the war? A No, sir.

Q Where did you live in '65 and '66? A Out here on Grand River, it was known as the Johnson Thompson place.

Q A brick house there? A Yes, sir.

Q Mr. Cochran, was your father living with you in '65? A Yes, sir.

Q When did your father die? A In the fall of '66, he was killed the 22nd of October.

Q Where was he killed? A On the military road at what was known as the Bob Daniels place.

Q How far was that from the place you are living? A It is about three miles.

Q On that side of the Grand River were you living? A It would be on the west side, same side the military road was.

Q Do you know Bob Daniels Knight, who is a witness here in this case

A No, sir, not that time.

Q You didn't know him then? A No, sir.

Q Do you know him now? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you take any steps after your father's death to apprehend, to catch the people who did the killing? A Yes, sir, I went and got the sheriff and his posse, we were trying to find the man that killed him, his name is Lewis Vitteteau.

Q Where did you go? A I went up right northwest on what is known as Cabin Creek, over near the Lee Schrimsher place, and couldn't see any track of a wagon, which I thought he had gone and left in a wagon, and then I come across northeast in the direction of Horse Creek and I found the place what was known as the old Knight place, it would have been about the first of November.

Q After your father was killed? A Yes, sir.

Q Was anyone living there at that time? A No, sir, there wasn't anyone there at all.

Q You made an examination of the house at that time? A Well, we just rode around there, there wasn't a soul in there, it was open and vacant, I had been there before.

Q You made an examination and wasn't anybody living there? A No, sir.

Q Did you have occasion to pass by this same house after that?

A Yes, sir.

Q About how long after this? A It was along in about, I would say about the 10th or 15th of December.

Q Of what year? A The same year.

Q Was anybody living there at that time? A No, sir.

Q Do you know who afterwards lived in that house? A No, sir, I don't.

Q You know that place it was called, known as? A Oh yes, I know it was the old man Knight place.

Q On what creek? A It was near Horse Creek.

Q When did you move away from the Thompson place on Grand river?
A In the spring of '67.

Q Up to that time, did you hear of any fight made upon any negroes on Horse Creek in the Cherokee Nation?

Mr. Mellette: I object to the question as not material in this case. It is pure hearsay.

Mr. Hastings: It is a circumstance that unquestionably ought to be admitted.

Commissioner: I don't think that is a material question.

Q Did you know of any? A Only just heard of it.

Q Did you hear of it at that time? A In 1867, the fall that I went down to Cabin Creek to the store, a man by the name of Maul was selling goods there, and they told me the soldiers had just passed.

Q Don't tell what they said, the others. A That is the only way I got any information there had been a fight.

Q You hadn't heard of any fight before you went to the Knight place in '66? A No, sir.

Q Do you know this applicant, Tobe Bean? A I don't know whether I do or not; in the last few years I might have seen him a time or two; at that time I don't think I knew him.

Q How far were you living from Andy Frye and Millie Frye when your father was killed in October of 1866? A It must have been about two miles, just where the road crosses the river, might not have been that far.

Q You didn't know Tobe Bean then? A No, I knew the others that was living there.

Q You were acquainted with the other colored people who were living over there? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you ever see Tobe Bean over there in that year? A I don't remember whether I did or not.

Mr. Mellette: They had a good many fights around through this country along about that time, didn't they? A No, sir, there wasn't any as I know of.

Q No fights at all? A At that time there wasn't nobody killed?

A Well there was when my father got killed a month before that.

Q Where did he get killed? A On the military road.

Q Could a fight have occurred and you not heard of it? A It might have been, but I never heard of any.

Q Do you claim to have heard of every fight that occurred in this country? A That was after the war, it was people you knew.

Q Do you swear that you heard of every fight that occurred?

A Well, I would remember it if I did hear it, I don't think I heard of any.

Q Where did you say you lived along about that time? A On Grand River.

Q How old were you then? A Well, I must have been nearly 20 years old.

Q What part of Grand River did you live? A In '66, as I said where I was living on what was known as the Johnson Thompson place, a brick house.

Q Near what place on Grand River now? A I believe they call it the Ket-hum place now.

Q On which side of the river were you living? A I would call it on the east side of the river.

Q You ought to know? A That is what it is.

Q Mr. Hastings has asked you something about the Knight place; what place is that he was talking to you about? A Well, that is right pretty much north from the Thompson place, right due north.

Q How far from where you lived? A From that place, the Thompson place, well it couldn't have been over 15 miles.

Q When you well acquainted up in that country? A I was, yes, sir.

Q Up where that house stood? A Yes, sir.

Q Whose place was that? A It was known as the Knight place, it was vacant though.

Q How often had you been up in that country? A Well, I can't tell you just how often I had.

Q I just want to know how often you had been up in that country?

A I had been to that place three times that year.

Q Do you remember every place, do you remember for 35 years afterwards every place that was vacant at that time? A Yes, sir, I do.

Q You can remember now every place that you passed by in '66 that was vacant at that time? A Yes, sir, there wasn't but one old place between them, known as the Ben Landrum place, that was the only place there was there.

Q You just passed by these places in question? A Yes, sir.

Q Came right through that country? A Yes, sir, came on the military road.

Q Who did you say was with you? A My father when I first got acquainted with the place.

Q Who was with you the last time? A Tom Thompson and old man Johnson.

Q You rode by the place? A Yes, sir, rode right along and stopped at the spring there.

Q Were you driving or riding? A In a wagon.

Q You stopped at the spring and passed on; is that all you did?

A Yes, that was about all we done.

Q How close to the house did you go? A Well, it must have been in the yard, but there wasn't any yard fence, the road ran right along by the house.

Q That was 35 years ago or 36 years ago? A I guess it was it was in '66, in the fall, or winter.

Q How do you know it was in '66? A I know it, I had a posse with me when I came by this place.

Q There has been a good deal of talk about these people remembering '66; how do you remember it; you didn't have to get back? A Me, no sir.

Q There wasn't anything to make you remember '66? A Only my father got killed on October 22, 1866.

Q You say you started out to hunt the people that killed him?

A Yes, sir.

Q And Tom Johnson was with you? A No, that was the last time I was up there.

Q The last time that Tom Thompson was with you? A Yes, sir.

Q What year was it Tom Thompson was with you? A In December, as I said, about the 10th or 15th.

Q You remember now it was the 10th or 15th of December? A Yes, sir.

Q How do you ~~was~~ happen to remember it? A Old man Johnson Thompson moved into the house we were living in, and they went on up in a wagon, and I went with them, to Neosho, to get some groceries.

Q How do you remember at this time it was the 10th or 15th of December? A Because it was Christmas coming, we had to get back before Christmas.

Q Might not it have been in November? A No, sir, it wasn't in November.

Q When did you have your attention called to this time before this; never thought of this till since this freedman court has been sitting here? A I don't know, it has been talked about for several years.

Q When was it talked about? A This matter came up about the same way at the Clifton Court.

Q You never thought about it then till the Clifton Court? A They told me I was subpoenaed on that.

Q The Clifton Court is the first time you ever thought about this thing that occurred thirty years before that time, is it? A The first time I ever swore to it, I knew those facts though.

Q You testified to the same facts before the Clifton Court you testify to now? A Yes, sir, as near as I can remember.

Q What do you know about it; do you think you gave the same testimony then you do now? A I do.

Q Do you remember about Al Lynch getting shot, this colored man, a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir, I know just about what time, I wasn't there to see.

Q What year was it? A It was in '66.

Q You are certain of that? A Yes, sir, I let him have the whisk-e; to get drunk on.

Q We'll now you know it was in 2 '66 that Mose Bean shot Al Lynch do you, Mose Whitmire shot Al Lynch? A Yes, sir.

Q You went and notified some people that that was the time, at that time, that he had been shot? A No, sir, I hadn't nothing to do with it.

Q Didn't you go down to Dave Rowe's and tell them Mose Whitmire had shot Al Lynch? A No, sir.

Q You didn't? A No, sir.

Q You are certain of that? A Yes, I had nothing to do with it.

Q But didn't you just carry the information down there to Rowe's that Al Lynch had been shot? A No, sir, I didn't.

Q You will swear that? A Oh yes, I never carried any such news.

Q Didn't tell anybody at all? A Of course I might have said that, it was rumored, everybody knew it.

Q Hadn't you been telling it down at Rowe's, about Al Lynch having been shot? A No, sir, I don't think I did.

Q You hadn't mentioned it down there at all; you knew where Rowe lived, didn't you? A Old man Dave Rowe?

Q How close is it to you? A It is 20 or 25 miles.

Q Do you remember being down there in '66? A Not positively, I was occasionally down to Tahlequah, and it was on the road down there.

Q And you don't remember anything about that? A No, sir, it was a common thing that he got shot.

Mr. Hastings: What official positions, if any, have you held?

A Well, I have held the Solicitor and Sheriff, I was one of the Associate Supreme Court judges.

Q Delegate to Washington? A Yes, sir.

*****

R. D. KNIGHT, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Mr. Hastings: What is your name? A R. D. Knight.

Q What is your age? A 54.

Q Where do you live? A Now, I live in Vinita.

Q How long have you lived there, a number of years? A 25 years.

Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by blood? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you live in the Cherokee Nation before the war? A Yes, sir.

Q You lived in the Cherokee Nation after the war? A Yes, sir.

Q Where was the first place that you lived in the Cherokee Nation after the war? A On Horse Creek.

Q What district is that in? A Delaware district.

Q Was there any road that run by your place at that time? A The old military road, we used to call it.

Q Were you arrested, Mr. Knight, at any time directly after your return? A Yes, it was probably in the latter part of December, yes it must have been in the latter part of December following my return in the fall.

Q Where were you taken? A Van Buren.

Q What were you charged with? A Killing some negroes that was passing down the road there.

Q Well, had some negroes passed your place prior to that time?

A Yes, prior to my arrest.

Q Did any of them get killed at your place? A Yes, there was I guess two anyway was killed there, I heard there was three, I don't know.

Q Any others wounded? A There was one, I don't know, that is only from hearsay, I saw him when he was fired at, but I didn't see he was struck.

Q Did you see the shooting? A Yes, sir, the most of it, the first two or three shots I didn't see.

Q Several colored people along? A Yes, looked to me like there might have been fifty in all, or more.

Q Did you ever learn, either at that time or afterwards, who composed that crowd? A Yes.

Q Well, who.

Mr. Mellette: Hold on; did he see who they was.

Q Did you know any of them? A I saw the most of them, but I didn't know the names.

Q Did you ever talk to Tobe Bean here afterwards? A I don't remember that I ever did about it; yes, I might have made some little remark some time, I don't know whether there was ever anything said between us about it.

Q Did you ever learn who composed the crowd? A Yes, sir.

Q How soon afterwards?

Mr. Mellette: I object to that; it is an improper question.

Q Did you learn that? A Yes, sir.

Q How soon afterwards? A It was early in the spring after my arrest in the winter; two of these parties that came to my house —

Mr. Mellette: I object to that, no hearsay evidence.

Q Did they talk over the fight that had occurred there prior to that

A Yes, sir, they told me they were in it.

Mr. Mellette: Hold on, I object.

Q Who was that? A Who was that came to my house?

Q Yes? A A young man by the name of Lem Smith and a man named John Willis.

Mr. Mellette: I object to that, they are not parties to this case, because it would not be competent.

Q That was on Horse Creek? A That was two and a half miles south, we called it Horse Creek, that is right on the side of the Creek.

Q You saw the killing, did you, the shooting? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know when that was? A Well, to the best of my recollection, it was in probably the first of October, or about there, in 1867, the best I can figure it out; as to saying positive, I can't do it.

Q But that is your best judgment? A That is my best judgment.

Q And you were afterwards arrested and accused of it? A Yes, sir, in the following December, the latter part of December.

Q Well, did you move back to this place when you first moved back after the war, when this shooting took place? A Yes, sir.

Q And that was on the military road, was it? A Yes, sir, on the military road.

Q About how far, Mr. Knight, was this place from where the old Johnson Thompson, or Ketchum place is, on Grand River? A Well, it is in the neighborhood of ten miles; a little more or a little less, I don't know just what we do call it.

Q The military road run right by it? A Not by the Thompson place

Q By your place I mean? A Oh yes.

Q I will ask you whether or not this man Tobe Bean has ever talked to you about being shot at that place? A Well, I am not certain but what something might have one day, I think I remember, that he said something about being in that fight, or something about being shot up there in '66, and that he was the fellow shot in that fight in '66, and probably I remarked that if he was shot in '66 he was a different man from the one shot in that fight.

Q That is your best judgment, it was Tobe Bean, the applicant?

A Yes, sir; I think that is the remark, I don't know, I only had a word or two at the time, I never knew since the trouble that he was one of them until that time, I knew his name, but I didn't know him, I could have picked him out.

Mr. Mellette: Mr. Knight, did you say that you were arrested for killing the men that were killed in the Horse Creek fight? A Yes, sir.

Q Who were they, the men you were arrested for killing? A The man I was accused of killing?

Q Yes? A The only killing that ever happened there that I know of.

Q Who did the warrant say you were charged with killing? A I don't know that it specified the names at all.

Q You would not be arrested for killing a man that wasn't killed; there is somebody you were charged with killing? A I was charged with killing some negroes in the Horse Creek fight.

Q It didn't say the Horse Creek fight in the warrant? A It was the killing there at the place.

Q It didn't say that though in the warrant, it just said so and so is charged with feloniously and wilfully killing who? A I don't know who they were, I don't remember the names of them.

Q Is it possible you could be arrested and accused of killing a man and don't know the man you were charged with killing? A I don't know about it, it seems I was arrested for killing somebody, I don't know.

Q How far did you live from Timbered Hill? A Which Timbered Hill?

Q This one up here by Bluejacket? A I don't know, ten or twelve miles, neighborhood of that.

Q Were you not arrested for killing some colored men up there?

A Yes, sir.

Q What was the case you were arrested for? A No, sir.

Q What was the fact? A No, sir.

Q Did you hear them being killed up there? A No, never heard of it.

Q Mr. Knight, it seems strange that you would be arrested for killing some men and not know the names of the men you were charged with killing? A I don't see anything strange about it.

Q Did the officers read the warrant to you? A Well sir, I don't know that, I am not positive as to whether he read the warrant to me or not, it was cold weather, and had their overcoats on, and came to the door, and when I stepped out to wash my face, and one with the name Holloway, he came to the door, and he was all around the house, and he came and asked me.

*****

Now, I have duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testimony.

Q What is your name? A J. C. Trott.

Q How old are you? A 62.

Q Where were you born? A Vinita.

Q Are you a member of the Cherokee Nation? A I am.

Q Yes, sir.

Q Did you live in the Cherokee Nation, before the war?

A Yes, sir.

Q Did you go out during the war? A I did.

Q Did you come back to the Cherokee Nation after the war?

A In the spring of '66.

Q Where did you live that spring? A On Russell Creek.

Q How far is that from Chatopa, Kansas? A About four miles.
Q What direction from Russell Creek? A We lived on Russell Creek.
Q Well, where did you move to that fall? A Moved to the mouth of Horse Creek.

Q Where were you living in '67? A On Horse Creek, right at the mouth of Horse Creek on Grand River.

Q Do you know the applicant, Toke Bean? A I have seen him, I don't know as I am acquainted with him.

Q Mr. Trott, any time after the war, did or did you not hear of the circumstance of some colored people being killed near the old Knight place on Horse Creek? A Yes, sir.

Q When did you hear of that? A It was in the fall of '67.

Q How far were you living from the Knight place at that time?

A About four miles.

Mr. Maillette: Now Mr. Trott, do you remember that you came back here in the spring of '66? A I think I do.

Q How in the world do you know it? A I was in the army and was mustered out in '65, in the fall, and the next summer we moved down here, the next spring.

Q Where did you come from? A Kansas.

Q What did you do in Kansas after you were discharged before you came down here? A I didn't do any work particularly.

Q Where did you stay? A In Woodson County.

Q Who did you live with up there? A My father and mother.

Q What time did you start back here in '66? A It was in the spring.

Q In the spring of '66; how did you come? A In wagons.

Q Travel through the country? A Yes, sir.

Q Many people living in this country at that time? A I didn't see but very few after we got in the Territory.

Q Well, where did you first strike the Cherokee Nation? A Right up there on the line south of Chatopa.

Q Which way did you come; come by Vinita? A We came on the Neosho River.

Q Did you come by Vinita? A No, sir.

Q How else did you come? A Came right down the Neosho River all the time till we struck the Territory line there.

Q Then how did you come? A We went up by the Creek after we struck the line, and stopped.

Q You stopped just inside the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q Up there on Russell Creek? A Yes, sir.

Q In the spring of '66? A Yes, sir.

Q What month? A I don't know exactly as I can name the month.

Q How long did you stop up there? A We stayed all the summer of '66.

Q What did you do in the fall? A In the fall we moved to Horse Creek.

Q What time in the fall? A Tolerably late in the fall, I don't know the exact date of it.

Q You say you heard of a fight in the fall of '67? A Yes, sir.

Q Where were you living at that time? A Living at the mouth of Horse Creek, living on Grand River.

Q How many fights did you ever hear of along about that time?

A That is the only one.

Q You never heard of anybody being killed up there except that?

A Not that year I don't think I did.

Q Now are you positive about that? A I think that is the only fight I heard of.

Q You just simply heard of it; that is all, is it? A Well, I saw the troops in there but a short time afterwards hunting the fellows that done it.

Q Where were the troops from? A Said to be from Van Buren.

Q Were they were troops come from Van Buren, did they? A That is what they said.

Arkansas? A Yes, sir.

Q Federal troops? A Yes, sir.

Q Don't you know there were not any troops at Van Buren in '67?

A I don't know anything about it.

Q You say the troops all right, did you? A I did.

Q How many? A Seemed to me like about 20 or 25.

Q White or colored? A White men.

Q Who commanded them? A I don't know that.

Q Where did you see them? A I saw them at my house on Horse Creek.

Q They told you they were from Van Buren, Arkansas, the troops did? A Yes, sir.

Q When did you first know about this fight, that it was in '67 that that fight occurred; when was that first called to your attention Mr. Trotter; since this Freedman Court has been in operation?

A No, sir, I have heard of it all along.

Q I know, but have known a good many things that haven't been particularly called to your attention; when was it called to your attention after that fight occurred? A I have spoke about it a good many times, I don't know, I have heard it talked about ever since then.

Q How did it happen to come up, why did you talk about it? A I don't know, it was the general talk through the country after it was fought, after the fight.

Q That has been 36 years ago, or 35 years ago; what was there to keep it in your mind? A Well I know that I had been there on Horse Creek a year, or pretty near a year, before it happened, that is one thing that kept in in my mind, I was not there in the fall of '66 until very late in the fall, and it was the next fall.

Q What time do you say you went down on Horse Creek from Russell Creek? A Late in the fall of 1866.

Q What time? A I don't know the month, but it was way late in the fall.

Q Were you in the army? A I was.

Q In any fights? A Yes, sir.

Q Where? A Prairie Grove, Arkansas.

Q That the only fight? A That is all.

Q You remember when that was, don't you? A I don't know as I remember the exact date, I know it was in the winter of 1863.

Q '62? A Yes, sir.

Q You don't mean that? A Yes, sir; '63 I meant to say.

Q The winter of '63; was it before Christmas or after Christmas?

A I guess it must have been after Christmas.

Q Was that in '62 or '63? A '63.

Q What month in '63? A I don't recollect the month.

Q Was that in the first part of '63 or the last part of '63?

A I can't tell you exactly.

Q You can't put it in three or four or five or six or ten months when that fight took place? A It was in the winter of '63.

Q There is two pieces of winter now in the year 1863, the first part of '63 is in the winter and the last part of '63; was it the first part of '63 or the last part? A I think it is in the first part.

Q You are satisfied of that? A I am not satisfied of it positively.

Q You are not as well satisfied of that as you are the Horse Creek fight was in the fall of '67? A I ~~don't~~ know about that Horse Creek fight because I was living there.

Q You were in the Prairie Grove fight, and still you know more about the other one you were not in; isn't that true? A The other hasn't been quite so long.

Q There has been about three years difference.

*****

G. W. CLARKE, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Mr. Hastings: What is your name? A G. W. Clarke.

Q What is your age? A My coming birthday, I will be 59.

Q A citizen of the Cherokee Nation by blood? A Yes, sir.

Q You lived in the Cherokee Nation before the war? A All my life.

Q You were in the army, were you? I was in the northern army.

Q Where were you mustered out? A I was mustered out in Fort Gibson on the last of May, in 1865.

Q Where did you live the rest of the year of 1865? A I lived on the river.

Q Grand River? A Yes, Grand River, in the fall of '65 I came on the river the next day after I was mustered out, and I was married there eight days afterwards.

Q Where did you live in the year 1866, make a crop?

A I made a crop on what is known as the Ellis McDaniel place on the west side of the river, it is commonly known as the Adair place now.

Q Did you make a crop on the same place in '67? A No, sir, the treaty was made in July and reverted the place, I owned a confiscated place, it was sold as a southern place, and I had a place of my own in about nine miles; going around by the river made it about 15 miles.

Q Was the place you moved to farther up on Grand River than where you had been living in '66? A Yes, sir, go through and cross the river twice and it is about nine miles, and the other way is about 15 or 16 miles.

Q After the war, Mr. Clarke, did you hear of some colored people being in a fight and getting killed on Horse Creek; did you hear of the circumstances? A Yes, sir, I heard of the fight they said there was some colored people killed there, there was a young colored man passed my place and told about it, along in September, as well as I recollect; it was early in the fall.

Q Where were you living when you heard of that incident?

A I was living in the Six Mile Bottom in the fall of 1867.

Q You know Tobe Bean the applicant? A Yes, they are neighbors of mine, have been for a long time, Art Bean, very good men, too.

Mr. Smith: Judge Clarke, you don't now what fight that was you heard of in '67? A I only know they said some fellows run on some colored people and there was a fight up there, and I disremember some of them was killed in the fight.

Q You don't remember whether anybody was killed in the fight you heard about? A No, sir, it has been so long ago.

Q It was right hard to remember about a fight at that time?

A Yes, sir.

Q Have a good many? A Yes, sir, a plenty.

Q You don't know which fight that is you are telling about?

A That is what made me bring it to mind, some fellows run on some colored people up there, that was all.

Mr. Hastings: You were in the northern army? A Yes, sir, I was in the northern army.

Q Did you hear about what place on Horse Creek this fight occurred?

A I don't know as I did, it has been so long, heard it was up on Horse Creek, they were just passing going down the road is the way I understood it.

Commissioner: You don't know anything about that fight of your own knowledge at all? A No, sir, only just what I heard.

Q After you got through with your fighting it wouldn't amount to much as a fight anyhow? A No.

*****

T. J. MONROE, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Mr. Hastings: What is your name? A T. J. Monroe.

Q How old are you? A 48.

Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by blood? A Yes, sir.

Q You were born before the war? A Born in 52.

Q Where did you live before the war? A Lived on the line of the Osages and the western line of the Cherokee Nation, near the Osage lands.

Q Did you go out of the Nation during the war? A Yes, sir.

Q To what place did you return after the war? A A place known as the Boze place on the Grand River, east of Grand River, in Delaware district.

Q How far was that from Horse Creek? A It was ten or 12 miles.

Q Do you know whether the old Knight place was on Horse Creek?

A Yes, sir.

Q How far did you live from that? A It was about ten or 12 miles I think.

Q How far from the Johnson Thompson place on Grand River did you live? A The Johnson Thompson place?

Q Ketchum precinct? A It is about, I would think about 15 or 16 miles, 15 or 18.

Q When did you move to that place after the war, in what year?

A Sometime in February, 1866.

Q February of 1866? A Yes, sir.

Q Now after that did you hear of the circumstance of some negroes being in a fight in which some of them got killed, on Horse Creek?

A Yes, sir.

Q When did you hear of that? A The next year, right sometime in the summer or fall, I don't recollect just what month.

Q What year? A Of '67, we lived then on the west side of the river on the Stand Waite farm.

Mr. Melleste: Where were you living at that time? A That I heard of this fight?

Q Yes? A On the Stand Waite place, on the west side of the Grand River.

Q How far were you living from Horse Creek? A Couldn't have been over eight or ten miles.

Q When did you move on the Stand Waite place? A Sometime during the winter of '66 or '67, it appears to me it was in January, in the year '67.

Q Was it before Christmas or after Christmas? A I think it was after Christmas.

Q That is the time you want it to stand? A Yes, sir.

Q Where did you move from? A From the west side of the river, from the Bozer place.

Q How long did you live there? A From February up until we left I think in January, sometime in the winter time.

Q What year did you move to the Bozer place? A In '66.

Q What time in the year? A I think it was in January.

Q Where did you move from? A We came from the Choctaw Nation on Red River.

Q When did you come? A I stayed a while right on the line of Missouri.

Q When did you come from the Choctaw Nation? A We left the Choctaw Nation sometime in the latter part of October, I think.

Q What time? A '65.

Q You couldn't be mistaken? A No, sir.

Q Then there is such a thing as remembering dates, I suppose?

A I have something to remember by.

Q You didn't have to get back here by '66? A No, sir.

Q There wasn't anything to impress it on your mind? A No, sir.

let me explain, we lived right on the same place with Joel Bryant, on the same farm, he was a Major General, or something, in the Confederate army. He came home during the summer, I think in June, and took his family and started to old Mexico, and then we sold our crop in the field before we gathered it and started back to the Cherokee Nation.

Q Well, how old were you at that time? A Well, I was born in '52, I was 13 I believe in '65.

Q About 13 years old? A About 13 in '65 I think, if I am not mistaken.

Q And still you remember all these events? A I remember it perfectly well, that part of it.

Q You remember you left there in the fall of 1865 and came up here and went on to the Bozer place in February, 1866? A I think it was in February, I am not positive, but I think it was.

Q How far is that from the Stand Waite place?

A Well, about six or seven miles I should think.

Q On the opposite side of the river? A Yes, sir, and down the river.

Q A good many fights along about that time, wasn't there? A I don't remember very many.

Q But you know you just heard of a fight? A Yes, sir.

Q When did you first know about it, when did you first have your attention called to the time when that occurred, since that time?

A Since that time?

Q Yes; when did anybody ask you about when that occurred; since you have been subpoenaed in this case? A I don't remember anybody ever did ask me until I came here to-day.

Q Since you came here to-day Mr. Hastings and Mr. Bell asked you what you knew about it? A Yes.

Q And then you remember what you knew of that fight in '67?

A Yes, I knew it all the time.

Q Everything that has occurred you don't keep in your mind all the time, do you? A No, sir.

Q There wasn't any particular reason for you to remember that?

A I didn't see any particular reason.

Q And when you come here 36 years afterwards you are asked about it and you say it occurred in '67; that is a long time that, a long time? A Yes, sir.

Q You had forgotten about that half a dozen times? A Of course it would go out of my mind.

Q Go out of your mind and come back? A Yes, sir.

Q All you know about this fight is 35 years ago you heard of a fight between some darkies and white people? A Allow me to tell you; that fall, or late in the summer, a man brought a mare to our house, and asked me and my brother to take care of it, and right there and then he told us about this fight, did you hear of this fight up here and a lot of them people getting killed; I remember it well, guessing about who done the killing, they didn't call any names, but referred to them as the "red face" fellows.

Q You remember 36 years the man that brought the mare or colt to your house? A Perfectly well.

Q How many horses did you have anyhow? A I think about 15.

Q Can you remember every time a man has brought a horse to you since '66? A No sir; I didn't have any horses then.

Q Didn't have any horses at all? A No, sir, didn't have any horses at all.

Q You had farmed one year on the Bozer place? A Yes, sir.

Q What did you farm with? A A little yoke of stagg.

Mr. Hastings: What position do you hold now, if any? A Senator in the Cherokee Nation

Q You are a senator from Delaware district? A Yes, sir.
Q You have been senator before? A Yes, sir.
Q Been Sheriff of your district? A Sheriff one time and senator two terms.

Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Bruce C. Jones

Sworn to and subscribed before me this the 22 15th of August, 1901.

Commissioner.

Filed with Cherokee Freedman, D-289, Lewis Martin.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Vinita, I.T., October 3, 1901.

In the matter of the application of Lewis Martin et al. for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen.

Testimony introduced on behalf of the Cherokee Nation.

Appearances:

Mellette & Smith, attorneys for the applicant;
W. W. Hastings, of counsel for Cherokee Nation.

LEWIS VANN, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give me your full name? A Lewis Vann.

Q How old are you? A I can't tell my age at all.

Q Well, are you 60 or 65 or 70? A Well I can just guess at it, but then that would not be correct, but I think I am somewhere along about '65 or '75, I don't know.

Q What is your postoffice? A Harding, Kansas.

Q What is your occupation? A Well, when I am home I am a farmer.

Q Where did you live before the war, Mr. Vann? A I lived right on the Grand River close to Chouteau Station, raised there.

Q Did you know a colored man before the war, by the name of Lewis Martin? A Well, I heard of his name but I knew his parents all right, his father and mother, but then to say well acquainted with him, I never got well acquainted with him till he came up here to Kansas.

Q You don't mean here to Vinita? A No, sir, up in Kansas I am acquainted with him.

Mr. Hastings: Well, what was his father's name? A His name was Harry.

Q What was his mother's name? A Oelia.

Q Well that is the man I want to talk about; when did you know him in Kansas? A Well now there is something that I don't know right exactly, but I knowed him ever since I was here in Kansas, and I have been up in Kansas ever since '62, and I knowed him from then.

Q Who was he living with when you knew him then? A Why he was living with his father and mother, I think, right then.

Q What was he doing? A Well now I can't tell you exactly what he was doing right then, but he learned the blacksmith trade then after that; I can't say right then, but he learned the trade of a blacksmith.

Q What place in Kansas was that? A It was just right above, about a mile from Mapleton I reckon, I don't suppose it would be any farther than a mile from Mapleton.

Q About what time did he leave Mapleton; I mean with reference to the war? A Now that is something I don't know.

Q Was it before or after the war closed? A I don't know when he left there at all; he bought a place there right close, not very far from Mapleton, and he raised one crop on it and he sold it out and went up to Ottawa.

Q Ottawa, Kansas? A Yes, sir.

Q Did he marry around Mapleton? A Yes, sir, he married right there not far from Mapleton, I knew the folks, the woman's father and mother, well the mother anyhow, I knew her well after he married her daughter.

Q Well, did you ever see him up at Ottawa after that? A I saw him there once after that.

Q Well about how long after that? A Now sir that I can't tell how long it was that I saw him there.

Q Was your son married? A My son was married then.

Q Where was he living? A He was living with me when he got married, and then he moves up to Ottawa, and he wasn't there very long before his woman took sick and wrote for his mother to come and she went and she didn't come back quick as I thought she ought to come back and I goes after her, and I went up there and I goes over to his house.

Q Goes to his house? A Goes to Mr. Martin's house.

Q Well, Martin living there? A Yes, sir, he was living there.

Q Did he have his family there? A Yes, sir.

Q You know what he was doing up there at Ottawa? A Well, he was a farmer there, ranting.

Q Well, now how old is your son's oldest child? A Well now sir that is something I can't tell you.

Q Well about how old is it? A That is something I don't know the age of nobody, I can kinder guess at his age, he was born 2 years after I came to Kansas, my boy.

Q I am not talking about your boy, I am talking about his child?

A Well I can't tell nothing about his child's age at all.

Q His boy grown? A He isn't grown, but then he is a good size boy, I aint seen him since he was just about so high (indicating) and came off here to the Nation.

Q You don't have no idea when the child was born; as much as 15 years old? A Well, he may be somewhere along 15 or 14, but I can't tell exactly, but he is a good sized boy, I reckon he is pretty near large as me now.

Q Now what is your best judgment as to the age of that child; have you got any judgment at all? A I have judgment, but I can't tell how old he was.

Q I am not asking you the date; what is your best judgment as to his age? A If I knew how old it was when I went up after my wife I could tell pretty near the child's age, but I can't.

Q Tell, about how long do you think that man had been away from Mapleton, up to Ottawa, when you went up there; had it been a few days or a few months, or how long? A Well, it has been more than a few days, because he had raised one or two crops up there, and maybe more for all I know, I don't know at all, you have got me to something I don't know, but I know he lived there, that is all I can tell you.

Q And you know he was living there when you went up there? A Yes, sir, because I went to his house.

Q And that was after he was living down at Mapleton? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you ever see him back down to Mapleton after that? A No, sir, I don't recollect seeing him back there anymore at all, he might have come back on a visit, but that, I don't know, but when I saw him again I saw him here.

Q When was that? A Well, it was the year that Mr. Wallace's roll was made.

Q Where did you see him? A I saw him out in the country here to a place where he farmed.

Q You know how long he had been here then? A I just know he had been here, made one crop I think.

Q Well, did he tell you that or not? A Well he took me right down and showed me his crop he made.

Q Did he say how long he had been here and where he came from?

A He said he had come from up there here.

Q Did he say when he had come from Ottawa or how long he had been from Ottawa here? A He didn't say how long he had been, but he had just made one crop when he came here.

Q How do you know he made one crop? A I don't know; he said so and showed me his crop.

Q How do you know he just made the one, is what I am trying to get at, and not made any more than one? A I don't know that, only he said his stepson made one crop while he was home where he lived, he said his stepson, he sent him down here to make a crop and then he came, he said his stepson made a crop here and then he came and made one, that is what he told me, that is all I know.

Q That was while the Wallace Court was here? A Yes, sir, first time I saw him I came down to the Wallace Court.

Q Have you any idea when Wallace made that roll, do you know anything about that year? A No, sir, I don't.

Q Don't have no idea about it at all? A No, sir, don't know a thing about it only he made that roll.

Q You know he made it? A Yes, sir, because I came and signed that roll.

Q Where were you living at the time? A I was living up there on Timber Hill, Bourbon County.

Q Kansas? A Yes, sir.

Q Near Mapleton? A Yes, sir; I know where I was living all right.

Mr. Smith: Now Lewis, all you know about it is that you know that at one time Lewis Martin lived up there in Kansas? A Yes.

Q You don't know the year? A No, sir, I don't know the year at all.

Q When did you first go to Kansas? A '66.

Q Where did you go from? A Went from the Cherokee Nation; went from down here at Chouteau Station.

Q There wasn't any Chouteau Station then in '66? A No, sir, it has been put there since; I lived there, I was raised there.

Q Do you know where Lewis Martin was in the year 1866? A No, sir, I don't know the meaning of that '66 any more as a sucking baby, I don't know the meaning of '66; when that man told me that I came here in '62, that is how come I say I come here in '62; he said I come here in '62 because I came here a soldier.

Q Where were you living in 1862? A Well I give it, went up to Kansas, in that time, and lived up there close to Mapleton in '62 when this ~~man~~ man said I came out in '62, I don't know when I came, he said it was '62 because he was down there.

Q Now do you know when Lewis Martin got married? A I know he got married up there but I can't tell when.

Q Do you know whether it was before the war or after the war or during the war? A He got married, might have been about the time the war came on or maybe after, I don't know now.

Q Well, do you know where Lewis Martin was when the war closed?

A Well, when the war closed, he must have been living right there close to Mapleton.

A Not what he must have been, but what you know about it, what you saw and know yourself; do you know where he was when the war closed?

A I didn't say I know that at all, but I know he was living there when I came, when I was living there he was living there too, it must have been while the war was going on that he lived there, but after that I know he lived there and went up to Ottawa you know.

Q Do you know where he was in the fall of '66? A No, sir, it isn't any more use for you to ask me about '66, not bit more than a baby, because I don't know.

Q Do you know where he was during the year after the war closed?

A I can't tell you that neither.

Q Don't know? A No, sir.

Q You know anything about as to whether he got into a fight or killing scrape down here in the Cherokee Nation shortly after the war?

A I never heard of him getting into any fight or killing.

Q You were not in it? A No, sir.

Q When did you come down here at the Wallace Court, where was

- 4 -
Lewis Martin living in the Cherokee Nation, near what place? A Why I don't think it was more than a mile, maybe, or maybe more than a mile right out east this way, from Vinita.

Q A mile from Vinita? A I don't think it was over a mile, it might have been and might not, but it wasn't very far.

Q Did you go out to his place? A Yes, sir, I went out to his place.

Q How did you go, ride or walk? A I think I went in his wagon I think, I don't know for certain how I went out but I went there all right, went right to his house.

Q You don't know how many different places Lewis Martin has lived in the Cherokee Nation, do you? A Well, I don't know of him living at but that one here and then when he left here he went out and bought a place, I understand, went out and bought a place.

Q You don't know anything about where he is living now? A No, sir.

F. D. MYRICK, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give me your name, please? A F. D. Myrick.

Q How old are you? A I am 64 years old.

Q What is your postoffice? A Mapleton.

Q Kansas? A Yes, sir.

Q You live in Kansas? A Yes, sir.

Q What is your business? A Farming, stock raising.

Mr. Hastings: Mr. Myrick, do you know a colored man by the name of Lewis Martin? A Yes, if he is the man we located, I once knew a man by the name of Lewis Martin.

Q Did you know his father? A Yes, sir.

Q What was his name? A Harry.

Q Where did you know him? A I knew him there about Mapleton on my place.

Q Were you intimately acquainted with him. knew him well? A I ought to.

Q Just tell the circumstances, all you know about him? A Yes, sir, I was intimately acquainted with him.

Q Did he work for you? A Yes, sir.

Q Now about what length of time did he work for you? A Well I think it was about a couple of years.

Q Through what period of years? A About '62 and '64.

Q What did he work for you at? A Blacksmithing.

Q He learned the blacksmith trade there? A Yes, sir, he learned that while he was quite young, he was the youngest of the family, and his oldest brother, Bill, was a blacksmith, and I was running a shop there and they were doing the work for me.

Q Do you know where Lewis was married? A Well, I wouldn't say that I do, he married there but it is kind of a dream, I am not positive; of course I was well acquainted with his wife but it has been so long and not paying any attention, I would not be positive that I know.

Q Do you know where he went from Mapleton? A To say I know, I don't, but the report was that he went to Ottawa, and he told me afterwards he lived at Ottawa; that is as near as I can explain it to you.

Q About how long afterwards did you see him? A Well, it must have been five or six years afterwards that I saw him.

Q Now do you mean that that was five or six years - A After he left Mapleton.

Q Now about when do you think he left there, about what year?

A Well I can't tell what year he did leave there.

Q Well, with reference to the close of the war? A Well, it must have been a couple of years after the close of the war that he went to Ottawa; he and his father stayed there anyhow as long as two years after the close of the war before he went to Ottawa.

Q And then you saw him five or six years after that after he went to Ottawa? A Yes, sir.

Q And he told you he was living there at that time? A At Ottawa.

Q Did you ever see him after that? A No, sir, not as I know of.

Q You live at Mapleton? A Yes, sir.

Q Now was you gone from Mapleton any time, say between '73 and '77? A Yes, sir.

Q Where were you? A I was in the Rocky Mountains.

Q Do you remember Lewis' mother? A Lewis' mother, Gelia.

Q That is what I want to know, to identify him? A Yes, sir, I was well acquainted with him for a number of years.

Q Where did you see him the five or six years after he left Mapleton that you speak of? A I saw him between my house and Mapleton and just met him on the road and merely addressed him and asked him some few questions, I don't know what, in regard to where he was; he was kind of a stranger then you know; he told me he was living at Ottawa.

Q Did he tell you what he was doing? A I don't know, I think that he was running a blacksmith shop.

Q You are not positive about that? A No, I wouldn't be positive.

Q Did you ever see him after that? A No, sir, I never saw him after that.

Q You say that during the last years of the war he worked for you in a shop? A Yes, sir.

Q What were you doing, Mr. Myrick, along the closing years of the war? A Why I was running a mill there and was making flour for the government, I sold flour to the government mostly, and I run a blacksmith shop in connection with my business there, and I had these fellows employed for the purpose of shoeing horses and doing all kind of blacksmithing, we lived right on the trail from Fort Gibson to Lebanon.

Q And Will Martin was Lewis Martin's brother and lived with him?

A Yes, sir.

Q What was Will Martin's wife named? A Neatie.

Mr. Smith: Mr. Myrick, I believe you stated it was in '63 or '4 that this man was working for you? A Yes, along about that time.

Q Well, where was he in '63? A I wouldn't be positive where he was, to the best of my knowledge he was around Mapleton there or had gone to Ottawa, I wouldn't be positive.

Q Well you don't know then where he was in '65? A No, I can't say where he was in '65.

Q Where was he in '66? A I don't know, sir.

Q You know what year it was that he went to Ottawa? A No, sir, I don't, to say know the year that he went to Ottawa, I don't.

Q About what year was it that you last saw Lewis Martin? A That I saw him last; last saw him?

Q Last saw him at all? A After I saw met him coming from Ottawa, oh it must have been five or six years afterwards.

Q Five or six years after the close of the war? A Yes, sir, must have been five or six years after the war.

Q You haven't seen him in that country since? A No, sir.

SMITH EWING, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Mr. Hastings: What is your name? A Smith Ewing.

Q What is your age? A I am going on 81.

Q Where do you live? A Ottawa.

Q Kansas? A Yes, sir.

Q How long have you been living at Ottawa, Kansas? Q Went there in '67, 1867.

Q Did you know a colored man by the name of Lewis Martin? A Yes, sir.

Q Where did you know him? A In Ottawa.

Q When did you first become acquainted with him, first see him there? A In '67.

Q What time did you go to Ottawa in '67? A Went there in March.

Q How soon after you went there was it before you saw Lewis Martin? A April or May one, I am not certain which one; it was along in April or May.

Q A short time after you went there? A Yes, sir.

Q Mr. Ewing, do you know his wife? A Yes, sir.

Q What was her name? A Sarah.

Q Do you know any of his children? A Well, yes.

Q You remember any of their names? A Yes, sir.

Q What was their names? A One was named John, and George.

Q What was Martin doing when you knew him in Ottawa? A Blacksmithing.

Q How long did you know him there? A I knew him four or five years there, maybe longer; I don't know exactly the time that I did know him, I can't just swear to the time, but it was five or six years I was acquainted with him there.

Q Do you know where he went when he left there? A No, sir, I don't

Q You say he was a blacksmith? A Yes, sir.

Q Did he have a brother, or do you know? A No, he didn't have any brother there.

Q Did he have a father, or do you know that? A I don't know that, I wasn't acquainted with his father.

Q Were you acquainted with his mother? A No, sir, never seen her.

Q You know where he went from there? A No, I can't say where he went, I know where he said he was going.

Q Did you ever see him after that? A No, I haven't seen him since; I haven't seen him for quite a number of years.

Q Now during the four or five or six years that you saw him at Ottawa, was he there continuously during that time? A No, he was away some of the time.

Q Where was his family? A His family was out on a farm.

Q Did they live there during that time? A Yes, they lived out on the farm.

Q Well, did you see him at frequent intervals during that period of time? A Well yes, sometimes I would see him every three or four weeks, sometimes it would be longer, but then I often would see him. You know Martin was a man that didn't run around very much, anyhow.

Q You say he didn't run around? A No, sir.

Q What did you mean by saying he was away some? A There would be times that he would be gone, I don't know where he was gone.

Q For about how long at a time, how long would you miss him, any considerable time? A Sometimes I wouldn't see him for a month or so, he was out in the country, out on his farm.

Q Out of town? A Yes, out of town, I wouldn't know where he was.

Mr. Smith: Well, you don't know of your own knowledge? A No, sir.

Q Only you didn't see him? A No, I wouldn't know where he was only I didn't see him.

Q How far did he live in the country from Ottawa? A Part of the time it was two miles.

Q That was along from '67 up for four or five years after '67? A Yes, it was after '67.

Q From that date to this you have never seen him? A No, sir, I have never seen him.

Commissioner: You say you first saw this man in '67? A Yes, sir.

Q Where did you live in '66? A I lived at Ohio City.

Q Where? A That was south of Ottawa.

Q State or District? A Yes, sir.

Q You know where Martin was in '66? A No, I don't know where he was in '66.

Q What brings it to your mind that it was '67 that you saw him? Because I moved to Ottawa in '67.

You know that? A Yes, sir, and there is where I saw him.

Q You recollect dates do you? A Yes, I recollect dates, yes.
 Q What year is this? A It is 1900.
 Mr. Hastings: Is this the year 1900? A Yes, sir.
 Q Even? A Well, it is nineteen hundred, I don't know whether you call it even or not; you know I am no educated man.
 Commissioner: Where were you living in 1886? A Ottawa.
 Q You been living there ever since '67? A Yes, sir.
 Q Living there now? A When I am at home that is right where I live.
 Q Your family there? A My family is all dead; well I have no family of my own now.
 Mr. Hastings: Do you know what year the war commenced? A Yes, sir.
 Q What year? A 1861.
 Q What year did it close? A 1865.
 Q Now how long after the war closed before you went to Ottawa?
 A Why I went to Ottawa in 1867.
 Q I want to know how long that was after the war closed? A After it closed, why two years.

D. J. HESSONG, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Mr. Hastings: What is your name? A D. J. Hessonog.
 Q What is your age? A I am 51 years old.
 Q What is your postoffice? A Mapleton.
 Q Kansas? A Mapleton, Kansas, yes, sir.
 Q How long have you lived there, Mr. Hessonog? A I have lived there since '57, have lived there about 44 years.
 Q Do you know a colored man by the name of Lewis Martin? A I did.
 Q Where did you know him? A In Mapleton, Kansas.
 Q What occupation, if any, was he following? A He was running a blacksmith chop when I knew him.
 Q Do you know where he came from up to Mapleton? A I do not.
 Q You never heard him say? A Never heard him say.
 Q You don't know where he had lived before he came there? A I think he came from Ottawa, because I know he went back up there a time or two during the time that he was at Mapleton, and he said he was going on a visit.
 Q Do you know about what year he came there to Mapleton? A It must have been about '76, something like that, along there.
 Q About how long did he stay there? A Well, when he came back there I am pretty certain it was in '76 and in '77 I went west and when I came back I don't remember whether he was there then or not, but I know he was there a couple of years, if I remember right, two or three years, something like that, I don't remember whether he was there when I came back or not.
 Q When did you come back? A I came back that fall and winter, winter of '77.
 Q Did you know Martin's wife? A Yes, sir.
 Q What was her name? A I believe that they called her Sarah, or something like that; there was two women stayed with him part of the time he was in Mapleton.
 Q Did you know his brother? A Will?
 Q That is what I am trying to find out? A Yes, I think there was another Martin named Will Martin, said they were brothers.
 Q What was Will Martin's profession? A Blacksmithing.
 Q Did you meet Lewis Martin's father and mother? A Don't believe I did, no...
 Q Did you ever know Lewis Martin before you knew him when he came there in '76? A No, sir.
 Q Well, was his family with him when you knew him there in '76?
 A Yes, sir, she lived right in town.
 Q He worked in a blacksmith shop? A Yes, sir, him and his brother run a shop there in town.

Q You haven't seen him since? A I have not.

Mr. Smith: Mr. Messong, you don't know where he came from when he came to Mapleton that time? A No, sir.

Q You don't know where he had been living before he came there?

A No, sir.

JOHN CROSS, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Mr. Hastings: What is your name? A John Cross.

Q What is your age, Mr. Cross? A 62.

Q Where do you live? A Mapleton.

Q Kansas? A Bourbon County, yes, sir.

Q How long have you lived there? A I lived there since '62.

Q Did you ever know a colored man by the name of Lewis Martin?

A Yes.

Q What was his occupation, what did he do? A He was a blacksmith.

Q When did you know him? A Well I know him in about, let's see, must have been '75 or '76, right along there sometime; of course I knew him before that but I wasn't acquainted with him, I knew of him.

Q You knew him before that? A Yes, but I wasn't acquainted with him at all.

Q When did you know him before that? A Well, when they first came, I don't know, probably it was along '62 or near that time there.

Q Did you know his father? A Yes, sir.

Q What was his name? A Well I don't know his name, don't recollect, he was a very old man, his father was.

Q You don't know his mother's name? A I did, but I don't remember it now: Celis; no, it wasn't Celis, I don't recollect it.

Q Well, did you know his brother? A William?

Q I am asking you? A Yes, I knew him better than I did Lewis.

Q Well, do you know how long you knew him after '62, or is your memory distinct about that? A No, you see he left there and he came back, I think it must have been '64 or '5 or '6, along sometime, and then he came back there and him and his brother run a blacksmith shop for probably a couple of years.

Q You know what became of him then? A No, I do not, in the spring of '77 I went to Colorado and I didn't get back till that fall, and he was gone.

Q Now when do you mean to say that he came back to Mapleton the last time? A Well, it must have been in '75 or '6.

Q Did he have a wife? A Yes.

Q Living with her? A Yes, sir.

Q You know whether he had any other family or not? A No, I do not.

Q Well, have you ever seen him since? A No, sir, I haven't seen him since.

Mr. Smith: So, Mr. Cross, as I understand you, you knew this man then about '62? A Why that is when they first came there, I think about that, but still I wasn't -

Q Do you know whether he married there at Mapleton? A No, I do not, I don't know a thing about it.

Q Do you know whether he was a single man or a married man when you first became acquainted with him? A I think he was a single man when he came there.

Q Do you remember was he married in a couple of years after he came there or not? A He was married when he run a shop there, he was married and had a family.

Q That was when? A In '75 or '6.

Q But do you have any recollection as to whether he was married before the war closed? A No, I do not.

Q Well, now you missed him from there along about the time the war closed, did you? A Yes.

Q Now when did you first see him back there after the time that you missed him? A I don't recollect of seeing him till he came there and went to work in the blacksmith shop.

Q Now about what year was it that you missed him away from there?

A Well I don't recollect, I didn't pay no attention to it at all.

Q About the time the war closed? A Why I suppose, yes.

Mr. Hastings: Do you have any distinct recollection about the first time you missed him from there? A No, I do not.

Q You wasn't well acquainted with him then? A No, I wasn't well acquainted with him.

LEWIS VANN, recalled by applicant, testified as follows:

Mr. Smith: You were on the stand this morning in this case, were you Mr. Vann? A Yes, sir.

Q Now then, did I understand you to say that you never heard of that fight that I asked you about this morning in 1866 in the Cherokee Nation, the Horse Creek fight? A No, sir, I don't know nothing about that.

Q Didn't you have a kinsman that was killed down there about that time, somebody that was kin to you? A Oh, I know that all right.

Q Who was that? A Wesley Vann.

Q Well, when was he killed? A He was killed the year after the war ceased, he went down there and got killed and that kept the balance of us from coming.

Q Were you along? A No, sir, I wasn't, but then I was going after he got there and wrote back, but then he got killed.

Q Wasn't Lewis Martin with him? A I don't know sir, that is something I don't know.

Q Who was he with, who did this man leave with, this kinsman? A He left with another brother in law of mine.

Q What was his name? A Charley Burgess.

Q Who else? A Charley Burgess and Wesley Vann, they was only ones kin to me.

Q Who else that wasn't kin to you? A Then there was some there by the name of Gilbert Vann and Gilbert Daniel.

Q Who else? A Well, there was a young man along by the name of - I can't think of his name now, he got killed too, one of my fellow servants' sons, lived on the place with me, he got killed.

Q Was George Vann along? A No, sir, he wasn't along.

Q He wasn't there at all? A No, sir.

Q Where were you when these people left Kansas to come down here?

Q When they left why I was up here in Kansas, up in Kansas, up to Mapleton, in Bourbon County.

Q Did you stay there all the time? A Yes, sir, I hadn't been five miles from that place since I landed there, I reckon more than five miles anyhow.

Q Did you stay there during the time that these people came down here that you speak of? A Yes, sir.

Q Now don't you know Lewis Martin came down here, moved back here?

A Of course he came down here.

Q When? A Well now that is something I can't tell you then, but I know he come.

Q Did he come at that time you are talking about? A Oh no, he was up there but he didn't come when the others came, because I know he was up there.

Q Didn't he come down here with Wesley Vann, didn't they leave together to come down here? A I don't know whether he came with Wesley Vann or not, I don't know anything about that.

Q You don't? A No, sir, I don't think he ever was with them.

Q Why did you say this morning that you never heard of that fight at all? A That fight you are talking about, I didn't understand that fight, but now since I understand about the killing of my brother in law I know all about that.

Q You do? A Yes, sir, they killed him sure.

Q Did anybody that left up there come back, any of the colored people? A Now sir that is something I don't know either because I know all the balance that was with them, they went on after they got killed, they went on.

Q Did any of those that left Kansas at that time come back to Kansas? A I can't tell you not a thing about that, sir, no, sir, I can't.

Mr. Hastings: You were not in the fight? A No, sir, I was at home in Kansas and just heard about it.

Q All you know about it is just what you heard? A Yes, sir, about they killing him down there and him never coming back.

Q I believe you testified most positively you didn't know a thing about dates this morning, didn't you? A Well, I don't.

Q You didn't know a date this morning? A I don't know no dates about nothing about that but when anybody asks me about the name of anyone that I know of course I know them, but then to come to dates I don't know no more than a child.

Commissioner: Copies of this testimony will be filed with the testimony in Cherokee Freedmen cases D-856, D-857, D-858, D-911, and D-940.

File with Cherokee Freedman D-268, Lewis Martin.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Vinita, I.T., October 11, 1901.

In the matter of the application of Tobias Bean for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman.

Supplemental testimony on behalf of the applicant.

Appearances:

Mellette & Smith, attorneys for applicant;
W. W. Hastings, of counsel for Cherokee Nation.

Mr. Hastings: Let it go formally into the record what you desire to prove by these witnesses.

Mr. Mellette: I am going to offer some additional testimony.

Mr. Hastings: What for?

Mr. Mellette: To show the date of what is known as the Horse Creek fight, out here.

Mr. Hastings: Comes now the representatives of the Cherokee Nation and object to the taking of any testimony as to the date of what is known as the Horse Creek fight, because that question was gone brought out in the original examination of the applicant himself, and was thoroughly gone into, and is not new matter, and the testimony then introduced by the Cherokee Nation upon this point is not new matter so that rebuttal testimony can be allowed under any rules of procedure.

Commissioner: The objection will be noted.

MARY BROWN, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Mr. Mellette: What is your name? A Mary Brown.

Q How old are you, Mrs. Brown? A I don't know my age exactly.

Q Give an idea? A About 60.

Q Are you a Cherokee Indian by blood? A Yes, sir.

Q Recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir, I am.

Q Where do you live? A I live at what is known as the Bowling Ferry place on Grand River.

Q How long have you lived on Grand River? A About 17 years, down there.

Q When did you return to the Cherokee Nation after the war, if you left it? A We came here about three weeks before Christmas, in '65.

Q Where was your home at that time? A About one mile and a half north of Prairie City, that is the name of the place now.

Q Is that a point up here close to Fairland? A Yes, used to be just a depot up above Fairland near the road.

Q Do you remember after you came home the circumstance of hearing of a body of colored people being attacked and some of them killed, on Horse Creek? A I do.

Q How did you first learn of that? A There was some men came to my house to stay all night.

Q Who were they? A Kinch West and a band of men.

Q Did you learn from them anything about the colored people being killed? A Yes, sir, they told us they had killed some negroes.

Q How many were in that party? A I can't tell you positive.

Q About how many, or can you give an idea? A About six, to the best of my knowledge, I never took no particular notice how many.

Q Did you hear anything further about it after they came to your house? A Yes, sir, two or three days afterwards we heard some colored people got killed.

Q Where was that? A Somewhere on the Military road near Horse

Creek.

Q How far was that from your house? A About six miles.

Q Now when was that, Mrs. Brown, that Kinch West and his crowd came to your house and you heard of this killing of the colored people? A Fall of '86, in the fall of the year.

Q How do you know it was in the fall of the year? A Because it was getting cold weather.

Q Why do you fix it as 1866? A Well, I came home as I saw in '85, about three weeks before Christmas, and I was in a delicate condition and the baby was born the 26th day of May, in 1866, and this was the fall following.

Mr. Hastings: Did you ever have any other children born? A Yes, sir.

Q When? A Different times.

Q Well, when was the next one born? A Next one, well I am not able to answer that.

Q Well, when was the next one born? A In 1870.

Q That was the second one after this one? A Yes, sir.

Q When was the third one born? A I can't tell you that.

Q Did you have any more since then? A Yes, sir.

Q How many children you got? A 13 in all.

Q Now do you know what happens in September always after your children have been born? A No, sir.

Q Now why is it that you locate that the child was born six months before some event happened? A Because that was a peculiar time, we had all come home to our old home, and there were no neighbors and nobody there but now and then a neighbor.

Q Then were you married? A I can't tell you that.

Q You heard of this question being up before the courts here five years ago didn't you? A No, sir.

Q Never heard of it? A No, sir.

Q It wasn't a matter that was discussed throughout the length and breadth of the Cherokee Nation? A I heard talk of it, but as to the date I didn't know anything about it.

Q You didn't know anything about the date? A I didn't know it was about the date.

Q You didn't hear about this last spring when we were examining the matter? A No, sir, I didn't go about the courts.

Q Where do you live now? A I live at the Bowling Green place.

Q What is your husband's name? A Jim Brown.

Q What was your maiden name? A Mary Miller.

Q When were you married? A I told you I didn't know the date, I don't know the date.

Q And you have got thirteen children? A I have had thirteen children.

Q Now when was your second child born? A The second one was born in '83.

Q When was the third one born? A The third one was born May 26.

Q Of what year? A In 1866.

Q When was the next one born? A I don't know that.

Q Now when was the fifth one born? A He was born in 1870.

Q When was the sixth one born? A I don't know that.

Q When was the seventh one born? A I don't know that.

Q When was the eighth one born? A I don't know that.

Q When was the ninth one? A Well, I don't know that.

Q When was the tenth one? A I told you I don't know.

Q Eleventh one? A I don't know that.

Q Twelfth one? A I don't know, I can't count them, all of them.

Q Don't know? A No, sir, I am no scholar.

Q There was Bob Knight living at that time? A I can't tell you just exactly.

Q How far did you live from him? A I believe he lived on the old Military crossing on Horse Creek, I wouldn't say positive.

Q Well, how far did you live from there, from where that Military road crosses Horse Creek? A About 10 or 12 miles.

Q And that was the distance, was it? A About ten or twelve miles.

Q Had you ever seen Bob Knight up to that time? A No, sir.
Q You wasn't over there at that time, the Knight place? A I had passed the road.
Q You saw these folks there? A No, sir.
Q You didn't see them? A No, sir, I can't call it.
Q You never saw any of these darkies at that time? A No, sir, I never seen them.
Q Don't know who they were? A Don't know them.
Q Don't know who was shot at that time? A No, sir.
Q Don't know where it was at? A Never was right at the place.
Q Was it over at this Knight place? A No, sir, not right at the Knight place.
Q How far was it from the Knight place? A I understand it was above the Knight place, I am not positive where the fight was.
Q Kinch West is dead, isn't he? A I suppose so.
Q You have heard it, haven't you? A Yes, sir, I have heard it.
Q Can you remember a single other name of that crowd besides Kinch West? A Yes, sir.
Q Let's have them? A John Wells.
Q Is he alive? A No, sir.
Q Well, another one? A Lem Smith.
Q Is he alive? A No, sir.
Q Who else? A Well, I can't positively say any other one.
Q Yet there was others? A Yes, there was others, but I never got acquainted with them, these I got acquainted with them afterwards, they located in that neighborhood.

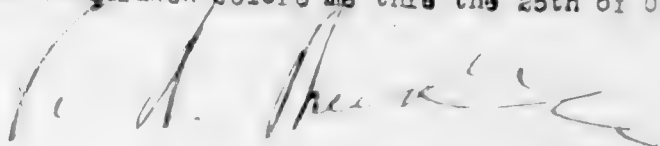

Mr. Mellette: I want the testimony taken attached to Lewis Martin, D-289, and Arthur Bean, I don't know the number of that.

Commissioner: This testimony will be filed in those cases and the others to which it is applicable.

Mellette & Smith, attorneys for applicants;
W. W. Hastings, of counsel for Cherokee Nation.

N. B. ROWE, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Mr. Smith: State your name? A N. B. Rowe.

Q What is your postoffice, Mr. Rowe? A Rose.

Q What is your age? A 52.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation, Mr. Rowe? A I have lived here all my life.

Q Are you a Cherokee Indian by blood? A Yes, sir.

Q Were you out of the nation during the war? A No, sir.

Q Where were you, Mr. Rowe, in the year 1866? A I was at my father's place.

Q Where did your father live at that time? A Lived in Saline district, Cherokee Nation.

Q Did you know a colored man named George W. Vann? A Yes, I know George.

Q Which George is it you know? A I know George Vann, lives on Spring Creek.

Q Spring Creek George, sometimes called Spring Creek George? A Yes, sir, Spring Creek George.

Q Do you know, Mr. Rowe, when a fight occurred on Horse Creek soon after the close of the war? A Well sir, there was a fight down there, to the best of my recollection it was in '66, fall of '66.

Q Is there anything about the circumstance to make you remember the fight, was anybody killed in it? A There was three men killed I think, to the best of my recollection.

Q What knowledge have you that they were killed? A What knowledge have I?

Q Yes; did you see them? A Yes, I saw the dead men afterwards, saw bullet holes in them.

Q Do you know whether they were buried or not? A Yes, they were buried at Aunt Katie Williams place.

Q Who were the men? A Well I don't just recollect the names, but I think one was named Phil something, I heard the name, a fellow that I didn't know.

Q Were they colored men? A Yes, sir.

Q Who helped to bury them? A A whole lot of colored fellows buried them there.

Q Can you think of those whose names you remember? A There was Colbert Vann, Eli Vann, George Vann, Joe Bean, and a good many men I don't recollect.

Q How many more do you think there were besides those you mentioned?

A I don't know, I never counted them.

Q Do you know what was ever done about that after, whether anybody was ever arrested or not? A No, sir, I never knew whether anybody was arrested about it.

Q Well, was the George Vann that you speak of, state whether or not he was the man that you spoke of a while ago as Spring Creek George?

A Yes, Spring Creek George was there.

Q Was he one of the men who helped bury those colored men?

A Yes, sir.

Mr. Hastings: you are not positive, are you Mr. Rowe, as to the year? A That is the best of my knowledge, that it was '66.

Q That is just the best of your judgment? A Yes, I am pretty tolerably certain about it, it was '66.

Q What time of the year do you think it was? A Along in September.

Q Do you know what place on Horse Creek this fight occurred that you speak of? A No, I don't know where it occurred or nothing about it.

Q Know whether it occurred at the old Knight place? A No, sir, I don't know where it occurred.

Q How old were you then? A I guess I must have been 16 or 17 years old.

Q Just a lad of a boy? A Yes, sir.

Q You hadn't been out during the war? A Out of the Cherokee Nation, no I wasn't out of it.

Q There was no date to mark your return by? A No.

Q How far did you live from Horse Creek? A I expect it must be about fifty or sixty miles.

Q You were not up there when the fight occurred? A No, sir.

Q You ever testify to these circumstances before? A No, sir.

Q You were never called upon to remember the date before? A No, sir.

Q You were not arrested for it? A No, sir.

Q Have any interest in it? A I wasn't interested any way at all.

Q You were not taken to Fort Smith for it? A No, sir.

Commissioner: This testimony will be made part of the record in the case at bar, and in D-212, D-215, D-290, D-207, D-289, D-656, D-657, D-658, D-911, D-940, and D-641.

C.F.D.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I.T., March 3, 1902.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY ON BEHALF OF APPLICANTS, in the matter of the application of Tobias Bean for the enrollment of himself, wife and child as Cherokee citizens.

APPEARANCES:

Mr. Mellette, of Mellette & Smith, Vinita, I.T., attorneys for the applicants;
W. W. Hastings, of attorneys for the Cherokee Nation.

C.D. MARKHAM, being first duly sworn, and being examined testified as follows:

BY MR. MELLETTE:

Q What is your name? A C. D. Markham.

Q Where do you live? A At Tahlequah, now.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A All my life except during the war; I went south on Red River.

Q Are you a Cherokee citizen by blood? A Yes, sir.

Q Where were you in the fall of '66? A I was up here at Grand River, Locust Grove.

Q What were you doing? A Selling goods.

Q Who were you selling goods for? A Why I and my brother and an old man named Elliott from Kansas were interested in the store.

Q During that summer or fall did you learn anything about a fight up on Horse Creek? A Yes, sir, sometime to the best of my recollection about the last of September in 1866. That was when a young darkey came into the store and wanted to get something out of the store and said they had a fight up at Horse Creek, and there was a shot darkey in the wagon, the wagon stopped one hundred and fifty yards from the store out in the road; I don't remember how many wagons there was.

Q Was there more than one? A Yes, sir, I think there was as many as three.

Q Where did he say the fight had occurred? A Up about Horse Creek somewhere.

Q After he told you about the fight up there did you hear anything more about it? A Very little, because soon after that I went to Texas, and was gone about six weeks.

Q Now that was in '66 you said? A Yes, sir, I know it was '66.

Q Now you say there was a man by the name of Elliott in the store where you were working? A Yes, sir.

Q What became of him? A Well while I was gone to Texas he was killed and robbed there two miles and a half from the store, on the Orphan Asylum road, and when I come back his son had taken the goods and gone back to Kansas; the store was broke up.

Q You went to Texas in '66? A Yes, sir, about the first of October, is my recollection, and I came back sometime in November.

Q And in the meantime this man Elliott had been killed? A Yes, sir.

Q After you come back from Texas did you hear anything further about the fight on Horse Creek? A Nothing, only just rumor.

Q That there had been a fight? A Yes, sir.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q You don't know any of the parties engaged in it? A No, sir, I don't remember those.

Q You don't know either about Tobe Bean being in it? A No, sir.

Q You never saw Tobe Bean at the time? A No, sir.

Q You don't know what place on Horse Creek it was? A No, sir.

Q That is all you know about it? A Yes, sir, that's all.

Q You don't know whether that is the one that Tobe Bean was in or not do you? A No, sir.

BY MR. MELLETTE:

Q You know whether George Vann was in that fight or not? A No, sir, I don't remember the darky that come in and told me, it was a young darky that I knew at the time, but that was 7 or 8 old Joe Vann had of my age and I don't remember, it was some of the Vann darkies, but I don't remember what his name was.

Q The darky that come and told you about the fight and said they had a shot man in the wagon was some one of the Vann family? A Yes, sir, but I don't remember the name.

Q When did you see George Vann after that? A I couldn't swear that I ever saw George Vann until '67 or '68; maybe he might have been there, I don't know.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q How far did you live from Spring Creek, this store? A The store was about 4 or 5 miles.

JOSHUA ROSS, being first duly sworn and being examined, testified as follows:

BY MR. MELLETTE:

Q What is your name? A Joshua Ross.

Q How old are you? A 69.

Q You are a Cherokee by blood? A I am.

Q Where were you in the fall of '66, and the winter of '67?

A I was at Fort Gibson, and Tahlequah.

Q Were you at any time up about Locust Grove, a store up there?

A Yes, sir.

Q What place were you? A Well, I was there at a store there, had been kept there by a man by the name of Elliott, that was in the last of December or along towards the first of January, 1867.

Q You mean was it in December '66 or along there in '67? A Yes, sir.

Q What were you doing there? A I was clerk of a Commission making out a list of property claims against the Government of the United States.

Q Was that after or before this man Elliott was killed? A It was after he was killed.

Q How do you know George Vann? A I do.

Q Did you see him along about that time? A Yes, sir.

Q Where? A I saw him there at this time.

Q While you were taking these claims? A Yes, sir.

Q This colored man George Vann is the one I mean? A Yes, sir, that was the man.

MR. HASTINGS waives cross-examination.

S. S. STEPHENS, being first duly sworn and being examined testified as follows:

BY MR. MELLETTE:

Q What is your name? A S. S. Stephens.

Q What is your age? A I am about 64 years old, 63 or 4.

Q Are you a Cherokee by blood? A Yes, sir.

Q Where were you in the year '66? A I was here in the Cherokee Nation. That is in the Cherokee Nation, near Fort Gibson.

Q Do you know about a fight that has occurred up on Horse Creek between some colored people that were coming back from Kansas and some other parties? A I heard of a fight up there, through George Vann.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q George Vann alive? A Yes, sir.

BY MR. MELLETTE:

Q Is that him standing there? (Pointing to colored man.) A That's George Vann; I can tell you how I got information through George Vann.

BY MR. HASTINGS: I am going to object to that because he was not there and he gets his information through George Vann and this George Vann's alive, present and available.

BY COMMISSION: Answer the question.

A I met George Vann in Saline District after this fight, and there was an order, kind of an ordinance, passed by our Council, that allowed the Cherokees to kill cattle wherever they would find them, in the country, and Sam Smith asked me to write him an order; I wrote an order for Sam Smith for George Vann to kill cattle.

Q What year was that? A That was '86; I wrote the order myself. I remember making the order for more, I was elected school superintendent, -

Q Now wait a minute, did you present the order to George Vann or did you talk to George Vann about that time? A Yes, sir, when I wrote the order I gave it to Smith and Smith gave it to Vann.

Q That information did you get from George Vann about the fight on Horse Creek? A He said they had a fight up there, and there was certain of the number was killed.

Q What year was that? A That was in the fall of '66 as near as I can remember.

Q And you don't know the time? A Yes, sir.

Q You wrote the order for George Vann? A For Sam Smith, for George Vann to kill cattle and he was there, there was quite a number of colored people in that neighborhood around Dave Rowe at that time, and it was then they were killing cattle all over the country, that is now, wild cattle, and in point of fact they carried it a little further.

Q Did you ever hear from any other source except George Vann the fact of there having been a fight up there? A Art Bean told me, they had a fight up there, and Art Bean's brother I think his name is Mose.

Q Did you know Tobe? A Tobe, I mean, I know them well.

Q Did Art and Tobe talk to you about the fight? A Yes, sir, they told me frequently they were in the fight, and Gilbert Vann told me that he was in the party.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q Then did they tell you that? A In '66, when they first come down in the nation; I was school superintendent and locating schools in that neighborhood and made Gilbert Vann one of the directors and I was instructed to locate no schools only among those who were actually citizens.

BY MR. MELLETTTE:

Q Then Art and Tobe Bean were here in '66? A I don't know, but they told me they were in that fight.

Q Did you talk to them in '66? A Yes, sir, I have known Art Bean ever since I was a boy; he belonged to old Washington Adair, Art Bean did.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q You were clerk for the representatives of the Cherokee Nation in 1896 before the Kern Clifton Commission? A Yes, sir.

Q You were around with us a good deal of that time? A Yes, sir.

Q This case of the Horse Creek fight was at that time a burning question? A Yes, sir.

Q Also a great many witnesses were introduced on both sides? A Yes, sir.

Q There was a great deal of discussion about it? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you ever go on the stand and testify at that time? A No, sir.

Q Did you ever tell me, one of the representatives of the Cherokee Nation at that time the facts you knew and now testify about? A No, sir.

Q Never told any one about it? A No, sir, you requested me at Claremore to see Tip Mayes' daughter, and I had a conversation with her and her conversation was what I told you I think.

Q You told me about it? A Yes, sir.

Q And you told me you knew it too? A You never asked me.

Q Well the daughter of Tip Mayes? A Rachel, the one that married Tuck Bryan, what they testified about it here, looking it up, you sent me over to see,-- it was Sam's wife I think, she was there at Rachel's.

Q And I sent you over there? A Yes, sir.

Q And you came back and told me it wouldn't do? A I come back and told you they thought these people were here at home when they got back.

Q You never told me anything you knew about it? A You never asked me a single thing.

Q You never was on the stand; it was your business to help us get up testimony? A You had me to do certain duties, Hastings, and I did that.

Q This question was largely discussed at that time? A Yes, sir.

Q Well, you never told me you knew those facts you testify about now?

A Never did I say a word to you about it.

Q How long were you with us? A Was with you during the whole time, that is from Vinita down.

Q Don't you know Sam Mayes' wife was in the Choctaw Nation when we was making that roll? A No I don't know she was in the Choctaw Nation at that time.

Q Didn't you know she was in the Choctaw Nation in '66? A I expect she was in '66.

Q Then she would not have been up here and known it? A Well like a great many of the rest of you, a great many of you were not here in '67 so far as that is concerned.

Q You saw Toke Bean in '66? A Yes, sir.

Q Where? A Up here at Island Ford.

Q Living there? A I suppose living right there yet.

Q He was living there? A Yes, sir.

Q Are you positive about it? A No, I wouldn't say I am positive about it; he did live there; yes he did.

Q Have you ever been tried in any courts for anything? A No, sir.

Q Never was convicted? A No, sir. What did you ask that question for? A I am asking you right square across the counter now, you know.

BY COMMISSION: This testimony will be filed and made part of the record in the following Cherokee Freedmen cases:

D-212, D-215, D-290, D-207, D-289, D-656, D-657, D-658, D-911, D-940, D-641.

Q I thought you said her mother and father? A No sir, my mother and father.

Q What was their names? A Rachel Bean and Samuel Bean.
Q When did your wife come? A She came with me that trip.
Q Was Tom Mayfield along that trip? A Yes sir.
Q Old man Tom down here? A Yes sir.
Q Whose place did you stop at when you come along down here on that trip? A Stopped at Crap Lynch's.
Q Did you come by Lewis Kell's place that time?
A No sir, I don't think we did. I think we went the road that turned off before you get there, across the prairie.
Q You don't remember camping there that day?
A No sir, we didn't camp there that day.
Q You are certain that Tom Mayfield was along with you that time?
A No sir, I am not certain. It may have been the third trip. I wouldn't be certain it was the second one.
Q How long did you stay down here on the second trip?
A Stayed until just about Christmas.
Q Who went back with you when you went to make the third trip?
A Joe Bean and Jake Bean.
Q About the same crowd of fellows? A Yes sir, the same ones.
Q Who came with you on that third trip?
A I don't know, a whole lot of us come, I don't know who all was along.
Q Well, was Tom Mayfield along that third trip? A I can't recollect. I believe he was though. I know Columbus Rogers was along.
Q You are not certain when the third trip was, are you?
A No, I know it is some trip. I don't know what trip it was. We went backwards and forwards a number of times.
Q You went backwards and forwards a number of trips since the war?
A Yes sir, I aint been back for a number of years though.
Q You don't know just when it was that Uncle Tom Mayfield came with you? A No sir, I don't remember just what trip it was.
Q Do you remember when you came of camping by Lewis Kell's place and waiting for the river to run down? A We camped right at the river at the old Charles place.
Q That was when Mayfield came with you? A Yes sir.
Q That wasn't your second trip down here? A No sir, I don't think it was.
Q That was some of those other trips when you brought Tom Mayfield you camped there? A There was always some crowd coming, didn't try to keep account.
Q Did you know Carney Kell? A Yes sir, used to know him.
Q When was the first time you ever saw him after the war?
A I can't tell you exactly when was the last time.
Q When was the first time? When was the first time you ever saw Lewis Kell after the war? A It must have been about '67, I guess, somewheres along there.
Q You saw that's the first time you ever saw him?
A The first time I can recollect.
Q In the fall of '67? A I guess it was in the fall.
Q That was the first time you ever recollect seeing Lewis Kell and Carney Kell? A Yes sir, that's the first time I ever recollect seeing them.
Q Was that the time you and Tom Mayfield camped there on the bank of the river, when you first saw him? A Never saw him before that time, it wasn't the first time I saw him, didn't see him then. I don't believe I saw him until in the spring, I camped over there to his place.
Q It was after that, you and Tom came along, that you saw him?
A I don't know whether it was afterwards or before then. Mr. Landrum was living at the Kell place, and Mr. Moore, I think the name was, had a store there the first time I came there.

Q Who did the applicant, Fannie Hight, live with after she came down? A Lived with me before, she came from her father's.
Q How long did she stay with you before she went to her father's? A About a month, I guess, then I carried her to her father's.
Q How long did she stay with her father before she came back up and lived with you? A I don't know, two or three years, I guess.
Q Had she come back up to your place before the smallpox?
A Yes sir.
Q How long? A Three or four years.
Q Three or four years? A Yes sir.
Q They had the smallpox in 1883, didn't they?
A I don't know when it was, must have been along there.
Q Then she had been at your place three or four years, and for three or four years before that she had been down with her father?
A I don't know how long she had been with her father.
Q You are not very good on dates? A No sir, never had a chance like you. I was a slave and had to work.
Q What year did Wallace make this roll here? A I can't recollect that.
Q What year did you make your first application to the Dawes Commission out here? A I don't know, I have forgotten.
Q When did you apply to the Kern-Clifton Commission?
A It must have been '92, I guess. I don't know, I forgot. I can't keep dates.
Q What year is this? A It must be about 1901, I guess. I don't know good.
Q You don't know? A Not good.

BY COMMISSION: Who were in that Horse Creek fight with you?
A Wes Vann, Cull Daniels, and Jess Vann, we four was together when the men ran on us. There was a whole crowd in the wagons behind us, Sam Vann, Jake Bean, and they came up and began shooting.
Q Name some of those behind you in the same crowd.
A George Vann, Eli Vann, Gilbert Vann, and a young fellow they called Boots, and blind Ellis he was along.
Q Can you name any more of them? A Jess Shaw, Ibbie Shaw, Patsy Daniels, Phyllis Bean, Lou Bean and Susie Bowles, and a lot of children, I don't know the childrens' names.
Q Were there any women and children with you at that time?
A Yes sir, behind in the wagons.
Q How long had you all been in the Cherokee Nation at the time that happened? A We were just coming in, had been over the line about half a day, I guess.
Q Did some of them go back to Kansas? A Yes sir, I went back, after we come on down here to Spring Creek and stayed there a while.
Q Some of you went into Kansas, and some of you come down here?
A No sir, all come down here and located down on Spring Creek. Some went as far as Gibson and fooled around and turned around and went back to Kansas. We Bean boys went back, and Lew Martin. Gilbert and his outfit was located on Spring Creek and stayed there.

MR. HASTINGS: Then this George W. Vann wasn't in this fight at all?
A George Vann, he was right there in the wagons.
Q He was behind with the wagons? A Yes sir, all back with the wagons. They were behind us.
Q You was in the advance, you and Wes Vann, Jess Vann and Phil Daniels. Who else now, was in the advance when the shooting commenced? A We four was together. There was some way ahead of them. I think it was old Aunt Chiora Chouteau.

- Q Then the fight was between you four and some parties out there.
A Between us four?
Q Yes, you four and whoever it was shooting at you? The rest of your crowd was about a quarter behind? A Some men was in the bushes and commenced shooting at us. I never had anything to shoot with. One man had a pistol buckled on, I think, two of them.
Q White men? A White men, Indians or something.
Q Shooting at you? A Yes sir.
Q George Vann wasn't with you in the crowd? A No sir, he was off a little ways. I don't know whether it was a quarter or not. Just coming along like they do travel.
Q He wasn't in the fight with you? A No sir, wasn't fighting, they rode up and began shooting.
Q The rest of you ran? A I was the only one that ran. The rest of them never had no chance. The rest of them went back to the wagons to get their guns.
Q You elected George Vann captain? A They just called him captain.
Q Where did you elect him captain? A They called him captain when I got in the crowd. I got in the crowd at Fort Scott.
Q He was about sixteen years old, wasn't he? A I don't know how old he was.
Q He was just a young boy, wasn't he? A Grown man.
Q A whole lot of you older men had been in the army?
A I had never been in the army.

- MR. BELL: What time in September was that Horse Creek fight?
A Along pretty early, along towards the first of September.
Q Wasn't it in the last of September? A I think it was along towards the first.
Q Did you come to Gibson before you went back? A No sir, never no further than Spring Creek.
Q You stayed there about two weeks? A About a week, I expect.
Q You were two places, one place a week, and how long did you stay at the other place. A A couple of days.
Q How long did you stay up here before you started again?
A Here on Cabin Creek? About three days. Just come up here on Cabin Creek, helped Crap gather some corn, and went on to Kansas.
Q Do you know about what month it was when you got back to Fort Scott? A No sir.
Q How long did you stay up there before you started back?
A About two or three weeks.
Q What is the distance, you think, from Spring Creek? You went to Garnett? A Yes sir.
Q What is the distance from Spring Creek to Garnett?
A It must be about 150 miles, or something along there.

Supplemental testimony and proceedings in the matter of the a plication of NEATIE MARTIN for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman.

Appearances:

Mallette & Smith, attorneys for applicant.
W. W. Hastings, attorney for Cherokee Nation.

E. J. Clayton, being first duly sworn, and being examined, deposited as follows.

Mr. Hastings: What is your name? A E. J. Clayton.
Q What is your age? A I was 58 years old the 22d day of February last.
Q What is your post office? A Walkertown, Bourbon County, Kansas, at this time.
Q When did you come to the State of Kansas?
A I got here on the 7th day of September, 1867.
Q Did you know a colored man by the name of William Martin? A Yes
sir.
Q Did you know his wife? A Yes sir.
Q What was her name? A We called her Oneada.
Q When did you become acquainted with the husband and wife?
A I suppose about the 12th, I think. I put a wagon tongue in in the shop on the 12th of September, as near as I can remember.
Q What was Bill Martin doing? A Blacksmith.
Q What is your occupation? A Farming. I did some work at the wagon business for that winter. That was my occupation for that winter, and no longer.
Q You did work at the wagon trade for that winter A Yes sir.
Q The winter following September, 1867? A Yes sir. The winter and spring of 1867 and 1868.
Q It was the winter after you got the Kansas? A Yes sir.
Q How long did you continue to know this family, Martin and his wife? A I knew them until 1868, I think, I forget just now. He died there about that time, right south of me right on Roach's place.
Q Have any family? A Yes sir, had several children.
Q Know any of them? A Yes sir, but I have forgotten their names.
Q Did Bill Martin have a brother that you know of? A Yes sir, he had Lou Martin, who was a blacksmith and worked there with us at that time.
Q How long did Lou continue to live there? A Until 1876. They worked together until he went away. I seen him there, but never knew anything about him afterwards.
Q He lived around there until 1876? A Yes sir.
Q How long after you come there before you got acquainted with him in the fall of 1867?
A Both worked together in the shop. Worked all together. He had two more brothers there.
Q What were their names?
A One was Tobe and the other was Peyt. I think he was older than Bill or Lou either one. Peyt was the next one.
Q How long did you know Tobe? A Until about 1876.
Q He was a brother to Louis and Bill Martin? A Yes sir.
Q And a brother to Peyton Martin? A Yes sir.
Q Did you know Peyton Martin? A Yes sir, knew him well.
Q How long did you continue to know Peyton Martin up there?
A I knew him from 1867. They all kind of hung together, those brothers did. I knew him from 1867 to, I think it was 1869, that some fellow tried to arrest him on some kind of a charge, stealing a horse or a cow. I forget which. 1.

Q Did he run away?

A Yes, but they caught him and brought him back, but did not appear against him, then he went away to the Cherokee Nation, and I heard that he was dead. I never knew anything about him after he left there.

Q That was in 1869? A Yes sir.

Q Did you know him continuously from 1867 to 1869.

A Yes sir, in 1867 and 1868. He worked for me in the harvest in 1868.

Q Did you know Peyt's wife? A Yes sir.

Q Did you know who he married?

A A girl by the name Hannah Sheals.

Q Do you know a brother of Oneatie Martin's, Jack Bean?

A Yes sir, I know him too.

Q When did you first know him?

A It could not have been later than the middle of September, 1867.

Q How long did you know Jack Bean? A He left there in 1868.

Q Was he living there when you came there in 1867?

A Yes sir, he had made a crop up there that summer.

Q He had a family? A Yes sir, he said he had, I never seen his family to know them.

Q Did you know a colored man by the name of Tobe Bean?

A Yes sir. He was a brother to this Martin's wife, he said.

Q How long did you continue to know Tobe Bean up there?

A I knew him until 1868. He helped me harvest in 1868, I think.

A I am pretty sure he did. My brother and me was together there.

Q You and Bill Martin, the husband of Oneatie, worked together in the shop in the fall of 1867? A Yes sir.

Q Louis worked with you? A Yes sir. Both blacksmiths and good workmen, I thought.

Q Is there any peculiar circumstances that makes you remember Jack Bean, any trade that you made with him?

A He never paid me for a pistol that I brought out of the war.

I sold him a pistol that I brought home. He said he wanted to kill a nigger with it, and he never paid me for it either.

Mr. Mellette: What is your name? A E. J. Clayton.

Q Did you know Tobe Bean, who is an applicant for enrollment here, in the Cherokee Nation?

A I don't know whether he is an applicant for enrollment or not.

Q How was Tobe Bean, was he a lame man? A I think so, for he had a sore foot.

Q You will swear that it was the Tobe Bean you know?

A Yes sir, the brother of Oneatie Martin.

Q When did you know him first?

A He was there around the shop all the winter of 1867, pretty much.

Q The winter of 1866 and 1867, you mean?

A No sir, I was not here, it was 1867.

Q The winter of 1866 and 1867? A It was the fall of 1867 and the spring of 1868.

Q Don't you know that Tobe Bean, that is an applicant here for enrollment is not a lame man? A I don't know whether he is or not.

Q When did Oneatie Martin leave Kansas to come to the Cherokee Nation? A In 1877 or 1878, I don't know which.

Q She didn't come to the Cherokee Nation in 1866?

A I never heard tell of her in 1866. I was not there in 1866. I knew her in 1867.

Q You said 1877? A I said it was in 1877 when she came to the Cherokee Nation, 1877 or 1878.

Q Was she there in 1877? A She was up there in 1877 or '78. I forget which it was.

Q Where was Oneatie Martin in 1867?

A Lived on Roach's place, right south of Mapleton there.

Q Did she come to the Cherokee Nation in the fall of 1866?

A I was not here in 1866. A.

Q When did you move to Kansas? A Moved in 1867.
 Q Was Neadie Martin in Kansas when you came there? A I think she was.
 Q Do you remember her? A Yes sir.
 Q How long ago has it been? A Since 1867?
 A Thirty-three or -four years.
 Q When were you first asked to remember back that far as to these people?
 A Never asked to remember back to them people.
 Q When were you first talked to about being a witness in this case?
 A About two or three hours ago. You mean about this Neadie Martin case, two or three hours ago.
 Q When were you first asked anything about any of these colored people up there, when you first knew them? When were you first talked to about being a witness in any of these cases?
 A A week or two ago, I guess.
 Q You have not seen any of these people since they left Kansas, have you? A No sir.
 Q You don't know anything about them? A No sir.
 Q That is a long time to remember? A I guess it is.
 Q You keep in your mind clearly all the names of these different colored people, do you?
 A Yes, and a whole slough more of them that live there.
 Q Why do you remember their names so distinctly?
 A They worked for me. This Neadie Martin washed for my wife.
 Q You remember Tobe? He is a brother to Bill Martin?
 A I think he was the oldest one of them.
 Q What county was that in? A Bourbon County, Kansas.
 Q How far from the Cherokee Line? A About 75 miles.
 Q You are positive, as positive as you are of anything in this case that Tobe Bean was in Kansas in 1867, are you?
 A I know that he was. That is, I know that there was a Tobe Bean there.
 Q Was he a lame man? A He was lame there that winter at some time. I don't know whether it was a permanent lameness, or anything about it.
 Q What time did you see him? A He was around the shop in the winter.
 Q When, of 1867? A Yes sir.
 Q That would throw him into the year 1868 too?
 A Yes sir, I think he left there in 1868 or 1869. That is, in the winter, probably, of 1868.
 Q Tobe Bean left there in 1868-9? A Yes sir, I think he did.
 Q The Tobe Bean that you are talking of? A Yes sir.
 Q He did not then, leave Kansas in the fall of 1866 or the fall of 1867? A I don't know what he done in 1866. I was not there in 1866.
 Q He didn't leave Kansas in the fall of 1867? A Not to my knowledge.
 Q Never went away? A I never missed him if he did. He was around the shop there.
 Q The Tobe Bean you are talking about did not leave Kansas until about 1869? A I think it must have been.

Mr. Hastings: Do you know whether these people came down to the Cherokee Nation afterwards, these people that you are talking about?
 A They said they was coming here.

This testimony will be filed with and made a part of the record in the following Cherokee Freedmen cases:

D-388, D-389, D-390, D-412, D-305, D-289, D-656, D-657, D-658, D-911, D-940, D-304, D-313, and in the case at bar.

I, Wm. Hutchinson, do hereby certify that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, I correctly recorded the proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of the stenographic notes thereof.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I. T., May 31, 1902.

In the matter of the application of PERRY ADAMS for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman:

Applicant appears by Mellete & Smith; Cherokee Nation, by W. W. Hastings:

By Mr. Smith:

The applicant moves the Commission to make the certified copy of the decree of the Court of Claims in the case of Moses Whitmire, Trustee for the Freedmen, vs The Cherokee Nation, No. 15209 filed in the Mariah Hayden case F D 496, a part of the record in this case and the cases hereinafter mentioned by reference to the said case of the said Mariah Hayden, and if it be deemed necessary that a copy of the said decree be filed in this case and in the following cases, to-wit:

Lewis Martin, D 289;

By W. W. Hastings:

Comes now the Cherokee Nation and objects to the introduction of the decree, because, First: It does not tend to show that the applicant was a slave of the Cherokee Nation at the beginning of the war, nor that he returned within the time specified in the treaty of 1866, or that he had been a continuous resident of the Cherokee Nation since that time, or that he is a descendant of such a person. Second: Because the same is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, and does not tend to prove an issue in this case. Third: Because the Commission will take judicial knowledge of all laws, treaties and decrees necessary for the determination of the right of any person who makes application for citizenship. Fourth: The Cherokee Nation objects to the filing of a certified copy of this decree in the case of an applicant unless the same is called and filed in each individual case.

Commission:

The motion of the attorney for the applicant will be entertained and the decree of the Court of Claims filed in the case of Mariah Hayden will be made a part of the record by reference in all the cases above named with the exception of those which come within the provisions of the temporary injunction recently granted by Judge Gill of the United States Court, of the Northern District, Indian Territory.

Mr. Smith:

The applicant further moves that as to the above named cases including the Mariah Hayden case that counsel for the applicant be allowed within thirty days to file any of the proof of any or all of the record other than the decree already referred to in the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee, vs Cherokee Nation, on file in the Court of Claims to the counsel of the Cherokee Nation if it is desired to do so.

W. W. Hastings;

The Cherokee Nation most certainly strenuously objects to the allowance of this permission or to the granting of this request for the reason that most of these applicants have had more than a year in which to file all of their testimony that they desired to file to make out their case before the Commission and that notice was given them all by agreement in March last, that the cases would be closed so far as testimony was concerned by the special permission of the firm of attorneys representing these applicants, on the 31st day of May, 1902, and that this being the 31st day of May, 1902, we say that under the rulings of the Commission, that under the agreement between the attorneys, that the testimony in all these cases is to close and should be closed by the Commission, and that no extension should be granted in any case and no case reopened unless there is some special and particular reason shown either by the Cherokee Nation on the one side or the applicant on the other why an extension of time is necessary or desired.

The Commission:

The law provides that the roll of Cherokee freedmen shall be made in strict compliance with the decree of the Court of Claims rendered the 3rd day of February, 1896, and as the Commission must take judicial notice of the judgment roll of said Court in the proceedings referred to the motion of the attorneys for applicants for additional time to file certified copies of the proceedings of the said Court is denied.

-----

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

I, E. C. Bagwell, a stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, on oath state that the above and foregoing is a true and perfect copy of the original testimony in the above entitled cause as filed with the Commission, which copy was made by me.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Vinita, I.T., September 23, 1903.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY and proceedings in the matter of the application for the enrollment of Lewis Martin et al., as Cherokee freedmen.

Appearances:

Louis T. Brown, Atty for applicant;
W. W. Hastings, J. S. Davenport and L. B. Bell,
Attys. for Cherokee Nation.

Mr. Brown: After looking over the evidence I find that Mr. Vann has testified in this case before, so I just want to make a request.

The applicant desires that the testimony of Tobe Bean taken September 21, 1903, in the matter of the application of Fannie Hight, Cherokee freedmen doubtful case, 207, be filed with and made a part of the record in this case, and we desire to submit the case without further evidence.

BY COMMISSION: On the part of the Commission we want some further evidence in this case as to residence.

MR. BROWN: The applicant has testified himself and also Mr.
Vann here, as to his residence, and I don't know what further testimony we can get, I will talk to the applicant and see.

BY COMMISSION: I judge from this note that he has been out at different times.

BY HASTINGS: All his children born in Kansas.

BY COMMISSION: The applicant will be the best one as to his residence.

BY BROWN: Comes now the applicant and objects to his being re-cross-examined on the question of residence for the reason that he has already testified to those points, as also other witnesses as shown by the record; and for the further reason that this case was finally submitted to this Commission on the 31st day of May, 1902.

LEWIS MARTIN, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

BY COMMISSION: What is your name? A Lewis Martin.

Q How old are you? A I am about 66 years old.

Q What is your postoffice? A Chelsea.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation?

A I have lived here about; I have had a home, that is on the farm, about 15 years.

Q In what district? A In Cooweescoowee.
Q Have you lived in Cooweescoowee district continuously for the past 15 years? A Yes sir, about 15 as well as I can remember.
Q Where did you live before that? A I lived here 2 years, that is around Vinita here. On farm. That is, I never had no home before that, only claimed on Pryor Creek, but I never built on because I wasn't able to. I got to bush whacking and was afraid to settle and my wife was afraid of her life here.
Q Did you ever leave the Cherokee Nation since the war? A Yes sir.
Q When did you leave here, I am talking about after the war? A Yes sir, after the war I left here in '68 once.
Q Where did you go? A Went to Kansas.
Q How long did you stay in Kansas? A Six or eight months.
Q Did you take your property and effects with you at that time? A No sir, left them all here.
Q Did you have property here at that time? A Yes sir, I had my bedding and some cooking utensils and tools, that's all I had but my wife.
Q You were married at that time, were you? A Yes sir.
Q What is the longest time you have ever lived out of the Cherokee Nations since the war? A The longest time I think wasn't over 8 months right straight.
Q Where did you live then, during those 8 months? A I lived a while in Ottawa, a little town called Ottawa.
Q Ottawa, Kansas? A Yes sir.
Q Did you ever live in Kansas after that? A No sir, I stayed there, never had no home there; stayed there and worked there. My wife stayed there and schooled the children there.
Q Did you keep house there? A No, she lived with her mother.
Q How long did your wife stay there? A Possibly 6 or 7 years off and on before she came back. She wouldn't live here.

MR. BROWN: When did you return to the Cherokee Nation for the first time after the war? A In '66.
Q What time in '66? A Along about September, I don't know just the date, along in September.
Q Who, if anyone, returned with you? A George Vann, Tobe Bean, Joe Bean, Philip Vann and Philip Downing, Jesse McNair, Gilbert Vann and his family.
Q Were you in what was known as the Horse Creek fight? A Yes sir.
Q When did that fight occur? A Occurred in September, along about '66.

Q Where? A On Horse Creek.

Q Horse Creek in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir, in the Cherokee Nation.

Q Have you been voting in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.

MR. HASTINGS: Where did you come when you first come down?

A The first place I went to was Katy Williams, on Spring Creek.

Q Did you come down horse back that time? A No sir, come down in a wagon.

Q Was your wife with you? A No sir, come down after that.

Q Where was your wife at that time, a In Kansas.

Q Had you any children born at that time? A Yes sir, had one

Q What was its name? A John.

Q Born in Kansas? A Yes sir.

Q How long did you remain here that time? A I remained here, I don't know just exactly how long.

Q Gets have your best judgment? A About 2 or 3 months as well as I can recollect; I don't know it has been so long I can't hardly recollect.

Q Stayed here until after Christmas of that year? A I don't think I did.

Q You went back to Kansas? A I went back to Kansas, yes sir.

Q You started a claim that time? A No, I had one already; no, I didn't start any claim, not then.

Q You went on back to where your wife was? A Yes sir.

Q And your child? A Yes sir.

Q What town did thy live in then? A Ottawa.

Q What is your wife's name? A Sarah.

Q Do you know F. D. Meyrick? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know John Cross? A Yes sir.

Q You and your wife kept house in Ottawa, Kansas? A No sir.

Q You didn't? A No sir.

Q How did you live there? A With my wife's mother, she was a State raised woman.

Q When did you come back to the Cherokee Nation after that time?

A In the fall. That same winter that I went back, that same winter.

Q Who did you come back with the second time?

A The second time I come back with my brother-in-law.

Q What's his name? A Frank Smith.

Q Where did you come to that time? A Here on Grand River.

Q Did you bring your wife with you that time? A No sir, I didn't

Q How long did you stay that time, when you come with Frank

Smith? A I stayed here, I don't know, 4 or 5 months.

Q With your wife up in Kansas? A Yes sir, because I was afraid to go back.

Q Why? A Because my brother-in-law went off and left me and I couldn't go back alone.

Q You was waiting for a chance to go back? A Yes sir.

Q As soon as you could you went back? A I went back to see her, yes sir.

Q She was living in Ottawa, Kansas? A Yes sir.

Q When was the third time you made the trip down here?

A I just told you I don't remember now, but I wasn't out of here 6 months.

Q Lewis, don't you know as a matter of fact you wasn't here for 25 years? A No sir, I don't.

Q Where did you keep house in the Cherokee Nation? A Here in town.

Q Vinita, A Yes sir.

Q Live in a house here? A Yes sir, I lived in a house here.

Q You and your wife? A Yes sir.

Q This is the first house you had ever occupied in the Cherokee Nation since the war? A First house.

Q The first house you ever kept was in Vinita, in the Cherokee Nation after the war, in the Cherokee Nation? A No sir.

Q Where did you keep house before? A Up on a farm here, to Mr Tuttle's.

Q How long was that before you kept house in Vinita? A A year before I think it was.

Q That was you and your wife? A Yes sir.

Q Where did you and your wife come from when you went to keeping house at Tuttle's? A I brought my wife from Kansas.

Q Ottawa, Kansas? A Yes sir.

Q That is the first time you and your wife ever saw the Cherokee Nation? A No it isn't.

Q When was it that you come to Tuttle's and kept house? A I don't know what year it was; I don't know just what year it was.

Q Lets see about your children, how many have you? A About five.

Q What's the oldest one's name? A I have got six with my stepson, Bill.

Q What is the oldest one's name? A Bill.

Q Where was he born? A Fort Scott.

Q What's the next one's name? A John, born at Ottawa.

Q What's the next one? A George.

Q Where was he born? A Ottawa.

Q What's the next one? A Fred, born at Ottawa.

Q What's the next one? A Allie, born at Ottawa.

Q What's the next one? Got another? A Ernest.

Q Is that the last one? A Yes sir.

Q How old is Ernest? A Going on 15.

Q Where was Ernest born? A Out on Panther Creek.

Q What's the next one to Ernest? A There ain't one next to Ernest.

Q Next one older than Ernest? A Allie.

Q How old is Allie? A I think 19 or 20 years old, I don't recollect.

Q Allie was born when your wife come down here? A Allie was the baby when she first come.

Q You are certain of that? A Yes sir.

Q Before that she had lived in Ottawa? A Stayed there, yes sir.

Q Now, with reference to your little claim out on Pryor Creek, what did you do with that? A I jus occupied and improved it, put up a foundation and kept it from running out, and had a well built.

Q Did you go down there every six months and put up a foundation and have a well built? A I didn't just exactly do that, but I went down there and kept it from runing out, that's the way every body done.

Q Every six months you went down to Pryor Creek to renew your claim? A I renewed it, yes sir.

Q Where was that claim? A On Pryor Creek.

Q Near whose place was it? A It was right near my brother's place.

Q What is your brother's name? A Frederick.

Q Frederick Martin? A Yes sir.

Q Every six months you would come from Kansas, come down to Pryor Creek, and renew your claim? A I didn't just do it every six months, I renewed it.

Q You have got your claim now? A Charley Martin is on it.

Q We didn't pay you nothing for it? Just took it up on the public domain? A Just took it up.

Q When did he take it up? A I don't know just when he did.

Q Twenty years ago? A I don't kno just exactly whether its 20 or not.

Q 25 or 30 years ago? A It was about '66 I think as well as I can remember.

Q What is the next year after '66? A I tell you, I don't know.

Q What is the year before '66? A No, it wasn't before '66. I am fool enough but I am not that big a fool.

Q You and your wife never kept house in the Cherokee Nation until you kept it here at Tuttle's after Allie was born?

A I tell you that the reason I didn't keep house I got to bush-whacking and my wife lived with her mother.

Q What did you do to make a living? A Come up there to work and the children was going to school there; lots of them was my kin people there. I would stay with them until I got a chance to come back; my wife didn't live here.

Q The first time your wife ever come here was after Allie was born? A It was 20 years ago when she first come here.

Q That was After Allie was born? A Yes sir, Allie was the baby when she come.

Q You never kept house here until she come? A No, I didn't.

Q I told you a dozen time the reason I didn't - because my wife wouldn't live here.

Q

BY MR. BROWN: You say that when you returned here the fall of '66, it was for the purpose of building your home? A Yes sir.

BY HASTINGS: You didn't build it that fall? A I was afraid, I was bush whacking. If you had been bush whacking you never would have built here. If you had been shot up like I was shot up you never would have built here.

BY MR. BROWN: Your wife refuse to come and live with you?

A She got scared up and wouldn't come and live here.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Sarah Martin, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

---: D E C I S I O N :---

It appears from the record herein that on May 15, 1901, Lewis Martin appeared before this Commission, at Vinita, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of himself and his minor child, Earnest Martin, as Cherokee Freedmen, and for the enrollment of his wife, Sarah Martin, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The applications of Lewis Martin and Earnest Martin being differently classified are not included in this decision.

The record herein shows that Sarah Martin claims her right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, by virtue of her marriage to Lewis Martin, an alleged Cherokee Freedman.

The record further shows that Sarah Martin makes no claim for enrollment, as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, other than by intermarriage.

It further appears from the evidence submitted in support of said application, and from the records in the possession of the Commission, that said applicant has never been enrolled by the Cherokee tribal authorities as a member of the Cherokee tribe, or admitted to Cherokee citizenship by a duly constituted court or committee of the Cherokee Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by a decree of the United States Court in Indian Territory, under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 10, 1896, (29 Stats., 321).

It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that following the ruling of the Department in the case of Lemuel Welcome, (I.T.D. 5848-1904, 11776-1904), the application made for the enrollment of Sarah Martin, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, should be denied, under the provisions of Section 21 of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered.

In the matter of the application of Lewis Martin, et al., for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen, consolidating the applications of:

Lewis Martin, et al.,	Cherokee Freedmen D-289,
John Martin,	Cherokee Freedmen D-656,
Fred Martin,	Cherokee Freedmen D-657,
Allie Martin,	Cherokee Freedmen D-658,
George Martin,	Cherokee Freedmen D-911,
William Martin, et al.,	Cherokee Freedmen D-940.

--:-

D E C I S I O N .

The record herein shows that applications for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen were made to this Commission by Lewis Martin for himself and minor child, Ernest Martin, and wife, Sarah Martin (by intermarriage); by John Martin for himself; by Fred Martin for himself; by Allie Martin for himself; by George Martin for himself; and by William Martin for himself and minor children, Maude, Sarah Ella, Bendona, Australia, Goldburn, Lloyd, Ralph and Lulah Martin. As the said Sarah Martin is differently classified, her rights to enrollment will not now be passed upon. Copies of the testimony taken at different times and places in the cases of Tobias Bean, et al., C. F. D-205, Neatie Martin, C. F. D.-218, and Fannie Night, C. F. D-207, are filed herewith and made a part of the record in this case.

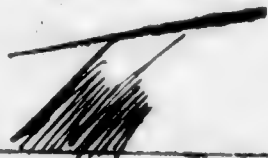

The evidence herein shows that the applicant, Lewis Martin, was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the Rebellion; that during said Rebellion he went out of the Cherokee Nation, and did not return thereto and establish a residence therein within the time specified in the decree of the Court of Claims rendered February 3, 1896, in the case of Moses Whitwire, trustee, etc., vs. the Cherokee Nation, et al., for the return of freedmen to said Nation. The other applicants herein are the children and grandchildren of the said Lewis Martin, were born since the commencement of the Rebellion, and possess no rights to enrollment other than as his (Lewis Martin's) descendants. None of the applicants herein can be identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the applications for the enrollment of Lewis Martin, Ernest Martin, John Martin, Fred Martin, Allie Martin, George Martin, William Martin, Maude Martin, Sarah Ella Martin, Boudena Martin, Australia Martin, Goldburn Martin, Lloyd Martin, Ralph Martin, and Eulah Martin, as Cherokee Freedmen, should be denied, under the provisions of section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), and it is so ordered.

WASHINGTON.

May 15, 1905.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to enclose a report from the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated May 2, 1905, transmitting the record of the application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation of Sarah Martin.

May 2, 1905, the Commission decided adversely to the applicant.

The record shows that the applicant claims her right to enrollment solely as a citizen by intermarriage by reason of her marriage to Lewis Martin, an alleged Cherokee Freedman, and that she had never been enrolled or admitted to citizenship by any tribal authority of the Cherokee Nation or by any United States tribunal.

In view of the record the approval of the Commission's decision adverse to the applicant is recommended.

Very respectfully,

C. F. Larrabee

Acting Commissioner.

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Winkona, Indian Territory.

Sir:

May 13, 1903, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes transmitted the record in the matter of the consolidated applications for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen by Lewis Martin for himself and his minor child, Ernest Martin; by John Martin for himself; by Earl Martin for himself; by Allie Martin for himself; by George Martin for himself; by William Martin for himself and his minor children, Maude, Sarah Ella, Bessie, Australia Goldburn, Lloyd, Ralph and Bulah Martin, including its decision of the same date, adverse to the applicants.

Reporting June 10, 1903 (Land 37851), the Indian Office recommended that the Commission's decision be approved. A copy of its letter is inclosed.

September 7, 1903, motions for review were filed in the matter of the application of Lewis Martin et al.

There appears to be no proper reason for granting said motions and they are hereby denied.

The Department concurs in the recommendation made, and the decision of the Commission is hereby affirmed.

The Indian Office will advise the local attorneys for the applicants of departmental action.

The papers in the case, including the motions for review, have been sent to the Indian Office for its files.

Respectfully,

Q What time in '66 did you move here? A. In February.

APPLICANT RECALLED: Examined by Commissioner Needles:

Q Did you get your strip money? A. Yes sir.

The Kerns Clifton roll of the Cherokee Nation examined and the name of the applicant identified thereon as follows:
Page 156, No. 1363, Katie Ridge, Coowaseeowee district.

By Com'r Needles,-

Katie Ridge applies for herself; she is not found on the authenticated roll of 1880 or the census roll of 1896 but she is identified on the Kerns Clifton roll; she makes satisfactory proof as to her residence and will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman on a doubtful card for the reason that her name is not found on the authenticated roll of 1880 and from the further fact that her citizenship is contested by the Cherokee representatives. When the Commission arrive at conclusion in her case she will be notified by mail.

Q Your name is Anderson Lynch? A Yes, sir.

Q How old are you? A About 64.

Q What is your post office address? A Vinita.

Q Are you a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q You know Katie Ridge? A I didn't know her when I first saw her, when I first saw they they were up there on Honey Creek and someone said that was the Ridges.

Q What year was that? A That was along in the fall of '66, I think it was.

Q You saw her in the fall of 1866 then? A Yes, sir.

Q Have you known her since that time? A Yes, sir, after they came down here, I got acquainted with them; he said it was some of the Ridges that was up there on Honey Creek.

Q Do you know the Katie Ridge, the applicant here, as the same woman you saw on Honey Creek in the fall of 1866? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know whether she was a slave or not? A No, sir, I don't know all the Ridges, all I know about them is what Simon was telling me.

Q Simon who? A Simon Lynch.

Q Did you know them before the war? A No, sir, he knew them.

By L. R. Bell, Cherokee attorney: Where were you going in '66?

A Going up to Southwest City.

Q How far is Southwest City from where they were living? A I don't know, sir, I never noticed; the first time I ever had been there, and I just went along with Simon.

Q About what time of the year was it? A It was long in the fall like.

Q Can you recollect, early or late? A It was early, it wasn't so cold, I know we slept out, we were going up there.

Q You don't recollect then how far it was from where they lived to Southwest? A No, sir, I expect Simon knows, he was acquainted up there and I wasn't.

Q You went on from there to Southwest City did you? A Yes, sir.

Q Now where was Southwest City, in the Cherokee Nation or Missouri?

A It was in Missouri or Arkansas, I don't know which, it was across the line.

Appearances:

Mr. Mallette, of Mallette & Smith, attorneys for appl't.
Mr. L.B. Bell, of attorneys for Cherokee Nation, and Mr. W.W. Hastings, of attorneys for Cherokee Nation.

W.H. WOOD, being sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

BY MR. BELL:

- Q What is your name? A W. H. Wood.
Q What is your age? A 48.
Q Post-office address? A Zenia, I. T.
Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Were you living here when the war began? A Yes sir.
Q Where did you go? A Into the Choctaw Nation.
Q How when did you return to the Cherokee Nation after the close of the war? A In '66.
Q Where did you come to? A Come to a place known as the Polston place, on the south-west part of Peter's Prairie, Delaware District,
Cherokee Nation.
Q How far was that from where the Missouri line crosses Honey Creek? A About a mile and a half.
Q When did you move onto to that place? A Moved on that place in the fall of '66, I don't remember the month exactly.
Q Well did you live there when the war began, or how come you to go on that place? A We lived on Whitewater in the Cherokee Nation.
Q How come you to go on that Polston place? A I bought it from Dr. Polston, my father did.
Q How old were you at that time? A I guess I was about 14 years old.
Q Was there any town there at that time, near there? A No sir, there was no town, there was a little post-office and store over near the line that they called Honey Creek.
Q How long did you live there on that place? A We lived there about
2 years.
Q Then what did you do with it? A Sold it back to Dr. Polston.
Q And you left it? A Yes sir.
Q Well now you went there in the fall of 1866 and you stayed there then? A Until the fall of 1868.
Q During the year of 1866, that is to say, the winter of 1866, were there any freedmen living on that place? A No sir.
Q Were you acquainted with one Kate Ridge a Freedman? A No sir.
Q Cornelius Ridge? A No sir.
Q No parties of that sort lived down on that farm? A No sir.
Q Are you acquainted with what is known as the old Washburn place at that time? A Yes sir.
Q Was there any Freedmen living on that place by that name? A No
sir.
Q How far is that from the Polston place? A About a mile and a half north and west.
Q Well now south and east of that place for a mile and a half around about that Polston place was there any other houses? A No sir, nothing but hills and hollows, no improvements whatever for 5 or 6 miles.
Q When did Dr. Polston <sup>occupy</sup> ~~re-buy~~ that place after you bought it from him or did he ever? A He went right on the place when we left it in '66.

Q Where did he move from to that place? A He moved from Mayesville Arkansas.

Q Where was he living during the year of 1867 after you bought that place from him? A He was living I think possibly he moved part of his family to Mayesville and part of them was in Fayetteville in the early part of '67, and in the winter of '67 they all moved there to Mayesville and lived there until he bought this place back.

Q Now do you know anything about where Dr. Polston was in the early part of '66, or where he come from when you saw him and your father bought the place? A He came from Arkansas.

Q He was a white man was he? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know when the, - no, I don't guess you do either, you never did get acquainted with Katie Ridge did you? A Never have seen her that I know of.

Q There never was any Freedmen on that place from '66 after you bought it? A No sir, there wasn't but one house and we had it.

Q After that was there any Freedmen lived on the Washbourn place that you knowed? A Not that I had any knowledge of.

Q But you moved away from that place in '68? A Yes sir.

BY MR. WHEELER:

Q How old are you, Mr. Wood? A 48 years old last July, sir.

Q You must have been about 13 years old then in 1866, that right?

A Yes sir, going on 14 I think.

Q What did you mean by buying a place at that time, you didn't buy a place did you? A I said my father.

Q You were a young boy at that time? A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember well everything that took place in those days?

A Yes sir.

Q You paid particular attention to just who was living around there at that time, there wasn't so many but what you could count them, was there?

Q You were a young boy and still you recollect it at that time?

Q What was the name of the place about as the one they wanted to buy people like to live there? A On the Polston place.

Q Where was that, on the south edge of Peter's Prairie in the Cherokee Nation?

Q Was that on Indian Creek? A No sir, it wasn't directly; the brakes of Indian Creek, a mile I guess from the Creek.

Q How many other places were there in that country? A Just the one.

Q How old you were? A I lived there.

Q You were 13 years old, did you remember that there were no other places belonging to Polston? A Yes sir.

Q What was the name of the place? A I think it was Choctaw Nation.

Q How old you were? A 13 years.

Q What was the name of the place?

Q That was the name of the place? A We got carried off in the Choctaw Nation and I think we were possibly 3 months getting through.

Q Do you know anything of Katie Ridge? A No sir.

Q You don't know where he lived before the war then? A No sir.

BY JAMES W. BOWLES:

Q Are you a married citizen? A Yes sir.

Q By blood? A Yes sir.

Q What is your occupation? A I am farming and selling goods.

BY MR. WHEELER:

Q Now you said you returned in 1865, did you come to the Cherokee Nation in '65? A No sir.

Q Where did you come to? A We landed up on Honey Creek in the edge of the Cherokee Nation place,

Q And then moved down into the Cherokee Nation in '66? A Yes sir.

Katie Ridge etx (sup'1)3

WESLEY M. WOODALL, being sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

BY MR. BELL:

Q Give your name, age and post-office? A M. M. Woodall, 59, Big Cabin.

Q This is a case, Mrs. Woodall, of Katie Ridge, Freedman woman, claiming to be a Cherokee slave before the war of a Cherokee, and now claims a right as a Cherokee citizen under the 9th article of the treaty of 1866, were you acquainted with the Ridge family, Cherokees? A Yes sir.

Q Where did you know them? A I knew them in Fayetteville, Arkansas

Q How did you get acquainted with them? A I married into the family.

Q Who was it? A I married Eneous Ridge.

Q About when was that? A I married him in '58, spring of '58.

Q Were you acquainted with one Herman Ridge? A Yes sir, it was my brother-in-law.

Q That was a brother of your husband? A Yes sir.

Q Were you acquainted with Miss Flora Polston? A Yes sir, she was a sister to my husband.

Q Were you acquainted with Mrs. Sarah Ridge? A No, she died before I went there; she was the mother of my husband. She died a year or so before I went there.

Q Where did this Herman Ridge, your brother-in-law, live when you became acquainted with him? A At Fayetteville, at his sisters, Mrs. Washbourn's.

Q Was that his home? A Yes sir, all the home I ever knew of.

Q You never knew of him having a home in the Cherokee Nation?

A No sir.

Q This home that he had was in Washington County, Arkansas

A Yes sir.

Q Did you know a negro woman he had by the name of Katie? A Yes sir.

Q Did she have a husband named Henry? A Yes sir.

Q How many children? A Yes sir.

Q And you had any of them? A Cornelius is the only one I ever saw while I was there that I know of; she had other children, but I don't remember of ever seeing them when they were small; I have seen them since they were grown.

BY MR. NEEDLES:

Q Now, Woodall, was Herman Ridge a Cherokee Indian? A Yes sir.

Q Did he have a farm in the Cherokee Nation? A Not that I ever knew of, there was a farm here that had belonged to his father, but I don't think he ever claimed it.

Q He claimed to be a Cherokee citizen didn't he? A I don't know whether he did or not; he always lived there; he was living in Fayetteville when I knew him and I never heard him say.

Q You didn't become a member of the family until in '58 did you?

A No sir.

Q That was two years before the war began, say? A Yes sir.

Q When did you see Katie Ridge back in the Indian Territory, in 1866? A I wasn't here in 1866; I saw Henry, her husband, in Springfield, Missouri, the winter of '66, but I didn't see her.

Q Well you were a witness for Katie Ridge before the Wallace Court were you not? A Yes sir, that is, they asked me the same questions you have asked me; they didn't ask me whether she was here in '66 or not; they didn't ask me that question at all; they asked me if I knew her and knew she belonged to the Cherokees before the war, and I told them I did.

Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee nation? A Yes sir.

Q By what right? A By marriage.

Q You married Herman Ridge's brother? A Yes sir.

Q And by virtue of marrying Herman Ridge's brother you ~~also~~ became a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Well I never lived in the Cherokee Nation during his lifetime; my present husband is a Cherokee.

Katie Ridge (sup'1) 4

Q Your present husband is a Cherokee? A Yes sir.

Q Where did you live during the lifetime of Mr. Ridge? A We lived at Fayetteville, Arkansas.

Q How long did you live there? A A year and four months, that was as long as he lived.

Q That was up just about the beginning of the war? A Well I ~~left~~ lived there until '59. I left there in the fall of '59.

Q Where was the farm located that the father of Herman Ridge owned in the Cherokee Nation? A Well I don't know, it was somewhere on Honey Creek, but I don't know anything about the farm, that Herman Ridge owned?

Q No, that Herman Ridge's father owned? A Why it was somewhere on Honey Creek, but I don't know anything about the place; I never was there; I suppose that Dr. Polston lived on part of it, I don't know though whether it was or not.

Q How long after the close of the war was it that you saw Katie Ridge in Springfield, Missouri? A I never saw Katie Ridge in Springfield, Missouri, - I saw her husband.

Q Oh, you just saw her husband? A Yes sir.

Q Was she there? A I don't know, he said he was living near Springfield, Henry Ridge told me he was living there near Springfield at the time I saw him.

Q But you didn't see Katie at all? A No, I didn't see her; ~~at~~ I didn't see any of his family at that time.

Q When did you see Katie Ridge first? A I saw her in '72 here in the Cherokee Nation, fall of '72.

Q Where did you see her? A I saw her on the road toward Southwest City on the old Watie place. That's as near as I can tell you; I don't know exactly where on the road I saw her, I was horseback and met the wagon; I was with Stan Watie's daughter, and she told me that was Uncle Henry and his family, and I stopped and spoke to him.

JOHN R. SHIELDS, being sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

I JOHN R. SHIELDS.

Q Tell that gentleman your name, your age and post-office? A Grove post-office; my name is John R. Shields; my age is 53.

Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A I guess not.

Q Well how do you put it down for a fact? A Well I expect you will have to put it down for a fact that I never proved my right somehow or another; my wife claims citizenship, but we never went through; we are one of these that got behind. I am not a citizen at all.

Q You are a white man, not an Indian? A Yes sir.

Q Where were you living in '66? A I was living 2 miles north of Southwest City, up on what is known as the "Line Road", line between the Cherokee Nation and Missouri.

Q Were you living 2 miles north of Southwest City or what is now called Southwest City? A 2 miles north of what is now Southwest City at the present time.

Q At the time you lived there was there a town on the present site of Southwest City? A No sir.

Q What was there? A Honey Creek without anything more, there was a man's farm there, crossing of the road on the Creek; there was no town or village there at all.

Q Can you state just when a store was first put up there and a town started? A I can't give the exact date, but directly after the war in '66 or perhaps '67.

Q Who was the first man that went there? A Alex Strothers and J.F. Lamance were the first men to put up stores.

Q Was there a post-office established there? A Well they kept a post-office there in the store, in the hands of Mr. Strothers I think the post-office was handled.

Q Well the post-office was there in the store? A Yes sir.

Q What was the place called then? A Honey Creek. did it
Q How long did it retain that name of Honey Creek, or when change back to Southwest? A It remained Honey Creek until there was a little village started up there and then it was changed to Southwest City.
Q Was that in one or two or three years? A Well yes, three years perhaps, somewhere along in that range, I don't know just when,
I don't recollect the date as to when it was changed, but after the town was started a little.

MR. BELLETTE: I don't believe I want to ask him anything.

JAMES M. BELL, being sworn by Commissioner Needles testified as follows:

BY MR. BELL:

Q Give me your name, age and post-office? A My name is James M.
Bell, aged 69, post-office Needmore, or Vinita, either one.
Q You are a citizen of the Cherokee nation are you? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you lived in this Cherokee nation? A Well with the exception of a few intervals I have been here since '39.
Q Well you have been here 40 years or more? A Yes sir.
Q Were you acquainted with John Ridge's family? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know when John Ridge died? A He was killed the 12th day of June, 1839.
Q Where did he live then? A He lived on Honey Creek, in Delaware
District.
Q Did he leave a family? A Yes.
Q Name what they were if you can do it? A ~~His first~~ His first child was not of sound mind, a girl, Rolen Ridge was the next, Herman, Eneous, Andrew, Susan Washbourn, Flora Polston, constituted the family.
Q Well, how long did they continue to reside, or did they continue to reside in the Cherokee Nation after John Ridge's death? A I think they moved out immediately, out of the country; they didn't remain long after the death of Ridge.
Q What became of them? A They moved to Benton County, Arkansas.
Q How long did they reside there, or did they continue to live there? A They were living there when I was visiting the family but afterwards moved to Fayetteville, that was in '50 sometime, that I was there.
Q What in Benton county? A In Benton County.
Q Then you say they afterwards moved to Fayetteville? A Yes sir.
Q Where is Fayetteville? A In Washington County, Arkansas.
Q You were acquainted with Herman Ridge were you? A Yes sir.
Q How old a man was he at the time of his death, if you know?
A He was between 25 and 30; he was 25 I reckon; between that and 30.
Q Well he was killed when? A He was killed in '63 I believe, or
'62, in the Cherokee Nation.
Q Well his father was killed in '39, how old did you say he was you think? A I think he was between 25 and 30.
Q Now where did he live and make his home? A He was with his mother; he was a single man; had no family of his own.
Q He was with his mother where? A In Benton County, Arkansas.
Q When did he join the army? A He joined in '62.
Q ~~When~~ Well did he come from Arkansas to do that? A Yes.
Q Do you know of his ever having a farm, location or home or habitation in the Cherokee Nation after his father was killed and his family moved out of the country? A Never did.
Q You were intimately acquainted with the family were you? A Yes
sir.
Q They were closely related to you were they? A Yes sir.
Q By blood, friendship, social matters or what? A (It is) ~~an-~~ standing that we are related by blood, but what degree I don't know, but the family were intimately acquainted.

Kate Ridge (supp) 6

BY MR. McLELLIE:

Q Where did you live just before the war? A My father lived in what was called Flint district, down here near Stilwell before the war.

Q Where did the Ridges move from when you say they moved to Benton County, Arkansas? A They moved from off of Honey Creek, Delaware District.

Q That's in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.

Q Well they kept up their farm after they went to Benton County, didn't they? A Rollin Ridge moved onto the farm after his father was killed, but didn't remain there long; Rollin Ridge was the oldest son, and moved back onto the farm with the expectation of restoring the old place I guess, and living there.

Q Now were you there and know all about this personally; did you see them? A Yes Rollin Ridge there, yes sir, at the place.

Q I will ask you if Peter Ridge, a slave, was not in charge of that place at the Ridges after they went out into the State? A I don't know anything in regard to that.

Q I will ask you if they didn't leave the Territory because of the murder of John Ridge? A That is the family?

Q Yes, that is the family on that account, that's my understanding, yes sir.

Q You don't seem to say that they abandoned their citizenship in the country? A Well I don't know; it is my impression that they did.

Q Why? A Well it is impossible for them to live here.

Q All right, but what they were out of the Territory? Yes I know that they were out of here.

Q I will ask you if the Ridges, then that of Warner Ridge, who lived in the Cherokee Nation, there at Fayetteville, she didn't send her slaves to the Ridges where she was to their farm to keep it up? A I don't know anything about that.

Q I will ask you if you know that farm over to the house at Fayetteville? A I don't know what she might have done so, but I don't know anything about that.

Q Now I will ask you by Commissioner Reddick, who asked as follows:

BY MR. McLELLIE:

Q What is the name of the man, 32 years old, white?

Q That is the name of the man? A Well I was born in the Cherokee Nation I guess, Delaware District, they tell me; I don't have no recollection of it.

Q Where did you live when you were first old enough to remember, in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, I think I was born there, below the Grand Saline, now that would be about where the whole world was, and I don't know where I was born out of there, I don't know.

Q Do you remember the name of the man? A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember the name of the man? A Yes sir, I remember the old Ridge place, on Peter's Ridge.

Q Were you ever at that place prior to the war? A Yes, at times.

Q Now who lived there? A I don't know, but I think I got acquainted with Peter, Rollin Ridge, and John Ridge lived there, and the wife, and he killed a man, he was off and had to go to California, left there and never came back any more. There was an old man named Peter, an old slave of his, that he had there, and lived on the place 5 or 6 years. Then it passed into the hands of Peter, who married Flora, the youngest girl of John Ridge's family, and lived there until '61 probably lived there 2 or or 4 years.

Kate Ridge (Sup'l) 7

Q Did you know Herman Ridge? A Yes sir, I knew Herman Ridge so far as I could recollect.

Q Where did you know him? A I knew him in Benton County, Arkansas first; next at Washington County, Arkansas, at Fayetteville.

Q Was he living at Fayetteville when the war came up? A He lived there and at Fayetteville from '48 up until the war as well as I could recollect him, and then he come and joined our command, that is the confederate Army, General Watie was a kinsman of his and he joined the ~~xxx~~ regiment that he was raising, and I think he was killed in '63, or maybe '62.

Q Anything else you want to state? A That's about all I know about that place, except that Polston re-occupied the place and lived there, - his wife died in about 1868; his heirs own it yet.

BY MR. BELLETTTE:

Q You are chief counsel for the Cherokee nation in the conduct of these Freedmen cases are you? A Yes sir, supposed to be.

MR. BELLETTTE: Well I believe if that is the case I will let you go.

MRS. M. M. WOODALL, being re-called and further examined, testified as follows:

BY MR. BELL:

Q Did Herman Ridge keep his slaves, keep this Katie up there in Washington County while he lived there? A Yes sir, they lived right there.

BY MR. BELLETTTE:

Q Did she return to the Cherokee Nation at any time ~~that xxx~~ there while you were there? A Not that I know of.

Q You don't pretend to say you can remember back that long and say she didn't return to the Cherokee Nation? A She never returned to the best of my knowledge, I was there.

Q Now the descendants of the Ridges are still citizens of the Cherokee Nation are they not? A Yes sir.

Q The Washbourns? A Yes sir.

Q What relations are the Washbourns to Herman Ridge? A Mrs. Washbourn was Herman Ridge's sister, the children are Herman Ridge's nieces and nephews.

Q Where was Mrs. Washbourn living when you were living at Fayetteville? A She was living at Fayetteville.

Q And did she live after the war? A At ~~Fayetteville~~ Fayetteville?

Q No, where did she live after the war? A When I knew her after the war she lived here in the Cherokee Nation on Honey Creek.

Q This Mrs. Washbourn who was Herman Ridge's sister and lived at Fayetteville with Herman Ridge, came back to the Cherokee Nation after the war as a citizen? A Yes sir.

Q She was a young lady at the time she was living at Fayetteville?

A She was a married woman.

Q Married to Washbourn? A Yes sir.

Q Didn't they all leave the Cherokee Nation because they were afraid of their lives after John Ridge was murdered? A Well I don't know why they went; I wasn't in the family then.

Q They all came back to the Cherokee Nation after that? A Mrs. Washbourn and her family and Polston and his family came back.

Q Polston married Herman Ridge's sister? A Yes sir.

Q Did he leave the Territory during the war? A I wasn't here during the war, I don't know anything about it.

Q Where was Polston living when you went into the Ridge family in '58? A He was at Fayetteville.

Q He is back in the Cherokee Nation as a citizen is he not? A He is not living now.

Q He did move back into here as a citizen after the war? A Yes sir.

Q I will ask you if they were not temporarily outside of the Cherokee Nation because it was unsafe for them to live in the Cherokee okee Nation? A Well I don't know; I know they were living there and that's all I know; I never heard them say anything about it.

Kate Ridge (sup'1) 8

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q You don't know what legal steps were taken by those people, Washbourns and/or Polstons to re-establish their citizenship? A No sir.

COMMISSIONER NEEDLES: The testimony will be filed in Katie Ridge, Cherokee Freedman D 295, and D355 and D 586, and D 589 and D 300, D 360, D 361, D 362 and D 358.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I. T., May 31, 1902.

In the matter of the application of PERRY ADAMS for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman:

Applicant appears by Nallette & Smith; Cherokee Nation, by W. W. Hastings:

By Mr. Smith:

The applicant moves the Commission to make the certified copy of the decree of the Court of Claims in the case of Moses Whitmire, Trustee for the Freedmen, vs The Cherokee Nation, No. 17209 filed in the Mariah Hayden case F D 493, a part of the record in this case and the cases hereinafter mentioned by reference to the said case of the said Mariah Hayden, and if it be deemed necessary that a copy of the said decree be filed in this case and in the following cases, to-wit:

Katie Ridge, D 295;

By W. W. Hastings:

Comes now the Cherokee Nation and objects to the introduction of the decree because, First: It does not tend to show that the applicant was a slave of the Cherokee Nation at the beginning of the war, nor that he returned within the time specified in the treaty of 1866, or that he had been a continuous resident of the Cherokee Nation since that time, or that he is a descendant of such a person. Second: Because the same is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, and does not tend to prove an issue in this case. Third: Because the Commission will take judicial knowledge of all laws, treaties and decrees necessary for the determination of the right of any person who makes application for citizenship. Fourth: The Cherokee Nation objects to the filing of a certified copy of this decree in the case of an applicant unless the same is called and filed in each individual case.

Commission:

The motion of the attorney for the applicant will be entertained and the decree of the Court of Claims filed in the case of Mariah Hayden will be made a part of the record by reference in all the cases above named with the exception of those which come within the provisions of the temporary injunction recently granted by Judge Gill of the United States Court, of the Northern District, Indian Territory.

Mr. Smith:

The applicant further moves that as to the above named cases including the Mariah Hayden case that counsel for the applicant be allowed within thirty days to file any of the proof of any or all of the record other than the decree already referred to in the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee, vs Cherokee Nation, on file in the Court of Claims to the counsel of the Cherokee Nation if it is desired to do so.

W. W. Hastings:

The Cherokee Nation most certainly strenuously objects to the allowance of this permission or to the granting of this request for the reason that most of these applicants have had more than a year in which to file all of their testimony that they desired to file to make out their case before the Commission and that notice was given them all by agreement in March last, that the cases would be closed so far as testimony was concerned by the special permission of the firm of attorneys representing these applicants, on the 31st day of May, 1902, and that this being the 31st day of May, 1902, we say that under the rulings of the Commission, that under the agreement between the attorneys, that the testimony in all these cases is to close and should be closed by the Commission, and that no extension should be granted in any case and no case re-opened unless there is some special and particular reason shown either by the Cherokee Nation on the one side or the applicant on the other why an extension of time is necessary or desired.

The Commission:

The law provides that the roll of Cherokee freedmen shall be made in strict compliance with the decree of the Court of Claims rendered the 3rd day of February, 1896, and as the Commission must take judicial notice of the judgment roll of said Court in the proceedings referred to the motion of the attorneys for applicants for additional time to file certified copies of the proceedings of the said Court is denied.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings had in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Wagoner; by Arthur Riley for himself and minor child, Beth Melton for herself and minor child, Elvora Melton; by Willie Curls for himself; by Riley Curls for himself and minor children, Willie, Edward, James, George, Stephenia and Clarence Curls; thereafter, on July 1, 1902, there was filed with the Commission an affidavit showing the birth, on February 13, 1902, of Beatrice Curls, child of the applicant, Riley Curls; and by Ophelia Thompson for herself and minor children, Alpha, Libbie, Hirschel, Harvey and Clyde Thompson.

Copies of the following testimony, decisions, and Departmental letters are filed herewith and made a part of the record in this case: Its decision rendered by the Commission on March 5, 1904, and Departmental letter of May 17, 1904 (I.T.D. 3470-04), in the case of Ed Vann, C.F.D. 660; its decisions rendered by the Commission on July 10, 1903, and June 23, 1904, and of Departmental letters of May 11, and November 12, 1904 (I.T.D. 2412, 8594-04), in the cases of Jesse Vann et al., C.F.D. 254 (R 302), and Emma Purtle C.F.D. 265; its decisions rendered by the Commission on March 5, and April 20, 1904, and of Departmental letters of June 2, 23, and 25, 1904 (I.T.D. 4388, 5028-5034-04), in the cases of Esther Holt, C.F.D. 645 (R 443), Tecumseh Holt, C.F.D. 653 (R 399), William Holt, C.F.D. 694 (R 398), and Moses Holt, C.F.D. 185; its decision rendered by the Commission on March 5, 1904, and Departmental letter of June 21, 1904 (I.T.D. 4736-04); in the consolidated case of Katie Thornton et al., C.F.D. 578 et al., (R. 410-F 411-R 412-R 413-R 414); of the testimony taken at Chelsea, Indian Territory, June 8, 1901, its decision rendered by the Commission on April 20, 1904, and of Departmental letter of October 31, 1904, (I.T.D. 8138-04), in the consolidated case of Katie Blackwell, et al., including, among others, the application of Mary Riley, C.F.D. 624; of its decision rendered by the Commission on November 23, 1904, in the consolidated case of Andrew T. Watie, C.F.D. 502, et al., and of the testimony taken at different times and places in the cases of Edward Derrick, C.F.D. 818, Aaron Webber C.F.D. 216, Elizabeth Weigs, et al., C.F.D. 391, Samuel Beck, et al., C.F.D. 775, David Johnson, C.F.D. 356, Abraham Ward, C.F.D. 607 (R 283), and of Peter Ward, C.F.D. 613, R 282).

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant, Katie Ridge, is the mother of the applicants, Cornelius Ridge and Phoebe Johnson, and of one Jesse Ridge, and one Mary Ridge (later Hicks, former wife of Dennis Hicks Sr., D 350, infra.), both deceased; that the said applicants and the said Jesse and Mary Ridge, deceased, were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the commencement of the rebellion, were taken from the Cherokee Nation during said rebellion, and did not return thereto and establish a residence therein within the time specified in the decree of the Court of Claims rendered on February 3, 1896, in the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee, etc., vs. the Cherokee Nation et al., for the return of Cherokee freedmen to said Nation; that the applicants, Laura Ridge and Ary Lynch, neither claim nor possess any rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen other than those obtained by virtue of their marriage to the applicant Cornelius Ridge and to the said Jesse Ridge, deceased; that the applicants, Pearl, Jesse, Myrtle and Henry C. Ridge, and Ida Jones, are children of the said applicants, Cornelius and Laura Ridge, were born since 1866, and possess no rights to enrollment other than as descendants of their said parents; that the applicants, Joseph, Percy, Herbert, Serena and Pearl Wilton, Maud Riley, Rosa Vann, and William Townsend, are children of the applicant Phoebe Johnson, were born since 1866, and possess no rights to enrollment other than as descendants of their said mother; that the applicants, Lee, Eddie, and Stella Martin and Cornelias Jones, are children of the applicant Ida Jones, were born since 1860, and, after ample opportunity afforded, it is not established by satisfactory evidence that the said applicants Lee, Eddie and Stella Martin, possess any rights to enrollment other than as descendants of their said mother, and the applicant Cornelias Jones, possesses no rights to enrollment other than as his mother's descendants; that the applicant Elvora Vann, is a child of the applicant Ary Lynch, and the said Jesse Ridge, deceased, was born since 1860, and possesses no rights to enrollment other than as a descendant of her said parents; that the applicant Jesse Barnett, is a child of the applicant Maud Riley, was born since 1860, and, after ample opportunity afforded, it is not established by satisfactory evidence that the said Jesse Barnett possesses any rights to enrollment other than as a descendant of his said mother, and that the applicant John C. Riley, is a child of the said applicant Maud Riley, and one William Riley, (said William Riley's rights to enrollment are considered below, C. F. D. 303), was born since 1860, and possesses no rights to enrollment other than as a descendant of his said parents; that the applicant Josephine Vann, is a child of the said applicant Rosa Vann, was born since 1860, and possesses no rights to enrollment other than as a descendant of her said mother (In C.F.D. 560, the Commission found that one Ed Vann, father of the said applicant Josephine Vann, possesses no rights to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman, and on May 17, 1904, Departmental letter I.T.D. 3470-C4, said finding was approved by the Department); that the applicant Nellie Townsend, is a daughter of one Jesse Vann, and one Anna Purdie, was born since 1860, and possesses no rights to enrollment other than as a descendant of her said parents; (In C.F.D. 254 and 265 the Commission found that the said Jesse Vann and Anna Purdie possess no rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, and on May 11, and November 12, 1904, Departmental letters I.T.D. 3418-3594-C4, said findings were approved by the Department); and that the applicants, Rosa, George and Arthur Townsend, are children of the said applicant William and Nellie Townsend, were born since 1860, and possess no rights to enrollment other than as descendants of their said parents.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE FURTHER SHOWS: That the applicants, Dennis Hicks Jr., and Susie Hicks, neither claim nor possess any rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen other than those obtained by virtue of their marriage to the applicants Lettie and Joseph Hicks; that the applicants Lettie Hicks, Joshua Holt and Sallie Miller, (children of One Esther Holt), and Anderson Johnson, deceased, Buck Bushyhead, deceased, and Nettie Downing, deceased, were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the commencement of the rebellion, were taken from the Cherokee Nation during said rebellion, and did not return thereto and establish a residence therein within the time specified in the Whitmire decree, supra., for the return of freedmen to the Cherokee Nation; that the applicants, Leroy, Dennis Jr., Delana, Mabel, and Elmer Hicks, Jane Holt, Laura and Ella Beeson, Jessie, Willard, Clifford and Marcelia (Marcelia) Holt, Mary Johnson, Ruth Vann, Martha and Lillie Chinnett, Frank and Luella Johnson (In C.F.D. 855 the Commission found that one Charlotte Beck, mother of the applicant, Luella Johnson, possessed no rights to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman, and on July 21, 1904, its finding was approved by the Department), Elize and Wyndell H. Hopkins, Joseph, Otto A., Katie and James A. Hicks, Frances, William, Katie, Charlotte and Wilda Johnson, Anna Butler, Esther, William and Benjamin, and Katie Davis, were born since the commencement of the rebellion, are descendants of the said applicants, Harris Hicks Sr., Betsey and Susie Hicks, Joshua Holt and Sallie Miller, and of Anderson Johnson, deceased, Buck Bushyhead, deceased, Nettie Downing, deceased, and Mary Ridge, deceased, (In re Mary Ridge see preceding paragraph), and possess no rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen other than as such descendants.

THE EVIDENCE FURTHER SHOWS: That one Riley McNair and one Maria McNair, both deceased, were the parents of the applicants, Moses, Andrew, Jesse, Frank and Jerry Riley, Fannie Scott, Delilah and Lottie Johnson, and of Millie McNair, deceased; that the said Riley, Maria and Millie McNair, all deceased, and the said applicants, Moses, Andrew, Jesse and Jerry Riley, Fannie Scott and Lottie Johnson, and the applicants, Jane Riley, Daniel Thompson, Elick and Amanda Ward and Sandy Thompson, and Ben Landrum, deceased, Harrison Johnson, deceased, and Columbus Rogers, deceased, were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the commencement of the rebellion, were taken from the Cherokee Nation during said rebellion, and did not return thereto and establish a residence therein within the time specified in the above mentioned Whitmire decree, for the return of Cherokee freedmen to said Nation; that the applicant, Ruth Riley, is a daughter of Henry Thornton, deceased, and Katie Thornton, was born since 1866, and possesses no rights to enrollment other than as a descendant of her said parents; (In C.F.D. 573, 580 and 581, the Commission found that the said Katie Thornton and one Maggie Curls and one Joseph Thornton, full sister and brother of the said applicant, Ruth Riley, possess no rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, and on June 21, 1904, its finding was approved by the Department); that the applicant, Hannah Riley, was born prior to the commencement of the rebellion, and was the slave of a citizen of the Cherokee Nation at the commencement of the rebellion, and that the applicants, Lillie Nathaniel, Joseph, Ollie, Viola, Mabel, Elnora, Ideller, Luther D., Frank, Lottie, Fannie, James, Ralph, Arizona, Inola, Earl E., Clarence (In C. F. D. 624, the Commission found that one Mary Riley, wife of the applicant Frank Riley, and mother of the applicants, Lottie, Fannie, James, Ralph, Arizona, Inola and Earl E. Riley, and grandmother of the applicant, Clarence Riley, possesses no rights to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman, and on October 31, 1904, its finding was approved by the Department), Samuel, James E., Amanda, Mariah, Maggie, Calvin, Bertha, Ada and Leona Riley, Charles Wesley Miller, Bessie and Jimmie Scott, Delilah, Allie, Luman, Jesse, Alfred, Nola, Della, Ella, Harrison, Rebecca, Luford, Wilbert and Arch Johnson, Henrietta, Irvin, Harry, Roy, Dan, Effie, Troy, Jesse and Maine Ward, Lenora Odine Riley, Charles Landrum, Bettie McIntosh, William Riley, Carrie Gibson, Cora J., and Oval Wagoner, Arthur Riley, Elizabeth and Elnora Helton, Julius, Riley, Willie, Edward, James, George, Stephenia and Scatatrice Curle, (One Nancy Curle, C.F.D. 429, who was denied enrollment by the Commission is the mother of the six last mentioned applicants), Ophelia, Alpha, Libbie, Hirschel, Harvey, and Clyde Thompson, were born since the commencement of the rebellion, are descendants of the said applicants, Moses, Andrew, Jesse, Jerry, Jane, Ruth and Hannah Riley, Fannie Scott, Lottie Johnson, Daniel and Sandy Thompson, and Rick and Amanda Ward, and of the said Riley McFair, deceased, Maria McFair, deceased, and Millie McFair, deceased, Ben Landrum, deceased, Harrison Johnson, deceased, and Columbus Rogers, deceased, and possess no rights to enrollment other than as such descendants.

None of the applicants herein born during or prior to the first below mentioned year, nor the ancestors of any of the said applicants herein born during or subsequent to the said first below mentioned year, can be identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, and none of the applicants herein can be identified on the Cherokee census roll of 1896.

THE EVIDENCE HEREIN FURTHER SHOWS: That the applicants Ethel Townsend and Clarence Curle, died prior to September 1, 1900, Affidavits to that effect are filed herewith and made a part of the record herein.

Section twenty-five of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 716), provides:

"The roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation shall be made as of September first, nineteen hundred and two, and the names of all persons then living and entitled to enrollment on that date shall be placed on said roll by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes."

The applicants, Katie and Cornelius Ridge and Eubebe Johnson, testify that they, together with Mary and Jesse Ridge, both deceased, returned to the Cherokee Nation in 1866, remained a few months, and then removed to Joplin, Missouri, where they resided for a number of years. That they returned to the Cherokee Nation in 1866 is contradicted by the testimony of witnesses who were in a position to know the whereabouts of said applicants. In view of the fact that the burden of proof is on the applicants, and they must show by satisfactory evidence that their rights to enrollment are perfect, it is considered that these applicants have wholly failed on this, and that their applications come within the rulings of the Department in the cases of Eliza Bryant, et al. (I.T.D. 544-04), William Hector (I.T.D. 1468-04), Minnie Duncan et al. (I.T.D. 1470-04), Samantha Chambers, (I.T.D. 2196-04), Ed Williams (I.T.D. 4230-04), Martha Albert et al., (I.T.D. 4732-04), and Moses Ross (I.T.D. 6056-04); and, granting that said above named parties did return to the Cherokee Nation in 1866, as contended, it is further considered that they did not establish such a residence in said Nation as was contemplated by the treaty of 1866, and are, therefore, within the rulings of the Department in the cases of Martha Gales and Susan Brown (I.T.D. 1850-04), and Thomas Mayfield et al. (I.T.D. 6960-04).

The testimony in re return to the Cherokee Nation, after the rebellion, of the applicants, Bettie Hicks, Joshua Holt, and Sallie Miller, and of the said Buck Bushyhead, deceased, and Bettie Downing, deceased, is contradictory in itself, and contradicted by the testimony of witnesses in behalf of the Cherokee Nation, hence, it is unsatisfactory, and the first above mentioned rulings of the Department are considered applicable. In this connection attention is called to the cases of Esther Holt, C.F.D. 645, Tecumseh Holt, C.F.D. 653, William Holt, C.F.D. 694, and Moses Holt, C.F.R. 185, mother and brothers of the three applicants first named in this paragraph. The material facts as established by the evidence in the several cases embracing this family, are practically the same, and the Commission found that the said Esther, Tecumseh, William and Moses Holt possess no rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, and its findings were duly approved by the Department. Holding that the applicants, Bettie Hicks, Joshua Holt and Sallie Miller, and the said Buck Bushyhead and Bettie Downing, deceased, returned to the Cherokee Nation during the interim between the close of the rebellion and January 11, 1867, they must have done so at a date prior to the testimony of the witnesses who were in a position to know the whereabouts of said applicants. It is considered that the testimony of said witnesses, subsequent to the date of their return to the Cherokee Nation, is not admissible in evidence, and that the Department's rulings in the cases of the said Esther, Tecumseh, William and Moses Holt, and of the said Susan Brown and Thomas Mayfield, et al., apply to the said Bettie Hicks, Joshua Holt, Sallie Miller, and Bettie Downing, and are made applicable to them. The testimony of the witnesses in behalf of the Cherokee Nation, that the said applicants did not return to the Cherokee Nation with their families, and that their testimony is either convincing evidence to the contrary. That these four witnesses complied with the treaty stipulations of 1866, there is no doubt. They were admitted to citizenship by the Chambers Court, and are identified on the 1880 roll. Without calling attention to the many cases in which the above named witnesses have been successfully contradicted and repeatedly impeached, it is considered by this office, that, after hearing the testimony of numerous witnesses, interested and disinterested, and after the examination of many exhibits filed and made a part of the record in freedman cases, it can identify each and every member of the party of freedmen known as the Webber-Whitmire-Sanders detachment, or colony, who complied with the treaty stipulations of 1866, and it is fully convinced that Anderson Johnson was not a member of that party. In support of this position attention is called to the fact that the personnel of the above mentioned party was thoroughly gone into by the Chambers Court, in 1878-9, and numerous witnesses, among others, the said Lewis Whitmire, examined on behalf of both parties, and that, too, at a time when the facts must have been fresh in their minds, and no particular advantage was to be had by misrepresenting who were included in said party, with one accord testify as to who composed this colony of freedmen, and the said Anderson Johnson is never named as one of them. By reason of changed conditions, the experience of the former Commission and of this office, in their investigations relative to the personnel of said colony of freedmen, has been somewhat different from that of the Chambers Court, but generally the conclusions reached have been the same. It seems to have been the policy of those witnesses appearing before the Commission, who were members of the above mentioned colony of freedmen, to add to said colony as occasion required, but after an examination of a great number of freedmen cases in which the above named witnesses testified, it cannot be found that they ever included Anderson Johnson as a member of this colony, until they were called upon as witnesses in behalf of his descendants, although they were often asked to, and as often did, name those who returned with them in 1866.

As to the return of Riley McNair, deceased, to the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion: Moses Hardrick, in behalf of the descendants of the said Riley McNair, testifies that, after the rebellion, he and Riley McNair returned to the Cherokee Nation together. In C.F.D. 314, the Commission found that the said Moses Hardrick did not return to the Cherokee Nation within the time specified in the Whitmire decree, and on October 13, 1904, its finding was approved by the Department. It was several months after the above indicated trip before Riley McNair moved his wife and family to the Cherokee Nation. One Emma Purtle, daughter of the said Riley and Maria McNair, removed from the Cherokee Nation during, and returned thereto after, the rebellion, with her father's family. In C.F.D. 265, the Commission found that the said Emma Purtle did not return to the Cherokee Nation within the time specified in the Whitmire decree, and on November 12, 1904, its finding was approved by the Department. The said Columbus Rogers, deceased, returned to the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion with the said McNair-Riley family.

The applicant, Jane Riley, testifies that she returned to the Cherokee Nation in 1866, and is corroborated by her witness, Jack Landrum. No credit can be given the testimony of the said Jack Landrum, as he has been repeatedly contradicted and impeached, (See, in particular, C. F. D. 498-D 664 and D 863). In C. F. D. 578 ( R 410 ), he swore, point blank, that Katie Thornton, applicant therein, and her husband, Henry Thornton, deceased, returned to the Cherokee Nation during the winter of 1866, and that he hauled logs to help build their house. In this case it was conclusively shown by the testimony of disinterested witnesses, that the said Katie and Henry Thornton did not leave Garnett, Kansas, after the rebellion, prior to March 1, 1871, and on this testimony the Commission denied the applicant, Katie Thornton, the right to enrollment, and its action was duly approved by the Department. Attention is further called to the fact that the said applicant, Jane Riley, and one Ben Landrum, deceased, are the parents of the applicants Charles Landrum and Bettie McIntosh, and that the said two last named applicants were born in 1861 and 1862, respectively. It is shown by the testimony of several disinterested witnesses, and a certified copy of the record of certain proceedings had before the District Court of Woodson County, Kansas, that the said Ben Landrum, continuously lived near Garnett, Kansas, during the years 1866, '67 and '68.

The applicant Daniel Thompson, testifies that on his return to the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion, he found his son, Andrew Watie, at Fort Gibson. In C. F. D. 502, the Commission found that the said Andrew Watie did not return to the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion within the time specified in the Whitmire decree. The applicants Sandy Thompson and Amanda Ward, returned with their father, the said Daniel Thompson.

In connection with those applicants herein who claim through Jess Ridge, deceased, and the applicants, Cornelius Ridge, Henry Ridge, Daniel Thompson, and Robert Foster, attention is called to the fact that the Commission on Cherokee Citizenship of 1878-9, decided that the said Jess Ridge, since deceased, and the four applicants last above named, were not entitled to Cherokee citizenship, a certified copy of the proceedings of said Commission in re above named parties, being filed herewith and made a part of the record herein.

The applicant, Elick Ward, swears that he was raised by one Peter Ward, and after the rebellion returned to the Cherokee Nation with the said Peter Ward and one Abraham Ward. In C. F. D. 577 ( R 283 ), and 587 ( R 283 ), the Commission found that the said Peter Ward and Abraham Ward did not return to the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion, within the time specified in the Whitmire decree, and on April 29, 1904, its findings were approved by the Department.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That, following the ruling of the Department in the case of Lemuel Welcome (I. T. D. 5848, 11776-04), under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), Laura Ridge, Ay Lynch, Dennis Hicks Sr., and Susie Hicks, are not entitled to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied, and that under the provisions of Section Twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 714), the following persons are accordingly denied enrollment: Katie Ridge, Cornelius Ridge, Pearl Ridge, John Ridge, and Myrtle Ridge, Phoebe (Milton) Johnson, Joseph Johnson, Herbert Milton, Serena Milton, and Pearl Milton, Emma Jones, Ida Jones, Lee Martin, Eddie Martin, and Stella Martin, Thomas Jones, Elnora Vann, Maude Riley, Jesse Barnett and John Barnett, Rosa Vann and Josephine Vann, William Townsend, Mollie Townsend, Rosa Townsend, George Townsend, and Arthur Townsend, Lottie Hicks, Leroy Hicks, Dennis Hicks Jr., Delana Hicks, Mabel Hicks and Elmer Hicks, Joshua Holt, Jane Holt, Laura Beeson, Ella Beeson, Jessie Holt, Willard Holt, Clifford Holt and Maucella (Margelia) Holt, Sallie Miller, Mary Johnson, Ruth Vann, Martha Chinnett and Lillie Chinnett, Frank Johnson and Luella Johnson, Eliza Hawkins and Tyndie E. Hawkins, Joseph Hicks, Otto A. Hicks, Katie Hicks, James A. Hicks, Frances Johnson, Nettie Johnson, Katie Johnson, Clarence Johnson and Wilda Johnson, Anna Butler, Esther Owen, Howard Bushyhead, Katie Davis, Moses Riley, Lillie Riley, Andrew Riley, Nathaniel Riley, Jesse Riley, Joseph Riley, Ollie Riley, Viola Riley, Mabel Riley, Elnora Riley, Ideller Riley, Luther D. Riley, Frank Riley, Lottie Riley, Fannie Riley, James Riley, Ralph Riley, Arizona Riley, Inola Riley, Earl E. Riley, Clarence Riley, Jerry Riley, Samuel Riley, James E. Riley, Amanda Riley, Marian Riley, Maggie Riley, Calvin Riley, Bertha Riley, Ada Riley, and Leona Riley, Fannie Scott, Charles Wesley Miller, Bessie Scott, and Jimmie Scott, Delilah Johnson, Allie Johnson, Luman Johnson, Jesse Johnson, Alfred Johnson, Nola Johnson, Della Johnson, Ella Johnson, Harrison Johnson, Lottie Johnson, Rebecca Johnson, Luford Johnson, Wilbert Johnson and Arch Johnson, Jane Riley, Daniel Thompson, Elick Ward, Amanda Ward, Henrietta Ward, Irvin Ward, Harry Ward, Roy Ward, Dan Ward, Effie Ward, Troy Ward, Jesse Ward and Faine Ward, Sandy Thompson, Ruth Riley, Lenora Odine Riley, and Hannah Riley, Charles Landrum, Bettie McIntosh, William Riley, Carrie Gibson, Carr J. Wagoner and Oval Wagoner, Arthur Riley, Elizabeth Melton and Elnora Melton, Julius Curls, Riley Curls, Willie Curls, Edward Curls, James Curls, George Curls, Stephen Curls and Martha Curls, Ophelia Thompson, Alpha Thompson, Lillie Thompson, Laura Thompson, Harvey Thompson and Clyde Thompson, and all persons claiming descent as Cherokee freedmen, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

AND IT IS FURTHER ORDERED THAT the applications for enrollment of Ethel Townsend and Benjamin Johnson, be, and the same are, hereby dismissed, in accordance with the provisions of section twenty-five of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 714).

Cherokee freedmen D 295

SUPPLEMENTAL PROCEEDINGS had in the matter of the application for the enrollment of KATIE RIDGE ET AL., as Cherokee Freedmen.

Applicant represented by Guy Patten, Attorney
Vinita, Indian Territory.

APPEARANCES:

Cherokee Nation represented by W. . Hastings,
Attorney.

It is ordered that the applicants in Freedmen Doubtful cases, Numbers 358, 360, 361, and 362, and applicants Numbers 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7 in Freedmen Doubtful 355, lineal descendants of Katie Ridge, be consolidated with, and the rights of said applicants considered in the cases of Katie Ridge et al.

CORNELIUS RIDGE being first duly sworn by B. P. Rasmus, a Notary Public, testified as follows:

EXAMINATION BY MR. GUY PATTEN:

- Q. State your name? A. Cornelius Ridge.
Q. How old are you? A. About fifty-five.
Q. What is your postoffice address? A. Chaffee.
Q. Indian Territory? A. Yes sir.
Q. Are you one of the applicants in this case? A. Yes sir.
Q. Where did you live prior to the Civil War? A. Partly in Arkansas and partly in the Cherokee nation.
Q. Why did you live partly in Arkansas and partly in the Cherokee Nation? How did that come about?
A. Why, my owner, my boss, he was a single man, and he had sisters and one of them lived here in the Cherokee Nation, and the other over in the state, and he made his slaves, we would be on the farm here in the Territory, and the old lady she was in the State, in Arkansas, and what time we wasn't in Arkansas we was here.
Q. What part of the Cherokee Nation? A. On Honey Creek.
Q. Is that in the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes sir.
Q. Did you go out of the Cherokee nation during the war? A. Yes sir.
Q. About what time did you leave the Cherokee nation?
A. Well, I don't know what time we left the Nation, but during of the war some time.
Q. Where did you go when you left? A. To Missouri.
Q. What part of Missouri? A. Springfield.
Q. When was the first time you returned to the nation after the close of the war? A. In the late fall of '66.
Q. How did you happen to come back then? A. Why a man by the name of Boudinot that was some relation to the Ridges, he seen my father in Springfield and told him that there was a treaty that if we would come back we would get land and have a home same as the Cherokees, and so he come back.
Q. Where did this man Boudinot live when he told your father that?

- A. He was at Springfield; I don't know where Mr. Boudinot lived.
- Q. You were at Springfield? A. Yes sir.
- Q. With your father? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Did you have a mother? A. Yes sir.
- Q. What was her name? A. Katie.
- Q. Were there any other members of your family? A. Yes sir, five.
- Q. Who were they? A. Two sisters, my brother, father, mother and myself. I was mistaken about there being only five.
- Q. When Mr. Boudinot advised you about returning, did you start to move down here? A. Yes sir, shortly after; it must have been, I guess, probably along the early part of the fall. That he seen my father and talked with him.
- Q. How long was it before you started to move? A. Probably something like two or three months.
- Q. Now when you came did all your family come? A. Yes sir.
- Q. All came together did they? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Did you permanently move from Springfield, did you take all the stuff you had with you? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Did not leave anything there, back there? A. No sir.
- Q. What part of the Cherokee Nation did you come to when you move back? A. On Honey Creek.
- Q. Where is that? A. That is east.
- Q. East of what? A. East from here; I don't know it is somewhere, as near as I can judge, probably southwest of Neosho or Seneca, somewhere in there.
- Q. Near what place is it now located? A. Southwest City.
- Q. Where you located was that, do you think, near where Southwest City is now? A. As well as my memory serves me, it was about a mile and a half or two miles.
- Q. In which direction? A. I am kind of mixed up about directions up there, I believe it was north.
- Q. When you first came down in that country, on Honey Creek, did you build you a house or make a place, or how did you live there? A. We moved into a little house that was already built there.
- Q. What kind of a house? A. Little log house.
- Q. Where was it located with reference to the place you lived before you left the Nation, before the war, was it in the same neighborhood? A. Yes sir, in the same neighborhood. I guess it must have been a mile and a half or may be more. I don't know exactly, somewhere near the old place.
- Q. From the old place that you left? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Then when you came back down on Honey Creek you came into the vicinity that you had lived before the war? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Did you ever live anyplace else in the Cherokee Nation before the war, except in this neighborhood, in this neighborhood in the Cherokee Nation and back and forth to Arkansas before the war? A. No sir.
- Q. Were you acquainted anywhere else before the war? A. No sir.

- Q. Was that the only neighborhood that you knew of to come to when you came back? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Now, what time did you move in there? A. I couldn't be right positive, as to the time, but it was in the late fall or early part of the winter, getting cold.
- Q. What year? A. '66.
- Q. Now, how do you know it was '66? A. well, the way I know it was '66, the war closed in '65 and it was the next year after the war closed.
- Q. Now, referring to the time you left Springfield, Missouri, in speaking of that man Boudinot talking with your father, how did he happen to advise him to come, did he say why he should come?

MR. HASTINGS: I wish to ask him one question to see if that is competent.

- Q. Do you know, only just what your father told you of what Boudinot told him? A. No sir, that is all.

I desire to object to any further questions relative to a conversation alleged to have been had between Boudinot and the father of the applicant, because the applicant states that he was not present, and he has already stated the substance of the conversation, or the information he received

Mr. PATTEN: We submit that ordinarily hearsay is unquestionably incompetent, but at this distance of time, as in this case, we submit that it is competent to show the conditions, or the reason why certain conditions existed, and for that reason I asked the question as to why this family came, and the witness stated that they came upon the advice of Mr. Boudinot, and that that advice was given to his father. I do not desire to go into the details of the conversation, and I acknowledge that that would clearly be incompetent.

Objection noted.

Mr. Patten.

- Q. At the time Mr. Boudinot talked with your father, what did you understand that he advised him to do, and why did he so advise him?

MR. HASTINGS: I want to object to that as hearsay; First it is hearsay and second, that he is only asking the witness as to his understanding, and not as to what he actually knows about it, and is therefore calling for a conclusion of the witness.

Objection noted; witness will answer.

- Q. What did you understand at that time that he advised your father to do, and why did he advise him to do that?

- A. My understanding was that he advised him to come back to the Cherokee Nation that there was a treaty and that he would get the same rights as the Cherokees if he came, the same rights as he himself, and so he came.
- Q. Was Mr. Boudinot a Cherokee? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Now when you first arrived on Honey Creek, that fall or winter, you say you moved into a little house that was standing there? A. Yes sir.
- Q. And that was in the neighborhood where you lived before the war? A. Yes sir.
- Q. What kind of a country is that, rough and hilly or smooth.
- A. It is a rough country, mountain and timber country, not what I would call a prairie country hardly any part of it; the most part of it was brush and timber, scrub timber; it is hills and hollows like, and rough country.
- Q. How long did you live there after you got there?
- A. Two or three month in that neighborhood.
- Q. When you moved there did you intend to locate there; where you stopped? A. Yes sir, that was our purpose in coming there we intended to live there and get land there that Mr. Boudinot had told my father he was entitled to.
- Q. And you stayed there two or three months? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Why did you not continue to stay there? A. We couldn't stay there any longer, or we might stay there longer but really our lives was in danger there. Men would come there on the place and shoot in the air and shoot at the house, and on one occasion that I remember there was a man came very near shooting my father; he presented a gun at him; drew the gun down on him just like this; (Indicated) and my mother was standing there and she pushed his hand off, and I think the words he said when he drew the gun down on my father was "Let me show you how I would kill a marshall."
- Q. Who were these men that came around there? A. I don't know.
- Q. White men or Indians or who was it? A. Indians and half-breeds. When we would hear the Indians whooping around we would go to the brush and hide.
- Q. Did conditions change while you stayed there--Did they get more friendly? A. No sir. More friendly? No sir.
- Q. Did they get worse? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Did they threaten you or shoot around there more than that time you just stated? A. Yes sir. It was just a common thing, not only one time, but just a common thing for them to come up and act that way. Shot our dog in our yard one time.
- Q. How many would come; just one fellow or more?
- A. No; generally two or more.
- Q. Would they talk to your father? A. Yes sir.
- Q. How did they talk to him? A. Shake hands with him and be friendly, or threaten him, or how?
- A. No sir, I remember one case, two or three if there-- I believe that was the very time that man threw the gut down on my father-- and my mother after she pushed the gun off, she said "Don't shoot, Don't shoot my husband, he can talk

Cherokee just like you, and then they commenced to talk Cherokee. I don't know what they said; I never could understand the language.

- Q. Did your father understand Cherokee? A. Yes sir.
Q. Did he tell you what they said? A. Not as I remember.
Q. Did they just threaten him in Cherokee and he did not say anything to the rest of the family about it?
A. I never knew they threatened him in Cherokee.
Q. How did they threaten him? A. In English.
Q. Did some of them talk English? A. Yes sir.
Q. When did you leave there? A. We left there one morning before daylight, about when I don't know, before day.
Q. How did you happen to leave at such an hour as that?
A. Well, we was just scared and we thought it best to just get up and pull out.
Q. When you were living there those two or three months on that place on Honey Creek, did any one else live with you besides your father and mother, your sisters and brother?
A. No sir.
Q. Just your own folks? A. Yes sir.
Q. Were there any other colored people around there?
A. None that I ever seen.
Q. When you left there, where did you go? A. To Missouri.
Q. To what place? A. To Joplin, the lead mines.
Q. Did you stay there? A. A while.
Q. About how long? A. Three or four years.
Q. Then where did you go? A. Down on the River.
Q. What river? A. Grand River.
Q. Where is Grand River? A. In the Cherokee Nation.
Q. Did you locate there? A. Yes sir.
Q. Did you locate your farms there? A. Yes sir.
Q. Have you lived in the Cherokee nation ever since that?
A. Yes sir.
Q. Have you owned a place there ever since that? A. Yes sir.
Q. And lived on it? A. Yes sir.
Q. In the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes sir.
Q. When you folks left the vicinity of Honey Creek, after you had been there two or three months, as you said, did you leave and go to Joplin because you wanted to get work there or wanted to live in Joplin, or because you were compelled to go.

Objected to because the question is leading. The witness should be asked why he left.

Objection noted.

When you left the vicinity of Honey Creek and moved away why did you leave?

- A. Why did we leave? Why sir, we left because we thought our lives were in danger, we was afraid to stay. Did I understand the question, why we left there, left the Nation?
Q. Yes sir: A. Yes sir, we left because we thought we would be killed.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY W.W.HASTINGS.

- Q. Now, I believe you said that you went to Springfield, Missouri during the war? A. Yes sir.
- Q. And you were at Springfield, Missouri, when the war closed?
- A. When the war closed?
- Q. Yes sir? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Were you in town, or were you out in the country, with your father and mother? A. In the town.
- Q. Do you remember what street you lived on? A. No sir I don't.
- Q. Do you remember what part of Springfield, Missouri, you lived in, north, south, east, west or central?
- A. Well, sir, I am not positive.
- Q. No. Do you remember in whose house you lived in? A. No sir.
- Q. Do you remember who were your neighbors, who joined you in Springfield?
- A. Yes sir, I believe I can remember some; Elijah Graves was one of our neighbors.
- Q. White or colored? A. White.
- Q. What kind of a house did you live in in Springfield? A. I lived in an old frame house.
- Q. You do not know to whom it belonged? A. No sir, I don't.
- Q. I don't believe you answered me what part of the town you lived in? A. I believe we lived in the north part.
- Q. Yes, how far from the business portion? A. Well, I guess probably something like a half a mile.
- Q. Yes, yes. About what was the estimated population of Springfield at that time? A. I don't know sir.
- Q. Was it a good sized town or a small town? A. It was a pretty good sized town.
- Q. Have as many as ten thousand people? A. I couldn't answer that, I wouldn't have any idea about how many people.
- Q. How many railroads did Springfield have at that time?
- A. Did not have nary one as I remember.
- Q. How long did you continue to live there at Springfield?
- A. Well, I guess we was there probably a year.
- Q. Then did you move direct from Springfield down on Honey Creek? As you said, with your father and mother? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Then you lived all the time in Springfield, Missouri, until you came to the Cherokee Nation as you claim? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Did your sisters live there with you? A. Yes sir.
- Q. You all lived there together? A. Yes sir.
- Q. I mean from the close of the war till until you came back in the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes sir.
- Q. You were certain of that? A. Yes sir.
- Q. You swear that? A. Yes sir.
- Q. You never lived out of Springfield, Missouri, after the close of the war, before you came down to the Cherokee Nation, as you stated? A. No sir.
- Q. Now, you came back to near your old home did you? A. Yes sir.
- Q. You didn't know the years at that time, did you?
- A. No sir, I didn't, I couldn't read or write.
- Q. You couldn't read or write then? A. No sir.
- Q. You had not been married then? A. No sir.
- Q. Now how long after you left there before you were married?

MR. PATTENY After he left where?

Mr. HASTINGS:

- Q. After he left Honey Creek? A. I don't know sir.
- Q. Well what is your best judgment? A. I don't know, something like five or six years probably.
- Q. What is your wife's name? A. Laura.
- Q. Where did you marry Laura? A. In Missouri.
- Q. At what town? A. Joplin.
- Q. How long had you been living in Joplin when you married Laura? A. I don't know sir; I expect two or three years.
- Q. Did not you just now state that it was five or six years after you left the place before you married? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Well you went direct to Joplin from Honey Creek, did not you? A. Yes sir.
- Q. And you had lived there continuously? A. At Joplin.
- Q. I mean you had lived at Joplin all the time after you left Honey Creek until you married? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Do you remember the year you were married? A. No sir, I don't.
- Q. You don't recollect that? A. No sir, I do not.
- Q. What is your oldest child's name? A. Ida.
- Q. How long had you been married before Ida was born? A. I don't know sir; I reckon probably about a year.
- Q. About a year. Now according to the age given by Ida on June 10, 1901, which was given then as twenty-five, which would have made her born in about '75 or '76, was that about correct? A. I don't know sir. We did have their ages set down, but that Bible got tore up and I just don't know their ages at all.
- Q. If she gave that as her age you are not prepared to dispute it? A. No sir.
- Q. And you were married about a year before Ida was born? A. Yes sir, something like that.
- Q. And you were married at Joplin? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Was Ida born at Joplin? A. No sir.
- Q. Where was she born? A. She was born on the river.
- Q. That was after you came back down here? A. Yes sir.
- Q. But you was married while you was in Joplin? A. I married in Joplin.
- Q. You say you married in Joplin? A. Yes sir.
- Q. And your girl Ida, was not born until after you moved down here is that correct? A. No sir?
- Q. You mean that is correct? A. Yes sir, that's what I meant.
- Q. If I understand you then, you claim you lived in Springfield till you moved down on Honey Creek? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Then you went up to Joplin and remained there until you married, and then you moved down on Grand River? A. No sir, I married after I moved on Grand River.
- Q. Well, how long had you been on Grand River when you married? A. I don't know exactly; I reckon about a year.
- Q. Then you had been back about a year when you married? A. On the river?
- Q. Yes? A. Yes sir, something like that I reckon.
- Q. Then if I understand you you went back to Joplin and married after you had been down here on the river.
- Q. Yes sir, I went back up there; we traded backwards and forwards you know.
- Q. Now, I believe you stated that you left Springfield with your father and mother and came down on Honey Creek in the fall, did you? A. Yes sir, in the late fall.
- Q. Was it cold? A. It was getting cold.
- Q. Do you remember whether there was any snow on the ground when you came there or before you got there?

- A. No sir, I don't remember whether there was any snow or not.
- Q. You did not know of any other freedmen settlements in the Cherokee Nation at that time, did you? A. No sir.
- Q. That was the reason you did not move to those settlements is it? A. I don't know; my father moved up there because that was the place he knew.
- Q. And you did not know of any other? A. For my part I did not.
- Q. And so far as you know the others of your family did not know of any other? A. Not so far as I know.
- Q. You never saw any freedmen while you were there? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Who did you see? A. Saw a couple of men that came there.
- Q. What was their names? A. Lynch.
- Q. They came there to-gether? A. Yes sir.
- Q. What was Lynch's first name? A. One was named Simon and the other Crap.
- Q. Yessir. And they came there in the summer time didn't they?
- A. No sir.
- Q. If they swore they came there in the summer they are mistaken? A. If they say they saw us there in the summer; we wasn't there in the summer.
- Q. You wasn't there in the summer? A. No sir.
- Q. You didn't get there till cold weather? A. No sir.
- Q. These Lynch's told you where they lived didn't they?
- A. Not that I remember of; my father, I expect he knowed of their place in the Cherokee nation, because he had been with his old boss time of the war.
- Q. Then he knew where the colored people lived, didn't he?
- A. I don't know anything about what he knew.
- Q. Now, how far did you move from the Dr. Polston place?
- A. I don't know, I guess a mile and a half.
- Q. What direction did you live from the Dr. Polston place?
- A. I don't know directions there; I reckon it must have been north.
- Q. Did not you testify when you was on the stand before that it was south? A. I don't know; because I am turned around I can't swear to directions.
- Q. Who had occupied that house before the war that you moved in to when you came down there? A. I don't know sir.
- Q. What kind of a house was it? A. A log house.
- Q. Was there any stable, or any crib attached to the house?
- A. It appears to me like there was a couple of shanties there.
- Q. Yes. Well, you went over to the Polston place to see your old master and mistress, your master's wife, while you were there? A. Well, no sir.
- Q. Do you mean that you was within a mile or a mile and a half of your old home place some two or three months, and never went over there? A. Why, no sir, I never went there.
- Q. What did you do for those two or three months? A. Didn't do nothing; nothing in the way of work.
- Q. What did your father do? A. Not anything that I know of.
- Q. Neither of you ever attempted any kind of work while you were there? A. Not that I know of.
- Q. You were the oldest boy? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Well, now, who was living on the old Polston place when you returned to the Cherokee Nation?
- A. I don't know sir.
- Q. Do you mean to say that you were never over there?

- A. Yes sir.
- Q. You were not at any body's house in that whole country?
- A. I don't remember bein' except to but one house while I was there?
- Q. Whose house was that? A. Simon Snail's.
- Q. How far did he live from you? A. Well I guess, I can't be positive but probabbly a mile.
- Q. What direction? A. Well now, then if I say direction, ot appears to me like it was what I would say north, but you know--
- Q. North again? A. Yes sir, but I want to tell you I have got tangled up and turned around and I can't really say, west or north up there.
- Q. You never lived on Honey Creek in your life, either before, during or since the war? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Which side of the Creek was the Polston place? A. Which side of the creek? well, if my memory serves me right it's on the east side.
- Q. Does that creek run north and south there?
- A. That's what I think it does.
- Q. And which side of the creek did you people come to and go into that little old house as you stated?
- A. On the east side?
- Q. On the same side? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Was there an old Washburn place around there.
- A. Not that I know of.
- Q. You never heard of it by that name? A. No sir.
- Q. Did not Washburn marry a relative of your master?
- A. Yes sir, but that place was never known --I never knew it by the name of --ashburn.
- Q. Do you know a place known as the Ridge place near the Polston place? A. I think the Polston place was the Ridge place.
- Q. You never knew of any Washburn place near there? A. No sir.
- Q. You never knew of any other Ridge place near there?
- A. Not I myself, but there was another Ridge place.
- Q. How far from there? A. I don't know.
- Q. You never heard of it? A. Yes sir, I have heard my parents tell of it.
- Q. You never was on it? A. I don't remember ever being on it.
- Q. Now, the last time you came to the Cherokee Nation you came down the old military road?
- A. I guess so, I don't know.
- Q. Don't know about that? A. A. We came from Baxter Springs.
- Q. Yes. Did you come by way of Chetopa? A. No sir, came by way of Baxter springs.
- Q. What other towns did you come by- I am talking now about when you came down on Grand River this last time?
- A. Never stopped in any towns.
- Q. Did you come by way of Vinita? A. No sir.
- Q. Well, you came down the Military road?
- A. I don't know sir; we come the road from Baxter.
- Q. Well, how is that? A. Well, Baxter from here is north.
- Q. I am not talking about that; I am talking about how you came?

- A. Well, Baxter is north from here; we must have traveled in a southwest direction.
- Q. Yes. Now, where did you cross Grand River? A. Grand River? We crossed at Island Ford.
- Q. At Island Ford? A. Yes sir.
- Q. And that's right near where you stopped? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Well, the old Military Road crosses at Island Ford does it not?
- A. I don't know sir.
- Q. Well, did you come down near where Afton is now, along in that direction? A. Afton?
- Q. Where Afton is now; it wasn't there then I mean down through that prairie on down to Island Ford? A. Well, Mr. Hastings, I don't know just about where Afton is.
- Q. Don't you know where that town is on the Frisco railroad, fourteen or fifteen miles east of Vinita, in the Cherokee Nation? A. I never was there as I know of.
- Q. Well, did you come through the prairie down there till you struck Island Ford? A. Yes sir, mostly prairie.
- Q. All the way? A. All the way? A. Yes sir that is--
- Q. Well, from the time you left Baxter springs and struck the Cherokee Nation on the north side, did you come on the prairie all the way till you struck Grand River at Island Ford? A. I reckon we did; I don't know of anything along the road that I can point out.
- Q. You never stopped from Baxter Springs down there?
- A. You mean we came all the way from Baxter without checking up?
- Q. I mean more than over night-- you never stopped to locate and remain any time more than just at nights and noons, on the way down there? A. No sir.
- Q. Well, now, the old Polston place is away up on Honey Creek, isn't it? A. Yes sir.
- Q. You didn't come by there that time- you came from Baxter Springs through the prairie? A. Yes sir.
- Q. And the only time you ever came to the Polston place was that fall of '66 as you just now testified?
- A. Well, no, we have been there since then.
- Q. How long after that? A. Well, I don't know sir--that is we have been to Southwest City.
- Q. You have been to Southwest City but you never were up to the Polston place? (No answer.)
- Q. In other words you didn't come by the Polston place when you moved down here? A. No sir.
- Q. You swear that? A. Yes sir, we didn't move by there.
- Q. Well, now you are the same Cornelius Ridge that testified at Chelsea on June 7, 1901, in this case?
- A. I guess I am; I don't remember just the date, but I am the same man.
- Q. Well, I will ask you if you did not state at that time, in answer to this question, with reference to the time that you claim to have come back near the Polston place for the first time, if you did not state at that time in answer to this question--Q. Did you go up to the old place while you were there? Ans. "Polston place; Yes sir?" Q. Who was living there? QAns. "Dr. Polston." "Q. Was his wife there with him?" "A. Now, I am not right sure; let me think over that a little; Yes sir, I think she was." "Q. Did she have any children there?" "A. Yes sir." Were not these questions asked you, and were not these answers given by you under oath when you were before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at Chelsea in the matter of your own application on June 7, 1901? A. Yes sir; I think they was asked me at that time.

- Q. Well, you swore then that you were up on the Polston place didn't you? A. Well, I had to make some kind of an answer I thought. I was some excited at that time, and after I had said I had gone there, I just stuck to it.
- Q. The you acknowledge that you told what was not true? A. I had a mistake.
- Q. You testified at that time that Mr. Polston was living there? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Is that true or false? A. Well, after I have thought over that I don't know. I never saw Dr. Polston. It was asked me by you I guess, and you had me just about mesmerized, and I had to answer something.
- Q. You just thought you had to answer something? A. Yes sir.
- Q. You testified at that time that Mr. Polston's wife was there, was that true or false? A. Well, after I thought over my answers to these questions I seen that I was mistaken in that.
- Q. You testified at that time that he had some children there--was that true or false? A. That was a mistake.
- Q. Now, at the same time, you were asked this question--"Do you remember any citizens you saw to be around there?" "Ans. No sir, I can't remember anyone." Was that question asked you? A. Well, I will tell you--it is hard to remember, and after I had got to thinking over the matters I remembered a family there, I said; I wasn't in but one house, while I was there.
- Q. Well, didn't you have Mr. Mallett Smith of the firm of Mallett Smith, representing you at that time, when you were examined and cross-examined? A. Yes sir.
- Q. You had consulted with him; he was your attorney? A. Yes sir, but I had not consulted with him any way in regard to that matter.
- Q. I will ask you if at that self-same time this question was not asked you? "Q. Did you have any neighbors down there where you lived in that little house? people living anywhere around you?" "Ans. No sir, none that I know of; none that I was acquainted with except Polston." Didn't you swear to it? A. I will tell you Mr. Justice, I don't know what I did say.
- Q. I will ask you if the next question was not this--"Non-except Polston?" "Ans. No sir none that I can remember now." I will ask you if your attorneys are not now, if they are of Messrs. Starr & Patten? A. Yes sir, that is what they are.
- Q. And you consulted them before you made the affidavits which were filed November 15, 1905, didn't you? A. Well, no, I did not, no sir.
- Q. You didn't have another person named with you, is that right? A. Before that affidavit was made?
- Q. Yes? A. Well, I don't know.
- Q. Did you consult with them at the time it was made? A. Now a question I want to ask you, Mr. Justice, is it the affidavits I written to the secretary of the Interior myself?
- Q. Well, no, I will explain to you that these affidavits purporting to have been made to attach to a motion to reopen your case on the 15th day of November, 1905, just a little over a year ago now, and signed by Cornelius Ridge, you consulted with them before that? A. Yes sir--
- Q. Now, on June 7, 1901, while you were on oath before the Commission, and while you were represented by Edgar Smith, of the firm of Melette & Smith, I will ask you if this question was not asked you--"You don't remember of any of these Indians that were living about you?" "Ans. No sir, I don't remember there was none living there that I know of." Was that question asked and answered by you?

- A. I don't remember that.
- Q. Is that true or false? A. Well, I will tell you at that time I didn't remember the name of anyone. These questions being asked and had to be answered right up and that's been a long time and I was only a boy then, and it required some time for me to think over them. I can't remember any names.
- Q. This same kind of an investigation was given -- was gone over with in 1896, before the Kern-Clifton Commission when you people applied. This question was thoroughly gone into was it not? A. I guess so.
- Q. Well, in 1901, it was just five years after these questions had been first thoroughly investigated wasn't it.
- A. Well, I want to say not that I remember of.
- Q. Well was the statements that you made on June 7, 1901 correct
- A. Well, no sir, I don't think so. After I said I didn't remember of anyone, of course I stuck to it, but now, after consulting my mind and thinking over things and remembering the questions and answers, I know I have remembered the name of one man and remember him at one man's house, and ate lunch at one time.
- Q. I will ask you if during that investigation if this question was not asked you--not by me, but by your own attorney Mr. Smith: "Q. Why did you leave the Nation, the Cherokee Nation at that time?" "Ans. We didn't have anything to live on." I will ask you if Mr. Smith, your own attorney did not ask you that question, and if you did not make that reply?
- A. No, sir, that was not asked, and I like to say right now, that after that question was asked and answered to I seen that there was something of more importance that compelled us to leave there.
- Q. Yes. You did not then consult with your attorneys, Messrs. Starr & Patton, did you? A. Why, no sir.
- Q. And during that whole investigation in 1896 and during that whole investigation there in your case and in your mother's case in 1901, when you introduced testimony, you never said a word at that time about the Indians running you off of this place, did you? A. Not that I know of, but I would like to say here, Mr. Hastings, that while this was not mentioned, after thinking over the matter a while, I seen that it should have been mentioned, because it was facts, and not in but facts.
- Q. For you never said anything about the Indians being so desperate until after you had consulted with Messrs. Starr & Patton, your present attorneys, when it was embodied in this affidavit of November 1, 1905.
- A. Not that I remember of; but Mr. Starr and Patton that is not in not in any of their. I will tell you now that I remember I remembered these things, and I mentioned it.
- Q. You never mentioned it until after you consulted them?

- A. I never mentioned it to them; Did not jog my memory.
- Q. I never said that they jogged your memory? A. I remembered it and I mentioned it and they said it was very important and for me to testify to those facts, and that is what I am trying to do.
- Q. Now, I will ask you, in that affidavit of November 15, 1905, if you did not state "We went from Joplin to Baxter Springs, Kansas, and from there followed the Military Road down to Lynch's prairie, and stopped on the west side of Grand River"--that is referring to your last return to the Cherokee Nation? A. Did I make that statement? I guess I did.
- Q. Well, the Military Road did not come down Honey Creek did it?
- A. Not that I know of.
- Q. You don't know then, who was living on the Polston place when you claim to have first come back there? A. No sir, I really do not.
- Q. You can not swear whether there was anybody living in the house or not can you? A. No sir.
- Q. You never was over there, were you? A. Never was right on the place.
- Q. Was there any field connected with the house in which you lived? A. No sir.
- Q. Well, now, I understand you to say that you just lived in that little cabin by the place you loved, and that you left and went to Joplin, did you? A. No sir.
- Q. You never worked for anybody during that whole time?
- A. Not that I remember of.
- Q. You never did do any work there? A. Not that I remember of.
- Q. And your father did not? A. Well, as a matter of fact I don't know just what he done, because---
- Q. If he did a day's work there you did not know it?
- AQ. No sir, I don't know anything about it.
- Q. Where did you get your provisions? A. We took provisions with us.
- Q. How long did you live on there months? (No answer)
- Q. Did you ever go to get your money? A. No sir, we did not have money and if we had I don't know where we could have bought any, there wasn't any town there.
- Q. Well, you just moved down there and stayed in that house two or three months and did no kind of work and then moved off?
- A. Yes sir, no more than hunted around.
- Q. Hunted around? A. Yes sir.
- Q. You never put in any crop down there? A. No sir.
- Q. You did not have any fields out one in? Did you? A. No sir.
- Q. How far were you from any fields? A. I don't know.
- Q. How far were you from Honey Creek? A. I couldn't say, I really don't know.
- Q. Well do you have any idea about it? A. You seem to say you hunted around there for three months, two or three months, stayed there all that time, and don't know anything about the creek.

- A. Well, it is hard to remember all these little things; but if you ask me the distance from the creek-- the creek-- well, I don't know, but I will say perhaps something like about a mile.
- Q. A mile, you think? A. Yes sir.
- Q. How do you know how far you were from the Polston place when you were never on it? A. Well, we were passed right by there.
- Q. Were there people living in the house? A. I don't know.
- Q. Do you mean to say that you would pass right by the place where the sister of your young master had lived, and it was the old home place, and you lived there within a mile of it or a mile and a half, for two or three months and you never made any inquiry as to who lived on the old place?
- A. Yes sir, I mean to say just that.
- Q. You never heard or seen them? A. Not that I remember of.
- Q. You never met them? A. Not that I remember of.
- Q. You never went over to appeal to your youngmaster or your young master's wife for protection when those Indians were about to mob you? A. For protection? No sir, we did not go there, and I don't see how a person could go anywhere for protection in a place like that.
- Q. Now, do you know the name of any one of those Indians?
- A. No sir, I don't.
- Q. You did not recognize a single one of them? A. No sir, we did not.
- Q. Were they full bloods? A. Full bloods and half breeds.
- Q. Talk Cherokee or English? A. English and Cherokee too.
- Q. Did you have guns; you people? A. Yes sir, we had two guns.
- Q. But you never attempted to defend yourselves? A. My goodness alive, what do you say? No sir, we never attempted to show any gun, and I reckon if we had we would all have been slaughtered right there.
- Q. Then you just pulled up and left that little old cabin in which you moved and went up to Joplin Missouri, did you?
- A. Yes sir.
- Q. You never done any work while you were down there? A. No, sir.
- Q. Nor your father did no? A. I don't know what he done.
- Q. You never saw him doing a days work while you were there?
- A. No sir, I never saw him.
- Q. You are positive about that you never made any field down there? A. No sir.
- Q. You never made any house? A. No sir, we didn't make any house; we got some poles but we never did make it.
- Q. You just left them out in the woods where you got them?
- A. Yes sir.
- Q. And you just now swore that you never did a days work while you were there? A. You know I meant we never did a days work for any person.
- Q. You just left those poles out in the woods, never put them up, you answered that? A. Yes sir.
- Q. You never put them up? A. No sir, we never did.
- Q. You never did any work there? A. Not that I -- Now, you asked me about work, I meant we never done any work for wages. But I am asking you about the poles--you never put them up?

- A. No sir.
- Q. Never built any house? A. No sir.
- Q. Just cut them and left them out in the woods--is that right?
- A. Yes sir.
- Q. And that is all the work you did?---You must answer it?
- A. You got after me so so quick along there I don't know, I may have done some work around the place.
- Q. But you said there was no place there? A. Well, if I say now, it was not what I would call a place, but I guess I will just answer that that I never done any work.
- Q. Only cut some poles out in the woods? A. Yes sir.
- Q. There was no farm or cultivated lands or fields connected with the house in which you lived was there? A. No sir.
- Q. You say you don't know what year you got married? A. No sir.
- Q. Do you know when anyone of your children was born? A. No sir.
- Q. How many have you got? A. About six.
- Q. Do you know when one single one of them was born? A. No sir, I do not.
- Q. Do you know within four years of when any one of them was born? A. No sir, if I had to name the year I couldn't do it. I had them set down in a Bible, but that got destroyed, and I never looked after that.
- Q. You don't know one year from another? A. Yes sir, I know the years.
- Q. You don't know the way they come? A. No sir, I don't know about that.
- Q. Have you ever lost any children? A. Yes sir.
- Q. When did the first one die? A. Well, I don't really know when the first one died, but I reckon it has been about--
- Q. Do you remember the year? A. No sir.
- Q. Do you remember within four years of the year? A. I might, if I had a little time to study it, but I can't answer that question right at once.
- Q. What kind of a house was this old Polston house?
- A. The house on the Polston place?
- Q. The one you lived in; I mean what is known as the old Polston place?

MR. PATTEN:

- Q. State whether you mean the one he lived in or the house on the Polston place?
- Q. I said not the one you lived in, the house on the Polston place,
- A. It was a frame house.
- Q. When was the first time you were ever there after the war; you said you were not there this time-- now, when was it you were going to Southwest City and stopped-- A. I never was in the house.
- Q. You never were right there? A. I have been in seeing distance of it.
- Q. You mean passing along the road?
- A. Yes sir.
- Q. Well, how far is the road from it?

- A. Well, let me see, I don't know as I can answer that question correctly.
- Q. You were never nearer the house than the road, when passing along it? A. I believe that the house, the field, I believe, the stables are near the road, and the house stands further back from the road, It is not but a little distance I guess from the road.
- Q. Well, about how far? A. Is the house from the road?
- Q. Yes sir? A. Well, I expect it is about three-quarters of a mile
- Q. And that is the nearest you have ever been to that place since the war? A. No sir, it aint.
- Q. I thought that you said awhile ago that you were never there but that you passed along the road?
- A. No sir, I don't remember saying that.
- Q. Well, that is the truth? A. Well, I have been traveling near the place. Near you know, along the road.
- Q. You say you never were in the house-- at the house?
- A. No sir, I never was in it.
- Q. Was you ever nearer than the road? A. Not that I remember of now.
- Q. You never saw Col. Boudinot after the war?
- A. Yes sir, I saw him. When I saw him was in Vinita.
- Q. In Vinita? A. Yes sir.
- Q. That was after you moved down here the last time? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Prior to that time you never saw him? A. No sir.

BY MR. PATTEN:

- Q. You say that you are mixed up on directions over in that country? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Was that because those Indians scared you so bad you never did get it right.

MR. HASTINGS: Objected to as being leading.

- Q. How long did you live at Baxter Springs before you moved down on Grand River? A. Baxter?
- Q. Joplin, I meant to say? A. I don't know, three or four years.
- Q. Did you move down on Grand River and did you live in that neighborhood before you were married? A. Yes sir.
- Q. And you married your wife up at Joplin? A. Yes sir.
- Q. You say Mellette & Smith represented you the first time? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Was that during the same time that they had a whole lot of cases, and was following the Commission around over the country from place to place trying them?
- A. The Dawes Commission?
- Q. Yes? A. Yes sir.
- Q. It was at that same time that they had so many of these cases was it? A. Yes sir.
- Q. This affidavit that you made about a year ago, did you make it before Mr. Starr and I or before Mr. Bulger or
- A. Before Mr. Bulger.
- Q. You said something about not working for anyone while you were up on Honey Creek, was there anyone up there to work for?
- A. No sir, I never knew of anything to do up there at all.
- Q. Now, in regard to this old Polston place and this place where you lived up on Honey Creek, were you acquainted with the directions and location of these places before the war?
- A. No sir.
- Q. Did not you live there before the war? A. Yes sir, but I wasn't but just a lad, and I was with my mother and I wasn't allowed to go around anywhere with freedom.

MR. HASTINGS:

- Q. When did you first see Dave McGhee? A. Dave McGhee-- Dave McGhee? well, I don't know .
- Q. Did you ever see him in your life? A. Who is Dave?
- Q. Dave McGhee? A. Is he a Judge?
- Q. No, he is not Judge. A. Was he ever a Judge.
- Q. No. I think his brother was Clerk, or maybe a Judge; he held a good many offices.
- A. Well, I never seen him to know him only at the Commission Court at Chelsea.
- Q. Well, that perhaps was his brother, Jeff McGhee--T. J. McGhee
Now, did you ever know the brother of that man you appeared at Chelsea before, Dave McGhee? A. I never knew him by that name.
- Q. Did you ever know either of the McGhees before the Court at Chelsea in 1901? A. I had seen them.
- Q. When did you see them? How long before that?
- A. Well, I don't know, sir.
- Q. What is your best judgment now? A. Well, now I want to say this, that while we were there on Honey Creek I remember the name of McGhee.
- Q. But you don't remember seeing them? A. I don't remember knowing them at all.

ON BEHALF OF COMMISSIONER:

- Q. When you came to the Cherokee Nation after the war which way did you come from Springfield Missouri, to Honey Creek.
- A. Came in by way of, I think it was from Keosville or Cassville, Arkansas, which one it is I don't remember.
- Q. Do you know where you crossed the line between the Cherokee Nation and Missouri?
- A. No sir, not just exactly where, I crossed the line. If I knew which one of those places was nearest the Territory-- anyhow, it was betw en that town-- the line is this side of that town, I don't know the line.
- Q. Are these towns you refer to in Missouri? A. No sir, they are in Arkansas.
- Q. Who returned with you in 1866? A. My father and mother, two sisters and brother.
- Q. You did not pass by Southwest City, on your way down?
- A. No sir.
- Q. Do you know whether or not Southwest City was founded at that time? A. No sir, it was not.
- Q. Did you pass by the site where the town now stands? A. Yes sir, I believe we did; may have passed there.
- Q. You say you lived in the Cherokee Nation three or four months at that time and then went to Joplin, Missouri? A. Yes sir.
- Q. In making that move did you pass by where Southwest City now stands? A. No sir.
- Q. Do you know whether or not the town had been started when you moved from Southwest City to Joplin?
- A. No sir, there was no town there. There was one store .
- Q. What was the name of that place? A. Honey Creek, was all the place I knew for it at that time.
- Q. Was that the place where the store stood?

- A. Yes sir.
- Q. Is that the present site of Southwest City, Missouri?
- A. Yes sir, that is all the name I ever knew for it.
- Q. Honey Creek? Was that over in Missouri? A. No sir, Honey Creek-I think it heads right there about where Southwest City is now. And Southwest City I think is right on the line, part of it perhaps in Missouri and part of it in the Territory.
- Q. But this store you refer to at that time, was right where Southwest City, Missouri is now? A. Yes sir.
- Q. There was a store there at that time? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Now, do you know what year it was that you left the Nation and moved to Joplin, Missouri? A. No sir, I don't. I have said, I think I testified, that we went from the Territory to Missouri, but we went from Arkansas. Our owners, my boss, I started to say our boss used to be to this old Ridge place up here, it is the Polston place, and he had one sister living in Arkansas, and he had no wife, and we stayed part with his sister there in Arkansas, and so we went from there.
- Q. That was the first time you went to Missouri--during the war?
- A. Yes sir.
- Q. I meant after the war, when you left the Cherokee Nation the second time? A. Yes sir---I can't answer that.
- Q. You say you do not know the year you left the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion? A. Yes sir, I know the year.
- Q. What year was it? A. It was in '67.
- Q. How long did you live in Joplin, do you know that? A. Something like four years.
- Q. Can you name the years? Now you left there in '67?
- A. Yes sir.
- Q. You were there during the year '67? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Well, just name the other years you were there, if you can?
- A. Well, sir, I guess we must have been there until about '71.
- Q. And then you moved from there back to Grand River in the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Who was with you at that time? A. My father and mother and sisters and brother.
- Q. And how long did you live on Grand River in the Cherokee Nation before you returned to Joplin, Missouri, after your wife? A. Something like a year or two, I guess.
- Q. Do you know in what year you were married? A. No sir, I do not, positive.
- Q. Do you know about what year? A. I expect probably about '72, sir.
- Q. About 1872? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Do you remember the first time you were before the Commission in this case, when you made application, you were asked this question--"Q. When were you married to her? (referring to your wife). "A. I don't know sir about '67 I guess."
- A. No sir, I do not remember that. If so, I made quite a mistake.
- Q. You were also asked this question--"Q. Brought your wife back with you when you came?" "A. Yes sir."?
- A. Yes sir, I remember how that question was asked I believe, that is how my understanding of it was.
- Q. Well, explain it?

- A. My understanding of it was, when I was married did I bring my wife with me. That was my understanding of it.
- Q. Well, how long did you live up there after you married, before you brought her down here? A. Why, we just came right down.
- Q. Well, that time you said you were married in '67 and brought your wife down when you came?
- A. That was a mistake; I was not married in '67 because I was not married the same year we left the nation.
- Q. What were the names of those two freedmen you saw in the Nation in '66? A. Simon Lynch and Crap Lynch.
- Q. Do you know what they were doing up there? A. No sir, I don't know really, they might have been up there to mill, I don't know, I don't remember what their business was.
- Q. What mill was located there? A. Now, I know the mill, but I have forgotten the name it was. It was an old water mill, but who it was in the name of I can not say.
- Q. How far was the mill from where you were stopping at that time? A. Well, to the best of my knowledge it was a mile or a mile and a half, I don't suppose it was over that.
- Q. Which direction from where you were living?
- A. Now according to the way I have got that country fixed up it was north. I am somehow turned around; I can not be sure about that part of it.
- Q. While you were living up there, did you know the directions then? A. I don't know; I don't remember; by seeing the sun rising, I could tell that.
- Q. Well, referring to where the sun rises, which way was it?
- A. Well, I will say it was down Money Creek from where we lived which I will say seems to me like it was north.
- Q. You said in your direct examination that you believed that you lived two miles north of Southwest City, Missouri?
- A. Yes sir, I believe so, of where Southwest City is now.
- Q. Are you right sure you were living in the Cherokee Nation in '66? A. Yes sir. We were.
- Q. Southwest City, Missouri, is not in the Cherokee Nation is it? A. Part of it is, I believe, I think the line divides the town.
- Q. You say Money Creek heads at Southwest City?
- A. I think so, right about there.
- Q. Which way does it flow from there?
- A. According to my idea of directions I think it flows in a northeast direction.
- Q. And you think you were living about two miles down the creek, and that that was north? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Do you know whether this mill was owned by a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes sir, it was owned by a Cherokee, I think a fullblood, I can't get the name of the man owned it now; I know it, but I can't call it to mind.
- Q. Did you know the name of the owner at the time you lived there in '66? A. Yes sir, that is when I knew the name of the man, and the mill, but to say now the owner, I don't know the owner; I reckon the mill went by the name of the man that owned it.
- Q. Were you ever down to the mill during the time you lived there?
- A. Yes sir, I was at the mill once, as well as I remember.
- Q. What were you doing down there?
- A. I don't know sir, just how I come to be there.

- Q. What kind of a mill was it-- what did it grind? A. Ground corn. It was just a little mill, a water mill, just had I think corn burrs.
- Q. You have only been married one time have you? A. Yes sir that's all.
- Q. Your wife is a state woman? A. Yes sir.
- Q. She neither claims nor possess any rights to Cherokee citizenship does she? A. No sir.
- Q. Your children do not claim any rights except such rights as they may get through you? A. No sir.
- Q. You say this water mill was down Honey Creek from where you lived? A. Yes sir.

The hour of 12 M. having arrived, this case was continued until 1:00 P. M. of this day.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
MUSKOGEE, INDIAN TERRITORY,
DECEMBER 14, 1906.

FURTHER Testimony taken in the matter of the application for the enrollment of Katie Ridge et al., as Cherokee Freedmen, pursuant to adjournment to 1:00 o'clock p. m., December 14, 1906.

JOE FOX, being first duly sworn by B. P. Ramus, Notary Public, testified as follows:

BY MR. PATTON:

- Q State your name? A Joe Fox.
Q How old are you, Mr. Fox? A Sixty-three.
Q What is your postoffice address? A Grove.
Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Where did you live before the war? A I lived on Honey Creek, right above Missionary, - Big Spring, around Big Spring, right west from there.
Q How far was that from the present site of South West City?
A About one hundred miles.
Q Was that in the neighborhood of what was known as the Doctor Polson place? A. That is about two mile from the Polson place.
Q Did your family, the Fox, live in that neighborhood before the war, on Honey Creek? A. Yes, my mother she lived right there at the Big Springs. When the war come up I left there.
Q You went to the army? A Yes sir.
Q Where did you go after the war was over? A. I think I was down near Fort Gibson, over there in '65, the 30th of May. My folks lived right there close to Spavinaw postoffice. My folks and my mother and children lived there.
Q How long did you stay there at Spavinaw? A. That year I come up and was discharged, - I left off to plant corn, and I went back to camp again at Fort Gibson; come back and we just stayed there and made a crop there.
Q In 1865? A. Yes sir.
Q Did you make a crop in 1866? A. Made two crops in there.
Q Made two crops? A Made two crops.
Q Made one crop the year the war was closed? A. Two crops.

- Q You mean one the summer the war closed, and one the next summer? A. Yes, '65, and the next summer I made a crop again.
- Q After you got that crop in next summer, what did you do?
- A Went on Honey Creek, old place there where I used to live.
- Q Where you lived before the war? A. Yes sir, all moved back there.
- Q Now what time of year was it that you moved back on Honey Creek? A. I can't tell, something, about pretty nigh, something like about Christmas.
- Q When you got back there were there any colored people living there? A. No, wasn't allowed colored people, - we got about two or three or four months moved in. We had two places about a quarter of a mile apart; we lived on this side that Big Spring, there was an empty house there, and that is when them colored people moved in.
- Q Sometime after you got back up there some colored people moved into that empty house? A Yes sir.
- Q Whose place was that? A My mother's place.
- Q Did your mother, - how long did she keep that place?
- A Something, - I can't tell exactly, you see the way they done, before we were discharged that had been sold.
- Q Had been confiscated, had it? A. Yes sir. - - Somewhere near Spavinsaw, - when we were talking here a big man that come up and saw mother and wanted to buy the place. Mother sold part of the place.
- Q Your mother sold that place to Qualatah? A Yes.
- Q About how long before you went back before your mother sold this place to Qualatah? A. I can't hardly remember; been so long ago. I know he sold to some party, nigh spring looks like.
- Q About next spring? A Yes, about three or four months.
- Q When she sold this place to Qualatah?

MR. HASTINGS: He has not stated colored people lived in this house, and besides it is leading.

BY MR. PATTON:

- Q When your mother sold this place to Qualatah were these colored people still living in that house on that place? A. Yes. - - I believe I could tell you a heap better not to ask questions.

MR. PATTON: Alright.

- A When we sold, - mother sold that place, and that nigger after that, - moved down there, - nigger come in that house. When he sold, left after we sold it. Qualatah he bought the place, - Qualatah I heard, I didn't see, I heard that he went down and got drunk and run them off. I heard that.

MR. HASTINGS: I move that part which he claims to be hearsay be stricken from the record.

MR. PATTON: That is general reputation as to that.

MR. HASTINGS: As to what?

MR. PATTON: As to running them out.
General reputation is one of the exceptions to the rule in admitting hearsay evidence; there are four or five exceptions.

Further testimony of this witness was taken through W. P. Drew, official Cherokee interpreter:

BY MR. PATTON:

Q When your mother sold this place to Qualatah, - at the time she sold it to Qualatah, then were these colored people living in that house?

MR. HASTINGS: Objected to; the form of that question should be "who is living in that house".

BY MR. PATTON:

Q When you and your folks moved on Honey Creek, about where did you move, in what neighborhood on Honey Creek did you move? A. There was two houses about a quarter apart, and we moved just this side of these two houses in another house. The house we moved into was empty, right close to the Spring, nobody living there then on that place of my mother's.

Q How far was that from where South West City now is?

A About three miles.

Q Did any one after that time ever move into that house you said was empty? A. Yes, there was a darkey come there, but I didn't know them.

Q About when did these darkies come there? A. I can't exactly say when they come there, but my mother was still on the place when they come.

Q Did your mother ever sell that place? A. Yes, sold the place to Qualatah.

Q About how long was it after you came up on Honey Creek before she sold that place to Qualatah? A. As I said awhile ago, somewhere about three or four months afterwards.

Q Was she living in that house when she sold it to Qualatah?

A No one living there at the time it was sold; some time afterwards the niggers moved in there, but I don't know what their names were.

Q Did the negroes move in that house before or after your mother sold it to Qualatah? A. I can't state exactly whether it was before or after. Sometime after we moved on Honey Creek when she sold the place to Qualatah.

- Q In your judgment, about what time did those negroes move into that house? A. That is a very hard question to answer, for the simple reason I didn't pay any attention to the dates as time passed by.
- Q Do you know whether or not the house was empty when you sold it to Qualatah? A. I think it was empty.
- Q You think that the colored people didn't move into that house until after Qualatah bought it? A. I think that is the way of it; when Qualatah got ready to move, we also moved. Qualatah come home drunk one time and run the niggers off.
- Q Awhile ago you stated that these colored people were living in this house at the time Qualatah bought it from your mother, which was as you stated some three or four months after you moved up on Honey Creek, and you have just now stated that you didn't think they were living in the house at the time Qualatah bought it and moved in afterwards, now which is right? A. These things happened, been forty years ago. All I can remember is that the niggers came to that house and moved in there, but as to what date it was I can't say. That is my recollection, and then another thing I don't know the niggers, don't know their names.
- Q You don't know the names of those colored people that were in there, do you? A. No sir.

BY MR. WASTINGS:

- Q You got back there about Christmas, 1866?
- A Some wheres along there.
- Q And some three or four months after that your mother sold this place to Qualatah? A Yes sir.
- Q That would have been along in the following spring? A Yes, some wheres in the spring.
- Q That was after crops had come up? A Yes sir. At the time we moved in that summer, on one of them places, we were going to plant some corn.
- Q It was in the spring? A Yes sir.
- Q Some time after that you saw these negroes there?
- Q Yes sir, some time after we lived near South West City, when I saw these niggers.
- Q How many stores were in South West City then, Joe? A One.
- Q Who had the store there, Joe? A Sturgis.
- Q Was there a postoffice there? A I can't say whether there was a postoffice there at that time.
- Q You didn't know these negroes' names? A No sir.
- Q Of course, you don't know what year it was? - - You aint testifying about the year, - you haven't testified as to the year? A No sir, I can't tell what year.
- Q Where was that house from the Polston place?
- A About two miles east from the Polston place.
- Q On what side of Honey Creek was it? A Polston, there on the south side of the Creek; we were on the south side of the Creek.
- Q On the same side of the Creek? A Yes sir.
- Q Was there any mill around there? A At that time wasn't any mill; some time after a mill was put there.

- Q How far down the creek, six or seven miles? A. Will was erected in South West City some time after that; some time after a mill was put in South West City, another mill was put up two miles down the creek, -
- Q Dan Muskrat put that up? A Yes sir.
- Q Above the mouth of White Water? A Yes sir.
- Q Some six or seven miles down there? A Right close up.
- Q How far, about two and a half miles? A Yes sir.
- Q That wasn't put up until afterwards? A Sometime after.
- Q About how many years, four or five? A Four or five.
- Q You never saw Qualatah run these folks off; you heard that? A No sir.
- Q You never saw them negroes there; you heard that, Joe? A I saw the nigger, but I didn't know who he was, and I never seen him when he run them off.
- Q You don't know how long they stayed there? A No sir.
- Q One day or two days? A No sir. I can't tell you how long; stayed there awhile, Qualatah come, -
- Q Run them off? A Yes sir.
- Q Two or three days? A I couldn't tell you.
- Q Best of your judgment, three or four days, or a week? A I couldn't say how long they stayed there, been too long ago.
- Q That was in the spring of the year after corn was up, you stated awhile ago? A. Yes sir, some wheres along in the spring of the year.
- Q Did you ever see them there but just one time? A. Yes, I saw them one time as I started to town, went right by there.
- Q That is the only time you saw them? A Yes sir, about a hundred yards off.
- Q About a hundred yards off the road? A Yes, road run right by that place.
- Q You stated you saw them about a hundred yards off? A I passed a hundred yards right opposite where the house was; road was running right by the house.
- Q That is the only time you saw them? A That is the only time I saw them.
- Q Are you married? A Yes sir.
- Q Married before the war? A No sir, I wasn't married at that time.
- Q Married after the war? A Yes.
- Q How long after the war? A. I couldn't say how long after the war; going by my oldest child, must be about thirty years old.
- Q You don't know what year it was, then? A No sir.
- Q Were you just married one time? A Twice.
- Q When were you married the second time? A Married 30 years ago; my first wife got a divorce from me.
- Q You don't remember years very good, do you? A No sir.
- Q Too long to remember the years? A Too long; I didn't pay any attention to it.
- Q You just passed along the road one time and you saw some negroes about a hundred yards off in this house? A. Yes, I was going along the road and I saw niggers right in there, and I heard niggers living in that house.
- Q You were going to South West City? A Yes sir; some body said niggers living in that house.

Q That's all you know about it? A Yes sir.
Q You never saw the negroes, and didn't know who they were?
A No sir, I didn't know who they were, but I saw a nigger.
Q Just one man? A I seed children, looks like.
Q Eight or ten? A No, I 'spect about two or three, looks like, that's all I could tell. Of course, I don't know.
Q You never did know them? A Never did know them.
Q Didn't want to know them? A Well, I don't know, - that is all I can tell, is my judgment.
Q You were going to South West City, Missouri? A Yes sir.
Q Going along the road at that time? A Yes sir.
Q Who was going with you, - going to get some whiskey? A Yes.
Q Who was selling whiskey up there at that time?
A I can't say; some white fellow.
Q Who was selling whiskey there then, Jos? A Well, I can't tell, - used to sell it, Colonel Shields.
Q Was he selling whiskey at that time? A Yes, he used to sell whiskey there at this town.
Q Good saloon? A He used to keep a good one.
Q When you was going up there at this time? A Yes sir; Colonel Shields used to sell whiskey there.
Q That is what you were going up there for then? A Yes.
Q Who else had a saloon up there at that time? A Right smart men then, I can't tell who.
Q How big was South West City at that time? A One store.
Q One saloon? A Yes sir.
Q That saloon was run by Shields? A Colonel Shields.
Q And that is when you went up there that you have told about here? A Yes sir.

BY MR. PATTON:

Q Was that when you saw the negroes, the time you went up where South West City is, - talking about the fellow that sold the whiskey, - was that the time you saw the negroes?
A Yes, about somewhere along there, the way I can remember.
Q What were you doing when you went up to that place and saw these negroes, where were you going? A Going to South West City; going up to that place, - some body talking, I reckon nigger living there.
Q How long after you moved up to Honey Creek was it before you saw these negroes, do you know how long it was?
A I don't know, I can't tell; too hard a question to answer, been too long ago.
Q Did you gather your corn upon Spavinaw before you moved to Honey Creek? A Yes, I done put it away.
Q You gathered your corn down at Spavinaw and moved to Honey Creek, you stated? A Yes, put it in old house on Spavinaw.

ON BEHALF OF THE COMMISSIONER:

Q After you moved up on Honey Creek, how long did you live there? A How long I live there?
Q Do you still live there?

- A Yes, I live on this side; I been right there ever since I moved to Honey Creek.
- Q You have lived in that vicinity ever since, have you?
- A Yes sir, about four or five miles south of Grove.
- Q You have lived in that immediate neighborhood ever since you moved there after the war? A Yes, I been there ever since.

(Witness dismissed).

WILLIAM H. SUTTON, being first duly sworn by R. P. Rasmus,
Notary Public, testified as follows:

EXAMINATION

BY MR. PATTON:

- Q What is your name? A William H. Sutton.
- Q How old are you? A Fifty-two.
- Q What is your postoffice address? A Grove.
- Q Did you ever live in the vicinity of Honey Creek near South West City? A Lived all around South West City; I don't know as I ever lived right on the Creek, - quarter or so from the Creek.
- Q Did you live in the neighborhood of the Doctor Polston place? A Yes sir.
- Q When? A Lived in there from about '77, - around the Polston place, on up until about '79.
- Q Where did you live around '67? A Down south of there, Wet Prairie.
- Q How far was that away? A Must have been four or five miles.
- Q Were there any Indians, full-bloods and half-breeds, living in that country then? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you know what their sentiments were towards the colored people? A No, I don't know as I do.
- Q Do you know of any instance where it was manifested or showed what it was? A Run a family of niggers out of there by the name of Emersons.
- Q When was that? A In '67.
- Q What were those negroes names? A Frank Emerson.
- Q Where did they come in and settle? A Close to Houkanah's old factory.
- Q And the Indians ran them off? A They said it was Indians.
- Q They were run out? A Yes sir.
- BY MR. HASTINGS:
- Q That was on the line of Arkansas, on Wet Prairie? A Yes.
- Q Right immediately around that old factory was white men on the Arkansas side and half-breed Cherokees on the other? A Full bloods most of them; some of them mixed breeds.
- Q Right around Wet Prairie? A Yes sir. Several full-bloods lived down on the Creek.
- Q How far off? A I don't think it was over a mile.
- Q You don't know who run them off? A No sir, I didn't see them.
- Q Might have been white people for all you know? A I don't know.

- Q Then Emersons were not Cherokee darkeys, nor didn't claim to be? A. I don't know about that; they plowed the cotton and began to clean off.
- Q Do you know the date? A. 1877; they come there in the fall before it began to get cold; they come there in the fall of 1866.
- Q You don't know what Indians were there? A. No sir.
- Q You don't know where Emersons went to? A. No sir.
- Q Is Mr. Starr or Mr. Patton your attorney in any legal matters? A. No sir.
- Q Haven't they been in some contest cases?
- A Mr. Starr, yes sir.
- Q In the trial of that this fall? A. Yes, they had a contest case for me this fall.

BY MR. PATTON:

- Q Where did you live in 1866? A. We come back to this country, - in the spring of '66 we lived in Kansas. I think we landed here about September, on the Illinois river. We come back up to Polston's, - in that neighborhood.
- Q After you came up around there, did you ever hear of any negroes being run out of there? A. Never knowed of any other niggers in there.
- Q Did you ever hear of any that had been run out before you came in there?

MR. HASTINGS: That is too indefinite, and we submit that such testimony should not be permitted.

MR. PATTON: Sometimes, in order to show the disposition of these Indians, - it is necessary to show what had been done up there. It is a well settled rule that after a long lapse of time you can show a condition by general reputation; that is one of the exceptions to the rule of hearsay evidence.

- A We got there along in the early part of the fall of '66; I guess we went there in the fall of '66, - along some time.

ON BEHALF OF THE COMMISSIONER: If he was there, you can bring it out properly.

BY MR. PATTON:

- Q You testified about certain Emerson negroes being run out of there? A. Yes, lived right there.
- Q Outside of these Emerson negroes being run out of there, did you about that time hear of any other negroes?
- A Right around there, I don't believe I did.

- Q You never heard of any others being run out of there around through that country? A. That's a pretty hard question for a man to answer.
- Q If you don't know, say so? A. When it comes to know, I don't know.

ON BEHALF OF THE COMMISSIONER:

- Q What is your citizenship? A Cherokee citizen by blood.
- Q You have lived here all your life? A. Yes, all my life, except a little time during the war.

(Witness dismissed).

- Q Did you know him during the year '66? A Yes sir, that is my best recollection.
- Q Did you know him during the year '67? A Part of the time.
- Q What is your impression or opinion as to when he left there?
- A Well, I don't know exactly; I can't say when he left there. I can't say that, - it was in the first part of '67, between that and '69. I never had paid any attention to it much.
- Q How far did he live from you during the years '65 and '67?
- A Wasn't but a short distance; as far as from here to that large building across there (indicating Indianapolis building).
- Q Who did he work for at that time? A Stayed with a doctor.
- Q What was the doctor's name? A Polston.
- Q What did you do during these years? A I was a blacksmith.
- Q Did he have occasion to visit your shop frequently?
- A Yes, he was there several times.
- Q Are you positive that he was there during the year 1866 and fore part of 1867? A Yes I knew him, and I run my shop in 1867, and he was there up until 1867.
- Q You don't remember how much longer he was there? A No sir, I do not.
- Q Are you positive that this is one and the same person?
- A Yes sir.
- Q You knew him when he came to your home? A No sir, not the first time; the second time, I did.
- Q How far do you live from him now? A Three miles from me.
- Q Have you lived in that vicinity for the past fourteen years?
- A No sir; fourteen years ago I lived there about eighteen months, and went from there into Missouri, and came back there two years ago.
- Q You have known him all the time you have lived up there?
- A Yes sir.
- Q There is no possibility of doubt about your knowing this man?
- A No sir.
- Q And this was after the war closed, he was up there? A Yes.
- Q You say you ran that shop during the year 1866 and part of 1867? A Yes sir.
- Q During that time he was there working for this man? A Yes.
- Q How far from where you lived? A About the distance from here to that tall brick building.
- Q A block? A Block and a half.
- Q During that time, you saw him frequently? A Yes sir.
- Q He was there then continuously? A Yes, met him there on the street every now and then.
- Q Did you miss him from there during these two years up until 1867 any length of time? A No, I think not.

- Q You have got no interest whatever in the result of this controversy? A No sir.
Q None in the world? A No sir.

BY MR. PATTON:

- Q How old are you? A Sixty-three.
Q Were you in the army? A Yes sir.
Q And were discharged along in 1865? A Yes sir, in 1865.
Q You lived in what place in 1865, right after the close of the war? A Danville.
Q Danville, Illinois? A Yes sir.
Q Where did you know this fellow, in Danville, Illinois?
A Yes sir.
Q What time did you go to Danville after the close of the war?
A I landed in Danville in May 1865.
Q Then how long did you live there continuously from May 1865? A That was my home until fourteen years ago.
Q Lived right in Danville all the time? A Yes sir. I guess I was out last few years to go to different places.
Q What occupation did you have right after the war when you first went to Danville? A Blacksmith.
Q Worked at that there during a number of years? A Yes sir.
Q You started a job blacksmith shop in 1865, some time?
A Yes sir.
Q And held that same position in 1866? A Held that position in '66 there and up until '67.
Q Positive of those dates? A Yes sir.
Q From the time this war closed, - ? A Yes sir.
Q From the close of the war in 1865, - say the rest of 1865, up to 1866 and part of 1867, during that interval of time, were you continuously engaged in Danville? A I wasn't there all the time.
Q Didn't move any place else? A No.
Q Worked at that trade? A Yes sir.
Q Most of the time? A Yes, I wasn't there all of the time.
Q Right at your blacksmith shop? A That was where I worked, yes, - might have been a day or two now and then I was out.
Q You was around town all the time? A Yes sir.
Q During that time you got acquainted with the applicant here?
A I knew him when I seen him.
Q Whom did he work for? A Physician.
Q Doctor? A Yes sir.
Q What did he do? A Attended to his horses and such stuff as that.
Q When did you first get acquainted with this fellow? A Sometime during the summer of 1865.
Q Now, how long did he stay there? A I can't tell you how long he stayed there, - I don't know just exactly when he left.
Q Do you know whether he was there in the winter of 1865?
A Yes, he was there in the winter of 1865.
Q Are you sure of that? A Yes sir.
Q In the spring of 1866? A Yes sir.
Q Through the winter of 1865 and spring of 1866? - was he there continuously? A He might have perhaps been away a week, I don't know that. I seen him often up until in 1867.

- Q Do you know whether he was there continuously in the summer of 1866? A Seen him often there.
- Q In the summer of 1866? A Yes sir.
- Q Are you sure of that? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you know he was there in the early part of 1866? A Yes.
- Q He was there continuously from the time you first knew him until the fall of 1866? A Yes he was unless he would happen to go out a few days.
- Q Was he gone as much as four months? A No sir.
- Q Was he there in the winter of 1867? A Yes sir.
- Q In the spring of 1867? A Yes sir.
- Q We want the facts in this case: Are you positive enough to swear positively that this fellow here was in Danville, Illinois, continuously, approximately speaking I mean, from the time you first knew him in 1865 until March or April of 1867? A. Yes, he was there all that time; he might have been out a day or two but couldn't have been out longer.
- Q Are you positive enough to swear positively whether or not he was out of this place as much as three or four months at one time from 1865 until 1867? A He might have been out at one time some where near that length of time, but was there most of the time I know.
- Q That is what I am trying to get at now; is whether or not you are absolutely certain enough of the facts to swear positively that he wasn't away from there as much as three or four months in that interval of time? A Been a good long spell ago and I can't say positively, but I don't think he was out as much as three or four months at a time.
- Q How old a man was he at that time? A Wasn't hardly a man.
- Q Young fellow? A Yes, wasn't grown.
- Q About when did he leave there? A I don't know for certain when he left there, I don't know when he left, I can't say that.
- Q If you don't know just when he left, how can you say whether or not he was there in the spring of 1867? A I know he was there then but I don't know what time after that he left.
- Q Was he there as late as 1868? A I don't know.
- Q As late as April, 1867? A There all the summer of 1867; it has been so long ago I didn't keep a memorandum of it.
- Q Do you know where he came from? A No sir.
- Q Did you ever hear him say? A Never heard him say.
- Q When was the first time you saw him in the Indian Territory? A It was in 1892, I believe.
- Q In 1892? A Yes sir.
- Q Where was he living when you saw him? A Right where he lives now.
- Q And you moved in that neighborhood? A Yes sir.
- Q Where did you see him the first time? A I met him in the road; next time he come to my house and borrowed a wagon to haul some wheat.
- Q When he came to borrow the wagon was when you recognized him? A Yes sir.
- Q How long had he been living there? A Mighty short time.
- Q When he came to borrow the wagon did he recognize you? A He didn't from the start. He told me he had lived at Danville at one time. Of course, his face looked older to me, but I knew he was the same man.

- Q There is no question in your mind about him being the same man? A No sir.
- Q You are positive enough of that to swear to it? A Yes sir.
- Q You say that in that interval of time you are not positive about whether he was out of there as much as three or four months at a time? A I don't think he was out of there three months of time.
- Q As to the continuity of him staying there, it is just an impression left on your mind? A No sir; when I seen him I know it.
- Q That has been forty years ago, hasn't it? A Yes sir.
- Q Isn't it pretty hard to remember whether a man lived continuously in a place forty years ago? A Well, I had things call my attention to it so I couldn't be fooled.
- Q What are they, let's hear them? A I remember it by him coming to the shop and passing the door different times during that time for the doctor.
- Q- He was passing the shop every day or so? A Every few days.
- Q You don't know just when he left there? A No sir; I don't know exactly what time he left there.
- Q How do you know he was there in the fall of 1867? A I didn't say fall of 1867; I said summer of 1867.
- Q How do you distinguish between when he was there in the summer of 1867 and in the interval he wasn't there in the fall of 1867? A I don't recollect seeing him much in the fall of 1867; he was there in the summer season.
- Q You don't remember of any specific time he finally left there? A No sir.
- Q It has gradually dropped out of your memory? A I don't know just exactly when he left, only by hearsay.
- Q As to the time he left, you know only about what time it was by just finally not seeing him any more? A By just what time they said he was gone.
- Q When did they state he was gone? A Some said he left between 1868 and 1869.
- Q You heard that? A Yes sir.
- Q Who did you hear that from? A From a fellow living in Danville.
- Q Since that time? A Short time after that. They asked just what had become of that colored boy, and it was remarked where he had gone.
- Q Is there anything more you know about him being there, - hearsay or otherwise? A Hearsay don't amount to anything.
- Q We want the entire true facts? A I have told you all I know about it.
- Q I want to ask you this; if this fellow testified here that he was in a certain place in the Cherokee Nation from about say, in December 1866 until about the spring of 1867, an interval of three months, - this fellow testified he was in a certain place in the Cherokee Nation from December 1866 until February 1867, are you prepared to say on your oath that it is not true?

BY MR. HASTINGS: Objected to because that is not proper cross examination, and calls for a conclusion of the witness.

- A I told him just exactly what I have seen and that is all I have to say.

BY MR. PATTON:

- Q Now Mr. Carrico, I want to ask you this; if this applicant, Cornelius Ridge, testified on the stand here today that in an interval of about three months say from about December 1866 until about the spring of 1867, along about February along in there, - if he testified that in that interval of time he was in the Cherokee Nation at a certain place, are you certain enough about what you know about him to say that in that interval of time that he was not there, but that you know he was in Danville, Illinois? A. It has been a long time ago; I wouldn't want to say exactly for certain. I never did miss him during that long a time. He might have possibly been away for that length of time and it slipped my recollection some; but then the best of my knowledge, I never did miss him from there no ninety days at a time.
- Q In your own mind, can you remember something that happened about Christmas of 1866, - can you remember of something that occurred about Christmas of 1866? A. Might remember several.
- Q One will be enough? A. Something that occurred about 1866?
- Q Something else besides this? A. I know of several things that happened.
- Q Just name one occurrence along about Christmas 1866?
- A. Been one occurred about Christmas; a fellow killed there.
- Q Christmas, 1866? A. Yes sir.
- Q You remember when that fellow got killed there? A. Yes sir.
- Q When that fellow got killed there do you remember where this fellow was? A. No, I can't say where he was.
- Q Within a radius of a month from the time that fellow got killed there, do you distinctly remember of seeing him?
- A. I don't say I had inside of a month; I seen him at different times often in the spring of 1866 and 1867 I seen him there.
- Q Would you be willing to swear that you had seen him within six weeks or two months of the time this party was killed?
- A. I wouldn't say for certain in six weeks, but am satisfied I seen him in less than three months I know.
- Q Do you know whether or not he was there in Danville, Illinois about the time the farmers commenced to plow in the spring of 1867? A. I don't know for certain he was there just at the time they commenced to plow; there a short time after that.
- Q Plow time is about, - commence plowing about what time?
- A. Owing to the season. Some years they began along early about the last of March, and some years May.
- Q From about the last of March on through April and sometimes May? A. Sometimes they don't plow any much until May.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q You never did miss him there then during this time you state?
- A. No sir.
- Q If he was gone from there, you didn't know it? A. No sir.

ON BEHALF OF THE COMMISSIONER:

- Q About what was the population of Danville when you moved there in 1865? A. I don't know exactly, pretty fair sized little town; I have frequently heard it, but never paid any attention.

- Q Could you estimate about what you think it was at that time?
A No, I don't know; couldn't say, I didn't pay any attention to it.
- Q Were there many colored people living there at that time?
A. No sir; they were scarce there.
- Q Did you say this darkey here was working for a doctor living about a block and a half from where your shop was situated?
A. Yes sir.
- Q You also specifically stated you saw him frequently?
A. Yes sir.
- Q What was he doing at this time? A. Attending to horses and doing chores around the place where he stayed, and coming to the shop.
- Q Did he work for this doctor all the time you knew him?
A Yes sir; made that his home there.
- Q Did you know any other colored man in Danville at that time?
A Knewed a few yes; but very few.
- Q When you met the applicant in the Indian Territory about fourteen years ago you had a conversation about your old acquaintance there in Danville? A. Yes, we had a talk about our acquaintance back there.
- Q There is no doubt in your mind about your knowing each other at the close of the rebellion? A Yes, he is the same one.
- Q Did he tell you how long he had been living in the Indian Territory? A No sir, he did not.
- Q Nothing said about that? A No sir.

BY MR. PATTON:

- Q Do you know whether or not when this Cornelius Ridge was in Danville, Illinois, if any folks was with him? A. If he had I never knew them.
- Q Never knew him having any any where else, did you? A No.
- Q Your impression is he was up there by himself? A Yes sir.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q Do you know where he came from? A No sir.
- Q Do you know where he went? A. Heard he went to Joplin, Missouri.

THOMAS J. MCGEE, being first duly sworn by B. P. Rasmus,
Notary Public, testified as follows:

EXAMINATION

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q What is your name? A Thomas J. McGee.
- Q Your postoffice address? A Dawes, Indian Territory.
- Q Your age? A Sixty-two years old.
- Q Are you a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you ever live on Honey Creek in the Cherokee Nation after the war? A Yes sir.
- Q When did you go back there after the war? A Fall of 1865.
- Q Lived there during the winter of 1865? A Yes sir.

- Q Where did you live during the fall and winter of 1866?
A On that place right there.
Q Up to the spring of 1867? A Yes, and then I moved won the creek.
Q During the fall of 1866 and spring of 1867, how far did you live from what was known as the Polston place, near Polston's place? A About a mile north.
Q Lived there all winter? A Yes sir.
Q When did you move to that place, in 1865? A Yes sir.
Q Lived there during the fall and winter succeeding, 1866?
A Yes sir.
Q Well acquainted in that neighborhood? A Yes, well acquainted with the people living around there.
Q Were there any negroes living upon or around Polston's place during the fall and winter of 1866? A I didn't see any.
Q Did you hear of any? A No sir.
Q Did you hear of Qualatah getting drunk and running any negroes out of there in the fall of 1866? A I have heard of such talk.
Q Since then? A Yes sir.
Q Since this trial? A Yes sir.
Q Never heard of it at that time? A No sir.
Q You were living there at that time? A. Old home place just a mile north of the Doctor Polston place, - used to be called the Ridge place.
Q Did you know of any negroes ever living about a mile north of the Doctor Polston place, - and could they have lived there four months without your knowing it? A. I don't see how they could in 1865 and 1866; in 1867, I was down below.
Q What time in 1867 did you move below? A Spring.
Q What time? A I think the month of March.
Q Up to March of 1867, could there any negroes have lived within a mile of you, - up to March 1867, - without your knowing them? A. Looks like I could have seen them.
Q You never heard of them? A No sir.
Q Who lived during that winter on the Polston place?
A Jesse Woods.
Q Had a son by the name of W. F. Wood? A Yes, boy then.
Q He lived there? A Yes sir.
Q Where did Joe Fox live? A. Little too hard for me; I don't know where he lived.
Q Do you know when he afterwards moved up there? A. I can't state where Joe lived.
Q Did they have any old place close there? A Well Joe was quite young.
Q Was his mother living there? A. He had a mother.
Q Where was she living? A Down the creek.
Q About how far? A In the Snail neighborhood.
Q How far below the Polston place? A About three or four miles.
Q Do you know when they moved up there? A No sir, I do not.
Q Did he move up there after you moved down there in March, 1867? A. I went from there down to what is called my mother's place on the edge of Cowskin Prairie. These people were back in the woods from there; I have seen Fox occasionally.
Q Where was Qualatah living then? A In 1867?
Q Along before 1867, - winter before 1867 up to March 1867?
A. No sir, I don't know where he lived.

- Q Now, up to that time you saw no negroes nor heard of none up to March 1867? A No sir.
- Q How did you folks get meat to eat around there, Mr. McGee?
- A I can't make that statement for others; I can answer how we got our meat. I went up to our place and killed our own hogs.
- Q I didn't know but what you hunted? A No, I am not no hunter.

BY MR. PATTON:

- Q What did you say your name was? A Thomas J. McGee.
- Q Brother to Dave McGee? A Yes sir.
- Q How old did you say you were? A Sixty-two.
- Q Where were you living in 1865, on Honey Creek?
- A Yes, fall of 1865.
- Q Where before the fall of 1865? A During the war I was down south.
- Q Came up there on Honey Creek in the fall of 1865? A Yes.
- Q Whose place? A My father's old place.
- Q How far from the Polston old place? A About a mile.
- Q How long did you live there? A Fall of 1865 and 1866, and spring of 1867 I rented my place and moved away from there.
- Q You lived within a mile of the Polston place in 1866?
- A Yes sir.
- Q Are you certain that you lived right there in that neighborhood in the fall of 1866? A Yes sir.
- Q Going to stick to it, are you? A Yes sir.
- Q Don't you know you didn't come into that neighborhood until the fall of 1867? A Come there in 1865; I can prove it.
- Q Who lived around in that neighborhood at that time?
- A John Shields lived right on the line just a mile east of me, and his brother George Shields lived about a quarter of a mile east of me, and then Cassi Shields lived there. And then there was a man by the name of Langston lived there right where place called South West City is now. He bought that land from my aunt.
- Q You came there in the fall of 1865? A Yes sir.
- Q Stayed there continuously from the fall of 1865 to the fall of 1866? A Yes sir, I was back at the old place a few times.
- Q What were you doing up there? A I was hunting for something to eat.
- Q Any other business? A I went up there the early part of July.
- Q The only reason you were out of there from the fall of 1865 to 1866 was that you went up there to kill hogs?
- A I was away from there in the states.
- Q Then you were not in that neighborhood continuously?
- A Not all the time.
- Q You were out of there a considerable part of the fall of 1865 and 1866? A Not away out of there much.
- Q How long a time at one time would you say you were out?
- A I never made no record of that that far back. I remember well about going there, because I found my sisters on the land there. Our place had been confiscated. I bought it and paid one hundred dollars, me and my sisters and Dave, my mother. And then we made a shanghi house in the spring of 1866, and Dave done our plowing, while I was hunting something to eat. I went clear out to Burt Ridges and paid him two dollars a bushel for corn.

- Q Did you get into any trouble about 1865 or 1866?
A. What kind of trouble?
Q Robbing any body? A. Never robbed any body in my life.
Q No old Indian woman? A No sir, never did sir.
Q Did you at any time previous? A No sir.
Q Did you at any time during the war? A No sir.
Q You are certain of that? A Yes sir.
Q Where did you live in the winter of 1866?
A. There on that place.
Q How far was that from the Polston place?
A. About a mile.
Q Do you know of any other little log cabin in a quarter or half mile of that place? A There used to be some old houses that stood about a quarter of a mile.
Q Who lived in these during the winter of 1866? A. I think they was blank, as well as I remember. There was a log cabin close to my brother.
Q A great many log cabins around there? A No sir; I think they were all burned up.
Q When? A During the war some time.
Q Certain that wasn't in 1866? A. I don't think it was.
Q You won't swear to that? A No; they were there when the war commenced.
Q Were they there when the war closed? A I am not positive about this old log cabin that belonged to John Ridge; it occurs to me like that got burned up during the war.
Q Where did you live in the winter of 1866?
A. My old place.
Q Did you have any meat to eat in the winter of 1866?
A. Yes, we had sorter picked up so we could stay at home then.
Q In 1866 you were at home more than in 1865? A Yes sir.
Q You were at home until the spring of 1867? A Not there?
Q Where? A Down on Honey Creek.
Q How far from there? A Five miles.
Q Five miles from there? A Yes sir.
Q Did you know of any negroes coming in that community about that time, within a year or two? A Well I heard of some over on the state side.
Q Who were they, do you know? A No sir, I don't know.
Q How many people were living around in that community?
A. I can't count them over to you.
Q Was there a dozen or half dozen? A There was Jackson England, lives about a mile or mile and a half below me; and Mrs. Snail lives some lower down; Henry White lives down on the Creek, and the full-bloods, that is all I remember.
Q Mrs. Snail is here as a witness? A Yes sir.
Q Any of the Englands family here? A Yes sir.
Q Mr. White here? A Yes sir.
Q Did you ever know any of these darkeys of Ridges before the war? A Yes, I knew old Peter.
Q Any besides Peter? A Dealie, his wife, and then there was a lame woman.
Q Half breeds live in that community as well as full-bloods?
A. Before the war?
Q After the war? A Yes sir.
Q Who were the worst, half breeds or full bloods?
A. I don't know; I can't say.

- Q One about as bad as the other? A Jesse Woods lived there and had a Cherokee family.
- Q If these half-breeds and full-bloods, - if three or four darkeys had come in there about 1866, what would they have done with them? A I don't know about that part of it.
- Q How were they disposed towards the negro family, do you suppose? A. Wasn't much said about the negro, because these wasn't none up there amongst them.
- Q Have very many negroes ever lived in that neighborhood since then? A No sir.
- Q None living there today in that little section of country, is there? A. No, I don't know of any today.
- Q Do you know of any ever living there? A Yes sir.
- Q Who? A I named them awhile ago.
- Q That was before the war? A Yes sir.
- Q After Mr. Negro was turned loose on his own responsibility when he didn't have a slave master to defend him, has he been in there since? A Three lived with me.
- Q They lived with you? A Yes sir; they was from Texas and they said that Kukulux had run them out.
- Q When you turned them loose what became of these men? A. They got acquainted with these people down at Bowling's Ferry, over on Grand river.
- Q When you turned them loose they didn't stay in that community? A No sir.
- Q They got out of there? A Yes sir, they got acquainted with these other darkeys; I think one of them was a single fellow called him George Nelson. The old man come back to see me sometimes.
- Q Were you there in October 1866, until along in April or May of 1867, along five or six months, say along about October 1866 until May 1867, were you ever out of that community? A. How is that?
- Q From October 1866 until May 1867, were you ever out of that community? A Yes, I was over there on Spavinaw on a visit. I was a young man then and would go around and have some Christmas.
- Q And visit when you got ready? A Yes sir.
- Q Any place besides Spavinaw? A Yes, Cowskin river.
- Q What were you doing over there? A Seeing the girl that finally become my wife.
- Q Any other place? A Yes, I had some business at Tahlequah.
- Q Down there awhile? A Yes sir.
- Q Any place else? A Well, up at our home place, my father's stock ranch.
- Q Where was that? A Close to Chetoka.
- Q About where Chetoka is now? A Yes sir.
- Q Any place else? A No, I don't remember.
- Q After being at these various places, you are willing to swear that there wasn't a colored family come in there and stayed a few months? A. I didn't see any; and I didn't never hear of any body else saying anything about them.

BY MR. FASTINGS:

- Q On these occasions you just went there and back? A Yes.

Q None moved in there since? A No sir, aint yet.
Q Never heard of any being run out of there? A No sir.
Q Have you lived right in there? A Just come from there.
Q Could any negroes have lived in there within a mile of you without your knowing it? A No sir.
Q How did you get meat to eat, kill game? A Yes sir.
Q Hunted around in there? A Yes sir.
Q All over these woods? A Yes sir.

BY MR. PATTON:

Q When was it you moved upon Honey Creek? A First year I moved on Spring Creek, and then in the fall I went upon Honey Creek.
Q You went on Honey Creek you think in the fall of 1866?
I went to Spring Creek first and then next fall went to Honey Creek.
Q Don't remember it by the years? A No sir.
Q You can't read or write? A No sir.
Q Just have to go by the length of time? A Yes sir.
Q Was you in the army? A Yes sir.
Q How old are you? A Sixty-six.
Q You stayed in the army until the close of the war? A Yes.
I stayed right there at Fort Gibson.
Q The war closed in the early part of 1865? A I don't remember the dates; but I always remember when we mustered out in the army.
Q Mustered out in 1865 at the close of the war?
A. I guess that's it.
Q Then you went upon Spring Creek? A Yes sir.
Q Make a crop on Spring Creek? A Yes sir.
Q Did you stay there that winter? A. I moved away from Spring Creek after the crops were laid by that winter.
Q You say you moved away from Spring Creek after the crops were laid by the next year? A When we gathered corn.
Q Did you make two crops on Spring Creek? A Just one.
Q Did you make a crop on Spring Creek the year the war closed?
A. We were mustered out and I made a crop.
Q Where did you make a crop the next year? A On Honey Creek.
Q You made a crop on Honey Creek the year after the war closed?
A. Yes, made a crop ever since.
Q How far did you live from this old Polston place?

- A Two and a half miles.
- Q Were there any little houses around that Polaton place?
- A No sir, only had the old house when Wood lived there.
- Q Wasn't any little log cabins? A I didn't notice them.
- Q Little log cabins where slaves could live in? A No sir.
- Q You didn't see any? A No sir.
- Q Did you know any of Ridge's slaves before the war?
- A No sir; time the war broke out I was living near Gainesboro.
- Q Did you ever see or know of any colored people living on Honey Creek? A No sir.
- Q What kind of a country is that around there, rugged and rough? A Yes, in some places rocky and rough places.
- Q Did you ever know from that time until this time, did you ever know of any colored people living in that community?
- A No sir; I can't contradict my statement I stated in the first place.
- Q None did live there? A None at all.
- Q You didn't see any in there in the winter of 1866, then?
- A No sir.
- Q Don't know whether there was any in there or not? A No. Never did see any.
- Q What kind of people lived in there at that time, mostly Indians and half-breeds? A Both Indians and half-breeds.
- Q How were they disposed towards the colored people, very friendly, or didn't they like them? A Don't know; there was no negro there.
- Q Never mixed with them? A No sir. Wherever there is a negro and a white man they always mix together.
- Q How about the negro and the Indian? A Yes, if they live near each other they do.
- Q You have lived right around in that community ever since that? A Yes, what I said I can't state no other way.
- Q Are you a full blood? A Yes sir.

(Witness dismissed).

KATIE SNAIL, being first duly sworn by B. P. Ragrus, Notary Public, testified as follows through W. P. Drew, Official Cherokee Interpreter:

EXAMINATION

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q What is your name? A Katie Snail.
- Q Your age? A Sixty-five.
- Q Where do you live? A South West City, Missouri.
- Q How far from there do you live, - do you live on the Cherokee Nation side? A About four and a quarter miles on the Cherokee side, west.
- Q How long have you lived up there? A About forty-five years.
- Q Were you living there when the war closed?
- A I went there after the war closed.
- Q How long after the war closed? A Next year after the war closed.
- Q What time of the year did you go there? A Sixty-six.
- Q What time of the year 1866, spring, summer or what?
- A In the fall.

Q What was your husband's name? A Johnica Snail.
Q Is he living? A No sir.
Q How far have you lived from the Polston place?
A. Almost three miles.
Q Have you lived right there all the time from the fall of 1866 up to the present time? A Yes sir, been living there all the time.
Q Do you live down the creek from the Polston place?
A. Yes, I live down the creek.
Q How far do you live from where Joe Fox' mother lived after the war? A. Over two miles, a little south west from him.
Q Did you ever know of any negro family living in that neighborhood, including the Polston place or a mile of it, or around the Fox place or around your place or in that community before or after the war? A. No sir, I don't remember of a single family of negroes ever living there.
Q Were you acquainted with Fox when they moved there?
A. Yes sir.
Q Were there any negroes living around there after you came there? A No sir.
Q Never heard of any at all? A No sir.
Q Never heard of any of them being run out of there by the Indians being drunk? A Not at all.
Q Did you ever hear of any of them being run off of the Fox place? A No sir, I don't remember of a negro family ever living in that community.
Q Never heard of Qualatah ever running them off from there?
A. No sir; my husband and Qualatah was brothers.
Q Where was Qualatah living when he came back? A We lived right near each other.
Q How far was the house that he moved into from where they lived? A About three-quarters of a mile, may be not so far.
Q Any negroes ever lived in that house? A No sir.

BY MR. PATTON:

Q Are you a full-blood? A No sir; my father was a white man.
Q You say your husband was a brother to Qualatah?
A. Yes, they were brothers.
Q Was Qualatah a full-blood? A Yes sir, he was a fullblood.
Q How far did you live from this Polston place, did you say?
A. Over two miles, as I stated awhile ago.
Q Did you run around over the country a good deal at that time?
A. Yes, a good deal.
Q What doing? A. Working around from place to place.
Q Working, - what kind of work did you do? A. Washed for other people and scrubbed floors for other people.
Q Were most of the people living in that community fullbloods or half-breeds? A They was pretty well mixed; full-bloods and half-breeds.
Q Are you sure that you never saw any colored people around in there along about that time? A No sir, never saw any.
Q Don't remember of seeing any? A No sir; since the war closed, from that time down don't remember seeing a single darkey in that community.
Q Have you lived there since the war closed? A Yes sir.
Q Could they have lived in there and you not have seen them for a month or so? A Not very well; I run around over the country too much.

- Q It would have been impossible for a colored person to have moved in there and lived a month or two and you not saw him? A Yes, I would have seen them.
- Q Could a colored person have lived in there a week and you not have seen them? A No, I don't suppose they could have lived there without my seeing them at all.
- Q Could they have lived there a day without your seeing them? A. I can't say that now; I might have heard it if I didn't see them, myself.
- Q You think if they had lived there a day, you would have found it out if you hadn't seen them? A Yes, I know I would have heard of it. I was living in a neighborhood where it was pretty well settled.
- Q Isn't it a fact that since the war ended, - since along in 1867 until this day, there have been colored families living in that community? A No sir, never no colored family been in that community.
- Q You say you never heard of Qualatah or any of these Indians making any negroes move out of there? A No sir; I only heard it just awhile ago, that he did such a thing; never heard of it before.
- Q Don't you know that your husband Johnica Snail helped drive these negroes out of there with Qualatah? A No sir.

(Witness dismissed).

of which was named Henry and the wife Nettie Ridge? A Yes.
Q Did they have some children? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know Cornelius Ridge? A Yes sir.
Q Where did they live before the war, in Fayetteville?
A Yes sir.
Q Arkansas? A Yes sir.
Q Where did you live after the war? A No?
Q Yes? A I lived in 1868 in Polk County, Arkansas.
Q What time did you return to the Cherokee Nation?
A April, 1868.
Q Were you related to William Ridge? A Yes sir, he is my uncle.
Q Were you related to Polston's wife? A She is my aunt.
Q Did you have occasion to visit the Polston place any time during the year 1868? A 1868?
Q The Polston place on Honey Creek? A Yes sir.
Q Who was living upon that place at that time? A In 1868?
Q Yes? A Well, I don't know, but my father bought the place from Quelatah and moved there some time in 1868 or 1869, I don't know which.
Q Were you ever at the Polston place after the war when Jesse Wood was living upon it, the Polston place? A Yes sir.
Q When did Jesse Woods leave there? A Old Uncle Jesse Woods?
Q Yes? A Well to tell you the truth, I don't know I ever saw old Jesse Woods on that place, - I saw Bill Woods.
Q W. H. Woods is Jesse Wood's son? A Yes sir.
Q Were you there in April, 1867? A No sir.
Q You never was there then until 1868? A 1866.

Ridge and their family after the close of the war, after the surrender? A I never saw old Uncle Henry after the war.
Q Did you see his wife? A Yes; he was dead; I couldn't see him.
Q Did you see his wife Katie? A Yes, I saw old Aunt Katie.
Q Where did you see her? A Saw her on the old Washburn place.
Q How far from the Polston place? A About a mile and a half.
Q What direction? A North west.
Q When did you see them there? A 1873.
Q When were you married? A 1872.
Q Do you know it was in 1873 you saw them there? A I think it was.

Q It was after you married? A Yes sir.
Q Positive as to that? A Positive as to that.
Q How came you to see them there? A I went up to see them, and they told me they were there, and I went to see them.
Q Where were their things at that time? A Some of them were in the wagon and some of them in the house.
Q Where were their horses? A Tied around the house and to the back end of the wagon.
Q Is that the only time you ever saw them there? A Yes sir.
Q How long did you stay there? A Only long enough to eat dinner and talk awhile.
Q Where did they say they were from? A I don't recollect.
Q From your conversation, what was your impression?
A My impression was that they had just come from Missouri, or Springfield, or some where up in that country.
Q Some of their things were in the wagon yet? A Best of my recollection.
Q And the horses tied around? A Yes sir.
Q Did you see the applicant here, Cornelius Ridge?
A Yes, I think I did.
Q How long before that had you been upon this Washburn place, when you saw them in the early part of 1873? A Well, I don't know.
Q Hadn't you been there after you married before that?
A Oh yes, I lived there after I was married.
Q Up before you saw them in the early part of 1873, last of the year 1872, where did you live? A Right where I live now.
Q Were you up at this old Polston place where you saw these darkeys in 1872, and you never before saw them there until this time? A In 1872 I moved from where I lived, and we went over there right away the 17th of January, when we was married.
Q Up to this old Washburn place on Honey Creek? A Yes sir.
Q How long did you live there? A Until that drouth in 1874.
Q Were you living there when these people came there in 1873?
A No sir.
Q You wasn't living up there then? A No sir.
Q Was the house vacant? A When we left it of course it was.
Q When you went to see these negroes was it vacant, in the early part of 1873? A Then it was.
Q You never saw them after that? A No sir.
Q You stayed there an hour or two? A Yes sir.
Q They went on off from there? A They went off from there.
Q How long after that before you was back up there?
A Off and on.
Q How long after this time when you saw these darkeys?
A I don't know about how long.
Q They were not there the next time you went up? A No sir.
Q You don't know how long they remained there after that?
A No sir.
Q Your understanding was that they were just in there from Missouri? A Yes sir.
Q That is what you got from your conversation? A Yes, that is the idea I drew up.
Q The horses were tied around the wagon eating out of it?
A That is the best of my recollection.

BY MR. PATTON:

Q Were they moving when you saw them? A In the house.
Q Seemed to be staying there? A Seemed like to me they just simply stopped there for a few days.

- Q A few days, a week, or something like that? A Yes sir.
Q What place is that? A Washburn place.
Q Close to the Polston place? A Yes, in the same neighborhood.
Q You don't know how long they stayed there? A No sir.
Q Don't know whether they stopped a week or two or not?
A. No sir.
Q They were there? A Yes sir.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q What kind of weather was it? A. Tolerably bad day; we had had some bad cold weather before that.

MR. HASTINGS: We rest.

MR. PATTON: That closes our case.

CORNELIUS RIDGE, recalled by and examined

Q Are these brothers and sisters of Thomas Martin all applicants for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q All made application? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of the present husband of your daughter Ida? A Jones.
Q His full name? A Tom Jones.
Q Does he claim to be a citizen? A No sir.
Q A States man? A Yes sir.
Q You have a niece named Eliza Hawkins? A Yes sir.
Q And she has a child named Tyndle E. Hawkins? A Yes sir.
Q What is her husband's name? A Arthur.

- Q What is his citizenship? A I don't think he claims to be a Cherokee freedman at all.
- Q You have a nephew named Joseph Vicks, haven't you? A Yes.
- Q What is his wife's name? A Susie.
- Q What is her citizenship? A I don't know whether she claims or not.
- Q How many times has your sister Fable been married? A. Been married twice.
- Q What is the name of her first husband? A Her first husband is Melton.
- Q Did she have any children by him? A Yes sir; no, I think I am mistaken; her first husband is named Townsend, William Townsend.
- Q His citizenship? A Don't claim any.
- Q Her second husband? A Melton.
- Q His given name? A Richard.
- Q His citizenship? A Don't claim any.
- Q She married again, didn't she, after that? A Yes sir.
- Q What was her third husband's name? A. Johnson; he signs his name L. J.
- Q What was his citizenship? A Don't claim any.
- Q Is that her last husband? A Yes sir.
- Q She has a daughter named Vaud, hasn't she? A Yes sir.
- Q How many times has Vaud been married? A Second time.

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That applications for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen were made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes by Katie Ridge for herself; by Cornelius Ridge for himself, and children, Pearl, Jesse and Myrtle Ridge, and his wife, Laura Ridge as a citizen by intermarriage; by Phoebe Johnson for herself and minor children, Joseph, Percy,

Herbert, Serena and Pearl Milton; by Henry C. Ridge for himself; by Ida Jones for herself and minor children, Lee, Eddie and Stella Martin. Thereafter, on June 27, 1902, there was filed with the Commission an affidavit showing the birth, on June 3, 1902, of Cornelias Jones, child of the applicant, Ida Jones; by Charles J. Lynch for, among others, his wife, Ary Lynch, as a citizen by intermarriage. The others included in said application have been heretofore disposed of, and their rights to enrollment will not be considered in this decision; by Walter Vann for, among others, his wife, Elnora Vann; the others included in said application have been otherwise disposed of and their rights to enrollment will not be considered in this decision; by Maud Riley for herself and minor child, Jesse Barnett. Thereafter, on April 9, 1902, there was filed with the Commission an affidavit showing the birth, on October 26, 1901, of John C. Riley, child of the applicant, Maud Riley; by Rosa Vann for herself and minor child Josephine Vann; by William Townsend for himself; by Dennis Hicks Sr., for himself, by intermarriage, and his wife, Bettie Hicks and minor children, Leroy, Dennis Jr., Delana, Mabel and Elmer Hicks; by Eliza Hawkins for herself and minor child, Tyndle E. Hawkins; by Joseph Hicks for himself and wife Susie Hicks (by intermarriage), and minor child, Otto A. Hicks; by Katie Hicks for herself; by James A. Hicks for himself; by Joshua Holt for himself and wife, Jane Holt, and minor stepchildren, Laura and Ella Beeson, and minor children, Jessie, Willard, Clifford and Maucelia (Marcella) Holt; by Mary Johnson for herself; by Ruth Chinnett for herself and minor children, Martha, and Lillie Chinnett; subsequent to filing her application herein and prior to September 1, 1902, the applicant Ruth Chinnett was married to one George Vann, and she will now be listed for enrollment as Ruth Vann; by Frank Johnson for himself. Thereafter, on July 1, 1902, there was filed with the Commission an affidavit showing the birth, on February 7, 1902, of Luella Johnson, child of the applicant Frank Johnson; and by Frances Johnson for herself and minor children, Nettie, Katie, Clarence and Wilda Johnson.

The records of this office further show that on October 13, 1905, the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered his decision herein, denying, among others, all of said applicants the right to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen and citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, which decision was duly forwarded to the Department, and that, thereafter, on July 9, 1906 (I.T.D. 17884-1905), motions having been filed with the Department for a rehearing of this case, the same was remanded to the Commissioner for rehearing and readjudication, the Department stating that it "considers that this consolidated case should be divided, and that if possible the division should divide this large family into groups according to the three places from which it is alleged they returned to the Indian Territory, under Article 9 of the treaty of 1866."

In accordance with this direction the Commissioner consolidated the following cases, and further proceedings were had therein at Muskogee, Indian Territory, December 14, 1906; Katie Ridge, D 295; Cornelius Ridge et al. D 586; Phoebe Johnson et al. D 589; Henry C. Ridge D 638; Ida Jones et al. D 647; Ary Lynch R 70; Elnora Vann R 113; Maud Riley et al. D 591; Rosa Vann et al. D 594; William Townsend D 636; Leroy Hicks et al. D 355; Eliza Hawkins et al. D 358; Joseph Hicks et al. D 360; Katie Hicks D 361; and James A. Hicks D 362.

Although the principal applicants included herein other than the applicants in the above mentioned consolidated case, and their attorneys, have several times been notified by letter and in person, of the Department's action in remanding their cases for rehearing, and to submit such evidence as they desired to present in their behalf, they have failed to do so. Their right to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen will therefore be adjudicated in this decision.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant, Katie Ridge, is the mother of the applicants Cornelius Ridge and Phoebe Johnson, and of one Jesse Ridge and one Mary Ridge, both deceased; that the said applicants and the said Jesse and Mary Ridge deceased, were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the commencement of the war of the rebellion; were taken from the Cherokee Nation during said rebellion and did not return thereto and establish an actual, personal, bona fide residence therein as provided by Section three of the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906 ( 34 Stat. 137); that the applicants Laura Ridge and Ary Lynch and Susie Hicks, neither claim nor possess any rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen other than by reason of their marriage to the applicant Cornelius Ridge and the said Jesse Ridge deceased, and the applicant Joseph Hicks; that the applicants Pearl, Jesse and Myrtle Ridge and Joseph, Percy Herbert, Serena, and Pearl Milton, Henry C. Ridge, Ida and Cornelias Jones, Elnora Vann, Maud Riley, Rosa Vann, Josephine Vann ( In C. F. D. 660 the Commission found that one Ed Vann, father of the said applicant Josephine Vann, possesses no right to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman, and on May 7, 1904-I.T.D. 3470-1904- said finding was approved by the Department), William Townsend, Leroy Jennie Jr., Zelana, Nabel and Elmer Hicks, ( Their father, Pennie Hicks, case D 350 infra.) Eliza and Tyndie E. Hawkins, Joseph, Otto A., Katie and James A. Hicks, were born since 1866 and possess no right to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen except as descendants of the said Katie Ridge, Cornelius Ridge and Phoebe Johnson, and of Jesse Hicks and Mary Ridge (Hicks) deceased.

After ample opportunity afforded the applicants, Lee Eddie and Stella Martin and Jesse Barnett, it is not shown by satisfactory evidence that they possess any right to enrollment other than as descendants of their mothers, the said Ida Jones and Maud. The minor applicant John C. Riley is a child of William Riley, whose application for enrollment as a Cherokee freedman was rejected by the Commissioner on February 27, 1907, and the applicant herein, Maud Riley, and possesses no right to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman other than as a descendant of his said parents.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE FURTHER SHOWS: That the applicant, Dennis Hicks Sr., neither claims nor possesses any right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation other than by virtue of his marriage to the applicant, Bettie Hicks; that the applicants Bettie Hicks, Joshua Holt and Anderson Johnson, deceased, were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the commencement of the war of the rebellion; were taken from the Cherokee Nation during said rebellion, and did not return thereto and establish a residence therein within the time provided by Section three of the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906; that the applicants Jane Holt, Laura and Ella Beeson, Jessie, Willard, Clifford, and Luella (Marcella) Holt, Mary Johnson, Ruth Vann, Martha and Lillie Chinnett, Frank Johnson (In C. R. D. 853 the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes found, on April 22, 1906, that Rebecca Webber, mother of Frank Johnson, possesses no right to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman and its finding was approved by the Department June 26, 1906-I.T.D. 7712-8846-1906), and Frances, Nettie, Katie, Clarence and Wilda Johnson, were born since the war of the rebellion; are descendants of the applicants Dennis Hicks Sr., Bettie Hicks and Joshua Holt, and of Anderson Johnson, deceased, and possess no right to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen other than as such descendants. The applicant Luella Johnson, is a child of the said Frank Johnson and Charlotte Johnson, whose application for enrollment as a Cherokee freedman was denied by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes on July 21, 1904 and its action affirmed by the Department September 22, 1904 (I.T.D. 7192-7993-1904). No one of the applicants herein nor any ancestor through whom they claim the right to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, can be identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880.

IT IS THE FURTHER OPINION OF THE COMMISSIONER: That following the ruling of the Department in the case of Samuel Welcome (I.T.D. 11776-1904), under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 498), Laura Jones, Amy Lynch, Dennis Hicks Sr., and Gusie Hicks, are not entitled to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied; and that, under the provisions of Section Twenty-one of the Act last above noted, Katie Ridge, Cornelius Ridge, Pearl Ridge, Jesse Ridge, Myrtle Ridge, Phoebe Johnson, Joseph Milton, Percy Milton, Herbert Milton, Serena Milton, Pearl Milton, Henry . Ridge, Ida Jones, Lee Martin, Eddie Martin, Stella Martin, Cornelias

In connection with the finding of this office relative to the rights of Cornelius Ridge to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman, case No. D 536, the same being included in the consolidated case of Katie Ridge, et al., herewith transmitted, the attention of the Department is invited to the case of Enoch Daniels, et al., Cherokee Freedman No. 1426, formerly Cherokee Freedman D 219, wherein, in its decision rendered on July 5, 1904, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes found, inter alia, that one Laura Daniels, nee Ridge, daughter of the said Cornelius Ridge, was entitled to enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman, said finding being concurred in by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs on September 24, 1904 (Land 57605-04), and affirmed by the Department on October 22, 1904 ( I.T.D. 7724-04), and in conformity thereto said applicant's name was placed upon a schedule of Cherokee Freedmen forwarded to the Department on June 26, 1905, and she is now included in a partial roll of Cherokee freedmen approved by the Secretary of the Interior on July 27, 1905, opposite No. 3907.

The right of this applicant, Laura Daniels, nee Ridge, who was born since 1866, to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman was based upon the theory that her father the said Cornelius Ridge had "heretofore been enrolled by this Commission as a Cherokee freedman", which, as the consolidated case herewith transmitted indicates, was error.

It is, therefore, respectfully recommended that, if the Department affirms the decision of this office as to the rights of the said Cornelius Ridge to Cherokee freedman

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior,

Sir:

This office is in receipt of Departmental letter of July 9 (I.T.D. 17884-1905), remanding the Cherokee freedmen consolidated cases of Katie Ridge, et al., D-295, et al., for rehearing and readjudication. It is stated that the Indian Office, in its letter of December 22, 1905, reporting in this case, concurs in the decision of this office dated October 13, 1905, adverse to the applicants in the case, and that a copy of its letter is inclosed.

You are respectfully advised that the copy of Indian Office letter referred to was not received with the Department's letter, and in order that the files of this office may be complete, it is respectfully requested that a copy of said letter be forwarded to this office.

Respectfully,

Dear Madam:

In connection with your Cherokee freedman case, you are advised that this office is in receipt of Departmental letter of July 9, 1906, remanding the same to this office for a rehearing. The Department directs that the consolidated case of Katie Ridge, et al, which includes your application, be divided according to the places from which it is alleged the applicants returned to the Indian Territory under the Treaty of 1866. You are advised that under this division the following cases will be consolidated.

D 651	William Townsend,
D 295	Katie Ridge,
D 586	Cornelius Ridge, et al.
D 589	Phoebe Johnson, et al.
D 638	Henry C. Ridge,

D 591	Maud Riley, et al,
D 594	Rosa Vann, et al,
D 651	Nellie Townsend, et al,
D 636	William Townsend.

The records of this office show that you are the attorney of record for all of the above named applicants except Henry C. Ridge, freedman D. 638, the attorney in whose case is shown to be Wade S. Stanfield of Vinita, Indian Territory. You are advised that before a date will be set for a hearing in this case, the applicants will be required to furnish this office with a list of the names and addresses of all the witnesses they propose to introduce in their behalf. Upon receipt of this information, the attorney for the Cherokee Nation will be notified thereof, and a date set for a hearing in the case, of which all parties at interest will be advised. Mr. Stanfield, has this day been advised of the Department's action, and of what will be required of the applicants, and before submitting the list of the names and addresses of the witnesses it is suggested that you communicate with him and submit at one time a list of all of the witnesses expected to be introduced.

For your information there is enclosed herewith copy of Departmental letter referred to.

application.

In connection with the finding of this office relative to the rights of Cornelius Ridge to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman, case No. D 386, the same being included in the consolidated case of Katie Ridge, et al., herewith transmitted, the attention of the Department is invited to the case of Noah Daniels, et al., Cherokee Freedman No. 1429, formerly Cherokee Freedman D 218, wherein, in its decision rendered on July 8, 1904, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes found, inter alia, that one Laura Daniels, nee Ridge, daughter of the said Cornelius Ridge, was entitled to enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman, said finding being concurred in by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs on September 24, 1904 (Land 57608-04), and affirmed by the Department on October 22, 1904 (I.T.D. 7724-04), and in conformity thereto said applicant's name was placed upon a schedule of Cherokee Freedmen forwarded to the Department on June 26, 1906, and she is now included in a partial roll of Cherokee freedmen approved by the Secretary of the Interior on July 27, 1905, opposite No. 3907.

The right of this applicant, Laura Daniels, nee Ridge, who was born since 1866, to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman was based upon the theory that her father the said Cornelius Ridge had "heretofore been enrolled by this Commission as a Cherokee freedman", which, as the consolidated case herewith transmitted indicates, was error.

It is, therefore, respectfully recommended that, if the Department affirms the decision of this office as to the rights of the said Cornelius Ridge to Cherokee freedman citizenship, the case of Noah Daniels, et al., Cherokee Freedman 1429, formerly Cherokee Freedman D 219, be reopened, and the decision therein, in so far as it grants to the said Laura Daniels, nee Ridge, the right to Cherokee Freedman citizenship, be reversed.

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,

Sir:

On March 4, 1907 (Land 21941-07), the Indian Office transmitted your report, dated February 28, 1907, relative to proceedings had in the matter of the application for the enrolment of Laura (Katie) Ridge, et al., together with your decision of the same date rejecting the application.

The Indian Office concurs in your decision. A copy of its letter is inclosed.

The Department considers said decision correct and it is hereby affirmed.

In connection herewith you call attention to one Laura Daniels, a party applicant in this case, who appears on a partial roll of Cherokee freedmen opposite No. 3907. You report that she was enrolled and that her enrolment was based on the theory that her father, Cornelius Ridge, who is denied enrolment in the present decision, had "therefore been enrolled by the Commission as a Cherokee freedman." You state that this is an error and you recommend that if the Department affirm your decision as to the rights of the said Cornelius Ridge to Cherokee citizenship that the case of Knock Daniels, et al., be reopened and that the decision therein, in so far as it grants to the said Laura Daniels, nee Ridge, the right to Cherokee freedmanship, be reversed.

In accordance with your recommendation the Department rescinds its decision and reverses your decision in the case of Knock Daniels in so far as said decisions apply to the enrolment of Laura Daniels, nee Ridge, and her name is canceled from the roll of Cherokee freedmen opposite No. 3907, as of this date.

Your office and the Indian Office are requested to make your records conform to this action.

The papers in the case, together with a carbon copy hereof, have been sent to the Indian Office.

There is forwarded herewith report of Commissioner Bixby, dated February 28, 1907, relative to applications for the enrollment of Laura Ridge, Ary Lynch, Dennis Hicks, Sr., Susie Hicks, Katie Ridge, Cornelius Ridge, Pearl Ridge, Jesse Ridge, Myrtle Ridge, Phoebe Johnson, Joseph Milton, Percy Milton, Herbert Milton, Serena Milton, Pearl Milton, Henry C. Ridge, Ida Jones, Lee Martin, Eddie Martin, Stella Martin, Cornelius Jones, Elmera Vann, Maud Riley, Jesse Barnett, John C. Riley, Rosa Vann, Josephine Vann, William Townsend, Bettie Hicks, Leroy Hicks, Dennis Hicks, Jr., Delana Hicks, Mabel Hicks, Elmer Hicks, Eliza Hawkins, Tyndie E. Hawkins, Joseph Hicks, Otto A. Hicks, Katie Hicks, James A. Hicks, Joshua Holt, Jane Holt, Laura Beeson, Ella Beeson, Jessie Holt, Willard Holt, Clifford Holt, Maucelia (Marcelia) Holt, Mary Johnson, Ruth Vann, Martha Chinnett, Lillie Chinnett, Frank Johnson, Luella Johnson, Frances Johnson, Nettie Johnson, Katie Johnson, Clarence Johnson and Wilda Johnson as Cherokee freedmen, together with the decision of the Commissioner of February 28, 1907, rejecting the applications.

The Office has examined the record in this case and finds the conclusions of the Commissioner to be correct, and recommends that his decision be approved.

In connection herewith the Commissioner invites attention to the case of Enoch Daniels, et al., applicants for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, wherein the Department on October 22, 1904 (I.T.D.7724-1904), found that one Laura Daniels (nee Ridge), daughter of Cornelius Ridge, a party applicant herein, was entitled to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman and included in a partial roll of Cherokee freedmen approved by the Department on July 27, 1905, opposite No. 3907.

Mr. Bixby now reports that Laura Daniels was born since 1866 and that her right to enrollment was based on the theory that her father, Cornelius Ridge, who is denied enrollment by the present decision, had theretofore been enrolled by the Commission as a Cherokee freedman."

This being an error, as indicated by the case herewith transmitted, the Commissioner now recommends that the Department reverse its decision in the case of Enoch Daniels, et al., so far as it relates to Laura Daniels, and that her name be stricken from the roll.

The Office concurs in this recommendation.

Very respectfully,

C. F. Larrabee,

Acting Commissioner.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
VINITA, I.T., MAY 16th, 1901.

In the matter of the application of Edmond Blythe for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman; said Blythe being sworn and examined by Commissioner T. B. Needles, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Edmond Blythe.
Q What is your age, Mr. Blythe? A 28.
Q What is your post office address? A Spavinaw.
Q What district do you live in? A Saline.
Q Do you apply to be enrolled as a Cherokee Freedman? A Yes sir.
Q Have you been recognized by the Cherokee authorities as a Cherokee Freedman? A I suppose so.
Q Is your name on the roll of 1880? A Not that I know of.
Q Is your name on any of the rolls of the Cherokee Nation?
A On the Wallace roll and Clifton roll.
Q Who do you want to enroll besides yourself? A No one but myself.
Q What is your father's name? A I don't know.
Q What is your mother's name? A Abbie Blythe.
Q Is your mother living? A Yes, sir.

The 1880 Authenticated roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation examined and applicant's name not found thereon.

The Kerns-Clifton roll of Freedmen of the Cherokee Nation examined and applicant's name found thereon, page 158, #3903, Edward Blye.

The Wallace Roll of Freedmen of the Cherokee Nation examined and applicant's name found thereon, page 192, #3485, Edmund Blythe.

- Q Where were you born? A I was born in the Cherokee Nation.
Q Have you lived in the Cherokee Nation all your life?
A Yes, sir.
Q Has your mother applied yet to be enrolled? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you any witnesses, or is the testimony in her case the same as yours? A Be the same I suppose, only the witnesses to identify that I was her child if you want it.
Q You say you were born and raised in the Cherokee Nation?
A Yes, sir.
Q Are you married? A No, sir.
Q No children? A No, sir.

COMMISSIONER NEEDLES:--Edmond Blythe applies for enrollment of himself as a Cherokee Freedman. His name is not found upon the authenticated roll of 1880, but he is duly identified upon the Kerns-Clifton roll and the Wallace roll according to the page and number of the rolls as indicated in the testimony. He avers that he is the child of Abbie Blythe, whose citizenship is contested and whose name is found upon D Card #257. The testimony taken in the case of Abbie Blythe for the enrollment of herself is referred to and will be made part of the record in this case, and a copy of the testimony will be filed herewith. Consequently by reason of the fact that the said Edmond Blythe's name is not found upon the authenticated roll of 1880 and his citizenship is contested as well as that of his mother, Abbie, he will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman upon a doubtful card for the further consideration of the Commission. When a decision is arrived at he will be duly notified by mail.

---ooo000ooo---

T. O. Rosson, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this May 17th, 1901.

Abbie Fly.--2.

- Q You lived in Missouri? A Well he never sold me to no man and I never lived there that I know of.
- Q You lived before the war in Missouri? A No, sir.
- Q Did you live there during the war in Missouri? A Well my mistress is back there, you can call her, I was too young to tell anything about that, she is here to answer for that.
- Q How old are you now? A I can't tell you my age, she will answer for that, I told you as far as I could.
- Q You were gornw when the war come up? A I was a nurse in the cause.
- Q Who did you come back to the Cherokee Nation with after the war? A I came back with a white family.
- Q What white family? A With a family by the name of Dodson, or some such as that.
- Q You don't know one year from another? A No, sir, don't know one year from another only when I hear it.
- Q Have you heard what this year is? A Well, I expect I have.
- Q What is it? A I can't remember, I guess I have heard what year it is if I could remember it.
- Q Do you know any other year except '66? A Yes, when I hear them called.
- Q What other year have you heard called? A I am not supposed to tell you because I didn't keep no record of it.
- Q You don't know a single one? A No, sir, I don't.
- Q Who told you to say '66 when you came in here? A Nobody only myself, I know that is what the people said when the party came here at that time.
- Q You never heard anybody call a single date since then? A Yes, I guess I could if I could read and write like you can, I guess I could remember something about it.
- Q A man by the name of Dodson brought you? A Yes, by the name of Dodson.
- Q Did you come on this Frisco train? A No, sir, there wasn't any trains here, you know there wasn't any trains here.
- Q Where did you come from? A I done said where I come from as near as I can.
- Q Where is that? A I told you I come from Kansas.
- Q What place in Kansas? A I don't know that place.
- Q You don't know anything about that? A No, I told you just as near as I can tell you now.
- Q How did you come, in a wagon? A Yes, sir, come in a wagon.
- Q Anybody else besides the man come with you? A Yes, sir, his wife was along.
- Q What was her name? A I never asked her name only I reckon her name was Mrs. Dodson, that was her husband's name.
- Q Where did you come to in the Cherokee Nation? A Why we camped up on Grand river, they carried there a while.
- Q What part of the Grand river? A I don't know what part, just the Grand river is all I can tell you, I don't know that part, but I never thought I could ever have to give any record of it, I never thought any more of it.
- Q You were not carried there? A No, sir, I wasn't.
- Q How long did you camp up there with them? A Well, I don't know how long I camped.
- Q A few weeks or a few months? A I don't know, because it has been so long I can't tell you how long I camped.
- Q Near what point, what town or place was that? A I don't know no town.
- Q You camped on the river? A Yes, sir.
- Q Anybody live around there? A Well, I suppose there is.
- Q You never knew any of them? A No, sir, I didn't.
- Q Well, where did you go from there? A On Grand river down here back on the river.
- Q Well, into what neighborhoods? A Down here close to the Island Ford, they call it, or Tanyard Ford, or something.

Abbie Hly.--3.

Q About how many years have you been down there? A I can't tell you how many.

Q Three or four? A No, I have been there for years, ever since I came here.

Q Did you stay as much as a year up above here? A Well now I have answered all the questions I can answer you.

Q I mean in that camp? A Did I stay a year; I told you I don't know how long I stayed, I camped there, I don't know whether it was a year or not because I didn't keep any record of it.

Q Was it longer than a month? A I suppose it was longer than a month, I know I was there quite a little while.

Q What were the people doing while you were camping up there, Dodson and his wife? A Nothing, only walking around, camping up there, they were moving.

Q You don't know where they got provisions? A I got it from them.

Q You don't know where they got it? A No, I don't, bought it I reckon.

Q Any other colored people with you? A No, sir.

Q What became of these people? A Now I can't tell you, I don't know where they went.

Q You don't have any idea how long you stayed there? A No, sir.

Q You were married; you have been married? A Yes, sir.

Q What was your husband's name? A His name was Hilderbrand.

Q And you and him were married before then? A No, sir, I have answered you all the questions I can answer you, I have done answered all that is required I think.

Q What is your oldest child's name? A She will tell it in when she comes in.

Q Don't you know?

Commissioner: Tell her name.

A Her name is Anna.

Mr. Hastings: Where was Anna born? A She was born the year after peace was made.

Q Did you have Anna alone with you? A She was a little bit of a baby; I brought her here a baby.

Q You brought her here a baby? A Yes, sir.

Q Your husband wasn't alone you state? A No, I didn't have any.

Q Where was Alice born; did you have a child named Alice?

A Alice was born in the Nation.

Q I see where was Alice born? A Born in the Nation, I can't tell you.

Q What part of the Nation? A I don't know, I have told you in the Nation, I don't know what you want to ask people so many questions for when they have told you.

Q You don't know the place? A No, I don't know the place she was born in the Nation.

Q Was she born up there where you were camping? A No, sir, she wasn't born in the camp.

Q You don't know what place, what house, with whom you were living?

A I have done answered you all I can answer you.

Q You don't know? A I didn't know I have to tell you everywhere they were born at.

Commissioner: Where was Alice born; you know where she was born? A Yes, sir, she was born on the river in an old house there.

Mr. Hastings: In that settlement was that; who were your neighbors? A Well, I had several neighbors.

Q At the time Alice was born? A Part of them is dead and the others is young.

Q Them that are living? A The ones that are living, you can tell their names and in the Nation.

Q What are their names? A Aunt Nancy, one of them, and Aunt Charlotte was another.

Q What are their other names? A Aunt Nancy Jones and Aunt Charlotte Adams.

Q You have been living down there on the river ever since, have you?

A Yes, sir.

Q Near Island Ford or Lynch's Prairie; you are living there now?

Abbie Bly.--4.

A Yes, sir.

Commissioner. Have you got any witnesses? A Yes, sir, there is my mistress sitting there.

JEMIMA BLY, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A Jemima Bly.

Q About what is your age? A 68.

Q What is your post office? A Vinita.

Q Are you a Cherokee citizen? A Yes, sir, by blood.

Q Do you know Abbie Bly? A Yes, sir.

Q About how old is she? A She was about two or three years old, I don't know which, when I married in '49; she was just a little girl.

Commissioner: About 56 years old.

Q Was she a slave? A Yes, sir.

Q Who did she belong to? A She belonged to Mrs. Tucker, Polly Tucker, first.

Q Did she ever belong to your family? A Yes, sir, her mother belonged to Pollie Tucker and afterwards we bought her from Polly Tucker's daughter, Mr. Bly did.

Q Mrs. Bly, did Abbie go out of the Territory during the war?

A We all moved out.

Q North? A We moved out just across over the line into Missouri.

A Abbie went along with you A Yes, sir, Abbie was with us.

Q When did Abbie return? A She came home in '65 just over in the state of Missouri and then I don't know anything more of her till I found her in Vinita in '79; that was the time my oldest daughter died '79, and she came to us, came in, that is the reason I know it was '79 that she came back in, account of the death of my daughter; she was in the Nation at that time but I don't know how long before.

Q You don't know then how soon she returned to the Nation after you saw her in Missouri? A No, sir, she was trying at that time to make her way back.

Q That was in '65? A That was in '65.

Q Over in Newton County, Missouri, she was trying to make her way back? A She was trying to make her way to the Nation at that time and we were not coming back and she went on and I don't know where she went and I don't know what became of her until I saw her here in '79; she was living over here in this neighborhood that she spoke of, down on the river.

Q She has been living then in the Cherokee Nation since that time?

A I know she has been living in the Cherokee Nation ever since '79 for I have seen her occasionally, once or twice a year.

Q How long was she from '65 to '79 you don't know? A No, sir.

Mr. Hastings: Your husband named Jim Bly? A Yes, sir.

Is he alive? A I don't know whether he is or not, he has been dead to me ever since '79; I have never tried to force my self in regard to him; he outedly told me 'I can't support you all and I will not do it and you can starve to death for all I care.'

Q Well, as we want the facts. A You might have known if Mr. Bly had been living and had been living with me, he would have been living with me.

Q Isn't it a matter of fact that Mr. Bly sold that girl out to a man in Missouri before the war came up? A No, sir, he didn't; if he swore that he is mistaken.

Q He didn't sell her before the war came up? A If he swore that he is mistaken he made a mistake if he swore that.

Q You know he owned her at the time the war came up?

A I know Mr. Hastings he owned her in '65 for Mr. Marks was my baby in '65 and this was the nurse for Mrs. Marks.

Q How did you live at that time? A Mr. Bly came over in Missouri to settle up his father's business that he died and left unfinished over there, and when we were there the war came up.

Abbie Bly.--5.

Q When did you go over to Missouri? A Before the war.

Q How long? A I didn't keep any dates.

Q About how many years? A If you will let me I will go and get my family record and let you examine it.

Q I don't care if you got forty of them at home, I just want you to remember it? A I don't care for the month and week and day but I want to know how long to the best of your recollection before the war came up you went over there? A We went over there temporarily, we didn't withdraw from the Nation to go over there.

Q About how long were you over there temporarily before the war came up? A We were over there two or three years, I don't know, I am not positive.

Q To the best of your recollection? (No response.)

CAP HICKS, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A Filmore Hicks.

Q What is your age? A 53.

Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q By blood? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know Abbie Bly, the applicant? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know where she was in '66? A No, sir.

Q When did you know her? A I have known her about 25 or 26 years.

Q Did you ever become acquainted with her till after '66?

A No, sir.

Q Do you know whether she was a slave or not? A No, sir.

Q Do you know when she returned to the Cherokee Nation?

A No, sir.

Mr. Hastings: You live down here near the Lynch settlement?

A I did, yes, sir.

Q You lived there from '65 on up to when did you move to Vinita?

A Just this last fall; just one or two years I lived there on Rock Creek.

Q You have known this woman for 25 or 26 years? A Yes, sir, to the best of my recollection.

Q How far did she live from you down in that settlement when you first knew her? A About four miles.

Q What is when she first came there to your recollection?

A That is the first I ever seen her and knew of her?

Commissioner: Abbie Bly applies for the enrollment of herself and two children, Minnie and Calis. From an examination of the authenticated roll of 1860, her name is not found thereon, nor the census roll of 1896, but her name is found upon the Kerns-Clifton roll. The names of her children, Minnie and Calis, are found upon the Kerns-Clifton roll. She makes satisfactory proof of residence, and will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman upon a doubtful card for the further consideration of the Commission. When the Commission arrives at a conclusion in her case, she will be notified by mail.

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
VINITA, I.T., OCTOBER 2d, 1901.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY in the matter of the enrollment of Abbie Blythe as a Cherokee Freedman, introduced on part of the Cherokee Nation:

APPEARANCES:

Mr. I. P. Bledsoe, Agent for applicant;
Mr. J. S. Davenport, of Counsel for Cherokee Nation.

JAMES C. BLYTHE, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give me your full name, Mr. Blythe? A James C. Blythe.

Q How old are you? A Well, according to the record I was born in 1824, July 7th.

Q What is your post office? A Bartlesville.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A I have been principally raised here.

Q Pretty much all your life? A Yes, sir.

Q Were you born here in the Nation? A I was born in the old Nation.

Q Came here with the Cherokees when they moved to this country?

A Yes, sir, I moved here with the Cherokees when they moved here

MR. DAVENPORT: Did you own any slaves prior to the breaking out of the Civil War, Mr. Blythe? A Yes, sir.

Q Where were you living at the time the war broke out? A I was living in McDonald County.

Q What State? A Missouri.

Q About how many years had you been over there in McDonald County, Missouri, before the breaking out of the war? A I think I moved there in '56, to the best of my knowledge it was in '56.

Q Well, did you have any slaves over there with the from the time you moved there up to the time the war broke out? A Yes, I had one slave that I moved up to that place.

Q Did you have a slave when you moved there by the name of Abbie?

A Yes, sir.

Q You owned a slave prior to the breaking out of the war?

A Yes, sir, I bought one after I moved to that place, I don't know it must have been a year or two afterwards, after I moved there.

Q A year or two after you moved to Missouri you bought this slave Abbie? A Yes, sir.

Q Now what became of Abbie; did you continue to own her up until the time she was freed? A I sold her during the war.

Q Who did you sell her to? A I sold her to Jim Lamance, he was Clerk of the Court there.

Q What became of him? A I expect he is dead now.

Q What was his post office, Mr. Blythe? A At that time Pineville, Missouri, McDonald County.

Q Did you know any man by the name of Dodson who lived near you in McDonald County, Missouri? A Yes, sir.

Q Was he a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir, he never came here that I knew of.

Q Where were you living when the war closed? A My residence was at the same place.

Q Your residence was at Enterprise? A Yes, sir.

Q You had enlisted during the war; been in service? A Yes, sir, I was a soldier during the war.

Q Well, after you sold Abbie when did you next see her and where was she when you saw her? A I was at Enterprise, McDonald County.

Q About that year was that, if you remember? A Best of my recollection it was between 1862 and '63.

Q I am speaking now not when you sold her, when you saw her after you sold her? A Well, it was the spring of '66, she came to my residence there and wanted to come back as before and I was broke up and told her she was as free as I was and look out for herself.

Q When did you move back to the Cherokee Nation after the war?

A I moved back in '68.

Q Where did you locate when you came back? A Tahlequah.

Q How long did you live at Tahlequah before you left there, Mr. Blythe, about how many years? A I lived there from '68 until '71.

Q When you left there in 1871 to what point did you come?

A I come to this place.

Q From the time you moved from Missouri until you came to Vinita had you seen Abbie, this slave you had owned prior to the war?

A No, sir, I never had saw her.

Q Did you see her after you moved to Vinita? A Yes, I saw her.

Q When was it with reference to the time you moved to Vinita and where did you see her? A She came to me at this place and she said she was hunting me up to find the best place to locate and I told her how she had a right to locate there and I told her to pick on a place and go to work, that I supposed it would be all right, and she located out here east of Little Cabin.

Q Did you have any conversation with her as to where she had been?

A I asked her the question where she had been and she said she had been up in Missouri and I said where did you come from here; I said did you just come in and she said yes; and I said where did you come from and she said Granby.

Q Now, is there anything that fixes the time with reference to Vinita after you came here? A It was after the railroad came here that I came to this place.

Q Which road do you have reference to? A This Texas road.

Q M. & T.? A Yes, sir, the road wasn't put there at that time.

Q You have known her since that time? A Yes, sir, she has been here ever since; I see her here frequently, at least she told me she was living out there.

Q From whom did you buy this Abbie if you remember? A I bought her from a nephew of mine that lives here in the Nation.

Q Did he live in the Nation at the time? A Yes, sir.

Q That was in the '50s? A Riley Blythe was the man's name I bought her from.

Q Was he a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q And she was living with you in the State of Missouri at the breaking out of the war? A Yes, sir.

Q And you sold her? A I sold her during the war.

MR. BLEDSOE: Mr. Blythe, you state that you sold this woman, Abbie, during the war; do you know what time you sold her? A Well as I stated it was between '62 and '63, it was before the Proclamation came out. I don't suppose I could have sold her after she was freed.

Q I didn't know but what you had sold her after the expiration of hostilities; she was your slave then up to the commencement of the war in '61? A Yes, sir.

Q And you were a Cherokee citizen at that time? A I was a Cherokee but I wasn't living in the Cherokee Nation at that time.

Q Who was your wife, Mr. Blythe? A She was a Rogers.

Q What was her name? A Jerima.

Q A few questions here "Is it a matter of fact that Mr. Blythe sold this girl out to a man in Missouri before the war"; answer: "No, sir, he didn't; he if swore that he is mistaken;" consequently there seems to be difference of opinion. "He didn't sell her before the war came up; if he swore that he is mistaken:" "You know he owned her at the time the war came up I know, Mr. Hastings, he owned her in '65 for Mrs. Marks was my baby in '65 and this was the nurse for Mrs. Marks". A Yes, I know when the war came up; I don't know that I made a statement of that kind.

Q Did you or not, Mr. Blythe, testify before the Kern-Clifton Commission that you sold her in 1865? A I never sold her until the war came up.

Q Didn't you state before the Kern-Clifton Commission that you sold this woman in 1865? A No, sir, never did; it is wrong print if I did.

Q Isn't it a fact now that she nursed Mrs. Marks as stated here by your wife? A I guess she did.

Q Whom did she belong to at that time? A At the time she nursed Mrs. Marks?

Q Yes? A She belonged to me.

MR. DAVENPORT: Well, in 1865 she nursed Mrs. Marks and belonged to you? A It was in 1862; I think she was mistaken in the year.

Q Well, you know whether or not positively she belonged to you in 1865 after the Emancipation Proclamation? A Yes, sir.

Q The testimony to which your attention was called would she nurse Mrs. Marks or was your slave in 1865? A Oh, shucks, that is all non sense.

Q The Emancipation Proclamation was issued before that time?

A Yes, sir.

MR. BLEDSOE: Mrs. Marks is ~~that~~ your daughter? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know when she was born? A In '62.

Q Then she was not a baby in 1865? A If she was she was a big baby.

MILTON M. CAULK, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Brockinridge, testified as follows on behalf of Cherokee Nation:

Q Give me your full name? A Milton M. Caulk.

Q How old are you? A 53 years old.

Q What is your post office? A Chelsea.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A About 12 years.

MR. DAVENPORT: Where did you live prior to coming to the Cherokee Nation, Mr. Caulk? A Lived in Missouri.

Q What place in Missouri? A What is called old Enterprise, in McDonald County, Missouri.

Q Where were you living prior to the breaking out of the war?

A I was living in Missouri.

Q Were you living near Enterprise? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you know James Blythe prior to the breaking out of the war?

A Yes, sir.

Q Now his slaves or any of them at that time? A Yes, sir, he had two.

Q What were their names? A Abbie Blythe and Montoe.

Q Did you know a Scott family over there and man by the name of Dodson? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know whether Dodson ever moved to the Cherokee Nation?

A No, sir.

Q You are a citizen of the nation? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know whether or not he was a citizen of the nation or claimed to be a citizen of the nation? A No, sir, he never claimed to be a citizen.

Q Do you know whether Abbie Blythe was disposed or to any one during the war by Mr. Blythe? A I did not, only hearsay.

Q How long did you know her before the war; had she been living in the state of Missouri? A To the best of my knowledge I think about '55 was when I first got acquainted with her, '55 or '6, latter part of '55 I think.

Q Do you know with whom she was living or to whom she belonged when the Emancipation Proclamation was issued? A My information was she belonged to Mr. Blythe.

Q You don't know whether he disposed to her? A No, sir.

Q Well, do you know anything about her after the war? A No, sir.

Q Well, all you know is that she was living with Mr. Blythe in the State of Missouri before the war? A Yes, sir.

Q Along in the '50s? A Yes, sir.

This will be filed as additional testimony in Cherokee Freedmen doubtful cases #257, #306, #217, #367, and #368.

TESTIMONY ON BEHALF OF CHEROKEE NATION.

Appearances:

J.S.Davenport, Esq., of Attorneys for Cherokee Nation;
I.P.Bledsoe, Esq., agent for the applicant.

JAMES C. CHILDERS, being sworn by Commissioner Brockinridge, testified as follows:

BY COM'R BROCKINRIDGE:

- Q Give your full name? A James C. Childers.
Q How old are you? A 53.
Q What is your post-office? A Catale at present.
Q In the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Well I couldn't hardly answer the question properly.
Q Have you lived here all your life? A Might near, yes, sir, well
I will just simply state for the last eight years, the last stay.
Q Where were you born? A I don't know where I was born whether in the Cherokee Nation or Missouri, but right on the line.
Q How old were you when you first remembered the Cherokee Nation?
A Well I don't know, three or four years old I reckon; best of my recollection.
Q Where have you lived other than in the Cherokee Nation?
A Well I have lived a little in Kansas and a little in Colorado and Missouri.

BY MR. DAVENPORT:

- Q Where were you living from '55 until '60, Mr. Childers?
A Living right on the line of Missouri, inside of the state.
Q Near what place? A Elk Mills.
Q Was there any post-office known as any place? A Elk Mills was the post-office.
Q Did you know James Blythe alone in '50? A Yes sir.
Q About when did you first get acquainted with him? A Well, to the best of my knowledge first acquaintance was about '59 or '60 that I knewed Jim Blythe when I saw him.
Q Where was he living at that time, if you know? A Enterprise,
Missouri.
Q How far was that from the place where you lived? A Between one mile and a half and 2 miles.
Q Was he engaged in any business over there at that time? A Yes
sir, in the mercantile business.
Q Running a store at Enterprise, Missouri? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know whether or not he had any slaves? A There was a couple there, I was always told they belonged to him and his wife.
Q Did you know their names? A I personally know the name of the boy or man, Monroe was his name; I believe they called the girl or woman
Abbie, but I am not right positive about that.
Q From the time you got acquainted with Mr. Blythe until the breaking out of the war where did he continue to live, do you know?
A From the time I first got acquainted with him until during the war he lived at the same place, Enterprise, Missouri.
Q You don't know what became of Blythe during the war? A He went to Texas or somewhere south time of the war.
Q Did you know him after the war before he came to the Territory?
A Yes sir.
Q Did he live in Missouri any time after the war, if you know? A

Q You don't know where he lived? A No, he lived somewheres South.

BY MR. BLEDSOE:

Q You are not positive whether he owned this Abbie or not at that time? A No sir, I won't say that he owned them; it was my understanding that he and his wife did, but I don't know it.

Q Were they recognized Cherokee citizens at that time? A Well they were recognized Cherokees, but they was what we term citizens of the State at that time.

Q Do you know whether he was ever re-admitted or not, afterwards?

A I understood he was; after the war he and his wife were re-admitted to the Cherokee Nation.

Q You don't know that of your own knowledge? A No sir.

Q What was the best of your knowledge at that time, that they were citizens of the Cherokee Nation or citizens of Missouri? A Best of my knowledge as I understood they came to Missouri and bought out this farm, that property there and was doing business, and after the war broke, come up, Mr. Blythe himself went South I think with the army and when he come back he moved into the Indian Territory, and was re-admitted. That has been my understanding.

Q What was Mr. Blythe's wife's name? A Jemima Rogers.

Q Do you know a Mr. Tucker, there, Polly Tucker, did you know a Polly Tucker? A Not by that name, no sir.

Q Do you know what time Mr. Blythe went out of the Cherokee Nation; what time was it you saw him in Missouri, that you are speaking of now? A First?

Q Yes? A I couldn't tell you just what time, it was before '60 though.

Q You don't know whether he moved into the Territory then during the war or not? A No sir, I don't think he did; I think his family went to Neosho Missouri in that vicinity in time of the war and Mr. Blythe went South; he was in the army; that's my understanding, I don't know now though.

Q If Jemima Blythe states that they moved out of the Territory during the war she is mistaken? A Yes sir.

Q She says here, we all moved in just across from the line into Missouri; Abbie went along with us? A She is mistaken or I am one, badly.

Q Well now we want that matter settled, because here is a woman that stands mighty fine character from what I understand, that states positively that they moved out after the war? A After the war?

Q Yes sir, during the war rather, and that they took Abbie along with them and Abbie was a slave, and that is a very serious point for investigation if Abbie was a slave during the war when the war broke out, they were citizens of the Cherokee Nation? A I have nothing else to say; that's all I know about it.

Q You won't be positive she wasn't here? A In time of the war?

Q Yes? A She might have been here on a visit.

BY MR. DAVENPORT:

Q You know that they were living out there and Mr. Blythe was engaged in the mercantile business prior to the breaking out of the war? A Yes sir.

Q And he continued to live there until the war broke out? A He continued to live there until he was broke up during the war.

Commissioner Breckinridge: This will be filed as supplemental testimony in the case of Abbie Blythe, et al., Cherokee Freedmen Doubtful case 257, and also in Cherokee Freedmen Doubtful cases 306, 217 and 367 and 368.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY ON BEHALF OF CHEROKEE NATION.

Appearances:

Louis T. Brown, agent for applicants and others;
W. W. Hastings, of attorneys for the Cherokee Nation.

ANNA H. DODSON, being sworn by Commissioner Needles testified
as follows:

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q What is your name? A Anna H. Dodson.
Q What is your citizenship, Mrs. Dodson? A I live in the Creek Nation, but I am a citizen of the United States.
Q You don't claim to be of Indian blood? A No sir.
Q Where did you live before the war? A At Elk Hills, in Donald County, Missouri.
Q That was right on the line wasn't it? A Yes sir, one-fourth of a mile from the Cherokee line.
Q Did you know Mrs. Jennie Blythe? A Yes sir.
Q Did you know her husband, Jim Blythe? A Yes sir.
Q Did you know them before the war? A Yes sir.
Q Did you know a colored woman they had by the name of Abbie? A
No sir.
Q Where did you go during the war? A Well would you like to know everywhere I went.
Q No, generally; did you go to Missouri or Kansas? A I went to Missouri.
Q Were you married up there after the war? A I was married in Rand County, Maryland.
Q When did you return to the Cherokee Nation, to your old home, to Missouri I mean? A I returned to my old home in March, 1866.
Q Did you bring any colored person back with you? A No sir.
Q Did Abbie Blythe come back with you? A No sir.
Q How did you and your husband return? A We come in a wagon;
we had two wagons, one with horses and one with oxen.
Q Did you return to your old home at Elk Hills? A Yes sir.
Q Right near the Cherokee line? A Yes sir.
Q Did you cross Grand river or what is known in the state as Cowskin river? A Yes sir.
Q About how far south of there did you go? A About a quarter of a mile.
Q And no colored woman came back with you? A No sir.
Q Did you ever see this Abbie Blythe to know her after the war?
A No sir.
Q You had no children at that time? A No sir.

BY MR. BROWN:

- Q What is your name, please? A Anna H. Dodson.
Q Did any colored person return with you? A No sir.
Q You don't know the applicant in this case at all? A No sir.
Q Was anybody else living in that neighborhood or in about it in the State of Missouri by the name of Dodson? A Not that I know of.
Q Right be some one there and you not know it? A Yes, there might be.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q Anyone living anywhere near around you by that name except your own family? A No sir.

BY MR. BROWN:

How far at that time did your acquaintance with the neighborhood extend, as far as the line, or five or six miles? A Yes sir.

Q Well did it extend further than that? A I knew some persons in different parts of the county, but not generally.

Q There might have been some one in the neighborhood of 10 miles by the name of Dodson and you not know it? A Yes sir.

BY MR. HASTINGS: Let that be filed in D-206, D-217, D-367 and D-368.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application of Abbie Blythe, et al., for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen, consolidating the applications of:

Abbie Blythe et al.,	Cherokee Freedmen D 257
Nancy Thompson,	Cherokee Freedmen D 217
Edmond Blythe	Cherokee Freedmen D 306
Alice Lynch, et al.,	Cherokee Freedmen D 367
Lucy Landrum, et al.,	Cherokee Freedmen D 368
Anna Henry,	Cherokee Freedmen D 1074.

D E C I S I O N .

THE RECORD HEREIN SHOWS: That applications for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen were made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes by Abbie Blythe for herself and minor children, Minnie and Calis Blythe; by Jordan Thompson for, among others, his wife, Nancy Thompson; by Edmond Blythe for himself; by Alice Lynch for herself and minor children, Lovely Eaton, Early, Calvin and Eddie Lynch; by William Leonard Landrum for, among others, his wife, Lucy Landrum; and by Anna Henry for herself. The others included in the above applications having been differently classified their rights to Cherokee freedman citizenship will not be considered in this decision.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant, Abbie Blythe, claims the right to Cherokee freedman citizenship by virtue of her compliance with the provisions of Article nine treaty of 1866, and that the other applicants herein claim the same right as her descendants.

The following points are fully established by the proof submitted:

- (1) That the applicant, Abbie Blythe, was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the rebellion, and for several years prior thereto resided with her master in the state of Missouri; that during the war she was sold to a citizen of said state, named Lemance, and continuously lived therein till about the year 1875, when she, with her family, removed to the Cherokee Nation, and has since continuously resided therein.

(2) That said applicant, Abbie Blythe, is the mother of the applicants, Anna Henry, Alice Lynch, Edmond Blythe, Nancy Thompson, and Minnie and Calis Blythe, and that the applicant, Alice Lynch, is the mother of the applicants, Lucy Landrum, Lovely Eaton and Early, Calvin and Eddie Lynch, all of whom were born, in the order named, since the close of the rebellion. And that the father of the applicants, Early and Calvin Lynch (both of whom were born subsequent to the year 1890) was one William Lynch, now deceased, who, the records of this office show, is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, and on the final Cherokee Freedman approved roll, opposite No. 1793.

(3) That, except as above noted, neither the applicants herein nor any discovered ancestor through whom by any possibility they might obtain rights to Cherokee freedman citizenship can be identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880 or the Cherokee census roll of 1896.

The evidence further shows that the said Anna Henry and Alice Lynch were born in the state of Missouri of white paternity, and, in the absence of proof to the contrary, it will be presumed that their fathers were non-citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

It further appears that ample opportunity has been afforded the applicants Edmond Blythe and Nancy Thompson to establish their paternity, but that in this they have wholly failed, hence, it can not be presumed that they obtain any rights to Cherokee citizenship from that source.

It is further shown that the applicant, Abbie Blythe, testified that the father of her two children, Minnie and Calis Blythe, was one Calvin Hilderbrand, now deceased, but, after ample opportunity having been afforded, it is not established that the said Calvin Hilderbrand, deceased, was a Cherokee citizen. An examination of the Cherokee records in this office fails to disclose that this alleged ancestor was ever recognized by the Cherokee authorities as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, consequently, it can not be presumed that the two applicants last above named obtain any rights to Cherokee citizenship through their father.

It also appears that on her first appearance before the Commission in this case, the applicant, Alice Lynch, testified that her oldest child, Lucy Landrum, nee Eaton, was the daughter of one Thomas Eaton, who, the records of this office show, is on the final Cherokee Freedman roll opposite No. 1742, and that her oldest child living at home was named "Lovely Eaton". Enrollment card Freedman D 367, shows that the said Alice Lynch gave the name of Lovely Eaton's father as Thomas Eaton, and the record herein shows that in a birth affidavit executed by her on May 21, 1901, and filed with the Commission on August 31, 1901, she deposed that Tom Eaton was the father of her child, Love (Lovely) Eaton. And that on her last appearance herein she testified that the father of her said child, Lovely Eaton, was one Fred Martin, who, the records of this office show, is on the final Cherokee Freedmen roll opposite No. 4053. And that she further testified that the father of her child, Eddie Lynch, was the said William Lynch, deceased, above referred to.

The only proof herein relative to the paternity of the said Lucy Landrum and Lovely Eaton is the uncorroborated testimony of their mother, and which, as to Lovely Eaton, is contradicted by the information she gave the card clerk, and also by the birth affidavit executed and filed by her. The testimony of this applicant further shows that her two children last above named, are the fruits of an occasional illicit association with their fathers, whoever they may be.

As to the paternity of the applicant, Eddie Lynch: The record (birth affidavit) shows that he was born December 18, 1900. Also that on May 7, 1901, and February 21, 1903, the said William Lynch, since deceased, appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at Vinita, Indian Territory, and testified that he was the former husband of the said Alice Lynch and that about 1897 or 1898 he was divorced from her; that four children were born to them, two of whom, at their separation, remained with their mother and two, Maria and Willie, went with him and for whom he made application for enrollment; and that since his divorce from Alice he married one Mary Teener by whom he had one child, who, a comparison of the record shows, is between one and two months younger than the said Eddie Lynch.

In view of the foregoing it is considered that the evidence in this case fails to satisfactorily establish the paternity of Lucy Landrum, Lovely Eaton and Eddie Lynch, hence the applications for their enrollment as descendants of their fathers come within the ruling of the Department in the cases of Eliza Bryant, et al. (I.T.D. 844-04), William Rector (I.T.D. 1466-04), Minnie Duncan et al. (I.T.D. 1470-04), Samantha Chambers (I.T.D. 2296-04), Ed Williams (I.T.D. 4230-04), Moses Ross (I.T.D. 6056-04), Jane Mooney et al. (I.T.D. 640, 12600-04), Florence Bratcher (I.T.D. 12692-04), and Frankie Grismett (I.T.D. 17902-1906).

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That, under the provisions of Section Twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1906 (30 Stat., 495), Abbie Blythe, Minnie Blythe, Calis Blythe, Nancy Thompson, Edmund Blythe, Alice Lynch, Lovely Eaton, Eddie Lynch, Lucy Landrum and Anna Henry, are not entitled to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied; and that, in accordance with the provisions of Section Twenty-one of the Act above noted, Early Lynch and Calvin Lynch, are entitled to enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen, and their application for enrollment as such is accordingly granted.

C O P Y

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith a letter from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated June 28, 1906, enclosing the record in the case of Abbie Blythe, et al., applicants for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen; also a motion for re-hearing filed in this Office on July 31, 1906, by McGowan, Servess & Mohun, Washington, attorneys for the applicants. On August 22, 1906, the Commissioner transmitted to this Office the reply on behalf of the Cherokee Nation, showing written acceptance of service on August 9, 1906, by Zevely, Givens & Smith, attorneys for the applicants.

The principal applicant in this case, Abbie Bly (or Blythe), made application for the enrollment of herself and two minor children, Minnie Bly, aged sixteen and Calis Bly, aged twelve, on May 11, 1901, at Vinita, at which time she introduced testimony in support of her contention. supplemental testimony was submitted on May 15, 1901, on October 2, 1901, October 4, 1901, January 27, 1902, and September 28, 1905. The other applicants in this case, Nancy Thompson, Edmond Blythe, Alice Lynch, et al., Lucy Landrum, et al. and Anna Henry, are the children and grandchildren of the principal applicant, whose rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen depend entirely on such rights as she may have, except in two instances mentioned in the decision.

The evidence shows that Abbie Bly (or Blythe) was the slave of James Blythe, a Cherokee citizen, before and at the commencement of the Civil War. The testimony of Blythe himself is that when the war broke out he was living in McDonald county, Missouri, and had been a resident of that State for about five years; that Abbie was his slave in Missouri, and that in the year 1862 or 1863 he sold her to one James Lamance, of Pineville, Missouri, that he next saw her after the war in the spring of 1866, when she came to him and again wanted to live in the family as in former days; that he saw her no more until sometime after he moved to Vinita in 1871, when she came to him to seek advice as to the best place for her to locate.

The testimony of Abbie Blythe is very indefinite, contradictory and unsatisfactory on the one material point in this case, viz: as to when she returned to the Cherokee Nation after the war. At one time she said she came in a wagon with a family named Dodson, from some place in Kansas, and denied that she had ever lived in Missouri; that they came back in the fall of 1866, and camped out on the Grand River. At another time she testified that she came back with a white family but did not know the name. The testimony of Mrs. Blythe is clear on all points save that concerning Abbie's return to the Cherokee Nation, though somewhat in conflict with that of her husband, which is easily accounted for by reason of the great lapse of time intervening between the events and the hearing; but as to where Abbie Blythe was from 1865 to 1879 she knows nothing.

Captain Hicks, another of her witnesses, testified that he had known Abbie twenty-five or twenty-six years in the Cherokee Nation, but that he did not know where she was in 1866. It will be observed that he became acquainted with her in 1875 or 1876. The name of Abbie Bly (or Blythe) does not appear on the authentic roll of 1880, nor on the census roll of 1896, but does appear on the Kerns-Clifton Roll as Abbie Blye, No. 3897, Cooweescoowee District, while Minnie Blye is on the same roll as No. 3899 and Callus Blye appears as No. 3900.

The evidence shows that applicants Anna Henry and Alice Lunch were born in the State of Missouri, and the Commissioner found that both were of white paternity, and assumed that the fathers were non-citizens. It is alleged by Abbie Blythe that one Calvin Hilderbrand, deceased, was the father of Minnie and Callis Blyth, but there is no evidence that he was a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, even if it be assumed that he was in fact the father. There is no evidence showing who was the father of Edmond Blyth and Nancy Thompson.

The testimony in this case shows a very low state of morals, and about the only established fact is that Abbie Bly was a slave and is the mother of her children, Early Lynch and Calvin Lynch were proven to be the children of William Lynch former husband of Alice Lynch, from whom he was divorced in 1897 or 1898, and were duly enrolled as children of their father under Section 21 of the Act of June 28, 1898, (30 Stats. 495).

The motion for re-hearing is supported by five affidavits, which are presumed to be on the theory of newly discovered evidence, though no proper showing is made to establish that fact. Without entering into any discussion as to the showing necessary to justify a re-hearing, the Office calls attention to the fact that four of these affidavits signally fail to locate the principal applicant in the Cherokee Nation during 1866 or 1867, or at any other time. All they do is to locate her in Missouri at different times after the War.

The affidavit of Simon Lynch locates her in the Cherokee Nation, but even if his affidavit be true, it would seem that the exercise of any degree of diligence would have found him and produced him before the Commission during the five years this case was open.

The Office respectfully recommends that the motion for a re-hearing be denied, and that the decision of the Commissioner rejecting the enrollment of all the applicants except Early

(5)

Lynch and Calvin Lynch be affirmed; also that the enrollment of Early Lynch and Calvin Lynch be approved.

Very respectfully,

P. E. Lynch.

Commissioner.

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Sir:

The Indian Office on September 13, 1906 (Land 73825), transmitted your report dated June 28, 1906, forwarding the record in the matter of the consolidated applications of Abbie Blythe et al. for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen.

On June 28, 1906, you rendered a decision rejecting the applications of Abbie, Minnie, and Calia Blythe, Nancy Thompson, Edmond Blythe, Alice and Eddie Lynch, Lovely Eaton, Lucy Landrum, and Anna Henry and granting the application for the enrollment of Early and Calvin Lynch as Cherokee freedmen.

There is also transmitted a motion for rehearing filed by the attorneys for the applicants and the reply of the nation to said motion.

The Indian Office recommends that the motion for rehearing be denied, and that your decision rejecting the applications for the enrollment of all the applicants except Early and Calvin Lynch be approved. A copy of its letter is inclosed.

The Department has considered the motion for rehearing in connection with the record, and is convinced that no sufficient reason is shown for a further hearing of this case.

The motion for rehearing is accordingly denied. Your decision, rejecting the applications of Abbie, Minnie and Calis Blythe, Nancy Thompson, Edmond Blythe, Alice and Eddie Lynch, Lovely Eaton, Lucy Landrum, and Anna Henry and granting the application for the enrollment of Early and Calvin Lynch as Cherokee freedmen, is hereby affirmed.

The papers in the case have been sent to the Indian Office for its files.

There is enclosed an "amended motion for rehearing" of the consolidated Cherokee freedmen cases of Abbie Blythe, et al. This motion was filed by Zevely, Givens & Smith, Muskogee, Indian Territory, and Starr & Patten, Vinita, Indian Territory, January 18, 1907. The reply of the Attorney for the Cherokee Nation filed January 26, 1907, is also enclosed.

The decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes dated June 26, 1906, rejecting the applications for the enrollment of all of the applicants embraced in the consolidated Cherokee freedmen cases of Abbie Blythe et al. except Early and Calvin Lynch, was affirmed by the Department December 8, 1906 (I.T.D. 17912-1906). The Department also, on that date, denied a motion filed by Messrs. Zevely, Givens & Smith, for a rehearing of the case, holding that it "has considered the motion for rehearing in connection with the record, and is convinced that no sufficient reason is shown for a further hearing of this case."

The evidence upon which this motion herewith enclosed is based seems to be merely cumulative; in fact it is supported by copies of a number of affidavits which the Attorney for the Cherokee Nation alleges are copies of affidavits filed in support of the motion for rehearing which the Department denied on December 8, 1906. There is nothing whatever to show that the motion is not made for the purpose of delay, or that with due diligence the evidence now sought to be introduced could not have been secured when the case was heard before the Commission and the Commissioner. A re-examination of the records in the case convinces the Commissioner that there is no merit to the motion, and it is respectfully recommended that the same be denied.

Respectfully,

Through the Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior,

Sir:

Referring to Departmental letter of December 8, 1906 (I.T.D.17018-1906), denying motion for re-hearing in the application of Abbie Blythe, et al., I have the honor to transmit herewith a communication from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated February 2, 1907, enclosing amended motion for re-hearing in a consolidated case, which was filed with the Commissioner on January 18, 1907, by Zevely, Givens & Smith, of Muskogee, I. T., and Starr & Patten, of Vinita, I. T.

The reply of the attorney for the Cherokee Nation was filed January 26, 1907. The evidence on which the amended motion is based is merely cumulative. It is supported by copies of a number of affidavits which the attorney for the Cherokee Nation alleges are copies of affidavits filed in support of the motion for re-hearing, which was denied on December 8, 1906. There is nothing to show that this motion is not made for the purpose of delay, or that with due diligence the evidence now sought to be secured could not have been produced when the case was first heard before the Commission and the Commissioner.

The original application was made on May 11, 1901, and no decision was rendered until June 28, 1906, a period of more than five years, and it was not until after an adverse decision was rendered that the applicants made any effort whatever to secure the testimony that they now allege they could introduce if the case is re-opened.

The Office is of the opinion that sufficient diligence has not been shown in this case to justify a re-opening, and it therefore concurs in the recommendation of the Commissioner that the motion be denied.

Very respectfully,

C. F. Larrabee

Acting Commissioner.

In the matter of the application of Johnson Downing for the enrollment of himself as a Cherokee Freedman; being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge he testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Johnson Downing.
Q Who is it you want to have put on the roll? A Just myself.
Q How old are you? A 25.
Q What is your post-office? A Catala.
Q In what district do you live? A Coowasecoowee.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A All my life.
Q Are you a recognized Freedman of the Cherokee Nation? A I am supposed to be.
Q Are you on all the rolls? A No sir, I am on the Wallace roll Johnson Downing and on the Kerns roll it is Josh Downing, but they made a mistake.
Q Give me the name of your father? A Elias Downing.
Q Is your father dead? A No sir, he is out there.
Q Give me the name of your mother? A Phoebe.
Q Is she dead? A Yes sir.
Q How long has she been dead? A I don't know sir.
Q Was your mother a Cherokee Freedman? A I don't know sir.
Q Does your father claim to be a Cherokee Freedman? A Yes sir.
Q Have you any sisters? A Yes sir.
Q How many? A Lizzie and Malonie and one named Jennie, she is dead.
Q Your father has married since your mother died? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of his present wife? A Mary.
Q Mary E. Downing? A I suppose it is.
Q Your sister, Malonie, is she your full sister? A No sir.
Q She is a daughter by the last wife, and your half sister?
A Yes sir.

Com'r Breckinridge: Reference is made here to the case of Elias Downing, Cherokee Freedman roll, D 245, to determine the status of the father of the applicant.

- Q Where is your father now? A He is out there.

1880 authentic roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation examined and applicant not found thereon, neither is the name of his father found thereon.

1890 census roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation examined and applicant not identified thereon.

Kerns-Clifton pay roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation examined and applicant identified thereon as follows:
page 117 #2918 Josh Downing, Coowasecoowee District.

Com'r to roll book: Who is he with? A He is with Mary Looney, a child, and Elizabeth Jones.

Com'r: Isn't he with Elias? A I don't see anything of Elias.

- Q Who is Mary Looney? A My half sister.
Q She is your father's child by your step-mother? A Yes sir.
Q By his present wife? A Yes sir.
Q Who is Elizabeth? A That's my full sister.

ELIAS DOWNING, being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

- Q Give your full name? A Elias Downing.
Q How old are you? A I am about 58 years old I suppose.
Q What is your post-office? A Chelsea.
Q You apply for enrollment a few days ago? A Yes sir.

Com'r:

His name is Cherokee Freedman, D 245.

RECORDED & INDEXED
MAY 17 1901
U. S. DEPT. OF THE INTERIOR

- Q Is this applicant here your son? A Yes sir.
- Q Have you a son named Joshua? A No sir.
- Q Who is that Joshua Downing intended for on the Kerns-Glifton roll in your family? A It must have been a mistake in taking the name when I give in Johnson's name.
- Q This is the only one it could be for? A Yes sir.
- Q This is all the son you have got? A Yes sir.
- Q All the son you had at that time? A Yes sir.
- Q So they just got it down Joshua instead of Johnson? A Yes sir, the mistake was made in that way.
- Q Do you know a man named Joshua Martin? A Yes sir.
- Q Does he live in your neighborhood? A Yes sir.
- Q About how old a man is he? A He is about 26 years old.
- Q What is the name of his wife? A Ella Martin.
- Q How many children have they? A Three as well as I recollect.
- Q Did you ever hear that that Joshua Martin drew Strip money that belonged to your son? A Yes sir, I was right there when he drew it, but it seemed like they had everything their way, and he drew it.
- Q He drew it under the name of Joshua Downing? A Yes sir.
- Q They seemed to think that Joshua Downing was more like Joshua Martin than it was Johnson Downing? A I guess so.
- Q What is the name of the father of this Joshua Martin who drew your son's Strip money? A George Bean is his father.
- Q What is the name of his mother? A Sarah Ann Martin.
- Q Is the father living? A No sir.
- Q Is the mother living? A Yes sir.
- Q What is the post-office of this Joshua Martin you are talking about? A Chelsea.
- Q How far is it from White Oak? A About four miles.
- Q Well, White Oak might be his post-office? A Well, that might be.

Wallace roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation examined and applicant identified thereon as follows:
page 110 #2340 Johnson Downing, Delaware District.

- Q When did you marry your wife, Phoebe? A I married her I guess in '69, somewhere about that time.
- Q Was she your first wife? A Yes sir.
- Q Was she ever married before she married you? A No sir.
- Q Had she been a slave in the Cherokee Nation before the war? A No sir, not my first wife, wasn't.
- Q Phoebe had not been? A No sir.
- Q Where did you marry her? A I married her in Texas.
- Q How long after you married her was it before you came to the Cherokee Nation? A Well, I came right after I married her.
- Q Whereabouts in Texas was it you married Phoebe? A In Ellis Co.
- Q You were a slave in the Cherokee Nation before the war? A Yes sir.
- Q And you were carried down to Texas during the war were you? A Yes sir.
- Q And you came back up on after your marriage, is that right? A Yes sir.
- Q Have you lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since you came back in 1869? A Yes sir, ever since I came back the last time, I married in 1869 and I come back right afterwards, and I have been living in the Nation ever since.
- Q Were you in Texas from the time you were carried down there during the war until you married in 1869? A No sir, I come up here in '66, and then I went back down there again.
- Q How long did you stay up here when you came in '66? A Oh I staid a year or ~~two~~ such a matter.
- Q And then went back ~~is~~ down into Texas? A Yes sir.
- Q And staid there until you married? A Yes sir.
- Q Where did you stay during the year you were up here, in '66? A Staid with my father.
- Q Is your father living? A No sir, he is dead.
- Q Give me your father's name? A Reuben Downing.

Q To what did you belong in the Cherokee Nation at the time the war broke out? A Belonged to Eliza Wright.

Q Was she a Recognized Cherokee citizen? A Yes sir.

Q Who is living at this time that you lived with besides your father when you came back in '66? A I was around there at Papa's and Crap Lynch.

Q Are there any people that are now living? A Andy Frye and Crap Lynch.

Q What time in '66 did you come back to the Cherokee Nation?

A Well, it was some time along in the summer or fall of '66.

Q What time of the year were you married in? A I disremember what time I was married in.

Q Was it spring? A That is, my first wife.

Q I mean your first wife, Phoebe? A I disremember what time of the year it was.

Q Did you vote down in Texas? A No sir, I didn't vote there.

Q When did your wife, Phoebe die? A She has been dead about 21 years, or 22.

Q Did she when this son was quite young? A Yes sir, he was a little bit of a thing.

Q Where did she die? A She died down here in Delaware District on Grand River.

Q Did she live with you in the Cherokee Nation until she died?

A Yes sir.

Q From the time of your marriage until she died? A Yes sir.

Q And this son, was he born in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir, he was born here.

Q What was the occasion of your going back to Texas? A I used to go back, I had to work around and make a living, and I used to return there to work.

Q Did you make crops down there? A Yes sir, I made one crop.

Q Did you make a crop in the Cherokee Nation when you came back as you state in '66? A I staid with my father, he was cropping there.

Q Did you go back to Texas to make your home down there? And sir, if I had I would have staid down there.

Q You came back to the Cherokee Nation in '66 to make your home?

A Yes sir, I was hunting my people.

Q But you didn't stay in the Cherokee Nation? A Well, I found them then I had other people back down there you know.

Q You had kin folks back in Texas? A Yes sir.

Don't Breakinridge: The applicant states that he has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life; he is not identified on the roll of 1830 or on the roll of 1890, but he is identified on the Wallace roll and the Kerns-Clifton roll as a Cherokee Freeman; it appears that his mother was a Texas woman, and married to his father in the State of Texas in 1869, at which time the applicant's father brought her to the Cherokee Nation where she lived with her husband until her death, some twenty years or more ago, and that that marriage was the first marriage on the part of either the father or mother of the applicant; in regard to the father's status, through whom, under these conditions the applicant must derive his rights, reference is made to his case, the case of Elias Downing and others, Cherokee Freeman, D 245; reference is also made to Cherokee Freeman case D 244, the same being the case of Joshua Martin, Sr.; the latter reference is material only as affecting the rights of Joshua Martin, Sr., as he is conclusively shown in this testimony to have been credited erroneously with the Kerns-Clifton enrollment of the present applicant; said Joshua Martin, Sr. being alleged the brother and of another family; a copy of this testimony will be filed in his case and he will be notified of the apparent error in his accredited enrollment, and the fact of that notification will be entered on his card; it is also desired that a note be made upon the card D 245, Elias Downing, calling attention to his additional testimony in this case;

Q Where did you come to when you come back here? A I come back to my father's.
Q Did he live near Island Ford? A Yes sir, in Delaware District.
Q Where have you been living since that time? A I lived in Delaware District a part of the time, and I been living in Cooweescoowee District about 22 years.
Q What part of Cooweescoowee? A Just above Chelsea about four miles.
Q With that exception after you came back from Texas the last time you lived over here in Delaware in the neighborhood of your father? A Yes sir, in Delaware.
Commissioner: You been living continuously in the Cherokee Nation since 1880? A Yes sir, I have been living here continuously.
Q Did you draw money for your wife? A Yes sir.
W. W. Hastings: Did you apply for yourself before the Kerns Clifton Commission for your own personal enrollment? A Yes sir.
Q Are you sure you drew for Mary, your wife? A Yes sir, she drew her money for herself and one child; she is here and can speak for herself.
Q Did she ever have any other name besides Martin and Downing? A No sir.
Q Was she married to anybody else besides you? A Yes sir.
Q To whom? A To Jones. She is on the roll with Josh Downing.

The Kerns Clifton Roll examined and the names of the applicant and his wife not identified thereon.

The Kerns Clifton Roll examined and the name of the applicant's child is found on page 117, #2920, Mary Loney, Cooweescoowee District.

Eliza Downing applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife, Mary E., and his child Mary L. His name is not found upon the authenticated roll of 1880, but is found upon the Wallace roll according to page and number of the roll as indicated in the testimony. He avers that his wife, Mary E. Downing, is the child of Jake and Sarah Ann Martin, and reference is made to the testimony taken in the application for enrollment of Sarah Ann Martin, on D card 239, which testimony will be made a part of the record in this case. The name of his child, Mary L., is found upon the Kerns Clifton roll. Consequently for the reason that the name of the applicant is not found upon the authenticated roll of 1880, and the protest of the Cherokee Nation, said Eliza Downing, his wife, Mary E., and his child, Mary L., will be listed for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen upon what is known as a doubtful card for further consideration of the Commission. When the Commission arrives at the conclusion in this case, applicant will be notified of the same by mail.

since we were boys.

Q Was he a slave before the war? A Yes, sir.

Q Who did he belong to? A Belonged to Eliza Wright.

Q Do you know where he was in 1866? A He was down here on Grand river.

Q In the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you see him there? A Yes, sir.

Q Have you seen him since that? A Yes, sir, I have seen him since that.

Q Has he always lived in the Cherokee Nation since that time?

A No, he left the Cherokee Nation and went back to Texas and stayed there awhile and came back again and he is living here ever since.

By Mr. Hastings:

What time in '66 did you see him down there

A It was along in the fall of '66.

Q What makes you remember distinctly of seeing him among all these down there? A I seen lots of them, I don't remember him any more than anybody else, because he came to my house and I went to where he was.

Q You don't remember everybody you saw 35 years ago? A No, sir, I don't, but then a man that lives right at me, he lives right by me and I remember him.

Q How long do you remember seeing him that fall? A I was there,
I don't recollect just how long I do remember seeing him, it seems like the whole winter and spring.

Q Do you know where he came from? A He said he came from Texas where they taken him before the war.

Q And he went back to Texas? A Yes, sir.

(5 E D)

Q And he married down there? A Yes, sir.
Q And had some children down there? A Had one I believe.
Q About how many years did he stay down in Texas to your recollection the second time? A I don't know, sir, about that, I never kept no count of the time, but I know, sir he was away a good while and came back again.
Q Do you know how long the applicant was gone out of the country?
A Must have been a year, or maybe a little longer, might have been longer and might not have been, I never kept any count.
Q You don't know what year he came back then? A No, sir, I don't know what year he came backin, I don't recollect.
Q You remember he came back the first time in '66? A Yes, sir, because I hadn't been long in here myself.
Q And you can remember the year he first came but you can't remember the year the second time? A No, sir, I never kept any date.
Q Has he been living down there since he came back the second time?
A He lived over there right by me for four or five years and then he lived over on Pryor Creek.

Allen Lynch, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Q What is your age? A 61.
Q Your post-office address? A Vinita.
Q Are you a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q A Freedman? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you know Elias Downing? A Yes, sir.
Q How long have you known him? A I have known him forty or fifty years.
Q Was he a slave during the war? A Yes, sir.
Q Before the war? A Yes, sir.
Q To whom did he belong? A He first belonged to Eliza Wright and then he belonged to Jim Bell.
Q Did he go out of the Cherokee Nation during the war? A Yes, sir.
Q Where did he go? A Went south.
Q Do you know when he returned? A Yes, sir, I do.
Q When was that? A He came back here in the fall of '66.
Q How long did he stay here when he came back? A He stayed here till '67, along in the fall of '67.
Q Where did he go then? A Went back to Texas I reckon when he left here.
Q Do you know how long he stayed in Texas? A No, sir, I don't.
Q How long has he been living in the Cherokee Nation continuously to your knowledge? A Must be right near 18 or 20 years.
Mt Hastings: He came back here about 18 years ago from Texas?
A No, I don't know just when he came from Texas, but he came back and moved on the other side of the river and lived there four or five years and then I bought that place and he moved on Pryor Creek; must have been 18 or 16 or 17 years now.
Q Since he came back from Texas? A Since I first seen him when he came back.
Q That is your best recollection? A Yes, sir, maybe longer than that; I bought the place he was living on.
Q You know he lived there four or five years after he came back?
A Yes, sir.
Q And you lived in the same neighborhood? A Yes, sir, living there yet.
Q He married in Texas? A Yes, sir.
Q He had some children when he came up there? A He had one or two, I don't just remember.
Q Do you remember how old they were? A No, sir, I can't remember how large they were.
Q You know he was gone some time down in Texas when he went back after the war? A Yes, sir, I think he went out to, vitit, before he went off, I don't say what time he went.

6 E D)

Q Do you know who he came up here with when he first came?

A No, sir, the first time I saw him I saw him at his place.

11 R D ) 3 A.M.

Q By blood? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know the applicant, Aaron Martin? A Yes sir.

Q How long have you known him? A I have known him about nearly forty years I reckon; I knew him before the war.

Q Was he a slave? A Yes sir, I suppose he was.

Q Who did he belong to? A John Martin.

Q Do you know whether he went out of the Cherokee Nation during the war? A Well, I suppose he was; he wasn't around in the neighborhood.

Q When did you first see Aaron Martin after the war? A Late in the fall of '65.

Q Where at? A At my mother's.

Q Have you known him since that? A Known him ever since.

Q Has he always lived in the Cherokee Nation since that? A Yes sir.

Q Did he have a family at that time? A Yes sir.

Q Was his family with him? A Yes, sir they were up at Dr. Thompson's place; he came to my mother's and wanted to rent some land.

Q He wanted some land? A Yes sir.

Q Did he farm that land in the fall of '66? A No sir, in the fall of '67.

W.F. Hastings: He farmed it in '76? A Young Wolf, my mother's husband.

Q Did you ever have a renter after you had this fellow? A No, we had some hired hand, not any renter.

Q How far did you live from the mouth of Cabin Creek? A We just lived across the river; I reckon it isn't over three-quarters of a mile.

Q Opposite the mouth? A Just below a little on the other side of the river.

Q Your mother had a farm there that year? A Yes sir.

Q Are you positive this man tilled land there in the year '67?

A Yes sir.

Q Do you know what he cultivated? A He put in corn.

card. When the Commission arrives at a decision in his case, he will be notified by mail. He avers that his children, Frances Neely and Phoebe, are the children of Cora Adams, his wife, and the name of Cora Adams is found upon the authenticated roll of 1880, and Frances, and Neely are identified on the Korns Clifton Pay roll. The name of Phoebe is not found upon any roll, having been born after the said rolls were compiled.

Q They are all duly identified and make satisfactory proof as to residence, consequently, Frances, Neely and Phoebe Martin will be duly listed for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen. Their names appear upon the Korns Clifton roll as Adams, but they are duly identified as the applicants. In order to complete the enrollment of Phoebe, it will be necessary for him to file with the Commission satisfactory proof of birth of said Phoebe.

In the matter of the application of Johnson for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman.

No. F. D. 308

Johnson
Henry Pack, of lawful age, being duly sworn on oath states that on the 13 day of September, A. D., 1901, he registered to Johnson Johnson whose postoffice is Catale Indian Territory, a notice, a true copy of which is attached to this affidavit, and he hereto attaches the receipt of the Postmaster at Catale Indian Territory; and that on the 18 day of September, 1901, he received the return card which is hereto attached, signed by the said Johnson Johnson, showing that he had received said notice.

COM'R NEEDLES: Now you were three years old when you went there?

A Yes, sir.

Q What year did you go, A We went at the beginning of the war, I don't recollect just what year it was we went there.

Q Along about '61? (No response.)

Q How old were you in 1868 then? A I was about ten years old.

Q Do you recollect this man distinctly? A Yes, sir, he was around tearing for us, was a driver all the time.

Q Did he live with the family continuously from the time your folks took him down there until 1868? A To the best of my recollection; he was an ox driver and one time I remember him being around was when they went to Mexico.

Q You left there in the spring of 1868? A Yes, sir.

Q And went back in the spring of what year? A About '72 or '3.

Q Was this man Elias Downing there then? A Yes, sir.

Q Working for your people? A No, sir, he was there in the same neighborhood.

Q Your people didn't go back with you? A My people ~~left~~ lived here at the time, my mother lived here and my father's folks all lived there.

Q Your mother's folks come here in 1868? A Yes, sir we moved up here in 1868.

Q When you went back there in 1872 or '3 Elias was still there? A Yes, sir.

Q Was he in town or out in the country A He was out in the country.

Q You saw him? A Yes, sir.

Q Recognized him? A Yes, sir.

Q You don't know whether he was ever in the Cherokee Nation in the meantime or not? A No, sir.

Q Do you know whether he was in the Territory before 1868 or not? A No, sir.

MR. ISAACS: Did you miss him out of Texas in '66 A No

Q Did you remember him; that is, having seen him in '66?

A No, I would not be sure that I seen him there; they was freighting all the time and if he ever left I didn't know it. Of course they was gone over there to Mexico and back, it would take a good while to make the trip.

Q During the year '66 you were about five years old were you not?

A Yes, sir.

Q Do you remember anything about the applicant's age about '66?

A No, sir.

Q Was he married? A I wouldn't say for sure whether he was married or not. He was not married in '66.

MR. HASTINGS: You were born you say in 1858? A Yes, sir.

Q Well in '66 you would be eight years old wouldn't you, instead of five? (No response.)

COM'R NEEDLES: Is your mother living? A No, sir.

Q Father? A No, sir.

Q Have you any brothers or sisters older than you? A No, sir, I am the oldest child.

This testimony will be filed with the papers, and copy thereof will be filed with Freedmen doubtful cards #239, #246, and #308.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Elias Downing, et al., as Cherokee Freedmen, consolidating the applications of

Elias Downing et al.,	Cherokee Freedmen D-245,
Elizabeth Jones, et al.,	Cherokee Freedmen D-246,
Johnson Downing,	Cherokee Freedmen D-308.

D E C I S I O N.

The record herein shows that applications for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen were made to this Commission by Elias Downing for himself, his wife, Mary E. Downing, and his minor child, Mary L. Downing; by Elizabeth Jones for herself, and her two minor children, Flora and Rosether Jones; that subsequent to the date of the last-named application, a birth affidavit, which is made a part of the record herein, was filed with the Commission showing the birth of Arrileus Jones; by Johnson Downing for himself. A copy of the testimony of Sarah Ann Martin in Cherokee Freedmen D-239, and of Aaron Martin in Cherokee Freedmen D-235, taken at Vinita, Indian Territory, May 10, 1901, are filed herewith and made a part of the record in this case.

The evidence in this case shows that Elias Downing was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the rebellion, that during said rebellion he left the Cherokee Nation and did not return thereto and establish a residence therein within the time specified in the decree of the Court of Claims rendered February 3, 1896, in the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee, et al., vs. the Cherokee Nation, et al., for the return of freedmen to said Nation; that Mary E. Downing, wife of said Elias Downing, was born during the rebellion, and is the daughter of one Sarah A. Martin. The Commission have heretofore found, in the case of Sarah A. Martin, Cherokee Freedmen D-239, that she was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the rebellion; that during said rebellion she removed to the State of Kansas, and returned to the Cherokee Nation within the time specified in the said decree of the Court of Claims, Supra.

The evidence herein shows that the applicant, Mary E. Downing, returned to the Cherokee Nation with her said mother; that Mary L. Downing was born since 1866 and is the daughter of the said Elias Downing and his wife, Mary E. Downing, and claims the right to enrollment through her said mother; that Elizabeth Jones and Johnson Downing were born since 1866, and are the children of Elias Downing and Phoebe Downing and claim their right to enrollment through their father, the said Elias Downing, their mother not possessing any rights as a Cherokee Freedman; that the applicants, Flora, Rosether and Arrilous Jones are the minor children of the said Elizabeth Jones, and possess no rights to enrollment except through their said mother.

It further appears from the evidence herein that the said Mary E. Downing has lived continuously in the Cherokee Nation since her return thereto in 1866, and that the said Mary L. Downing has resided continuously therein since her birth.

It further appears that the names of none of the applicants herein appear upon the 1880 authenticated Cherokee Roll.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Mary E. Downing and Mary L. Downing should be enrolled as Cherokee freedmen and that the applications for the enrollment of Elias Downing, Elizabeth Jones, Flora Jones, Rosether Jones, Arrilous Jones and Johnson Downing as Cherokee freedmen should be denied under the provisions of section twenty-one of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 498), and it is so ordered.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I enclose a report from the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 7, 1905, transmitting the record of the consolidated applications for enrollment as Cherokee Indians by Elias Downing for himself, his wife, Mary E. Downing, and his minor child, Mary L. Downing; by Elizabeth Jones for herself and her three minor children, Flora, Rosabeth and Arrilous Jones; and by Johnson Downing for himself.

December 16, 1904, the Commission decided favorably to Mary E. Downing and Mary L. Downing and adversely to all the others.

The record shows that Elias Downing was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the beginning of the war of the rebellion; that he left the Cherokee Nation during the war and did not return thereto on or before February 11, 1867; that Mary E. Downing wife of Elias Downing was born during the rebellion and is the daughter of one Sarah A. Martin who was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the beginning of the war; that during the war she went out of the Cherokee Nation and returned to said Nation prior to February 11, 1867, and that her child Mary E. Downing, returned with her; that Mary L. Downing was born since 1866 and is the daughter of Elias Downing and his wife, Mary E. Downing and claims right to enrollment through her said mother; that Elizabeth Jones and Johnson Downing were born since 1866 and are the children of Elias Downing and Phoebe Downing and claim their right to enrollment through their father the said Elias Downing, their mother possessing no rights to enrollment; that the applicants, Flora, Rosether and Arrilous Jones are minor children of Elizabeth Jones and possess no rights to enrollment except through their mother. It further appears that Mary E. Downing and Mary L. Downing have lived continuously in the Cherokee Nation since 1866 and since birth respectively.

None of the names of the applicants are found on the 1890 authenticated Cherokee Roll.

There is also enclosed a motion by Blue and Bulger, attorneys for the applicants that the decision of the Commission be reversed which has received due consideration.

In view of the record the approval of the Commission's decision favorable to Mary E. Downing and Mary L. Downing and adverse to all the other applicants is recommended.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
WASHINGTON.

March 19, 1906.

The Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Sir:

March 16, 1905, the Indian Office (Land 2224-05), submitted the Cherokee freedman case of Elias Downing, for himself, his wife, Mary E. Downing, and his minor child, Mary L. Downing; of Elizabeth Jones for herself and her three minor children, Flora, Rosether and Arrilous Jones; and of Johnsen Downing for himself, and recommended that the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in favor of Mary E. Downing and Mary L. Downing, and adverse to the other claimants, be affirmed.

November 21, 1905, you were advised of the filing of a motion for "review" by the claimants. In the motion it is also requested, if the Department finds the testimony insufficient to warrant the enrollment of the applicants, that the case be remanded for rehearing, the attorneys making the motion apparently overlooking the fact that the decision of the Commission was in favor of two of the applicants.

In support of the motion certain affidavits are filed which merely go to show that Elias Downing, through whom the rejected applicants claim, was in the Indian Territory late in the fall of 1866. It is claimed by Elias Downing that he came to the Cherokee nation from Texas in 1866, and was there part of 1867, but the testimony is very unsatisfactory on that point. He admits, however, that he returned to Texas in 1866, where he married and remained for some length of time. The testimony for the nation shows that he was there as late as 1873 or 1874.

The Department does not feel warranted in ordering a rehearing upon the showing made; however, on January 15, 1906, it having before it two motions for review in the case filed by the same attorneys, of which you were informed on that date, said attorneys were advised that they would be allowed time to file motions for rehearings in this and numerous other Cherokee freedmen cases.

The motions are all denied, and the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes as to Mary E. Downing and Mary L. Downing is affirmed.

In view of contemplated legislation the case as to the other claimants will be held a reasonable length of time to allow said attorneys to file a proper motion for rehearing. The attorneys have been advised hereof.

A copy of the Indian Office letter of March 16, 1905, is inclosed, and also a copy of its letter of December 20, 1905, submitting your letter of December 2, 1905, relative to Sarah A. Martin.

Respectfully,

Vinita, Indian Territory.

Gentlemen:

Referring to your letters of July 20 and August 2, 1906, you are advised that affidavits transmitted by you of Elias Downing and Nelson Moore to be filed in support of a motion for a rehearing in the Cherokee freedman case of Elias Downing, et al, have been received. Receipt is also acknowledged of your letter of August 3, requesting that early attention be given the motion filed by you in said case, and asking that with the transmittal of your motion to the Department, this office advise whether or not the name of the father of Elias Downing is identified upon the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

You are advised that your motion, together with the affidavits in support thereof, has this day been forwarded to the Department for consideration and action thereupon.

-2-

The name of Reuben Downing, father of Elias Downing, is identified upon the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880, and the Department has been advised thereof.

Respectfully,

M.A.

Acting Commissioner.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, August 24, 1906.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

On March 19, 1906 (I.T.D.2686,17886,8623,8345-1905), the Department affirmed the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated December 16, 1904, granting the application for the enrollment of Mary E. and Mary L. Downing, and rejecting the application for the enrollment of Elias Downing, Elizabeth, Flora, Rosether and Arrileus Jones and Johnson Downing, as Cherokee freedmen, insofar as the same was favorable to said Mary E. and Mary L. Downing, and advised "in view of contemplated legislation, the case as to the other claimants will be held a reasonable length of time to allow said attorneys to file a proper motion for rehearing."

The Department, on November 21, 1905 (I.T.D.2686-1905), advised that there had been filed a motion for a review of the case of Elias Downing, et al, and in its letter of March 19, 1906, the Department states that in said motion it is requested that "if the Department finds the testimony insufficient to warrant the enrollment of the applicants, that the case be remanded for rehearing." The Department also states that certain affidavits are filed in support of said motion "which merely go to show that Elias Downing, through whom the rejected applicants claim, was in the Indian Territory late in the fall of 1866. It is claimed by Elias Downing that he came to the Cherokee Nation from Texas in 1866, and was there part of 1867, but the testimony is very unsatisfactory on that point. He admits, however, that he returned to Texas in 1866, where he married and remained for some length of time. The testimony for the nation shows that he was there as late as 1873 or 1874." The Department further states that it does not feel warranted in ordering the rehearing upon the showing made, and that on January 15, 1905, "it having before it two motions for review in the case filed by the same attorneys, of which you were informed on that date, said attorneys were advised that they would be allowed time to file motions for rehearings in this and numerous other Cherokee freedmen cases." All of said motions were denied by the Department.

On June 25, 1906, there was filed with this office by Starr and Patten, attorneys for applicants, a motion for a rehearing of said case insofar as the decision of the Commission is adverse to the applicants. There are filed in support of this motion, affidavits by the applicant, Elias Downing, Jennie Downing and Zeb Downing. There was received from said attorneys with their letter of July 20, a separate affidavit by the applicant, Elias Downing, which they requested be filed in support of the said motion, and with their letter of August 2, said attorneys transmitted an additional affidavit by Nelson Moore, which they also requested to be filed in support of said motion.

Said attorneys in their letter to this office of August 3, referring to Departmental letter of June 5, 1906, (I.T.D. 6249-1906), alleged to have been addressed to the applicant, Elias Downing, at Chelsea, Indian Territory, quote as follows: "You now allege that your father's name appears upon the 1880 Cherokee Roll. It no where appears in the record in the case that this is true. The Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes will inform you, upon proper application, if his name appears upon that roll . . . You should therefore take prompt action if you desire a rehearing in your case".

The attorneys request that with the transmittal to the Department of the motion, this office advise whether or not the name of Reuben Downing, father of said applicant Elias Downing, is identified upon the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

The Cherokee Nation protests against a rehearing being granted in this case, and its protest, the motion for a rehearing, and the affidavits above referred to, are enclosed herewith.

There is nothing to show that the evidence now sought to be introduced is newly discovered or that with due diligence it could not have been secured when the case was heard before the Commission. The statements contained in the motion and affidavits attached, when considered in connection with the original record in the case, fail to show that the motion is of merit and is not made for the purpose of delay.

Secretary--4.

In view of the provisions of the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906 (Public No. 129), relative to the return to the Cherokee Nation of Cherokee freedmen, it is respectfully recommended that the motion be denied.

The name of Reuben Downing, alleged father of Elias Downing, is identified upon the authenticated roll of 1880, page 243, No. 696, Delaware District, as an adopted colored citizen, aged 65 years, marked "dead."

Respectfully,

Encl. V. A. 24-4.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, LLB
WASHINGTON.

January 7, 1907.

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Wuskog e, Indian Territory.

Sir:

On October 4, 1906 (Land 75169), the Indian Office transmitted your report dated August 24, 1906, in the matter of a motion for rehearing in the Cherokee freedman enrollment case of Elias Downing et al.

The Cherokee Nation protests against a rehearing being granted in this case.

You consider that the motion is without merit and recommend that it be denied.

The Indian Office concurs in your recommendation. A copy of its letter is inclosed.

The Department has considered the motion for rehearing in connection with the record in the case. The evidence now sought to be introduced could apparently, by diligence, have been secured when the case was originally heard. It is not considered that sufficient reason is shown for a further hearing in the case, and said motion is hereby denied.

-2-

The papers in the case have been sent to the Indian Office for its files.

Respectfully,

Thos. Ryan,

First Assistant Secretary.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
Office Of Indian Affairs,
WASHINGTON.

October 4, 1906

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

Referring to Department letter of March 19, 1906, I.T.D. 8345-1905, granting the application for the enrollment of Mary E. and Mary L. Downing and rejecting the application for the enrollment of Elias Downing, Elizabeth, Flora, Rosether, and Arrileus Jones, and Johnson Downing, as Cherokee freedmen, there is enclosed a report from the Acting Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes relative to the subject.

The Department informed the Commissioner that in view of contemplated legislation the case as to the other claimants will be held a reasonable length of time to allow said attorneys to file a proper motion for rehearing.

The Acting Commissioner says that on November 21, 1905, the Department advised the Commissioner that there had been filed a motion for a review of the case of Elias Downing, et al, and that in Department letter of March 19 last it is said that:

If the Department finds the testimony insufficient to warrant the enrollment of the applicants, that the case be remanded for rehearing.

The Acting Commissioner reports that on June 25, 1906, there was filed in the office of the Commissioner by Starr & Patten, attorneys for the applicants, a motion for rehearing in the case so far as the decision of the Commission is adverse to the applicants; that there was filed in support of this motion affidavits by Elias, Jennie and Zeb Downing; that there was received from the attorneys on July 20, a separate affidavit made by Elias Downing which they requested be filed in support of the motion; and that their letter of August 2, the attorneys transmitted an additional affidavit by Nelson Moore which they also requested be filed in support of the motion.

These attorneys refer to Department letter of June 5, 1906, alleged to have been addressed to Elias Downing, and quote therefrom as follows:

You now allege that your father's name appears on the 1880 Cherokee roll. It nowhere appears in the record in the case that this is true. The Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes will inform you, upon proper application, if his name appears upon that roll . . . . . You should therefore take prompt action if you desire a rehearing in your case.

The Cherokee Nation protests against a rehearing being granted and the Acting Commissioner concludes his report by saying that the name of Reuben Downing, alleged father of Elias Downing, is identified on the authenticated roll of 1880, page 243, Delaware District, as an adopted colored citizen, age 65 years, marked "dead."

--3--

There is nothing in the papers enclosed which shows or has any tendency to show that the newly discovered evidence sought to be introduced could not, by due diligence, have been secured when the case was heard before the Commission, and it does not seem to have merit and it is probably made for the purpose and with the intention of delaying the final determination of the case. The denial of the motion is recommended.

Very respectfully,

C. F. Larrabee,

Acting Commissioner.

Dear Sir:

You are hereby advised that the motion filed by your attorneys, Starr & Patten, on June 25, 1906, for a rehearing in your Cherokee freedman enrollment case, was, on January 7, 1907, denied by the Secretary of the Interior.

Respectfully,

DIRECT.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

This office is in receipt of Departmental letter of January 7, 1907 (I.T.D. 2686-17856-1905, 19656-1906), acknowledging receipt of its report of August 24, 1906, transmitting a motion for rehearing in the Cherokee freedmen enrollment case of Elias Downing, et al., and denying said motion.

The decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes dated December 16, 1904, granting the application for the enrollment of Mary E. and Mary L. Downing as Cherokee freedmen, and rejecting the applications of Elias Downing and Elizabeth, Flora, Rosether and Arrilous Jones and Johnson Downing, as Cherokee freedmen, was affirmed by the Department, March 19, 1906 (I.T.D. 8523, 8345-1905), insofar as it enrolled Mary E. and Mary L. Downing. The Department in its letter of March 19, 1906, stated that certain motions for review and rehearing had been filed ; that " the motions are all denied ," and that "in view of contemplated legislation the case as to the other applicants will be held a reasonable length of time to allow said attorneys to file a proper motion for rehearing."

The motion transmitted by the Commissioner August 24, 1906, applies to all of the applicants in the case to whom the Commission's decision was adverse.

Although the Department makes no reference in its letter of January 7, 1907, as to whether it approves the Commission's decision adverse to said applicants, it is believed, in view of the Department's action in denying the motion transmitted August 24, 1906, to approve said decision.

In order that the case may be properly disposed of, it is respectfully recommended that the Department further consider the case and advise the Commissioner of action thereon as early as practicable.

Respectfully,

Sir:

The receipt is acknowledged of your communication of January 29, 1907, requesting certain information in regard to departmental action dated January 7, 1907, in the matter of a motion for rehearing in the Cherokee freedman case of Elias Downing et al.

You are informed that departmental letter of January 7, 1907, was intended to deny all applicants in the Cherokee freedman case of Elias Downing et al., except Mary E. and Mary L. Downing, heretofore enrolled.

You are now advised that your decision adverse to the applications of Elias Downing, Elizabeth, Flora, Rosetha, and Arrilous Jones, and Johnson Downing for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen is hereby affirmed.

Carbon copy hereof has been sent to the Indian Office.

 Q When you went south during the war, who did you come back with?

A I never went south.
Q Where had you been? A To Kansas.
Q Who did you come back to the Cherokee Nation with from Kansas? A With Tom Maity, my uncle.
Q How long did you stay on the Landrum place? A Three or four weeks.
Q Where did you go to from there? A To my uncle's, Simon Lyncke's.
Q How long did you stay there? A Three weeks.
Q Where did you go then? A To my old home place where I was raised on Blue Rider's.
Q How long did you stay on your old home place? A I didn't get there I started there and heard of all the old folks that I knowed was gone and so I come back.
Q Where did you go to when you started to your old home place?
A To Captain Jackson's and went to work.
Q How long did you work there for Captain Jackson's? A Something over a year, moved that mill from Fort Gibson to Chouteau and sawed lumber till the railroad came and then I went to work there.
Q Did you ever work for Simpson Bennett? A Yes sir.

Allen Lynch called and sworn by J. M. Breckinridge as a witness on the part of the applicant, testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A Allen Lynch.
Q How old are you? A 61.
Q What is your post office address? A Vinita.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A About 15 years.
Q Where were you during the war? A I was in the army.
Q When the war closed, where did you settle? A On Grand river.
Q How far from here? A 12 or 15 miles.
Q Right in the river bottom? A Yes sir; when I first came back I come to the east side of Grand river, and in the next spring I came to a little creek over here and staid until June and then went to Cabbin Creek.
Q When did you come to Cabbin creek? A In '86.
Q What part of Cabbin creek? A Close to Lewis Well's place.
Q Is that near the mouth of Cabbin creek? A No sir near the mouth of Mustang creek which runs in to the Cabbin.
Q How far from the mouth of Cabbin? A 5 or 6 miles.
Q What does Cabbin empty into? A Grand river.
Q How long did you stay there? A Until October of '89. A Yes sir.
Q Where did you go to then? A In six mile bottom of Grand river? A Yes sir.
Q How long did you stay there? A A month and then moved on the other side of the river.
Q Did you settle in the Grand river bottom? A Yes sir.
Q On the east side? A Yes sir.
Q How long did you stay there? A Until '87 or '88 I reckon.
Q Where did you go then? A I went to Allen Thompson's Mill.
Q Is that on Grand river? A On Brister.
Q On the east side of Grand river? A Yes sir.
Q How long did you stay there? A All that summer.
Q That brought you up to the last of 1889? A Yes sir.
Q When you went up on Cabbin creek, how far were you from what are called "the forks of Cabbin Creek"? A Cabbin creek--the forks of Cabbin Creek--there is Little Cabbin and Big Cabbin which forks down here a ways; Little Cabbin empties into Big Cabbin, are them the forks.
Q Tell how far were you from what is called as Cabbin Forks? A Five or six miles.

Q You were not living on Gabbin Forks, then? A No sir, I was living on the Forks of Gabbin and Mustang Creek.
 Q But you were not living on what is known as Gabbin Forks? A No sir.
 Q How far is Gabbin Forks from this place here? A Well the place where little Gabbin empties into Big Gabbin is about three miles from here, or so.
 Q How far from where you lived on Gabbin? A 7 or 8 miles.
 Q Do you know the applicant here? A Yes sir.
 Q Charles Martin? A Yes sir.
 Q How long have you known him? A Ever since we were boys.
 Q To whom did he belong at the time of the war? A Sarah Martin.
 Q Was she a Cherokee citizen? A Yes sir.
 Q He was a slave in the Cherokee Nation after the war broke out? A Yes sir.
 Q When did you first see him after the war closed? A At Lewis Roe's on Cannin Creek.
 Q In what year was that? A In '66.
 Q Where had he come from? A I don't know.
 Q But he was up there? A Yes sir, when I went there he was there.
 Q How far was that from your place? A Four and a half or five miles.
 Q Below you? A Yes sir, Lewis Roe was living on the old Landrum place on the old Military Road.
 Q And below you? A Yes sir.
 Q How far below you? A 4 or 5 miles.
 Q Was this man living there? A No sir, just stopping there.
 Q Who do you know of him from then until now? A I never saw him from then until he was working on that railroad.
 Q What was he doing on the railroad? A He told me he was making ties. I have seen him here ever since the Wallace Mill on Fryer Creek.

By Sale Starr:

Q How long did he stay at Lewis Roe's? A I don't know.
 Q What time of the year was it that you saw him there? A It was in October or September.
 Q Are you positive that it was in the year 1866? A I know it was in '66.

By the Commission:

Q Do you know this man's wife? A No sir.
 Q Have you ever seen her? A Yes sir I have seen her, I am not acquainted with her, though.
 Q You don't know her name? A No sir.
 Q Would you know it if you heard it? A I don't know if I would or not.
 Q Did he ever tell you where he had married? A No sir.
 Q Have you ever seen his children? A Yes sir I have seen them, I have seen his wife too, but cannot call her name.
 Q Is her name Eliza? A I cannot tell you to be positive.
 Q Have you ever heard of his marrying more than once? A No sir.

JOSE HARDRICK, called and sworn by Commissioner J. B. Breckinridge, as a witness, testified as follows on the part of the applicant:

Q What is your name? A Jose Hardrick.
 Q How old are you? A 71.
 Q What is your post office? A Chelsea.

 Q Do you know this applicant, Charles Martin? A Yes sir.

- Q Do you know his wife? A Yes sir
Q What is her name? A Eliza
Q How long have they been married as far as you know? A I cannot tell you
Q How long have you known her as his wife? A 10 or 12 years as near as I can come at it
Q They have got some children, and a lot of them? A Yes sir
Q Some of them are grown men and women? A Yes sir
Q Do they all pass for the children of this man and woman? A Yes sir
Q How long have you known this man? A Ever since he was a baby
Q Did you ever hear of his marrying before? A No sir
Q Did you ever hear of her being married before? A No sir have only known her as his wife
Q Are they living together now? A Yes sir they were when I left him
Q When was that? A That was last Monday

By Com'r Breckinridge:

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife and four children, and one grand child; he is identified on the Wallace and Kern-Clifton rolls but not on the roll of 1880 or the census roll of 1896; it appears that he was in the Cherokee Nation when the 1880 roll was made and that he was a slave in the Cherokee Nation and of a Cherokee citizen at the time of the breaking out of the Civil war, He seems to have married in the state of Texas.

By Commissioner of applicant:

- Q How many of your children were born in Texas besides Mary?
A One

where his deceased daughter Mary was born, and he worked for some years on a railroad plying through the Indian Territory and into the state of Texas.

By Commissioner of applicant:

- Q You worked on the ~~Indian~~ railway? A Yes sir

The applicant will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freed man on a doubtful card for the further consideration of his testimony, and attention is called particularly to the testimony given by Allen Lynch and by the applicant in regard to the applicant's identification in 1866; without tracing the matter at this time there may be considerable variation in the locations specified by the applicant and by Lynch. The applicant states that he was carried to Kansas during the war; it is shown by satisfactory personal testimony that the applicant and his wife were married some 27 years ago; they were married in the state of Texas; his wife is not identified on any roll, and the applicant was never previously married; he states that his wife was married once before her marriage to him, but that her former husband was dead at the time she married him; she will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman by intermarriage on a doubtful card for the further consideration of her case. Of the four children named in the testimony, Edna, James, Joe, and Jennie Martin, all children of this marriage and minors, they are living at this time; the oldest of this four children, is identified on the Kern-Clifton and Wallace rolls; the three younger children are identified on the Kerns-Clifton roll, and they will now all be listed for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen on a doubtful card. The grandchild, Pearl Martin, is a child of the applicant's deceased daughter Mary; the mother of this child was never married; the child is identified on the Kerns-Clifton roll with the applicant's family; it is there given as a girl and as 18 years of age, but as respects sex and age, it is evidence that this statement was made by clerical error as this is shown to be the only child of that name in this family, and this child is a boy. Pearl Martin will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman on a doubtful card. When the final decision of the Commission with reference to all of the persons now applied for will be made known to the applicant at his postoffice address.

Appearances:

W. W. Hastings, attorney for the Cherokee Nation.
L. T. Brown, agent, for the applicants.

W. R. LINDSEY, being first duly sworn by Commissioner T. B. Needles, testified as follows on the part of the Cherokee Nation.

( By Hastings )

Q What is your name? A R. W. Lindsey.

Q What is your age, Mr. Lindsey? A 69.

Q What is your post office address? A Chouteau.

Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.

Q By adoption? A Yes sir.

Q Did you live in the Cherokee Nation before the war? A Yes sir.

Q You married one of Colonel Joel Bryant's daughters? A Yes sir.

Q When did you return to the Cherokee Nation after the war? A Landed here on the 15th day of December 1867.

Q Do you know a colored man named Charles Martin, did you know him before the war? A Yes sir.

Q Who did he belong to? A Sarah Martin.

Q Have you ever seen him since the war? A Yes sir.

Q When did you see him after the war for the first time? A In the latter part of August '71.

Q Where? A At Chouteau.

Q What was he doing there then? A He was with the construction train laying the track and tied.

Q On what road? A This road, the M. K. & T.

Q Did you recognize him when you saw him? A Yes sir.

Q Did you have any talk with him then? A Yes sir.

Q Just tell the Commission, Mr. Lindsey, what the conversation was with reference to his return? A I had a general talk with him about how he was getting along, where he had been and the like; I asked him about others of his kin folks and acquaintances that I knew and he said he had been continuously with the construction train from some point way up in Kansas, I don't know that he said where, and that he had been with them a long time; and I asked him if he had never made him a home in the Cherokee Nation and he said he never had; and I asked him how he was getting along and he said he was getting along all right, that he had been working all the time and was making some money and saving some money and not spending any.

Q What became of him then? A He was back and forth with this train, I saw him several times in passing while they were at work there.

Q That was while this road was being built was it? A Yes sir, I saw him passing there after that but had no other conversations with him, I would speak to him in passing but that is all.

Q Did he say what point in Kansas he had come from? A I don't remember what point, I don't know that he said.

Q Do you know William R. Jackson, known as Captain Jackson? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know when he moved a saw mill up in that part of the country? A Yes sir.

Q When? A '71.

Q About the same time the road was built there? A Yes sir, they made Chouteau a terminus for about a month while they were building and afterwards they moved it to Gibson when they built on, and it was right after that that Captain Jackson put a saw mill on the crossing of Pryor's Creek.

( By L. T. Brown )

Q You say you asked him if he had ever made a home in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.

- Q Did you ask him where he was in '66? A No sir.
Q Have you continued to see him since '71? A No sir.
Q How long did you see him there that time? A On a few times.
Q Through how long a period of time? A Only a little while, week or two, maybe, from the when I first saw him, and I have not seen him since.
Q You say you saw a man named Jackson who was running a saw mill down there? A No sir, I didn't say he was running a saw mill.
Q What was he doing? A He was a farmer and cattle raiser.
Q Didn't he run a saw mill at one time? A Yes, but I never said he was, I said he had a saw mill there.
Q The first time you ~~heard~~ saw this applicant in the Cherokee Nation after the war was the only time you ever saw him? A Yes sir.
Q He never said during that conversation that he had never been in the Cherokee Nation before '71 did he? A No, he said that he had been with the Construction train from some point way up in Kansas.
Q When you asked him if he had never made him a home in the Cherokee Nation you meant if he had made a farm didn't you? A I asked him the question- - Yes, if he had come back to the Cherokee Nation and settled on a place.
Q You say you knew this man at the beginning of the war? A Yes sir.
Q Who was his owner? A Sarah Martin.
Q Was she a Cherokee citizen? A Yes sir.
( By the Commission )
Q Was he married or single when you saw him there? A Single

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
VINITA, I.T., OCTOBER 4th, 1901.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY in the matter of the enrollment of Charles Martin as a Cherokee freedman, introduced on part of the Cherokee Nation:

APPEARANCES:

Mr. L. T. Brown, Agent for Applicant;
Mr. W. W. Hastings, of counsel for Cherokee Nation:

R. K. ADAIR, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows, on part of Cherokee Nation:

MR. HASTINGS: What is your name? A R. K. Adair.

Q What is your post office? A Chelsea.

Q What is your age? A 46.

Q How long have you lived at Chelsea? A Well, that has been my post office since '82.

Q You know the applicant here, Charles Martin? A Yes, sir.

Q How long have you known him? A I have known him about 16 or 17 years.

Q Where did you first meet him? A I first met him on Pryor Creek at my place above Chelsea.

Q Was his family with him at that time? A Yes, sir.

Q You say his family was with him? A His family was there in the neighborhood, wasn't with him at the time I met him.

Q You say you met him on Pryor Creek near your place? A He came to my place the first time I ever saw him that I recollect of.

Q What year you think that was? A Best of my recollection it was in '85.

Q Do you know where he came from? A He said he come from Texas there, he had been to Texas with his family, and I think it was in January or February, I am not positive about the date, but somewhere along there.

Q Did you see his family when they moved in? A Yes, sir.

Q How did they come? A They come on the train to Vinita.
Got off at Catale.

Q Were you on the train with them? A Yes, sir, I was on the same train.

Q They said they come from Texas? A Yes, sir, I didn't talk to the family at the time but he told me afterwards that they come from Texas.

Q You had never seen his family before? A No.

Q That is the first you had seen of them out in your section of the country? A Yes, sir. Well, it was some little time, I don't know just how long, after his family got off there at Catale that he came up to my house himself; asked me if I didn't know him and I told him that I didn't know that I ~~say~~ had ever seen him and he said I ought to know him.

MR. BROWN: Where did you take the train at Mr. Adair, when you met him on the train? A I never met him on the train at all.

Q Now, didn't I understand you to say that you were on the same train with him? A With his family.

Q Where did you board the train at? A Here at Vinita.

Q And went from here to Catale? A Yes, sir.

Q In his conversation with you did he state how long he had been in Texas? A Yes.

Q What did he say? A I asked him why he hadn't come back sooner and he said that he had been back here before and left this country when the M. K. & T. went through, that he followed out there working on the grade or something of that kind.

Q He told you in that same conversation that he had been here before and left this country about the time the M. K. & T. Railroad came through? A Yes, sir.

Q You spoke something about his saying you ought to know him?
A Yes, sir.
Q Did he tell you why you ought to know him? A He didn't tell me why.
Q Didn't he go on and tell you who he was? A Well, told me who he was, but I don't remember him.
Q You don't know where he was in 1866? A No, sir.
Q Don't know where he was except that he had been to Texas and he also told you in that same conversation that he had been up in this country in 1873 when the M. K. & T. went through?
A He said he was up there, didn't say when he come, but said he went off working for that railroad or something to that effect.
MR. HASTINGS: Do you know when this M. K. & T. railroad was built through here? A Built in '71 I think.
Q This was about 1884 or '5? A '85 to the best of my recollection
Q You never saw him here in '71? A No, sir.
Q That was just his statement for that? A Just his statement.
Q Didn't tell you where he was married? A Said he was married in Texas.
Q Did he have some children along with him? A Yes, sir.
Q About how many do you think? A I think he had about three when he moved in there, I think he had four, one of them was a step-son.

LEMUEL PARRIS, being duly sworn by commissioner Needles, testified as follows: On Part of Cherokee Nation:

MR. HASTINGS: What is your name? A Lemuel Parris.
Q What is your age, Mr. Parris? A 52.
Q What is your post office? A Catala.
Q How far is Catala from Chelsea? A About five miles.
Q Do you know this applicant here, Charles Martin, around here?
A Yes, sir.
Q When was the first time you ever saw him? A Well, it was in '84 or '5, I won't be positive which year it was in.
Q Where were you living at the time? A About one mile from Catala.
Q How far does he live from you now? A About four mile I suppose.
Q Had you been living there before that? A Yes, sir.
Q He come in there at that time A Yes, sir.
Q You know where he come from? A Only he told me, he told me he was from Texas.
Q Did he have a family? A Yes, sir.
Q Wife? A Yes, sir.
Q Did he have some children? A Yes, sir.
Q About how many? A I don't know how many he had, I wasn't at his house at that time, until some time after that.
Q How long had you been living in that neighborhood before that?
A About five years.
Q Do you know how his family come? A Said he come on the train.
Q What year was that? A I didn't see them get off of the train.
MR. BROWN: Did they say what he had been doing down in Texas?
A He didn't at that time, I don't remember about him saying, I only had a short talk with him at that time.
Q Did you say that was about '84 or '5? A About '84 or '5.
Q Well, had you known anything of him prior to that time?
A No, sir.
Q First time you had ever seen him? A First time I had ever seen him to know him.
Q Was he been living in the neighborhood of Catala ever since you saw him in '84 or '5? A Yes, sir.
Q In the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q Was he a farm there? A Yes, sir.
Q All you know about him is that you met him for the first time in '84 or '5 and that he told you he come here from Texas?
A Yes, sir.

Supl.C.F.D.#317.--3.

MR. HASTINGS: You know his family came at that time?
Q I saw his family at another house down there, I didn't see his family the first time and he said-
Q you know when new comers come into your neighborhood don't you?
A Well, that was the first time I saw him.

Com'r Needles: This testimony will be filed in Freedmen doubtful cases #317, #244, and #729.

F. L. K. 1907

[illegible]

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I.T., April 25, 1902.

In the matter of the application of Charles Martin et al for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen.

SUPPLEMENTAL TO D-317.

Applicants represented by Lewis T. Brown.
Cherokee Nation represented by J. S. Davenport.

WILLIAM DRAKE, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

MR. DAVENPORT: What is your name? A William Drake.

Q Where do you live, Mr. Drake? A Lawrence, Kansas, Douglas County.

Q How long have you lived in Lawrence, Kansas? A About 34 or 35 years.

Q When did you first move to Lawrence, Kansas? A I came to Lawrence, Kansas, in '66 or '67.

Q After you moved to Lawrence, Kansas, did you get acquainted with a colored man by the name of Charles Martin? A Yes, sir.

Q How long after you moved to Lawrence, Kansas, was it before you got acquainted with him, or about how long? A I think it was that year that I came in, whichever year it was.

Q Do you know whether or not he had a family at that time? A I don't know whether he had a family or not.

Q Was there anything peculiar about him that makes you remember him? A Yes, sir.

Q What was that? A He had one hand off.

Q Did you ever work with Charles Martin on any works or anything, Mr. Drake? A Yes, sir.

Q What kind of works? A I worked with him on the railroad up there in Lawrence.

Q How long did you stay with or near Charles Martin after you got acquainted with him until he left that country? A Well, I don't know; I seen him around more or less for as much as three years after I got acquainted with him.

Q Well did he and you ever work—you say he worked on the railroad with you? A We worked on the railroad up there together, and I worked down in the southeast part of Missouri with him.

Q That was after you had worked with him up in Kansas? A In Kansas, yes, sir.

Q Now did you go to Lawrence, Kansas, before or after the close of the war? A After the close of the war.

Q And you knew him there for a while, and then worked with him in Kansas on the railroad, and then went down to southeast Missouri and worked with him there in what kind of work? A Was getting out ties there.

Q Now then where, if you know, did Charley Martin go after he left you up there? A I don't know where he did go to.

Q Have you ever seen him since? A No, sir, I have never seen him since.

Q As I understand you, from the time you got acquainted with him at Lawrence, Kansas, up till the time he left you down in Missouri where you was getting out ties it had been three or four years or something like that? A Yes, sir, from the time I first got acquainted with him.

MR. BROWN: For what railroad company were you working when you were working in southeast Missouri? A We wasn't really working for a railroad; but we worked for contractors getting out ties.

Q To be used in constructing what railroad? A I don't know what railroad it was, I don't know.

Q When you were working on the railroad in and near Lawrence, Kansas, on what road were you working? A Working on the U. P. Railroad then.

Q In what year did you go to Lawrence? A '86 or '87.

Q You are not positive which year it was? A No, sir.

Q Now are you positive as to when it was that you saw this man Charles Martin? A After I went to Lawrence you mean?

Q You don't know how long you had been there until you met him do you? A No, it hadn't been a great while though; hadn't been a great while till I met him.

Q In what time of the year did you go there? A I went there in March.

Q You wouldn't be willing to swear that Charley Martin wasn't in the Cherokee Nation in the fall of '86, would you? A Well, he might have been there, but I don't know; I know I got acquainted with him in Lawrence after I came there in '86 or '87.

Q But you are not positive as to what year you went there in, whether it was '86 or '87? A No, sir.

COMMISSION: This testimony will be filed with and made a part of the record in the following Cherokee Freedmen cases: D-244, D-729, and in D-317, the case at bar.

Arthur G. Croninger, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full the testimony and proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

SUPPLEMENTAL TO D-729.

Applicant represented by I. F. Bledsoe, Chouteau, I.T.
Cherokee Nation represented by J. S. Davenport.

GEORGE REDMON, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

MR. DAVENPORT: What's your name? A George Redmon.
Q Where do you live, Mr. Redmon? A Humboldt, Kansas.
Q How long have you lived in or near Humboldt, Kansas? A Lived in Humboldt ever since '66, about July, '66.
Q In fact you have lived there then about all your life? A Yes, sir.
Q What's your age? A 37; will be 37 in September.
Q Since you lived in or near Humboldt, Kansas, did you get acquainted with some colored people that went by the name of Graves?
A Yes, sir.
Q Do you know what the first names were? A Why I knew Charley Graves.
Q Well did he have a family? A Yes, sir; he had a family, wife and some two or three children while I knew him; I don't know how many more he had, but he had that many.
Q Do you know what his wife's name was? A Chaney, they called her.
Q Do you remember any of his children's names? A Eli and Ed; I remember those two.
Q Do you know whether or not they had any other children, of your own knowledge, that passed as their children? A Why I think they had; quite sure that they were theirs; he was feeding them, supporting them.
Q About when did you get acquainted with the Graves family; Mr. Redmon? A Why it must have been somewhere in '81 or '2, somewhere along there.
Q Where were you living at that time? A In Humboldt.
Q How long did they live there after you got acquainted with them?
A They must have been there ten years, I guess.
Q About what sized place is Humboldt? A Why I think about three thousand.
Q Do you know whether or not they kept house while they were there?
A Yes, sir; they kept house.
Q How far did they live from where you lived, Mr. Redmon? A Two blocks north.
Q About how often would you see them during the time you lived there or they lived there? A Why I would see them probably two or three times a day, every day, had to pass very close to their place going up to town.
MR. BLEDSOE: Are you positive that this woman's name was Chaney? A Well, no, I am not positive that it was; but that's the name she went by there.
Q You don't know then for certain that this woman that we are talking about to be that identical woman that you speak of? A Well, I am positive that it's Charley Graves' wife.

Q How long did you say you knew them to live there? A Why I knew them there about ten years.

Q You don't know in that time whether this Chaney ever came down to the Nation or not? A No, I don't.

Q To your own knowledge you just saw them occasionally as neighbors would see them? A Why, I would see them every day.

Q What was Graves doing there? A Why, he was a stone mason.

Q Working around by day's work and jobs around here and there wherever he could get work to do? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know whether this Chaney owned any property there in Kansas or not? A Well, between them they owned a house and a couple of lots.

Q You don't know whose property that was? A Well, they told me it was theirs; that it all I know about it; Charley told me it was his property.

Q Do you know where they went to from there? A No, I don't.

Q When did you first get acquainted with them there? A It must have been somewhere in '80 or '1 or '2, somewhere along there.

Q When did they leave from there to the best of your knowledge? A Why, to the best of my knowledge it's been twelve or thirteen years ago.

Q They came off from there; do you know what became of them? A No, I don't know what became of them.

Q You haven't seen them since? A I have seen Charley once since, and I see the boy very often, Ed.

Q None living up in there now? A Nobody but Ed.

Q You don't know where they were prior to that time, I suppose, prior to 1880? A No.

Q Where were they living when you first got acquainted with him? (No response)

MR. DAVENPORT: Why, did Ed live in there? A They were living there when I first knew them.

Q You said Ed, where does he live? A Living in Humboldt, working for his Uncle George.

Q What name does his Uncle go by? A Graves.

MR. BLEDSOE: He is just working there by day's work, I suppose and not just like any other man? A Learning a trade with him.

MR. DAVENPORT: Is he married, have a family? A No.

JOSHUA ROSS, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

MR. BLEDSOE: What is your name? A Joshua Ross.

Q How old are you? A 69.

Q Where do you live? A I live in Muskogee.

Q You are a Cherokee citizen by blood? A I am.

Q On all the rolls, I suppose, of the Cherokee Nation? A Well, I aint on the 1880 roll; I am on all of those rolls before and since then I think.

Q You have always been recognized as a Cherokee citizen? A Yes, sir.

Q Did your mother or any of your people own one Susie Ross? A No my mother was named Susie Ross.

Q Well, that is, Chaney Ross; your mother's name was Susie Ross? A Yes, sir.

Q Did she own Chaney Ross? A Yes, sir; she owned a woman by the name of Chaney Ross.

Q Did this Chaney Ross have any children? A Yes, sir; she had several children.

Q Did she have a girl named Chaney? A Yes, sir.
Q What ever became of that girl? A My brother, Richard Ross, brought her down here into the Creek Nation just about the breaking out of the war to nurse, he had one or two little girls, and he brought her over to nurse for him.
Q Your brother was a Cherokee citizen? A Yes, sir.
Q This Chaney was not sold to him? A No, sir.
Q Your mother just let him take her down here? A Yes, sir; that's my understanding.
Q That Chaney Ross, do you know her to be this Chaney Graves, the same identical person? A I do.
Q Do you know when she came back to the Cherokee Nation or whether she was here in '66 or not? A Well I remember of seeing her in '66, yes, sir.
Q Do you know whether she came back with Houston Rogers--
MR. DAVENPORT: I object to that, to putting a question in such a way as that.
MR. BLEDSOE: Do you know the date she came back to the Nation?
A Only by hearsay, but I can tell you where I saw her.
Q Never mind; that's all.
MR. DAVENPORT: How many times have you seen her, Mr. Ross, since the war? A I don't remember of having seen her but once in '66 and then several years ago.
Q Do you know what time in '66 it was in? A No, I don't know; I simply remember of it, that she was there.
Q Well, where has she been living the last twenty years? A I don't know anything about that. I claim that I can prove that she belonged to my mother and that she was never sold out of the country and that she was here in the Cherokee Nation in '66, and further than that I say not.
Q You don't know whether she was living here? A Well she was living here when I saw her.
Q Well, how long has it been since you have seen this identical Chaney Graves that you speak of? A It's been six or ten, well I think it was in '94 about that time when I saw her last, somewhere along there.
Q Where was she living then? A Said she was living up in Cooweescoowas District.
Q Well do you know of your own knowledge whether she was? A No, I said I don't know anything further than what I said.
Q Did you ever see her husband? A No, sir; not to know him.
Q Did you ever hear from either of them while they were living at Humboldt, Kansas? A No, sir.
Q Do you know of your own knowledge they did or did not live at Humboldt, Kansas? A No, I don't.
Q For a number of years? A No.
Q Where was Chaney and Charley Graves married, if you know?
A I don't know anything about that.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application of Chaney Graves, et al.
for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen, consolidating the applications
of

Chaney Graves, et al.,....	Cherokee Freedmen D 585
Eli Graves, et al.,.....	" " D 729
Mary Downing, et al.,....	" " D 590

D E C I S I O N .

The record herein shows that applications for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen were made to this Commission, by Chaney Graves for herself, her minor children, Harry, Nellie, Andy, Lillie, Fred, Martha and Georgia Graves, and subsequent to the date of her original application, an affidavit was filed with the Commission and made a part of the record herein showing the birth of Albert Minsy, minor grandson of Chaney Graves; by Eli Graves for himself and his minor child, Mabel Graves and by Mary Downing for herself and her minor child, Leegustus Downing. The testimony taken at various times in the matter of the application of Charles Martin, et al. is made a part of the record herein.

The evidence shows that the applicant, Chaney Graves, was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the rebellion; that she was taken out of the Cherokee Nation during the rebellion, but returned thereto within six months after July 19, 1866. All the other applicants herein were born since 1866 and are the descendants of said Chaney Graves.

The evidence further shows that said Chaney Graves has resided in the Cherokee Nation since the time of her return, as aforesaid; the other adult applicants have resided in said Nation all their lives and it is considered that the minor applicants herein have resided, since their birth, with their respective parents, through whom they claim.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Chaney Graves, Harry Graves, Nellie Graves, Andy Graves, Lillie Graves, Fred Graves, Martha Graves, Georgia Graves, Albert Minsy, Eli Graves, Mabel Graves, Mary Downing and Leegustus Downing should be enrolled as Cherokee Freedmen, in accordance with the provisions of section twenty-one of the act of Congress, approved June 28, 1896 (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY.

EDNA GRAVES, being duly sworn and examined by the Commission, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Edna Graves.
Q How old are you? A I am about 21.
Q What is your post office? A Chelsea.
Q You claim to be a Cherokee Freedman? A Yes sir.
Q Have you married since you applied for enrollment? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of your husband? A Eli Graves.
Q Is he a Cherokee Freedman? A Yes sir.
Q When were you and he married? A I don't know exactly when we did marry, been married about five years.
Q How old were you when you married? A I was 14.
Q Do you remember the year it was in? A No sir I don't. My father enrolled me. I was married when he enrolled me.
Q He applied for enrollment for you under the name of Martin, - your names was Graves though? A Yes sir.
Q You married then along about the year 1898, that would be about six years ago. Were you about fourteen then? A Somewhere along in there.
Q Are you and Eli Graves living together now? A No sir.
Q When did you and he separate? A Been separated going on two years.
Q Have you married since you separated? A No sir.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Charles Martin et al. as Cherokee Freedmen.
-----

A P P E A R A N C E S:

The Cherokee Nation present, represented by Bell,
Hastings & Davenport.

The applicant telephoned, by long distance telephone, on March 8, 1905 and stated that he was unable to appear on account of high waters, and asked to have an opportunity to present some testimony in a few days. Under the circumstances, he was allowed, if he so desired, to introduce such testimony as he may desire on March 13, 1905.

The Cherokee Nation, by its attorneys, stated that it has some witnesses to introduce now.

-----
Peter Jenkins, being duly sworn, testified as follows on behalf of the Cherokee Nation.

Commission:

- Q. What is your name? A. Peter Jenkins.
Q. What is your post office address? A. Lawrence, Douglas County, Kansas.

Mr. Hastings:

- Q. How old are you? A. 81.
Q. You live in Lawrence Kansas? A. Yes sir.
Q. Where were you born? A. In Virginia.
Q. When did you come to Kansas? A. I come to Lawrence, Kansas in '63.--the next fall after Quannah's Raid.
Q. You have lived there ever since? A. Yes sir.
Q. Were you living there the first few years after the war? A.
Yes sir, I have been there ever since I come.
Q. Do you know a colored man by the name of Charles Martin? A.
Yes sir, I used to be pretty well acquainted with him.
Q. Do you know whether he claimed to be from the Cherokee Nation or not? A. That is where he told me he was from.
Q. Was there anything the matter with him---with either of his hands? A. I think his right hand was off about the wrist.
I am not sure whether it was his right hand or not, but it was one of them.
Q. When did you get acquainted with him? A. I got acquainted with him about --- as near as I can tell the truth about it--
in '66.

- Q. What time in '66? A. January.
- Q. How did you become acquainted with him? A. I took a contract to make forty thousand rails for a man by the name of Cal Eaton, and it was a little more of a job than I could do, and I wanted some help. There was a man there that recommended me to Charles Martin, who he said was a good rail splitter. I sent for him to come down, and he come and worked for me. When he come I told him I wanted him to work for me for two or three days, and after that I told him I would give him half of the contract.
- Q. How long did you work together? A. From January until the last of March.
- Q. Did you continue to know him after that? A. Yes sir, for three or four years.
- Q. Did you see him frequently? A. Yes sir.
- Q. He worked around there, did he? A. Yes sir. He farmed around there and worked on the railroad for, anyhow, four years.
- Q. Do you know how he come away from there, or what he was doing? A. Well, as far as I can understand about that-- he told me he was going to go on the railroad-- that there was a railroad coming south, and that he was going to come south on that road.
- Q. Did you ever see Spencer Martin, or Bell? A. They were brothers.
- Q. Did he live there too? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Did he live on a farm or in town? A. He lived on a farm a while, and when he left the farm he went into town.
- Q. How long did you know him? A. I got acquainted with him about the same time I did Charles.
- Q. How long did you know Spencer? A. I guess 10 or 12 years.
- Q. Did he have a family? A. Yes sir, his wife died.
- Q. Did you continue to know him? A. I knew him for 8 or 10 years after that. He lived around Lawrence and Ossawatimie and back at Lawrence until he about died.
- Q. Did he ever tell you that he had been to the Nation? A. I think he told me that he come to the Nation once.
- Q. Did you know any of his family? A. Yes sir, I knowed his boy, Rex, and I knowed his daughter Mariah and I knowed his daughter Tildy.
- Q. Were they living up there with him? A. Yes sir.
- Q. You think that you knew Charles Martin as much as four years after the war? A. I am certain of that.
- Q. Was he a good railsplitter, notwithstanding he had lost one hand? A. He was a better railsplitter than them what had two hands. None of the men with two hands could come up with him. If the rest of them got 175 rails a day they did well, but Charles got his 250 every day.
- Q. You have lived at Lawrence ever since? A. I lived on the farm one year, but I moved to town in August after that rail splitting, and I have been in the town ever since.

COMMISSION.

- Q. Did Charles Martin ever work for the M. K. & T. railroad? A. I don't know what road it was, but he said he wanted to get on the road that come down into Texas.
- Q. How did he get away from there? A. He went to work on the road, and worked on down as the road come south.
- Q. Where did you first get acquainted with Charles Martin? A. In Douglas County, Kansas.

- Q. You think that was in '66? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Was the railroad running through there then? A. This one wasn't, but the U.P. was.
- Q. Did he work on the U.P. road? A. He worked, off and on, on that road for two or three years.
- Q. When he started to go south did he go by train? A. No sir.
- Q. How did he go? A. He took some teams. The railroad contractor had hired some teams.
- Q. Do you know when the M. K. & T. was built? A. I don't know that.
- Q. Does it run through Douglas County Kansas? A. I don't know, but I don't think it do.
- Q. You knew him for how long? A. I knowed him, anyhow, for four years.
- Q. Four years continuously? A. Yes sir.
- Q. For four years you kept track of him? A. Yes sir.
- Q. During those four years he always lived in Douglas County, Kansas? A. Yes sir.
- Q. How was his hand cut off? A. Just below the wrist.
- Q. When was it cut off? A. I don't know. It was cut off when I first knew him.

WITNESS EXCUSED.

William Jackson, being duly sworn, testified as follows on behalf of the Cherokee Nation:

COMMISSION:

- Q. Your name is? A. William Jackson?
- Q. What is your post office address? A. Wagoner.

MR. HASTINGS:

- Q. What is your age, Captain? A. 70 years old.
- Q. You are a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by adoption? A. Yes sir.
- Q. You are also known as Captain Jackson throughout the country? A. Yes sir.
- Q. When did you come to the Cherokee Nation after the war? A. In the summer of '69.
- Q. Did you have ---own a saw mill after you came back up near your place near Wagoner? A. Yes sir.
- Q. You lived over on Grand River near Wagoner? A. Yes sir.
- Q. There was no wagoner there then? A. No sir.
- Q. Where did you come from in '69? A. Texas.
- Q. When did you have that saw mill over on Grand River? A. It was in the winter of '71 I think I moved it there. --- I think I bought the mill in '71 and moved it on Pryor Creek, and in the winter of '72 I moved it on Grand River.
- Q. Did you own a saw mill prior to that time? A. No sir.
- Q. But you did own one then? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Did you know any other William Jackson in the neighborhood who had owned one prior to that time? A. No sir. There was no other William Jackson in the neighborhood.
- Q. Do you know a colored man who claims to have worked for you, he says it was in '66, by the name of Charles Martin, and to help you remember him, he just had one hand? A. Yes sir, I think a onehanded nigger by that name worked for me. It was so long ago that I do not have any special recollection of him. Since I have heard you talking, I remember the man, a onehanded nigger.

- Q. Did he work for you prior to '71? A. No sir.
Q. He could not have worked for you in '66 or '67? A. I was not living here in '66 or '67. I was in Texas.
Q. If he testifies that he came down here in '66 and in about two or three months time went to work for you, that could not have been true? A. No sir.

COMMISSION:

- Q. When did you first come to the Cherokee Nation? A. In '62
Q. How long did you stay then? A. Until the war.
Q. How many years? I was in the army at that time.
Q. Did you have a home in the Cherokee Nation between '62 and '66? A. I never had a home in the Cherokee Nation until '69. I never lived here until then? I was back and forth from here to Texas.
Q. If this Charles Martin ever worked for you at all, it must have been after '69? A. Yes sir.
Q. You are positive of that? A. Yes sir.
Q. Was the railroad running through here when you first came? A. No sir, I shipped the saw mill to Pryor Creek on board the first train. Afterwards, I moved it down to Gibson Station, and they were building a railroad there at that time.

WITNESS EXCUSED.

On March 15, 1905, Charles Martin introduced some testimony in this case.

Charles Martin, being duly sworn, testified as follows on his own behalf:

COMMISSION:

- Q. What is your name? A. Charles Martin.
Q. Are you a Cherokee Freedman? A. Yes sir.
Q. Have you a grandchild called Pearl Martin? A. Yes sir.
Q. Who was the father of Pearl Martin? A. I do not know, sir, I couldn't tell.
Q. Is Pearl a boy? A. Yes sir.
Q. Who is the mother of Pearl? A. My daughter, Mary.
Q. Where was this child born? A. On Pryor Creek, at my house.
Q. Has he always lived in the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes sir.
Q. Where was his mother born? A. In Texas.
Q. When did she come back to the Cherokee Nation? A. I brought her back, myself.
Q. When was that? A. It was along when I was making ties on the railroad. I don't know just when it was.
Q. Was Mary Martin born after the war? A. Yes sir, quite a while after the war.
Q. How soon after the war did you commence to work for the railroad? A. I commenced working directly after Mr. Hooley Bell had his contract up on Timbered Hill---about a year after I am talking about the time you worked for the railroad--how long did you work for the railroad? A. About 5 years, I guess.
Q. Where were you working? A. All the way from here to Red River.
Q. Did you keep your home in the Cherokee Nation during that time

- A. Yes sir, I had no other home.
- Q. This boy, this grandson of yours, Pearl Martin, does not claim any right except through his mother? A. No sir.
- Q. He claims none through his father? A. No sir.
- Q. Are Edna, James, Joe, and Jennie living today? A. Yes sir.
- Q. In the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes sir.

MR. HASTINGS:

- Q. When you were working on the railroad you claimed the Cherokee Nation as your home, but you didn't really have any home, did you? A. No sir, I wasn't married.
- Q. Where were you married? A. I was married in Texas, and after I quit working on the railroad I come back to the Nation.

COMMISSION:

- Q. Did you work for Peter Jenkins, about the close of the war, in Kansas? A. I don't know Peter Jenkins.
- Q. Did you do any railsplitting in Kansas about '66? A. I never split a rail in Kansas in my life.

MR. HASTINGS:

- Q. You come down as this M. K. & T. was being built? A. No sir I never got on the railroad till I got on it at Timbered Hill.
- Q. You knew Peter Jenkins? A. I don't think I knew him.
- Q. You know Capt. Jackson? A. Yes sir, he had a saw mill.
- Q. You said you worked for him in a short time after coming down here? A. I didn't say it was a short time.
- Q. How long had you been here? A. I had been here probably two or three years. This road had not got to Capt. Jackson's.
- Q. How long had you been here when you worked for him? A. It must have been 2 or 3 years.
- Q. You testified before that you worked for him within 2 or 3 months from the time you came here. Where did you first come to when you come to the Cherokee Nation? A. I come to Charley Lamb's old place, at the mouth of Cabin.
- Q. How long did you stay there? A. I may have stayed there a week or two or such a matter.
- Q. Then where did you go? A. To old man Simon Lynch's.
- Q. How long did you stay there? A. I was around about there for a month, I guess.
- Q. Then where did you go? A. I started down to my old home place, and I went over to Uncle Billy Ross'. He lived on Pryor Creek.
- Q. How long did you stay there? A. I may have stayed there 2 or 3 months, I don't know exactly.
- Q. Do you know? A. I don't exactly know, but I can tell you as near as I know.
- Q. Then where did you go? A. I come on down and was at a colored man's house by the name of Charles Burges.
- Q. How long did you stay there? A. I don't know. I didn't try to keep an account of it.
- Q. About how long? A. It might have been a month or a month and a half.
- Q. What were you doing? A. I just worked around. There was nothing much to do. There wasn't a man in the country that had a dollar to pay for work.
- Q. Where did you go from Burges'? A. Down close to Bryant's place to the salt works.
- Q. Who did you work for? A. I didn't work.

- Q. How long did you stay here without working? A. I did work. Whenever I could strike a man that wanted a fence put up or any rails split, I did it, but there was not much to do. I would work for any one for what I got to eat.
- Q. Where did you first see Crap Lynch? A. At Simon Lynch's.
- Q. When did you first see him? A. In May, in '66 was when I saw Crap.
- Q. Then you never saw him any more for how long? A. I saw him for quite a while--as long as I knocked around there, then I saw him when the road come through.
- Q. You never saw him from May, '66 until the road come through? A. I do not know that I saw him any oftener.
- Q. Who did you work for over at the salt works? A. I didn't work. I stayed at old man Burges.
- Q. Where did you go from there? A. I went around, I can't tell you just where all I did go.
- Q. You have got 5 or 6 years in there that I want you to account for. A. I will if I can.
- Q. Why did you swear, when you were on the stand before, that in 2 or 3 months after you came here you went to work for Capt. Jackson? A. The reason I told you that was because you asked me who I worked for, and I told you Capt. Jackson and some other man.
- Q. Where did you go from the salt works? A. Up to Billy Ross' and around in there?
- Q. You haven't anybody who saw you during that time? A. There are lots of people that saw me. There is a man at Chelsea that knew me at that time.
- Q. You never brought him or anybody else before the Commission? A. I couldn't bring him for he wanted more money for it than I had.
- Q. The Commission was at Chelsea, why didn't you have him then?
- Q. Where did you commence working on the railroad? A. Up here at Timbered Hill.
- Q. That is near the Kansas line? A. Yes sir.
- Q. You worked on down? A. Yes sir, to Red River.
- Q. What kin are you to Spencer Martin, or Bell? A. He is a half brother of mine.
- Q. Where did he live just about the time of the close of the war? A. I don't know where that fellow was at all.
- Q. Didn't he live in Leavenworth, Kansas? A. I don't know. I lived at Lawrence, but I don't know whether he was at Leavenworth or not.
- Q. I am mistaken about the place-- I meant Lawrence. Did Spencer Bell live at Lawrence? A. Not that I know of. When they caught my boss and a crowd of us taking off a herd of cattle, a man named Capt. Barber took me to take care of his horses. He sent the rest to Lawrence and he sent me to his farm, about 9 miles out.
- Q. That is where you made the rails? A. No sir.
- Q. You are a rail maker and a tie maker are you not? A. I learned tie making down here.
- Q. You are a good hand with the ax? A. I have always made rails for my boss.

WITNESS EXCUSED.

Anderson Lynce, being duly sworn, testified as follows on behalf of the applicant.

COMMISSION:

- Q. What is your name? A. Anderson Lynch.

- Q. Have you testified in this case before? A. Not as I know of.
- Q. How old are you? A. About 60 or 70.
- Q. What is your post office? A. Ketchum.
- Q. Cherokee Nation? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Are you any relation to Allen Lynch? A. No sir, we were just raised up together.
- Q. Do you know Charles Martin, the applicant in this case? A. Yes sir.
- Q. How long have you known him? A. Ever since he was a little boy.
- Q. Where did you first get acquainted with him? A. We all belonged to the same family of people.
- Q. What were their names? A. Martins.
- Q. By which Martin was you owned? A. I was a Lynch, but the Lynchs and Martins were mixed up somehow on account of the women.
- Q. You mean the Martins and Lynchs were related? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Are you an applicant before the Commission? A. Yes sir.
- Q. As a Freedman? Yes sir.
- Q. Has your case been decided yet? A. I guess so.
- Q. Are you on the final roll? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Now, I will take you back to directly after the war. How soon after the end of the war did you see Charles Martin? A. It was along in June, down to Simon Lynch's. I just happened to see him and talked with him.
- Q. What year was that? A. In the spring.
- Q. What year? A. '66 I think.
- Q. You think it was in the spring of '66? A. I don't think it for I know it.
- Q. How do you remember so distinctly that it was '66? A. It was the time everybody was trying to get home.
- Q. What were you doing? A. I was farming up on the creek.
- Q. What was he doing? A. He had just come there and was helping Simon straighten some fence.
- Q. He was just walking back and you met him? A. I don't know about that.
- Q. How long had he been there? A. He was straightening up a fence there when I saw him.
- Q. He was staying at Simon Lynch's? A. He might have stayed all night.
- Q. You happened to go by there and saw him? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Did you talk with him at that time? A. I shook hands with him and knowed him and he told me what troubles he had had, and I don't know where he went after that.
- Q. You had a short talk with him and went your way and left him there? A. Yes sir.
- Q. How soon after that did you see him again? A. I don't know I just could hear of him around. I never seed him no more for I don't know how many years it had been.
- Q. Quite a few years? A. Yes sir, longer than that, I guess.
- Q. After that how often did you see him? A. I don't know. I They had a doing out on GooseNeck Bend, and I saw him there.
- Q. From '66 up to the present time have you seen him often? A. No sir.
- Q. About how many times altogether have you seen him since '66? A. Two or three times.
- Q. He doesn't live in your neighborhood? A. No sir.
- Q. About how far does he live from you? A. About 30 miles I reckon.
- Q. You never went visiting to his house, and he never visited you? A. No sir, I never was at his house.
- Q. Were you out during the war? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Where did you go? A. To Fort Scott.

- Q. How soon after you came back did you see Charles Martin? A. About three years after I came back.
- Q. You are sure that you had been back three years before you saw him? A. It might have been longer, as I never kept track.
- Q. Do you know what year you came back? A. Yes sir.
- Q. What year? A. I come in '65.
- Q. But it was two or three years after that when you saw Charles Martin? A. It might have been two years. I don't know.

Mr. Hastings:

- Q. What year is this? A. I don't know exactly.
- Q. You do not know much about years? A. No sir, only as I am told.
- Q. They sometimes call you Crap Lynch? A. Yes sir, sometimes.
- Q. You do not know one year from another, do you, Crap? A. When they look at an almanac and tell me, I know.
- Q. Are you married? A. No sir.
- Q. Have you ever been married? A. Oh, yes sir, I has been married.
- Q. Do you know what year you were married? A. No sir, that is too far for me.
- Q. Have you any children? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Do you know what year the first one was born? A. I have it in a bible at home when all of them were born, but I can't tell you now.
- Q. This man, when you saw him, told you that he was from Lawrence Kansas didn't he? A. I don't know where he come from.
- Q. You said you talked to him and he told you where he was from? A. I don't think he told me just where he was from. He was talking about what a hard time he had had.
- Q. Where was his wife at that time? A. He didn't have any.
- Q. You never saw him after that for how many years? A. It must have been 5 or 6 years before I saw him again. I could hear of him around in the country.
- Q. You want to put in a lot of hearsay testimony that I am going to keep out if I can. I want to know if you saw him? A. It was a good while after.
- Q. You have been a witness in a good many of these Freedman cases A. In several of the cases that I had knowed and seed.
- Q. They always gave you something to testify for them? A. They always paid my board and expenses to testify for them.
- Q. They would usually give you something else too, wouldn't they? A. Sometimes they would throw me a dollar or two to keep me up awhile, because they knowed I had seed them, and they needed witnesses.
- Q. You never saw this Charles Martin at Simon Lynch's but the one time for 5 or 6 years? A. Just once is all I saw him.
- Q. That was two or three years after you came back after the war? A. Yes sir.

COMMISSION:

- Q. At the time you saw Charles Martin at Simon Lynch's how far were you living from Simon Lynch's? A. It must have been about 7 miles.
- Q. How often did you go by the house of Simon Lynch? A. I don't know just exactly. Sometimes we would go over to see how one another was getting along.
- Q. How often did you use to pass Simon Lynch's house? A. I - don't know. I spect maybe it would be a year or six months before I would pass it again.

- Q. Is your wife a state woman? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Does she claim any right in the Cherokee Nation? A. No sir.
- Q. What right the children have they claim through you? A. Yes sir.

WITNESS EXCUSED.

Charles Martin recalled.

COMMISSION:

- Q. Do you know where Douglas County, Kansas is? A. I don't know as I do.
- Q. Were you ever in Douglas County, Kansas? A. Not as I know of.
- Q. Did you ever live in Douglas County, Kansas? A. Not as I know of.
- Q. Do you know a place called Lawrence Kansas? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Did you ever live there? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Did you meet a colored man by the name of Peter Jenkins up there? A. I don't know him if I did.
- Q. Along about '66 or '67 did you split rails for anybody up there? A. I never split a rail in Kansas.
- Q. On the line then, near there? A. I never split a rail for anybody in Kansas.
- Q. You are sure about that? A. Yes sir.
- Q. You are a pretty good railsplitter, aren't you? A. Yes sir I have been all my life.
- Q. How many rails could you split in a day? A. I guess 200 or 125.
- Q. Do you want to swear positively that you never split rails for Peter Jenkins? A. I do, sir.

VR. HASTINGS:

- Q. But you were at Lawrence Kansas? A. Yes sir.
- Q. You are a good rail splitter? A. Pretty fair.
- Q. You did have a brother by the name of Spencer Bell--sometimes called Martin? A. Yes sir.
- Q. He lived at Lawrence Kansas? A. I don't know where he was. He run off, and I don't know where he lived.
- Q. He did live in Kansas? A. He lived up there somewhere.

- COMMISSION? A. Have you any more testimony to offer in this case? A. I haven't got it here.
- Q. Do you want to bring any more here, or do you want the Commission to decide the case on the evidence as now filed? A. I will be satisfied.

WITNESS EXCUSED.

The Cherokee Nation submits the case, and the decision will be written upon the record as now made up.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Charles Martin et al., as Cherokee freedmen, consolidating the applications of:

Charles Martin et al.,
Ella Martin,

Cherokee Freedman D 317
Cherokee Freedman D 244

D E C I S I O N.

THE RECORD IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That applications for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen were made to this Commission by Charles Martin for himself and wife, Eliza Martin ( by intermarriage ), and minor children, Edna, James, Joe and Jennie Martin, and his minor grandchild, Pearl Martin; and by Ella Martin for herself. The application for the enrollment of Eliza Martin as a citizen by intermarriage, of the Cherokee Nation, has been heretofore disposed of, consequently, her rights to enrollment will not be considered in this decision.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the principal applicant, Charles Martin, claims the right to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman by virtue of his compliance with the treaty stipulations of 1866, and that the other applicants herein claim the right to enrollment as descendants of the said Charles Martin.

CHARLES MARTIN appeared before the Commission at Vinita, Indian Territory, on May 16, 1901, and in support of his application for enrollment, testified as follows: I am fifty-eight or fifty-nine years old, and when the war broke out I was the slave of Sarah Martin, the widow of Price Martin, deceased, who was a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation. I have lived in the Cherokee Nation all my life except when I was in Kansas during the war. I returned from Kansas to the Cherokee Nation in the spring of 1866, and stayed in said Nation until '73 or '74, when I went to work for the M. K. & T. railroad in the Chickasaw Nation and remained with it for some three or four or five years, until they built into Texas, when I returned to the Cherokee Nation and commenced farming, and have been farming here ever since. I married Eliza Watson, a state raised woman, when with the railroad in Texas, and she is the mother of all my children. My oldest child, Mary, deceased, was born in Texas, and if living, would be about twenty-six years old now. She was the mother of the minor applicant, Pearl Martin. My daughter Mina ( 18 years old in 1901 ), was born on the railroad at Boggy Depot, Chickasaw Nation, and all my other children were born in the Cherokee Nation. I came from Kansas to the Cherokee Nation ( after the rebellion ) with my uncle, Tom Waity, stayed on the Landrum place three or four weeks, then went to my uncle Simon Lynch's place and stayed there three weeks, and then started for Blue Rider's, our old home place, where I was raised, but did not get there. Went to Captain Jackson's place instead, and worked for him something over a year; helped move his saw mill from Fort Gibson to Chouteau, and sawed lumber until the railroad came and then I went to work for it.

ALLEN LYNCH, on behalf of the applicants, at Vinita, Indian Territory, on May 16, 1901, testified as follows: I am sixty-one years old, and have lived in the Cherokee Nation all my life; I have known the applicant, Charles Martin, ever since we were boys. At the commencement of the rebellion he was the slave of Sarah Martin, a Cherokee citizen. I first saw him in the Cherokee Nation after the war, in 1866, on the old Charles Landrum place on Cabin Creek. Never saw him again until he was working on the railroad, but have seen him on Pryor creek ever since the Wallace roll was made.

ELIZA MARTIN appeared before the Commission at Vinita, Indian Territory, on May 16, 1901, and in support of her application for enrollment, testified as follows: I am twenty-two years old and am the daughter of Charles Martin ( principal applicant herein ) and Eliza Martin ( a non-citizen of the Cherokee Nation ), and have lived in the Cherokee Nation all my life.

W. M. BIRDSEY appears before the Commission at Vinita, Indian Territory, on October 4, 1901, and on behalf of the Cherokee Nation, testified as follows: I am sixty-nine years old, live at Chouteau, Cherokee Nation, and am a Cherokee citizen by adoption. I landed in the Cherokee Nation, after the rebellion, on December 15, 1867. I have known the applicant, Charles Martin, since before the war; he was the slave of Sarah Martin, a Cherokee citizen; I first saw him after the rebellion, at Chouteau, Cherokee Nation, in the latter part of August, 1871, he was then with a construction train laying track on the F. & T. railroad. He told me that he had been with the train continuously from some point in Kansas, and that he had been with them a long time. He told me also that he had not made a home in the Cherokee Nation. I saw him several times after that as the train was passing, but had no further conversation with him. I know Captain Jackson, he moved his saw mill to that part of the country in 1871, and located it at the ( railroad ) crossing on Pryor creek. I have never seen the applicant in the Cherokee Nation since 1871.

R. K. ADAIR, appeared before the Commission at Vinita, Indian Territory, on October 4, 1901, and on behalf of the Cherokee Nation, testified as follows: I am forty-six years old, and have lived near Chelsea, Cherokee Nation, since '82. I have known the applicant, Charles Martin, about sixteen or seventeen years; first saw him at my place on Pryor creek about January or February, 1885. He told me that he had just come, with his family, from Texas. I had seen the applicant's family, a short time before, on the train between Vinita and Catala, and saw them get off at the latter place. Applicant also told me that he had been in the Cherokee Nation before, but had gone through to Texas with the M. & T. railroad, and that he had married in Texas. I believe there were three children of his own and one step-son, in his family when he moved to my neighborhood in 1885.

LEWEL PARRIS, appeared before the Commission at Vinita, Indian Territory, on October 4, 1901, and on behalf of the Cherokee Nation, testified as follows: I am fifty-two years old, and have been living near Catala, Cherokee Nation, since 1880. I have known the applicant, Charles Martin, since about '84 or '85, when he and his family moved into my neighborhood. He told me that he was from Texas.

WILLIAM DRAKE appeared before the Commission on April 25, 1902, and on behalf of the Cherokee Nation, testified as follows: I live at Lawrence, Douglas County, Kansas, and have lived there since March 1866 or 1867; shortly after moving to Lawrence I became acquainted with one Charles Martin; I remember him in particular by reason of the fact that he had one hand off. I worked with him on the railroad at Lawrence, and afterwards at the same kind of work in south-east Missouri. The time during which I knew and worked with Charles Martin in Kansas and Missouri covered a period of three or four years. I cannot swear positively that Charles Martin was not in the Cherokee Nation during the fall of 1866.

ANNA GRAVES, nee Martin, appeared before the Commission at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on July 20, 1904, and testified as follows: I am about twenty-one years old, and am the wife of Eli Graves, and was married to him before my father made application to the Commission for my enrollment as a Cherokee freedman.

WILLIAM JENNINGS, appeared before the Commission at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on March 9, 1905, and on behalf of the Cherokee Nation, testified as follows: I am eighty-one years old, and have lived at Lawrence, Douglas County, Kansas, ever since 1866. I was acquainted with one Charles Martin, a colored man who had one hand off at the wrist, first became acquainted with him about January, 1866, at Lawrence, Kansas. He told me that he was from the Cherokee Nation. We worked together splitting rails from January, 1866, until the end of the same year. I saw him around Lawrence, Kansas, frequently, for three or four years after that, during which time he farmed and worked on the Union Pacific railroad. When he left there he told me that he was going to work on a railroad that was building south into Texas. Charles Martin was a brother of one Spencer Martin, or Bell, and I became acquainted with these two men about the same time. I am certain that Charles Martin lived at Lawrence, Kansas, continuously for at least four years after the war. He left Lawrence, Kansas, with a railroad contractor.

WILLIAM JACKSON appeared before the Commission at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on March 9, 1905, and on behalf of the Cherokee Nation, testified as follows: I am seventy years old, am a citizen by adoption of the Cherokee Nation, and am known throughout the country as Captain Jackson. After the war I came from Texas to the Cherokee Nation in the summer of 1869; I bought a saw mill in 1871 and shipped it to Pryor Creek, on the F. & T. railroad, and later moved it to Gibson Station. I believe I remember Charles Martin, a one handed negro who at one time was in my employ, but am positive he did not work for me prior to the year 1871.

CHARLES S. MARTIN, principal applicant herein, appeared before the Commission at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on March 15, 1905, and in support of his application further testified as follows: Pearl Martin is the illegitimate child of my deceased daughter, Mary, I do not know who his father was. I worked about five years for the F. & T., getting out ties from here to Red River. When I was working for the railroad I claimed the Cherokee Nation as my home, but really had no home until after I was married. I never worked for Peter Jenkins in Kansas after the rebellion, and never split a rail in Kansas in my life. I do not believe I know Peter Jenkins. I did not come down on the F. & T. railroad as it was being built, but first went to work for it at Timbers Mill (Cherokee Nation). I now Captain Jackson. He owned a saw mill. I did not say I went to work for him two or three months after I came back to the Cherokee Nation in 1866; it must have been two or three years afterwards. I first saw Crap Lynch at Gibson Lynch's place in May, 1866. I am a half-brother of Spencer Martin, or Bell. I was living at Lawrence, Kansas, at the close of the rebellion. I am a good mill and tie maker and always made mill ties before.

ANDREW L. LYNCH appeared before the Commission at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on March 15, 1905, and on behalf of the applicant testified as follows: I am about sixty or seventy years old, and am sometimes known as Crap Lynch. I have known the applicant, Charles Martin, ever since he was a little boy; we all belonged to the same family. I first saw the applicant in the Cherokee Nation, after the war, at Gibson Lynch's in June, 1866. I knew it was in the spring of '66 because everybody was trying to get home. I have seen the applicant but two or three times since then. I was at Fort Scott, Kansas, during the war, and returned to the Cherokee Nation in 1865, and first saw the applicant two or three years after my return. I do not know what year this is, and know nothing about the years but what I am told.

CASE SUBMITTED ON RECORD AND NOW MADE UP.

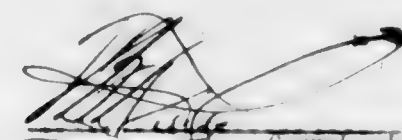

The applicant, Charles Martin, is identified on the Wallace roll, and all of the applicants herein are identified on the Kern-Clifton roll, but cannot be identified on any other roll of the Cherokee Nation, in the possession of the Commission.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSION: It is considered by the Commission that the evidence in this case shows that the applicant, Charles Martin, was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the rebellion, that he was taken from the Cherokee Nation during said rebellion, and did not return thereto within the time specified in the decree of the Court of Claims rendered on February 3, 1896, in the case of Moses Whitacre, trustee, etc., vs. the Cherokee Nation et al., for the return of Cherokee freedmen to said Nation; and that the other applicants herein were born since 1866, are descendants of the said Charles Martin, and possess no rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, other than as such descendants; and it is further considered by the Commission that the said applicant, Edna Martin, should be listed for enrollment as Edna Graves.

IT IS, THEREFORE, THE OPINION OF THIS COMMISSION: That the applications for the enrollment of Charles Martin, Edna Graves, James Martin, Joe Martin, Jennie Martin, Pearl Martin and Ella Martin, as Cherokee Freedmen, should be denied, under the provisions of section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), and it is so ordered.

The record further shows that none of the applicants herein make any claim to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than as set forth above.

It further appears from the record herein that at the time applications were made for the enrollment of the above named applicants, application was also made for the enrollment of other applicants as Cherokee Freedmen, but said applications being differently classified are not included in this decision.

It does not appear that any of the applicants herein are identified upon the 1880 Authenticated Cherokee Roll, nor does it appear that any of said applicants has ever been admitted to Cherokee citizenship by a duly constituted court or committee of the Cherokee Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by a decree of the United States Court in Indian Territory, under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 10, 1896, (29 Stats., 321).

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that, following the ruling of the Department in the case of Lemuel Welcome, (I. T. D. 5848-1904, 11,776-1904), the applications made for the enrollment of William Davis, Henry Thomas, Ella Vann, Mary Markham, Frances Melton, John Dotson, Mary Jane Vann, Thomas Lowe, Ella Mayfield, Sallie Rider, Reuben Campbell, Van Jackson Luther, Cassie Middleton, Mary Harlin, Nellie Fields, John Kimbo, William S. Mudden, Jane Bean, Albert T. Thomas, Mary Campbell, Caroline Daniels, Melvina Alberty, Dave Morris, Alexander Claggett, Amanda Martin, Eliza Martin, John E. Barnes, Bell Davis, Samuel Brown, Howard F. Watson, Jack McConnell, Maude Manley, George Reed, Sr., Buck Ledman, Bell Thompson, Lewis Scott, Abe Scott, Kender Lampton, Thomas E. Allen, Lewis Vanderford, John L. Bowlm, Katie Davis, Charles Williams, John J. Rose, Jane Martin, Lena Peterson, Alex Johnson, Martha Vann, John Scott, Nancy Ross, Charles C. Smith, Susie Colbert, William Shagge, Susie Johnson, Alfred P. Hopkins, Kizzie Vann, Freddie Looney, Lucy Chouteau, Alice Durant, Mahaley Ward, Fred D. Thomas, Bettie Beck, Ellis Warren, Millie Robinson, Mary Webber, Frances Martin, Mary Riley, Emanuel Taylor, Henry Sykes, Larkin P. Powell, Stepney Dawn, Malinda Vann, Frances Johnson, Annie Foster, Mary H. Rogers, George Washington Lane, Jane Brown, Samuel L. Young, John Buckner, Willis Cox, Leonard Bowles, Melinda Murrell, Charles Claggett, Samuel Irvan, Mary Ross, Maggie Nave, Neoma Nave, Ella Ross, Elizabeth Duncan, Sadie Adams, Georgeann Archer, John Claggett, Hattie Smith, Jack Jackson, Lula Sanders, George Hazelrig, Lizzie West, Maria French, Mary Johnson, Maggie Vann, William Hudson, Sarah Rogers, Abraham Ballard, Laura David, John Deckman, James B. DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application of Charles Martin for the enrollment of himself and minor children, Edna, James, Joe and Jennie Martin, and minor grandson, Pearl Martin, as Cherokee Freedmen.

-: D E C I S I O N :-

The record in this case shows that on May 16, 1901, Charles Martin appeared before the Commission at Vinita, Indian Territory, and made personal application for the enrollment of himself and minor children, Edna, James, Joe and Jennie Martin, and minor grandchild, Pearl Martin, as Cherokee freedmen, and for his wife, Eliza Martin, as a Cherokee freedman by intermarriage, but as the status of persons applying for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen by intermarriage is not fixed at this time, she is not embraced in this decision. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Vinita, Indian Territory, on October 4, 1901, and again on September 22, 1903.

The evidence shows that the applicant Charles Martin was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the rebellion; that during said rebellion he left the Cherokee Nation, but returned thereto in 1866, and resided therein from the time of his return until about 1874; that he then left the Cherokee Nation temporarily, returning thereto about 1878, since which time he has resided continuously in said nation.

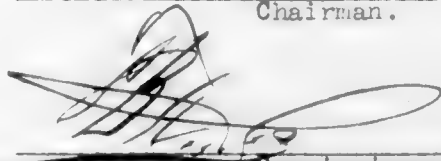

The evidence further shows that Pearl Martin is the child of Mary Martin, deceased, who was the daughter of the principal applicant, and a resident of the Cherokee Nation at the time of her death in 1895.

All the minor applicants herein are descendants of said Charles Martin, and have all been born since 1866. Their residence is considered to have been in the Cherokee Nation since birth.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Charles Martin, Edna Martin, James Martin, Joe Martin, Jennie Martin, and Pearl Martin should be enrolled in accordance with the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered.

SUPPLEMENTAL TO D-729.

Applicant represented by I. P. Bledsoe, Chouteau, I.T.
Cherokee Nation represented by J. S. Davenport.

GEORGE REDMON, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

- MR. DAVENPORT: What's your name? A George Redmon.
- Q Where do you live, Mr. Redmon? A Humboldt, Kansas.
- Q How long have you lived in or near Humboldt, Kansas? A Lived in Humboldt ever since '66, about July, '66.
- Q In fact you have lived there then about all your life? A Yes, sir.
- Q What's your age? A 37; will be 37 in September.
- Q Since you lived in or near Humboldt, Kansas, did you get acquainted with some colored people that went by the name of Graves? A Yes, sir.
- Q Do you know what the first names were? A Why I knew Charley Graves.
- Q Well did he have a family? A Yes, sir; he had a family, wife and some two or three children while I knew him; I don't know how many more he had, but he had that many.
- Q Do you know what his wife's name was? A Chaney, they called her.
- Q Do you remember any of his children's names? A Eli and Ed; I remember those two.
- Q Do you know whether or not they had any other children, of your own knowledge, that passed as their children? A Why I think they had; quite sure that they were theirs; he was feeding them, supporting them.
- Q About when did you get acquainted with the Graves family; Mr. Redmon? A Why it must have been somewheres in '81 or '2, somewheres along there.
- Q Where were you living at that time? A IN Humboldt.
- Q How long did they live there after you got acquainted with them? A They must have been there ten years, I guess.
- Q About what sized place is Humboldt? A Why I think about three thousand.
- Q Do you know whether or not they kept house while they were there? A Yes, sir; they kept house.
- Q How far did they live from where you lived, Mr. Redmon? A Two blocks north.
- Q About how often would you see them during the time you lived there or they lived there? A Why I would see them probably two or three times a day, every day, had to pass very close to their place going up to town.
- MR. BLEDSOE: Are you positive that this woman's name was Chaney? A Well, no, I am not positive that it was; but that's the name she went by there.
- Q You don't know then for certain that this woman that we are talking about to be that identical woman that you speak of? A Well, I am positive that it's Charley Graves' wife.

Q How long did you say you knew them to live there? A Why I knew them there about ten years.

Q You don't know in that time whether this Chaney ever came down to the Nation or not? A No, I don't.

Q To your own knowledge you just saw them occasionally as neighbors would see them? A Why, I would see them every day.

Q What was Graves doing there? A Why, he was a stone mason.

Q Working around by day's work and jobs around here and there wherever he could get work to do? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know whether this Chaney owned any property there in Kansas or not? A Well, between them they owned a house and a couple of lots.

Q You don't know whose property that was? A Well, they told me it was theirs; that it all I know about it; Charley told me it was his property.

Q Do you know where they went to from there? A No, I don't.

Q When did you first get acquainted with them there? A It must have been somewhere in '80 or '1 or '2, somewhere along there.

Q When did they leave from there to the best of your knowledge? A Why, to the best of my knowledge it's been twelve or thirteen years ago.

Q They came off from there; do you know what became of them? A No, I don't know what became of them.

Q You haven't seen them since? A I have seen Charley once since, and I see the boy very often, Ed.

Q None living up in there now? A Nobody but Ed.

Q You don't know where they were prior to that time, I suppose, prior to 1880? A No.

Q Where were they living when you first got acquainted with him? (No response)

MR. DAVENPORT: Why, did Ed live in there? A They were living there when I first knew them.

Q You said Ed, where does he live? A Living in Humboldt, working for his Uncle George.

Q What name does his Uncle go by? A Graves.

MR. BLEDSOE: He is just working there by day's work, I suppose and not just like any other man? A Learning a trade with him.

MR. DAVENPORT: Is he married, have a family? A No.

JOSHUA ROSS, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

MR. BLEDSOE: What is your name? A Joshua Ross.

Q How old are you? A 69.

Q Where do you live? A I live in Muskogee.

Q You are a Cherokee citizen by blood? A I am.

Q On all the rolls, I suppose, of the Cherokee Nation? A Well, I aint on the 1880 roll; I am on all of those rolls before and since then I think.

Q You have always been recognized as a Cherokee citizen? A Yes, sir.

Q Did your mother or any of your people own one Susie Ross? A No my mother was named Susie Ross.

Q Well, that is, Chaney Ross; your mother's name was Susie Ross? A Yes, sir.

Q Did she own Chaney Ross? A Yes, sir; she owned a woman by the name of Chaney Ross.

Q Did this Chaney Ross have any children? A Yes, sir; she had several children.

Q Did she have a girl named Chaney? A Yes, sir.
Q What ever became of that girl? A My brother, Richard Ross, brought her down here into the Creek Nation just about the breaking out of the war to nurse, he had one or two little girls, and he brought her over to nurse for him.
Q Your brother was a Cherokee citizen? A Yes, sir.
Q This Chaney was not sold to him? A No, sir.
Q Your mother just let him take her down here? A Yes, sir; that's my understanding.
Q That Chaney Ross, do you know her to be this Chaney Graves, the same identical person? A I do.
Q Do you know when she came back to the Cherokee Nation or whether she was here in '66 or not? A Well I remember of seeing her in '66, yes, sir.
Q Do you know whether she came back with Houston Rogers--
MR. DAVENPORT: I object to that, to putting a question in such a way as that.
MR. BLEDSOE: Do you know the date she came back to the Nation?
A Only by hearsay, but I can tell you where I saw her.
Q Never mind; that's all.
MR. DAVENPORT: How many times have you seen her, Mr. Ross, since the war? A I don't remember of having seen her but once in '66 and then several years ago.
Q Do you know what time in '66 it was in? A No, I don't know; I simply remember of it, that she was there.
Q Well, where has she been living the last twenty years? A I don't know anything about that. I claim that I can prove that she belonged to my mother and that she was never sold out of the country and that she was here in the Cherokee Nation in '66, and further than that I say not.
Q You don't know whether she was living here? A Well she was living here when I saw her.
Q Well, how long has it been since you have seen this identical Chaney Graves that you speak of? A It's been six or ten, well I think it was in '94 about that time when I saw her last, somewhere along there.
Q Where was she living then? A Said she was living up in Cooweescoowee District.
Q Well do you know of your own knowledge whether she was? A No, I said I don't know anything further than what I said.
Q Did you ever see her husband? A No, sir; not to know him.
Q Did you ever hear from either of them while they were living at Humboldt, Kansas? A No, sir.
Q Do you know of your own knowledge they did or did not live at Humboldt, Kansas? A No, I don't.
Q For a number of years? A No.
Q Where was Chaney and Charley Graves married, if you know?
A I don't know anything about that.

WASHINGTON, March 20, 1905.

Refer in reply
to the following:
Land.
7908-1905.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I enclose a report from the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 24, 1905, transmitting the record of the application for enrollment as Cherokee citizens by intermarriage to Cherokee freedmen by William Davis, Henry Thomas, Ella Vann, Mary Markham, Frances Melton, John Dotson, Mary Jane Vann, Thomas Lowe, Ella Mayfield, Sallie Rider, Reuben Campbell, Van Jackson Luther, Cassie Middleton, Mary Harlin, Nellie Fields, John Kinbo, William S. Madden, Jane Neam, Albert T. Thomas, Mary Campbell, Caroline Daniels, Melvina Alberty, Dave Morris, Alexander Claggett, Amanda Martin, Eliza Martin, John N. Barnes, Bell Davis, Samuel Brown, Howard F. Watson, Jack McConnell, Maude Hanley, George Reed, Sr., Buck Ledman, Bell Thompson, Lewis Scott, Abe Scott, Kender Langton, Thomas E. Allen, Lewis Vanderford, John L. Fowlin, Katie Davis, Charles Williams, John J. Rose, Jane Martin, Lena Peterson, Alex Johnson, Martha Vann, John Scott, Nancy Ross, Charles C. Smith, Susie Colbert, William Skaggs, Susie Johnson, Alfred P. Hopkins, Kizzie Vann, Freddie Looney, Lucy Chouteau,

Alice Durant, Mahaley Ward, Fred D. Thomas, Bettie Beck, Ellis Warren, Willie Robinson, Mary Webber, Frances Martin, Mary Wiley, Emanuel Taylor, Henry Bykes, Larkin P. Powell, Stepney Dawn, Malinda Vann, Frances Johnson, Annie Foster, Mary H. Rogers, George Washington Lane, Jane Brown, Samuel L. Young, John Buckner, Willis Cox, Leonard Howles, Malinda Murrell, Charles Claggett, Samuel Irvon, Mary Ross, Maggie Nave, Keema Nave, Ella Ross, Elisabeth Duncan, Sadie Adams, Georgeann Archer, John Claggett, Hattie Smith, Jack Jackson, Lula Sanders, George Hazelrig, Lizzie West, Maria French, Mary Johnson, Maggie Vann, William Hudson, Sarah Rogers, Abraham Ballard, Laura David, John Deckman, James B. January 19, 1906, the Commission decided adversely to all the applicants.

The record shows that none of the applicants makes claim to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, except by intermarriage with a Cherokee freedman; that none has ever been enrolled or admitted to citizenship by any tribal authority of the Cherokee Nation or by any United States tribunal and that none is identified on the 1830 authenticated Cherokee roll.

In view of the record and of the ruling of the Department of November 12, 1904 (I. T. D. 5848-1904) in the Lemuel Welcome case, the approval of the Commission's decision adverse to all the applicants is recommended.

The Honor able,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to enclose a report from the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated June 23, 1905, transmitting the record of the consolidated applications for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen by Charles Martin for himself, his minor children, Edna(now Graves) James, Joe and Jennie Martin and his minor grandchild, Pearl Martin; and by Ella Martin for herself.

June 23, 1905, the Commission decided adversely to all the applicants.

The record shows that Charles Martin was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the beginning of the war of the rebellion; that he was taken from the Cherokee Nation during the war, and did not return thereto on or before February 11, 1867; that the other applicants were born since 1866, are descendants of Charles Martin and possess no rights to enrollment other than as such descendants.

In view of the record the approval of the Commission's decision adverse to the applicants is recommended.

Very respectfully,

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Vinita, I.T., May 18, 1901.

In the matter of the application of James Martin for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman.

James Martin, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

- Q Give me your name? A James Martin.
- Q Who is it you want to have enrolled? A Just myself.
- Q How old are you? A I don't know my age exactly.
- Q As near as you can? A I guess I am 42 years or something nearabout that.
- Q What is your post office? A Vinita.
- Q In what district do you live? A Cooweescoowee.
- Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Nearly all my life.
- Q Give me the name of your father? A Joshua Martin.
- Q Is he dead? A Yes, sir.
- Q How long has he been dead? A I don't know exactly, he died not very long after we were taken out of the Nation here during the war.
- Q Give me the name of your mother? A Harriett.
- Q Is she dead? A Yes, sir.
- Q How long has she been dead? A Well, she has been dead, I think she died before my father died.
- The 1880 authenticated roll of Cherokee Freedmen examined and the applicant not identified thereon.
- The 1896 census roll of Cherokee Freedmen examined and the applicant not identified thereon.
- The Kerns-Clifton roll examined and the applicant not identified thereon.
- Q Who were you with at the time the Wallace roll was made out?
- A At the time the Wallace roll was made out, I was in prison.
- Q Where? A I was in Arkansas prison.
- Q At Little Rock? A Yes, sir.
- Q Where were you convicted? A Fort Smith.
- Q Where were you arrested? A In Vinita.
- The Wallace roll examined, and the applicant identified thereon, page 128, No. 2632, Delaware district.
- Q What district were you living in then, what did you call your home? A Why I was working for Mr. Patton down on his ranch, that is south here about 12 miles.
- Q What district is that in? A (No response.)
- Q What district have you always claimed as your home? A I have lived lots in Cooweescoowee district, I have lived and worked over on this side four or five years, maybe longer than that.
- Q This ranch you spoke of is in Cooweescoowee district? A Yes, sir, part of it, and part of it is in Delaware district.
- By Edgar Smith, attorney for applicant: Do you know who attended to your enrollment on the Wallace roll while you were in prison?
- A Allen Lynch I think.
- Q You spoke of having been convicted of some offense, what was that offense? A Manslaughter is what I was convicted of.
- Q Where did the killing occur? A Down here on Rock Creek to Patton's ranch.
- Q You were tried in what court? A United States Court at Fort Smith.
- Q What is your earliest recollection with regard to the place where you lived, where did you live as far back as you can remember?
- A Why down over here about Coone-neck Bend and over on Big Creek and I worked for old man Riley, John Riley, across from Goodys Bluff on the Verdigris.
- Q Are all these places you have named in the Cherokee Nation?
- A Yes, sir.
- Q Have you within your recollection ever lived out of the Cherokee

James Martin - 2.

Nation? A No, sir, not to say lived out, I was in Kansas for a while when I was small but I came back here.

Q How small were you? A I guess that I was 12 or 13 years old, somewhere along there.

Q You say your father and mother both died? A Yes, sir.

Q You state that your father died during the war; when did your mother die? A Well, right after the war I think, just a short while after.

Q Where were you born? A I was born down here on Grand River.

Q In the Cherokee Nation? A In the Cherokee Nation.

Q Have you and brothers or sisters? A I have a sister and a brother; John Lynch is my brother, he is on the 1880 roll.

Q And who is your sister? A Mary Martin, or Watson.

Q Where does she live? A She lives here in Vinita.

Q Where was she born? A Born here on Grand River, Cherokee Nation

Q Was she taken out the same time you were? A Yes, sir.

Q Was she brought back at the same time? A Yes, sir.

Q Now what is your brother's name? A John Lynch, son of Al Lynch.

Q Do you know whether John Lynch is on the 1880 roll or not?

A Yes, sir, I think he is on the 1880 roll.

Q Where were you Jim in 1880? A In 1880, I was either out here working for John Webber or over here on Big Creek, one of these places; I worked for Jim Martin out on Big Creek quite a number of years, working for a man by the name of Al Burton on his place.

Q When were you working for Al Burton? A I worked for him in a part of '78 or '79.

Q And where were you in 1880, with reference to being in the Cherokee Nation, were you in it or out of it? A I was in it.

Q Do you know who you were working for in 1880? A I think I was working for John Weaver on Mustang, I am not certain, but I think I was, either there or on Big Creek for Jim Martin.

Q How long did you work for Weaver? A About two years.

Q How long did you work for old man Burton? A Between five or six years, worked for Jim Hall a year or more.

By J. S. Davenport, Cherokee attorney: Who did you belong to before the war? A My father belonged to Joe Martin and my mother belonged to the Lynch family.

Q To Joe Lynch? A Yes, sir, I suppose so.

Q What was your mother's name? A Harriett.

Q Well now, you don't remember when you came back to the Cherokee Nation after the war, do you? A No, sir, I was small.

Q You don't know any reason why you are not on the roll of 1880?

A No more than this: You see we had nobody to look after us and we were orphan children and I wasn't old enough, I didn't have knowledge enough to have interest enough to know that being placed on these rolls amounted to anything.

Q Well you were grown in 1880 weren't you? A Yes, sir, I was somewhat, I don't know my age exactly, but I have been going around and working for myself and doing for myself nearly all my life.

Q Where were you in 1896? A I was here.

Q Why were you not on that roll? A Why, I supposed that I was on that roll, I was working for Mr. Frazier in 1896, been working for him nearly seven years, or about that long, and I thought my wife enrolled me.

Q When you can first remember, you were living at what place in the Cherokee Nation? A When I came back I was living over here on Goose Neck.

Q Over on the Verdigris? A Yes, sir.

Q What Cherokee family lived near you there, if any? A I don't really know, but about a year or two after that I worked for John Riley across the Verdigris at Goodys Bluff, I worked about a year for him in '72 and '73.

Q Do you know who brought you back to this country? A Jess Rowe.

James Martin - 3.

Mr. Smith: Is Jess Rowe dead or alive? A He is dead.

Q You were asked about why you are not on the 1880 roll; do you have any recollection of the time when the 1880 roll was being taken?

A Well, I think that I do; there was one roll they made, and part of the time I stayed at my aunts, and the first time she was enrolled, that was Mahaley Brown, and I think I was on Big Creek or here at John Weaver's, because I came from near Big Creek over to see Uncle Wils that lived over on Grand River, and Mohm Weaver was sick and wanted some ody to attend to his stock and I went to work for him and next for Jim Hall and next for Patton and have been working around in here ever since.

Q Why didn't you enroll on the 1880 roll, or try? A Well, I just didn't know, and I didn't have knowledge to know the interest of it, and then after I found I wasn't on the 1880 roll I spoke to old man Downing, a Cherokee living over on Big Creek, and he told me, he says you are not on that roll Jim, you will have to take two witnesses and go to Tahlequah and be identified and who you belonged to and they will place you on the roll, and says if you will pay my expenses and pay me for going, I will go with one, and I will find someone down there that knows you, I knew your father and know all about you, and I was working on a threshing machine and was making two dollars a day and the amount that I drew was $15.50 and I just didn't have sense enough to take advantage of that or know the importance of being on all these rolls, and just let it go.

Mr. Davenport: You belonged at one time to a man named Harrison before the war? A Not that I know of.

Q Didn't you belong to him at the time of the war? A Man by the name of Harrison, who was a United States citizen, and didn't your mother and father, or your mother at least, with whom you stayed at that time, belong to a man named Harrison, who was a white man and not a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Well, I don't know, my mother always stayed on Joe Lynch's place on Grand River, that is to my recollection; I was small, but I always thought that, she always told that, and thought my mother belonged to Joe Lynch and Uncle Joe Martin down here told me that I belonged to him.

Q The Lynch family you have reference to is the one that Judge Lon Lynch belonged to, the same family? A Yes, sir, I think so.

Q Have you seen him here since you came, or do you know Judge Lynch? A Yes, sir, I saw him here, the man they said was him.

Commissioner: How old did you say you were when you returned from Kansas? A When I came back down here the second time?

Q I mean the first time after the war? A I was small, I reckon about seven or eight, maybe ten years old, I don't know just exactly neither.

Q Who did you come with? A I came with Jess Rowe.

Q Who of your family came with you? A Me and my sister I believe.

Q Give me the name of your sister? A Mary Martin.

Q Did your brother John come with you? A Yes, sir, we were there at his house when my mother died.

Q You and John came together, did you? A Yes, sir, I think so.

Q Is John your full brother? A He is my half brother, same mother but different fathers.

Q Well Mary Watson, is she your full sister? A Yes, sir, she is my full sister.

Q You remember when you came back from Kansas, do you remember the trip? A No, sir, when I first came back I don't remember very much about it.

Q Then you were taken back to Kansas, were you? A Yes, sir, after we came down here a preacher, a missionary, a man by the name of Buchanan, he promised to take me and my sister and raise us and educate us and take care of us, and Al Lynch here consented for him to take us, and Millie Frye down here taken John Lynch and raised him with her family.

Q And this missionary took you to Kansas? A Yes, sir, taken me

James Martin - 4.

to Kansas.

Q How long did he keep you there? A I reckon I stayed with him nearly a year and I run off from him.

Q And came back where? A Well, I didn't come direct back here, but I left from him, and went to Eudora, Kansas, and worked for a doctor there about four or five months, and then I came to Ottowa and then I came back to Coffeyville and then down to the Nation.

Q You were a good size boy? A Yes, sir, I was quite a chunk of a boy.

Q About how old were you when you ran off? A I guess I must have been about 14 years old.

Q When you ran off from this missionary? A I was about 12 to the best of my recollection.

Q You can't speak definitely about it? A No, sir, I was about that age.

Q How long had you been in the Cherokee Nation before you went back to Kansas with that missionary? A Not very long, to the best of my knowledge.

Q What was your sister's name in 1880? A Her name was Mary Watson.

Q Has your sister applied for enrollment? A Yes, sir.

Q And is her name Watson now? A Yes, sir.

Commissioner: Counsel for the applicant says that his sister Mary Martin has not applied yet, and that her status is the same as the applicant. John Lynch, who is said by the applicant to be his half brother, and to have had the same mother, is enrolled on Cherokee Freedman straight card No. 828, and is identified on the 1880 roll, page 281.

David Martin, being duly sworn by Commissioner Bredinridge, testified as follows:

Mr. Smith: What is your name? A David Martin.

Q Where do you live? A I live up in Cooweescoowee district.

Q What post office? A Coffeyville, Kansas.

Q How old are you? A 64.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A All my life, only during the war, the commencement of the war.

Q Do you know James Martin, who is the applicant in this case?

A Yes, sir.

Q How long have you known him? A Knowed him since he was a little bit of a baby.

Q Did you know his father? A Yes, sir.

Q Who was his father? A John Martin.

Q Did you know his mother? A Yes, sir.

Q Who was his mother? A Harriett Harrison.

Q When did you know Jim first, about what time? A I knowed Jim in I guess in '58 or '7 or '9, I knowed him three or four years before the war, maybe longer.

Q Where was he when the war commenced? A He was over at Lynch's

Q What Lynch was that? A Joe Lynch.

Q Do you know to whom his mother belonged? A Belonged to Joe Lynch as most of the slaves did, I learned that Joe Lynch bought him from Harrison.

Q Was Joe Lynch a Cherokee indian? A Yes, sir.

Q A citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q Did James Martin have any brothers or sisters? A One by the name of Mary and one by the name of John and one sister by the name of Lizzie I think.

Q Was Mary younger or older than James, or do you know? A I think James is the oldest, I am not certain, I don't know exactly the two ages; Mary may be the oldest; it has been so long, but I think she had two little children, had three; there was one wasn't none of

James Martin - 5.

Josh's when he had her.

Q Who was the father of Mary? A Josh claim to be.

Q Mary and James were full sisters and brothers? A Yes, sir.

Mr. Davenport: Now you knew the applicant's mother? A Yes, sir.

Q How long did you know her before the war broke out? A I knew her I guess probably ten years.

Q How far did you live from her? A I lived — sometimes we were all right together.

Q How far as your home from where hers was? A It was about five or six miles.

Q Did you know before the war broke out a man by the name of Harrison, who looked after the cattle of Joe Lynch and stock?

A Yes, sir.

Q I will ask you if Harrison didn't own Harriett, if Harriett didn't belong to Harrison when you first got acquainted with her? A She did

Q And if she didn't belong to Harrison at the breaking out of the war? A No, sir, two or three years before I left here, I went to the woods in '60, and she belonged to Lynch when I run off in the woods, when I was scouting.

Q Did you know Lynch's daughter, Nancy, or Harriett: did Lynch have any children at that time, Joe Lynch? A He had a host of children.

Q What was the name of the children? A Chick and Lon and Joe and Caroline and Brack.

Q They were living there at the time you knew this woman? A Yes, sir

Q Where did Jim's father live at that time, the applicant here? A He lived with me.

Q Was he your brother? A No, sir, belonged to the same man I did.

Q He lived about four or five miles from where Harriett lived?

A I don't know exactly, I never measured it, we walked up there any time we wanted to.

Q Same neighborhood or locality? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know where Jim went during the war, his parents? A Well, I seen Jim with his father and mother in Kansas in '63.

Q You don't know when they came back? A No, in '63 I was in Kansas and visited Josh and his family, and he had Mary and Jim.

Q You have told me you saw them up there, when did they come back to your knowledge, to the Cherokee Nation? A Well, if you will let me tell you I can tell you; I went on in the army in '65, and in '66 when I came back coming home that way they wasn't there, they was done left Kansas, and had come to the Nation.

Q How do you know they had come to the Cherokee Nation? A I want to see them and they had left for the Nation.

Q You don't know where they had gone? A No, sir, that is what was said.

Q You know they had left that part of Kansas? A Yes, sir.

Q What part of Kansas was that where they were living? A A little southwest of Lawrence.

Allen Lynch, being duly sworn by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Mr. Smith: State your name? A Allen Lynch.

Q How old are you? A 61 years old.

Q What is your post office? A Vinita.

Q Do you know James Martin, the applicant? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know his sister, Mary Watson? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know who the father of James and Mary was? A Yes, sir.

Q Who was he? A Joshua Martin.

Q Who was the mother of these children? A Her name was Harriett.

Q When did you first know these children? A I have known them ever since they were born.

James Martin - 6.

- Q Which is the older? A Jim.
- Q About ~~what~~ how much? A About 2 years the oldest.
- Q Where were they when the war commenced? A They were living over there on the Six-mile Bend.
- Q In what Nation? A In the Cherokee Nation.
- Q Do you know whether they went out or were taken out during the war or not? A They were taken out time of the war, yes, sir.
- Q Do you know whether they were brought back? A Yes, sir.
- Q When were they brought back? A Brought back somewhere along in the summer of '66, I can't tell just exactly.
- Q That was in the year '66? A Yes, sir.
- Q Who brought them back? A Uncle Jess Rowe.
- Q Is he living or dead? A He is dead.
- Q Where were they brought to? A Brought down to Simon Lynch's.
- Q At what place did Simon live? A We were living over there on Mustang between Cabin Creek and Mustang.
- Q How far from over there? A 15 or 16 miles from Vinita.
- Q How long did they remain in the Cherokee Nation then; or I will ask you with regard to Jim, how long did Jim remain before he went away again, do you know? A They were not down there only a week or ten days before they went away.
- Q Where was the father and mother at that time? A Their mother was dead.
- Q Was the father living? Was the father dead too? A I can't tell you whether he was dead or not, I think he was dead, I am pretty certain he was.
- Q Was this man Josh Martin, I believe you call him, were he and this woman Harriett man and wife? A Was before the war? A Yes, sir.
- Q Were both these children known and recognized as his children? A Yes, sir.
- Q How long have you known James Martin here in the Cherokee Nation: was he here in 1880? A I believe he was here in 1880? A I will not be sure.
- Q You know to whom his father Josh Martin belonged? A Yes, sir, I know who he belonged to.
- Q Who did he belong to? A He belonged to Joe Martin.
- Q Was Joe Martin a Cherokee and a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir, we used to work together.
- Q Who did this woman belong to, the mother? A We always supposed she belonged to Joe Lynch, we always lived in the same place together, he controlled us all.
- Q Do you mean you were on the same place with the mother of James Martin? A Yes, sir.
- Mr. Davenport: What do you know about to whom she belonged, anything? A Nothing particular, only we all lived there, and as I have heard Joe Lynch say we all belonged to him.
- Q Did you ever hear Joe Lynch say Harriett belonged to him? A Yes, sir, Harriett and Harrison both.
- Q Harrison was a white man was he? A Yes, sir, he was a white man, he controlled us.
- Q Harrison had a negro woman, a colored woman, that was named Harriett, that belonged to him? A Yes, sir, yes she was there.
- Q He was the boss? A Joe Lynch was the boss.
- Q Was Joe Lynch the father of Lon Lynch? A Yes, sir.
- Q Lon was there at the same time? A Yes, sir, he was there.
- Q Do you know where these people went during the war, Jim? A Yes, sir.
- Q Where did they go? A Went up to Kansas, I don't now where about in Kansas.
- Q When they came back, who was living near where they returned to, what Cherokee families? A There wasn't any there, wasn't any Cherokee families there.
- Q Was there any Cherokee families living near where you were living at the time they came back? A Nothing but Jess Cochran, he lived about five miles of us.

James Martin - 7.

Q You testified before the Kerns-Clifton Commission in this case? A I don't know as I did, I might have.

Q Don't you know you did? A Yes, sir, I know I did.

Q In giving your testimony in this case, you didn't testify as follows: "Bob Daniels and Dick Downing lived near me in 1866."?

A You have got that wrong, it is Bob Downing.

Mr. Smith: I object to its being called a record.

A I said Bob Downing and Dick Downing lived near us; that is right; I had forgot that; Bob Downing and Dick Downing lived near us, yes, sir; Bob Downing, it is not Daniels.

Q Where has Jim Been living since that time, do you know? A Jim, he has been to the best of my knowledge, here around; the first time I seen him he was working around on Big Creek.

Q Are you able to state whether or not he has resided continuously in the Cherokee Nation since that time? A No, sir.

Mr. Smith: I didn't understand there was a question about his residence; I understood the question was about the ownership.

Mr. Davenport: Yes, there is a question about everything; there is a question about his being a slave, about when he returned, and a question about whether he stayed here when he did return.

James Martin, recalled, testified as follows:

Commissioner: You say you rustled for yourself a good deal in your early life? A Yes, sir.

Q Your father and mother died when you were very young? A Yes, sir.

Q While you were around making a living for yourself, where was your brother John, your half brother, John Lynch? A He was down here on Grand River.

Q Who was he living with? A He made his home with Millie Frye, she taken him.

Q How old is John Lynch now? A He is about in thirty I reckon, to the best of my knowledge.

Q Well up in thirty? A Yes, sir.

Q Where is he living at this time? A Living out on Pryor Creek.

Q In the same neighborhood where he lived when a child? A No, sir, that is west of here, I expect about fifteen or sixteen miles.

Q Did he rove around like you did? A No, sir.

Q Were these people kin folks that he lived with? A Yes, sir.

Q What kin? A Millie Frye I think was either his aunt, I think his aunt; I don't know whether she is a half sister to Al Lynch or a first cousin, they are related.

Q You and John, I understand you to say, have the same mother?

A Yes, sir, the same mother.

Mr. Davenport: Who was John's father? A Al Lynch.

Q That testified here? A Yes, sir.

Mr. Smith: You stated I believe that you were probably twelve or thirteen years old when you came back from Kansas the last time?

A Yes, sir.

Q Have you ever lived outside of the Cherokee Nation since that time? A No, sir.

Commissioner: Have you ever been outside of the Cherokee Nation except when you were carried off for trial and imprisonment? A No, sir.

-----o-----

Simon Lynch, being duly sworn by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Mr. Smith: What is your name? A Simon Lynch.

James Martin - 8.

Q How old are you? A About 72.
Q Where do you live? A I live on Grand River.
Q What is your post office? A Spavinaw.
Q Do you know James Martin, the applicant in this case? A Yes, sir.
Q How long have you known him? A Known him ever since he was a child, off and on.
Q Do you know whether he was taken out of the Nation, Cherokee Nation, during the war, or not? A Yes, sir, he was taken out.
Q Do you know whether he was brought back, or whether he came back afterwards? A He was brought back, some colored folks fetched him back.
Q Do you know who they were? A Yes, sir, male Jess Rowe.
Q When was he brought back? A It was in '61 I believe; '66 I think it was.
Q Do you know his sister Mary? A Yes, sir.
Q Was she younger or older than he? A Older.
Q You know she was older? A Yes, sir, older.
Q Aren't you mistaken about that? A Yes, sir, born right on my master's place both of them.
Q You think she is older than Jim? A I know she is.
Q Was she brought back too? A Yes, sir, both of them.
Mr. Davenport: You say Jim was brought back in '66? A Yes, sir.
Q What makes you remember it was in '66? A Because they come to my house.
Q You remember distinctly which year when anybody comes to your house? A I know where I was living at that time.
Q Were you only living there the one year? A No, sir.
Q Have you lived there continuously? A No, sir.
Q How long did you live at that place? A About four months, I made a crop on the Creek and moved to that place.
Q You never lived at that place but about four months? A About four months.
Q Then where did you go? A Moved over on George Clark's place on the river.
Q When did you move there? A In the fall of '66.
Q They had come to your house before you moved to George Clark's place? A Yes, sir.
Q How long did you stay in George Clark's place? A Three or four months.
Q Then where did you go? A Built on a place of my own, on the place I am living at now.
Q And that is what makes you know it was in '66? A Yes.
Q You came back to the Territory when? A '65.
Q You didn't wait for the war to close? A No, sir, I came down here in '65.
Mr. Smith: Are you a Freedman of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q On the 1880 roll? A Yes, sir.

-----o-----

Allen Lynch, recalled, testified as follows:

Commissioner: You are the father of the John Lynch we have been talking about, are you? A Well, yes sir.
Q Were you married to his mother Harriett? A I was then, yes, sir.
Q When were you and Harriett married? A Well, I can't tell you the year.
Q Where were you married? A Well, it was down on Grand River, about six miles or seven miles from where the old man Joe Lynch lived.
Q That is since the war you married her? A No, sir, way before the war.
Q How old do you call John? A John, I call him, John was a baby a year and a half old in '62; '63 we went out of here I think it was.

James Martin - 9.

Q How old would you call this man James Martin, son of Harriett?

A Jim must be about ten years old when he went out of her; I can't tell you exactly, he might have been older and might not have been so old.

Q Jim is a little older than he thinks he is; he is somewhere about 45 or up there? A He is older than that.

Q Jim was born when you married Harriett? A Yes, sir.

Q That is this Jim Martin now? A Yes, sir.

Q Were you ever married before you married Harriett? A No, sir.

Q Had she ever been married before she married you? A Yes, sir.

Q To whom had she been married? A Married to a man named Josh Martin.

Q Was Josh Martin her first husband? A No, sir, I guess not.

Q Was Josh Martin a slave in the Cherokee Nation at the breaking out of the war? A Yes, sir.

Q Did he belong to a Cherokee citizen? A Yes, sir, Joe Martin, a Cherokee an.

Q This woman Harriett was then your wife at the time the war broke out? A No.

Q Had you and she parted? A We had quit when the war broke out.

Q You had quit before that? A Well, about the time of the war.

Q Was she a slave at the time you married her? A Yes, sir.

Q To whom did she belong? A She was living with Chick Lynch.

Q Is that a Cherokee citizen? A Yes, sir, Lon Lynch's brother.

Q Did she belong to him? A I don't know, I can't tell, I couldn't tell anything about negroes then days.

Q You were a slave yourself? A She was there working like I was, I couldn't tell about them.

Q Was she free? A No, sir, she was working there.

Q She wasn't working for aces? A No, sir, she was working and living with us.

Q Was she a colored woman? A Yes, sir.

Q When she was your wife you certainly knew whose slave she was? A We always claimed she belonged to Joe Lynch.

Q Do you know positively to whom your wife Harriett belonged; don't you know who her master was? A No, sir, we were all together.

Q She was your wife and you don't know who she belonged to? A She was living there with us.

Q Who did she claim as her ~~master~~ master? A We all claimed that she belonged to Lynch, that is all I can tell you.

Q Is that this man you call Chick? A No, Joe Lynch, the old man.

Q You claimed that you belonged to Joe Lynch? A That Joe Lynch had --

Q Just a minute; you claimed at the time you were married to Harriett you belonged to Joe Lynch? A Joe Lynch, we were all living there together.

Q Who were you working for? A Joe Lynch.

Q You were living on his place? A Yes, sir.

Q Well, what has this man Chick got to do with it? A Well, that was his boy, after the old man died --

Q That is his son? A Yes, sir.

Q When did Joe Lynch die? A Well, sir, I can't tell you whether he died in '61 or in '60, I can't tell you exactly.

Q Along about the beginning of the war? A Yes, sir, he started to Hot Springs and he died.

Q Now at the time Joe Lynch died did you recognize that he was the master of this yourself and of this woman Harriett? A Yes, sir.

Q If you had been put up to be sold who would have sold you? A I would have thought Chick Lynch would have sold me.

Q Joe Lynch wasn't dead, I am talking about Joe Lynch? A I would have thought Joe Lynch would have sold me.

Q After Joe Lynch died, did you still live on the Joe Lynch place? A We lived on there about a year, I reckon, before we moved from there, and went about four or five miles from there; his son Chick was down there.

James Martin-10.

Q After Joe Lynch died who had control of you? A Chick Lynch.

Q Did you recognize him as your master? A Yes, sir.

Q Where was this woman Harriett? A On the same place.

Q Did she recognize Chick Lynch as her master? A Yes, sir, that is what she did.

Q Did you recognize that Chick Lynch had the right to sell her or do what he pleased in that way? A Yes, sir, I did.

Q Was there ever any question raised as to her belonging at that time to anybody except Chick Lynch? A No, sir, not to my knowledge; this man that brought Harriett there was living with us too.

Q What was his name? A Harrison.

Q Who was Harrison, was he a Cherokee citizen? A O, sir, he was a white man.

Q You say he brought Harriett there? A He brought her there when she first came there.

Q And did he continue to live there? A He lived there until the war came up; not before the war came up, during of the war, why then Chick brought me out.

Q I was after finding out something about Harriett. When did this man Harrison bring Harriett there? A I can't tell you.

Q Was that before you married her? A Yes, sir, five or six years before.

Q Then it was a long time before the war? A Yes, sir.

Q Did this man Harrison continue to live on this place until the war broke out; what became of this man Harrison? A You want me to tell you where he lived and where Lynch moved him; Lynch moved him around like he would move around the balance of us negroes.

Q Where did Harrison come from? A I don't know, I don't know where he came from.

Q He brought Harriett with him, did he? A Yes, sir.

Q You don't mean to say Harrison was a slave of Lynch? A No, sir, but he served like one.

Q Did Harrison live with Lynch or on Lynch's place under Lynch's direction all the time until the war came on? A I have told you all as far as I know.

Q What did he seem to have to do with this woman Harriett? A She was a cook there with us.

Q Did she ever speak of him as her master? A She called him master, yes, sir, and we called Lynch master.

Q I am speaking of this in the sense of owning her; did she ever speak of Harrison being her owner? A No, sir, not particular, that is all she called Lynch, master, and we called him master.

Q You know that is not what I am talking about. A You mean did she ever speak of him being her master?

Q Being her owner? A Yes, sir.

Q Well, tell me about that; did she ever speak of Harrison as being the man who owned her? A Yes, sir, she said so.

Q Did she say so all the time? A Always said so, yes, sir, and always lived with him.

Q So then as far as her belief and statement went, she was the property of Harrison? A Yes, sir.

Q Did Harrison ever sell her that you know of? A Not as I know of unless he sold her to Joe Lynch.

Q You don't know that he did? A No, sir.

Q Did Harrison seem to own any other slaves except this woman Harriett? A Nothing except her and their children.

Q How many children did she have that appeared to belong to Harrison? A They was George and Jim and Mary and John that she had when she was there.

Q He just seemed to own that woman and that set of children?

A That is all, and that is all that lived with him.

James Martin - 11.

Q Now your child John was born before the war, was he? A He was just about a year old or a little over when the war came up, just beginning to crawl around.

Q Did you consider that John belonged to Lynch or belonged to Harrison? A I considered him belonging to Lynch.

Q And that his mother belonged to Harrison? A Well, we were all there together, of course I thought we all belonged to him.

Q How can you make that contradictory statement, because you told me your wife always calimed to be the property of Harrison? A Well Lynch controlled us all is what I am trying to make you understand; what he said went with us.

Q Being under his orders is one thing and being his property is another? A I can't tell you about that, because I don't know how they managed their things.

Q Lynch seemed to be in general control and authority there, did he? A Yes, sir.

Q Well, then when you moved out during the war, where were you taken? A Me, I went to Kansas.

Q Where was this woman Harriett taken? A She went to Kansas.

Q Did she go along at the same time you did? A No, sir.

Q The Union soldiers took you up? A I went up alone.

Q When did Harriett go? A She went after the troops came down here.

Q And what had become of Harrison at that time? A Why they killed him.

Q Killed in a fight down here? A No, I think the Cherokees came over and killed him.

Q What became of Lynch; he died? A Yes, sir, he died.

Q What became of his son Chick? A They killed him I think about the same time.

Q And that broke up the whole question of ownership and everything of that kind? A Yes, sir.

Mr. Smith: Did you ever hear of any statements between Lynch and Harrison with regard to who owned this woman, and these children, as between themselves; did you ever hear any controversies or disputes?

Mr. Davenport: I don't think that would be competent.

Commissioner: It would be competent to show who claimed ownership.

A I have heard Lynch say this and again that Harrison and all his negroes belonged to him.

Q Did he say why? A He would get a little mad at him and order him to do something and he would send some of them to tell him to go do so and so, and he claimed to belong to him, I don't know whether he belonged to him or not.

Q What was the reason, if you know, that Harrison was treated in that way?

Mr. Davenport: I object to that as being immaterial in this case.

Commissioner: It might be material.

Q Can you answer that: I asked you why this man Harrison permitted Lynch to order him about in that way; do you know? A Why you see after Lynch went and got Harrison there he put him on the ranch and he gave him so many cattle to take care of, and we had to make lots and make crops for him, us fellows did, and whatever he authorized Harrison to do that he had to do, and I can't tell you anything, that has been a long time ago.

Q Either one of them owe the other? A I suppose Harrison must have owed Lynch, or he wouldn't have been dogged around there.

Q Do you know? A No, sir, I never seen him receive a dollar in my life.

Q Do you know whether Harrison ever made a conveyance of these negroes, if he owned them? A To Lynch, no sir; if he did I didn't know it, I can't tell you whether he ever made any conveyance, I have always heard Lynch say Harrison borrowed money from him, but I don't know that.

James Martin - 12.

Q You don't know which one owed? A No, sir, I don't know which one borrowed money.

Mr. Davenport: Harrison acted in the capacity of what was known at that time as an overseer of the plantation and cattle? A Yes, sir, and Lynch acted as master.

-----o-----

Columbus McNair, being duly sworn by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Mr. Smith: State your name? A Columbus McNair.

Q Where do you live? A I live in Vinita.

Q How long have you lived there? A I lived in Vinita 12 or 14 years.

Q Do you know James Martin the applicant in this case? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know his sister Mary Watson? A Yes, sir.

Q How long have you known them? A I have known them ever since they were small; I have seen them before the war.

Q Did you know the mother? A Yes, sir.

Q What was her name? A Harriett.

Q Where did she live? A I first seen her at Joe Lynch's.

Q To whom did she belong? A I am not save to say exactly to whom she was belonged, she was right at Joe Lynch's when I seed her.

Q What was she doing? A Just right there on the place with them around with the rest of the colored people.

Q What work: did she have any special work? A I can't say that, I can't say that she had any special work to do.

Q How long was she at Joe Lynch's place? A I am not able to say that, I can't say how long had she been there.

Q You don't know who she belonged to? A No, sir, I don't really know.

Q Of your own knowledge? A Of my own knowledge, I don't really know; I have always just like this, I just thought she belonged to Mr. Lynch, she was on the place.

Mr. Davenport: I object to what he thought about it.

Commissioner: He can give the belief he had there.

Mr. Davenport: I object because he has already stated he didn't know to whom she belonged.

Commissioner: Well, that is immaterial.

Q What led you to believe she was a slave? A Well, I can't tell anything about it, she was right on the place with Mr. Lynch's other colored people, and I just supposed she belonged to Mr. Lynch; I can't tell whether she belonged to him or not.

Q You saw her there with the people who did belong to Lynch?

A Yes, sir.

Q And on Mr. Lynch's place? A Yes, sir.

Q And at work there? A Yes, she was right there with the balance of the women.

Q Did you ever hear at that time any question raised as to her not belonging to Lynch? A No, sir, I never heard anything about it.

Mr. Davenport: I object to that question.

Commissioner: He has already stated he didn't know whether she did or not.

-----o-----

C. L. Lynch, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give me your name? A C. L. Lynch.

Q How old are you? A 60.

Q What is your post office? A Stilwell.

James Martin - 13.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Born and raised here.

Q Give me the name of your father? A Joseph M. Lynch.

Q Your father was a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation was he? A Yes, sir, a Cherokee.

Q How long has he been dead? A He died in 1861.

Q Did he own a slave by the name of James Martin? A No, sir.

Q Look around and see that man (indicating applicant). Did he ever own that man? A No, sir.

Q Did that man ever live in your father's place? A Yes, sir, his master was a man by the name of John Harrison, who came in the country, a non citizen.

Q Where did John Harrison come from? A I don't know where he came from when he came to the Nation, but he was a South Carolinian, he claimed to be.

Q He didn't claim to be a Cherokee citizen? A No, sir.

Q Did he bring some slaves with him? A Yes, sir.

Q Did he bring a slave woman named Harriett? A Yes, sir.

Q Did she marry a colored man named Josh Martin? A Well, she lived with him, I don't know whether she married him or not.

Q To whom did that colored man belong? A Belonged to the estate of Sarah Martin.

Q Was Sarah Martin a Cherokee citizen? A Yes, sir.

Q Well now this woman Harriett, at the time she was freed by the war, was she still a slave up to that time of this man Harrison?

A She belonged to John Harrison.

Q Was this man James Martin recognized in that day as the property of this white man Harrison? A He was just a child at that time, quite young.

Q He was recognized as Harrison's property? A He was recognized as John Harrison's property. J. M. Lynch's property was valued and scheduled; Harrison's property was never placed on the schedule as J. M. Lynch's property.

Mr. Smith: I will object to that; it is not the best evidence.

Commissioner: It is proper, as a circumstance of his knowledge.

Q These people were all slaves at the time they were freed by the war, were they? A Yes, sir, they were slaves in '61.

Q Did your mother survive your father? A My mother died first, both died the same year.

Q Did you have brothers and sisters at the time your father died?

A Yes, sir.

Q Did any of your father's heirs inherit this woman Harriett or any of her children? A Never did.

Mr. Smith: You say your father died in '61? A My father died in 1861, my mother died in 1861.

Q Well, about when was it that the negroes all went out, or the greater part of them, went out of the Cherokee Nation? A About July, 1862; I know I went out with them a prisoner.

Q How old are you? A I am 60; 60 the 9th of this month; I was born in 1841.

Q With whom did you go out? A I went out with the Government soldiers, I went out as a prisoner of war.

Q And at the same time they took the slaves did they? A The slaves went first.

Q Did they go before or after you went? A Went about the same time; I saw them all along the road.

Q They commenced going before June, 1862, did they? A No, 1862 was the bust up here, about July, 1862.

Q Where were you living? A Living over here on Grand River at what is called Lynch's prairie.

Q Were you living at that place at the time the war broke out? A Yes, sir, right at that place.

James Martin - 14.

Q The mother of James Martin, Harriett, lived there, didn't she?
A Not that I can recollect of; John Harrison had control of them up till the bust up.

Q Where was John Harrison? A There, in the neighborhood.

Q Wasn't on your place? A He wasn't on out here place, he attended the ranch for my father; John Harrison was a non citizen.

Q Didn't this woman, who was Jim Martin's mother, live on your father's place? A Well, the place belonged to my father, but then John Harrison was living there too.

Q Didn't she live where the slaves of your father lived? A No, sir.

Q Was there an entirely separate and distinct set? A Yes, sir.

Q Then your father didn't have anything to do with these people at all? A Nothing that I know of, nothing at all.

Q Do you know whether your father ever claimed them or not?

A No, sir, never did to my knowledge.

Q You never heard him say or Harrison have any dispute about them? A None whatever.

Q Did Harrison owe your father anything? A Nothing that I know of; they were known and recognized as Harrison's property at that time, and the Lynch darkies were valued and placed on a schedule and these Harrison darkies were never valued and placed on the schedule as J. M. Lynch's property.

Commissioner: The applicant is identified on the Wallace roll, and claims to have lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life, except a brief absence in Kansas during and immediately after the war. For the further consideration of this case, he will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman on a doubtful card, and attention is particularly called to the testimony relating to the ownership of his mother, Harriett Martin, who it appears was a slave in the Cherokee Nation at the time of the civil war, but it is ~~said~~ claimed that she and her child, the applicant, were the property of one Harrison, a white man, and a non citizen of the Cherokee Nation. The fuller decision of the Commission will be made known to the applicant at his post office address.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY.

F.-D.#344.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
CHELSEA, I.T., JUNE 1st, 1901.

In the matter of the enrollment of James Martin as a Cherokee Freedman; the following supplemental testimony is offered on the part of the Cherokee Nation.

APPEARANCES:

Messrs. Pellette & Smith, Attorneys for Applicant.
Mr. W. W. Hastings, Cherokee Representative:

JAMES M. BELL, being sworn and examined by Commissioner C. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows:

- Q Give me your name? A James M. Bell.
Q How old are you? A 69 years old.
Q What is your post office? A Needmore.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation?
A Since '39 with a little exception.
Q Were you out during the war? A Part of the time, my family I took to Texas.
Q Have you otherwise lived in the Cherokee Nation since 1839?
A Yes, sir.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q Did you know Joe M. Lynch? A Yes, sir.
Q Is he a citizen? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you know John Harrison? A Yes, sir, I knew John Harrison.
Q Was he a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir, he was a non-citizen.
Q Citizen of the United States? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you know where Harrison was from, what State? A He was from South Carolina, his native town I guess was Columbia, that was the place he lived.
Q Did you know a colored woman by the name of Harriet?
A Yes, sir.
Q Who owned her? A John Harrison.
Q I will ask you if you know Jim Martin? A No, sir.
Q You don't know him? A No, sir.
Q I will ask you if you were not one of the administrators of Joe Lynch's estate? A Yes, sir.
Q Did Harriet belong to Joe Lynch? A No, sir.
Q About what time did Joe Lynch die? A Died August, '61, about the 9th I think.
Q Did you know whether this Jim Martin; whether he had a slave by the name of Jim Martin; whether he was a son of Jim Martin?
A No, sir.
Q Do you mean that you didn't know that he had?
A He didn't have.
Q He didn't have one whose mother was named Harriet?
A No, sir.

BY MR. SMITH:

- Q Mr. Bell, which did you mean, that he didn't have or you don't know whether he had or not? A He didn't have.
Q How do you know? A I was a member of Mr. Lynch's family.
Q How did you come to be a member of Mr. Lynch's family?
A By marriage.

Q Did you know everything he had and everything he didn't have because you married into his family?
A Yes, sir, I married into his family.
Q Is that the only reason now for knowing what Lynch had because you were a member of his family and lived in the same neighborhood he did? A Yes, sir; I lived in the neighborhood of this man Harrison and I knew what he had.
Q Well did you know what everybody in that neighborhood had?
A No, sir, I didn't know that.
Q ~~What~~ How do you know what Harrison had? A I know that he had this woman there and she had two children and that she afterwards had two.
Q Where did Harrison live? A Harrison lived on the place that belonged to Lynch and about a mile and a half west of it.
Q He lived on Lynch's place? A Yes, sir, the place belonged to Lynch he lived on.
Q Did he ever live at Lynch's house and the place that Lynch lived on? A No, sir.
Q Never did? A No, sir.
Q Now did you; did you know but what Harrison sold the woman he ~~brought~~ brought there to Lynch? A I never heard of it if he did.
Q You won't swear that he didn't just because you never heard of it would you? A No, sir; he kept possession of the woman all the time he was there.
Q Who did? A Harrison; he had possession of her; she was never in the family of Lynch at all.
Q Wasn't she there on the place with Lynch's slaves? A She was in a mile and a half of Lynch's.
Q Didn't she work for him? A No, sir.
Q Didn't she cook for Lynch? A No, sir.
Q Never worked on Lynch's place at all? A No, sir.
Q Never worked with Lynch's slaves? A No, sir; she might have visited there.
Q Well did she? A She might; it is natural to think that she did visit them, but I don't know the times that she did visit them, and that she did visit them at all.
Q What was the connection of this man Lynch and this man Harrison?
A Nothing more than Harrison was raising stock for Lynch.
Q Owed Lynch didn't he? A I never heard of it if he did.
Q Which died first? A Lynch.
Q Lynch died before Harrison? A Yes, sir.
Q What did Harrison have there? A Harrison had this negro woman and these children.
Q What child now when Harrison brought this negro woman there?
A She had two, but I don't recollect their names.
Q Was they boys or girls? A One was a boy, or they both may have been boys, I don't recollect that; they were small.
Q Well then as to Jim Martin, the man we are talking about here, you don't know who he belonged to? A Well, if he was a son of that woman he belonged to Harrison.
Q If he was the son of the woman; why? A Because he claims her as his mother.
Q Claims who? A This woman.
Q Harriet? A Harriet.
Q He didn't necessarily have to belong to Harrison because his mother belonged to Harrison did he? A If he was in his possession and he owned the negro woman, he certainly would have owned her children.
Q He might have sold the boy for all you know?
A He didn't though.
Q How do you know? A The children were there on the place.
Q Did you ever hear of a child being sold without being delivered?
A It is not common to do so.
Q You are supposed to know definitely; you said that this man Jim Martin belonged to ~~Harrison~~; Harrison; what I want to know is how you know that he belonged to Harrison? A The woman belonged to Harrison and it is natural to suppose that the boy did; I am certain that this woman belonged to Harrison.

Q Now, tell me why you are certain? A He was in possession of her; her brought her there and claimed her as his own property, and I never heard that she was incumbered in any way.

Q Would you swear that because he brought this woman there and had her in his possession that the child she had there belonged to him?

A If a man had a mare in his possession and said that she was his mare and she had a colt, I would say that the colt belonged to him too.

Q Would you go on the stand and swear it? A Yes, sir.

Q If a man had a mare and she had a colt that you would go on the stand and swear it belonged to him? A I would say that I believe to the best of my knowledge.

Q Oh, you believe; that is about all you know about this that you believe you can state of your own knowledge? A These children were small.

Q Well please answer that question; can you state it of your own knowledge? A I can't say that the child was hers I don't know that.

Q What else did this man Harrison have besides these children and this woman you are talking about? A He had three or four head of horses.

Q What else? A He had in charge some cattle he was raising on the shares for Mr. Lynch.

Q What else? A He had a field and some implements to cultivate it.

Q Now, when Harrison; but he did die didn't he?

A No, sir.

Q He is still living? A No, sir; he was killed.

Q He died when he was killed; where was he killed? A He was killed in '62.

Q Now what became of his property who got it? A The federals got it, I guess.

Q You guess? A Yes, sir.

Q You knew everything that was going on in that country?

A I was in the army.

Q What makes you think the federals got it? A I heard it.

Q Didn't Lynch get it? A No, sir, Lynch never got it.

Q None of the Lynchs? A No, sir.

Q You know that? A No, sir.

Q You were in the army? A I know that Geter Lynch was killed at a skirmish about a mile above Harrison.

Q That would not be any indication that Lynchs didn't get it?

A Lynch died before; Mrs. Lynch died before, Joe Lynch went to the army with me and Judge Lynch was a prisoner at that time.

Q So the property that Harrison left or at the time he was killed came into the hands of some of the Lynch family? A No, sir, none of them.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q I believe that you stated that you were one of the administrators on the estate of Joe Lynch? A Yes, sir, Geter Lynch, Joe Lynch and myself were the administrators.

Q Young Joe Lynch? A Yes, sir.

Q And you stated that this Harriet and Jim Martin were not part of the effects of Joe Lynch?

(Objected to by Attorney for Applicant.)

Q Were they part of the effects of Joe Lynch? A No, sir, they were not.

- Q What relation were you to Joe Lynch by married? A I was his son-in-law.
- Q You married his daughter? A Yes, sir.
- Q Your wife was one of his heirs, one of the heirs to the estate? A Yes, sir.
- Q Where was Harrison killed? A Harrison was killed in what is called the Six Mile Bottom.
- Q After the war come up? A Yes sir, in '62.

BY MR. SMITH:

- Q That is the only estate you ever administered on? A No, sir.
- Q Did you ever in administering on an estate always get all the property that belonged to? A I do not know, ~~I have seen men~~ ~~always get all the property~~
- Q A man does not always get all the property than a man owns and put it in when he goes to administer on it, does he? A He would that was present.
- Q You can state that a man does not always do that, can't you? A A man may not if it wasn't there.
- (Objected to by Attorney for Cherokee Nation.)

RECORDED

EX-1111

Freed D 880

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I. T., May 31, 1902.

In the matter of the application of PERRY ADAMS for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman:

Applicant appears by Mollette & Smith; Cherokee Nation, by W. W. Hastings:

By Mr. Smith:

The applicant moves the Commission to make the certified copy of the decree of the Court of Claims in the case of Moses Whitmire, Trustee for the Freedmen, vs The Cherokee Nation, No. 17285 filed in the Mariah Hayden case F D 488, a part of the record in this case and the cases hereinafter mentioned by reference to the said case of the said Mariah Hayden, and if it be deemed necessary that a copy of the said decree be filed in this case and in the following cases, to-wit:

James Martin, D 344;

By W. W. Hastings:

Comes now the Cherokee Nation and objects to the introduction of the decree, because, First: It does not tend to show that the applicant was a slave of the Cherokee Nation at the beginning of the war, nor that he returned within the time specified in the treaty of 1866, or that he had been a continuous resident of the Cherokee Nation since that time, or that he is a descendant of such a person. Second: Because the same is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, and does not tend to prove an issue in this case. Third: Because the Commission will take judicial knowledge of all laws, treaties and decrees necessary for the determination of the right of any person who makes application for citizenship. Fourth: The Cherokee Nation objects to the filing of a certified copy of this decree in the case of an applicant unless the same is called and filed in each individual case.

Commission:

The motion of the attorney for the applicant will be entertained and the decree of the Court of Claims filed in the case of Mariah Hayden will be made a part of the record by reference in all the cases above named with the exception of those which come within the provisions of the temporary injunction recently granted by Judge Gill of the United States Court, of the Northern District, Indian Territory.

Mr. Smith:

The applicant further moves that as to the above named cases including the Mariah Hayden case that counsel for the applicant be allowed within thirty days to file any of the proof of any or all of the record other than the decree already referred to in the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee, vs Cherokee Nation, on file in the Court of Claims to the counsel of the Cherokee Nation if it is desired to do so.

W. W. Hastings;

The Cherokee Nation most certainly strenuously objects to the allowance of this permission or to the granting of this request for the reason that most of these applicants have had more than a year in which to file all of their testimony that they desired to file to make out their case before the Commission and that notice was given them all by agreement in March last, that the cases would be closed so far as testimony was concerned by the special permission of the firm of attorneys representing these applicants, on the 31st day of May, 1902, and that this being the 31st day of May, 1902, we say that under the rulings of the Commission, that under the agreement between the attorneys, that the testimony in all these cases is to close and should be closed by the Commission, and that no extension should be granted in any case and no case reopened unless there is some special and particular reason shown either by the Cherokee Nation on the one side or the applicant on the other why an extension of time is necessary or desired.

The Commission:

The law provides that the roll of Cherokee freedmen shall be made in strict compliance with the decree of the Court of Claims rendered the 3rd day of February, 1896, and as the Commission must take judicial notice of the judgment roll of said Court in the proceedings referred to the motion of the attorneys for applicants for additional time to file certified copies of the proceedings of the said Court is denied.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

(Signed) P. G. Reuter,

I, E. C. Bagwell, a stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, on oath state that the above and foregoing is a true and perfect copy of the original testimony in the above entitled cause as filed with the Commission, which copy was made by me.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application of James Martin et al.
for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen, consolidating the applications
of

James Martin-----Cherokee Freedmen D 344,
Mary A. Watson-----Cherokee Freedmen D 347.

D E C I S I O N

The record herein shows that applications for enrollment, as Cherokee Freedmen, were made to this Commission by James Martin, for himself, and by Mary A. Watson, for herself. The application of Mary A. Watson also included her husband, Howard F. Watson, who claims right to enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman by intermarriage but, the citizenship of persons applying for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen by intermarriage not being fixed at this time, the said Howard F. Watson is not embraced in this decision.

The evidence shows that the applicants, James Martin and Mary A. Watson, were born prior to the beginning of the war of the rebellion and that they were not slaves of Cherokee citizens or free colored persons residing in the Cherokee Nation at the beginning of the war of the rebellion.

None of the names of the applicants herein are found on the 1880 authenticated roll of the Cherokee Nation.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the applications for the enrollment of James Martin and Mary A. Watson, as Cherokee Freedmen, should be denied under the provisions of Section Twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I. T., May 24, 1904.

SUPPLEMENTAL PROCEEDINGS had in the matter of the applications of James Martin, C. F. D. 344, and Howard F. Watson, et al., C. F. D. 347.

It appears from the records in these cases that the applicants, their attorneys, and the Cherokee Nation were notified to appear before the Commission at its offices in Muskogee, Indian Territory, at nine o'clock A. M., On June 15, 1904, for the purpose of introducing further testimony in accordance with the Department's letter of April 4, 1904, remanding these cases. By agreement of the parties this case has this day been taken up for hearing on this day.

APPEARANCES:

Applicants by attorney White, of the firm of Kimball & White, and applicant, James Martin in person.
Cherokee Nation by attorney James S. Davenport.

R. L. MARTIN, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

By the Commission:

- Q What is your name? A R. L. Martin.
Q How old are you? A 56.
Q What is your postoffice address? A Pensacola, I. T.
Q Are you a recognized citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation?
A Yes, sir.
Q Do you know the applicants in these cases, Howard F. Watson and his wife, Mary A. Watson, and James Martin? A I know James Martin.
Q You don't know the others? A No, sir.

By Mr. White:

- Q Did you know James Martin's father? A Yes, sir.
Q What was his name? A Joshua.
Q Was he a slave before the war? A Yes, sir.
Q Who owned him? A My father, Joseph L. Martin.
Q Was your father a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q Was he on the 1880 roll? A Yes, sir.

By the Commission:

- Q You say Joseph L. Martin is your father and his name appears on the 1880 roll? A Yes, sir.
Q In what district? A Cooweescoowee.
Q With whom would he be enrolled at that time? A Himself and family.
Q What was the name of his wife in 1880? A Jennie.
Q What children? A Jesse, G. A., and Willie.

The name of Joseph L. Martin appears on the 1880 authenticated Cherokee roll, Cooweescoowee District, opposite No. 1858, as Jos. L. Martin, native Cherokee, 60 years of age.

Beneath appear the names of Jennie Martin, Jesse B. Martin, Granvil A. Martin and Willie A. Martin.

By Mr. Davenport:

- Q Mr. Martin, you say you knew Jim Martin before the war? A No, I don't remember him.

Q Do you know where and with whom his father was living prior to the breaking out of the war? A With my father.
Q Where was your father living with reference to the old Lynch place when the war broke out? A About five miles very near south.
Q Where was Jim Martin living at the breaking out of the war?
A This Jim?
Q Yes, sir. A I don't know only what they say.
Q Do you know to whom Joshua Martin, the father of this man, belonged at the breaking out of the war of your own personal knowledge?
A No, sir.
Q How old were you when the war broke out? A I was born in '47; make me 13 years old.
Q Do you know the mother of James Martin? A No, sir.
Q Were you old enough to remember a man by the name of Harrison who came from South Carolina and lived at the Lynch place? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you remember of Harrison's owning a colored woman who was the mother of James Martin, by the name of Harriet?

Mr. White: We object to that question for the reason that it does not call upon the witness to state a fact, but announces as a fact and asks the witness to state whether he remembers it or not, and we don't admit that this woman was the slave of this man Harrison, and we further object to the question on the ground that it is immaterial to whom the mother of this applicant belonged.

Commission: Objection will be noted and the witness will answer the question.

A I don't remember anything about it. I remember the old man Harrison living there.
Q Do you know C. L. Lynch, the son of Judge Lynch? A Yes, sir.
Q How old was he at the time the war broke out? A He was grown and married; I don't know his age.
Q Do you know whether this man Harrison had any slaves at the time the war broke out? A Couldn't say.
Q Was Jim Martin, the applicant in this case, living at your father's place when the war broke out? A Not that I know of; don't remember it.
Q Did you ever know his mother or where she lived? A No, sir.
Q All you know is, you know Jim Martin's, or who Jim Martin claims as his father? A Yes, sir.
Q And you know that Joshua Martin was the slave of your father?
A Yes, sir.
Q You don't claim to know anything about who Jim Martin's mother was or to whom she belonged or to whom Jim belonged? A No, I don't remember.

By the Commission:

Q You don't know when Joshua Martin return to the Cherokee Nation after the war? A He died during the war.

By Mr. Davenport:

Q Do you know of your own personal knowledge that Joshua Martin was the father of Jim Martin? A No, sir.
Q You never saw him living with him? A It is all hearsay, they always claimed it; in fact don't know whether he could swear to that.

By the Commission:

Q Do you know where James Martin was born? A No, sir.
Q You don't know whether Joshua Martin and James' mother were living together at the time James Martin was born?

Mr. White: We object to that as not being proper cross-examination. I have offered this witness for the sole purpose of proving that Joshua Martin was the slave of Joseph Martin, who was the slave of a Cherokee citizen, and have other witnesses to prove that Joshua Martin was the father of this applicant. This witness doesn't know, and told me before he went on the stand that he didn't, and, therefore, I didn't attempt to prove it by him.

Commission: Objection will be noted and witness will answer the question.

A No, I don't know that; they didn't live together then like they do now.

ANDERSON LYNCH, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

By Mr. White:

Q What is your name? A Anderson Lynch.

Q Where do you live? A Up on Grand river, near Vinita.

Q You are a Cherokee freedman? A Yes, sir.

Q How old are you? A About '66.

Q Have you been regularly enrolled on a straight card by the Commission?

Mr. Davenport: I object to the question as being immaterial and incompetent. It isn't necessary that a man should be a Cherokee citizen in order to give evidence in this court or any other court.

Mr. White: It is customary in every court in existence to show the status of the witness in the community, his occupation, his identity and any other matters which may show his credibility or his knowledge of the subject matter about which he attempts to testify.

Mr. Davenport: The representative of the Cherokee Nation object to the statement of counsel and say that it isn't a fact in any civilized court in the world that a man has to give his standing in order to give his testimony.

Commission: Objection will be noted and witness will answer the question.

A Yes, sir.

By the Commission:

Q What is the name of your father? A My father is named William Choteau.

Q Was he ever known by any other name? A They called him Bill.

Q What was the name of your mother? A Peggy Lynch.

Q Who was your owner? A Joe Lynch.

Witness appears upon Cherokee Freedmen straight card No. 791, and on the final roll of Cherokee freedmen, approved by the Secretary of the Interior, opposite No. 1933.

Mr. Davenport: Objected to as incompetent and immaterial.

Commission: Objection will be noted.

By Mr. White:

Q Did you go to Kansas during the war? A Yes, sir.

Q When did you get back here? A In '65.

Q Do you know the applicant, James Martin? A Yes, sir.

Q And his sister, Mrs. Watson? A Yes, sir.

Q When did they get back here? A Got back in the summer of '66.

Q Who brought them back? A Jesse Rowe.

Q Where did you see them in the Nation in '66? A Near Joe Martin's place, where Simon had stopped, at the old Military crossing.

Q Simon who? A Lynch.

- Q How far was that from where you were living? A About three miles; about three miles from where I am living now.
- Q Do you know who their father was? A Yes, sir, we all belonged to the old family of people.
- Q What was the name of the father of Jim and Mary? A Joshua Martin.
- Q Do you know who owned him? A Yes, sir.
- Q Who? A Joe Martin.
- Q Was Joe Martin a citizen of the Nation? A Yes, sir.
- Q An Indian? A Yes, sir.

By Mr. Davenport:

- Q Did you belong to Joe Martin, too? A No, sir, my mistress and him were brothers and sisters.
- Q Didn't you testify that you belonged to the same party? A To the same people.
- Q It wasn't the same people was it?

Mr. White: We object to that question as tending to confuse the witness. He has already explained his relationship.

Commission: Objection will be noted and the witness will answer the question.

- A Yes, sir, Joe Martin and Charlotte Lynch were sisters and brothers--
- Q I am asking whether you and these applicants belonged to the same man when the war broke out? A No, sir.
- Q Did you ever belong to the same party? A Did time of the old grandfather.
- Q At the time the war broke out? A No, sir.
- Q Was Joe Lynch dead when the war broke out? A The war had commenced when he died.
- Q These applicants, James Martin and Mary Watson, weren't living with Joe Martin at the time the war broke out? A No, sir.
- Q Was Joshua Martin living with Joe Martin when the war broke out? A Yes, sir.
- Q When did Joshua Martin get back to the Cherokee Nation? A He never come; died.
- Q You never saw him? A I saw him afterward; he died up there.
- Q He remained up there after the war closed? A He was dead.
- Q Did he die before the war closed? A Yes, sir.
- Q Do you know what year? A No, sir, I never kept track of the year; I come on back down here in '65.
- Q You came back to the Cherokee Nation in '65? A Yes, sir.
- Q Where did Harrison, the man who lived on the Lynch place, go when the war broke out?

Mr. White: Objected to as immaterial.

Commission: Objection will be noted and witness will answer the question.

- A Just across the river from the Tan Yard over there on Lynch's branch. The Pens got him and took him up and killed him.
- Q What was the name of the applicants' mother? A Harriet.
- Q Who did she belong to before the war?

Mr. White: Objected to as immaterial.

Commission: Objection will be noted and witness will answer the question.

A She belonged to Harrison, the woman did before the war; belonged to Harrison and in between them was Joe Lynch, and he still let her stay there and cook for Harrison while he was taking care of his cattle. Old man Joe Lynch went south and died and Harrison was taken up and killed; Pen Injuns killed him.

Q As I understand you, at the time the war broke out the mother of the applicants in these cases, James Martin and Mary Watson, was the slave of Harrison, is that correct? A No, sir, I couldn't tell; they was in Lynch's possession.

Q Then you don't know of your own personal knowledge to whom Harriet Martin, James Martin and Mary Watson belonged at the breaking out of the war?

Mr. White: Objected to as immaterial.

Commission: Objection will be noted and witness will answer the question.

A Lynch had them in possession, and I couldn't tell just which they belonged to. They were under mortgage to Lynch. He let her stay there to cook, and then they both died, and I don't know how they went; don't know how the children all divided, some went south and some north.

Q How old were you when the war broke out? A 21 years old.

Q Do you know anything about the mortgage you have been speaking about, or did you ever see it? A Never saw it; just heard the talk among them.

Mr. White: I wish to call attention to the fact that in the direct examination, I have not asked this witness anything about any ownership of the mother, Harriet, and I expect, for that reason, that the Cherokee Nation will be bound by any matters brought out by him, and to that purpose witness will be the witness of the Cherokee Nation.

Q Did the applicants, James Martin or Mary Watson, ever live with Joshua Martin? A Yes, sir.

Q When was that with reference to the breaking out of the war?

Mr. White: Objected to as immaterial.

Commission: Objection will be noted and witness will answer the question.

A He took them from here to Ottoway, Kansas.

Q Where did you first see them after the war, the applicants in this case? A On Cabin Creek.

Q Who were they with? A Simon Lynch.

Q Your brother? A No, sir, no kin to me.

Q Where did you next see them? A I couldn't tell just exactly, once in a while, back there among their people; times was hard and nobody could keep them.

Q You don't know anything about anybody trying to keep the, do you? A I know of them trying to get places to stay.

Q Who? A With me a while and did stop with me a while, and on up the river with Nellie Frye.

Q She has never testified in this case, has she? A No, sir; not as I know of.

Q This is the first time you have testified in this case isn't it?

A First time they called on me.

Q How many freedmen cases have you testified in?

Mr. White: Objected to as immaterial.

Commission: Objection will be noted and witness will answer.

A I don't know; kept no record.

JAMES MARTIN, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

By the Commission:

Q What is your name? A James Martin.

Q How old are you? A I don't know my age just exactly.

Q What is your postoffice? A Vinita and Woodland; get mail at both places.

Q You are an applicant for enrollment as a Cherokee freedman?

A Yes, sir.

Q When you applied before the Commission in 1901, you gave your age as 42, was that right? A Yes, sir, something like it.

Q Then you are about 45 now? A Yes, sir.

By Mr. White:

Q When you were brought into the Nation at the close of the war to what place were you taken? A Uncle Simon Lynch's.

Q Where was that? A On Big Cabin Creek.

Q Was your sister, Mary Watson, with you? A Yes, sir.

Q What was the occasion of your going out of the Nation after you were brought in here?

Mr. Davenport: I object to that, because he hasn't shown that he went out; it is immaterial and presupposes what did happen.

Mr. White: I am perfectly willing to admit that he never went out.

Commission: Objection will be noted and witness will answer the question.

A Well, times was hard, and a missionary man stopped at Uncle Simon's and said he would take us and take care of us and said he would give us an education and raise us like white people.

Q Did he take you? A Yes, sir.

Q Where? A Up in Kansas; don't know just exactly now.

Q You said in your former testimony that you staid with him and run off and left him and came back to the Cherokee Nation, is that correct? A Yes, sir.

Q And that you were then about 13 or 14 years of age? A Yes, sir.

Q From that time on where did you make your home? A Right here in the Territory.

Q Ever since that time? A Yes, sir.

Q Your sister was taken to Kansas by this missionary? A Yes, sir.

Q And she afterwards came back did she? A Yes, sir.

Q And her home is in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know when your sister came back to the Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q About when? A Well, it was later on after that.

Q About how old was she, if you know? A When she came back, about 14 or 15 years old.

Q And has she since then made her home in the Nation? A Yes, sir, generally made it her home. This is our home, the folks always told us, and we didn't know no place else.

Q What was your father's name? A Joshua Martin.

Q Did he recognize you as his son?

Mr. Davenport: We object to that as incompetent and immaterial. It makes no difference whether the father recognizes his son or not.

Mr. White: We don't insist upon the question, since the representatives of the Nation admit that.

Mr. Davenport: The representative of the Nation hasn't admitted anything and the representative of the applicants must not construe his remarks as meaning any such thing.

Commission: Objection will be noted and witness will answer the question.

A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know who owned your father? A Yes, sir.

Q Who?

Mr. Davenport: I object to that as incompetent and immaterial.

Commission: Objection will be noted and witness will answer the question.

A Joe Martin, Cherokee Indian.

Q Was he a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

By Mr. Davenport:

Q How old were you when Joe Martin died? A I don't know just exactly, Mr. Davenport.

Q You can't remember him, can you? A Yes, sir, staid at his house several times; set up at night and talked with him till one and two o'clock.

Q How long before the war do you remember seeing Joe Martin?

A Well, I cannot say, because I was small.

Q You can't recollect when the war broke out? A Don't know but very little about that.

Q Your mother's name was Harriet, wasn't it? A Yes, sir.

Mr. White: We insist that the Cherokee Nation be bound by the answers to any questions in relation to Harriet, the mother, for the reason that we haven't asked this witness anything about her.

Q Did you ever live at your father's, Joe Martin's, before the war? I mean with who was reputed to be your father?

Mr. White: Objected to as immaterial.

Commission: Objection will be noted and witness will answer the question.

A Don't know; couldn't say; was small and don't know.

Q Your mother didn't belong to Joe Martin, did she? A Not that I know of.

Q Do you know, or have you information from the family history as to whom she did belong at the breaking out of the war? A Yes, sir.

Q To whom? A Joe Lynch.

Q Isn't it a fact that the family history of the Lynch family, and that as you received it, discloses that she belonged to John Harrison and not to Joe Lynch?

Mr. White: We now object to that question, for the reason, that, having been warned, the representative of the Nation has gone beyond the scope of the examination in chief, has received an answer to that very question, and is now undertaking to cross-examine his own witness.

Commission: Objection will be noted and witness will answer the question.

A Not, to my knowledge, no, sir.

Q Do you know Lon Lynch, son of Joe Lynch? A Just when I see him.

Q Now, Jim where were you living when you first remember after you come back to the Cherokee Nation? A Where were I living?

Q Yes, sir. A I lived on Gooseneck Bend a while, and on----

Q The first time you remember; not the different places, the first place you lived in the Cherokee Nation after the war? A That I lived?

Q Yes. A After I come back from Kansas, I lived up there on Possum Creek a part of the time and working around in the Cherokee Nation.

Q The first time that you remember living in the Nation after the war, not the different places, the first place you were living in the Cherokee Nation after the war? A Well, I couldn't say the very first spot that I remember living, but I can tell you where I lived from one place to another back to about '74.

Q Didn't you testify in your original testimony as to the first place you lived? A I don't know.

Q Didn't you say in that examination that you were living over on Gooseneck? A I don't know; remember I lived there at Gooseneck and at Possum Creek and on Big Creek.

Q I am asking you about the ~~first place~~ first place? A I disremember whether I stated that that was the first place or not.

Q If you did state that the first time you recollected was on Gooseneck, that was correct, wasn't it? A I don't know; I believe that we lived--

Q I am asking you if your statements in your original examination were that you were living on Gooseneck and whether or not that was correct? A I couldn't say, Mr. Davenport, the first place that I lived, I couldn't say.

Q You know when you gave testimony in 1901 as well where you lived first in the Cherokee Nation as you know to-day, didn't you? A I don't know whether, I couldn't say, recollect now whether it was I told you--

Q The question was, if you didn't know when you gave testimony in 1901 as well where the first place was you lived as you do today?

A It looks very reasonable that I should. I lived at all these places, but I couldn't say whether I told you at that time Gooseneck or Possum Creek.

Mr. Davenport: The representative of the Cherokee Nation requests that the hearing in these cases be continued for ten days, in order to enable it to produce testimony to rebut the testimony brought out to-day by the applicants as to the ownership of the applicants, and as to the return of the applicants and as to their remaining in the Cherokee Nation.

Commission: The Commission's records show that the applicants, their attorneys and the attorneys for the Cherokee Nation were notified that they would be permitted to appear before the Commission at nine o'clock A. M., on June 15, 1904, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and introduce such testimony as they might desire touching the points mentioned in the Department's letter of April 4, 1904, remanding this case, copies of which letter were furnished the parties concerned. By agreement of the parties concerned this case has been taken up for such hearing on this day, and the Commission cannot now grant a continuance.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of James Martin et al., as Cherokee Freedmen, consolidating the applications of:

James Martin,
Mary Ann Watson,

Cherokee Freedman D 344,
Cherokee Freedman D 347.

---:--

D E C I S I O N.

The record herein shows that applications for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen were made to this Commission by James Martin for himself; and by Mary Ann Watson for herself. The application of Mary Ann Watson also included her husband, Howard F. Watson, who claims right to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman by intermarriage, but as his application has been otherwise disposed of, he will not be embraced in this decision. The record further shows that on July 10, 1903, this Commission rendered its decision herein denying said applicants the right to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, and that said decision was duly forwarded to the Department. Thereafter, on April 4, 1904 (Departmental letter I. T.D. 1370-04), this case was remanded for further testimony, and on May 24, 1904, further testimony in the matter of said application was taken at Muskogee, Indian Territory.

The evidence herein shows that at the commencement of the Rebellion the applicants, James Martin and Mary Ann Watson, together with their mother, Harriet Harrison, were the slaves of one John Harrison, a non-citizen of the Cherokee Nation; and, except that their names appear upon the Wallace roll, they cannot be identified on any roll of the Cherokee Nation.

The evidence further shows that said applicants herein were born several years prior to 1860; that their father, Joshua Martin, at the commencement of the Rebellion was the slave of a Cherokee citizen, and that during said rebellion applicants herein and their father, were taken from the Cherokee Nation; as to whether or not said applicants or their father returned to the Cherokee Nation within the time specified in the Whitacre decree, for the return of freedmen to the Cherokee Nation, the Commission does not believe it necessary to consider in order to properly adjudicate the rights to enrollment of these applicants.

As the opinion entertained by the Commission is in direct conflict with the recommendations of the Acting Commissioner, as indicated by his letter of February 16, 1904 (Land 81104-03), it is considered advisable to more fully discuss two questions raised by the record in this case, viz:

(1) The ownership of children born of slave parents where the parents are owned by different masters; and

(2) Under Article nine of the Treaty of 1866, can applicants, born prior to the commencement of the rebellion, claim as descendants of freedmen, or must they stand or fall upon their ability to show whether or not they, themselves, have complied with the provisions of said Article nine of the treaty of 1866?

In re doctrine of Partus Sequitur Ventrem:

In language more forcible than elegant, the doctrine of partus sequitur ventrem was illustrated by Justice Buller of England, as follows:

"Whoever bulleth my cow the calf is mine."

"Under the Roman law slavery may originate in three ways: Either by birth-- as when the mother was a slave, ..... ." Am. Enc. of Law, Vol. 25 p. 1089 citing Westbrook v Mitchell, 24 Tex. 560.

In this country it has been held that "The chief means of the perpetuation of slavery in the United States was the adoption from the civil law of the rule partus sequitur ventrem, by which the condition of the child became that of the slave mother." Am. Enc. of Law, Vol. 25 p. 1089, citing in connection with a number of Federal and state court decisions the case of Fowler v Merrill, 52 U.S. 375, 13 L. Ed. 736, where it was expressly held that "The children of slaves belong to the owner of the mother."

In re term "descendants" as used in Article nine of the treaty of 1866:

Said article, in part, provides:

"All freedmen who have been liberated by voluntary act of their former owners or by law, as well as all free colored persons who were in the country at the commencement of the rebellion, and are now residents therein, or who may return within six months, and their descendants, shall have all the rights of native Cherokees."

In Departmental letter of March 25, 1904 (I.T.D. 2528-04), in reply to certain questions submitted by attorneys for the Cherokee Nation, it is held by the Assistant Attorney General, in considering said article nine of the treaty of 1866, that

"The period of six months fixed by the treaty is not a limitation upon a right, but a condition qualifying a right given, or created by the treaty. It is in the nature of a condition precedent and essentially a part of the facts out of which the right given arises. There is no right independent of the existence of the conditions imposed. Such limitations affect all alike, competent or incompetent."

Reasoning by analogy, it is difficult to see, if the limitation above indicated is a "condition qualifying a right given" and "affects all alike, competent or incompetent", why the limitation: "freedmen who have been liberated by voluntary act of their former (Cherokee) owners or by law", is not a condition qualifying a right given, and should not affect all alike, be they competent or incompetent, one day or sixty years old.

For the purpose of defining our position in this matter more clearly, permit us to divide the freedmen upon whom citizenship was conferred by said article nine of the treaty of 1866, into two classes:

- (1) All free colored persons residing in the Cherokee country, and all slaves of Cherokee citizens, at the commencement of the rebellion; and
- (2) Their descendants.

The language of the treaty is broad enough to include in the first class all freedmen, etc., and all free colored persons etc., who were in being at the commencement of the rebellion, irrespective of their age, and, in order to perfect their right to Cherokee citizenship, upon them, individually, was imposed the personal duty of complying with the treaty stipulations of 1866.

Were it permitted those in the first class to establish their rights to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by showing that their ancestors had complied with the treaty stipulations of 1866, this Commission would be placed in the embarrassing attitude of enrolling certain applicants (for instance James Martin and Mary Ann Watson), and denying their children born since the commencement of the rebellion, although such children had done nothing to forfeit their rights to enrollment. It would exempt from compliance with said treaty stipulations those freedmen, born prior to the commencement of the rebellion, whose ancestors had perfected their rights to enrollment as freedmen citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

And again, if a child two years old at the commencement of the rebellion could violate the treaty stipulations of 1866, and still claim the right to enrollment by showing that his ancestors had perfected their right, why cannot an applicant twenty-five, or fifty, years old at the commencement of the rebellion do the same?

As to the second class, designated by the term "their descendants", in Article nine of the treaty of 1866, it is clear to the Commission that it was the intention of the treaty makers to include in this class only those born since the commencement of the rebellion, who can show a continuity in the line of descent from their nearest ancestor included in the first class.

In view of the foregoing, the position of the Commission can be summarized as follows:

First. Under the law, children born to a slave mother belong to the owner of the mother, irrespective of the ownership of the father.

Second. That the term "their descendants", as used in the treaty of 1866, is intended to include only those born since the commencement of the rebellion who are the lineal descendants of slaves of Cherokee citizens, or of free colored persons residing in the Cherokee country at the commencement of the rebellion.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the applications for the enrollment of James Martin and Mary Ann Watson as Cherokee Freedmen, should be denied, under the provisions of section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 26, 1896 (30 Stat., 495), and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
Office of Indian Affairs,

Washington, February 16, 1904.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior,

Sir:

There is transmitted herewith for the consideration of the Department the record of the proceedings had before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in the matter of the application of James Martin for the enrollment of himself and the application of Mary A. Watson for the enrollment of herself, both as Cherokee freedmen citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

It further appears that the application of the said Mary A. Watson also includes the name of her husband, Howard F. Watson, who claims the right to be enrolled as a Cherokee freedman citizen of said nation by intermarriage, but that his application is not embraced in this decision.

On July 10, 1903, the Commission rendered a decision in this case, finding from the evidence that the applicants, James Martin and Mary A. Watson were born prior to the beginning of the war of the rebellion and that they were not slaves of Cherokee citizens or free colored persons residing in the Cherokee Nation at the beginning of the war of the rebellion, and that their names are not found on the 1880 authenticated roll of the Cherokee Nation.

By reason of these findings and facts the Commission is of the opinion that the applications for the enrollment of James Martin and Mary A. Watson should be denied, under the provisions of section 21 of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 ( 30 Stats. 495)

I have examined the record evidence submitted in this case and find that the said James Martin testified that he has lived in the Cherokee Nation nearly all his life; that his father's name was Joshua Martin who is dead, and that his mother's name was Harriet Martin, and that she is also dead.

I find that the tendency of all the evidence submitted in this case is to establish the status of his said mother, Harriet Martin and it seems to be an unsettled question as to whether she was the slave of a non citizen by the name of Harrison or the slave of Joe Lynch at the beginning of the war.

There is but little testimony submitted as to the father of these applicants, whose name is given as Josh or Joshua Martin. It does appear from the evidence that this Joshua Martin was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the beginning of the war. I consider that the record should show more fully just what became of the said Joshua Martin during the war, and about the only testimony as to him is that of David

Martin, who says he is 64 years old, has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life except during the war; that he knows the applicant James Martin and knew his father, Josh Martin; that he first knew the applicant in 1856 or '7 or '9; that he was over at Joe Lynch's when the war commenced; that his mother belonged to Joe Lynch, who bought her from Harrison; that Joe Lynch was a Cherokee Indian and citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

On cross examination he testifies when asked if he knows when Josh Martin came back, as follows: "no, in '63 I was in Kansas and visited Josh and his family and he had Mary and Jim." The witness is again asked when they came back to the Cherokee Nation and answers: "well, if you will let me tell you, I can tell you; I went on in the army in '63 and in '66 when I came back coming home that way they wasn't there; they was done left Kansas and had come to the nation."

The witness is then asked how he knows they had come to the nation and replies: "I went to see them and they had left for the nation." He is then asked "you don't know where they had gone?" and answers "no sir, that is what was said."

There is some additional testimony taken to show that the said James Martin returned to the nation in 1866, but as stated above, this matter does not seem to have been gone into very thoroughly by either the parties or the nation, as the nation apparently ignored the status of the father and undertook to show that the mother was not the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the beginning of the rebellion, evidently believing that fact alone would be sufficient to make these applicants ineligible to enrollment.

On November 6, 1903 Messrs. Kimball & White filed a brief in this case on behalf of the applicants wherein they set out that the applicants are negroes and were little children at the beginning of the civil war and were living in the Cherokee Nation; that they were taken into Kansas for a short time, but that it is clearly established that they returned within the six months limit fixed by the Cherokee "constitution and that they have been rejected by the Commission on the sole ground that their mother, one Harriet Johnson was the slave of one Harrison, who was a white man and not a citizen of the Cherokee Nation. These attorneys state that the evidence on this question is somewhat conflicting, but that aside from that question it is certain that Joshua Martin, who was the slave of Joe Martin, a Cherokee citizen, was the father of these children. Said attorneys then refer to the requirements of the Curtis Act that the roll of Cherokee freedmen shall be made in strict compliance with the decree of the Court of Claims rendered February 3, 1896, and then take up the question of who are descendants as used in said decision.

It is not claimed by these attorneys that the said Joshua Martin returned to the Cherokee Nation within the proper time. As the evidence now stands I consider that it is necessary to hold that the said Josh Martin and his said children were in the Cherokee Nation within the time stipulated by the treaty provisions of 1866, although the evidence is not satisfactory on this point, yet there is some evidence to that effect and none whatever disputing it.

I am therefore of the opinion that unless the nation can show that neither these children nor their father did return to the Cherokee Nation within the proper time, these applicants should be enrolled as Cherokee freedmen citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

On December 16, 1903 the Department transmitted to this office a brief in said case on behalf of the Cherokee Nation, drawn by W. W. Hastings, attorney for the nation, but I cannot concur with the attorney in his argument therein as to the meaning of the word "descendants" as used in the treaty of 1866. In speaking of the return of these applicants, the attorney states that there is no satisfactory proof that they returned to the Cherokee Nation within the time prescribed by the treaty, but that the Cherokee Nation did not particularly press that point in the introduction of testimony for the reason that the testimony as to the ownership of these two applicants was positive, clear and convincing of the fact that they were not owned by citizens of the Cherokee Nation. I do not believe that these applicants' admission is dependant upon the fact of whether their mother was or was not owned by a Cherokee citizen, since the evidence shows that their father was so owned by a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the rebellion.

The sole question as I view it is did either they or their father return to the nation within the proper time. Otherwise I consider them eligible for admission and on this point the evidence being in their favor, I recommend that either this record be returned for further evidence or that the decision of the Commission be set aside and the parties be enrolled as aforesaid.

Very respectfully,

WCB/IM

Gentlemen:

July 23, 1903, you transmitted the record in the Cherokee freedman case of James Martin, et al., including your decision of July 10, 1903, rejecting the application of James Martin and Mary A. Watson.

Reporting February 18, 1904, the Acting Commissioner of Indian Affairs recommends that either the record be returned for further evidence, or that your decision be set aside and the parties enrolled.

Following the rule heretofore adopted by the Department, it is necessary in such cases that the Nation and the applicants be allowed sufficient time in which to file arguments. The Department considers it fair to all parties that they be given an opportunity to produce further evidence if they so desire. You will therefore notify the applicants and the attorney for the Nation of the recommendation of the Acting Commissioner, and that they will be allowed thirty days within which to produce further evidence. The testimony and papers attached are inclosed herewith, together with arguments filed by the nation and the applicants and a copy of the Acting Commissioner's letter.

Respectfully,

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to enclose a report from the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated April 19, 1908, transmitting the record of the consolidated applications for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen by James Martin for himself and Mary A. Watson for herself.

July 10, 1903, the Commission decided adversely to the applicants.

The record shows that the applicants were born prior to the beginning of the war of the rebellion and that they were ~~xxxx~~ not slaves of ~~xxx~~ Cherokee citizens or free colored persons residing in the Cherokee Nation at the beginning of the war. None of the applicants is identified on the 1880 authenticated Cherokee roll.

In view of the record the approval of the Commission's decision adverse to the applicants is recommended.

Very respectfully,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I received by reference of September 19, 1906, the records in the applications of James Martin and of Mary A. Watson for enrolment as Cherokee freedmen. Reference is made to Article IX of the treaty of 1866 (14 Stat., 799), and my opinion is requested--

Notwithstanding, in view of the words "and their descendants" in said treaty, the applicants in this case, born prior to the war of the rebellion, are entitled to enrollment as descendants of their father, a slave of a Cherokee citizen, their mother being a slave of a citizen of the United States.

The question, by its necessary implication, states the fact found by the Commission and accepted by the Department that the applicants were themselves living when the war of the rebellion broke out, and that they are the children of a father who was the slave of a Cherokee citizen and of a mother who was the slave of a citizen of the United States not a Cherokee citizen.

I am of opinion that all former slaves living at the outbreak of the rebellion made citizens by the treaty are included in the words "all freedmen," to which general class the words "their descendants" have reference as a class taking their rights by succession to and descent from the first class named. The outbreak of the rebellion being the point of time fixed to which the general class has reference, in my opinion it follows of necessity that the words "their descendants" logically and necessarily are limited to persons born after that time, and that a person then living must show right in himself as being included in the first class, and can not establish a right by proof of an earlier descent from one of that class.

Very respectfully,

Frank L. Campbell.

Sir:

On May 4, 1905 (Land 31387), the Indian Office transmitted a report from the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes dated April 19, 1905, forwarding the record of the consolidated application for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen of James Martin, for himself, and Mary A. Watson, for herself, together with its decision of July 10, 1903, adverse to said applicants.

The Indian Office concurred in the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes. A copy of its letter is enclosed herewith.

On September 26, 1906, the Assistant Attorney-General for this Department rendered a decision in reference to this case, which was approved by the Department on the same date, a copy of which is enclosed for your information.

In accordance with said opinion, the consolidated application of James Martin and Mary A. Watson for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen is hereby denied.

The record and accompanying papers have been returned

NOTICE.

In the Matter of the application of Charles Starr.
for enrollment as Cherokee citizens:

To Charles Starr, or Mellette & Smith his attorneys,

Vinita, I. T.

You are hereby notified that the Cherokee Nation will present before the United States Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes testimony on behalf of the Cherokee Nation tending to disprove your right to be enrolled as a Cherokee citizen at the office of the United States Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, Cherokee Enrollment Division, in the town of Muskogee, Indian Territory, on May, 27, 1902......, A. D. 1902, at 8 o'clock a. m., or from day to day thereafter until the same can be heard by said Commission during the usual business hours of said Commission for the taking of testimony both for and against applicants for enrollment as Cherokee citizens.

In testimony whereof, the undersigned representatives of the Cherokee Nation have hereunto set our hands at Muskogee, Indian Territory, this May, 24, 1902.

In the matter of the application of PERRY ADAMS for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman:

Applicant appears by Mellette & Smith; Cherokee Nation, by
W. W. Hastings:

By Mr. Smith:

The applicant moves the Commission to make the certified copy of the decree of the Court of Claims in the case of Moses Whitmire, Trustee for the Freedmen, vs The Cherokee Nation,
No. 17209, filed in the Mariah Hayden case F D 498, a part of the record in this case and the cases hereinafter mentioned by reference to the said case of the said Mariah Hayden, and if it be deemed necessary that a copy of the said decree be filed in this case and in the following cases, to-wit:

Hannah Starr, D 346;

By W. W. Hastings:

Comes now the Cherokee Nation and objects to the introduction of the decree because, First: It does not tend to show that the applicant was a slave of the Cherokee Nation at the beginning of the war, nor that he returned within the time specified in the treaty of 1866, or that he had been a continuous resident of the Cherokee Nation since that time, or that he is a descendant of such a person. Second: Because the same is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, and does not tend to prove an issue in this case.
Third: Because the Commission will take judicial knowledge of all laws, treaties and decrees necessary for the determination of the right of any person who makes application for citizenship.
Fourth: The Cherokee Nation objects to the filing of a certified copy of this decree in the case of an applicant unless the same is called and filed in each individual case.

Commission:

The motion of the attorney for the applicant will be entertained and the decree of the Court of Claims filed in the case of Mariah Hayden will be made a part of the record by reference in all the cases above named with the exception of those which come within the provisions of the temporary injunction recently granted by Judge Gill of the United States Court, of the Northern District, Indian Territory.

Mr. Smith:

The applicant further moves that as to the above named cases including the Mariah Hayden case that counsel for the applicant be allowed within thirty days to file any of the proof of any or all of the record other than the decree already referred to in the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee, vs Cherokee Nation, on file in the Court of Claims to the counsel of the Cherokee Nation if it is desired to do so.

W. W. Hastings:

The Cherokee Nation certainly most strenuously objects to the allowance of this permission or to the granting of this request for the reason that most of these applicants have had more than a year in which to file all of their testimony that they desired to file to make out their case before the Commission and that notice was given them all by agreement in March last, that the cases would be closed so far as testimony was concerned by the special permission of the firm of attorneys representing these applicants, on the 31st day of May, 1902, and that this being the 31st day of May, 1902, we say that under the rulings of the Commission, that under the agreement between the attorneys, that the testimony in all these cases is to close and should be closed by the Commission, and that no extension should be granted in any case and no case re-opened unless there is some special and particular reason shown either by the Cherokee Nation on the one side or the applicant on the other why an extension of time is necessary or desired.

The Commission:

The law provides that the roll of Cherokee freedmen shall be made in strict compliance with the decree of the Court of Claims rendered the 3rd day of February, 1896, and as the Commission must take judicial notice of the judgment roll of said Court in the proceedings referred to the motion of attorneys for applicants for additional time to file certified copies of the proceedings of the said Court is denied.

-----

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings in the above case and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Page 10, No. 248, Walter Starr, Cooweescoowee District.
Page 10, No. 249, Herb Starr, Cooweescoowee District.
Page 10, No. 250, Erna Starr, Cooweescoowee District.

JACK STARR, being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

- Q Give me your full name? A Jack Starr.
Q How old are you? A To the best of my knowledge, I am about 66 this year.
Q What is your postoffice? A Centralia.
Q Are you the husband of the applicant there, Georgia Starr?
A Yes, sir.
Q About how long ago was it when you and she were married?
A Well, it's been about 19 years I guess now.
Q Were you ever married before? A Yes, sir.
Q What was the name of your first wife? A Charlotte Whitmore.
She was a Mayes; her father was Mayes.
Q Was she dead when you married this wife? A Yes, sir, she was dead two years and six months.
Q I don't find your name on the roll of 1880 or the roll of 1896, can you explain why you are not on the roll of 1880?
A Just because the Cherokees wouldn't put me on; they have been trying to lose us all they could.
Q What reason did they give for not putting you on? A I don't know; they didn't claim us.
Q How long do you claim to have lived in the Cherokee Nation?
A I have lived here ever since I can recollect.
Q Since before the war? A Yes, sir.
Q Were you a slave in the Cherokee nation when the war broke out?
A Yes, sir.
Q To whom did you belong? A Old Dr. Thornton, when the war broke out.
Q What was his full name? A John.
Q Dr. John Thornton? A Yes, sir.
Q Where did he live? A In goinganake district, in the east part.

Q Was he a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir, I guess he was; he was an Indian.

Q Where did you go during the war - where did they take you? A They didn't take me anywhere; I took myself in the first Indian Regiment.

Q Where did you enlist? A I wasn't a soldier; I was a teamster and working for officers.

Q Where did you join the regiment? A I went into it when it started north.

Q Where was it? A 'By Lewis Ross' place somewhere.

Q Where did you go with them? A I went up north with them.

Q Up in Kansas? A They went there to Kansas; they went up to Drywood, twelve miles this side of Fort Scott and stayed a while and then they come back and went to Arkansas and the edge of Missouri.

Q Where were you when the war closed? A At Fort Gibson.

Q Were you there at the time you quit working for the regiment? A Yes, sir, that is where they disbanded and turned them loose; the Cherokees told them to go.

Q What year was that, do you know? A I think I am not very well posted in dates; I think it was '65.

Q What time of the year did they disband then? A Well it was along about the middle of the summer or spring; I disremember now.

Q Well, where did you go after you quit that regiment? A I went up into Kansas where my wife was.

Q She had been carried up there? A Yes, sir, by the government teams.

Q What did you do up there? A I didn't stay there very long. I worked around there at Fort Scott for a while until I got myself a plug of a team and come back to the Nation here.

Q Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you bring your wife with you? A Yes, sir.

Q Was that your wife, Charlotte? A Yes, sir.

Q Well, when was that you brought your wife back? A That was along about the first of September or last of August, or somewhere along therein the year of '66, after I went up there. I went up in October in '65, and come back in '66.

Q Where did you locate when you came back with your wife? A Up on Big Creek in Cooweescoowee District.

Q How long did you live there? A From that date until this.

Q Always lived at the same place? A Yes, sir.

By W. W. Hastings: Did you come back in a wagon? A Yes, sir.

Q Your first wife with you? A Yes, sir.

Q How many children did you have? A I had three at that time, I think. No, two I believe.

Q What were their names? A One was named Charlie and one was named Aaron and Peggie.

Q Were these children all born before the war? A No, sir, one was born in the time of the war. No, I am mistaken, two was born before the war and one in the time of the war.

Q Which one was born in the time of the war? A Peggie.

Q Where was she born? A She was born up there while I was down here.

Q Who came back to the country with you? A Well, there was old man Mayes' folks, Berry Ward.

Q What Mayes? A Dave Mayes.

Q Dave Mayes come with you, did he? A Yes, sir.

Q Who else come with you? A Sam Whitmire and Jesse Whitmire.

Q Anybody else? A Yes, sir, there was old man Berry Ward; he is dead now. There was several come along; it has been a long time to recollect these things. I told you once who came along with us.

Q I am seeing if you remember the same way this time? A I don't keep no dates, and I can't recollect them all the time; I am trying to tell you the same I told you before.

Q You said before Dave Mayes was living in the Cherokee Nation when you came? A No, sir, I don't think I did.

Q You swear now that he come with you? A Yes, sir, he come with us.

Q What part of the Cherokee nation did you come to? A Come on the north part of this district up on Big Creek.

Q How far from the Kansas line did you settle? A I don't know how far; it is some ten or fifteen miles.

Q How far did you come from the place where you are now? A Not more than a mile.

Q You came to the same neighborhood? A Yes, sir, same place. I live right on the same place that I first improved.

Q How far did Will Martin live from you at that time? A Who is that?

Q He is a Cherokee citizen? A He was in Kansas somewhere; he wasn't there when I come there.

Q You are positive about that? A Yes, sir.

Q Where was Jim Martin? A He was Dilways somewhere, I don't know.

Q A few Osages were there? A Yes, sir, there were some Osages there; they stole horses from us.

Q They were the only ones beginning there at that time? A That is all I know at that time.

Q Were there a good many houses on Big Creek when you come? A Good many foundations and log houses; they were putting up some there; not very many.

Q Were Aaron Wright and Lewis Wright there? A Yes, sir.

Q Casesar Smith? A He come with me, Casesar Smith come with me.

Q How about Mike Sanders? A He was there when I come there.

Q Did he have a place? A Yes, sir.

Q A house? A Yes, sir, some kind of a log hut.

Q How far did he live from you? A About a mile I guess from where I am living now. He lived about one mile.

Q How long did you stay at Fort Gibson after you were mustered out of the service? A I wasn't a soldier.

Q After the others were mustered out? A I stayed around there - ~~from~~ I left there about the first of October. I know there was a little frost. I went to Kansas with Tim Walker.

Q Cherokee Tim Walker? A Yes, sir.

Q Dick Walker's father? A I don't know; I guess it was his son.

Q You went with him? A Yes, sir, I rid up in his wagon myself and one of his boys was along; I don't know his name.

Q What did you do up in Kansas? A I knocked around there, enough to get me a plug old team and get back; I couldn't tell you what I worked; one thing and another.

Q You worked long enough to get a team and wagon? A Yes, sir, I got an old wagon that lasted until I got down here.

Q You supported your family in the meantime also? A Yes, sir.

Q And you think you came here in August? A First of September or last of August.

Q You know it wasn't later than September? A Yes, sir, I know it wasn't later than that.

Q Was Sam Weber already living down there then? A Yes, sir, he was living there.

Q Harro Still was there? A Yes, sir.

Q Lewis Wright? A Yes, sir.

Q These people had houses there when you come? A Harry Still didn't; they were down on the foot of Lightning Creek.

You are certain you never saw Will Martin? A I have seen him, but I never saw him when I come that year that I know of.

Q There were no Cherokees there then? A Dick Carter was down somewhere on the Verdi Gris, and a man by the name of Coker was there.

Q Cal Coker? A John Coker.

Q You built yourself a house right away after you come? A Yes, sir, as soon as I could; I lived in a camp a while.

Q From whom did you get provisions to live on the first year? A I fetched some with me, all I could; and where I could get it; once in a while a wagon would come in from Missouri, from Chetopa, hauling flour and a piece of meat to sell, and I would get hold of a piece once in a while.

Q From what place in Kansas did you say you come? A Up there by Fort Scott.

Q Did you come by way of Chetopa? A I come a little west of Chetopa. I don't know whether there was any Chetopa there then; it was just starting; I didn't come on any railroad then, I am certain of that; there wasn't any railroad then.

Q You are certain there wasn't any railroad? A Yes, sir.

Q You are not certain whether there was any Chetopa, are you?

A I am not certain; there was a little place at Oswego then.

Q Wasn't Chetopa your nearest trading point when you came to the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir, that was the nearest point, but I didn't have any provisions to get.

Q Didn't you say you were getting provisions? A There was a mighty little Chetopa there.

Q When did you go to Coffeyville first? A I don't know that there was a Coffeyville then there. There was a little town Centralia before I knew of Coffeyville.

Q That was the town that was incorporated there the last few years in where you are living? A No, not Centralia; they moved down and then made old Parker. There was two or three stores there.

Commissioner: Did you get out a Cherokee license when you married this wife, or did you just have a preacher marry you? A Just a preacher married us.

The applicant applies for the enrollment of herself, her husband and four children. The applicant is identified on the roll of 1880 and the Kerns Clifton roll as a Cherokee Freedman. She has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life. Her change of name arising from marriage is established in a satisfactory manner, and she will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman. Of her four children named in the testimony, the three older are identified on the Kerns Clifton roll. Her lawful marriage to her husband, the father of these four children, is established in a satisfactory manner; they are all now living. The first three will now be listed for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen; and when she supplies the Commission with a certificate of birth of the youngest child, Mark Starr, this child also will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman. As for the ~~husband~~ applicant's husband, Jack Starr, he states that he was a slave in the Cherokee Nation at the beginning of the Civil War, and that he has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life, except a brief absence during the period of the war with the first Indian Regiment, and that he left the service when that regiment was mustered out in 1865, and that he was then with the regiment at Fort Gibson, Indian Territory. He claims to have come to the State of Kansas in a very short time, perhaps a few weeks after he left the service, for his wife and children; his wife at that time being his first wife who he states died before he married his present wife, and that he brought them back in the succeeding August or September of 1866, and that he has lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since. He did not marry his wife under a Cherokee license.

Q You married your first wife in slavery time, didn't you?
A Yes, sir.

Judgment continued.

And the only claim he makes to enrollment is of his own right. He is identified on the Kerns Clifton Roll, but not upon the roll of 1880, or upon that of 1896. For the further consideration of his testimony, he will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman on a doubtful card, and the final decision of the Commission will be made known to him at his postoffice address.

Supplemental.

Examined by W. W. Hastings of Jack Starr continued:

Q These men who had houses, whose names you have mentioned in your testimony as being down there when you came to Big Creek, they had their families, did they? A Yes, sir.

Q Had Sam Webber put in a crop of corn that year? A Well, he might have had a patch of corn. They had a roasting-ear patch.

Q When you come? A Yes, sir.

Q All of them had small patches? A Yes, they didn't raise anything to amount to anything. I saw a patch around his house there.

Supplemental D-443.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Chelsea, I.T., June 6, 1901.

Supplemental testimony in the case of Jack Starr for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman.

SAM WEBBER, being sworn and examined by Commissioner C. R.
Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Mellette & Smith, Applicant's attorneys, and J. S. Davenport, Cherokee Attorney, present.

Q Give me your name? A Sam Webber.

Q How old are you? A About 58 somewhere about there.

Q What is your postoffice? A Nowata.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A I was born here and went out and come back in '66 and been here ever since.

MR. Mellette: Do you know the applicant, Jack Starr? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know when he returned to the Cherokee Nation after the war? A Yes, sir.

Q When? A He come in the fall of '66.

Q Who came first in the fall, you or the applicant? A We come a little ahead; he come a few days after we moved, he settled where by us.

Q Where has he lived since that time? A Right there where he settled.

Q Has he a farm there now? A Yes, sir.

J. S. Davenport: How did it happen that he didn't get on the 1880 roll? A I don't know.

Q You had a patch and was cultivating it when he come, didn't you? A No, sir.

Q Didn't you have a roasting-ear patch when Jack Starr got down there? A No, sir, didn't have no roasting-ear patch.

Q He was mistaken then if he testified that you had a roasting-ear patch when he come? A He must be. I never had one until the next year.

Q When did you come back down there, Sam? A In July, and went back and moved.

Q What year in July? A In '66.

Q You came down before the treaty was made? A Yes, sir.

Q And came back in what part of the year? A When we come to build, we left Kansas the latter part of July and stayed until August.

Q And stayed there until when? A We went back as soon as we could put up some shanties.

Q And come back in the fall? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you clear out any patch then? A No, sir.

Q Who was with you when you first come down there? A Russell
Vann, my father, Mike Sanders, Reuben Sanders.

Q When this applicant came, who came with him? A Uncle Dave Mayes, Santa Ann Nivens and Cassar Smith and boys.

Q He came then some time after you came? Yes, sir, not a great while behind us.

Q Was Bill Martin living there on Big Creek when he came?

A No, sir, he wasn't there.

Q Where was he living when Bill Martin came on Bog Creek? A Right there where he made himself a place.

Q Has he been a recognized citizen up in that country or a disputed one? A Well, I couldn't tell you about that.
Q Well, you have been around that country and preaching; you know who are citizens and who are disputed? A I have seen them let him vote and sometimes they didn't let him vote.
Q Has he been disputed? A They call him a disputed citizen.
Q There are a great many disputed citizens up there who have farms, have they? A Yes, sir, they have farms there, some that are disputed.

Mr. Mellette: Are you on the roll of 1880 as a Freedman? A Yes, sir.

LEWIS WHITMIRE, being sworn and examined by Commissioner C. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give me your name? A Lewis Whitmire.
Q How old are you? A 62 years old as near as I know.
Q What is your postoffice? A Hayden.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A I never was out of the Nation.
Q Not during the war? A I have been living there all my life, grew up there?
Q Were you out during the war? A I was part of the time in the nation with the Cherokee army, and the other part in Missouri and Kansas driving teams.

Mr. Mellette: Are you on the roll of 1880? A Yes, sir.
Q As a Freedman citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you know the applicant, Jack Starr? A Yes, sir, I know him.
Q Do you know when he returned to the Cherokee Nation after the war? A Why, I think so.
Q When did you see him in the Cherokee Nation after the war first? A The first place I seen him was up on Big Creek.
Q What time? A Why it was along in the fall of '66. I don't know exactly what time.
Q Where was that you saw him? A Up here on Big Creek in the neighborhood where he lives now.
Q Where has he lived since that time? A He has been living there all the time to my best knowledge. I have noticed him there all the time; I never knowed him to be out since that time.

J. S. Davenport: What makes you remember it was in the fall of '66 when you saw him up there? A Why it was called that year when he come there, that is the only reason I remember.
Q Do you know how long he had been there when you saw him? A I saw him when he moved in.
Q You don't know where he was living before that? A No, sir, I don't.
Q You don't know where he has been any other year, where he has been living specially since that year? A He never has been away since that.
Q Q How does it happen that he is not on the roll of 1880 if he ~~was there~~ came there in '66? A I can't tell you, sir.
Q He has been a disputed citizen all the time? A That's what he has I guess.
Q You understood that all along, haven't you? A I understand that.
Q That he didn't return in time under the treaty of '66? A Yes, sir.

Q And still you think he came back there in '66? A I am real positive he did.

Q Did he come when Sam Webber come? A He come along a little time after Sam Webber did.

Q Well, when did Sam Webber come, what year? A Sam come in '66.

Q Sam had a roasting-ear patch growing when this man come?

A Not that I know of. I lived ten miles from there.

Q Well if this man testified that Sam had that patch, is it true or untrue? A I can't tell you; I wasn't there maybe at the time when a corn patch was made and growing.

Q Did Sam Webber come early enough in '66 to have a corn patch?

A Sam Webber come in the summer of '66.

Q He couldn't very conveniently had had a corn patch growing by the time this fellow got there? A I couldn't tell you about that, but I saw him.

Q You wouldn't swear positively as to what year it was, would you, Lewis? A Yes, sir.

Q Would you swear positively it was '66? A That was what everybody called it at that time.

Q What year was the Wallace roll made? A Well now sir you are getting away from me. I don't date nothing, and I don't recollect.

Q You know it was made at a certain time and you were interested in that at that time as well as you were interested in the '66 treaty? A I was put on the '80 roll, but I don't remember when that was.

Q What year was the Kern Clifton Roll made? A I think it was in '96.

Q But you think it is positive that it was forty years ago when this man come here? A Yes, sir, he come here in '66 when they called it over to me.

Q Did everybody call it to you? A Yes, they said it was '66.

Q Lewis, you don't belong to the Nelson Murrell's Protective Association? A No, sir, I don't.

Mr. Mellette: Now he asked you how this applicant didn't happen to be put on the 1880 roll, and he asked you if you don't know if it wasn't because he didn't get back here in '66. Do you know if anybody will say that he didn't get back here in '66?

A I don't, if they know as much about it as I do.

Q Do you know of anybody that would swear, or did you hear of anybody that would swear he didn't get back here in '66?

A No, sir.

J. S. Davenport: You were living there by him in '80, were you?.

A Yes, sir.

Q And Sam Webber was living there? A Sam Webber lived close neighbors, and I lived ten miles.

Q Both of you knew about the facts as much as you do now?

A Of course we do.

Q Neither of you ~~swore before the Kerns Clifton Commission~~ swore for him before the Kerns Clifton Commission? A I didn't.

Commissioner: Did you ever give evidence for this man, Jack Starr, at any time when he was trying to get on the roll? A No, sir, I don't think I did.

Q How does it happen that there were so many living there who knew he had come back and yet let him stay under the cloud of a doubtful citizen? A We couldn't put a man on the roll. We had nothing to do with the books.

Q Couldn't you have given evidence? A We might if they had called on us; they never called on us.

Q You were never called on to give evidence? A No, I never was called on; I could have give it the same as I am giving in now.

Mr. Mellette: Isn't it a fact that when the '80 roll was made, the Cherokee citizens passed around through the country and in many instances failed to call on people for evidence as to whether they came back in time or not? A Well, I don't know whether they did that or not. I know they failed to put them on because they had them already enrolled as doubtful citizens in that year when they made the '80 roll. They were already enrolled.

Q Who took the '80 census for the Freedmen in behalf of the Cherokee nation up in your country? A Up in my neighborhood. I know the man well.

Q Who was that? A Dick Duck and John Hicks.

Q Dick Duck is a Cherokee who talks pretty fair English?

A Yes, sir.

Q He is almost a full blood? A Yes, sir/

Q He lives down to Catoosa? A Yes, sir, he is the man that took my family down; he and John Hicks.

Q And Dick Duck is the man that came to your house? A Yes, sir.

Q Was John Hicks up in that country at all? A John Hicks was with him when he come to my house; they ate dinner with me.

Q Do you know whether Dick Duck is an educated man or not- can he write? A I don't know whether he can. I am not well acquainted with him about that.

J. S. Davenport: You know as a matter of fact that when any parties were missed in 1880, that there was created a revising committee to perfect that roll and put them on in 1880? A I don't know that Mr. Davenport; there might have been.

Q Do you know Moses Whitmire? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know that Moses Whitmire and his family were added by the revising committee and that the 1880 roll shows it if you had examined it? A I never examined it. I can't read. I would have to have somebody examine it for me, and I never had anybody to examine it for me.

J. S. Davenport: I want to show that Moses Whitmire and others had been added by the revising committee in 1880, which relates to Moses or Martin Whitmire.

Mr. Mellette: I think that would be a very peculiar proceeding. There is no law for a revising committee, and it is immaterial in this case.

Commissioner: There may have been a revising committee and it is recalled in a general way at this time that in a number of cases names were added to the roll of 1880 by the revising committee. This committee may have had power before the final adoption of the roll to both add and strike off names, and the name of the committee would indicate, but the existence of such power on the part of the committee would not of itself be of material consideration as to the rights of a claimant under the treaty of 1866, but whose name does not appear upon the roll of 1880.

Commissioner: Now Lewis Whitmire, when these people who were taking the census of 1880 came around to put you on the roll, what did they ask you, what did they do to find out whether you were entitled to go on that roll? A Why they just asked me if I was recognized by the Cherokees, and I told them, yes, and I supposed they knew I was recognized by the roll, but they didn't put one of my family on; they left my oldest child off, my step-child;

I raised right in the house with me. I married her mother when she was a little over two years old; she wasn't at home; she was working out and they never did put her on the roll.

Q Now was that child's mother a Cherokee Freedman? A Yes, sir.

Q Had she been a slave? A Yes, sir.

Q What reason did they give for leaving that child off? A Why she wasn't at home, and I suppose they thought she was grown; she was fourteen going on 15, and they thought she was grown. Dick Duck told me afterwards he thought she was a grown woman. When they went to my brother's she was working, and they didn't put her on, and I suppose if she had been at home they would have put her on the roll, but she wasn't there, and I made a statement to him when they went away, and they said they would put her name on when they got to my brother's, and she went to another neighbor's and they never did put her on.

Q Did they ask you that time what year you came back from Kansas?

A They asked me if I was recognized, and they opened a book and that was all.

Q Now this man, Jack Starr, had he been treated as a doubtful man before that? A Yes, sir, I suppose he had.

Q Had you heard before that that he had been called doubtful?

A I heard that before the election. I heard he was a doubtful citizen one year before that at an election time, and I can't tell how far before that.

Q Had they ever bothered you before that about voting? A No, sir, they never did after they recognized me in the Supreme Court, but they did one or two years before I went to the Court and proved my right.

Q That was before the roll of 1880, was it? A Yes, sir.

Q So you had gone to the courts and proved your rights? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you tell the enrollment officers that? A No, sir, they knowed it.

Q Well now, do you know whether Jack Starr ever went there to prove his rights? A No, sir, I don't.

J. S. Davenport: What was the name of that step-daughter of yours? A Lizzie.

Commissioner of Applicant, Jack Starr: Did you ever apply to the Cherokee Court up at Tahlequah to have your rights as a Freedman recognized? A I went once when Bob Daniels had a court after they took about a paper, and it didn't say anything about colored or Indian; and it said "Come and prove your right."

Q You went up there? A I went up there on horseback.

Q What did they do when you went up? A They laughed at us and said for us to go back and go to work.

Q Do you remember when Lewis Whitmire went up there to have his rights proved? A Yes, sir, there was another court sitting. I believe they called it the Chambers Court.

Q Did he go after you or before you did? A He went after I did; he went to the Chambers Court; they admitted him.

Q Well, you didn't go back to the Chambers court? A No, sir.

Q So that is all you had to do with courts about the business?

A The second chief, Bill Penn Adair, I believe, when I went down here, they said to go to the government they freed you, go to them.

Q Well you didn't stop at that, you went to the court and found out they weren't dealing with colored people? A Yes, that was the same time; he was in the same house there at Tahlequah and we came back home.

Mr. Mellette: Well, Jack, how long had you been free at that time? Well, it must have been- I don't know exactly; ' it must have been four or five years, or three or four.

Q Did you know anything about business movh? A No, sir.

Q Had you been raised to understand anything about courts?

A No, sir.

Q Are you able to read and write? A No, sir.

J. S. Davenport: Well Jack, you come back with Sam Webber to the Cherokee Nation after the war? A No, sir, I come alittle after he did.

Q Do you know whether or not Sam Webber applied to the Bob Daniels' Court to establish his rights as a Cherokee Freedman?

A Well there was thirty or forty of us. I believe the old man was along.

Q Don't you know that Sam Webber and his family and Johnson Webber and Charles Campbell applied to the Bob Daniels' Court at the time you went down there, and they were all admitted and you didn't make no application or was rejected if you did apply?

A No, sir, they applied, but I don't think----I think they did like I did.

Q Don't you know they applied and were admitted by the Bob Daniels' Court? A No, sir.

Commissioner: Did this man go the same time you did? A There was some of them went. I aint certain whether Sam Webber went. I think old Sam Webber was along. I forgot about Sam, and I don't know about this man or not.

J. S. Davenport: Was Johnson Webber along? A I don't remember.

Q Or Harry Still, was he along? A I don't know whether he was along. I know Mike Sanders ~~xxx~~ was along, Caesar Smith, a whole lot of them was along.

Q Do you remember what year it was that you went down there to that Court? A No, sir, I don't.

Q Was it a few years after you come back to the Territory?

A Yes, sir, it wasn't more than one year or two years.

Q A short while after you came back? A It might have been three.

Q Have you no recollection; you live in the Webber neighborhood- did you hear of them talking about their going down there and proving their right? A No,,sir, I know they went down there a time or two. Old man Webber, they owned him down there somewhere, and he went down among the full bloods and around in there.

LEWIS WHITMIRE recalled and examined by Commissioner:

Q Did Jack Starr go to Tahlequah the same time you went there to get your rights proved? A No, sir.

Commissioner of Applicant: Did you go with old man Sam Webber?

A Yes, sir.

J. S. Davenport: Didn't old man Sam apply and his family and Johnson Webber? A Well I couldn't tell.

Commissioner: Did this Sam Webber who testified in your case, did he apply the same time you did down at Tahlequah? A Well I aint certain whether he was in that crowd, but he applied to the Chambers' Court, I think.

Q Is this the son of old Sam? A Yes, sir.

Mr. Mellette of Applicant: Did the tell you to bring your witnesses and prove that you had come in in time to be a citizen? A No, sir, they didn't. They told us at that Court to go home and go to work; they were not calling for niggers; we didn't want you; that is what they said.

Q You didn't know anything to do but to go home? A I didn't know anything else to do but to go home. I didn't have much of a home to go to.

J. S. Davenport: Well they didn't tell old Man Sam Webber to do that; they didn't tell him to go than? A If he was in the crowd they told him.

Q Was he in the crowd? A One of the Sam Webbers was along, I think; Mike Sanders and Caesar Smith; there were thirty or forty of us and they told us all to go back.

MOSES WHITMIRE, being sworn and examined by Commissioner C. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give your full name? A Moses Whitmire.

Q How old are you? A Why I am seventy some odd years old--75 I expect.

Q What is your postoffice? A Hayden.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Well, I lived in it all my life.

Q Are you on the roll of 1880? A Yes, sir.

Mr. Mellette: Mose, where were you when the 1880 roll was made?

A I was on Lightning Creek.

Q Who took the census for the Cherokees up there? A John Hicks and Dick Duck.

Q Did they put all of your family on the 1880 roll? A No, sir.

Q How many did they leave off? A Two.

Q Which ones? A Ed Wright and Melissa Ratliff.

Q Were they members of your family? A There was my wife's niece, Melissa was, and Ed was my wife's son. I brought them with me.

Q Where from? A From Kansas.

Q You brought them when you came? A Yes, sir.

Q Had their parents been slaves? A Wes, sir.

Q And you brought them with you when you came from Kansas?

A Yes, sir.

Q You are on the roll of 1880? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you give them their names? A Yes, sir, I gave their names in.

Q Did they take them? A Yes, sir, they took them all right.

Q But they were left off? A Yes, sir.

Q Where are these people now? A They are here.

Q On the ground? A Yes, sir.

J. S. Davenport: Mose, there has never been any controversy about your return in time under the treaty, has there? A I don't know that there has.

Q Did you ever go to any of the Courts to prove that you returned in time? A Yes, sir.

Q You proved up, did you? A Yes, sir.

Q When John Hicks and Dick Duck came to your house, did they refuse to list any of your family? A Yes, those I told you about.

Q You say they took the names? A They took the names, but they are not on any roll.

Q They listed them and never questioned anybody about their rights to be enrolled? A Not at my house.

Q They didn't question you that these two children were a part of your family, did they? A No, sir, didn't say anything about it.

Q In fact, Mose, didn't the Freedmen like yourself and Lewis Whitmire furnish them with reference to those that had been decided against by the Court and held not to be Freedmen who had not returned in time? A No, sir, we went to all the Courts.

Q But you didn't apply to any but the Bob Daniels' Court?

A I applied to the Chambers' Court; that is where we got our rights. The Bob Daniels' Court wouldn't have anything to do with us.

Q You had no trouble of proving up, Mose? A No, sir, I didn't have no trouble.

Mr. Mellette: You went to the Bob Daniels' Court and he told you he wouldn't have anything to do with you? A He told us to go back home; they said they weren't working with us; they were working with Cherokee Indians.

Q Then when you went back to the Chambers' Court, who did you go to see? A We went before John Chambers. I forget who they all were.

Q Did you have a lawyer? A Yes, sir.

Q A Cherokee lawyer? A Yes, sir.

Q Who was it? A Old J. P. Boudinot.

Q He took you in before the Court? A Yes, sir, and got us a certificate that admitted us.

Q Well suppose a man didn't have anything to employ a lawyer when he got there? A Well, I don't know what about it.

J. S. Davenport: Was Joshua Whitmire any relation to you?

A Yes, sir.

Q Didn't he apply to the Bob Daniels' Court and was admitted?

A I don't know what Court admitted him.

Q Have you been living in the neighborhood that he lived? A Not at that time; he was living at Tahlequah at that time.

Q He applied to some Court and was admitted? A Yes, sir.

Q You know Sam Webber applied to the Bob Daniels' Court and was admitted? A No, he wasn't admitted because we were all together and we left together, and they might have gone back, and I went down to Sam Webber's and a whole lot of us.

Q Who else besides Sam Webber? A I don't know ~~all~~ who all.

Q Was Johnson Webber along? A I don't know.

Q Was Charles Campbell along? A No, sir, he wasn't along.

Q You did go with Sam Webber? A Yes, sir,; Mike Sanders.

Q And you don't know whether Bob Daniels' Court admitted him or not? A No, sir; I know they were admitted by some Court; they didn't do it at that time.

Q You know what Court admitted them, don't you? A No, sir, I don't know.

Q You have been the trustee for the Freedmen of this country in all the litigations, haven't you? A I have for years.

Q And you know all about the Freedmen? A I don't know them all, I know some.

Q You have known Sam Webber for years? A I have known him all my life.

Q And then you don't know what Court admitted him? A No, sir, I never inquired about it.

Q But you went with Sam Webber to the Bob Daniels' Court? A Yes, sir and I went into the Chambers' Court.

Q Did Sam apply to the Chambers' Court? A I don't know; we went right on ourselves.

Mr. Mellette: Did you put up any money when you went down there to your lawyer or to the Court? A O, no, sir, we paid our lawyer for his services.

Q How much did you pay him? A I believe I gave him a horse. I paid him for my cases, for the two cases; there were three cases, four with my wife.

Q You never made any headway until you did get a lawyer, did you? A No, sir, I didn't.

Commissioner: Did Jack Starr go with you any time to the Court?

Q Well, I guess Jack Starr was along the time we went to the Bob Daniels' Court.

Q Do you remember it? A Yes, sir, I remember it.

Q Did you get any satisfaction out of the Court that time?

A No, sir, I didn't.

Q It was afterwards that you went to the Chambers' Court, was it? A Yes, sir, afterwards.

Q Did Jack Starr go with you? A No, sir.

J. S. Davenport: I would like to offer that part of the minutes in the Sam Webber case found on page 64 of the Minutes of Special Court of Commission of the Supreme Court of 1871.

Mr. Mellette: I object to that because the action of the report in the Webber case is not material in the case at bar. I desire to object to the introduction of that because it is not a proper authenticated proceeding of that court, and because the introduction of the admission of Sam Webber is not material in the case before the Commission.

Commissioner Breckinridge: I would like to ask the representative of the Cherokee Nation if this journal of the Court was kept by the order of the Court and approved at regular periods of the Court.

J. S. Davenport: It was kept by the Clerk of the Supreme Court; had the power to hear and determine these character of cases by the Supreme Court, and the Clerk of the Supreme Court kept the record.

Commissioner: But the point I want to inquire about is whether that record kept by the Clerk was by the order of the Court.

J. S. Davenport: Yes, sir.

Commissioner: And if the record is approved at stated periods by the Court.

J. S. Davenport: No, sir, they required the Clerk to keep it as the proceedings were had.

Commissioner: But it wasn't approved by the Court? A No, sir, he was told to keep a correct journal of the proceedings of the Court.

Commissioner Breckinridge: The Cherokee Counsel is desired to supply the Commission with the book of minutes of the Special Court of Commission, Supreme Court, 1871, when they are through with the use of it in these current proceedings. But the present examination of the minutes does not indicate that these minutes are of the nature of an approved journal.

SAM WEBBER recalled by Commissioner Breckinridge:

Q Did you go with your father to Tahlequah? A Yes, sir.

Q When he went there to prove your rights as a Cherokee Freedman?

A Yes, sir.

Q Did Jack Starr go with you the same time? A I can't remember whether he went or not; there was a big crowd that went.

Q Did you go there more than once? A I never went with him but the one time, but there were others went after that.

Q I am talking about you and your father. You and your father went once? A Yes, sir.

Q And that is all you and he went? A Yes, sir.

That was before the Chambers' Court sat? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you and your father get your rights acknowledged by the Court you went to? A We did that time.

Q You were never called in question afterwards? A No, sir.

Q Did you employ a lawyer? A No, sir, we didn't employ a lawyer.

Q Did you go with your father before the Court? A I didn't go in; father went in.

Q Did your father employ a lawyer? A No, sir, he didn't employ a lawyer; he told me that.

Q Do you know anything about Jack Starr applying at that time? A No, sir, I don't know whether he did.

Q Do you know whether he went into the court or not with your father? A No, sir.

Q Do you know whether he went into the Court at all? A No, sir.

Q Did you have any talk with Jack Starr about the proceedings of that Court before you left there? A No, sir.

Q Have you ever talked with him since about it? A No, sir.

This will be filed as additional testimony in Cherokee Doubtful case 443.

- Q Give your full name? A Sam Webber.
Q How old are you? A About 58, as near as I can remember.
Q What is your post-office? A Nowata.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A I was born here, and returned here in '66, and have been here ever since.
Q Are you on the roll of 1880 as a Cherokee Freedman? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you know this woman here? A Yes, sir.
Q What is her name? A Lizzie Starr.
Q What is the name of her father? A Jack Starr.
Q Has she got a brother named Charley Starr? A Yes, sir.
Q You know his wife? A Her name was Hannah Whitmire before he married her.
Q Now do you know this woman's mother? A Yes, sir.
Q What was her name? A Charlotte Starr.
Q Was she a slave in the Cherokee Nation when the war broke out? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you known this woman all her life? A Yes, sir.
Q Has she lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life? A Yes, sir.
Q She is a daughter of Charlotte and Jack Starr? A Yes, sir.
Q Charlotte is dead? A Yes, sir.
Q Been dead many years? A Yes, sir.
Q To whom did Charlotte belong before the war? A Johnson Whitmire.
Q Was Johnson Whitmire a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q You knew him as such, did you? A Yes, sir.
Q Where did Charlotte and Jack go during the war? A They went to Kansas.
Q Do you know when they came back from Kansas? A Yes, sir.
Q When? A They came back in the fall of '66, just behind us, in the crowd of Dave Mayes and them.
Q Did they have any children living at that time with them? A Yes, sir.
Q Who was with them? A Had a son they called Aaron Starr, he died.
Q How long has he been dead? A I couldn't tell you exactly it has been right smart little bit.
Q Do you know when Charlotte and Jack were married? A No, sir, I don't know nothing about their marriage, it seems they were married before the war; they were together.
Q Back in slavery days? A Yes, sir.
Q Did they live together until Charlotte died? A Yes, sir, right there on the Creek.
Q How long after you got back was it when Charlotte and Jack got back? A It wasn't but a few days, they was on behind us, and come in a short time after we moved in there.

Q Did they settle in the same neighborhood where you did?
A Yes, sir.
Q Did they live there till Charlotte died? A Yes, sir, right there.
Q When was it you got back? A We got back in the first part of April, of '66.
Q And they came a few days afterwards? A Yes, sir, short time after.
Q And Charlotte lived there until she died? A Yes, sir, lived right there and died there.
Q Did she live with Jack until she died? A Yes, sir.

Examined by Cherokee Representative Davenport:

Q Which came back first to the Cherokee Nation here after the war, Jack Starr and his family, or Abraham Ward and his family? A Jack Starr.
Q How long after that was it until Abraham Ward and his family come? A They come later, it was getting cool.
Q Was it a month or two months or a year? A It was not quite two months, I know, before they pulled in there.
Q You sure it wasn't two months? A No, sir.
Q You are then sure that Jack Starr and his family didn't get back to the Cherokee Nation any more than two months before Abraham Ward and his family came? A No, sir, not that much I know.

M. D. Green, being first duly sworn, states that as

Cherokee Nation.

The Cherokee Nation by its representative makes satisfactory proof of service on E. B. Lawson, the attorney for the applicant in this case, that testimony would be introduced, by the representatives of the Cherokee Nation tending to disprove the right of said applicant, Edward Wright to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation at the office of the Commission in Muskogee, Indian Territory, on the 3rd day of March, 1902, and from day to day thereafter until the same could be heard by the Commission during the usual business hours.

Cherokee Nation present by its representative, L. B. Bell.

C. V. Rogers, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation.

MR. BELL:

- Q Tell him your name? A C. V. Rogers.
- Q Age? A 63 years old.
- Q Place of residence? A Claremore.
- Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
- Q How long have you been such? A All my life, a little over 63 years.
- Q Did you go out of the country during the war? A Yes, sir.
- Q When did you return? A '68.
- Q Where did you come to? A Come to Fort Gibson.
- Q And stayed there did you? A Yes, sir.
- Q Well what was your business? A After I come back?
- Q Yes? A I followed freighting for something over three years.
- Q Where and between what places? A Sedalia and Pleasant Hill and Kansas City to Fort Gibson.
- Q Were you ever acquainted with a Freedman by the name of Moses Whitire? A Yes, I know him.
- Q Where did he belong before the war? A He belonged in Coaling Snake District.
- Q Do you know what particular Whitire he belonged?
- A I don't remember whether he belonged to George Whitire or Lee Whitire.
- Q If you did see him when did you first see Moses Whitire after the war, after your return to the Cherokee Nation?
- A As well as I can remember it was in February, '68; I met him just on this side of the Neosho River, as they were moving back to this country from Kansas. There was between 24, from 24 to 28 wagons and I met them right on this side of the Neosho River; Dick Whitire, Moses Whitire and Aaron Whitire and old Major Wright is all I knew in the outfit.
- Q Did you have any conversation with them, stop and talk with them?
- A Yes, sir, and Col. Bill Ross passed while I was talking to them going to Fort Scott.
- Q Did you ask them where they was going to? A They said they was moving back.
- Q Well this 25 or more wagons was loaded with people?
- A Yes, mostly every one had household goods in them.
- Q Colony of Cherokee Freedmen? A Yes, sir, coming back to the Cherokee Nation.
- Q Well now that was; where you say it was? A It was right on this side of the Neosho River; between the old Hudson place and Neosho River.
- Q How far from the Neosho River? A I suppose half a mile.

Q How far S on the north line of the Cherokee Nation?
A I think the river is the line, about half a mile.
Q And how far is that from the Kansas line? A The Neosho is the line, way I understand it.
Q You had reference to where the military road crosses the Neosho river? A Yes, sir.
Q At Jack Malain's ferry? A They called it Hudson ferry at that time.
Q Hudson lived there? A Yes, sir, in about a half mile.
Q And this Moses Whitire you met and talked with is the same one you knew in Going Snake and belonged to the Whitire family there?
A Yes, sir.
Q About how old a man was he when you met him? A He is an older man I think than I am.
Q And you saw other with him you know? A I think Aaron Whitire and Moses Whitire and old Major Wright is the old ones I know.
Q And you talked with him there? A Oh, I guess I talked with him ten or 15, 20 minutes and while I was talking to him Col. Ross was going to Fort Scott.
Q Do you know where this man Whitire lives now, Moses Whitire you met?
A No, I don't know where he lives.

MR. HASTINGS, Cherokee Representative:

Q Don't you know he lives on Salt Creek near Hayden? A No, I don't know for certain I heard he lived on Big Creek. I don't know where he lives, I have saw him ever since I have been here. I don't think I ever was at his house.

In the matter of the application of Edward Wright for the enrollment of himself as a Cherokee Freedman.

APPEARANCES:

Ben J. Scoville, representing E. B. Lawson, for applicant.
W. W. Hastings, for Cherokee Nation.

COMMISSION: The Cherokee Nation, by its representative, makes satisfactory proof of service on the applicant's attorney that it would, on the 20th day of May, 1902 introduce testimony tending to disprove the right of the said Edward Wright to enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman. The applicant this day appears by his attorney, E. B. Lawson, who is represented by Ben J. Scoville, Nowata, Indian Territory.

MR. HASTINGS: The Cherokee Nation offers in evidence a decision of the Chambers Commission on citizenship as found on page 57 of a book taken from the records of the Executive Department of the Cherokee Nation entitled, "Docket of the Chambers com'n on citizenship," as follows

"No. 85 Edward Wright vs
Cherokee Nation.

(Ex. June 7th. Statement filed on the 26 of June.
1st July set, 1st Aug.
set for trial.

Judgment against claimant June 27th, 1879."

The Cherokee Nation offers in evidence the application made for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by Lewis Whitmire on the 26th day of June, 1878, as found on pages 164 and 5 of book B, entitled, "Citizenship record 1874," as follows:

"Before the Commission sitting at Tahlequah to rey claims to Cherokee citizenship.

The undersigned claimant in the case of Lewis Whitmire
vs

Cherokee Nation

respectfully presents the following statement of his claim according to the requirement of the Commission.

Claimant claims under classification five of claimants in the law creating this Commission, that is, as a colored person formerly a slave owned by a citizen and resident of the Nation at the beginning of the late war, freed by law and made a citizen of this Nation by provision of the treaty of 1866. For claimant was at the time and place above said owned by George Whitmire, a Cherokee citizen, left the country during the war and returned in the summer of 1866 to select and prepare a home for his family ( they then being without one ) and again the following year prosecuting the work in his circumstances and the condition of the country at that time prevented and leaving his family in the intervals of time when they would subsist without discomfort and exposure and until a removal of that was practicable which removal of claimants finally was accomplished to the point of the Nation settled by claimants for theirs and his home in the spring of 1867.

Claimants rights have been called in question by competent authority, and he therefore presents them to the important examination of this Commission as are authorized so to do by law.

This June 26, 1878.

Lewis Whitmire,

By W. P. Boudinot, Atty."

The Cherokee Nation offers the following from the same book and continuing on the same page, the application of Moses Whitmire as follows:

"Before the Honorable Commission sitting at Tahlequah to try rights to Cherokee citizenship.

In case of Moses Whitmire

vs

Cherokee Nation,

claiming Cherokee citizenship.

Claimant claims under the fifth specification of the classes of claimants to citizenship as found in the law creating this Commission, to wit as a colored person formerly a slave owned by one George Whitmire, Cherokee citizen, resident of this Nation, at the beginning of the late war, and freed by law and made a citizen by provision of the treaty of 1866. Claimant respectfully refers to the statement by claimant Lewis Whitmire as embracing the facts which the present claimant would submit to the Commission as the basis of his claim.

Respectfully submitted,

Moses Whitmire.

The Cherokee Nation offers in evidence from a book taken from the Executive Department of the Cherokee Nation entitled, "Register of evidence before court of Commission Chambers Court, Book A," page 239, case No. 60, as follows:

"Case 60.

Aaron Whitmire )

vs )

Cherokee Nation. )

Tahlequah,

July 3, 1878.

Nike Fields a witness for claimant called and sworn.

I am I think I am about 47 years old. I live in Illinois District, C. N. Am a citizen of the Nation. I have been on the doubtful roll but had my rights proven up before the Supreme Court.

As a citizen under the treaty of 1866. I went north to the state of Kansas in 1866. I returned in August - 21st or 22nd, 1866. I left my family in Fort Scott when I came. I came down to get me a claim. I staid about three weeks that time, and then returned to Fort Scott. After I returned to Fort Scott there were others who started down, the Whitmires were of that number. The claimant was one of them. They came down in Decr. 1866. They returned to Fort Scott before I left there. I left Kansas about the 2nd week in January, 1867 and got to the crossing of the Neosho river about the last of January. When I first come down there was about 15 in the party. They left their families in Kansas when they came down here. There was some of party come with the Whitmires who piloted the Whitmire party and my party were Sam Webster, Mike Daniels, Sam Webber, Jr., Aaron Webber, Reuben Sanders, Thos Sanders.

The Whitmire proper were Aaron, Lewis, Mosé, Dennis and Nelson Whitmire and others that I do not recollect. The object of this coming was for the purpose of erecting houses. When I moved with my family I stopped on Pryors Creek at Mrs. Alberty's and remained about two weeks. The reason we left that part of the country was because that part of the country was too sparsely settled and bare of subsistence. As I was coming down the first time we were overtaken by the Cherokee Delegation. They were some who come here were authorized by others to locate claims for them, one was by Hefley requesting Abe Fields to locate for him. The original request filed.

Cross Examined.

I can not remember the date I arrived here the first time from Kansas. The claim we made I got three sets of house logs, hauled them and piled them up, and some of the men put up houses, I did not put up a house. I started back to Kansas about the middle of September. When I first left the country it was in February, 1867. I was a slave before the war and was owned by Sam Taylor when the war broke out. He was living on Greenleaf near Bushy Mountain on this side of Arks. River. When the Whitmires returned to Fort Scott I do not know when they left there to come to this country as I left them there when I left. It was reported when they returned to the Nation that the Whitmire party had built houses. But I do not know this myself as I was not along. I only heard they had. The war closed in 1865 I think. I did not know it myself but people told me he could read.

I do not know myself that it was the month of Aug. When I came here first, but I was told it was that time.

Re Direct.

It was the December following the time I first came down that the Whitmires came down first to select and improve claims.

Aaron Whitmire

vs ) August 1, 1878.
Cherokee Nation, ) Bluford Alberty, witness for claimant, called and sworn.

I reside in Coosawscowee District, C. N. I am a native Cherokee citizen. I left the Nation during the war. I returned to the Nation on the west side of Grand River, Coosawscowee District on the 3rd of Sept. 1866. I had occasion some time in the last of October or the first of Nov. or probably it might have been as late as the middle of November, to go to the Verdigris. While out there I fell in with a party of seven or eight persons who were camped with others near Sam Crouches. I did not go to the camp. They were colored people. I knew most all of them. Their names were old Sam Webber, Aaron Whitmire and a younger brother and Lewis Whitmire.

There was another person whom I was told was a Landrum. I do not recollect any of the others and cannot identify them. The Whitmires were Johnson and George Whitmire, Aaron Lewis and his brother belonged to George. In conversation with Sam Webber he asked me if I knew anything about the treaty and if Jim McDaniel had got home. I told him I had not seen the treaty but had heard rumors about it. He told me they had come to pick themselves homes or make claims and that he was the leader of the company and the reason why Major Wright did not come was that he was an old man, but that he had sent his son down to work for him and make him a claim. He then asked what chance there was to get provisions over on the river. I told him there was none there, but that there was a lot of corn and flour at Gibson and if they would go there they would get some. He also represented that they had come down to make claims for land, who had remained in Kansas, to build their houses for. They also stated that they were notified to come, and that they had accepted. They came to make claims for themselves and the other that they left behind in Kansas. As near as I can recollect it was some time in October or November that I saw these parties. It was not very cold weather at the time. I recollect as I camped out at night. I did not see any of these parties after this time May 1867. There was no provisions to be had in this country at that time. Provisions were very scarce. It was my understanding that they had come to prepare homes for themselves and families. They told me so at least. Major Wright belonged to Cornelius Wright before the war.

Crossa Examined.

I heard after this some of them went back to Kansas. At the time I meet them I do not know whether their families were with them. I think I saw Dennis Whitmire with this party, but am not certain of seeing Dennis or Nelson. I know there was four of the Whitmire boys. They were owned in the Nation and resided here up to the breaking out of the war.

Cherokee Nation.

I know Melissa Ratliff. She was twelve or thirteen years of age at the close of the war.

She was living with me then and still lives in my family. Landrum was one of the band above referred to, also Sam Webber. I learned from our leaders Uncle Mike and Sam Webber that the delegates advised us to settle in a compact body on the Indian lands. We crossed the Neosho in coming down at Holston in 1866. The chief ferryman who crossed us was Bill Landrum.

While on Lightning Creek in 1866 I saw Mr. Alberty in conversation with him, but Sam Webber had in my presence.

Cross Examined.

I am a claimant before this court for citizenship. I am a half-brother of Aaron Whitmire, Louis, Dennis and Nelson are also my brothers. Mariah Whitmire is my sister. Major Wright is my stepfather. The names of the party that came with me to the Nation are as follows: Mike Sanders, Sam Webber, Peter Neigs, Bill, Peroman, Tuck Sanders, Ransom Daniels, Sam Webber, Jr., Louis Whitmire, Nelson Whitmire, Dennis Whitmire, Aaron Whitmire, is all I can recollect now. Witness and my brothers were authorized to make claims for others still back in Kansas. Dennis made a claim for Major Wright. I can't name any any others. Witness was a man of family in 1866 when we came on from Kansas. My family was at Fort Scott. Melissa Ratliff, Ed Wright, and my wife and myself composed my family. Louis had no family. Aaron and Nelson did. Major, Sam, Nelson and Allen were Aaron's children and his wife, Sarah. They were left, the wife and children in Fort Scott when we came in 1866. Eliza Sanders, Thos. Sanders were Nelson's family and back at Fort Scott. We went back 1st January 1866 to Kansas after coming to the Nation. When witness returned in 1867 to the Nation Aaron, Louis, Nelson, Dennis, Ransom Daniels, Tuck Sanders, Peter Neigs and the families of those who had families all come as I did besides other not particularly remembered. This was the first time any of our families had been to the Nation, at least mine, Aaron's and Nelson's.

The first time Mariah Whitmire was in the Nation after the war closed was after our parties returned in families in 1867.

The first time Major Wright returned was on our first trip in 1867. Melissa Parloff was owned by one Alec Ratliff at breaking out of war. She first came in March 1867. Jack Landrum was along in 1866. He was a slave at the beginning of the war. I was present during the examination of Mr. Alberty as a witness in this case.

Re Direct.

Mariah's family at the close of the war was a separate family. Harry, Whitmire, her son, represented his mother on the first trip in 1866. Witness is about 53 yrs. old. Major Wright was an old man at the close of the war. Louis Whitmire had been back to the Nation before 1866.

Case 63.

Aaron Whitmire & family ) vs ) Claiming citizenship.
Cherokee Nation. )

Now comes claimant by Atty before the Commission sitting at Tahlequah to try certain claims for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation and makes this his statement of his grounds for said claim to wit-

Claimant is a colored person and claims as aforesaid under privilege of the fifth specification of the classes of claims preferred by law to the Commission to examine and decide rights by competent authority having been denied citizens.

Claimant belonged to Geo. Whitmire a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the war of the rebellion and was then in the Nation this Nation. After the beginning of said war claimant moved to the vicinity of Fort Scott with his family at which location he resided until the autumn of 1866 when he returned to this Nation and proceeded to select and improve a home on the Verdigris River for himself and family's permanent residence. While he was thus making preparations for the removal of his family by providing for their habitation and subsistence at the place mentioned they his family remained where they had been sojourning during the war.

Claimant was compelled by unfavorable circumstances and his attention he was obliged to bestow upon his family to remit his work upon his improvement on Verdigris River from the early fall of 1866 to the early winter of the same year, when he resumed labor upon his improvement, after which he removed his family as soon as practicable to wit in the spring of the year of 1867.

Claimant claims to have returned to this Nation in his own person and as representative of his family within the time provided for by treaty, in that having no residence to come to as other former citizens he did everything possible to constitute a return consistent with the duty he owed to his family by laboring as far as his means allowed to provide a home in this Nation.

Respectfully submitted,

Aaron Whitire

vs

Cherokee Nation.

August 1st, 1878.

Wm. Martin, witness for claimant, called and sworn.

I live on Big Creek, Coowesscoowee, C. N. Am a citizen of the Nation. From August up to Christmas 1866 I was at the ferry on the Verdigris River on the old Military road leading from Fort Scott, Kansas to Fort Gibson, C. N. Am acquainted with claimant and his brother, Lewis, never knew Aaron until I meet him at the river. Lewis I knew prior to that time. While I was in charge of the ferry I recollect having met claimant and Wm. Lewis, Dennis and Nelson, Whitire, Peter Reige, Mike Sanders, Sam Webber, and Young Sam, Bill Foreman and others but I do not recollect anything about them. They were traveling. They stated they were coming from Fort Scott, Kansas. They were traveling from the direction of Fort Scott. I crossed them from the Shawnee side of the River into the Cherokee Nation, they inquired the road to Big Creek. McLean gave them the directions to the head of Big Creek. They stated the reason why they were coming was that the Cherokee Delegation had invited them to come back under the treaty. They mentioned Jim McDonald as the principal one who had invited them and they were then on their way to select themselves homes.

It was after the Delegation returned that I met claimant and the others spoken of it was pretty cold weather when I crossed them. It was as near as I can recollect about the last of October, 1866. I am positive it was before Christmas at I left them at Christmas or probably a few days before Christmas.

Cross Examined.

I was not acquainted with the claimant nor any of the others named previous to the war.

I do not know who owned before the war. I do not know whether they had lived in the Nation previous to the war. I do not recollect of seeing any of the families of the parties named at the time,

I crossed them over the river. I set some of this same party back over the river a short time after they had come in, Lewis, Nelson and Dennis Whitmire and little Sam Webber and I think they were more who crossed back but I can not place them now. I learned the names of the parties from conversation with them, but did not become particularly acquainted with their names at that time. I think there was one woman with the party, I think she was little Sam Webber though I would not be right positive that there was a woman along or not. I was positive there was no children as I never seen any. They had camped there long enough that were they any women and children I would have known it. The next time I saw claimant was in the fall of 1867 on Big Creek. I learned from them that they had got there in March 1867. I know this from having heard it generally talked amongst themselves.

Re Direct.

At the present time the distance between our two settlements is about 5 miles. I recognize the claimant and the other parties spoken of. I have been there frequently since that time, I got them over the river. When I saw them in the fall of 1867 they had their families with them then. The means of subsistence at the time I crossed in the country at that time was short.

Wm. McCracken for Claimant.

Witness met claimant near Fort Gibson in Novr. or Decr. 1866. Met him at the ferryboat on Grand River.

Witness had a conversation with claimant at the ferry in which claimant said he was on his way to Going Snake his former home in the Nation and seven of claimant's brothers were behind on the road.

Witness is a citizen of this Nation and knew claimant before the war.

George Whitmire before the war lived in Going Snake Dist. This Dist. borders on the line of the state of Arks.

Claimant now resides near the western line of the Cherokee Nation. The settlement before the war was sparse where claimant now resides. I would say the distance from where George Whitmire resided prior to the war, and claimant's present residence is 80 or 100 miles. Witness states that he had a conversation with Sam Webber in which Webber assigned as a reason for settling where he had was that Agent Jones advised the colored people after their removal to settle in colonies or as thickly as it was convenient to do in an unoccupied part of the country.

This was thought best for the colored man as they could have their own schools &c until matters were more regulated in the country.

The first conversation was in the fall of 1866. The second conversation was in the spring of 1867. I saw several of their families in May, 1867 on Big Creek or Lightning Creek in the Nation.

The home of claimant is in the same locality as that at the time mentioned above. In Oct. or Nov. 1866 I gave claimant and other colored men permission to occupy two old fields in that neighborhood for the purpose of raising crops the year following. Louis Whitmire is the name of the other man, I also permitted to go on the old field. The spring of 1867 I saw Aaron and Louis Whitmire at work on the two fields spoken of. This settlement of colored folks has the character of quiet, industrious and law abiding citizens as much as any in the Nation. Some of these people have large and good farms all made by themselves since the war.

Witness with a party of six gentlemen in the fall of 1866 saw this colored party who settled on Big Creek afterwards in the neighborhood for the purpose as they said at the time of selecting their homes. Several claims was then in sight of witness which the colored party said they had selected and are now the homes of the party above indicated.

Agent Jones was at the time advising said Col party. A Delegation for the Cherokee Nation at Washington. There were parties as witness learned from one of them who wished to expel or drive off from their claims this colored party at the time they were prospecting the country. This was advised against by witness and it was not done or carried out. Witness' party spoken of above was composed of Cherokee citizens except one colored man. I am the sole survivor of this party except the colored man and possibly one other. Occupation of witness is herding wild cattle. I travelled a good deal in that neighborhood at that time spoken of.

John Riley,

sworn as witness for Deft. I live in Coowascoowee Dist. I first moved there in 1852 and have continued to reside there except in time of war. I came back in the month of August 1866 to the Nation. I knew Aaron Whitmire. He returned or came to the Verdigris River to live in the month of March 1867. Also came at the same time Peter Neigh, Mike Sanders, Sam Webber, Billy Foreman, with their families and others whom I don't recollect. Claimant made a crop that spring in 1867 on an old place of Aaron Landrum. He had settled no other place before that.

Cross Examined.

I don't know of any colored heads of families coming in to the Nation in the month of Decr. 1866 to locate homes but I know of no one who came in Sept. '66 for that purpose. I knew where Aaron Whitmire lived at this time. I was near Coody's Bluff in Decr. '66. I live on the west side of the river. Claimant lives and settled on the east side of the river. If any heads of families came in Decr. 1866 I never heard of them. I never knew of Bluford Alberty being in the part of the country in 1866 in the party who came down in Sept. 1866. Aaron Whitmire was not along but Mike Sanders, Sam Webber, Colbert & perhaps Billy Foreman. Moses was not along. Dennis was not along as I know of nor Mariah nor Major Wright nor Nelson Whitmire that I know of. If any such party had come down in Decr. 1866 I think certainly I would have known it.

(Page 223)

About the middle of May 1867 I first saw this party with their families at their new homes. Claimant and others of this Colored party told witness that they returned in March 1867 to the Nation.

Re Direct

I learned from John Coker that most of this colored party returned to Kansas after their families and a few remained. I was at General Convention of the Colored People in 1866. It was witness' understanding that the purpose of said convention was to ratify the treaty of 1866. I think the object of the convention was to ratify amendments to the Constitution under the treaty and to ratify the treaty. The treaty was concluded the 9th of Aug. 1866 is my information. It might have been July 19, 1866.

Witness went south during the war. J. B. Jones was not at the time herein mentioned U. S. Agent but was a Delegate and was Agent afterwards.

- Q Have you ever applied to be enrolled by any other tribe or Nation besides the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir, the Clifton Court and the Wallace Court.
- Q The you apply to any other Nation, the Creeks? A No, sir.
- Q Never drew any money from any other Nation? A No, sir, I didn't.
- Q Have you been recognized by the Cherokee authorities as a Cherokee citizen? A Yes, sir.
- Q Is your name on the roll of 1880? A It is on this roll here Mr. Bledsoe has got here; I ~~came~~ come with my brother Sam Webber.
- Q Is your name on the roll of 1880? A No, sir.
- Q Did you ever draw your strip payment money? A Yes, sir.
- Q How much did you draw? A $15.50, and then I drew this other payment, this last payment, I drew it.
- Q You drew the last payment? A Yes, sir.
- The 1880 authenticated roll of Cherokee Freedmen examined and the applicant not identified thereon.
- The 1896 census roll of Cherokee Freedmen examined and the applicant not identified thereon.
- The Keins-Clifton roll examined, and the applicant identified thereon, page 126, No. 315, Cooweescoowee district.
- Q Were you a slave before the war? A Yes, sir.
- Q Who did you belong to? A Takie Webber.
- Q Was she a Cherokee citizen? A Yes, sir.
- Q Where did you go during the war? A Went to Kansas.
- Q When did you come back from Kansas? A Came back in 1866.
- Q You been living here ever since? A Yes, sir.
- Q Are you married? A No, sir.
- Q Ever been married? A No, sir.
- Q Got no children then? A No, sir, I haven't.
- Q You are certain you came back in 1865? A Yes, sir, I did.
- Q What did you come back with? A Sam Webber and my father.
- Q Was is your name not on the roll of 1880? A Why I can't tell you about that.
- Q Did you ever try to have it put on? A Yes, sir.
- Q They refused to do it? A Yes, sir, must have, for it aint there.
- Mr. W. Hastings; attorney for Cherokee Nation: You say you returned with your brother Sam? A Yes, sir, I did.
- Q Did you come the first time he came out here? A Yes, sir, I did.
- Q What time of the year was it? A '66.
- Q What time in the year '65? A Well you see I can't read and I can't write, I didn't keep no count of the days and the months because my owner's didn't give me time to get my education.
- Commissioner: Was it in the fall or summer? A It was along in March when I came back in 1866.
- Mr. Hastings: Was it the March after the treaty was made? A Yes, sir.
- Q You are certain of that? A Yes, sir, I am.
- Q And you came back with him at that time? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did he bring his family along then? A Yes, sir.
- Q His wife and children? A Yes, sir.
- Q He had already been out there and put up a house? A Yes, sir, I had come out before that and I come with him, and we put up a house and I came back with him in '66.

Q The first time you came back was in March after the treaty was made? A Yes, sir, that is when we moved there.

Q How long before that was it when you came out? A I can't give the days of the months, how long it was we came out, but we came and put up a house one fall and went back and came right on down.

Q About how long did you stay out here when you had put up the building? A We stayed three or four days and then went right back and moved down.

Q What kind of buildings did you put up? A We put up a log cabin.

Q Out on Big Creek? A Yes, sir.

Q How far from where Sam Now lives? A Sam lives on the north side of Nowata and we live up there on Big Creek, I can't tell you exactly how many miles, but he lives at Nowata and we live up there on Big Creek.

Q What old citizen lives near where you first located, where you first located when you first moved out? A There isn't anybody lives there now.

Q Name some old citizen who lives ~~up~~ at the place now where you located then? A Sam Webber.

Q Does Sam Webber live at that place now? A He did live there but he don't live there now.

Q Who lives at the place Sam and you came to? A The Meigs and Whitmires and Sanders, and a whole lot of them.

Q You have lived there ever since? A Yes, sir.

Q You came out in wagons the first time? A Yes, sir, because Sam Webber drove the ox wagon and I drove the horse wagon.

Q Do you know anything about dates? A I know when they say the year is out, and this year is in.

Q What year is this? A If I am not mistaken I think this is May.

Q The year though? A I can't tell you exactly what year it is, because I am not educated like you smart men.

Q You are satisfied in '66 you came here in March? A Yes, sir.

Commissioner: Do you know when the treaty was adopted, know what month it was adopted in, the treaty; you told Mr. Hastings you came here the March after the treaty was adopted; you don't know what month in 1866 the treaty was adopted? A No, sir, I don't.

Q Have you got any witnesses? A Yes, sir, Sam Webber, and Abe Hare.

Sam Webber, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A Sam Webber.

Q What is your age? A About 58, somewheres nearabout that.

Q What is your post office address? A Nowata.

Q Are you a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q Your name on the 1880 roll? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know Aaron Webber? A Yes, sir.

Q Is he any relation to you? A He is my brother.

Q Was he a slave? A Yes, sir.

Q To whom did he belong? A Takie Webber.

Q Was she a Cherokee citizen? A Yes, sir.

Q By blood? A Yes, sir.

Q Where was he during the war? A He was with us in Kansas.

Q When did he come back? A He came with us when we came back in July.

Q You came in July from Kansas and he came with you? A Yes, sir.

Q What year was that in? A In 1866.

Q He was a slave the same as you? A Yes, sir, same as me, with the same owners.

Q Ought to be entitled to the same rights you have got? A Yes, sir, have just the same right, belonged to the same parties too.

Mr. Hastings: Q What time of the year was it you say you brought him back? A We came in July and built houses and went back and moved down.

Q You had heard of the treaty passed? A We came right in the same month the treaty was made in because we overtook the delegates at Fort Scott. -

Q You had heard of the treaty before you left there? A As soon as we arrived at Fort Scott and talked to them, and they told us they had made a good treaty.

Q And you came on down and he came with you? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you bring your families at that time? A I didn't have any family then.

Q The rest of the people, they come along? A Yes, sir, I was small myself, I was with father, we came and built and went and moved some of them after that.

Q How long did you stay down there at this time? A I didn't stay long, I couldn't tell you just how long we really stayed, we didn't stay only long enough to find claims and cut logs and build shanties.

Q Who lives up there at the place that you located, now? A Reuben Sanders lives right where I built my house, he is living there to-day.

Mr. Bell: Where did you start from when you started from Kansas down to Big Creek? A Started from a little creek six miles south of Mound, said to be about twenty miles north of Fort Scott.

Q Had you started to the Cherokee Nation when you came across these delegates at Fort Scott? A Yes, sir.

Q What was your notion about starting? A I had been down here and looked through the country and went back and told them the war was over here as well as everywhere else, and let's come home.

Q You hadn't started then with a view to saving your rights here under the treaty? A We didn't know nothing about the treaty, it wasn't made when we started as we knowed of, until we got to Fort Scott, and we saw the delegates.

Q What time was that? A Along in the last part of July, the last week in July, as near as I can remember.

Commissioner: When Aaron says he came in March he is mistaken?

A He is mistaken, he don't know dates; he is not bright enough to know dates.

Abraham Hare, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A Abraham Hare.

Q How old are you? A About 70.

Q What is your post office? A Wymer.

Q Are you a Cherokee Freedman? A Yes, sir, claim to be.

Q Your name is not on the roll of 1880, is it? A No, sir.

Q Were you a slave? A Yes, sir.

Q What was your owner's name? A Arlie Hare.

Q Do you know Aaron Webber? A Yes, sir.

Q Was he a slave? A Yes, sir.

Q To whom did he belong? A Takie Webber.

Q Well, did you know Aaron Webber before the war? A Yes, sir.

Q Did he go out of the Cherokee Nation during the war? A ~~No~~ Yes, sir.

Q Did you go out? A Yes, sir.

Q What made you colored people go out during the war? A We couldn't stay here.

Q Thought it was safer to go out? A Yes, sir, I had to go out.

Q Couldn't you stay here? A They wouldn't let us.

Q And wouldn't let you? A The Rebels and the Yankees neither one.

Q Where was Aaron Webber during the war? A He was with ~~us~~ his father in Kansas.

Q When did he come back? A He come back in the fall of '66.

Q How do you know? A I come with him.

Q And you came at that time? A Yes, sir.

Q Have you known Aaron Webber since that time? A Yes, sir.

Q Was he always lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir, lives right by me now.

Mr. Hastings: Your rights are disputed? A Yes, sir, same as his.

Q You were in here this morning; your case was presented?

A Yes, sir.

Commissioner: Aaron Webber applies for the enrollment of himself as a Cherokee Freedman. His name does not appear upon the authenticated roll of 1880, but does appear upon the Kerns-Clifton pay-roll. By reason of the protest of the Cherokee Nation the name of Aaron Webber will be placed upon a doubtful card awaiting further consideration of the Commission.

Appearances:

W. W. Hastings for the Cherokee Nation.
Mellette & Smith for the applicants:

DOUGLAS WALKER, being first duly sworn by Commissioner C. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows for the Cherokee Nation.
(By the Commission)

- Q Give me your full name? A Douglas Walker.
Q How old are you? A 50.
Q What is your post office? A Mound City, Kansas.

(By Hastings)

- Q How long have you lived in Mound City, Kansas? A Since May 1857.
- Q What was your father's name? A James Walker.
- Q What was your mother's name? A Miama Walker.
- Q Was your father and mother here the first of the month? A Yes sir.
- Q They testified in this matter at that time did they? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you know Samuel Webber? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you know his son Samuel Webber? A Yes sir.
- Q Where did you know them? A Near Mound City, Kansas; in the neighborhood where I live.
- Q Do you know the applicant here? Joe Ross? A I knew him as Joe Webber.
- Q Is the the same fellow? (pointing) A Yes sir.
- Q Where was he living at the time? A He lived with the older Sam Webber at the time.
- Q You know this applicant here is the same party? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you know a woman named Chlora? A Yes sir.
- Q What relation was she to Joe Ross? A Sister.
- Q Did you know Aaron Webber a little duck legged fellow? A Yes sir.
- Q Where did you know him? A In the same family in Mound City, Kansas, Linn County.
- Q Where farm did Samuel Webber live on, if you know? A He lived on a farm that belonged to a man named Jeff Flemmings.
- Q I mean in the year 1866? A My father bought the farm.
- Q Of whom did he purchase the farm? A Of Flemmings.
- Q Do you know where young Sam Webber was married? A He was married there in Linn County, near Mound City, in the neighborhood there, where I was living.
- Q Did he marry before or after he moved from that country? A Before he moved.
- Q Mr. Walker, have you looked up the date of when your father purchased that farm? A Yes sir.
- Q The date of the deed? A Yes sir.
- Q What was that date? A The date of the deed is October '66.
- (By Mr. Smith) Object to that if you have not the deed.
- (By Mr. Hastings) Have you looked up the date? A Yes sir, but have forgotten the exact date as to days.
- Q At that time, where was Sam Webber living? A On this farm that father purchased.
- Q Where was young Sam living at the time he married? A On this farm on the same place.
- Q What is your best judgment as to the time Sam Webber, including Joe Ross, Chlora Grayson and Aaron Webber left that country with their women folks and come to this country? A According to my best recollection it was the latter part of February or early in March of '67, I can't state exactly the month; early in the spring of '67 though.
- Q Did they all move down at the same time? A All started together.
- Q Left there together? A Yes sir.
- (By Mr. Smith)
- Q You say you know that this applicant in this case is the same man that you knew at that time in Kansas as Joe Webber? A Yes sir.
- Q How did you know it? A I recognized his countenance as one man knows another.
- Q How? A Well I saw him.
- Q When? A Today.
- Q Where? A On the street.
- Q And you knew him as Joe Webber? A Yes sir, the name Joe Ross was not used much.
- Q When did you first become acquainted with old man Sam Webber? A In '63 he moved on that farm.
- Q Which farm? A The farm my father bought in the neighborhood where I lived, the old Flemming farm.
- Q When did your father buy that farm? A In the fall of '66, I have forgotten the exact day, in October or September.

Q Who owned the farm at the time old man Sam Webber was on it? A Jeff Flemming owned it until my father bought it.

Q How do you know it was '63 that you became acquainted with Sam Webber? A I remember that it was during the last years of the war and the refugees were coming into Kansas, both white and black, in '63 and they were amongst them.

Q Did any come after '63? A Yes sir some came later and some come earlier, and I remember again by this farm, I remember how long they farmed it before we got it.

Q How long? A Three years--four years in the spring of '67.

Q They farmed it four years before your father got it? A They farmed from '63 to '67.

Q You say the reason you knew that you knew this man in '63 was because you knew how long they worked this farm before your father got it? A Yes sir.

Q You say it was in September of 1867 that your father bought that farm? A In '66.

Q You are positive about that? A Yes sir we got possession the first of March '67.

Q Did old man Sam Webber rent this place from your father? A No sir he rented it from Flemmings.

Q Did Sam Webber, the old man and the boys, come down here or leave that country in the fall of '65? A I think not.

Q Dont you remember that they did and that the old man came back by himself one time? A If my memory serve me, it was in '66, late in the summer, or early in the fall of '66.

Q What was in the fall of '66? A That they came down here--started away from there.

Q Who came then? A Sam Webber, the old man, and young Sam and Aaron.

Q What is your recollection as to how long they staid? A They came back I think in November or late in October.

Q Well, which came back first? A Why I think the older Sam Webber came first.

Q How long do you think it was before you saw Sam Webber Jr. again? A Well, it was a short time, a month or so--I can't recollect that, it is a good while ago.

Q Who helped Sam Webber make a crop in '66? A Johnson Webber and the old man Sam made a crop in '66.

Q Who helped him? A Them two and the little boys I think worked too; Aaron did, I dont know but as Joe did too, I dont remember much about that.

Q Where was old man Sam Webber in July 1866? A That summer he raised that crop and worked part of the summer for my father on this farm.

Q Is it not a fact that in July of 1866 that Sam Webber Jr. came here for his father and that they left there for this country to build some houses? A That is not the way I remember it.

Q You have stated that it was a long time ago, do you think that you remember the dated absolutely? A Not to the day or month exactly, but that is my best recollection.

Q Are you testifying to the best of your recollection? A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember of Sam Webber Jr. bringing any hides to that country? A Yes sir.

Q When was that? A In the fall or beginning of the winter of '66 and '7 he brought some hides and furs.

Q To refresh your memory, was it not in March? A March when? Q '66? A No sir.

Q Upon what trip was that that he brought those hides? A He left and said he was coming down on a hunting trip.

Q Was that the trip when he left Kansas and when old Sam returned first that you spoke of a while ago? A Yes sir, that was the one, the same trip.

Q Do you remember of Sam Webber selling out a crop up here? A I dont.

Q Do you remember of them leaving there to come to the Territory to build some houses? A Yes sir.

Q Was that after the time that he brought the hides there? A It was that trip that he left there for the purpose of building some houses that he brought the hides when he returned.

Q Dont you remember of them leaving there to come to the Territory for the purpose of building houses? A Well that was wither in the spring or winter, in the latter part of February or early in March I have not given the matter any considerable study.

Q How do you fix the dates you have given? A I remember them and then by the dates I have looked up.

Q What dates have you looked up? A The purchasing of this land.

Q Are you testifying from the date of the purchase of that land? A Father bought the place in the spring of '66 on condition and paid $80 down, or traded cattle, as a forfeit, and in the fall he got some money and got full possession of the place; Webber had possession until the first of March, that is the Kansas law, from the first of March one year until the first of March the next year; they had possession of it until March first 1867.

Q Mr. Walker, when you had occasion to investigate this matter, you had forgotten all about it practically hadn't you? A No sir, but it was something I had not thought much of.

Q You couldn't have told on the moment what year Sam Webber left there could you? A I would have had to look at the dates.

Q Then you are not testifying from your recollection, but from the dates that you have looked up since? A Part of it is from recollection and part of it is from looking up the dates.

Q How long has it been since you thought of the time Sam Webber left that country before you made this investigation? A I was asked the question as to when they moved and I hadn't given the matter any thought till then.

Q You didn't know then did you? A Yes sir after I thought it over.

Q How long did it take you to think it over? A I dont exactly remember.

Q Can't you give us some idea of it? A 2 or 3 weeks.

Q Were you here when your father testified in this case? A Yes sir

Q Did you know as much about it then as you do now? A No sir.

Q How long was that from the time you had first been spoke to about the date? A I had not expected then to give testimony in this case and had not thought much about it.

Q What were you doing here then? A I was subpoenaed in another case.

Q You had been talking about this case then? A Not much.

Q How much? A A word or two.

Q And you were here all the time your father and mother were her and yet didn't testify in this case? A Yes sir.

Q You went back to Kansas? A Yes sir.

Q And came back here again to testify? A Yes sir.

(By Hastings)

Q You were subpoenaed by the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.

HENRY C. SHORT, being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give me your full name? A Henry C. Short.

Q How old are you, Mr. Short? A 48.

Q What is your post office? A Mound City.

Q In the Cherokee Nation? A In Kansas.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q How long, Mr. Short, have you lived in and about Mound City, Kansas? A Well ever since the spring of 1857.

Q What was your father's name? A John Short.

Q Were you living there in the years '66 and '67? A Yes sir.

Q Were you living in town or in the country? A Living in the country.

Q Do you know Douglass Walker that left the stand? A Yes sir.

Q Did you know a colored man by the name of Sam Webber up there?

A Yes sir.

Q Do you know that young Sam Webber, his son? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know Joe Ross? A Yes sir.

Q This is the man there? (Pointing to the applicant.) A I wouldn't have known him unless he had been pointed to me. They always called him Joe; I don't remember about him being called Joe Ross up there.

Q Have you talked to him? A Just spoke to him.

Q Did he recognize you as being the man? A He recognized me as being Short by telling him who I was and where I was from; he claimed that he was one of the boys.

Q Do you know Aaron Webber, a little duck legged fellow? A Yes sir.

Q Where did you live in the spring of '66? A In Linn County, on Elk Creek, in Kansas.

Q Did you live on the same place in the fall of '66? A Yes sir.

Q Did you live in the same house? A I lived in the same house now that I moved into in the fall of '66.

Q Well now what time in the fall did you move into it? A Well now it was the last of October or the first of November, I won't say which; along about in them times I moved, that is my folks moved; of course I was small, I moved there after that from the west part of the place to the east part of the place.

Q Do you know where Sam Webber was at that time? A They lived then at that time in the fall of '66 they lived on the place known as the Fleming place, adjoining farms of ours.

Q Were they living there when you moved? A That fall?

Q Yes sir? A They were living there then.

Q I will ask you what is your best judgment as to the time they moved with their families and left that country? A Well I could not say just how, for I have got nothing to fix them dates. The best of my judgment they left there in February.

Q February now of what year? A Of '67, I would say that, but now I aint certain, I aint got no opinion about what time they left.

MR. SMITH: Now I move to strike out the testimony to that effect, because the witness says that is his opinion.

Commissioner: We will take it for what it is worth and let the Commission pass on it.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q That is your best judgement? A Yes, sir.

Q That is your best recollection? A (No response.)

Q You said I believe you knew they were there in the fall? A Yes sir, that is all I can state positively, I don't know how long they were there.

Q You know that by your move? A Yes sir, that is the one thing I have got you know.

Q Do you know Joe's sister, Chlorea? A Yes sir, there was a girl there called Chlorea, I supposed it was Joe's sister.

BY MR. SUTTON:

Q Mr. Short, how old were you in '66? A About 13 years old, September 6, 1866.

Q Now when were you asked first as to the time when Sam Webber left that country? A When was I asked first.

Q Yes? A I think it was last Sunday.

Q Well you didn't know did you? A No, I don't know what day he left there at all.

Q Did you have that opinion then? A Yes, I have the same opinion I got now; it was the best of my opinion they left in the spring; I got nothing to say they did or did not.

Q There was Sam Webber, Jr., in February 1866? A I don't know.

Q Where was he in October, 1865? A He was on the Creek.

Q Did you see him? A Yes, he was there; he hadn't moved; he come down here and come back again in the fall; and the whole family was all there in the fall.

Q That was in the fall of 1865 was it? A Fall of 1866.

Q I am talking about 1865? A Well they was there too.

Q Did you see him? A Yes, of course they was there.

Q Of course well now do you know, did you see him? A Yes I saw him.

Q Where did you see Sam Webber in the fall of 1865? A Oh I don't know he worked some for us.

Q Did he work for you in the fall of 1865? A Worked for my grandfather some.

Q What was Sam Webber? A Yes, sir.

Q You say you knew young Sam Webber, the younger of the two?

A Yes, sir; I knowed young Sam and old Sam too.

Q Did you know young Sam Webber, called Sam Webber, Jr.? A Yes sir, of course it has been a long time from the time I saw him, from the time he left there until I come down here; saw him the first time as soon as I moved there.

Q What did you say about his being a boy? A I suppose he was a young man, I couldn't say as to that.

Q What about Joe Ross, was he a boy? A Yes sir, Joe was younger than me, if I am not mistaken? A Wasn't much difference in the ages; but I think he was younger than me.

Q Now is it not a fact that Sam Webber and his father old Sam Webber and Aaron Webber came to the Cherokee Nation in the fall of 1865?

A I think not, I don't think they did; they was there in 1865 but they was going and coming all the time; they come down in 1866 and located.

Q They came in 1866 and located? A Yes sir, but they come back and got their family.

Q Now you know only that they were there in 1865? A I know they were there in '66.

Q You don't know what time in '66 they were there? A They were there before '66.

Q Well I am talking about '65 were they there in the spring of '65?

A I couldn't say what time of the year; I think they were there all the time.

Q You can't know whether they were there all the time in 1865 or now? A No sir, I couldn't say they was.

Q Do you remember Sam Webber Sr. and Sam Webber Jr. and Aaron Webber coming down to the Cherokee Nation at any time? A They come down in the summer of '66 I think, directly after crops was made they come down here and they went back together back up there in

Joe Ross (sup'1) 7.

Q Well did they ever come back together? A I don't know whether they did or not; Aaron didn't come back I don't think.

Q What about Sam Jr., did he come down with his father? A Yes sir, I don't know whether Aaron come back or not; I know Sam and the old man come back and got the family.

Q Do you know that they came back together? A Yes, I am pretty sure that they came back, I know I saw them afterwards.

Q Do you remember of Sam Webber Jr. ever bringing any hides into the country? A No sir, I don't remember; I remember Sam telling me he had his cabin up.

Q When did he tell you he had his cabin up? A In the fall of '66.

Q He had been down here in the fall of 1866 and had built a cabin? A Yes sir, he told me he had his cabin built.

Q And now that final move when they took all the people out you think was in what time? I don't know, but it runs in my mind as February or March. I won't say anything about that.

Q What year? A '67.

Q You say you won't say anything about that? A I don't know whether it was or not.

Q You don't know whether it was or not? A No sir, that is a fact; but it runs in my mind it was.

Q There was Sam Webber during the winter of 1865 and '66, the winter that commenced with December, 1865 and ends with February 1866? A I think he was there.

Q Well, did you see him there? A Yes, I think he was there pretty much all the time.

Q Well do you know it? A I got no way to fix it; that's my opinion he was there.

Q You can't state it positively that he was or was not? A I know most of them was there and I believe he was too.

Q You can't state that positively? A No sir, not unless I got something to fix the date.

Q You won't say that? A No sir.

Q How can you remember about Sam Webber coming up there in the spring of '66 and bringing some beef hides? A No sir, I can't remember; of course this date is a long time ago; how I have got these things fixed in my head that was in the fall of '66 I was moving from one farm to the other, and that was in the fall.

Q You didn't go off of that farm? A No sir, just moved from the west to the east side.

Q And you were a boy about 13 years old? A Yes sir.

Q What is there in that to fix the date in your mind it was in 1866 or more than 1865 you moved? A I know we moved from the things that occurred; the death in the family of a young man that was there, I know it was '66.

Q How about that now; about the deaths in the family? A There was a young man died in the family in '69, 3 years after we moved there it must have been from the things that he did when we moved from one house, but he didn't move in his house at all.

Q You don't seem to be positive about any of these dates you give?

A Why I do, when the family moved over, remember that fact.

Q I mean about Webber's movements? A They was all there in the fall of '66; they was all there in October or November one of the two months, because we moved then.

BY MR. HARRIS:

Q Now you never missed them up there in 1865 did you? A No sir. MR. HARRIS: I object to that; it is not competent whether he missed them or not.

Q Did you ever miss them up until the summer of 1866? A No sir, I have no recollection of them leaving there until that.

Q That is your first recollection of them leaving? A Yes, sir.

Mary A. Hicks, being sworn and examined by Commissioner Brockinridge, testified as follows:

Joe Ross (supra) 3

Q Give me your name, Madam? A Mary A. Hicks is the way I sign my name.

Q How old are you? A If I live to the 21st of next month I will be 67 years old.

Q What is your post office? A Mantaw.

Q Is that in Kansas? A Yes sir.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q How far do you live from Mound City, Kansas, Mrs. Hicks? A I live 6 miles.

Q How long have you lived in that neighborhood? A Ever since the spring of 1854.

Q Were you living there then after the war? A Living there in the time of the war.

Q Do you know Mr. Walker, Douglass Walker, that has been on the stand? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know Mr. Short that laid the stake here? A Yes sir.

Q Mrs. Hicks, did you know of a man up there by the name of Sam Webber? A Yes sir.

Q How far did you live from him, just after the war? A Well I think it was about 175 steps; they used water out of my well.

Q Did you know his son, young Sam Webber? A Yes sir.

Q Well did you know a little short one called Aaron Webber? A Yes sir.

Q Did you know a boy called Joe Ross? A Yes sir.

Q Have you seen any of these parties since you have been here this time? A Why I met Joe Ross down there; he said he knew me and come up and shook hands with me and I saw Sam Webber.

Q I will ask you to look if this is the same parties now? A Well I tell you Ross don't favor himself so much, but Joe he is just like his father and I knowed him because he is just like his father; well old uncle Sam was older than Sam is of course.

Q I will ask you if you had any deaths in your own family in the fall of '66? A Yes sir.

Q What was the date of it? A The date of the death?

Q Yes, madam? A Well it was in October.

Q Did you make any record of it in your Bible? A Yes sir.

Q Is this your Bible? A I reckon it is; if you will let me look I will tell you.

Q Look at it and see if this is your Bible? I think it is, but I can't read it, I haven't got my specs.

Q You haven't got your specs? A No sir.

Q Well of the family record here of births and deaths appear this: "Franklin Hicks, was born November 7, 1864"? A Yes sir.

Q And under the column of deaths appears: "Died October 23, 1866"

A That is correct.

Q Who was Franklin Hicks? A He was my son.

Q Do you know where Sam Webber was when your son Franklin died?

A No sir, I could not tell you.

Q Don't know? A No I don't; you mean this Sam?

Q That man? A Oh the old gentleman; he lived up there by me I think; I am not positively he lived there then.

Q Do you know where his wife was? A His wife died there.

Q Well do you know whether she was dead at the date of your son's death? A Yes sir, she died I think before he died; there was an old lady, they called her old aunt Maria, living.

Q She was living? A Yes, sir.

Q Was she a member of this family? A Yes sir, she lived there with them.

Q Well do you know whether she was there during the sickness of your child? A Yes sir, she sat up with me several times, and if it was a bad night and she saw me come in she would come and sit up with me.

Q Did you know a sister of Joe's called Margaret? A Yes, sir.

Q Now I would like to have your best friend Mrs. Hicks as to the time old Sam Webber moved from his family and children from that place? A

MR. SMITH: The applicant objects to the witness giving her opinion as to the time when this sickness took place, because it is not the subject of their expert or opinion evidence.

COMMISSIONER: I understand the question to be her best recollection.

A It has been a long time you know.

Q Well, answer the question? A About him being there?

Q I want to know, the question is, what is your best recollection as to the time Sam Webber and his family, when he left Kansas with his family? A -

OBJECTED to by applicant.

A Well my best recollection was that, I would not be positive of course, but I think it was in February or March, of or the other. The best of my recollection, because the old lady, old aunt Rhoda and uncle Cy, that was her husband, they both was old and feeble and I think old uncle Sam stayed there on that account more than anything as long as he did.

Q Well now that would be February of what year? A It would be '67 wouldn't it?

Q You lived then about 175 yards from them? A Yes sir, I could hear them sing over there and hear them laugh and talk to my house.

Q On whose place were they living? A Well they was living on Mr. Walker's place then.

Q He had recently purchased it? A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember who he purchased it of? A I think it was a man by the name of Fleming; I think it was Flemings owned it.

BY MR. SMITH:

Q About how long, Mrs. Hicks, had Mr. Walker owned this place at the time these people lived there? A Well I couldn't answer that question.

Q Well you could tell whether it had been a few months or whether it had been a year or two? A It was, I suppose it may be quite a while; I couldn't tell you.

Q You remember that Mr. Walker owned a place there? A Of course I know he had charge of the land; I think Mr. Walker bought it from Mr. Fleming if I aint mistaken.

Q And you know these Webbers were living on the Walker place?

A Yes, sir.

Q Well what is your best recollection as to how long Mr. Walker had owned that place? A I don't know; I wont pretend to say anything I don't know; I dont want to meddle with, I didn't come down here to criticise or anything about it; I want to tell the truth as far as I know.

Q Where was young Sam Webber in December, 1865, and up until January or February of 1866? A I could not tell you where he was, I think Sam worked out some around; I couldn't tell you whether he was at home all the time or not; I could not tell you.

Q Where was young Sam Webber at the time your child died? A I couldn't tell you that; This one.

A Yes? A I don't know.

Q He was not there was he? A I don't know, I couldn't say as to that.

Q Do you remember old man Sam Webber and young Sam Webber and Andy Webber and others leaving; Aaron Webber and others leaving that community in 1866 and coming down to the Cherokee Nation? A I recollect only Sam coming down here, I don't know, I wont be positive, I guess though it was in '66.

Q Well about how long was it ago, your best recollection, before this date in the fall that you have spoken of? A I don't know.

Q Don't know? A No I don't; but I recollect about it, he brought me back spice wood and sassafras root.

Q Do you remember young Sam bringing some hides in to the community?

A No, sir, I didn't charge my mind with anything like that.

Joe Ross (sup'1) 10

Q Well now give me some idea, Mrs. Hicks, about the time old man Sam Webber started off on this trip to the Cherokee Nation in 1866 that you testified about? A Why I don't know; he come in the fall I reckon.

Q You don't know whether it was fall, summer or spring? A No sir, I don't.

Q Well how is it you have no better recollection of this very time that you mention he come than you have of the first time? A I know he was there when that child of mine died.

Q And you don't know how long after that? A No; they went along the latter part of the winter, but I don't know what time; I think though it was in February or March.

Q You couldn't be positive whether it was February or after Christmas could you? A I don't think it was before Christmas.

Q You don't think that was? A No I can't, for several facts.

Q You can't state positively whether it was before or after Christmas, you can't swear it? A I wouldn't want to swear it either way.

Q Where did you move from to this place that you live? A Where did I move from?

Q How long have you been living at this place now where you lived when your child died? A I have been living on the place ever since the spring of '57.

Q About how long did you remain on the place? A I stay there yet, when I am at home; my husband is dead.

Q Do you know how many trips Sam Webber made to the Cherokee Nation before this time that he come away from there the last time? A No sir, I don't.

Q You know of his coming one time? A I know him and his father and I think Aaron, and I don't know whether Joe was along or not.

Q Well is this Joe? A Well of course, oh that one, Joe Webber that one sitting there?

Q Yeah? A I think it is.

Q Which one of them don't look familiar? A That one, he was nothing but a boy when I knew him.

Q Which one, the light one, the black one? A Yes sir.

Q What is his name? A Joe, always called him.

Q And what is this man right here? A Sam, that is the way we always called him.

Q You think that is the man you knew up there in Kansas? A This Joe? A I don't know, he says it is; he was nothing but a boy when I saw him.

Q You don't recognise him then? A Hardly, I wouldn't know; he says he is the man, I used to think he was a very good boy when they lived there, but then he has proved out of my knowledge.

Q You don't know where the old man Sam Webber was in July '66 do you? A No sir.

Q You remember anything about young Sam Webber coming for the old man and the family in July 1866? A Well he might have come after them but they didn't come here in July.

Q You don't know when they did come? A Why I think they come some time in the latter part of the winter, but I say I would not be certain what month it was, February or March.

Q You won't be certain it was either of them? A I say they left, I was there and saw them go.

Q You would be certain it was either February or March? A I think they did.

Q You think so? A Yes sir.

BY MR. HICKS:

Q I was going to ask you if you ever seen young Sam Webber marrying? A They said he married, I don't know it myself.

Q Did you hear of his marrying up there? A Yes sir.

Q Was that before or after he left? A It was before they left.

JANE SPEARS, being sworn and examined by Commissioner Brackeinridge, testified as follows:

- Q Give me your full name? A Jane Spears.
Q How old are you? A I am 45 years old.
Q What is your post office? A Mound City.
Q In the State of Kansas? A Yes sir, Mound City, Kansas.
BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q Mrs. Spears, was Mrs. Hicks who left the stand your mother?
A Yes sir.
Q How long have you lived in and about Mound City, Kansas, I mean in the neighborhood? A Well I came there when I was about a year old.
Q And have you lived there ever since? A Yes sir, well since I have been married I have just moved one mile north.
Q You moved a mile north of your mother? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know Douglass Walker? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know Henry C. Short? A Yes sir.
Q Do you remember at an early date just after the war some colored people that lived up there: one of them by the name of Sam Webber?
A Yes sir.
Q Do you remember his son Sam? A Yes sir, I know him.
Q Were you living with your mother at that time? A Yes sir.
Q Did you know Joe, that was living with them, Joe Ross? A Yes sir.
Q Have you seen any of these parties since you have been here this time? A I met them to-day.
Q Talked with them some? A Well I just spoke to Joe; Sam I did not.
Q Did he recognize you? A Well he let on as though he did; I don't know that he did; I suppose he heard we were here.
Q I will ask you if this is your mother's family Bible? A Yes sir.
Q That is the family record of the births and deaths? A Yes sir.
Q I will ask you if you had a brother by the name of Franklin Hicks?
A Yes sir.
Q Do you remember the date of his death? A Yes sir, October 23, 1866.
Q I will ask you if you know where the Webber family was living at the time he died? A Yes sir, they were living there.
Q About how far from your mother's? A About 175 steps I suppose, in a cabin.
Q Short distance? A Yes sir.
Q Did you know Aaron Webber, a little short legged duck legged fellow? A Yes sir.
Q I would like to know from you Mrs. Spears your best recollection as to the time old man Sam Webber left that country permanently with his family? A

BY MR. SMITH: The counsel for the applicant objects to that question, because it is incompetent and calls for the opinion of the witness.

COMMISSIONER: The counsel for the applicant has put a number of questions in the same form and asked as to their best recollection that exists; it is entirely competent to give the best recollection and belief in regard to the facts.

Q My best recollection is that it was in the spring of '67, either
February or March.

Q Did you know whether or not young Sam Webber married up there?
A Yes sir.

Q Did you know whether that was before or after they left there?
A That was before they left there.

BY MR. SMITH:

Q Mrs. Spears, did you know Sam Webber, Sr., leaving that country and coming to the Cherokee Nation, or leaving that country for the Cherokee Nation before the time you mention? A He came in the fall
I think, or summer sometime and got a claim I think.

- Q Fall of what year? A '66, and then came back.
- Q Now do you remember young Sam Webber's coming back with reference to the time Sam Webber Sr. came, was came first when they returned from this trip looking for clothes you speak of? A They came together.
- Q You are sure of that? A Yes sir.
- Q Where was Amos Webber, did he come back with them? A I don't remember very much about him.
- Q You don't remember whether he did or not? A No, I won't be positive whether he came with them or not, when they came after their claims.
- Q Do you know when the older Sam Webber made the first trip to the Cherokee Nation after the war? A Well it was in the fall of '66 I guess, about that time, either summer or fall.
- Q Either summer or fall? A Yes sir, sometime along in the summer or fall.
- Q Right not it must have been the late spring? A No, it was not, because he made his crop there and then came afterwards.
- Q Made a crop in 1867? A '68.
- Q What did he do with that crop? A I suppose he put it up here, disposed of it.
- Q Do you know whether he sold it or not? A No, I don't know whether he sold it or not, I think they fed it to their stock before they left.
- Q Where was Sam Webber Jr. in December 1865? A I don't know where he was at.
- Q Where was he in January and February of '66? A January or February of '66, I can't say.
- Q Where was he in July of '65? A I don't know where.
- Q Do you have any recollection of Sam Webber Jr. coming there after his father in July '65? A No sir.
- Q Do you have any recollection of Sam Webber coming there at any time with any hides, deer hides or any kind of hides? A No sir.
- Q Where was old Sam Webber living in the year of 1865? A He was living there close to my mother's farm I speak of.
- Q In 174 steps of you? A Yes sir.
- Q And you don't remember of his coming there at any time off of a trip except the time he came back with his father? A He went to Fort Scott I guess, I never tried to keep any trace of his whereabouts.
- Q Now that makes you think it was February or March of '67 that these people left there? A Well I have all reasons to believe that circumstances about it; well the old darkey had a cane patch and the darkey boys trapped in the late fall winter.
- Q Those darkey boys? A The Webber boys.
- Q Did what? A Trapped for game that winter on the patch of cane where we had left the seed in the corn.
- Q That the winter that commenced in December and ends in February, December, '66 and February of '67? A It was all in the winter of course.
- Q Well the winter is pretty well over by the last day of January isn't it? A Not always it is.
- Q Well the colder part of it, two months is gone isn't it? A No sir, not in our country.
- Q Now many winters do you have in the winter there? A Some winters we have pretty hard and some winters we don't have so much.
- Q So that as a matter of fact the fact that they trapped there on your place during the winter, out of itself leads you to believe that they didn't leave there until February or March? A Well it was along toward spring they left, and is the best of my knowledge.
- Q Now in that way as you say the fact, you speak of your people there is that the fact you fill the story of that? A No sir, I fill it by necessity, of course that is the way by the people, of this child's death they were there then; well, the family were, I don't remember so much about the man; there was an old lady that moved down here with the man that sat up with my brother in his sickness.

Q Do you remember Sam Webber bringing you any sassafras and spice switch up there? A Yes sir.

Q When was that? A That was the first time they came down.

Q When was it? A That was in '66.

Q What month? A I don't know.

Q Can you state within two months of the time? A No I don't know as I could.

Q Can you remember that as well as you could the other time? A (No response).

Q You know that they were gone from there before the spring of '67, and it must have been in '66 they brought the sassafras? A Yes sir.

Q What was it, sassafras roots? A Yes sir.

Q That must have been in the spring? A I don't know.

Q Well they don't make sassafras in the fall? A We used it for tea

Q It was not in the spring at all Sam Webber brought the sassafras?

A No sir, it was not; he didn't bring it at all; the old gentleman brought it.

Q Well now as a matter of fact do you remember any one of these people being there at the time your brother was sick and died except the old woman Rhoda? A Well this family was there on the place; I don't remember them being there.

Q Well if they were you tell me who you saw except Rhoda the old woman? A Well I don't know as I remember. There was Johnson's wife, of course I don't just remember who was there, I was just a child then; there was a great many of the neighbors in, but I remember the old lady, sitting up with my brother at the time he was sick.

Q Now isn't it a fact that the old lady Rhoda is the only one you remember being there at the time? A No sir.

Q Now who else was there? A Chlora was there.

Q Well now name some other one, all you know that was there? A I don't know, I don't remember them, there was hardly any day but what they was there, some of them.

Q Well now what I want to know, who was there except this woman, Thoda? A I don't know anything about that.

Q You don't know? A No sir.

Q How many trips did the Webbers make down here to this country, do you know? A They came once and got claims and came back and went again.

Q All you know of? A Yes sir.

Q If they made others you don't know it? A No sir, I don't know anything about any more trips they made.

Q Now when was this entry in this Bible, the date of your brother's death, made, was that made at the time? A Just when he died?

Q Yes? A I don't know as it was, I suppose about the time.

Q Well about when, do you know who wrote that? A I know who wrote that?

Q That is what I am talking about? A This was drawn off from another Bible.

Q You don't think that this entry, "Lizzie Bell Lewis, born September 1st, 1868" is in the same handwriting that this is do you?

A No sir.

Q You don't know that this is in the same handwriting? A No sir, it is not.

Q Now who wrote that date, October 23, 1866? A Park Nichols.

Q Well now can you tell me how nearly at the time of your brother's death that entry was made? A No sir, I could not.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q How long has this Bible been in your mother's possession? A I can't tell.

Q Has this entry been in here a long time to your knowledge? A Yes sir, it has been several years.

Q It was in there long before any investigation came up wasn't it?

A Yes sir.

BY MR. SMITH:

Q Didn't Sam Webber and his father come down here in '65? A If they did I never missed them from home.

Q If they came here you didn't miss them? A No sir.

MARY A. HICKS, re-called for additional cross examination.

BY MR. SMITH:

Q Mrs. Hicks, when was the entry upon this Bible you have with regard to the date of the death of your child made with reference to his death? A Well I don't just remember when it was; it was not long.

Q Was it put there at or about the time he died? A Why it was not long after he died.

Q Well give us your best judgment as to how long? A Well he died that fall and I don't know just how long it was.

Q Well was it as much as a month? A I won't say sir.

Q You can give some idea? A Well I tell you now, I won't say anything when I don't know anything.

Q I thought probably you might know better than I do, as I know nothing about it? A If I know when I set it down I would recollect it; I have had a good deal of trouble about it.

Q I don't want to cause you any trouble about it, but I would like to know, it is some importance in this case? A There was a young man working for us that set it down.

Q What was his name? A His name was Nichols.

Q Do you remember how long after your child died before Nichols went to work for you? A No sir.

Q Well when it was set down what was it set down from, your recollection? A Why I had a husband then and all of us recollected it, who wouldn't recollect it?

Q I am asking you how long it was before this entry was made, if you can tell me? A I don't know when.

Q Do you think it was as much as two years? A No sir.

Q It was not? A No sir, if I should guess at anything about it I should think it was along in the summer sometime, I should think now; afterwards this young man was breaking prairie and of course he broke it in the winter.

Q Was this the first place it was made where it was made here in this Bible? A Yes sir.

MR. SMITH: If the Court please, I want to show by the title page of the Bible that it was not published until in 1869.

COMMISSION: The title page has been examined and it shows that the edition of the Bible in evidence was published in Philadelphia in the year 1869.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q Do you remember, independent of the Bible, of the dates of your son's death? A Yes sir.

Q You didn't attempt to give distinctly when that entry was made in your Bible? A No sir.

Q You so stated? A Yes sir.

BY MR. SMITH: I object to that; it is leading.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

The Representatives of the Cherokee Nation ask that the testimony of Sam Webber, recalled, in the case of Jefferson Ross and others, Freedman D-872, be made a part of the record in this case.

COMMISSION: It is ordered that the testimony just taken be filed as supplemental testimony in Cherokee Freedman Doubtful case 493, the same being the case of Chloera Grayson, and it will likewise be filed in Cherokee Freedman Doubtful case 216, the case of Aaron Webber, and in Cherokee Freedman doubtful case 360, the same being the case of Joe Ross.

It is further ordered that a set of all the testimony given by Sam Webber in Cherokee Freedman Doubtful case 872, the same being the case of Jefferson Ross, be filed in case Cherokee Freedman D-360, of Joe Ross, and in Cherokee Freedman D-496, of Chlora Grayson, and in Cherokee Freedman D-218, of Aaron Webber.

Joe Ross (sup'l) 15

as follows:

Q. Smith: What is your name? A Sam Webber.
Q. How old are you? A About 58.
Q. Where do you live? A I live about two miles west of here.
Q. How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A I was born and raised here, and after the war came back.
Q. Do you know this applicant, Jefferson Ross? A Yes, sir.
Q. Were you acquainted with him before the war? A No, sir, I wasn't acquainted with him before the war.
Q. When did you first know him? A I got acquainted with him just after the war.
Q. Where? A Here in the Nation.
Q. About what part of the Nation? A He came to my house thereon
Big Creek in the Nation.
Q. What time? A Along in the spring of '67.
Q. Do you know of your own knowledge when he first came back to the Territory after the war? A No, sir, I don't know of my own knowledge.
Q. Do you know where he was living at the time he came to your house?
A He had been working on Snow Creek he claimed and he was on his way hunting his sister.
Q. Did you ever see him after you saw him that time? A I put him on the trail down to his sister's and I never saw him for quite a little bit from that; when I saw him he was there on Lightning Creek.
Q. Did you see him then after that at his sister's? A I saw him then often and on for near about two years I guess.
Q. Where? A There at Lightning Creek.

Q In the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q Was he married or a single man at that time? A He was a single man to my knowledge.
Q Do you know where he is living now? A No, sir, I don't.
Mr. Hastings: You saw him around here for about two years?
A Yes, sir.
Q Then how long was it till you saw him again, Sam? A I remember after that of seeing him on Big Creek again.
Q How long after that? A Must have been six months of a year after that I met him again there.
Q You know where he was married? A No, sir, I can't tell you.
Q Was he married at that time? A If he was I didn't know it.
Q Did you know his wife? A No, sir, I don't know his wife.
Q Did you ever see his wife? A Not to know it was her.
Q Has this man ever kept house to your knowing? A When I saw him he was to his sister's.
Q What was her name? A Katie Thornton.
Q You never saw him in a separate, independent house, keeping house with his family? A No, sir, never did.
Q What is his occupation? A I can't tell you.
Q Did you ever see him making a crop anywhere? A I never saw him farming, I have seen him working for people around there.
Q He never made a crop to your knowledge? A No, sir, not to my knowledge.
Q Has he got any special occupation like a carpenter? A Not as I know of.
Q What is Katie Thornton's husband named? A Henry Thornton.
Q Was that her husband at that time? A Yes, sir.
Q With whom does this man stay now? A I don't know that.
Q You never saw him anywhere except around to his sister's? A That is all I have noticed him.
Q Did he have any children when you saw him? A I never saw them if he did.
Q You don't know where his family were, if he had any? A No, sir.

Sam Webber, re-called, testified as follows:

Mr. Hastings: Mr. Webber, when were you first married? A When I first married, I married just a short while after the war, I don't remember what year.
Q Before you came down here? A After I came down here.
Q Well, about how many years after you came down here? A It wasn't a year I guess after I came here.
Q Well, you know what time of the year you were married? A I was married along in the winter.
Q Was that the same winter you came, or the winter of '67? A It was along about, it throwed in '67, it was after Christmas.
Q You mean in January of '67 or the last part of '67? A It was along after Christmas, I don't remember the date.
Q What was your wife named? A My wife at that time was Rinda Martin.
Q When did you commence keeping house? A I went in my house when I first came there.
Q You and your wife keeping house separate and apart? A I was keeping house when I was single, I built me a little house, and was living in there.
Q What time in the year did you and your wife move into that house? A We moved right in the house after we were married.
Q And you don't remember when that was, what time of the year? A Along after Christmas; I was already in the house.

Page 175, No. 2557, Ruben Sanders, Cowles Cove district.

Q Did you ever have to carry the question of your citizenship before any court? A Yes sir.
Q What court? A The Chambers court.
Q Is that the only one? A Yes sir that is the only one; I was admitted by the Chambers Court.

Q Where was it sitting? A At Tahlequah.
 Q In what year was that? A I cannot tell what year it was Q Your citizenship had been disputed had it? A Yes sir.
 Q When was your right to citizenship first disputed? A It was during the time that Thompson Ockelita was chief.
 Q Was that before the 1880 roll was made? A Yes sir.
 Q Did the court decide in your favor? A Yes sir.
 Q Was there any dispute made then about your being put on the 1880 roll? A No sir.
 Q Were you required to show a copy of the decision of the court in your favor when you went to enroll in 1880? A No sir.
 Q Did they ask you any questions when you went to be enrolled in 1880? A No sir.
 Q Where did they take your name? A I was in Gooseneck Bend, at the time.
 Q Do you know the applicant Elizabeth Meigs? A Yes sir.
 Q Your wife is her daughter? A Yes sir.

By W. W. Hastings:

Q Peter Meigs' citizenship was disputed the same time yours was? A Yes sir.
 Q Did he go before the court at the same time? A No sir, I think not.
 Q His wife's citizenship was also disputed? A I judge so.
 Q Did she go down before that court? A Not to my knowledge.
 Q Did he go down to Tahlequah to the court before that time? A Yes sir I think he went down to the Bob Daniels court, think he went with my father.
 Q Was Bob Daniels Chief Justice of that court? A Yes sir.
 Q Just a few years after the war? A Yes sir.
 Q In '71 wasn't it? A Yes sir.
 Q Was any action taken in that court? A I don't know.
 Q You were not there yourself? A No sir.
 Q You were about 15 or 16 years old when you come back? A Yes sir I guess so, I don't exactly know how old I was.
 Q You were not married then? A No sir.
 Q How long long after you got back before you married? A Not very long after I got back.
 Q Did you marry on your way down here? A No sir.
 Q How long had you been here before you married? A I have been married twice.
 Q How long had you been here before you married the first time? A. A Not very long.
 Q As much as a year? A May be so.
 Q Is that your best judgment? A My best judgment is perhaps that it was that long.
 Q When were you married to your present wife? A Upwards of 30 years, or so.
 Q How long did you live with your first wife? A Not very long, she died.
 Q A year? A Perhaps it was, maybe a little longer.
 Q Then you married your present wife? A Yes sir.
 Q When you came to the Cherokee Nation how did you come the first time? A In wagons.
 Q The first time? A Yes sir.
 Q Who came with you? A Several were on horse-back; it is beyond my knowledge how many there were.
 Q Tell all you can remember? A We made a trip in August and one in October and then we moved here in the winter.
 Q Did you come in August? A Yes sir.
 Q Who came with you then? A Some of this family, Peter Meigs and got his place; the heads of those families.

Q Who else came with you? A My brother Dan and the Whitmires.
 Q Which ones? A Several.
 Q Which ones? A More and Dennis, and the Webbers.
 Q Name them? A Old man Sam and younger Sam and little Aaron, and a man named Abe Furman, and Abe Hair, and I don't know who else, I don't know who all come.
 Q Who come when you come in October? A I don't know who all come then, some of that same crowd and some more come in October.
 Q Do you remember any additional persons? A To the best of my knowledge the Smith family.
 Q What was his first name? A Old man Caesar Smith.
 Q You come in both of the detachments yourself? A No sir.
 Q Which one did you come in? A I come in August.
 Q You didn't come in October then? A Yes sir, I come when we first come; we brought some of our farming utensils when we come in August and left the on the creek.
 Q On Big Creek? A Yes sir.
 Q Where Mrs Meigs lives? A Yes sir.
 Q And you returned in October, how long did you stay in October.
 Q We all didn't return in October, we didn't all go back, some staid in August. some staid and some came back; some of us brought our things with us and some came to look out homes, we all come with the intention of making our homes here.
 Q When did you afterwards move here the last time? A In the winter of '66 is when we come down here the last time.
 Q What time in the winter? A Long in January.
 Q You mean in '67.
 Q No in the winter of '66.
 Q If you came here in the August and October of '66 and then returned for your family and came back here in the following winter, in the following January or February, that would be in '67? A I don't understand you; we came here in the winter of '66 is what I said, in January after we had first been here in August and October, we came right to where Mrs. Meigs is living now.

By the Commission:

Q You say you first came here in August of '66? A Yes sir.
 Q That was your first coming was it? A Yes sir.

By Hastings:

Q When you moved here permanently, tell all that you possible can remember of who came with you in the January or February following?
 A This family is one, her, the Meigs family, Peter Meigs, Elizabeth Meigs, Mary Meigs, George Meigs, Simon Meigs, Harriette Meigs, Jerry Meigs, that is all that I can remember of that family.
 Q I don't mean only of that family, there were other families were there not? A Old man Billie Foreman.
 Q Who else? A He had several children.
 Q The heads of families I mean? A Fannie Sanders; I don't recollect them all; I don't know as I can call the names of all of them.
 Q Were any of the Webbers along? A Yes sir.
 Q Old man Sam and young Sam? A Yes sir; I would not pretend to call them all over as I had forgotten them Webbers and so I can't remember for if I has forgotten them I don't think I can remember any of the others.

By the Commission:

Q Did you see any other families? A Yes sir.
 Q Did you see any other families? A Yes sir.

Mr. W. W. Webb:

- Q Don't you remember any one else? A Rachel Webber.
 Q Do you think of any one else? A No sir.
 Q You know that it was a mooted question before the Kerns Clifton Commission as to who came at this time and as to when you come? A. I haven't been interested as to anyone except for myself.
 Q You know that there is a question about who came don't you? A Yes sir I guess I do.
 Q You say you came to Big Creek? A Yes sir.
 Q Did you come by the way of Chetopa? A Yes sir I guess that we did, I don't know that they called it Chetopa then, there was a house or so there.
 Q Did you cross the river there? A What river.
 Q Neosho? A No sir.
 Q You didn't cross at the Gilstrap ferry? A No sir we crossed 20 or 30 miles from there.
 Q You came through what is Chetopa and came on west through the prairie? A We may have.
 Q You were in Wagons? A Yes sir.
 Q Were there any persons living on any of that country from Chetopa west, out to Big Creek except your own people who had come in August or October before that? A I have no knowledge of any one living there before that.
 Q Were there any houses there except those that your crowd built? A I don't know of any houses, but there were foundations for them on Big Creek.
 Q Then the houses were not built before you moved there with your families? A Yes sir some were, there were logs on some up 8 or 10 logs high.
 Q Then there were none really completed until you moved there with your families? A No sir.
 Q Did you make a crop there the first year that you moved there? A Yes sir as near as we could with one horse plows and hoes.
 Q Do you know Jim Martin? A Yes sir.
 Q How far does he live from you now? A 4, 5 or 6 miles.
 Q Was he living there when you people moved there? A No sir.
 Q He had a brother named William Martin? A Yes sir.
 Q Was he living out there then? A No sir.
 Q There was an old man by the name of Carter living out there then, wasn't there? A No sir; there was an old man named Carter living 20 miles perhaps from there quite a while after we came there.
 Q Was his name Dick Carter? A I think it was.
 Q You say he lived some 20 miles from there? A Yes sir 20 miles below, on the Verdigris river. He came some time after.
 Q Do you know if that ferry that you crossed the Neosho river was called Gilstrap ferry? A No sir we never crossed on Gilstrap ferry.
 Q There were no farms made there when you passed through--no citizens had farms up there? A No sir none that I saw.

By the Commission:

- Q You stated, I believe, that the first time that you come to the Cherokee Nation after the Civil War closed was in August of '66?
 A Yes sir.
 Q For what purpose did you come back then? A To make it our home; the proclamation had told us to come home, that it was open for us to come.
 Q You didn't bring your families with you then? A Only part of them and some things that we had.
 Q Part came with their families and part came to prepare for their families? A Yes sir.

Q What men were with you on that first trip? A This family, the Meigs family, not all of this man's boys, but the old man Meigs, Peter Meigs.

Q You didn't bring your family with you at that time did you? A No sir.

Q Did Peter Meigs bring any of his family then? A No sir.

Q Did you go back to Kansas after that? A Yes sir.

Q When did you bring your family? A Our family came in October.

Q When did Peter Meigs go back to Kansas? A I think with my father.

Q You came yourself ?n August? A Yes sir with my father.

Q You went back to Kansas after that? A Yes sir my father went there and I went with him.

Q When did Peter Meigs go back? A He went with the crowd.

Q Did he go with you and your father? A Yes sir.

Q Then you returned to the Cherokee Nation again in October? A Yes sir.

Q Did your father come with you? A Yes sir.

Q Did all the members of your own family come with you? A No sir, not all of them come in October.

Q Where was Peter Meigs in October? A He come with us at each trip.

Q Did he go back to Kansas with you? A Yes sir.

Q And then you came back here to the Cherokee Nation in October? A Yes sir.

Q Did Peter Meigs come back with you to the Cherokee Nation in October? A Yes sir.

Q That made the second time that Peter Meigs had been here? A Yes sir.

Q Where was Peter Meigs in Christmas of '66, do you know? A No sir I dont exactly know where he was in Christmas of '66.

Q When Peter Meigs got back to the Cherokee Nation with his family did he settle in the Cherokee Nation near your family? A Yes sir.

Q How far apart? A Two or three hundred yards apart.

Q Did he then go back to Kansas for his family after he made that October trip with you? A No sir he went back after something to eat.

Q You stated that he brought his family the last time in February, when did he go back after his family? A The third time he brought his family.

Q You staid here then? A Yes sir.

Q When did you come? A In the winter.

Q Was it in February? A Must have been in December.

Q What about that February trip you spoke of? A It was in the winter some time. Snow on the ground.

Q Did your father come at that trip? A Yes sir.

Q Your mother? A Yes sir.

Q Peter Meigs? A Yes sir.

Q His wife? A Yes sir.

Q That was your third trip? A Yes sir.

Q Was that your last trip? A Yes sir.

Q When did your wife Alice come? A Come then.

Q On that third trip? A Yes sir.

Q You say Peter made all three trips with you? A Yes sir.

Q Every time you came he came? A Yes sir.

Q Every time you went back to Kansas he went back? A Yes sir, that is to the best of my knowledge.

Q Did he go there by himself? A No sir.

Q Do you remember distinctly that you came here in August the first time? A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember distinctly that Peter came with you in August and October? A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember distinctly that he come with his family when you made your third and last trip? A Yes sir.

Q With his family? A Yes sir.

By Com'r Breckinridge,-

The applicant states that she was a slave in the Cherokee Nation from the time the Cherokees moved to the Indian Territory in 1837 until she was liberated by the Civil war. She is identified on the Kerns-Clifton roll and on the Wallace roll, but not on the 1880 roll or upon the roll of 1896. The testimony indicated that her husband first returned to the Cherokee Nation after the war, coming from Kansas in August of 1863, that he came at that time to prepare for the bringing of his family back to the Cherokee Nation. He is now deceased, but he and the applicant were married at that time and had several children. The testimony further indicated that the applicant's husband made a trip back to Kansas in October, but not with a view of relinquishing his purpose to bring his family to the Cherokee Nation, but apparently to get provisions. It further appears that he returned to the Cherokee Nation with his wife and children in the following month of February. There is some conflict of testimony in regard to this matter, but so far that is the weight of the testimony. It also appears that proceedings may have been had by some Cherokee Court, either a citizenship court or the Cherokee Supreme Court, prior to the date of the Chambers Court, affecting the citizenship of this applicant and her husband and all those who may claim through them. It will be necessary to make ~~such~~ further inquiry upon this point, and if possible to get an official copy of the record. Under these conditions, the applicant will now be listed for enrollment on a doubtful card and the final decision of the Commission will be made known to her at her post office address.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Vinita, I. T., May 22, 1901.

In the matter of the application of Elizabeth Heigs for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman;
REUBEN SANDERS, having been before sworn by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give your name? A Reuben Sanders.

Q How old are you? A I am only about 50 past.

Q You gave testimony just now in the case of Elizabeth Heigs?

A Yes sir.

Q And you want to correct a statement you made there? A Yes sir, I wish to make the statement that it was in January, 1867 when we made the last move, about the first of the month; it was the following August, in 1866; we had been here in August you know, in '66 and in October, and we made the last move in '67, January, and I put it down February I think; I wanted to say January.

Q How do you find out now it was January instead of February?

A It was just after Christmas that we was on the road coming down.

Q How long after Christmas? A Perhaps a week after Christmas; my reason for stating this is this, along Christmas- a few days before Christmas there was a man got killed named Hayford, and there was a gentleman killed him, a colored man killed that man Hayford, a man by the name of Mackey, and we started then right shortly after that killing was, and the parties followed us, thinking he was with us, in our crowd, that was just the following- a few days after Christmas, a week, or after Christmas.

Examined by Cherokee Representative, W. W. Hastings:

Q How old are you? A Well I just don't know my age exactly, I suppose that I am about 50 years old; something in that line.

Q Where did you say that killing took place? A In Kansas.

Q Port Scott? A Yes sir.

Q And the man that was accused of the killing was named what? A Named Mackey.

Q You remember his first name? A No.

Q You remember the man who was killed, you get his first name? A No sir I don't.

Q Did you ever learn afterwards whether or not that man was caught, do you know? A It seems to me like I learned afterwards that the man was caught. No I don't know nothing about that part of it.

Q You know what county Port Scott is in? A No sir.

Q Who called your attention to this ~~error~~ error? A I thought so myself; I called my own attention to it; I was studying over it, I did.

Q You know now it was only a few days after Christmas? A Yes sir, a few days after Christmas.

Com'r Breckinridge: This statement will be filed as supplemental in the Elizabeth Heigs case, to be considered in connection with the former statement of the witness, and the other evidence relating to the date in question.

M. D. Green, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Vinita, I. T., October 15, 1901.

In the matter of the application of Elizabeth Meigs et al. for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen.

Testimony introduced on behalf of the Cherokee Nation.

Appearances:

L. T. Brown, agent for the applicant;
J. S. Davenport, of counsel for Cherokee Nation.

L. T. Brown: I would like to have the record show that sometime next week the applicant intends to introduce as witnesses in this case, Aaron Wright, Reuben Sanders, Dan Sanders, and Sam Webber, for the purpose of showing that all the applicants in this case returned to the Cherokee Nation during the time prescribed by the Ninth Article of the Treaty of 1866.

Commissioner Needles: Hasn't that already been shown?

L. T. Brown: And that they have had a continuous residence in this country since that year.

Commissioner: Well, that is all right.

ROBERT MEIGS, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows.

Mr. Davenport: What is your name? A Robert Meigs.

Q Where do you live? A I live five miles southwest of Tahlequah.

Q What is your postoffice? A Park Hill is my postoffice.

Q How old are you? A I am 56 my next birthday.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A I have lived here all my life except a little while time of the war, from '64 to '65.

Q Did your people own any slaves before the war? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know whether they owned a woman by the name of Elizabeth?

A No sir.

Q Do you know whether or not they owned her mother, or anybody of the family? A Elizabeth, no, sir.

Q Well, did you know Peter Meigs? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know what his wife's name was when the war broke out?

A Betsy they called her.

Q Well, was she living, Betsy, at the time the war broke out?

A Yes sir.

Q Well, did you ever know her by any other name than Betsy?

A Betsy.

Q Where was Peter Meigs and his family at the breaking out of the war? A Well Peter was with us at home at the breaking out, but he and his wife was up there somewhere near the Dutch Mills on the Arkansas line.

Q Well I wish you would look at that woman there and see if she is the woman you knew as Betsy or Bettie or whatever you knew her by (indicating applicant)? A Yes, I think that is the one, I have never seen her but once.

Q That is since the war? A I just saw her once in my life and that was time of the war, after the war.

Q Did you ever see Peter Meigs and his family after the war? A Yes sir, saw Uncle Peter.

Q What year was that? A Sometime after '71.

Q What were the circumstances as to your seeing him or meeting him?

A They called to come down to Council to see about fixing up his rights, and he came down to visit my brother John, we were right together, and I went up there to see him.

Q Did you have a conversation with him or did he have a conversation with your brother John in your hearing where he and his wife were present in regard to his right or when he returned? A Yes sir.

Q Give that conversation as near as you can.

L. T. Brown: The applicant objects to this witness relating any conversation he might have had with Peter Meigs, for the reason that Peter Meigs is dead and cannot affirm or deny this statement.

Commissioner: The objection will be noted and the witness will answer.

Q Go ahead and state what the conversation was between you? A He was talking about returning, he said he came down here in the fall of '66 and started to make him a place somewhere on Big Creek and his family wasn't with him, and afterwards when he returned why it was too late when he brought his family.

Q Did you ever see any other members of his family excepting he and his wife at the time you speak of? A No, sir, just him and his wife is all, I wasn't acquainted with the children.

Q Do you know where he was living at that time? A He said he was living on Big Creek somewhere.

Q That was in what year? A This was after '71 sometime, I don't know just what time it was.

By L. T. Brown: Now what did you say that conversation was, Mr. Meigs? A Why he said that he had come down to make him a place somewhere up here on the Verdigris, or Big Creek, and he started to make him a cabin, and put up the wall, and then went back for the family.

Q He told you that he came down and started him a little cabin with the intention of making him a home in the fall of '66? A He said he came down and started to make him a home.

Q In the fall of '66? A Yes, in the fall of '66.

Mr. Lavenport: Well, what did he do after he started that home, did he say, after he started that cabin? A Went back after his family.

Q And he stayed up there till when he came back down here it was too late is that what he told you? A Yes, sir.

By L. T. Brown: How long did he tell you he stayed up there in Kansas after he made the first trip? A He didn't state, I believe he gave but one time.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY in the matter of the enrollment of SAMUEL BECK as a Cherokee freedman; introduced on part of the Cherokee Nation:

Appearances:

L. T. Brown, Vinita, I. T., Agent for Applicant;
J.S.Davenport, Cherokee representative.

L.B.BELL, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:

MR. DAVENPORT:

- Q What is your name? A L. B. Bell.
Q Where do you live, Mr. Bell? A Vinita, Indian Territory.
Q How long have you lived in and near Vinita? A Oh, since '67, including most of '67.
Q Was there any railroad running in or through Vinita when you first moved into that community? A No, sir.
Q When did the railroad first come through that country, Mr. Bell?
A In 1871.
Q You know this applicant, Sam Beck? A No, I don't know him.
Q Don't know anything about him? A No, sir.
Q Was you living in that country before the railroad started from Kansas through the Indian Territory; that is, the M. K. & T?
A Well, I will tell you what I know about the railroad; The railroad came through the country in 1870, and on the application of the Cherokee Nation, a complaint to the Secretary of the Interior, they stopped building and during the session after 1870 of the National Council of the Cherokee Nation, they passed an Act there, it is dated the 14th of December, 1870, authorizing the furnishing of cross-ties to the railroad, and agreeing that the railroad could go through. The secretary hadn't determined which had the right-of-way. They had begun it in 1870 and the M. K. & T. got the right-of-way, and then they authorized the selling of cross-ties, and I went to Chatopa and made a contract with the Company for cross-ties enough to build from the Kansas line to Pryor Creek and sublet it.
Mr. Martin was one I sublet to, that was in 1871 that contract was made, I don't recollect the exact date. Well, just a few days following that we began getting cross-ties and then worked on down to the Creek Nation. That was the first railroad built in the country and the first cross-ties was cut on the railroad in this country.
Q You don't know anything about the wife of Beck or anything about them? A No, I don't.

C. D. MARKHAM, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:

MR. DAVENPORT:

- Q What is your name? A C. D. Markham.
Q Where do you live? A At Tahlequah.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation?
A I was born and raised here; never was out except during the war.

Q Where did you live before moving to Dunlap? A Lived on Grand river east of Choteau about ten miles.

Q Do you know Samuel Beck, the applicant in this case, or his family? A No, sir.

Q Where were you living along the latter part of the sixties or early part of the seventies? A On the Grand river.

Q Do you know about the year the M. K. & T. railroad built from Chetopa, Kansas, down through the Territory? A It must have been the latter part of '71 or '2.

Q Had you any connection with it any way that makes you remember it? A Yes, sir, I had a contract on the road, beginning at Bryant's lake, down this way.

Q And that was in what years it built down there? A The ties was put in there in the spring, latter part; it was in the spring of '71.

BY ATTORNEY BROWN:

Q You don't know the applicant, Mr. Markham? A No, sir, I don't.

Q You don't know to whom he belonged before the war or when he returned to the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir.

Commission: This testimony will also be filed in and made a part of the record in Cherokee freedman case No. D.391.

Cherokee Nation appears by W. W. Hastings.
Applicant appears by L. T. Brown.

MRS. LYDIA BARTON, being first duly sworn testified as follows:

- MR. HASTINGS: What is your name? A Mrs. Lydia Barton.
Q What is your postoffice? A Fort Scott, Kansas.
Q Do you hold any official position at the present time? A Yes, sir.
Q What is it? A County Clerk.
Q Of the county in which Fort Scott is located? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you an official paper? A Yes, sir.
Q What is it? A Our official paper at the present time is the Republican but that changes you know from time to time.
Q Do you know what your official paper was in December, 1866, and up to and including March of 1867? A Yes, sir.
Q What was it? A The Fort Scott Monitor.
Q Are you required to keep files of this paper in your office? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you a file of the official paper including December 22, 1866, up to and including March of 1867? A Yes, sir. (Here presents files.)

MR. HASTINGS: The Cherokee Nation offers in evidence the account found in the Fort Scott Monitor of date Wednesday, December, 26, 1866, found on the second column of the editorial page, headed "Another Murder."

MR. BROWN: Comes now the agent for the applicant and objects to the introduction of these newspaper accounts for the reason that they are incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, and purely hearsay.

COMMISSION: The objection will be noted and the newspaper accounts introduced in evidence and considered for what they are worth.

"Another Murder.

Shooting of D. Hayford.

Testimony given before the coroner.

On Saturday night, the 22nd inst., after dark, Mr. Dyer Hayford, of this city, was found murdered. A colored man, named Eli Mackey, has been arrested, and is in jail, charged with the crime. There would not seem to be much, if any, doubt of his guilt. Mr. Hayford has been a resident of Fort Scott for several years, has kept a grocery and provision store on the corner of Williams and Rigler Streets, and was a very quiet and inoffensive man. The facts of his murder as we learn them, are these:

On Saturday, about dark, the sack of flour which Mr. Hayford had placed on a box, outside the door of his store, was stolen. Being missed almost immediately, and learning that Mackey had taken it, and was then on his way home with it, (Mackey resides near Fort Scott mills,) Mr. Hayford jumped on a horse and started towards the mill. He had not been gone more than twenty or thirty minutes before several shots were fired, on the road between the city and the mills, where Mr. Hayford was found on the ground, in the last agonies of death. He had received four shots from a weapon, evidently a revolver.

suspicion was at once directed to Hackey and he was arrested. As the news spread through the city, the excitement and the indignation was great, and many threats of lynching Hackey were made; but wiser and better counsels prevailed, and there was no disturbance.

On Sunday, Justice Hargrave was called on to hold a coroner's inquest. A jury was empanelled, consisting of Messrs. C. F. Burke, Joseph Ray, Frank Clough, Porter Williams, Jos. Varden, and P. H. Phillips. The body of Mr. Hayford having been removed to his late residence, the jury proceeded to inquire into the cause of his death. He gave the principal part of the testimony given before the jury.

Mrs. J. S. Radfield and B. F. Herler had a post-mortem examination, and testified that they found four pistol or ball-shot wounds on the body and face of Beyer Hayford; then lying dead before them. One shot entered the region of the stomach which came out over the liver, in the side of the back. This wound bears witness that the pistol was held close to the body when discharged. The other wounds found on the body were about two inches above the left nipple and about an inch and a half apart - one ball passing through, coming out below the left shoulder, the other ranging downward, as they found close to the spinal column, a few inches below the lower ribs on the left side of the body. The fourth ball entered the upper part of the chin, not fracturing the bone, and lodged in the right shoulder, (evidently fired, we think, after he was on the ground.) The surgeons testified that any of the three wounds found on the body would have been mortal.

Alonso Cullin, (colored) sworn - Was at Hayford's late store, just after six o'clock, came on horseback, left my horse at the door, went in and found Hayford alone and coming toward the door. Eli Hackey, colored, was standing on the walk when I went into Hayford's; a sack of flour was standing on the box at the door. When I went in; Hayford came out and the flour was gone; he asked me if it was there when I came in, and I told him; asked me to get on my horse and follow Hackey and see if he had the flour; did so; rode very fast and overtook Hackey at the mill, going toward the mill; he had stopped and the sack of flour was on the ground beside him; his coat was off and thrown over the flour but the end of the coat was in sight; I rode close to him; he put his hands up to his sides and was blowing right and left; I inquired if he had seen a man steal anything on his neck; he said no; I rode back toward Hayford's and told him Hackey had the flour and where it was; Hayford said he would go and get the flour, and asked me for my pony; he got on and rode down the road; he had been gone a good while before I heard the firing; he had been gone long enough to ride to the mill and back to the place where he was shot, before I heard the firing. When I came back at Hayford's he had on a soldier's coat; it was off when I found him with the flour. Didn't notice that at any time whether Hackey had any arms or weapons with him; saw him again after he was arrested, a short time after Hayford was killed; he then had a different coat. He asked what he was arrested for; he was told, for stealing flour; he asked who had seen him with the flour; he was then told he had shot Hayford, and he said he had nothing to shoot with. I know that he generally carried a revolver; when I saw him with the flour I didn't notice whether he had one or not. Then Hayford started from the store, he said he would go and get Mr. Myers to go with him to get the flour; from the place where I saw Hackey with the flour to that where Hayford was shot, is about one hundred yards. I heard three shots distinctly.

Harry Lender, (colored) sworn - Saturday evening heard several shots fired. Was at home, lived near the mill close by Eli Mackey. About twenty minutes after the shots were fired Mackey came to my door; asked me if his wife was there; told him no. He seemed to be in a hurry. He had on a black soldier's coat; the shooting sounded as if it was south from my house, and about the place where Hayford was found; someone rode down to Mackey's and returned about fifteen minutes, before the shots were fired. Saw the coat which Mackey wore when he came to my house, at his house afterward. - Do not know whether he had any revolver then or not, he usually carries one, have seen him have one several times. I did not notice any flour on his coat. It was a navy revolver which Mackey usually carried. He also owns a gun; didn't see that at his house that night. When Mackey left my house he went to his house, and soon afterward heard him going back to town whistling. Mr. Jones found the sack of flour at the edge of the creek; looked as if thrown down the bank. Was found about twenty yards from Mackey's house. Saw Mackey have a revolver on Friday the day before Hayford was killed.

E. C. H. Myers, sworn - I live about 100 yards west of Eli Mackey's. Saturday night was at home sick abed; a man came to my house and inquired for me; I heard him and knew by his voice that it was Mr. Hayford; have known him several years. He left and my wife said he rode in a northerly direction, that is the way from my house to Mackey's. About five minutes after he left I heard four distinct shots. From the sound thought they were about 150 yards off and southwest from my house. After the firing heard someone walking past, whistling; he was going towards town.

Stephen Looney, (col.) sworn - After dark Saturday night I saw Eli Mackey at Smith's saloon. He asked me to play cards with him that night. He went out and I told him not to stay long. I waited a good bit and Mackey didn't come back and I went out and called him; he didn't answer; I then went over to Hayford's and learned that a sack of flour had been stolen. Didn't notice whether Hayford was there or not. Alonzo Cullin told me he saw Mackey on the road towards home, and that Mackey heard me call, but wouldn't answer. Didn't see Mackey again until Mr. Jones had arrested him, and brought him up to town. When I saw Mackey at Smith's he had on a soldier's frock coat; he had a revolver on him then; it was a big navy revolver. When I saw him after he was arrested, I think he had on a different coat.

Daniel O'Neil, sworn - Saturday night I was at Kirby's and heard a shot fired, and soon after heard a man halloo; run out and another shot was fired before I got out; immediately after heard another shot and saw the flash of a pistol down in the bottom toward the mill. Alex Harris, Westly Dickey and myself run down the road. We found a man lying on his side; his face was turned downward; he was alive but could not speak. From the sound I know it was a pistol that was fired. Came to town to find Mr. Jones, Deputy Marshal.

The coroner's jury returned to the justice their inquisition, stating that Dyer Hayford came to his death by gun-shot wounds received at the hands of Eli Mackey; they also found that Mackey had feloniously and wilfully fired the revolver at Mr. Hayford with intent to kill him.

Mackey will have his examination soon, before Justice Margrave, and will no doubt be committed for trial at the next April term of the district court. Mackey is said to be a very dangerous man; he was raised in the Cherokee Nation, and is said to be part Cherokee. He is also accused of having assassinated two men in the Nation, before he came to Fort Scott,

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO PRESS

"Bill Kuckey, colored, accused of the murder of Dyer Hayford, confined in our jail, to await his trial at the next term of the District Court, for murder in the first degree, escaped last evening, and up to the time of going to press this morning, has not been heard of. A reward of two hundred dollars is offered for his apprehension."

A Charter of Rights.

A San Diego article published in an account of the capture of Elihu Huddy, the black leader, who last winter married Miss Mary L. Overstreet, stated the officers of justice have been so far alert with a view to his capture, and on Wednesday, the San Diego Deputy Sheriff W. H. Taylor, stated that the murderer was removed in his brother's name, about five miles northeast of their city, started, in company with him too, Charles T. Whitson, Edward Lee - who were on police duty in this city - and Benj. Allen, for the purpose of capturing him.

In the mean time a number of the neighbors had gone around and headed by Capt. Curdie Johnson, Mr. Files and Mr. Dickinson started in pursuit. The wanderer, with a gun and revolver in his hands, ran fleetly across the prairie, firing at his pursuers as he ran, and dropping down to load as fast as his weapon became empty. Finally, when nearly dead from the wounds he received from his pursuers, he signified his readiness to surrender but even after they approached him his bloodthirsty spirit was not satisfied, and he fired the two remaining shots in his revolver at the crowd. Fortunately, no one was injured, though Mr. Dickinson had part of his coat shot off. After the wanderer was secured he was taken back to the house from which he had fled and hung by the neck until he was dead. Before his death he tried to incite an innocent negro in the murder of Mr. Heyford, but he was caught in the falsehood, he confessed to having committed the deed himself. He also confessed to having killed five other men, and also to having shot at Major Befford last winter. - All reports indicate that he has always been a character with scarcely a parallel in the annals of history for desperation.

and bloodthirstiness. We are informed that at one time, in the Cherokee Nation, 25 men attempted to arrest him but failed on account of his desperation. The colored people, who knew him, were terrible afraid of him. History has seldom presented a character so utterly lost even to every sentiment of humanity.

As a general rule, we have always depreciated the taking of life except by due process of law, as dangerous to the peace and quiet of the community and to the best interests of society. We have always found that nothing but the most extreme necessity would justify it, but we believe in this instance that necessity existed; for every moment this desperado was allowed to live, endangering the lives of good citizens. We learn that the house he occupied was thrown to the ground. The sufferers from their persecutions were among the best of our young men. As members of the police force of this city they have performed their duties faithfully. Generous and brave to a fault, the death of one and the danger to the others creates a spirit of sadness that cannot soon be forgotten. The body of Mr. Coe was brought into the city, and a funeral service was held at the funeral home by Mr. Irwin was decorated by the Grand Army of the Republic, and the members of the Grand Army of the Republic, and the city where it was interred.

Sequel.

On Thursday night a crowd of about fifty men, still laboring under the excitement growing out of the tragedy of Wednesday, gathered on Hill and having possessed themselves of the keys took the body of Hayford from the brother who harbored the murderer and the police department with furnishing provisions and aiming to put them to rest in the ravine near the poorhouse and hung them to the gallows. Their lifeless bodies were found next morning. So quiet was the city that few in the city except those who participated in the act were out until the next morning.

Benjamin Files, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

Q. What is your name? A Benjamin Files.

Q. What is your postoffice? A Fort Scott.

Q. Where? A Kansas, yes, sir.

Q. Were you living there at the close of the war? A Yes, sir.

Q. Were you living there in '66, December? A I have lived there since 1866.

Q. Do you know Pyer Hayford? A Yes, sir.

Q. Did you know him before December '66. A Yes sir, I had known him in the neighborhood of two years before that and knew him up until that time.

Q. Was he killed? A He was killed at Fort Scott.

Q. Was he killed in the town? A He was killed just at the brink of the hill along in the mouth; yes, sir he was killed in the city, just about to the brink of the hill.

Q. About what time of the day was he killed? A He was killed just about dark, just dark.

Q. Do you know who killed him, who was said to have killed him? A Yes, accused of killing him? A Yes, sir.

Q. What? A Eli Hickey.

Q. Was he a colored man? A Yes sir, he was.

Q. Did you assist in his arrest? Yes, sir.

Q. Who arrested him? Myself and a man we called Deacon James.

- Q That this other man here with you? A Yes, sir.
- Q About how long after this reported killing? A I heard the shots fired, then run down there and run over him; I lit a match and this man drew his breath twice. from the time the shots fired I wouldn't it was more than twenty minutes.
- Q Twenty minutes? A Yes, sir.
- Q Had it become generally known at the time of the arrest? A No, sir.
- Q There was no time for the public to know? A Only a few people knew; I heard the shots fired myself and run down there.
- Q And a few people knew that the killing had taken place before he was arrested? A Yes, sir.
- Q And the excitement then, was that after that? A Yes, sir, they didn't have time to know it.
- Q Was he out in jail? A Yes, sir.
- Q You remember how long he remained in jail? A Well about the twentieth, sometime in February, 26th I think it was.
- Q Approximately following, of '67? A Yes, sir.
- Q Tell me he took his escape? A He got away.
- Q Is that right? A Yes, sir, he got past the turnkey, Eli Lee.
- Q Had Lee the turnkey was he? A Yes, sir.
- Q I will ask you then if there was any searching parties out for this man? Yes, sir.
- Q For how long? I think he was killed on the 26th of March.
- Q From then about the 26th of February until the 26th of March people looked for him, a reward offered for him? Yes, sir, some three hundred dollars I believe.
- Q Well were there quite a number of people out searching for him? A Yes, sir.
- Q Considerable excitement at that time? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did people go out in the country looking for him? A Yes, sir, and searched houses and searched lands, they looked around for him, but failed to find him.
- Q Until that time? Yes, sir.
- Q You say that was for about three weeks? A Yes, sir, something over three weeks.
- Q From the 26th of February up until about the 26th of March? A Yes, sir.
- Q Now, was another this Eli Mackey was reputed to be a Cherokee hunter, right? A Yes, sir, he was.
- Q I believe there was a newspaper account to the effect that when he was captured he was hung up there? A He was killed, yes, sir.
- Q Now I want to get particularly from you was whether there was any search made for him at the time he was killed or whether search was made after his escape, after the 26th of February? A There was no search made for Mackey until he broke jail.
- Q He was searched, nor no wagons, nor no nothing when he was first captured? A He was in jail. I don't think it was much over a half an hour, I don't think it was any; he was in jail in not much over half an hour after he shot Hayford; I heard the shot that killed Hayford.
- Q And you helped to arrest him? Yes, sir, I got to Hayford before he died, but he was too far gone; I lit a match and he was too far gone to speak.
- Q You had known Hayford prior to that time? A Yes, sir, him and me was friends.
- Q You was a friend of his? A Yes, sir.

H. C. Jones, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

MR. HASTINGS: What is your name? A H. C. Jones.

Q What is your postoffice? A Fort Scott.

Q Kansas? A Kansas, yes, sir.

Q What is your age, please sir? A 66.

Q Were you holding any office in the town of Fort Scott, Kansas, in December of '66? A I was.

Q Well were you holding any office at the time a man by the name of Hayford was killed by Eli Mackey? A I was.

Q What office was that? A City marshal, called town constable.

Q You was a city policeman? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you assist in his first arrest? A I did.

Q Who assisted you in the arrest? A Mr. Benjamin Files.

Q This man that's present here? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you hear the shots that killed Hayford? A I did.

Q How soon after Hayford was killed was Mackey arrested. Eli Mackey?

A 20 or 25 minutes, inside of a half hour at most.

Q Very short time? A Yes, sir.

Q Had any houses or wagons or anything of that kind been searched in the mean time? A No, sir, there was no knowledge.

Q People didn't generally know it up to that time? A No, sir.

Q Put in jail then? A He was taken right to the jail as soon as he was arrested, he was hurried off to jail for fear of any mob violence.

Q Well how long did he remain in jail, do you remember? A Well I think something like six weeks or more.

Q Well the Fort Scott Monitor puts it about February 26th? A I presume that was right, it was correct. It was hard for me to remember exactly.

Q Well he remained in jail up to that time? A Up till that time, he was not out of jail except while he was under guard.

Q He made his escape then? A He made his escape, yes, sir, at the time.

Q You know how long he was at large? A Well I put it something like three weeks.

Q I will ask you if there was any searches at that time made for him? A You mean after?

Q Then he got away after February 26th? A Oh yes, sir, there was considerable hunt for him at that time.

Q Reward offered for him? A Yes, sir, reward offered.

Q People searched around in the country for him? A There was quite a number of both officials and independent searches, they would search for him for the first couple of weeks of his escape from there.

Q He was afterwards captured was he? A Yes, sir, he was located afterwards, he hadn't been out of a radius of probably ten miles from there after he got away, he was captured.

Q Do you know whether this Eli Mackey was reputed to be a Cherokee colored man? A He was called a Cherokee refugee, yes, sir, had the reputation, that is his name, of being a Cherokee nigger.

COMMISSION: You are positive about these dates? A To the best of my knowledge now, I would have put it, that is, a week before the holidays, and I knew it was only a few days before Christmas when the killing was done.

Q '67? A In '66 the killing was done.

Q Few days before Christmas of '66? A Yes, sir.

MR. HASTINGS: The Cherokee Nation asks that all the testimony introduced in the case of Aaron Webber, D-216, with reference to the return of the Webber detachment, be introduced and made a part of the record in this case.

MR. BROWN: Comes now the agent for the applicant and moves the Commission to strike from the records of this case all the testimony taken on this day, for the reason that it is incompetent, irrelevant, immaterial and not the best evidence, it being purely hearsay.

COMMISSION: The request of the representative of the Cherokee Nation will be complied with, and the testimony filed.

This testimony will be filed with and made a part of the record in the following Cherokee Freedmen cases: No. D-394, D-396, D-397, D-401, D-402, D-404, D-407, D-775, and in D-781, the same being the case at bar.

Arthur G. Croninger, being first duly sworn, states that as a stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full the testimony and proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Hannah Starr et al., as Cherokee Freedmen.

:-:-

O R D E R .

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on May 17, 1901, Hannah Starr, nee Whitmire, appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at Vinita, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of herself and minor children, Minerva, Theodore and Mabel Starr, and her husband, Charley Starr (the said Charley Starr's rights to Cherokee citizenship will not be considered in this order), as Cherokee freedmen. Thereafter, on March 20, 1902, there was filed with the Commission an affidavit showing the birth on February 16, 1902, of Leone and Leota Starr (twins), children of the said applicant, Hannah Starr. It further appears that all the above named applicants were listed for enrollment on Cherokee Freedman Doubtful card No. 346.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the said Hannah Starr, nee Whitmire, was born in the Cherokee Nation about the year 1872, has continuously resided in said Nation since birth, is identified on the Wallace roll and the Cherokee Census roll of 1893, and is a daughter of (Little) Mose Whitmire, deceased, and Maria Whitmire, both of whom are identified on the authenticated Cherokee tribal roll of 1880, page 196, Coowascoowee District, Numbers 3177 and 3178, respectively; and that the minor applicants herein are children of the said Hannah Starr, nee Whitmire, were born since 1890, and have continuously lived with their mother since birth.

The said Maria Whitmire is included in a partial roll of Cherokee Freedmen approved by the Secretary of the Interior on January 16, 1903, opposite No. 2069.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED: That the enlistment for the enrollment of the applicants, Hannah Starr, Minerva Starr, Theodore Starr, Habel Starr, Leone Starr and Leota Starr, on Cherokee Freedman Doubtful card No. 346, be cancelled, and that said applicants be listed for enrollment on a Cherokee Freedman straight card.

THE RECORD IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That applications for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen were made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes by Georgia Starr, for, among others, her husband, Jack Starr; by Hannah Starr for, among others, her husband, Charley Starr; The others included in said applications have been otherwise disposed of, and their rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen will not be considered in this decision. By Henderson Grimmett for his wife, Peggie Grimmett; by Lizzie Starr for herself; by Eddie Starr for himself; by Elijah Starr for himself and wife, Morning (Mona) Starr, and their minor child, Charlotte Starr; by Lycurgus K. Jones for his minor child, Thella Jones; by Frances Anderson for herself and minor nieces, Roxie, Mary, Willie and Myrtle Steele, and her minor nephew, Joe Steele; by Claude Steele for her self; by Abbie E. Williams for herself and minor child, Dorothy B. Williams, and minor brothers, Marion and Cretwell Montgomery, and minor sisters, Eva, Ethel, Ruth and Hart Montgomery, thereafter, on June 14, 1902, there was filed with the Commission an affidavit showing the birth, on August 3, 1901, of Major L. Williams, son of the applicant, Abbie E. Williams; and by Cornelia Martin for herself.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicants Jack and Charley Starr and Frances Anderson, claim the right to enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen by virtue of their compliance with the provisions of Article IX of the Treaty of 1866, and that all the other applicants herein claim the right to Cherokee freedman citizenship as follows: Peggie Grinnett, Lizzie, Eddie, Elijah and Charlotte Starr and Thella Jones, as descendants of the applicant Jack Starr, and one Charlotte Starr, deceased; Morning (Mona) and Charlotte Starr, Roxie, Mary, Joe, Willie, Myrtle and Claude Steele, as descendants of one Rachel Steele, nee Adair, deceased; Abbie E., Dorothy B. and Major L. Williams, Marion, Eva, Ethel, Cretwell, Ruth and Hart Montgomery, as descendants of Julia Montgomery, nee Adair, deceased; and Cornelia Martin as a descendant of John and Charlotte Curry, both deceased. It is alleged that all of said dead ancestors enumerated in this paragraph, complied with the said treaty stipulations of 1866.

The following points are fully established by the evidence, no attempt having been made to disprove them:

- (1) That the applicants Jack and Charley Starr, and Frances Anderson, and the said Charlotte Starr, deceased, Rachel Steele, deceased, Julia Montgomery, deceased, and John and Charlotte Curry, both deceased, were slaves of Cherokee citizens at the commencement of the rebellion, and were taken from the Cherokee Nation during said rebellion. And that all the applicants herein except the three last above named, were born since the commencement of the said rebellion.
- (2) That the applicants Peggie Grinnett and Lizzie, Eddie and Elijah Starr, and one Mattie Jones, nee Starr, now deceased, are children of the said applicant, Jack Starr, and Charlotte Starr, deceased.
- (3) That the applicants Morning (Mona) Starr and Roxie, Mary, Joe, Willie, Myrtle and Claude Steele, are children of the said Rachel Steele, deceased, and one Harry Steele, a non-citizen of the Cherokee Nation; that the applicants Abbie E. Williams and Marion, Eva, Ethel, Cretwell, Ruth and Hart Montgomery, are children of the said Julia Montgomery, deceased, and one Henry Montgomery, a non-citizen of the Cherokee Nation; that the applicant, Carnelia Martin, is a daughter of the said John and Charlotte Curry, both deceased; and that the minor applicant, Charlotte Starr, is a child of the said applicants, Elijah and Morning (Mona) Starr; that the applicant Thella Jones, is a child of the said Mattie Jones, nee Starr, deceased, and one Lycurgus K. Jones, a non-citizen of the Cherokee Nation; and that the minor applicants, Dorothy B. and Major L. Williams, are children of the said applicant, Abbie M. Williams and one Jesse B. Williams, a non-citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

- (4) That none of the applicants herein possess any rights to enrollment as Cherokee citizens other than as above indicated, and that none of said applicants nor any ancestor through whom by any possibility they might obtain rights to Cherokee citizenship, can be identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1830, or the Cherokee census roll of 1896.

It is therefore considered that in order to properly adjudicate these applicants' rights to Cherokee freedom citizenship, as of September 1, 1901, the primary questions presented for determination are:

Did Jack and Charley Starr and Frances Anderson, and the said Charlotte Starr, deceased, Rachel Steele, deceased, Julia Montgomery, deceased, and John and Charlotte Curry, both deceased, or either of them, return to the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion, and become domiciled citizens thereof, within the time specified in the decree of the Court of Claims rendered on February 3, 1866, in the case of Moses W. Moore, trustee, etc., vs. the Cherokee Nation, et al., for the return of Cherokee freedmen to said Nation?

JOE STARR, applicant, appeared before the Commission on September 1, 1901, at Chelsea, Indian Territory, and testified as follows: I am about 66 years old, my present postoffice is Centralia, Ky first. My name was named Charlotte Starr, nee Whitmire. She died when twenty years ago. I have lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since I can recollect. During the war I engaged as transfer with the First Indian Regiment, and went north to Kansas with it. We stayed for a while about a year, then the office of Fort Scott on the river. I went to the Arkansas River and lived, and later returned to the Cherokee Nation and remained at the close of the rebellion in 1865. The following October I went up in Kansas where my wife was, and worked "around Fort Scott for a while till I got myself a plug of a team, and came back to the Nation here". I brought my wife and children with me and we reached the Cherokee Nation and located on Big Creek, Cooweescoowee District, "about the first of September or last of August" 1836, and I have since continuously lived on the same place. I returned to this country with Dave Mayes, Sam and Jesse Whitacre, Berry Ward and Caesar Smith. Aaron Wright (Whitacre), Lewis Wright, (Whitacre), Mike Sellers, Sam Webber and Harry Still, with their families, were living there on Big Creek when we arrived. These people, except Harry Still, had houses built, and all had in small patches of corn when we reached the Cherokee Nation. I did not get on the '80 Roll simply because the Cherokees would not put me on.

SAM WEBBER, in behalf of applicant, appeared before the Commission on June 6, 1901, at Chelsea, Indian Territory, and testified as follows: I am 30 years old and my postoffice is Nowata. I know Jack Starr. He came to the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion in the fall of '66, just a few days after we moved and settled there. He has since continuously lived. I don't know why he did not get on the '80 roll. I had no corn patch when he arrived, and did not have one till the next year, 1867. I first came to the Cherokee Nation, after the rebellion, in July, '66, and went back and moved down that fall. Uncle Dave Mayes, Santa Ann Lyons and Caesar Smith, came here with Jack Starr, when he moved here in '66. I have seen Jack Starr vote in the Cherokee Nation but he has always been a disputed citizen. Quite a number of disputed citizens have farms up in the Big Creek country. I am on the 1860 roll as an adopted citizen.

WILLIAM WALLACE, in behalf of applicant, same date and place, testified as follows: I am about 62 years old, my postoffice is Nowata, and I have lived in the Cherokee Nation all my life. I know the applicant Jack Starr, and think I know when he returned to the Cherokee Nation after the war. I first saw him when he moved on Big Creek in the fall of '66, and to the best of my knowledge he has ever since lived there. I don't know why he is not on the '80 roll. I know he has always been a disputed citizen. I know he came here in '66 because every body said it was '66. I don't know what year the Wallace roll was made. I am on the '80 roll but don't know what year that was. I think the Wallace roll was made in 1866. I have never before testified at any time for Jack Starr when he was trying to get on the roll, but have always known as much about his citizenship as I do now. I proved my right to Cherokee citizenship before the Chambers Court in 1878. I do not know whether Jack Starr ever went before that Court to prove his citizenship or not.

JACK STARR, a plicant, recalled, testified: I went before the Daniels Court for the purpose of proving my rights to citizenship but "they laughed at us and said for us to go back and go to work". I did not go before the Chambers Court.

MOSIE WHITMIRE, in behalf of applicants, same date and place, testified as follows: I am about 75 years old. My postoffice is Hayden, and I have lived in the Cherokee Nation all my life. I am on the roll of 1880. Jack Starr, Sam Webber and myself, among others, went before the Daniels Court to prove our rights to Cherokee citizenship, but they would have nothing to do with us. I am related to Joshua Whitmire, but don't know what Court admitted him. I don't remember whether or not Johnson Webber was along when we went before the Daniels Court. I was admitted to citizenship by the Chambers Court. ("Docket of Doubtful cases for Citizenship tried in 1871", which was the Daniels Court, said Docket being in the possession of this office, shows that the Daniels Court decided that Sam Webber and family and Johnson Webber and family, were entitled to Cherokee freedman citizenship).

MARY STILL, in behalf of applicants, appeared before the Commission on June 24, 1901, at Nowata, Indian Territory, and testified as follows: I am 44 years old, my postoffice is Hayden, and I am a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation. I know Jack Starr and his son Charley Starr. I first saw Jack Starr, after the rebellion, on Big Creek, Cherokee Nation, in November, 1866.

CHARLES STARR, a plicant, appeared before the Commission on June 24, 1901, at Nowata, Indian Territory, and testified as follows: I was born in '61 and my postoffice is Wimer, Cooweescoowee District. My father is named Jack Starr, and my mother, now deceased, was named Charlotte Hayes. I was born in the Cherokee Nation and have lived on Big Creek ever since I can recollect. I have never been in Kansas that I know of.

ELIJAH STARR, applicant, appeared before the Commission on June 27, 1901, at Nowata, Indian Territory, and testified as follows: I am 25 years old and my postoffice is Centralia, Cooweescoowee District. My wife is named Morning Starr, she is about 23 years old and is a daughter of Warry and Rachel Steele, deceased. We have lived in the Cherokee Nation all our lives.

LIZZIE STARR, a plicant, appeared before the Commission on June 7, 1901, at Chelsea, Indian Territory, and testified as follows: I am about 33 years old, my postoffice is Ruby, Cooweescoowee District. I was born and raised in the Cherokee Nation.

LEWIS WHITMIRE, in behalf of this applicant, same date and place, testified that he had known her since birth, and that she had lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life.

SAW WH BRR, in behalf of this applicant, same date and place, corroborated Lewis Whitmire's testimony, and further testified that her father and mother, Jack and Charlotte Starr, left the Cherokee Nation during the rebellion and returned thereto a few days behind him, and that he ( Sam Webber ) " got back in the first part of April '66". Also that Jack Starr on his return to the Cherokee Nation preceded Abraham Ward "not quite two months". In C. W. D. 607 - now R 283- the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes found that the said Abraham Ward did not return to the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion within the time specified in the Whitmire decree, the evidence in said case indicating that he was living in Kansas as late as the fall of 1869, and its said decision was duly affirmed by the Department).

EDDIE STARR, applicant, appeared before the Commission on June 27, 1901, at Nowata Indian Territory, and testified as follows: I am 29 years old and my postoffice is Centralia, Cooweescoowee District. I was born on Big Creek, and have lived in the Cherokee Nation all my life.

HENDERSON GRIMMETT, in behalf of applicant, Peggie Grimmett, appeared before the Commission on June 28, 1901, at Nowata, Indian Territory, and testified as follows: I am 37 years old, and my postoffice is Ruby, Cooweescoowee District. I apply for the enrollment of my wife, Peggie Grimmett, who is about 35 years old. I have known my wife since she was a small girl, and so far as I know she has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life.

LYCURGUS K. JONES, in behalf of the applicant Thella Jones, appeared before the Commission on October 18, 1901, at Vinita, Indian Territory, and testified as follows: I am about 35 years old, my postoffice is Centralia, Cooweescoowee District. I apply for the enrollment of my daughter, Thella Jones, aged ten years. Her mother's name was Mattie Jones, and, if living, she would be about 32 years old.

FRANCES ANDERSON, applicant, appeared before the Commission on June 7, 1901, at Chelsea, Indian Territory, and testified as follows: I am 66 years old and my postoffice is Chelsea, Cooweescoowee District. The children included in my application are those of my deceased sister. We returned from Kansas to the Cherokee Nation, after the rebellion "along about September or October 1866", and since our return I have made my home in the Cherokee Nation. Since my return in '66 I have been out "to Oklahoma nursing, and then I went to Colorado on some business, and then I went to Eureka Springs (Arkansas) for the benefit of the water". I have also been back to Kansas. My father was named Joe Curry, he died when I was small. My mother was named Polly Adair, she has been dead a long time. My first husband was named Carl Landrum, we were married in Kansas in 1865, and he is now dead. Rachel Steele, the mother of the children for whom I apply, was my half-sister, we had the same mother. Her father was named Martin Adair. He has been dead a long time. My step-father and mother, Martin and Polly Adair, and my half-sisters, Rachel, Julia and Nancy Adair, and myself, composed a crowd that returned from Kansas to the Cherokee Nation in 1866. Upon our return we first went to Cabin Creek, I do not know what part, but think it was near Rock Creek. Uncle Dave French was camped near us, and the day we arrived or the next day, we met Mr. Sam Webber not far from where the old military road crosses Cabin Creek. I think he was then located in the Cherokee Nation, and was on his way back north. He went from Rock Creek to Grand River, near the mouth of Spavinaw, and stayed there quite a while.

DAVID FRENCH, in behalf of applicants, Frances Anderson et al., same date and place, testified as follows: I am 72 years old, my postoffice is Lenapah. I moved from Tennessee to the Cherokee Nation in the spring of '69, and have continuously lived in the Cherokee Nation since the war closed. I know the applicant, Frances Anderson, also knew her stepfather and mother, Martin and Polly Adair, and sisters, Julia, Nancy and Rachel Adair. Julia married a Montgomery; Rachel married a Steele, and Nancy is now named Tipps. I first saw this family in the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion, "late in the fall of '66". I and my brother were on our way from a point on Pryor Creek to Neosho Falls, Kan. at, after our people, and met them on the military road near where it crosses Cabin Creek. Frances Anderson's husband was also a member of this party. I was not located in the Cherokee Nation at that time.

SAM WEBBER, in behalf of the applicants, Frances Anderson et al., same date and place, testified as follows: I am about 58 years old, my postoffice is Nowata. I was born in the Cherokee Nation, and have continuously lived here since '66. I know the applicant, Frances Anderson, also knew her stepfather and mother, Martin and Polly Adair, and her sisters, Julia, Nancy and Rachel Adair. I saw these people on the military road near Cabin Creek, along late in the summer or early part of the fall of '66, as we were going to Kansas after our families. We had started on this trip to Kansas from a point on Big Creek in the neighborhood of where I now reside. The neighborhood of which I speak is about fifteen or twenty miles a little west of north of here (Chase). We met this party where the military road from Fort Gibson to Fort Scott crosses Cabin Creek, about fifteen or twenty miles northeast (southeast) from here, and about thirty-five miles southeast from the point we started from on Big Creek. The military road ran due east from where we lived on Big Creek, but we know no other way to get to it, and then on to Kansas, than the one I have described. In coming to this country we had made a trail from the military road to where we located on Big Creek, and upon our return to Kansas we followed the trail back to the big coal.

FRANCIS ANDERSON, applicant, appeared before the Commission on September 23, 1905, at Vinita, Indian Territory, and testified as follows: I am about 58 years old and my postoffice is Chelsea. John Adair (or Curry) and Uncle Lew Martin and others that I cannot now remember, were along when we returned to the Cherokee Nation in 1866. "I know Uncle Dave French, but they was ahead of us a day or two, and Uncle Sam Webber, and really if I was just to try, I couldn't tell you all of them." We first came to Rock Creek, and found Uncle Dave French living there and I think the Lynch's also lived in that neighborhood, but not right on Rock Creek. I had a brother named John Curry, he died at Wichita, Kansas, but I do not know what year. I don't know what year this is, and don't know what year the Fern-Clifton roll was made, I only know the years when I am told them. My mother, Polly Adair, died and was buried in the bottom, close to Grand River, near the mouth of Spavinaw. I don't know on whose place it is now, but think it belonged to the Cherokee Nation at that time. My father died at the same place, and the both died of the smallpox. I don't know what year they died, nor how long after the war it was. I don't know a young man by the name of Harry E. Kelly, and never saw him at Ottumwa, Kansas. My father and mother never lived on the Kelly farm in Kansas, and my mother is not buried at Ottumwa, Kansas. Uncle Sandy Bean, Tobie Bean and Arthur Bean lived in our neighborhood when my father and mother died, and if given time I can bring witnesses to prove that they died and are buried as I have testified. I never was in, saw, nor heard tell of Ottumwa, Kansas, in my life. We did come through Burlington, Kansas, on our way from Fort Scott to the Cherokee Nation. (Burlington, Kansas, is twenty-five miles north and fifty-five miles west-due northwest from Fort Scott, Kansas. The point in the Cherokee Nation where this applicant claims to have located is twenty-two miles west and ninety-seven miles south from Fort Scott, Kansas, and in 1866 the military road between Fort Scott and Fort Gibson, Indian Territory, ran due south from Fort Scott to the Kansas-Indian Territory line, and then in a southwesterly direction to the immediate vicinity in which said applicant claims to have lived after her return in 1866). The winter of '66 we lived on Grand River, near the mouth of Spavinaw. Uncle Sandy Bean, Al and Crap Lynch were our neighbors the first winter we were here. We lived about a quarter of a mile from Uncle Sandy Bean, and after my mother's death I lived right in the house with Uncle Sandy. My sister Rachel got acquainted with Harry Steele on Grand River, in the Nation. He came down there and took her away and later they returned. They afterwards kept house on Rock Creek. I am Cherokee citizen in that part of the country once in a while, but do not know the names of any that lived near our place. I have been living at Chelsea about twenty years. I was married the first time at Washington Adair's, that was before the war. My husband, Carl Landrum came back with me after the rebellion and later died at Ottumwa, Kansas, not a great while after the war. All my mother's children except me, lived with her after our return to the Cherokee Nation, until she died. My sister Rachel's oldest child, Fannie, must be about 25 years old now. ( The records of this office fail to show that application has ever been made for the enrollment of Fannie). My mother and father died when every body was having the smallpox (about 1882 or 1883). Rachel was not married when our mother died. My mother and father did not die, nor were they buried at Ottumwa, Kansas. I do not know whose place my mother is buried on; she is not buried in a grave-yard. "Q. According to the schedule of the ages of these three children, Roxie was born in 1882, during the year of the smallpox, and Rachel Steele, her mother, must have had three children prior to that time, but you say that her mother died down here in the Cherokee Nation, and that Rachel was living with her, and single and unmarried, how do you account for that?-- Ans. I don't know, but she was."

MRS. E. N. WALKER, in behalf of Cherokee Nation, appeared before the Commission on April 11, 1902, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and testified as follows: I will be 77 years old my next birthday, I am a Cherokee by blood and my postoffice is Fort Gibson, Indian Territory. I have known the applicant, Frances Anderson, since she was a baby, also know her mother, Polly. At the commencement of the rebellion Frances belonged to my sister, Dr. Adair's wife, and Polly belonged to my mother. I left the Cherokee Nation in 1862, and returned in 1866, and have been living here ever since. I first saw the applicant, Frances Anderson, "about the year 1880" at the Vinita fair. She inquired about the folks, and said "she had not settled yet", that "she had come from Kansas", and "had not been here very long". "She did not say when she had come in, nor anything, she just said she had not been here very long."

CLAUDE STEELE, applicant, appeared before the Commission on June 11, 1901, at Chelsea, Indian Territory, and testified as follows: I am 21 years old, and my postoffice is Chelsea, I was born on Big Creek, and have lived in the Cherokee Nation since birth. All my brothers and sisters were born on Big Creek.

ARBIE EMMA WILLIAMS: applicant, same date and place, testified as follows: I am 18 years old, and my postoffice is Chelsea, Cooweescoowee District, Cherokee Nation. I have lived in the Cherokee Nation "all my life most nigh, except when I was out at school" at St. Paul, Kansas,--"six months one time, ten months another."

CORNELIA MARTIN, applicant, appeared before the Commission on June 5, 1901, at Chelsea, Indian Territory, and testified as follows: I am about 29 years old, and at present my postoffice is Vinita. My father was named John Curry, or John Adair, and my mother was named Charlotte Vann. My father and mother have been dead about eighteen years. I am a full sister to Mary Harris, Stella Martin and Harrison Curry. I was born on Grand River, so I am told, and lived there till my mother died. I have never been recognized as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, am on no Cherokee rolls, and have never drawn any money from said Nation.

The following testimony was taken in re application of Mary Harris, et al., for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen, case No. D. 528, and was ordered filed in re application of Cornelia Martin et al., supra.

Mary Harris, applicant (in C.F.D. 528), appeared before the Commission on June 5, 1901, at Chelsea, Indian Territory, and testified as follows: I am about 33 years old, my postoffice is Vinita, and I live in Cooweescoowee District. My father and mother's slave names were John Adair and Charlotte Vann, but I always knew them as John and Charlotte Curry. I was born in the Cherokee Nation, and have lived at Vinita the last twelve years. Prior to that time I lived for a while on Grand River and Panther Creek. I am a sister of Joe and Harrison Curry and Cornelia and Stella Martin. I also have, or had, a sister named Emma Williams "that we don't know of being dead". (Six days later the said Emma Williams applied for enrollment as a Cherokee freedman, before the Commission at Chelsea, Indian Territory, and testified that Chelsea was her postoffice, and that she had lived in the Cherokee Nation since birth.). I am the oldest child in our family, and when I can first remember I was living on Grand River, and continuously lived in the Cherokee Nation till about eighteen years ago when "I went to my grandmother's in Kansas, Anderson County, near Garnett." My mother died of smallpox on Grand River about eighteen years ago. From my earliest recollection till I was about seventeen we lived on Grand River, I think. Our nearest neighbors during that time, were Art Williams and Millie Frye. I think a man named Buffington also lived near us, but don't remember of any one living in that vicinity by the name of Watt West. I came to Vinita from Panther Creek, where I had lived a year or two. I moved to Panther Creek from Wichita, Kansas. My husband's name is Nelson Harris. We were married at Wineman, Kansas. My husband has been living in Kansas, but I have not lived there since we were married. My children were all born in the Cherokee Nation, and were brought up by my aunt, Frances Anderson. I do not know that my father and mother did much of anything when we lived on Lynch's Prairie ( Grand River ). My mother lived with her grandmother, "Granny Charlotte." If my mother's grandmother had any other name I never heard of it.

MILLIE FHYE, in behalf of Mary Harris, same date and place, testified as follows: I am 64 years old, and my postoffice is Vinita. I live on Grand River, and have known the applicant Mary Harris since she was a small girl. I also knew her father and mother, John and Charlotte Curry. They were taken out of the Cherokee Nation during the rebellion, and I first saw them in the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion, about eighteen years ago-- "the year we had the smallpox" (1883). "They just came out on the river to see their grandfather. Charlotte came there to see old man Adams, and they quarantined them in there, and her (Charlotte's) father and mother died with the smallpox and her grandfather and grandmother died, and just left the children there alone; that is all I know about it."

JOHN REESE, in behalf of Mary Harris, same date and place, testified as follows: I am about 59 or 60 years old, I live in Coeweescoowee District and my postoffice is Coffeyville. I knew John Curry, father of Mary Harris. I first met him, during the war, on Wolf Creek, Cherokee Nation, and next saw him on the old John Alberty place on Fryer Creek, when he stayed all night with us, during the summer or fall of 1866. I have never seen him since.

WED MARTIN, in behalf of Mary Harris, same date and place, testified as follows: I am 43 years old, and my postoffice is Spavina. I know the applicant, Mary Harris. I first saw her father just after Christmas in the winter of '66, when "he stayed two or three days at my house, we were living on the John McNair place." "He at that time said he was going to Fort Gibson. I never saw him again. I guess I was eight years old in '66."

ROBERT HOWEN, in behalf of Cherokee Nation (Mary Harris, case No. D 528), appeared before the Commission on October 29, 1901, at Vinita, Indian Territory, and testified as follows: I am 56 years old and my postoffice is Ottawa, Coffey County, Kansas, where I have lived about forty-six years. I was acquainted, in Kansas, with John and Charlotte Curry. They had five children, named Mary, Joe, Neely, Teola and Harrison Elder Curry. I first became acquainted with this family in 1868, and at that time "they lived in the southwest corner of the town of Ottawa, right adjoining my place", where they continued to live about two years, when they moved over on Harrison Kelly's place, and lived there till 1873, and then "moved to a homestead they taken on the prairie". This family "lived there from '68 to '84. Mrs Curry died in the fall of '84, I guess, and then John and the children were around there a year or two longer, I don't know how long, I can't say positive, but Mrs. Curry died in November, '84. I was at the burying, and then I saw since then on the gravestone it was in '84. I have been to her grave and saw it there before I started."

I saw this family as often as once a week from the time they came there till they went away. Mary was the oldest child in the family. She was born at Ottumwa in the fall of '66, and all the other children were born at or near there.

HARRY E. KELLY, in behalf of Cherokee Nation ( Mary Harris case No. D 528), appeared before the Commission on May 16, 1902, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and testified as follows: I have been living at Fort Smith, Arkansas, fifteen years. "I was born at Ottumwa, Kansas, and lived there till I was about eighteen years old". I knew a colored man in Kansas named John Curry (Frances Anderson's brother) also knew his wife, Charlotte. I remember them as early as 1868, I think as early as '66. I can not quite fix the year they first came on my father's farm to live, but I have a distinct recollection of their being there in 1868, when I left on a trip to Ohio, and was driven to the railroad station, fifty miles away, by the old Martin Bolin, sometimes called Martin Adair, who was the husband of John Curry's ( and Frances Anderson's ) mother, Polly Adair. Martin and Polly Adair also lived on our place. John Curry lived on our place from 1866 to 1872 or '73, when he homesteaded a piece of land about two miles from our house, to which he moved, and where he lived till his wife, Charlotte, died in '84. John Curry remained around there for a year or two after his wife's death, and then disappeared, and I have since heard that he was dead. John and Charlotte Curry had some children named "Mary ( Harris ) and Teenie and Joe and Harrison and another one, I can't recollect the name". I don't know where Mary was born, but all the others were born in Kansas. "The first recollection I have of Martin and Polly (Bolin or Adair) and their family, was moving them out of the bottom, time of the flood in '66; they were clearing land for my father and the overflow came, and he brought them up to the house, out of the flood". Polly Adair was the mother of John Curry and had other children, one named Frances (Anderson), "who used to come there occasionally, and one named Nancy ( now Tippe ) and Nathan, (deceased), and Julia (Montgomery, deceased), and Rachel ( Steele, deceased)." Rachel married a darkey named Harry Steele, I do not know who Frances married. I have heard who Julia married, but cannot recollect the name now. Martin and Polly lived around there till Polly died, sometime between '69 and '71. "I remember them being there when I came home from Ohio in the fall of '68, and she died before I went to Ohio to school in the fall of '71." Martin Adair went off for a time after his wife's death, but returned and died, and was buried on our farm in 1874. I do not know where Frances lived during the time I testify of. "She just came to visit, these Curry's lived right in our yard, or right close to it, and she came there on visits to her brother and her half-sisters, who worked in our house". I was about six and one-half years old when I went to Ohio in 1868. I left Kansas in 1867. My father was named Harrison Kelly. After their marriage Rachel and Harry Steele "lived on our place, there right by our house, worked for us". They had several children born there, but I do not recollect their names now. Rachel continuously lived there till her mother's death, but after that I don't remember her till she came back there about 1875, married to Harry Steele, " and then lived there by our house for some five years after that."

.....

ROBERT BOWEN, in behalf of Cherokee Nation, appeared before the Commission on April 6, 1905, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and testified as follows: I am 64 years old, and my post-office is Burlington, Kansas. I at one time knew a colored man named John Curry, also knew his wife, Charlotte. I know the applicant, Cornelia Martin, as Cornelia Curry. I first became acquainted with John Curry in '67, I think it was in August. "He shot a man at Leroy ( Kansas ) in '65, and he was under arrest, and I met them in the road with him in August, '67". That was at Ottumwa, Kansas. The next October the Curry family moved across the road from me and lived there from '67 till '72, when John Curry having homesteaded a piece of land about two miles north of Ottumwa, they moved out there and lived till about '85. Charlotte died there and was buried in the graveyard at Ottumwa. I know this because I had her buried, and if it is testified that she died and was buried on Grand River, Cherokee Nation, it is a mistake. I saw John Curry often from '67 to '75. "I don't think there was a week I did not see him. We worked together a good deal and I know that he was never away as long as a week at a time." I knew John Curry's sister Rachel. "Her name was Rachel Steele, she came there in about '66. Martin Bolin was her father." I knew Martin Bolin's wife. Martin Bolin and wife continuously lived in that vicinity from '66 to '80, when Mrs. Bolin and one of the boys died, and then the old man came to Parsons and got the small-pox and came back and died. I attended the funeral of Mrs. Bolin and her son, they were both buried in the cemetery, on the same day, Sunday. I knew John Curry's children, they were named Mary, Cornelia, Joseph, Harrison, Elworth and Christine. They were all born at Ottumwa, Kansas, and attended the schools there. It was reported up there that John Curry died at Wichita, Kansas. I knew Rachel's husband, Harry Steele. "They were said to have been married at Burlington. The last time I was there they had four children. They lived south of Ottumwa and then north of Ottumwa". I think she ( Rachel ) left there about '80.

ISAAC HOOVER, in behalf of Cherokee Nation, same date and place, testified as follows: I will be 39 years old this coming May, my postoffice is Hartford, Kansas, and I have lived within three miles of Ottumwa, Kansas, all my life. I knew a colored man there by the name of John Curry, also knew his wife, Charlotte. I think they had six children, named Ed, Mary, Cornelia, Joe, Christine and Elworth. I can first remember this family when I was about eight or nine years old, and continued to know them till about '85 or '86. Charlotte Curry died there and was buried just two miles south of us. I was at the funeral and burying. I knew this family well. Our houses were within sight and I saw them nearly every day. The children attended the district school. I knew John Curry's half sister, Rachel, she married Harry Steele, and "they lived a mile and a half west of us for a number of years, and then they lived east of us."

J. M. KEYS, in behalf of Cherokee Nation, same date and place, testified as follows: I am 62 years old, and my postoffice is Pryor Creek. I represent the Cherokee Nation in the capacity of marshall in summoning witnesses. In the discharge of my duties I had occasion to visit a cemetery near Ottumwa, Kansas, to search for the grave of Charlotte Curry. In the ~~Bowman~~ cemetery, near Ottumwa, Kansas, I found a grave with the following inscription: "Charlotte, wife of John Curry. Born December 15, 1844, Died November 15, 1884."

CASE CLOSED.

The applicant Cornelia Martin, cannot be identified on any Cherokee roll, and, excepting the Wallace and Kern-Clifton rolls, none of the applicants herein can be identified on any rolls of the Cherokee Nation, in the possession of this office.

The evidence in this case indicates that immediately after the close of the rebellion, and prior to the making of the treaty of 1866, the applicant, Jack Starr, was temporarily present in the Cherokee Nation. Under the ruling of the Department in the cases of Spencer Bell (I.T.D. 6176-03), Thomas Mayfield et al. (I. D. 6968-04), and Martha Gales (I.T. D. 1850-04) such temporary presence would not be sufficient to satisfy the provisions of Article IX of the treaty of 1866, relative to the establishment of a residence in the Cherokee Nation within the time stipulated in said treaty. Hence, it must be shown that he returned from Kansas to the Cherokee Nation and established his residence therein prior to February 11, 1867.

In re return from Kansas of Jack Starr and family: The applicant, Jack Starr, testifies that after the rebellion he returned from Kansas to the Cherokee Nation in company with Dave Hayes, Sam and Jesse Whitmire, Berry Ward, and Caesar Smith; and that they found Aaron Wright (Whitire), Lewis Wright (Whitmire), Mike Sanders, Sam Webber and Harry Still, living, with their families, on Big Creek. All of whom, except Harry Still, had houses built and had in small patches of corn. Sam Webber testifies that the applicant, with his family, arrived on Big Creek in the fall of '66, a few days behind him, and that Dave Hayes, Santa Ann Nivens and Caesar Smith accompanied them.

In connection with this testimony of Jack Starr and Sam Webber, attention is invited to a certified copy, filed herewith, of certain proceedings had before the Commission on Cherokee Citizenship in 1878-9, which held that the said Aaron and Lewis Whitmire were entitled to Cherokee citizenship, indicating that they had complied with the treaty provisions of 1866, and that the said Dave Hayes, Sam and Jesse Whitmire, Berry Ward, Caesar Smith, Santa Ann Nivens and Jack Starr were not entitled to Cherokee citizenship, thereby indicating that they did not comply with said treaty provisions of 1866.

In re witness Harry Still: This witness was admitted to Cherokee citizenship by the Daniels Court in 1871, and for that reason his application for enrollment as a Cherokee freedman has been granted. The Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, however, found that the said Harry Still did not return to the Cherokee Nation, after the rebellion, within the time specified in the Whitmire decree, and in Departmental letter (I.T.D. 7658-04), its findings of facts were admitted by the Department to be correct. His mother, Mariah Hayden, who returned at the same time, was denied enrollment by the Commission, said decision being approved by the Department.

If, as the applicant, Jack Starr, testifies, Aaron and Lewis Whitmire, Mike Sanders, Sam Webber and Harry Still, were living on Big Creek, with their families, and had erected houses and put in crops, when he, with his family, returned to the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion, they did not arrive in said Nation till subsequent to March, 1867,-- the date found by the Chambers Court, and by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, in numerous cases, as the one when the Webber-Whitmire-Sanders colony of freedmen, with their families, landed in the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion.

In C. F. D. 471, now R 226, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, found in its decision rendered on July 10, 1903, that the said "Berry Ward, now deceased", did not return to the Cherokee Nation, after the rebellion, within the time specified in the Whitmire decree, and on January 4, 1904, (Departmental letter I. T. D. 8978-03), its finding was affirmed by the Department.

In C. F. D. 602, the said Commission found, in its decision rendered on March 5, 1904, that the said "Santa Ann Nivens", did not return to the Cherokee Nation, after the rebellion, within the time specified in the Whitmire decree, and the proceedings in said case were duly forwarded to the Department, where they are now pending.

In C. F. D. 626, the said Commission found, in its decision rendered on June 23, 1905, that one Joseph Smith, son of the said "Caesar Smith", now deceased, who, the evidence shows, returned with his father, did not return to the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion within the time specified in said Whitmire decree, and the proceedings in said case were duly forwarded to the Department, where they are now pending.

In C. F. D. 981, the said Commission found in its decision rendered on April 20, 1905, that one David Hayes, son of the said "Dave Hayes", now deceased, who, the evidence shows, returned with his said father, did not return to the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion within the time specified in said Whitmire decree, and the proceedings in said case were duly forwarded to the Department, where they are now pending.

In C. F. D. 796, now 1379, said Commission, in its decision rendered on January 2, 1904, found that the said "Samuel Whitmire" returned to the Cherokee nation after the rebellion within the time specified in the Whitmire decree, and on June 27, 1904 (I.T.O. 5038-04), its finding was affirmed by the Department. In this case Samuel Whitmire was granted enrollment on the testimony of Sam Leiber, who testified that Samuel Whitmire returned with them in the fall of 1866-- testimony absolutely false, as can be shown by evidence practically conclusive, subsequently obtained and now in the possession of this office.

The testimony in C. F. D. 213, 214 and 215, shows that the said "Jesse Whitmire" (also known as Riley), is living, but the records of this office fail to show that application has been made for his enrollment as a Cherokee citizen. Sam and Samuel Whitmire, Cases Nos. R 214 and R 15, respectively, sons of the said Jesse Whitmire, born since 1866, were denied enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, by the Commission to the five Civilized Tribes in its decision rendered on July 10, 1903, and on September 30, 1903 (I.T.O. 6130-03), said decision was affirmed by the Department. The status, however, of the said Jesse Whitmire, seems not to have been considered in the above mentioned decision.

In re return of Frances Anderson to the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion: In connection with Sam Leiber's testimony relative to the return of this applicant, attention is invited to a rough map and notes thereon, filed with the record in this case.

Frances Anderson insists that Sandy Bean, now deceased, was one of their nearest neighbors when they located on Grand River upon their return to the Cherokee Nation in the fall of 1866. The Daniels Court denied Sandy Bean the right to Cherokee citizenship, on the ground that he returned too late, and he was rejected by the "Commission on (Cherokee Citizenship) of 1876-77". In C. F. D. 215, now 1421, Joe Bean, age 55, (May, 1901), son of the said Sandy Bean, testified that after the rebellion he brought his father from Kansas to the Cherokee Nation in the fall of 1867. In C. F. D. 200 (Thomas Mayfield et al.), Walter A. West testified that, among others, Thomas Mayfield and "Sandy Bean", with their families, returned to the Cherokee Nation in "February 1869." It was found by said Commission that the said Thomas Mayfield did not return to the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion within the time specified in the Whitaire decree, and its finding was approved by the Department.

Frances Anderson further testifies that her stepfather and mother, Martin and Polly Adair, (also known as Bolin), died of the smallpox, in the Cherokee Nation, about 1863, and are buried near the mouth of Spavinaw on Grand River. This is contradicted by testimony practically conclusive, of several witnesses from Kansas, introduced by the Cherokee Nation; and the testimony of Millie Fry, witness for Mary Harris, indicates that it was Charlotte Curry's father and mother and grandfather and grandmother who died and were buried at the time and place testified to by the applicant. On her first appearance before the Commission this applicant testifies that as she was coming to the Cherokee Nation in 1866, she met Dave French and Sam Webber on their way back to Kansas. On her second appearance before the Commission she testified that she followed the said Dave French and Sam Webber to the Cherokee Nation, arriving a few days behind them. She also testifies that Lew Martin was a member of the company returning with her in 1866.

In C. F. D. 289, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, in its decision rendered on May 13, 1905, found that the said Lewis Martin did not return to the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion within the time specified in the Whitaire decree, and the proceedings in this case were duly forwarded to the Department, where they are now pending.

The little weight to be given the testimony of Sam Webber has been commented on by this office in numerous cases, and as to the witness Dave French, attention is invited to the cases of Wash Hays, C. F. D. 815, and Frank Whitaire, C. F. D. 956, to show that his testimony is of little, if any value.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSION: It is considered that the evidence in this case shows that neither the said Jack Starr, Charley Starr, Charlotte Starr, deceased, Rachel Steele, deceased, Julia Montgomery, deceased, Frances Anderson, nor John and Charlotte Curry, both deceased, became domiciled citizens of the Cherokee Nation within the time specified in the Whitaire decree; and that all the applicants herein except the said Jack and Charley Starr and Frances Anderson, were born since the commencement of the rebellion, are lineal descendants of the said applicants, Jack and Charley Starr, and of the said Charlotte Starr, deceased, Rachel Steele, deceased, Julia Montgomery, deceased, and John and Charlotte Curry, both deceased, and possess no rights to enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen other than as such descendants.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That, under the provisions of Section Twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 23, 1898 ( 30 Stat., 490), Jack Starr, Charley Starr, Peggie Grinnett, Lizzie Starr, Edie Starr, Elijah Starr, Morning (Hona ) Starr, Charlotte Starr, Thella Jones, Frances Anderson, Roxie Steele, Mary Steele, Joe Steele, Willie Steele, Myrtle Steele and Claude Steele, Abbie E. Williams, Dorothy B. Williams, and Major L. Williams, Marion Montgomery, Eva Montgomery, Ethel Montgomery, Cretwell Montgomery, Ruth Montgomery, and Hart Montgomery and Cornelia Martin, are not entitled to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is herewith transmitted the record of proceedings had in the matter of the consolidated applications of Jack Starr, et al., for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen, including the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes dated September 30, 1905, rejecting the applications of Jack Starr, Charley Starr, Peggie Grubett, Lizzie Starr, Edie Starr, Elijah Starr, Morning (Mona) Starr, Charlotte Starr, Thella Jones, Frances Anderson, Roxy Steele, Mary Steele, Joe Steele, Willie Steele, Myrtle Steele, Claude Steele, Abbie L. Williams, Dorothy B. Williams, Marion Montgomery, Eva Montgomery, Ethel Montgomery, Cretwell Montgomery Ruth Montgomery, Hart Montgomery, Major L. Williams and Cornelia Martin, for enrollment as such.

In connection with the decision of this office in the consolidated case herewith transmitted, the Department's attention is invited to the consolidated case of Mary Harris, et al., including the cases of Mary Harris, et al., Cherokee Freedman 1233, formerly Cherokee Freedman D 528, Joseph Curry, Cherokee Freedman 1234, formerly Cherokee Freedman D 531, Ostella Martin, et al., Cherokee Freedman 1235, formerly Cherokee Freedman D 532, and Harrison Curry, Cherokee Freedman 1236, formerly Cherokee Freedman D 533, wherein it was found by the Commission to the five civilized Tribes, in its decision rendered on July 10, 1903, that Mary Harris, Irene Harris, Olive Harris, Rheta Harris, Joseph Curry, Ostella Martin, Ira Martin, Cecil Martin, Roy Martin, Myrrh A. Martin, and Harrison Curry, all of whom neither claimed nor possessed any rights to Cherokee citizenship other than as descendants of John and Charlotte Curry, both deceased, were entitled to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, said finding being concurred in by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and affirmed by the Department on November 12, 1903 (Departmental letter I.T.D. 7616-03). Thereafter the names of the eleven last above named applicants were placed upon the Cherokee Freedman schedule forwarded to the Department on November 2, 1904, and they are now included in a partial roll of Cherokee Freedmen approved by the Secretary of the Interior on November 16, 1904, opposite Nos. 3439 to 3449, inclusive.

Secretary--2.

Secretary --3.

It will be noted that the rights to Cherokee freedman citizenship of the applicants included in the consolidated case of Mary Harris, et al., supra., are identical with those of the applicant, Cornelia Martin, case NO. D 534, said case being included in the consolidated case of Jack Starr, et al., transmitted herewith, all said applicants claiming as descendants of John and Charlotte Curry, both deceased, and who, it is alleged, complied with the provisions of Article IX of the Treaty of 1866.

It is respectfully submitted that the evidence in the consolidated case of Jack Starr, et al., transmitted herewith, shows that neither the said John Curry, deceased, nor the said Charlotte Curry deceased, returned to the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion, and established a residence therein, consequently, they did not comply with the provisions of Article IX of the treaty of 1866, and all applicants obtaining rights to Cherokee freedman citizenship only through them, must necessarily be denied.

It is, therefore, respectfully recommended that, if the Department affirms the decision of this office in the consolidated case of Jack Starr, et al., which is herewith transmitted, that the consolidated case of Mary Harris, therein enrolling the applicants included in said consolidated case be reversed.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,
WASHINGTON.

October 17, 1908.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to enclose a report from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated September 30, 1908, transmitting the record of the application for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen by Georgia Starr for her husband, Jack Starr; by Hannah Starr for her husband, Charley Starr; by Henderson Grinnett for his wife, Peggie Grinnett; by Lizzie Starr for herself; by Eddie Starr for himself; by Elijah Starr for himself and wife, Morning Starr (Mona) Starr, and their minor child, Charlotte Starr; by Lycurgus K. Jones for his minor child, Thella Jones; by Frances Anderson for herself and minor nieces, Rexie, Mary, Willie, and Myrtle Steele, and her minor nephew, Joe Steele; by Claude Steele for herself; by Abbie E. Williams for herself and her minor children, Dorothy E. and Major L. Williams and her minor brothers, Marion and Cretwell Montgomery, and minor sisters, Eva, Ethel, Ruth and Hart Montgomery; and by Cornelia Martin for herself.

September 30, 1905, the Commissioner decided adversely to all the applicants.

The record shows that the applicants, Jack and Charley Starr, and Frances Anderson, and Charlotte Starr, deceased, Rachel Steele, deceased, Julia Montgomery, deceased, and John and Charlotte Curry, both deceased, were slaves of Cherokee citizens at the beginning of the war of the rebellion; that they were taken out of the Cherokee Nation during the war and did not return thereto and establish a residence therein on or before February 11, 1867; that the applicants, Peggie Grimmett and Lixie, Eddie and Elijah Starr, and one Mattie Jones, born Starr, now deceased, are children of the applicant, Jack Starr and Charlotte Starr, deceased; that the applicants, Morning(Mona) Starr, and Rosie, Mary, Joe, Willie, Myrtle and Claude Steele, are children of Rachel Steele, deceased, and one Harry Steele, a non-citizen of the Cherokee Nation; that the applicants, Abbie E. Williams, and Marion, Eva, Ethel, Crestwell, Ruth and Hart Montgomery are children of Julia Montgomery, deceased, and one Henry Montgomery, a non-citizen of the Cherokee Nation; that the applicant, Cornelia Martin, is a daughter of John and Charlotte Curry, both deceased; and that the minor applicant Charlotte Starr, is a child of the applicants, Elijah and Morning(Mona) Starr; that the applicant, Thella Jones, is a child of Mattie Jones, born Starr, deceased, and one Lucurgus K. Jones, a non-citizen of the Cherokee Nation; and that the minor applicants, Dorothy B. and Major L. Williams, are children of the applicant, Abbie H. Williams and one Jesse D. Williams, a non-citizen of the Cherokee Nation; that none of the applicants possesses any rights to enrollment as Cherokee citizen other than as above indicated and that none of the applicants, or any ancestor, can be identified on the 1980 authenticated Cherokee roll or the Cherokee census roll of 1896.

In view of the record the approval of the Commissioner's decision adverse to all the applicants is recommended.

Very respectfully,

G.F. Larrabee,

Acting Commissioner.

Department of the Interior.
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.
Vinita, I. T., May 17, 1901.

In the matter of the application of Mary Ann Watson for the enrollment of herself as a Cherokee Freedman, and for the enrollment of her husband, Howard F. Watson, as a Cherokee Freedman by intermarriage; she being sworn and examined by Commissioner C.R. Breckinridge, testified as follows:

- Q Give me your name? A Mary Ann Watson. know
Q How old are you? A I am about 42 or '5, I don't exactly.
Q What is your postoffice? A Vinita.
Q In what district do you live? A Delaware.
Q Who is it you want to have put on the roll; anybody besides yourself? A My husband.
Q Is he single or married? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A I don't know how long, I was born here and partly raised here.
Q And you have been out more or less? A Yes sir.
Q Give me the name of your father? A Joshua Martin.
Q Is he dead? A Yes sir.
Q Give me the name of your mother? A Harriet Lynch.
Q Is she dead? A Yes sir.
Q How long has your father been dead? A I don't know, sir; he died when we were real small.
Q How long has your mother been dead? A She died when we were real small too.
Q Give me the name of your husband? A Howard F. Watson.
Q How old is he? A He is 44 or '5.
Q Is your husband here? A Yes sir.
Q Does he claim to be a Cherokee Freedman? A No sir.
Q Only by marriage? A Yes sir.
Q Did he marry you under a Cherokee License? A Yes sir.

The applicant presents a license issued by the Clerk of Delaware District, December 19, 1893, authorizing marriage between herself and Howard F. Watson. The certificate shows that they were united in marriage on the same date in accordance with said license by the Judge of the District. This is filed herewith.

- Q You didn't send it back to have it recorded? A Yes sir, it was recorded.
Q Have you and your husband lived together ever since you were married? A Yes sir.
Q And all the time in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Haven't either of you been outside of the Cherokee Nation since you were married? A No sir.
Q Where is your husband from? A I don't know exactly where he was from. He is here and he can speak for himself.
Q Was he married except to you? A No sir.
Q Were you ever married except to him? A No sir.

Howard F. Watson being sworn and examined by Commissioner

- C. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows:
Q Give me your name? A Howard F. Watson.
Q You are the husband of this applicant here? A Yes sir.
Q Where did you come from when you came to the Cherokee Nation? A I came here from Chicago, Illinois.
Q When did you come to the Cherokee Nation? A I came to the Cherokee Nation in '93 to reside.
Q In the year you were married? A Yes sir.
Q Were you ever married except to this woman? A This woman is the only woman I ever married.
Q You never lived with any other woman as husband and wife? A No sir, no woman, but this one.
Q Have you lived continuously in the Cherokee Nation ever since you married this woman? A Since we married according to this law, this Cherokee law.

Q Did you live out of the Cherokee Nation after you married her according to some other law? A The custom of this country was to marry according to the law, and when I came into the country I married her according to this law. I was informed to do that by the authorities here.

Q Did you marry her more than once? A Yes sir, I married her twice.

When did you first marry her? A In '86 first.

Q Where did you marry her in '86? A In Nebraska.

Q Did you and she live together as husband and wife from that time until you married her under Cherokee law? A Yes sir.

Q When did you bring her back to the Cherokee Nation? A She came back to the Cherokee Nation herself before I came.

Q After your marriage in '86? A She came back the same year in '86 then or '87 at fall, she came home.

Q And when did you come down? A I didn't come right down with her.

Q When did you come down? A I come about the year after that and resided here pretty near a year and made a farm for her and she resided continuously.

Q What did you do after you made that farm? A I was working a great part of the time for a gentleman in Omaha, and then went to Chicago, and then I come from Chicago home ~~at~~ again.

Q When was it you come back this last time you speak of? A '96.

Commissioner of applicant: You say you were born in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.

Q Where did you go when you first went out of the Cherokee Nation?

A I don't know where they took me the first time.

Q Was that during the war? A Yes sir.

Q Well, when did you first come back to the Cherokee Nation after the war? A They brought me back when I was small.

Q Do you remember the time? A I don't remember but they said it was in '61, but I don't know.

Q Were you a slave in the Cherokee Nation when the war broke out?

A They say I was.

Q To whom are you said to have belonged? A They said I belonged to Lynch.

Q What Lynch? A Joe Lynch, I think.

Q Did you have the same master that your mother had? A I think so. I was small, I don't know.

Q What is your first recollection of going out of the Cherokee Nation after the war? A I was working for an old man; they left me to with some old people that went through here by the name of Buchanan.

Q Where did they go? A They went to Kansas.

Q When was that? A I don't know what year it was.

Q How old were you then? A I don't know how old I was; I was old enough to nurse; what have been seven or eight years old, I reckon. I don't know how old I was.

Q Tell, tell us about your life since; I started out as a nurse for this family and went to Kansas. Where did you go and how long did you stay? A I don't know how long I stayed. I worked for the white people. I had no mother to look after me, or anybody, I worked for one and then another one, even to old men work for them.

Q In what states? A In Kansas and Nebraska.

Q And you worked there until you married this man? A Yes sir, I was working there when I married him.

Q Did you work in Kansas and Nebraska from the time you went out as nurse until you married this man in '86? A Yes sir, when I was working I did.

Q What were you doing when you weren't working? A I wasn't doing anything.

Q But you were there though? A Yes sir.

Q How long after your marriage to this man in '86 was it before you came back to the Cherokee Nation? A I come back that same spring, I think.

Q The spring following? A Yes sir, I think so.

Q During all this time your husband was up in Nebraska, about Omaha and in Chicago, did you go up to those localities?

- A I was here most of the time. Sometimes I would go up there and come back.
 Q And then he came back in '93, did he? A Yes sir.
 Q And you and he have been living here ever since? A Yes sir.
 Q What was your name in 1880? A Mary Martin, I went by my father's name.

The 1880 authenticated roll, and the 1896 census roll and the Kerns Clifton roll of the Freedmen of the Cherokee Nation examined and the names of the applicants not found thereon.

- Q You are not on the 1880 roll? A No sir, I am not.
 Q Are you on the census roll of 1896? A No sir.
 Q Did you draw strip money? A No sir; I didn't.
 Q Did you ever draw any money from the Cherokee Nation? A I drew on the Wallace roll.
 Q Are you on that Wallace Roll? A Yes sir.
 Q What district were you in then? A Cooweescoowee.

The Wallace roll examined and the name of the applicant is found on page 127, No. 2871, Mary Ann Martin, Cooweescoowee District.

- Q Have you a brother named James Martin? A Yes sir.
 Q What family has he? A He has a wife and six children, I believe.
 Q What is the name of his wife? A Florence is her name.
 Q Edgar Smith, Applicant's Attorney: Have you a home now? A Yes sir, I have one.
 Q Where? A It was in Cooweescoowee District; I haven't got it now though.
 Q What did you do with it? A Through court some way, they dispossessed us of it.
 Q Through what court? A Through the Cherokee Court.
 Q Did you have a suit with some one in the Cherokee Court? A Yes sir.
 Q Who was it?

The representatives of the Cherokee Nation here protest against the introduction of any oral testimony tending to prove that the Cherokee Courts took jurisdiction over the person of the applicant to try and determine the case in that court for the reason that the records is the best testimony.

The objection is overruled and official evidence of the record will be required if deemed necessary.

Examination continued by Attorney Edgar Smith:

- Q That was it? A A citizen of the Cherokee Nation, Jesse Rowe.
 Q In what court did you have the suit? A Claremore Court.
 Q And Jesse Rowe won the suit? A I won it there.

The Cherokee representative object to above questions.

Examination continued by Mr. Smith:

- Q When did you have this suit? A I don't remember what year it was.
 Q Can you state about what year it has been? A I think it has been eight or nine years ago; I just can't remember.
 Q How long was the matter pending in court- how long was it in court? A About three years I guess, or four years.
 Q Was it ever in any other court except the court at Claremore?
 A Supreme Court.
 Q Supreme Court of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
 Q Have you ever had any home anywhere except in the Cherokee Nation?
 A No sir, never had any other home but this.
 Q You say James Martin was your brother? A Yes sir.
 Q Had you any other brothers or half ~~brothers~~ brothers? A Half brother, John Lynch.
 Q When you were taken back to Kansas as you testified a moment ago, was anybody taken back with you? A My brother, Jim Martin.
 Q Who was this old gentleman who took you to Kansas and what was he?
 A He was a traveling missionary.

Q He took you and your brother, Jim, both back? A Yes sir.
 J. S. Davenport: When was that? A That was when we were small.
 Q Don't you remember? A No sir.
 Q You don't know how old you were? A No sir.
 Q How long did you stay in Kansas till they brought you back? A I don't know, sir.
 Q Did you stay a year or longer? A Longer than a year.
 Q Where did you go after you left Kansas? A I was in Kansas I don't know how long.
 Q When you left Kansas how old were you? A I don't know exactly how old I was.
 Q Were you grown? A I was pretty near grown, I guess.
 Q Where did you go when you left Kansas? A I went to Nebraska.
 Q How long did you stay in Nebraska? A I don't know how many years I stayed there.
 Q Was you grown when you left Nebraska? A I was about grown; I was a young woman.
 Q You lived in Nebraska until you and Watson married? A Yes sir.
 Q How long did you live there after you married? A I didn't live there long after I was married.
 Q Did you live there at all after you and he were married? A A little while after we were married, but I moved back down here.
 Q What year did you come back to the Cherokee Nation after you and he were married? A It must have been the same year we were married.
 Q What year were you married? A It was in '86.
 Q Then you had lived in Kansas and Nebraska from the time you had been taken away from the Cherokee Nation up until '86, or later?
 A I was working there.
 Q You lived there while you were working? A I was alive while I was working, but my home was back in the States.
 Q What folks did you live here? A My brother, he and my uncles were here.
 Q You have been here and seen your brother here- did you know your brother was here? A I heard he was here.
 Q You hadn't been here to see anything about your folks? A I come down here and don't know what year and seen my folks.
 Q And went back to Kansas or Nebraska? A I went back to Nebraska.
 Q And you moved here since '86 or later? and been living here ever since that time? A Yes sir.

Now comes the representatives of the Cherokee Nation and protest against the introduction of the certificate purporting to have been issued by the Clerk of Delaware District for the reason that the same was issued in the opinion of the representative of the Cherokee Nation, it was issued without authority of law, as there is no law upon the Statute books of the Cherokee Nation authorizing the adoption or intermarriage of one adopted citizen with another.

Now comes the Freedman:

The applicant applies for the enrollment of herself and husband. She is identified with reasonable certainty on the Wallace roll, but not upon the roll of 1860, or upon the Harris Clifton roll, or upon the roll of 1896. She claims to have been a Cherokee slave at the beginning of the Civil War and to have been liberated as the result of that war, and to have been brought back to the Cherokee Nation in 1866. For further testimony in this case, reference is made to the case of James Martin, Cherokee Freedman, 184d 344, and a copy of it will be filed in this case. It appears that the applicant while still in her childhood, perhaps not over seven or eight, or ten years of age, was taken by a missionary from the Cherokee Nation to the state of Kansas, and that she made her home in the state of Kansas and in the State of Nebraska until the year 1886 when she married. She states that within a year after her marriage in 1886 she came to the Cherokee Nation and past part of her time in the Cherokee Nation and part of her time with her husband who continued to work in Omaha and Chicago until 1893, when she and she both took up their residence in the Cherokee Nation, and she states that she has lived continuously in the Cherokee Nation since 1893. Her husband testifies that he came to the Cherokee Nation soon after his first marriage to his wife, they having been married first in Nebraska, and then afterwards in the Cherokee Nation, and took steps to provide a home for her. Reference is made in the testimony to a litigation that has been had in the Cherokee Court with reference to a farm owned by the applicant. It is required that official evidence be procured of such litigation.

Q Is James Martin your full brother? A Yes sir.

Under the conditions stated, the applicant will now be listed for enrollment on a doubtful card as a Cherokee Freedman. Her husband is shown to have married her under a Cherokee license in 1893, and it is testified that neither he or she were ever previously married. He claims that he has lived with his wife ever since their marriage in 1893, which was the second ceremony performed between them, and that since that time he has lived continuously in the Cherokee Nation. He will be listed with his wife on a doubtful card; he being classed as a Cherokee Freedman by intermarriage. The Cherokee Representatives present has made protest as set forth in the testimony, against the introduction of a marriage license and certificate relating to marriage between these parties upon the ground stated in said protest, to which reference is made as it appears in the testimony.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Chelsea, I. T., June 1st, 1901.

In the matter of the enrollment of James Martin as a Cherokee Freedman; the following supplemental testimony is offered on the part of the Cherokee Nation.

A P P E A R A N C E S:

Messrs. Mellette & Smith, Attorneys for Applicant
Mr. W. W. Hastings, Cherokee Representative.

James M. Bell, being sworn and examined by Commissioner C. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows:

- Q Give me your name? A James M. Bell.
Q How old are you? A 69 years old.
Q What is your post office? A Needmore.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation?
A Since '39 with a little exception.
Q Were you out during the war? A Part of the time, my family I took to Texas.
Q Have you otherwise lived in the Cherokee Nation since 1839?
A Yes, sir.

By Mr. Hastings:

- Q Did you know Joe M. Lynch? A Yes, sir.
Q Is he a citizen? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you know John Harrison? A Yes, sir, I knew John Harrison.
Q Was he a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir, he was a non-citizen.
Q Citizen of the United States? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you know where Harrison was from, what State? A He was from South Carolina, his native ~~town~~ town I guess was Columbia, that was the place he lived.
Q Did you know a colored woman by the name of Harriet?
A Yes, sir.
Q Who owned her? A John Harrison.
Q I will ask you if you know Jim Martin? A No, sir.
Q You don't know him? A No, sir.
Q I will ask you if you were not one of the Administrators of Joe Lynch's estate? A Yes, sir.
Q Did Harriet belong to Joe Lynch? A No, sir.
Q About what time did Joe Lynch die? A Died August, '61, about the 9th I think.
Q Did you know whether this Jim Martin; whether he had a slave by the name of Jim Martin; whether he was a son of Jim Martin?
A No, sir.
Q Do you mean that you didn't know that he had? A He didn't have.
Q He didn't have one whose mother was named Harriet?
A No, sir.

By Mr. Smith:

- Q Mr. Bell, which did you mean, that he didn't have or you don't know whether he had or not? A He didn't have.
Q How do you know? A I was a member of Mr. Lynch's family.
Q How did you come to be a member of Mr. Lynch's family?
A By marriage.

Q Did you know everything he had and everything he didn't have because you married into his family?

Q Yes, sir, I married into his family.

Q Is that the only reason now for knowing what Lynch had because you were a member of his family and lived in the same neighborhood he did? A Yes, sir; I lived in the neighborhood of this man Harrison and I knew what he had.

Q Well did you know what everybody in that neighborhood had?

A No, sir, I didn't know that.

Q How do you know what Harrison had? A I know that he had this woman there and she had two children and that she afterwards had two.

Q Where did Harrison live? A Harrison lived on the place that belonged to Lynch and about a mile and a half west of it.

Q He lived on Lynch's place? A Yes, sir, the place belonged to Lynch he lived on.

Q Did he ever live at Lynch's house and the place that Lynch lived on? A No, sir.

Q Never did? A No, sir.

Q Now did you; did you know but what Harrison sold the woman he brought there to Lynch? A I never heard of it if he did.

Q You won't swear that he didn't just because you never heard of it would you? A No, sir; he kept possession of the woman all the time he was there.

Q Who did? A Harrison; he had possession of her; she was never in the family of Lynch at all.

Q Wasn't she there on the place with Lynch's slaves? A She was in a mile and a half of Lynch's.

Q Didn't she work for him? A No, sir.

Q Didn't she cook for Lynch? A No, sir.

Q Never worked on Lynch's place at all? A No, sir.

Q Never worked with Lynch's slaves? A No, sir; she might have visited there.

Q Well did she? A She might; it is natural to think that she did visit them, but I don't know the times that she did visit them, and that she did visit them at all.

Q What was the connection of this man Lynch and this man Harrison?

A Nothing more than Harrison was raising stock for Lynch.

Q Owed Lynch didn't he? A I never heard of it if he did.

Q Which died first? A Lynch.

Q Lynch died before Harrison? A Yes, sir.

Q What did Harrison have there? A Harrison had this negro woman and these children.

Q What child now when Harrison brought this negro woman there?

A She had two, but I don't recollect their names.

Q Was they boys or girls? A One was a boy, or they both may have been boys, I don't recollect that; they were small.

Q Well then as to Jim Martin, the man we are talking about here, you don't know who he belonged to? A Well, if he was a son of that woman he belonged to Harrison.

Q If he was the son of the woman; why? A Because he claims her as his mother.

Q Claims who? A This woman.

Q Harriet? A Harriet.

Q He didn't necessarily have to belong to Harrison because his mother belonged to Harrison did he? A If he was in his possession and he owned the negro woman, he certainly would have owned her children.

Q He might have sold the boy for all you know?

A He didn't though.

Q How do you know? A The children were there on the place.

Q Did you ever hear of a child being sold without being delivered?

A It is not common to do so.

Q You are supposed to know definitely; you said that this man Jim Martin belonged to Harrison; what I want to know is how you know that he belonged to Harrison? A The woman belonged to Harrison and it is natural to suppose that the boy did; I am certain that this woman belonged to Harrison.

Q Now, tell me why you are certain? A He was in possession of her; her brought her there and claimed her as his own property, and I never heard that she was uncumbered in any way.

Q Would you swear that because he brought this woman there and had her in his possession that the child she had there belonged to him?

A If a man had a mare in his possession and said that she was his mare and she had a colt, I would say that the colt belonged to him too.

Q Would you go on the stand and swear it? A Yes, sir.

Q If a man had a mare and she had a colt that you would go on the stand and swear it belonged to him? A I would say that I believe to the best of my knowledge.

Q Oh, you believe; that is about all you know about this that you believe you can state of your own knowledge? A These children were small.

Q Well please answer that question; can you state it of your own knowledge? A I can't say that the child was hers I don't know that.

Q What else did this man Harrison have besides these children and this woman you are talking about? A He had three or four head of horses.

Q What else? A He had in charge some cattle he was raising on the shares for Mr. Lynch.

Q What else? A He had a field and some implements to cultivate it.

Q Now, when Harrison; but he did die didn't he? A No, sir.

Q He is still living? A No, sir; he was killed.

Q He died when he was killed; when was he killed? A He was killed in '62.

Q Now what became of his property who got it? A The federals got it, I guess.

Q You guess? A Yes, sir.

Q You knew everything that was going on in that country?

A I was in the army.

Q What makes you think the federals got it? A I heard it.

Q Didn't Lynch get it? A No, sir, Lynch never got it.

Q None of the Lynchs? A No, sir.

Q You know that? A No, sir.

Q You were in the army? A I know that Geter Lynch was killed at a skirmish about a mile above Harrison.

Q That would not be any indication that Lynchs didn't get it? A Lynch died before, Mrs. Lynch died before, Joe Lynch went to the army with me and Judge Lynch was a prisoner at that time.

Q So the property that Harrison left or at the time he was killed come into the hands of some of the Lynch family? A No, sir, none of them.

By Mr. Hastings:

Q I believe that you stated that you were one of the administrators on the estate of Joe Lynch? A Yes, sir, Geter Lynch, Joe Lynch and myself were the administrators.

Q Young Joe Lynch? A Yes, sir.

Q And you stated that this Harriet and Jim Martin were not part of the effects of Joe Lynch?

(Objected to by Attorney for Applicant.)

Q Were they part of the effects of Joe Lynch? A No, sir, they were not.

Supl.—F.B. #544. ---4.

- Q What relation were you to Joe Lynch by married? A I was his son-in-law.
Q You married his daughter? A Yes, sir.
Q Your wife was one of his heirs, one of the heirs to the estate?
A Yes, sir.
Q Where was Harrison killed? A Harrison was killed in what is called the Six Mile Bottom.
Q After the war come up? A Yes sir, in '62.

By Mr. Smith:

- Q That is the only estate you ever administered on?
A No, sir.
Q Did you ever in administering on an estate always get all the property that belonged to? A I do not know.
Q A man does not always get all the property that a man owns and put it in when he goes to administer on it, does he?
A He would that was present.
Q You can state that a man does not always do that, can't you?
A A man may not if it wasn't there.

(Objected to by Attorney for Cherokee Nation.)

Vinita, I. T., May 16, 1901.

In the matter of the application of James Martin for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman.

James Martin, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

- Q Give me your name? A James Martin.
Q Who is it you want to have enrolled? A Just myself.
Q How old are you? A I don't know my age exactly.
Q As near as you can? A I guess I am ~~about~~ 42 years or something nearabout that.
Q What is your post office? A Vinita.
Q In what district do you live? A Cooweescoowee.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Nearly all my life.
Q Give me the name of your father? A Joshua Martin.
Q Is he dead? A Yes, sir.
Q How long has he been dead? A I don't know exactly, he died not very long after we were taken out of the Nation here during the war.
Q Give me the name of your mother? A Harriett.
Q Is she dead? A Yes, sir.
Q How long has she been dead? A Well, she has been dead, I think she died before my father died.

The 1880 authenticated roll of Cherokee Freedmen examined and the applicant not identified thereon.

The 1896 census roll of Cherokee Freedmen examined and the applicant not identified thereon.

The Kerns-Clifton roll examined and the applicant not identified thereon.

- Q Who were you with at the time the Wallace roll was made out?
A At the time the Wallace roll was made out, I was in prison.
Q Where? A I was in Arkansas prison.
Q At Little Rock? A Yes, sir.
Q Where were you convicted? A Fort Smith.
Q Where were you arrested? A In Vinita.

The Wallace roll examined, and the applicant identified thereon, page 125, No. 2622, Delaware district.

- Q What district were you living in then, what did you call your home? A Why I was working for Mr. Patton down on his ranch, that is south here about 12 miles.

- Q What district id that in? A ( No response. )
Q What district have you always claimed as your home? A I have lives lots in Cooweescoowee district, I have lived and worked over on this side four or five years, maybe longer than that.

- Q This ranch you spoke of is in Cooweescoowee district? A Yes, sir, part of it, and part of it is in Delaware district.

By Edgar Smith, attorney for Applicant: Do you know who attended to your enrollment on the Wallace roll while you were in prison?

A Allen Lynch I think.

- Q You spoke of having been convicted of some offense, what was that offense? A Manslaughter is what I was convicted of.

- Q Where did the killing occur? A Down here on Rock Creek to Patton's ranch.

- Q You were tried in what Court? A United States Court at Fort Smith.

- Q What is your earliest recollection with regard to the place where you lived, where did you live as far back as you can remember?

A Why down over here about Coone-neck Bend and over on Big Creek and I worked for old man Riley, John Riley, across from Coody's Bluff on the Verdigris.

- Q Are all these places you have named in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

- Q Have you within your recollection ever lived out of the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir, not to say lived out, I was in Kansas for a while when I was small but I come back here.

Q How small were you? A I guess that I was 12 or 13 years old, somewhere along there.

Q You say your father and mother both died? A Yes, sir.

Q You state that your father died during the war; when did your mother die? A Well, right after the war I think, just about while after.

Q Where were you born? A I was born down here on Grand River.

Q In the Cherokee Nation? A In the Cherokee Nation.

Q Have you and brothers and sisters? A I have a sister and a brother; John Lynch is my brother, he is on the 1880 roll.

Q And who is your sister? A Mary Martin, or Watson.

Q Where does she live? A She lives here in Vinita.

Q Where was she born? A Born here on Grand River, Cherokee Nation.

Q Was she taken out the same time you were? A Yes, sir.

Q Was she brought back at the same time? A Yes, sir.

Q Now what is your brother's name? A John Lynch, son of Al Lynch.

Q Do you know whether John Lynch is on the 1880 roll or not?

A Yes, sir, I think he is on the 1880 roll.

Q Were were you Jim in 1880? A In 1880, I was either out here working for John Webber or over here on Big Creek, one of these places I worked for Jim Martin out on Big Creek quite a number of years, working for a man by the name of Al Burton on his place.

Q When were you working for Al Burton? A I worked for him in a part of '78 or '79.

Q And where were you in 1880, with reference to being in the Cherokee Nation, were you in it or out of it? A I was in it.

Q Do you know who you were working for in 1880? A I think I was working for John Weaver on Mustang, I am not certain, but I think I was, either there or on Big Creek for Jim Martin.

Q How long did you work for Weaver? A About two years.

Q How long did you work for old man Burton? A Between five or six years, worked for Jim Hall a year or more.

By J. S. Davenport, Cherokee attorney: Who did you belong to before the war? A My father belonged to Joe Martin and my mother belonged to the Lynch family.

Q To Joe Lynch? A Yes, sir, I suppose so.

Q What was your mother's name? A Harriett.

Q Well now, you don't remember when you came back to the Cherokee Nation after the war, do you? A No, sir, I was small.

Q You don't know any reason why you are not on the roll of 1880?

A No more than this: You see we had nobody to look after us and we were orphan children and I wasn't old enough, I didn't have knowledge enough to have interest enough to know that being placed on these rolls amounted to anything.

Q Well you were grown in 1880 weren't you? A Yes, sir, I was somewhat, I don't know my age exactly, but I have been going around and working for myself and doing for myself nearly all my life.

Q Where were you in 1896? A I was here.

Q Why were you not on that roll? A Why, I supposed that I was on that roll, I was working for Mr. Frazier in 1896, been working for him nearly seven years, or about that long, and I thought my wife enrolled me.

Q When you can first remember, you were living at what place in the Cherokee Nation? A When I came back I was living over here on Goose Neck.

Q Over on the Verdigris? A Yes, sir.

Q What Cherokee family lived near you there, if any? A I don't really know, but about a year or two after that I worked for John Riley across the Verdigris at Goodys Bluff, I worked about a year for him in '72 and '73.

Q Do you know who brought you back to this country? A Jess Rowe.

Mr. Smith: Is Jess Rowe dead or alive? A He is dead.

Q You were asked about why you are not on the 1880 roll; do you have any recollection of the time when the 1880 roll was being taken? A Well, I think that I do; there was one roll they made, and part of the time I stayed at my aunts, and the first time she was enrolled, that was Mahaley Brown, and I think I was on Big Creek or here at John Weaver's, because I came from near Big Creek over to see uncle Wils that lived over on Grand River, and John Weaver was sick and wanted somebody to attend to his stock and I went to work for him and next for Jim Hall and next for Patton and have been working around in here ever since.

Q Why didn't you enroll on the 1880 roll, or try? A Well, I just didn't know, and I didn't have knowledge to know the interest of it, and then after I found I wasn't on the 1880 roll I spoke to old man Downing, a Cherokee living over on Big Creek, and he told me, he says you are not on that roll Jim, you will have to take two witnesses and go to Tahlequah and be identified and who you belonged to and they will place you on the roll, and says if you will pay my expenses and pay ~~for~~ me for going, I will go with one, and I will find someone down there that knows you, I knew your father and know all about you, and I was working on a threshing machine and was making two dollars a day and the amount that I drew was $15.50 and I just didn't have sense enough to take advantage of that or know the importance of being on all these rolls, and just let it go.

Mr. Davenport: You belonged at one time to a man named Harrison before the war? A Not that I know of.

Q Didn't you belong to him at the time of the war? A man by the name of Harrison, who was a United States citizen, and didn't your mother and father, or your mother at least, with whom you stayed at that time, belong to a man named Harrison, who was a white man and not a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Well, I don't know, my mother always stayed on Joe Lynch's place on Grand River, that is to my recollection; I was small, but I always thought that, she always told that, and thought my mother belonged to Joe Lynch and uncle Joe Martin down here told me that I belonged to him.

Q The Lynch family you have reference to is the one that Judge Lon Lynch belonged to, the same family? A Yes, sir, I think so.

Q Have you seen him here since you came, or do you know Judge Lynch? A Yes, sir, I saw him here, the man they said was him.

Commissioner: How old did you say you were when you returned from Kansas? A When I came back down here the second time?

Q I mean the first time after the war? A I was small, I reckon about seven or eight, maybe ten years old, I don't know just exactly neither.

Q Who did you come with? A I came with Jess Rowe.

Q Who of your family came with you? A Me and my sister I believe.

Q Give me the name of your sister? A Mary Martin.

Q Did your brother John come with you? A Yes, sir, we were there at his house when my mother died.

Q You and John came together, did you? A Yes, sir, I think so.

Q Is John your full brother? A He is my half brother, same mother but different fathers.

Q Well Mary Watson, is she your full sister? A Yes, sir, she is my full sister.

Q You remember when you came back from Kansas, do you remember the trip? A No, sir, when I first came back I don't remember very much about it.

Q Then you were taken back to Kansas, were you? A Yes, sir, after we came down here a preacher, a missionary, a man by the name of Buchanan, he promised to take me and my sister and raise us and educate us and take care of us, and Al Lynch here consented for him to take us, and Millie Faye down here taken John Lynch and raised him with her family.

Q And this missionary took you to Kansas? A Yes, sir, taken me

James Martin - 4.

to Kansas.

Q How long did he keep you there? A I reckon I stayed with him nearly a year and I run off from him.

Q And came back where? A Well, I didn't come direct back here, but I left from him, and went to Eudora, Kansas, and worked for a doctor there about four or five months, and then I came to Ottawa and then I came back to Coffeyville and then down to the Nation.

Q You were a good size boy? A Yes, sir, I was quite a chunk of a boy.

Q About how old were you when you ran off? A I guess I must have been about 14 years old.

Q When you ran off from this missionary? A I was about 12 to the best of my recollection.

Q You can't speak definitely about it? A No, sir, I was about that age.

Q How long had you been in the Cherokee Nation before you went back to Kansas with that missionary? A Not very long, to the best of my knowledge.

Q What was your sister's name in 1880? A Her name was Mary Waten.

Q Has your sister applied for enrollment? A Yes, sir.

Q And is her name Watson now? A Yes, sir.

Commissioner: Counsel for the applicant says that his sister Mary Martin has not applied yet, and that her status is the same as the applicant. John Lynch, who is said by the applicant to be his half brother, and to have had the same mother, is enrolled on Cherokee Freedmen straight card No. 826, and is identified on the 1880 roll, page 281.

David Martin, being duly sworn by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Mr. Smith: What is your name? A David Martin.

Q Where do you live? A I live up in Cooweesco wee district.

Q What postoffice? A Coffeyville, Kansas.

Q How old are you? A 64.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A All my life, only during the war, the commencement of the war.

Q Do you know James Martin, who is the applicant in this case?

A Yes, sir.

Q How long have you known him? A Knowed him since he was a little bit of a baby.

Q Did you know his father? A Yes sir.

Q Who was his father? A Josh Martin.

Q Did you know his mother? A Yes, sir.

Q Who was his mother? A Harriett Harrison.

Q When did you know Jim first, about what time? A I knowed Jim in I guess in '58 or '7 or '9, I knowed him three or four years before the war, maybe longer.

Q Where was he when the war commenced? A He was over at Lynch's.

Q What Lynch was that? A Joe Lynch.

Q Do you know to whom his mother belonged? A Belonged to Joe Lynch as most of the slaves did, I learned that Joe Lynch bought her from Harrison.

Q Was Joe Lynch a Cherokee Indian? A Yes, sir.

Q A citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q Did James Martin have any brothers or sisters? A One by the name of Mary and one by the name of John and one sister by the name of Lizzie I think.

Q Was Mary younger or older than James, or do you know? A I think James is the oldest, I am not certain, I don't know exactly the two ages; Mary may be the oldest; it has been so long, but I think she had two little children, had three; there was one wasn't

James Martin--5.

none of Josh's when he had her.

Q Who was the father of Mary? A Josh claim to be.

Q Mary and James were full sisters and brothers? A Yes, sir.

Mr. Davenport: Now you knew the applicant's mother? A Yes, sir.

Q How long did you know her before the war broke out? A I know her I guess probably ten years.

Q How far did you live from her? A I lived--sometimes we were all right together.

Q How far was your home from where hers was? A It was about five or six miles.

Q Did you know before the war broke out a man by the name of Harrison, who looked after the cattle of Joe Lynch and stock?

A Yes, sir.

Q I will ask you if Harrison didn't own Harriett, if Harriett didn't belong to Harrison when you first got acquainted with her?

A She did.

Q And if she didn't belong to Harrison at the breaking out of the war? A No, sir, two or three years before I left here, I went to the woods in '60, and she belonged to Lynch when I run off in the woods, when I was scouting.

Q Did you know Lynch's daughter, Nancy, or Harriett; did Lynch have any children at that time, Joe Lynch? A He had a host of children.

Q What was the name of the children? A Chick and Lon and Joe and Caroline and Brack.

Q They were living there at the time you knew this woman? A Yes, sir.

Q Did Jim's father live at that time, the applicant here? A He lived with me.

Q Was he your brother? A No, sir, belonged to the same man I did.

Q He lived about four or five miles from where Harriett lived?

A I don't know exactly, I never measured it, we walked up there any time we wanted to.

Q Same neighborhood or locality? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know where Jim went during the war, his parents? A Well, I seen Jim with his father and mother in Kansas in '63.

Q You don't know when they came back? A No, in '63 I was in Kansas and visited Josh and his family, and he had Mary and Jim.

Q You have told me you saw them up there, when did they come back, to your knowledge, to the Cherokee Nation? A Well, if you will let me tell you I can tell you; I went on in the army in '63, and in '66 when I came back coming home that way they wasn't there, they was done left Kansas, and had come to the Nation.

Q How do you know they had come to the Cherokee Nation? A I went to see them and they had left for the Nation.

Q You don't know where they had gone? A No, sir, that is what was said.

Q You know they had left that part of Kansas? A Yes, sir.

Q What part of Kansas was that where they were living? A A little Southwest of Lawrence.

-----0-----

Allen Lynch, being duly sworn by Commissioner Brookridge, testified as follows:

Mr. Smith: State your name? A Allen Lynch.

Q How old are you? A 61 years old.

Q What is your postoffice? A Vinita.

Q Do you know James Martin, the applicant? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know his sister, Mary Watson? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know who the father of James and Mary was? A Yes, sir.

Q Who was he? A Joshua Martin.

Q Who was the mother of these children? A Her name was Harriett.

Q When did you first know these children? A I have known them ever since they were born.

James Martin - 6.

Q Which is the oldest? A Jim.

Q About how much? A About ~~two~~ 2 years the oldest.

Q Where were they when the war commenced? A They were living over there on the Six-mile Bend.

Q In what Nation? A In the Cherokee Nation.

Q Do you know whether they went out or were taken out during the war or not? A They were taken out time of the war, yes, sir.

Q Do you know whether they were brought back? A Yes, sir.

Q When were they brought back? A Brought back somewhere along in the summer of '66, I can't tell just exactly.

Q That was in the year '66? A Yes, sir.

Q Who brought them back? A Uncle Jess Rowe.

Q Is he living or dead? A He is dead.

Q Where were they brought to? A Brought down to Simon Lynch's.

Q At what place did Simon live? A We were living over there on Mustang between Cabin Creek and Mustang.

Q How far from over there? A 15 or 16 miles from Vinita.

Q How long did they remain in the Cherokee Nation then; or I will ask you with regard to Jim, how long did Jim remain before he went away again, do you know? A They were not down there only a week or ten days before they went away.

Q Where was the father and mother at that time? A Their mother was dead.

Q Was the father living? Was the father dead too? A I can't tell you whether he was dead or not, I think he was dead, I am pretty certain he was.

Q Was this man, Josh Martin, I believe you call him, were he and this woman Harriett man and wife? A Was before the war? A Yes, sir.

Q Were both these children known and recognized as his children? A Yes, sir.

Q How long have you known James Martin here in the Cherokee Nation; was he here in 1880? A I believe he was here in 1880. I will not be sure.

Q You know to whom his father Josh Martin belonged? A Yes, sir, I know who he belonged to.

Q Who did he belong to? A He belonged to Joe Martin.

Q Was Joe Martin a Cherokee and a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir, we used to work together.

Q Who did this woman belong to, the mother? A We always supposed she belonged to Joe Lynch, we always lived in the same place together, he controlled us all.

Q Do you mean you were on the same place with the mother of James Martin? A Yes, sir.

Mr. Davenport: What do you know about to whom she belonged, anything? A Nothing particular, only we all lived there, and I have heard Joe Lynch say we all belonged to him.

Q Did you ever hear Joe Lynch say Harriett belonged to him? A Yes, sir, Harriett and Harrison both.

Q Harrison was a white man was he? A Yes, sir, he was a white man, he controlled us.

Q Harrison had a negro woman, a colored woman, that was named Harriett, that belonged to him? A Yes, sir, yes she was there.

Q He was the boss? A Joe Lynch was the boss.

Q Was Joe Lynch the father of Lon Lynch? A Yes, sir.

Q Lon was there at the same time? A Yes, sir, he was there.

Q Do you know where these people went during the war, Jim? A Yes, sir.

Q Where did they go? A Went up to Kansas, I don't know where- about in Kansas.

Q When they came back, who was living near where they returned to, what Cherokee families? A There wasn't any there, wasn't any Cherokee families there.

Q Was there any Cherokee families living near where you were living at the time they came back? A Northing but Jess Cochran, he lived about five miles of us.

Q You testified before the Kerne-Glifton Commission in this case?

A I don't know as I did, I might have.

Q Don't you know you did? A Yes, sir, I know I did.

Q In giving your testimony in this case, you didn't testify as follows: "Bob Daniels and Dick Downing lived near me in 1866."

A You have got that wrong, it is Bob Downing.

Mr. Smith: I object to its being called a record.

A I said Bob Downing and Dick Downing lived near us; that is right; I had forgot that; Bob Downing and Dick Downing lived near us, yes sir; Bob Downing, it is not Daniels.

Q Where has Jim been living since that time, do you know? A Jim, he has been to the best of my knowledge, here around; the first time I seen him he was working around on Big Creek.

Q Are you able to state whether or not he has resided continuously in the Cherokee Nation since that time? A No, sir.

Mr. Smith: I didn't understand there was a question about his residence; I understood the question was about the ownership.

Mr. Davenport: Yes, there is a question about everything; there is a question about his being a slave, about when he returned, and a question about whether he stayed here when he did return.

James Martin, recalled, testified as follows:

Commissioner: You say you russed for yourself a good deal in your early life? A Yes, sir.

Q Your father and mother died when you were very young? A Yes, sir.

Q While you were around making a living for yourself, where was your brother John, your half brother, John Lynch? A He was down here on Grand River.

Q Who was he living with? A He made his home with Millie Frye, she taken him.

Q How old is John Lynch now? A He is about thirty I reckon, to the best of my knowledge.

Q Well up in thirty? A Yes, sir.

Q Where is he living at this time? A Living out on Pryor Creek.

Q In the same neighborhood where he lived when a child? A No, sir, that is west of here, I expect about fifteen or sixteen miles.

Q Did he rove around like you did? A No, sir.

Q Were these people kin folks that he lived with? A Yes, sir.

Q What kin? A Millie Frye I think was either his aunt, I think his aunt; I don't know whether she is a half sister to Al Lynch or a first cousin, they are related.

Q You and John, I understand you to say, have the same mother?

A Yes, sir, the same mother.

Mr. Davenport: Who was John's father? A Al Lynch.

Q That testified here? A Yes, sir.

Mr. Smith: You stated I believe that you were probably twelve or thirteen years old when you came back from Kansas the last time?

A Yes, sir.

Q Have you ever lived outside of the Cherokee Nation since that time? A No, sir.

Commissioner: Have you ever been outside of the Cherokee Nation except when you were carried off for trial and imprisonment? A No, sir.

-----o-----

Simon Lynch, being duly sworn by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Mr. Smith: What is your name? A Simon Lynch.

James Martin - 8.

- Q How old are you? A About 78.
- Q Where do you live? A I live on Grand River.
- Q What is your postoffice? A Spavinaw.
- Q Do you know James Martin, the applicant in this case? A Yes, sir.
- Q How long have you known him? A Known him ever since he was a child, off and on.
- Q Do you know whether he was taken out of the Nation, Cherokee Nation, during the war, or not? A Yes, sir, he was taken out.
- Q Do you know whether he was brought back, or whether he came back afterwards? A He was brought back, some colored folks fetched him back.
- Q Do you know who they were? A Yes, sir uncle Jesse Rowe.
- Q When was he brought back? A It was in '61 I believe; '65 I think it was.
- Q Do you know his sister Mary? A Yes, sir.
- Q Was she younger or older than he? A Older.
- Q You know she was older? A Yes, sir, older.
- Q Aren't you mistaken about that? A Yes, sir, born right on my master's place both of them.
- Q You think she is older than Jim? A I know she is.
- Q Was she brought back too? A Yes, sir, both of them.
- Mr. Davenport: You say Jim was brought back in '66? A Yes, sir.
- Q What makes you remember it was in '66? A Because they come to my house.
- Q You remember distinctly each year when anybody comes to your house? A I know where I was living at that time.
- Q Were you only living there the one year? A No, sir.
- Q Have you lived there continuously? A No, sir.
- Q How long did you live at that place? A About four months, I made a crop on the Creek and moved to that place.
- Q You never lived at that place but about four months? A About four months.
- Q Then where did you go? A Moved over on George Clark's place on the river.
- Q When did you move there? A In the fall of '66.
- Q They had come to your house before you moved to George Clark's place? A Yes sir.
- Q How long did you stay in George Clark's place? A Three or four months.
- Q Then where did you go? A Built on a place of my own, on the place I am living at now.
- Q And that is what makes you know it was in '66? A Yes.
- Q You came back to the Territory when? A '65.
- Q You didn't wait for the war to close? A No, sir, I came down here in '65.
- Mr. Smith: Are you a Freedman of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
- Q On the 1880 roll? A Yes, sir.
- o-----

Allen Lynch, recalled, testified as follows:

- Commissioner: You are the father of this John Lynch we have been talking about, are you? A Well, yes sir.
- Q Were you married to his mother Harriett? A I was then, yes, sir.
- Q When were you and Harriett married? A Well, I can't tell you the year.
- Q Where were you married? A Well, it was down on Grand River, about six miles or seven miles from where the old man Joe Lynch lived.
- Q That is since the war you married her? A No, sir, way before the war.
- Q How old do you call John? A John, I call him, John was a baby a year and a half old in '62; '62 he went out of here I think it was.

James Martin - 9.

- Q How old would you call this man James Martin, son of Harriett?
A Jim must be about ten years old when he went out of her; I can't tell you exactly, he might have been older and might not have been so old.
- Q Jim is a little older than he thinks he is; he is somewhere about 45 or up there? A He is older than that.
- Q Jim was born when you married Harriett? A Yes, sir.
- Q That is this Jim Martin now? A Yes, sir.
- Q Were you ever married before you married Harriett? A No, sir.
- Q Had she ever been married before she married you? A Yes, sir.
- Q To whom had she been married? A Married to a man named Josh Martin.
- Q Was Josh Martin her first husband? A No, sir, I guess not.
- Q Was Josh Martin a slave in the Cherokee Nation at the breaking out of the war? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did he belong to a Cherokee citizen? A Yes, sir, Joe Martin, a Cherokee man.
- Q This woman Harriett was then your wife at the time the war broke out? A No.
- Q Had you and she parted? A We had quit when the war broke out.
- Q You had quit before that? A Well, about the time of the war.
- Q Was she a slave at the time you married her? A Yes, sir.
- Q To whom did she belong? A She was living with Chick Lynch.
- Q Is that a Cherokee citizen? A Yes, sir, Lon Lynch's brother.
- Q Did she belong to him? A I don't know, I can't tell, I couldn't tell anything about negroes them days.
- Q You were a slave yourself? A She was there working like I was, I couldn't tell about them.
- Q Was she free? A No, sir, she was working there.
- Q She wasn't working for wages? A No, sir, she was working and living with us.
- Q Was she a colored woman? A Yes, sir.
- Q When she was your wife you certainly know whose slave she was?
A We always claimed she belonged to Joe Lynch.
- Q Do you know positively to whom your wife Harriett belonged; don't you know who her master was? A No, sir, we were all together.
- Q She was your wife and you didn't know who she belonged to? A She was living there with us.
- Q Who did she claim as her master? A We all claimed that she belonged to Lynch, that is all I can tell you.
- Q Is that this man you call Chick? A No, Joe Lynch, the old man.
- Q You claimed that you belonged to Joe Lynch? A That Joe Lynch had ---
- Q What a minute; you claimed at the time you were married to Harriett you belonged to Joe Lynch? A Joe Lynch, we were all living there together.
- Q Who were you working for? A Joe Lynch.
- Q You were living on his place? A Yes, sir.
- Q Well, what has this man Chick got to do with it? A Well, that was his boy, after the old man died --.
- Q That is his son? A Yes, sir.
- Q When did Joe Lynch die? A Well, sir, I can't tell you whether he died in '61 or in '60, I can't tell you exactly.
- Q Along about the beginning of the war? A Yes, sir, he started to Hot Springs and he died.
- Q Now at the time Joe Lynch died did you recognize that he was the master of yourself and of this woman Harriett? A Yes, sir.
- Q If you had been put up to be sold who would have sold you? A I would have thought Chick Lynch would have sold me.
- Q Joe Lynch wasn't dead, I am talking about Joe Lynch? A I would have thought Joe Lynch would sold me.
- Q After Joe Lynch died, did you still live on the Joe Lynch place?
A We lived on there about a year, I reckon, before we moved from there, and went about four or five miles from there; his son Chick was down there.

Q After Joe Lynch died who had control of you? A Chick Lynch.

Q Did you recognize him as your master? A Yes, sir.

Q Where was this woman Harriett? A On the same place.

Q Did she recognize Chick Lynch as her master? A Yes, sir, that is what she die.

Q Did you recognize that Chick Lynch had the right to sell her or do what he pleased in that way? A Yes, sir, I did.

Q Was there ever any question raised as to her belonging at that time to anybody except Chick Lynch? A No, sir, not to my knowledge; this man that brought Harriett there was living with us too.

Q What was his name? A Harrison.

Q Who was Harrison, was he a Cherokee citizen? A No, sir he was a whiteman.

Q You say he brought Harriett there? A He brought her there when she first came there.

Q And did he continue to live there? A He lived there until the war came up; not before the war came up, during of the war, why then Chick brought me out.

Q I am after finding out something about Harriett. When did this man Harrison bring Harriett there? A I can't tell you.

Q Was that before you married her? A Yes, sir, five or six years before.

Q Then it was a long time before the war? A Yes, sir.

Q Did this man Harrison continue to live on this place until the war broke out; what became of this man Harrison? A You want me to tell you where he lived and where Lynch moved him; Lynch moved him around like he would move around the balance of us negroes.

Q Where did Harrison come from? A I don't know, I don't know where he come from.

Q He brought Harriett with him, did he? A Yes, sir.

Q You don't mean to say Harrison was a slave of Lynch? A No, sir, but he served like one.

Q Did Harrison live with Lynch or on Lynch's place under Lynch's direction all the time until the war came on? A I have told you all as far as I know.

Q What did he seem to have to do with this woman Harriett? A She was a cook there with us.

Q Did she ever speak of him as her master? A She called him master, yes, sir, and called Lynch master.

Q I am speaking of this in the sense of owning her; did she ever speak of Harrison being her owner? A No, sir, not particular, that is all she called Lynch, master, and we called him master.

Q You know that is not what I am talking about. A You mean did she ever speak of him being her master?

Q Being her owner? A Yes, sir.

Q Well, tell me about that; did she ever speak of Harrison as being the man who owned her? A Yes, sir, she said so.

Q Did she say so all the time? A Always said so, yes sir, and always lived with him.

Q So then as far as her belief and statement went, she was the property of Harrison? A Yes, sir.

Q Did Harrison ever sell her that you know of? A Not as I know of unless he sold her to Joe Lynch.

Q You don't know what he did? A No, sir.

Q Did Harrison seem to own any other slaves except this woman Harriett? A Nothing except her and them children.

Q How many children did she have that appeared to belong to Harrison? A They was George and Jim and Mary and John that she had when she was there.

Q He just seemed to own that woman and that set of children? A That is all, and that is all that lived with him.

James Martin-11.

Q Now your child John was born before the war, was he? A He was just about a year old or a little over when the war came up, just beginning to crawl around.

Q Did you consider that John belonged to Lynch or belonged to Harrison? A I considered him belonging to Lynch.

Q And that his mother belonged to Harrison? A Well, we were all there together, of course I thought we all belonged to him.

Q How can you make that contradictory statement, because you told me your wife always claimed to be the property of Harrison? A Well Lynch controlled us all is what I am trying to make you understand; what he said went with us.

Q Being under his orders is one thing and being his property is another? A I can't tell you about that, because I don't know how they managed their things.

Q Lynch seemed to be in general control and authority there, did he? A Yes, sir.

Q Well, then when you moved out during the war, where were you taken?

A Me, I went to Kansas.

Q Where was this woman Harriett taken? A She went to Kansas.

Q Did she go along at the same time you did? A No, sir.

Q The Union soldiers took you up? A I went up alone.

Q When did Harriett go? A She went after the troops came down here.

Q And what had become of Harrison at that time? A Why they killed him.

Q Killed in a fight down here? A No, I think the Cherokees came over and killed him.

Q What became of Lynch; he died? A Yes sir, he died.

Q What became of his son Chick? A They killed him I think about the same time.

Q And that broke up the whole question of ownership and everything of that kind? A Yes, sir.

Mr. Smith: Did you ever hear of any statements between Lynch and Harrison with regard to who owned this woman, and these children, as between themselves; did you ever hear any controversies or disputes?

Mr. Davenport: I don't think that would be competent.

Commissioner: It would be competent to show who claimed ownership.

A I have heard Lynch say time and again that Harrison and all his negroes belonged to him.

Q Did he say why? A He would get a little mad at him and order him to do something and he would send some of them to tell him to go do so and so, and he claimed to belonged to him, I don't know whether he belonged to him or not.

Q What was the reason, if you know, that Harrison was treated in that way? A

Mr. Davenport: I object to that as being immaterial in this case.

Commissioner: It might be material.

Q Can you answer that? I asked you why this man Harrison permitted Lynch to order him about in that way; do you know? A Why yoursee after Lynch went and got Harrison there he put him on the ranch and he gave him so many cattle to take care of, and we had to make lots and make crops for him, us fellows did, and whatever he authorized Harrison to do that he had to do, and I can't tell you anything, that has been a long time ago.

Q Either one of them owe the other? A I suppose Harrison must have owed Lynch, or he wouldn't have been dogged around there.

Q Do you know? A No, sir, I never seen him receive a dollar in my life.

Q Do you know whether Harrison ever made a conveyance of these negroes, if he owned them? A To Lynch, no sir; if he did I didn't know it, I can't tell you whether he ever made any conveyance, I have always heard Lynch say Harrison borrowed money from him, but I don't know that.

James Martin - 12.

Q You don't know which one owed? A No, sir, I don't know which one borrowed money.

Mr. Davenport: Harrison acted in the capacity of what was known at that time as an overseer of the plantation and cattle? A Yes, sir, and Lynch acted as master.

Columbus McNair, being duly sworn by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Mr. Smith: State your name? A Columbus McNair.

Q Where do you live? A I live in Vinita.

Q How long have you lived there? A I lived in Vinita 12 or 14 years.

Q Do you know James Martin the applicant in this case? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know his sister Mary Watson? A Yes, sir.

Q How long have you known them? A I have known them ever since they were small; I have seen them before the war.

Q Did you know the mother? A Yes, sir.

Q What was her name? A Harriett.

Q Where did she live? A I first seen her at Joe Lynch's.

Q To whom did she belong? A I am not save to say exactly to whom she was belonged, she was right at Joe Lynch's when I seed her.

Q What was she doing? A Just right there on the place with them around with the rest of the colored people.

Q What work; did she have any special work? A I can't say that, I can't say that she had any special work to do.

Q How long was she at Joe Lynch's place? A I am not able to say that, I can't say how long had she been there.

Q You don't know who she belonged to? A No, sir, I don't really know.

Q Of your own knowledge? A Of my own knowledge, I don't really know; I have always just like this, I just thought she belonged to Mr. Lynch, she was on the place.

Mr. Davenport: I object to what he thought about it.

Commissioner: He can give the belief he had there.

Mr. Davenport: I object because he has already stated he didn't know to whom she belonged.

Commissioner: Well, that is immaterial.

Q What led you to believe she was a slave? A Well, I can't tell anything about it, she was right on the place with Mr. Lynch's other colored people, and I just supposed she belonged to Mr. Lynch; I can't tell whether she belonged to him or not.

Q You saw her there with the people who did belong to Lynch?

A Yes, sir.

Q And on Mr. Lynch's place? A Yes, sir.

Q And at work there? A Yes, she was right there with the balance of the women.

Q Did you ever hear at that time any question raised as to her not belonging to Lynch? A No, sir, I never heard anything about it.

Mr. Davenport: I object to that question.

Commissioner: He has already stated he didn't know whether she did or not.

O. L. Lynch, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give me your name? A O. L. Lynch.

Q How old are you? A 60.

Q What is your post office? A Stilwell.

James Martin - 13.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Born and raised here.

Q Give me the name of your father? A Joseph M. Lynch.

Q Your father was a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation was he? A Yes, sir, a Cherokee.

Q How long has he been dead? A He died in 1861.

Q Did he own a slave by the name of James Martin? A No, sir.

Q Look around and see that man (indicating applicant). Did he ever own that man? A No, sir.

Q Did that man ever live in your father's place? A Yes, sir, his master was a man by the name of John Harrison, who came in the country, a non citizen.

Q Where did John Harrison come from? A I don't know where he came from when he came to the Nation, but he was a South Carolinian, he claimed to be.

Q He didn't claim to be a Cherokee citizen? A No, sir.

Q Did he bring some slaves with him? A Yes, sir.

Q Did he bring a slave woman named Harriett? A Yes, sir.

Q Did she marry a colored man named Josh Martin? A Well, she lived with him, I don't know whether she married him or not.

Q To whom did that colored man belong? A Belonged to the estate of Sarah Martin.

Q Was Sarah Martin a Cherokee citizen? A Yes, sir.

Q Well now this woman Harriett, at the time she was freed by the war, was she still a slave up to that time of this man Harrison?

A She belonged to John Harrison.

Q Was this man James Martin recognized in that day as the property of this white man Harrison? A He was just a child at that time, quite young.

Q He was recognized as Harrison's property? A He was recognized as John Harrison's property. J. M. Lynch's property was valued and scheduled; Harrison's property was never placed on the schedule as J. M. Lynch's property.

Mr. Smith: I will object to that; it is not the best evidence.

Commissioner: It is proper, as a circumstance of his knowledge.

Q These people were all slaves at the time they were freed by the war, were they? A Yes, sir, they were slaves in '61.

Q Did your mother survive your father? A My mother died first, both died the same year.

Q Did you have brothers and sisters at the time your father died? A Yes, sir.

Q Did any of your father's heirs inherit this woman Harriett or any of her children? A Never did.

Mr. Smith: You say your father died in '61? A My father died in 1861, my mother died in 1861.

Q Well, about when was it that the negroes all went out, or the greater part of them, went out of the Cherokee Nation? A About July, 1862; I know I went out with them a prisoner.

Q How old are you? A I am 60; 60 the 9th of this month; I was born in 1841.

Q With whom did you go out? A I went out with the Government soldiers, I went out as a prisoner of war.

Q And at the same time they took the slaves did them? A The slaves went first.

Q Did they go before or after you went? A Went about the same time; I saw them all along the road.

Q They commenced going before June, 1862, did they? A No, 1862 was the bust up here, about July, 1862.

Q Where were you living? A Living over here on Grand River at what is called Lynch's prairie.

Q Were you living at that place at the time the war broke out?

A Yes, sir, right at that place.

James Martin - 18.

Q The mother of James Martin, Harriett, lived there, didn't she?
A Not ~~that~~ that I can recollect of; John Harrison had control of them up till the bust up.
Q Where was John Harrison? A There in the neighborhood.
Q Wasn't on your place? A He wasn't on our home place, he attended the ranch for my father; John Harrison was a non citizen.
Q Didn't this woman, who was Jim Martin's mother, live on your father's place? A Well, the place belonged to my father, but then John Harrison was living there too.
Q Didn't she live where the slaves of your father lived? A No, sir.
Q Was there an entirely separate and distinct set? A Yes, sir.
Q Then your father didn't have anything to do with these people at all? A Nothing that I know of, nothing at all.
Q Do you know whether your father ever claimed them or not?
A No, sir, never did to my knowledge.
Q You never heard him or Harrison have any dispute about them?
A None whatever.
Q Did Harrison owe your father anything? A Nothing that I know of; they were known and recognized as Harrison's property at that time, and the Lynch darkies were valued and placed on a schedule and these Harrison darkies were never valued and placed on the schedule as J. M. Lynch's property.

Commissioner: The applicant is identified on the Wallace roll, and claims to have lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life, except a brief absence in Kansas during and immediately after the war. For the further consideration of this case, he will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman on a doubtful card, and attention is particularly called to the testimony relating to the ownership of his mother, Harriett Martin, who it appears was a slave in the Cherokee Nation at the time of the Civil war, but it is claimed that she and her child, the applicant, were the property of one Harrison, a white man, and a non citizen of the Cherokee Nation. The fuller decision of the Commission will be made known to the applicant at his postoffice address.
